14 And he carried away all Jerusalem, and all the princes, and all the mighty men of valour, even ten thousand captives, and all the craftsmen and smiths: none remained, save the poorest sort of the people of the land.

15 And he carried away Jehoiachin to Babylon, and the king's mother, and the king's wives, and his officers, and the mighty of the land, those carried he into captivity from Jerusalem to Babylon.

16 And all the men of might, even seven thousand, and craftsmen and smiths a thousand, all that were strong and apt for war, even them the king of Babylon brought captive to Babylon.

17 And the king of Babylon made Mattaniah his father's brother king in his stead, and changed his name to Zedekiah.

18 Zedekiah was twenty and one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: And his mother's name was Hamutal, the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.

19 And he did that which was evil in sight of the LORD, according to all that Jehoiakim had done.

20 For through the anger of the LORD it came to pass in Jerusalem and Judah, until he had cast them out from his presence, that Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

CHAP. XXV.

1 Jerusalem is besieged; 4 Zedekiah taken, his sons slain, and his eyes put out. 8 Nebuzar-adan defaceth the city, carrieth the remnant, except a few poor labourers, into captivity; 13 spoileth and carrieth away the treasures. 18 The nobles are slain at Riblah. 22 Gedaliah, who was set over them that remained, being slain, the rest flee into Egypt. 27 Evil-merodach advanceth Jehoiachin in his court.

AND it came to pass in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came, he, and all his host, against Jerusalem; and pitched against it; and they built forts against it round about.

2 And the city was besieged unto the eleventh year of king Zedekiah.

3 And on the ninth day of the fourth month the famine prevailed in the city, and there was no bread for the people of the land.

4 And the city was broken up, and all the men of war fled by night by the way of the gate between two walls, which is by the king's garden: (now the Chaldees were against the city round about:) and the king went the way toward the plain.

5 And the army of the Chaldees pursued after the king, and overtook him in the plains of Jericho: and all his army were scattered from him.

6 So they took the king, and brought him up to the king of Babylon to Riblah; and they gave judgement upon him.

7 And they slew the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, and put out the eyes of Zedekiah, and bound him with fetters of brass, and carried him to Babylon.

8 And in the fifth month, on the seventh day of the month, which is the nineteenth year of king Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, came Nebuzar-adan, captain of the guard, a servant of the king of Babylon, unto Jerusalem:

9 And he burnt the house of the LORD, and the king's house, and all the houses of Jerusalem, and every great man's house burnt he with fire.

10 And all the army of the Chaldees, that were with the captain of the guard, brake down the walls of Jerusalem round about.

11 Now the rest of the people that were left in the city, and the fugitives that fell away to the king of Babylon, with the remnant of the multitude, did Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard carry away.

12 But the captain of the guard * left of the poor of the land to be vinedressers and husbandmen.

13 ¶ And ^a the ^a pillars of brass that were in the house of the LORD, and ^a the bases, and ^a the brazen sea that was in the house of the LORD, did the Chaldees break in pieces, and carried the brass of them to Babylon.

14 And ^a the pots, and the shovels, and the snuffers, and the spoons, and all the vessels of brass wherewith they ministered, took they away.

15 And the firepans, and the bowels, and such things as were of gold, in gold, and of silver, in silver, the captain of the guard took away.

16 The two pillars, ^a one sea, and the bases which Solomon had made for the house of the LORD; ^a the brass of all these vessels was without weight.

17 ^a The height of the one pillar was eighteen cubits, and the chapter upon it was brass: and the height of the chapter three cubits; and the wreathen work, and pomegranates upon the chapter round about, all of brass: and like unto these had the second pillar with wreathen work.

18 ¶ And the captain of the guard took ^a Seraiah the chief priest, and ^a Zephaniah the second priest, and the three keepers of the ^a door:

19 And out of the city he took an ^a officer, that was set over the men of war, and ^a five men of them that ^a were in the king's presence, which were found in the city, and the ^a principal scribe of the host, which mustered the people of the land, and threescore men of the people of the land that were found in the city:

20 And Nebuzar-adan captain of the guard took these, and brought them to the king of Babylon to Riblah:

21 And the king of Babylon smote them, and slew them at Riblah in the land of Hamath. ^a So Judah was carried away out of their land.

22 ¶ ^a And as for the people that remained in the land of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had left, even over them he made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, ruler.

23 And when all the ^a captains of the armies, they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah governor, there came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, even Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan the son of Careah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, and Jaazaniah the son of a Maachathite, they and their men.

24 And Gedaliah sware to them, and to their men, and said unto them, Fear not to be the servants of the Chaldees: dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon; and it shall be well with you.

25 But ^a it came to pass in the seventh month, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the seed ^a royal, came, and ten men with him, and smote Gedaliah, that he died, and the Jews and the Chaldees that were with him at Mizpah.

26 And all the people, both small and great, and the captains of the armies, arose, ^a and came to Egypt: for they were afraid of the Chaldees.

27 ¶ ^a And it came to pass in the seven and thirtieth year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the seven and twentieth day of the month, that Evil-merodach king of Babylon in the year that he began to reign ^a did lift up the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah out of prison;

28 And he spake ^a kindly to him, and set his throne above the throne of the kings that were with him in Babylon;

29 And changed his prison garments: and he did ^a eat bread continually before him all the days of his life.

30 And his allowance was a continual allowance given him of the king, a daily rate for every day, all the days of his life.

19 And they made war with the Hagarites, with ^t Jetur, and Mephith, and Nodab,

20 And ^u they were helped against them, and the Hagarites were delivered into their hand, and all that were with them: for they cried to God in the battle, and he was intreated of them; because they ^v put their trust in him,

- 15 Now ^fthree of the thirty captains ^gwent down to the rock to David, into the cave of Adullam; and the host of the Philistines encamped ^hin the valley of Rephaim.
- 16 And David was then in the hold, and the Philistines' garrison was then at Beth-lehem.
- 17 And David longed, and said, Oh that one would give me drink of the water of the well of Beth-lehem, that is at the gate!
- 18 And the three brake through the host of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Beth-lehem, that was by the gate, and took it, and brought it to David: but David would not drink of it, but poured it out to the LORD,
- 19 And said, My God forbid it me, that I should do this thing: shall I drink the blood of these men ⁱthat have put their lives in jeopardy? for with the jeopardy of their lives they brought it. Therefore he would not drink it. These things did these three mightiest.
- 20 ^jAnd Abishai the brother of Joab, he was chief of the three: for lifting up his spear against three hundred, he slew them, and had a name among the three.
- 21 ^kOf the three, he was more honourable than the two; for he was their captain: howbeit he attained not to the first three.
- 22 Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the son of a valiant man of Kabzeel, ^lwho had done many acts; ^mhe slew two lionlike men of Moab: also he went down and slew a lion in a pit in a snowy day.
- 23 And he slew an Egyptian, ⁿa man of great stature, five cubits high; and in the Egyptian's hand was a spear like a weaver's beam; and he went down to him with a staff, and plucked the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and slew him with his own spear.
- 24 These things did Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and had a name among the three mighty.
- 25 Behold, he was honourable among the thirty, but attained not to the first three: and David set him over his guard.
- 26 Also the valiant men of the armies were, ^oAfahel the brother of Joab, Elhanan the son of Dodo of Beth-lehem,

CHAP. XII.

1 The companies that came to David at Ziklag.

23 The armies that came to him at Hebron.

NOW these are they that came to David to ^bZiklag, [†]while he yet kept himself close because of Saul the son of Kish: and they were among the mighty men, helpers of the war.

2 They were armed with bows, and could use both the right hand and the left in hurling stones and shooting arrows out of a bow, even of Saul's brethren of Benjamin.

3 The chief was Ahiezer, then Joash, the sons of [¶]Shemaah the Gibeathite; and Jeziel, and Pelet, the sons of Azmaveth; and Berachah, and Jehu the Antothite,

4 And Ismaiah the Gibeonite, a mighty man among the thirty, and over the thirty; and Jeremiah, and Jahaziel, and Johanan, and Josabad the Gederathite,

5 Eluzai, and Jerimoth, and Bealiah, and Shemariah, and Shephatiah the Haruphite,

6 Elkanah, and Jesiah, and Azareel, and Joezer, and Jashobeam, the Korhites,

7 And Joelah, and Zebadiah, the sons of Jeroham of Gedor.

8 And of the Gadites there separated themselves unto David into the hold to the wilderness men of might, and men [†]of war fit for the battle, that could handle shield and buckler, whose faces were like the faces of lions, and were [†]as swift as the roes upon the mountains;

9 Ezer the first, Obadiah the second, Eliab the third,

10 Mishmannah the fourth, Jeremiah the fifth,

11 Attai the sixth, Eliel the seventh,

12 Johanan the eighth, Elzabad the ninth,

13 Jeremiah the tenth, Machbanai the eleventh.

14 These were of the sons of Gad, captains of the host: [¶]one of the least was over an hundred, and the greatest over a thousand.

15 These are they that went over Jordan in the first month, when it had [†]overflowed all his banks; and they put to flight all them of the valleys, both toward the east, and toward the west.

16 And there came of the children of Benjamin and Judah to the hold unto David.

17 And David went out [†]to meet them, and answered and said unto them, If ye be come peaceably unto me to help me, mine heart shall [†]be knit unto you: but if ye be come to betray me to mine enemies, seeing there is no [¶]wrong in mine hands, the God of our fathers look thereon, and rebuke it.

18 Then [†]the spirit came upon [¶]Amasai, who was chief of the captains, and he said, Thine are we, David; and on thy side, thou son of Jesse: peace, peace be unto thee, and peace be to thine helpers; for thy God helpeth thee. Then David received them, and made them captains of the band.

19 And there fell some of Manasseh to David, when he came with the Philistines against Saul to battle: but they helped them not: for the lords of the Philistines upon advisement sent him away, saying, [¶]He will fall to his master Saul [†]to the jeopardy of our heads.

20 As he went to Ziklag; there fell to him of Manasseh, Adnah, and Jozabad, and Jediael, and Michael, and Jozabad, and Elihu, and Zilthai, captains of the thousands that were of Manasseh.

21 And they helped David [¶]against the band of the rovers: for they were all mighty men of valour, and were captains in the host.

22 For at that time day by day there came to David to help him, until it was a great host, like the host of God.

23 ¶ And these are the numbers of the [¶]bands that were ready armed to the war, and came to David to Hebron, to turn the kingdom of Saul to him, according to the word of the LORD.

24 The children of Judah that bare shield and spear were six thousand and eight hundred, ready [¶]armed to the war.

25 Of the children of Simeon, mighty men of valour for the war, seven thousand and one hundred.

26 Of the children of Levi four thousand and six hundred.

27 And Jehoiada was the leader of the Aaronites, and with him were three thousand and seven hundred;

28 And [¶]Zadok, a young man mighty of valour, and of his father's house twenty and two captains.

29 And of the children of Benjamin, the [†]kindred of Saul, three thousand: for hitherto [†]the greatest part of them had kept the ward of the house of Saul.

30 And of the children of Ephraim twenty thousand and eight hundred, mighty men of valour, [†]famous throughout the house of their fathers.

31 And of the half tribe of Manasseh eighteen thousand, which were expressed by name, to come and make David king.

32 And of the children of Issachar, which were men that had understanding of 8 ¶ And when the Philistines heard that David was anointed king over all Israel, all the Philistines went up to seek David. And David heard of it, and went out against them.

9 And the Philistines came and spread themselves in the valley of Rephaim.

10 And David enquired of God, saying, Shall I go up against the Philistines? and wilt thou deliver them into mine hand? And the LORD said unto him, Go up; for I will deliver them into thine hand.

11 So they came up to Baal-perazim; and David smote them there. Then David said, God hath broken in upon mine enemies by mine hand like the breaking forth of waters: therefore they called the name of that place 11 Baal-perazim.

12 And when they had left their gods there, David gave a commandment, and they were burned with fire.

13 And the Philistines yet again spread themselves abroad in the valley.

14 Therefore David enquired again of God; and God said unto him, Go not up after them; turn away from them, and come upon them over against the mulberry trees.

15 And it shall be, when thou shalt hear a sound of going in the tops of the mulberry trees, that then thou shalt go out to battle: for God is gone forth before thee to smite the host of the Philistines.

16 David therefore did as God commanded him: and they smote the host of the Philistines from 11 Gibeon even to Gazer.

17 And 11 the fame of David went out into all lands; and the LORD 1 brought the fear of him upon all nations.

CHAP. XV.

1 David having prepared a place for the ark, ordereth the priests and Levites to bring it from Obed-edom: 25 he performeth the solemnity thereof with great joy. 29 Michal despiseth him.

AND David made him houses in the city of David, and prepared a place for the ark of God, and pitched for it a tent.

2 Then David said, 1 None ought to carry the ark of God but the Levites: for them hath the LORD chosen to carry the ark of God, and to minister unto him for ever.

3 And David 1 gathered all Israel together to Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the LORD unto his place, which he had prepared for it.

4 And David assembled the children of Aaron, and the Levites:

5 Of the sons of Kohath; Uriel the chief, and his 11 brethren an hundred and twenty:

6 Of the sons of Merari; Asaiah the chief, and his brethren two hundred and twenty:

7 Of the sons of Gershon; Joel the chief, and his brethren an hundred and thirty:

8 Of the sons of 11 Elizaphan; Shemaiah the chief, and his brethren two hundred:

9 Of the sons of 11 Hebron; Eliel the chief, and his brethren fourscore:

10 Of the sons of Uzziel; Amminadab the chief, and his brethren an hundred and twelve.

11 And David called for Zadok and Abiathar the priests, and for the Levites, for Uriel, Asaiah, and Joel, Shemaiah, and Eliel, and Amminadab, 12 And said unto them, Ye are the chief of the fathers of the Levites: sanctify yourselves, both ye and your brethren, that ye may bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel unto the place that I have prepared for it.

13 For 1 because ye did it not at the first, 1 the LORD our God made a breach upon us, for that we fought him not after the due order.

14 So the priests and the Levites sanctified themselves to bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel.

15 And the children of the Levites bare the ark of God upon their shoulders with the staves thereon, as 11 Moses commanded according to the word of the LORD.

16 And David spake to the chief of the Levites to appoint their brethren to be the fingers with instruments of musick, psalteries and harps and cymbals; founding, by lifting up the voice with joy.

17 So the Levites appointed 1 Heman the son of Joel; and of his brethren, 1 Asaph the son of Berechiah; and of the sons of Merari their brethren, 1 Ethan the son of Kushaiah;

18 And with them their brethren of the second degree, Zechariah, Ben, and Jaaziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, Eliab, and Benaiah, and Maaseiah, and Mattithiah, and Elipheleh, and Mikneiah, and Obed-edom, and Jeiel, the porters.

19 So the fingers, Heman, Asaph, and Ethan, were appointed to sound with cymbals of brass;

20 And Zechariah, and 11 Aziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, and Eliab, and Maaseiah, and Benaiah, with psalteries 11 on Alamoth;

25 ¶ So ^o David, and the elders of Israel, and the captains over thousands, went to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the house of Obed-edom with joy.

26 And it came to pass, when God helped the Levites that bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD, that they offered seven bullocks and seven rams.

27 And David was clothed with a robe of fine linen, and all the Levites that bare the ark, and the singers, and Chenaniah the master of the ^{||} song with the singers: David also had upon him an ephod of linen.

28 [†] Thus all Israel brought up the ark of the covenant of the LORD with shouting, and with sound of the cornet, and with trumpets, and with cymbals, making a noise with psalteries and harps.

29 ¶ And it came to pass, ^q as the ark of the covenant of the LORD came to the city of David, that Michal the daughter of Saul looking out at a window saw king David dancing and playing: and she despised him in her heart.

CHAP. XVI.

1 David's festival sacrifice: 4 he ordereth a choir to sing thanksgiving: 7 the psalm of thanksgiving: 37 he appointeth ministers, porters, priests, and musicians, to attend continually on the ark.

SO ^a they brought the ark of God, and set it in the midst of the tent that David had pitched for it: and they offered burnt sacrifices and peace offerings before God.

2 And when David had made an end of offering the burnt offerings and the peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD.

3 And he dealt to every one of Israel, both man and woman, to every one a loaf of bread, and a good piece of flesh, and a flagon of wine.

4 ¶ And he appointed certain of the Levites to minister before the ark of the LORD, and to ^b record, and to thank and praise the LORD God of Israel:

5 Asaph the chief, and next to him Zechariah, Jeiel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Mattithiah, and Eliab, and Benaiah, and Obed-edom: and Jeiel [†] with psalteries and with harps; but Asaph made a sound with cymbals;

6 Benaiah also and Jahaziel the priests with trumpets continually before the ark of the covenant of God.

7 ¶ Then on that day David delivered ^c first this psalm to thank the LORD into the hand of Asaph and his brethren.

8 Give thanks unto the LORD, call upon his name, make known his deeds among the people.

9 Sing unto him, sing psalms unto him, talk ye of all his wondrous works, 10 Glory ye in his holy name: let the heart of them rejoice that seek the LORD.

11 Seek the LORD and his strength, seek his face continually.

26 For all the gods ^k of the people are idols: but the LORD made the heavens.

28 Give unto the LORD, ye kindreds of the people, give unto the LORD glory and strength.

29 Give unto the LORD the glory due unto his name: bring an offering, and come before him: worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness.

30 Fear before him, all the earth: the world also shall be stable, that it be not moved.

31 Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice: and let men say among the nations, The LORD reigneth.

32 Let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof: let the fields rejoice, and all that is therein.

33 Then shall the trees of the wood sing out at the presence of the LORD, because he cometh to judge the earth.

34 O give thanks unto the LORD; for he is good; for his mercy endureth for ever.

35 And say ye, Save us, O God of our salvation, and gather us together, and deliver us from the heathen, that we may give thanks to thy holy name, and glory in thy praise.

36 Blessed be the LORD God of Israel for ever and ever. And all the people said, Amen, and praised the LORD.

37 So he left there before the ark of the covenant of the LORD Asaph and his brethren, to minister before the ark continually, as every day's work required:

38 And Obed-edom with their brethren, threescore and eight; Obed-edom also the son of Jeduthun and Hosah to be porters:

39 And Zadok the priest, and his brethren the priests, before the tabernacle of the LORD in the high place that was at Gibeon,

40 To offer burnt offerings unto the LORD upon the altar of the burnt offering continually: and morning and evening, and to do according to all that is written in the law of the LORD, which he commanded Israel;

41 And with them Heman and Jeduthun, and the rest that were chosen, who were expressed by name, to give thanks to the LORD, because his mercy endureth for ever;

42 And with them Heman and Jeduthun with trumpets and cymbals for those that should make a sound, and with musical instruments of God. And the sons of Jeduthun were porters.

43 And all the people departed every man to his house: and David returned to bless his house.

CHAP. XVII.

1 Nathan first approving the purpose of David, to build God an house, 3 after by the word of God forbiddeth him: 11 he promiseth him blessings and benefits in his seed: 16 David's prayer and thanksgiving.

NOW it came to pass, as David sat in his house, that David said to Nathan the prophet, Lo, I dwell in an house of cedars, but the ark of the covenant of the LORD remaineth under curtains.

2 Then Nathan said unto David, Do all that is in thine heart; for God is with thee.

3 And it came to pass the same night, that the word of God came to Nathan, saying,

4 Go and tell David my servant, Thus saith the LORD, Thou shalt not build me an house to dwell in:

5 For I have not dwelt in an house since the day that I brought up Israel unto this day; but I have gone from tent to tent, and from one tabernacle to another.

6 Wheresoever I have walked with all Israel, spake I a word to any of the judges of Israel whom I commanded to feed my people, saying, Why have ye not built me an house of cedars?

7 Now therefore thus shalt thou say unto my servant David, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, I took thee from the sheepcote, even from following the sheep, that thou shouldst be ruler over my people Israel:

8 And I have been with thee whithersoever thou hast walked, and have cut off all thine enemies from before thee, and have made thee a name like the name of the great men that are in the earth.

9 Also I will ordain a place for my people Israel, and will plant them, and they shall dwell in their place, and shall be removed no more; neither shall the children of wickedness waste them any more, as at the beginning,

10 And since the time that I commanded judges to be over my people Israel. Moreover I will subdue all thine enemies. Furthermore I tell thee that the LORD will build thee an house.

11 And it shall come to pass, when thy days be expired that thou must go to be with thy fathers, that I will raise up thy seed after thee, which shall be of thy sons; and I will establish his kingdom.

12 He shall build me an house, and I will stablish his throne for ever.

13 I will be his father, and he shall be my son: and I will not take my mercy away from him, as I took it from him that was before thee:

14 But ^c I will settle him in mine house and in my kingdom for ever: and his throne shall be established for evermore.

15 According to all these words, and according to all this vision, so did Nathan speak unto David.

16 ¶ And David the king came and sat before the LORD, and said, Who am I, O LORD God, and what is mine house, that thou hast brought me hitherto?

17 And yet this was a small thing in thine eyes, O God; for thou hast also spoken of thy servant's house for a great while to come, and hast regarded me according to the estate of a man of high degree, O LORD God.

18 What can David speak more to thee for the honour of thy servant? for thou knowest thy servant.

19 O LORD, for thy servant's sake, and according to thine own heart, hast thou done all this greatness, in making known all these [†] great things.

20 O LORD, there is none like thee, neither is there any God beside thee, according to all that we have heard with our ears.

21 And what one nation in the earth is like thy people Israel, whom God went to redeem to be his own people, to make thee a name of greatness and terribleness, by driving out nations from before thy people, whom thou hast redeemed out of Egypt?

22 For thy people Israel didst thou make thine own people forever; and thou, LORD, becamest their God.

23 Therefore now, LORD, let the thing that thou hast spoken concerning thy servant and concerning his house be established for ever, and do as thou hast said.

24 Let it even be established, that thy name may be magnified for ever, saying, The LORD of hosts is the God of Israel, even a God to Israel: and let the house of David thy servant be established before thee.

25 For thou, O my God, [†] hast told thy servant that thou wilt build him an house: therefore thy servant hath found in his heart to pray before thee.

26 And now, LORD, thou art God, and hast promised this goodness unto thy servant:

27 Now therefore ¶ let it please thee to bless the house of thy servant, that it may be before thee for ever: for thou bledest, O LORD, and it shall be blessed for ever.

1 David subdueth the Philistines and the Moabites: 3 he smiteth Hadarezer and the Syrians.

9 Thou sendest Hadoram with presents to bless David. 11 The presents and the spoil David dedicateth to God: 13 he putteth garrisons in Edom. 14 David's officers.

NOW after this ^a it came to pass, that David smote the Philistines, and subdued them, and took Gath and her towns out of the hand of the Philistines.

2 And he smote Moab; and the Moabites became David's servants, and brought gifts.

3 ¶ And David smote ¶ Hadarezer king of Zobah unto Hamath, as he went to stablish his dominion by the river Euphrates.

4 And David took from him a thousand chariots, and ^b seven thousand horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen: David also houghed all the chariot horses, but reserved of them an hundred chariots.

5 And when the Syrians of [†] Damascus came to help Hadarezer king of Zobah, David slew of the Syrians two and twenty thousand men.

6 Then David put garrisons in Syria-damascus; and the Syrians became David's servants, and brought gifts. Thus the LORD preserved David whithersoever he went.

7 And David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadarezer, and brought them to Jerusalem.

8 Likewise from ¶ Tibhath, and from Chun, cities of Hadarezer, brought David very much brass, wherewith ^c Solomon made the brazen sea, and the pillars, and the vessels of brass.

9 ¶ Now when ¶ Tou king of Hamath heard how David had smitten all the host of Hadarezer king of Zobah;

10 He sent ¶ Hadoram his son to king David, ¶ to enquire of his welfare, and [†] to congratulate him, because he had fought against Hadarezer, and smitten him; (for Hadarezer [†] had war with Tou;) and with him all manner of vessels of gold and silver and brass.

11 Then also king David dedicated unto the LORD, with the silver and the gold that he brought from all these nations; from Edom, and from Moab, and from the children of Ammon, and from the Philistines, and from Amalek.

12 Moreover [†] Abishai the son of Zeruiah slew of the Edomites in the valley of salt ^d eighteen thousand.

13 ¶ And he put garrisons in Edom; and all the Edomites became David's servants. Thus the LORD preserved David whithersoever he went.

14 ¶ So David reigned over all Israel, and executed judgement and justice among all his people.

CHAP. XIX.

1 David's messengers sent to comfort Hanun the son of Nahash, are villainously entreated: 6 The Ammonites strengthened by the Syrians, are overcome by Joab and Abishai. 16 Shophach making a new supply of the Syrians, is slain by David.

NOW it came to pass after this, that Nahash the king of the children of Ammon died; and his son reigned in his stead.

2 And David said, I will shew kindness unto Hanun the son of Nahash, because his father shewed kindness to me. And David sent messengers to comfort him concerning his father. So the servants of David came into the land of the children of Ammon to Hanun, to comfort him.

3 But the princes of the children of Ammon said to Hanun, Thinkest thou that David doth honour thy father, that he hath sent comforters unto thee? are not his servants come unto thee for to search, and to overthrow, and to spy out the land?

4 Wherefore Hanun took David's servants, and shaved them, and cut off their garments in the midst hard by their buttocks, and sent them away.

5 Then there went certain, and told David how the men were served. And he sent to meet them: for the men were greatly ashamed. And the king said, Tarry at Jericho until your beards be grown; and then return.

6 And when the children of Ammon saw that they had made themselves odious to David, Hanun and the children of Ammon sent a thousand talents of silver to hire them chariots and horsemen out of Mesopotamia, and out of Syria-maachah, and out of Zobah.

7 So they hired thirty and two thousand chariots, and the king of Maachah and his people; who came and pitched before Medeba. And the children of Ammon gathered themselves together from their cities, and came to battle.

8 And when David heard of it, he sent Joab, and all the host of the mighty men.

9 And the children of Ammon came out, and put the battle in array before the gate of the city: and the kings that were come were by themselves in the field.

10 Now when Joab saw that the battle was set against him before and behind, he chose out of all the choice of Israel, and put them in array against the Syrians.

11 And the rest of the people he delivered unto the hand of Abishai his brother, and they set themselves in array against the children of Ammon.

12 And he said, If the Syrians be too strong for me, then thou shalt help me: but if the children of Ammon be too strong for thee, then I will help thee.

13 Be of good courage, and let us behave ourselves valiantly for our people, and for the cities of our God: and let the Lord do that which is good in his sight.

14 So Joab and the people that were with him drew nigh before the Syrians unto the battle; and they fled before him.

15 And when the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fled, they likewise fled before Abishai his brother, and entered into the city. Then Joab came to Jerusalem.

16 And when the Syrians saw that they were put to the worse before Israel, they sent messengers, and drew forth the Syrians that were beyond the river: and Shophach the captain of the host of Hadarezer went before them.

17 And it was told David; and he gathered all Israel, and passed over Jordan, and came upon them, and set the battle in array against them. So when David had put the battle in array against the Syrians, they fought with him.

18 But the Syrians fled before Israel; and David slew of the Syrians seven thousand men which fought in chariots, and forty thousand footmen, and killed Shophach the captain of the host.

19 And when the servants of Hadarezer saw that they were put to the worse before Israel, they made peace with David, and became his servants: neither would the Syrians help the children of Ammon any more.

2 And David ^c took the crown of their king from off his head, and found it [†] to weigh a talent of gold, and there were precious stones in it; and it was set upon David's head: and he brought also exceeding much spoil out of the city.

3 And he brought out the people that were in it, and cut them with saws, and with harrows of iron, and with axes. Even so dealt David with all the cities of the children of Ammon. And David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

4 ¶ And it came to pass after this, ^d that there [†] arose war at ^{||} Gezer with the Philistines; at which time ^e Sibbechai the Hushathite slew ^{||} Sippai, that was of the children of ^{||} the giant: and they were subdued.

5 And there was war again with the Philistines; and Elhanan the son of ^{||} Jair slew Lahmi the brother of Goliath the Gittite, whose spear staff was like a weaver's beam.

7 But when he ^{||} defied Israel, Jonathan the son of ^{||} Shimea David's brother slew him.

8 These were born unto the giant in Gath; and they fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants.

CHAP. XXI.

1 David tempted by Satan, forceth Joab to number the people. 5 The number of the people being brought, David repenteth of it. 9 David having three plagues propounded by Gad, chooseth the pestilence. 14 After the death of seventy thousand, David by repentance preventeth the destruction of Jerusalem. 18 David by Gad's direction, purchaseth Ornan's threshingfloor: where having built an altar, God giveth a sign of his favour by fire, and stayeth the plague. 28 David sacrificeth there, being restrained from Gibeon by fear of the angel.

AND ^a Satan stood up against Israel, and provoked David to number Israel.

2 And David said to Joab and to the rulers of the people, Go, number Israel from Beer-sheba even to Dan; ^b and bring the number of them to me, that I may know it.

3 And Joab answered, The LORD make his people an hundred times so many more as they be: but, my lord the king; are they not all my lord's servants? why then doth my lord require this thing? why will he be a cause of trespass to Israel?

4 Nevertheless the king's word prevailed against Joab. Wherefore Joab departed, and went throughout all Israel, and came to Jerusalem.

5 ¶ And Joab gave the sum of the number of the people unto David. And all they of Israel were a thousand thousand and an hundred thousand men that drew sword: and Judah was four hundred threescore and ten thousand men that drew sword.

6 ^c But Levi and Benjamin counted he not among them: for the king's word was abominable to Joab.

7 ¶ And God was displeased with this thing; therefore he smote Israel.

8 And David said unto God, ^d I have sinned greatly, because I have done this thing: ^e but now, I beseech thee, do away the iniquity of thy servant; for I have done very foolishly.

9 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Gad, David's ^f seer, saying,

10 Go and tell David, saying, Thus saith the LORD, I [†] offer thee three things: choose thee one of them, that I may do it unto thee.

11 So Gad came to David, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, [†] Choose thee

12 ^g Either three years famine; or three months to be destroyed before thy foes, while that the sword of thine enemies overtaketh thee; or else three days the sword of the LORD, even the pestilence, in the land, and the angel of the LORD destroying throughout all the coasts of Israel. Now therefore advise thyself what word I shall bring again to him that sent me.

13 And David said unto Gad, I am in a great strait: let me fall now into the hand of the LORD; for very ^{||} great are his mercies: but let me not fall into the hand of man.

14 ¶ So the LORD sent pestilence upon Israel: and there fell of Israel seventy thousand men.

15 And God sent an ^h angel unto Jerusalem to destroy it: and as he was destroying, the LORD beheld, and ⁱ he repented him of the evil, and said to the angel that destroyed, It is enough, stay now thine hand. And the angel of the LORD stood by the threshingfloor of ^{||} Ornan the Jebusite.

16 ¶ And David lifted up his eyes, and ^k saw the angel of the LORD stand between the earth and the heaven, having a drawn sword in his hand stretched out over Jerusalem. Then David and the elders of Israel who were clothed in sackcloth, fell upon their faces.

17 And David said unto God, Is it not

1 Or, When Ornan turned back and saw the angel, then he and his four sons with him hid themselves.

20 ¶ And Ornan turned back, and saw the angel; and his four sons with him hid themselves. Now Ornan was threshing wheat.

21 And as David came to Ornan, Ornan looked and saw David, and went out of the threshingfloor, and bowed himself to David with his face to the ground.

22 Then David said to Ornan, † Grant me the place of this threshingfloor, that I may build an altar therein unto the LORD: thou shalt grant it me for the full price: that the plague may be stayed from the people.

23 And Ornan said unto David, Take it to thee, and let my lord the king do that which is good in his eyes: lo, I give thee the oxen also for burnt offerings, and the threshing instruments for wood, and the wheat for the meat offering; I give it all.

1 David foreknowing the place of the temple, prepareth abundance for the building of it: 6 he instructeth Solomon in God's promises, and his duty in building the temple: 17 he chargeth the princes to assist his son.

THEN David said, * This is the house of the LORD God, and this is the altar of the burnt offering for Israel.

2 And David commanded to gather together ^b the strangers that were in the land of Israel; and he set masons to hew wrought stones to build the house of God.

3 And David prepared iron in abundance for the nails for the doors of the gates, and for the joinings; and brass in abundance ^c without weight;

4 Also cedar trees in abundance: for the ^d Zidonians and they of Tyre brought much cedar wood to David.

5 And David said, * Solomon my son is young and tender, and the house that is to be builded for the LORD must be exceeding magnifical, of fame and of glory throughout all countries: I will therefore now make preparation for it. So David prepared abundantly before his death.

6 ¶ Then he called for Solomon his son, and charged him to build an house for the LORD God of Israel.

7 And David said to Solomon, My son, as for me, ^e it was in my mind to build an house ^e unto the name of the LORD my God:

8 But the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ^f Thou hast shed blood abundantly, and hast made great wars: thou shalt not build an house unto my name, because thou hast shed much blood upon the earth in my sight.

14 Now, behold, ^{||} in my trouble I have prepared for the house of the LORD an hundred thousand talents of gold, and a thousand thousand talents of silver; and of brass and iron [†] without weight; for it is in abundance: timber also and stone have I prepared; and thou mayest add thereto.

15 Moreover there are workmen with thee in abundance, hewers and ^{||} workers of stone and timber; and all manner of cunning men for every manner of work.

16 Of the gold, the silver, and the brass, and the iron, there is no number. Arise therefore, and be doing, and [†] the LORD be with thee.

17 [¶] David also commanded all the princes of Israel to help Solomon his son, saying,

18 Is not the LORD your God with you? [†] and hath he not given you rest on every side? for he hath given the inhabitants of the land into mine hand; and the land is subdued before the LORD, and before his people.

19 Now ^{||} set your heart and your soul to seek the LORD your God; arise therefore, and build ye the sanctuary of the LORD God, to [†] bring the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and the holy vessels of God, into the house that is to be built [†] to the name of the LORD.

CHAP. XXIII.

1 David in his old age maketh Solomon king. 2 The number and distribution of the Levites. 7 The families of the Gershonites. 12 The sons of Kohath. 21 The sons of Merari. 24 The office of the Levites.

SO when David was old and full of days, he made ^a Solomon his son king over Israel.

2 [¶] And he gathered together all the princes of Israel, with the priests and the Levites.

3 Now the Levites were numbered from the age of ^b thirty years and upward: and their number by their polls, man by man, was thirty and eight thousand.

4 Of which, twenty and four thousand were ^{||} to set forward the work of the house of the LORD; and six thousand were ^c officers and judges:

5 Moreover four thousand were porters; and four thousand praised the LORD with the instruments ^d which I made, said David, to praise therewith.

6 And ^e David divided them into [†] courses among the sons of Levi, namely, Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

7 Of the ^f Gershonites were, ^{||} Laadan, and Shimei.

8 The sons of Laadan; the chief was Jehiel, and Zetham, and Joel, three.

9 The sons of Shimei; Shelomith, and Haziel, and Haran, three. These were the chief of the fathers of Laadan.

10 And the sons of Shimei were, Jahath, ^{||} Zina, and Jeush, and Beriah. These four were the sons of Shimei.

11 And Jahath was the chief, and Zizah the second: but Jeush and Beriah [†] had not many sons; therefore they were in one reckoning, according to their father's house.

12 [¶] The sons of Kohath; Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel, four.

13 The sons of ^a Amram; Aaron, and Moses: and [†] Aaron was separated, that he should sanctify the most holy things, he and his sons for ever, ^b to burn incense before the LORD, [†] to minister unto him, and ^m to bless in his name for ever.

14 Now concerning Moses the man of God, ⁿ his sons were named of the tribe of Levi.

15 ^o The sons of Moses were, Gershom, and Eliezer.

16 Of the sons of Gershom, ^p ^{||} Shebuel was the chief.

17 And the sons of Eliezer were, ^q Rehabiah ^{||} the chief. And Eliezer had none other sons; but the sons of Rehabiah [†] were very many.

18 Of the sons of Izhar; ^{||} Shelomith the chief.

19 ^r Of the sons of Hebron; Jeriah the first, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, and Jekameam the fourth.

20 Of the sons of Uzziel; Micah the first, and Jeshiah the second.

21 ^s [¶] The sons of Merari; Mahli, and Mushi. The sons of Mahli; Eleazar, and ^t Kish.

22 And Eleazar died, and ^u had no sons, but daughters: and their ^{||} brethren the sons of Kish ^v took them.

23 ^w The sons of Mushi; Mahli, and Eder, and Jeremoth, three.

24 ^x [¶] These were the sons of ^z Levi after the house of their fathers; even the chief of the fathers, as they were counted by number of names by their polls, that did the work for the service of the house of the LORD, from the age of ^z twenty years and upward.

25 For David said, The LORD God of Israel ^b hath given rest unto his people, ^{||} that they may dwell in Jerusalem for ever:

27 For by the last words of David the Levites were [†] numbered from twenty years old and above:

28 Because [†] their office was to wait on the sons of Aaron for the service of the house of the LORD, in the courts, and in the chambers, and in the purifying of all holy things, and the work of the service of the house of God;

29 Both for ^d the shewbread, and for ^e the fine flour for meat offering, and for ^f the unleavened cakes, and for ^g that which is baked in the ^h pan, and for that which is fried, and for all manner of ⁱ measure and size;

31 And to offer all burnt sacrifices unto the LORD ⁱ in the sabbaths, in the new moons, and on the ^k set feasts, by number, according to the order commanded unto them, continually before the LORD:

32 And that they should ^l keep the charge of the tabernacle of the congregation, and the charge of the holy place, and ^m the charge of the sons of Aaron their brethren, in the service of the house of the LORD.

C H A P. XXIV.

1 The divisions of the sons of Aaron by lot into four and twenty orders. 20 The Kohathites, 27 and the Merarites divided by lot.

NOW these are the divisions of the sons of Aaron. ^a The sons of Aaron; Nadab, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

2 But ^b Nadab and Abihu died before their father, and had no children: therefore Eleazar and Ithamar executed the priest's office.

3 And David distributed them, both Zadok of the sons of Eleazar, and Ahimelech of the sons of Ithamar, according to their offices in their service.

4 And there were more chief men found of the sons of Eleazar than of the sons of Ithamar; and thus were they divided. Among the sons of Eleazar there were sixteen chief men of the house of their fathers, and eight among the sons of Ithamar according to the house of their fathers.

5 Thus were they divided by lot, one sort with another; for the governors of the sanctuary, and governors of the house of God, were of the sons of Eleazar, and of the sons of Ithamar.

6 And Shemaiah the son of Nethaneel the scribe, one of the Levites, wrote them before the king, and the princes, and Zadok the priest, and Ahimelech the son of Abiathar, and before the chief of the fathers of the priests and Levites: one [†] principal household being taken for Eleazar, and one taken for Ithamar.

7 Now the first lot came forth to Jehoiarib, the second to Jedaiah,

8 The third to Harim, the fourth to Seorim,

9 The fifth to Malchijah, the sixth to Mijamin,

10 The seventh to Hakkoz, the eighth to ^c Abijah,

11 The ninth to Jeshuah, the tenth to Shecaniah,

12 The eleventh to Eliashib, the twelfth to Jakim,

13 The thirteenth to Huppah, the fourteenth to Jeshbeab,

14 The fifteenth to Bilgah, the sixteenth to Immer,

15 The seventeenth to Hezir, the eighteenth to Aphses,

16 The nineteenth to Pethahiah, the twentieth to Jehezkel,

17 The one and twentieth to Jachin, the two and twentieth to Gamul, 18 The three and twentieth to Delaiah, the four and twentieth to Maaziah.

19 These were the orderings of them in their service ^d to come into the house of the LORD, according to their manner, under Aaron their father, as the LORD God of Israel had commanded him.

20 ¶ And the rest of the sons of Levi were these: Of the sons of Amram; ^e Shubael: of the sons of Shubael; Jehdeiah.

21 Concerning ^f Rehabiah: of the sons of Rehabiah, the first was Ishiah.

22 Of the Izharites; ^g Shelomoth: of the sons of Shelomoth; Jahath.

23 And the sons of ^h Hebron; Jeriah the first, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, Jekameam the fourth.

24 Of the sons of Uzziel; Michah: of the sons of Michah; Shamir.

25 The brother of Michah was Ishiah: of the sons of Ishiah; Zechariah.

26 ¶ The sons of Merari were Mahli and Mushi: the sons of Jaaziah; Beno.

27 The sons of Merari by Jaaziah; Beno, and Shoham, and Zaccur, and Ibri.

28 Of Mahli came Eleazar, ^k who had no sons.

29 Concerning Kish: the son of Kish was Jerahmeel.

30 The sons also of Mushi; Mahli, and Eder, and Jerimoth. These were the sons of the Levites after the house of their fathers.

10 The seventh captain for the seventh month was Helez the Pelonite, of the children of Ephraim: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

11 The eighth captain for the eighth month was Sibbecai the Hushathite, of the Zarahites: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

12 The ninth captain for the ninth month was Abiezer the Anetothite, of the Benjamites: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

13 The tenth captain for the tenth month was Maharai the Netophathite, of the Zarahites: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

14 The eleventh captain for the eleventh month was Benaiah the Pirathonite, of the children of Ephraim: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

15 The twelfth captain for the twelfth month was Heldai the Netophathite, of Othniel: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

16 Furthermore over the tribes of Israel: the ruler of the Reubenites was Eliezer the son of Zichri: of the Simeonites, Shephatiah the son of Maachah:

17 Of the Levites, Hahabiah the son of Kemuel: of the Aaronites, Zadok:

18 Of Judah, Elihu, one of the brethren of David: of Issachar, Omri the son of Michael:

19 Of Zebulun, Ishmaiah the son of Obadiah; of Naphtali, Jerimoth the son of Azriel:

20 Of the children of Ephraim, Hoshea the son of Azaziah: of the half tribe of Manasseh, Joel the son of Pedaias:

21 Of the half tribe of Manasseh in Gilead, Iddo the son of Zechariah: of Benjamin, Jaasiel the son of Abner:

22 Of Dan, Azareel the son of Jeroham. These were the princes of the tribes of Israel.

23 But David took not the number of them from twenty years old and under: because the LORD had said he would increase Israel like to the stars of the heavens.

24 Joab the son of Zeruiah began to number, but he finished not, because there fell wrath for it against Israel; neither was the number put in the account of the chronicles of king David.

25 And over the king's treasures was Azmaveth the son of Adiel: and over the storehouses in the fields, in the cities, and in the villages, and in the castles, was Jehonathan the son of Uziah:

26 And over them that did the work of the field for tillage of the ground was Ezri the son of Chelub:

27 And over the vineyards was Shimei the Ramathite: over the increase of the vineyards for the wine cellars was Zabdi the Shiphmite:

28 And over the olive trees and the sycamore trees that were in the low plains was Baal-hanan the Gederite: and over the cellars of oil was Joash:

29 And over the herds that fed in Sharon was Shitrai the Sharonite: and over the herds that were in the valleys was Shaphat the son of Adlai:

30 Over the camels also was Obil the Ishmaelite: and over the asses was Jehdeiah the Meronothite:

31 And over the flocks was Jaziz the Hagarite. All these were the rulers of the substance which was king David's.

32 Also Jonathan David's uncle was a counsellor, a wise man, and a scribe; and Jehiel the son of Hachmoni was with the king's sons:

33 And Ahithophel was the king's counsellor: and Hushai the Archite was the king's companion:

34 And after Ahithophel was Jehoiada the son of Benaiah, and Abiathar: and the general of the king's army was Joab.

CHAP. XXVIII.

1 David in a solemn assembly, having declared God's favour to him, and promise to his son Solomon, exhorteth them to fear God: 9, 20 he encourageth Solomon to build the temple: 11 he giveth him patterns for the form, and gold and silver for the materials.

stered to the king by course, and the captains over the thousands, and captains over the hundreds, and the stewards over all the substance and possession of the king, and of his sons, with the officers, and with the mighty men, and with all the valiant men, unto Jerusalem.

2 Then David the king stood up upon his feet, and said, Hear me, my brethren, and my people: As for me, * I had in mine heart to build an house of rest for the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and for the footstool of our God, and had made ready for the building:

3 But God said unto me, * Thou shalt not build an house for my name, because thou hast been a man of war, and hast shed blood.

4 Howbeit the LORD God of Israel chose me before all the house of my father to be king over Israel for ever: for he hath chosen Judah to be the ruler; and of the house of Judah, * the house of my father: and among the sons of my father he liked me to make me king over all Israel:

5 And of all my sons, (for the LORD hath given me many sons,) he hath chosen Solomon my son to sit upon the throne of the kingdom of the LORD over Israel.

6 And he said unto me, * Solomon thy son, he shall build my house and my courts: for I have chosen him to be my son, and I will be his father.

7 Moreover I will establish his kingdom for ever, * if he be constant to do my commandments and my judgements, as at this day.

8 Now therefore in the sight of all Israel the congregation of the LORD, and in the audience of our God, keep and seek for all the commandments of the LORD your God: that ye may possess this good land, and leave it for an inheritance for your children after you for ever.

9 And thou, Solomon my son, know thou the God of thy father, and serve him with a perfect heart and with a willing mind: for the LORD searcheth all hearts, and understandeth all the imaginations of the thoughts: if thou seek him, he will be found of thee; but if thou forsake him, he will cast thee off for ever.

10 Take heed now; * for the LORD hath chosen thee to build an house for the sanctuary: be strong, and do it.

11 Then David gave to Solomon his son the pattern of the porch, and of the houses thereof, and of the treasuries thereof, and of the upper chambers thereof, and of the inner parlours thereof, and of the place of the mercy seat,

12 And the pattern of all that he had by the spirit, of the courts of the house of the LORD, and of all the chambers round about, of the treasuries of the house of God, and of the treasuries of the dedicated things:

13 Also for the courses of the priests and the Levites, and for all the work of the service of the house of the LORD, and for all the vessels of service in the house of the LORD.

14 He gave of gold by weight for things of gold, for all instruments of all manner of service; silver also for all instruments of silver by weight, for all instruments of every kind of service:

15 Even the weight for the candlesticks of gold, and for their lamps of gold, by weight for every candlestick, and for the lamps thereof: and for the candlesticks of silver by weight, both for the candlestick, and also for the lamps thereof, according to the use of every candlestick.

16 And by weight he gave gold for the tables of shewbread, for every table; and likewise silver for the tables of silver:

17 Also pure gold for the fleshhooks, and the bowls, and the cups: and for the golden basins he gave gold by weight for every basin; and likewise silver by weight for every basin of silver:

18 And for the altar of incense refined gold by weight; and gold for the pattern of the chariot of the cherubims, that spread out their wings, and covered the ark of the covenant of the LORD.

19 All this, said David, the LORD made me understand in writing by his hand upon me, even all the works of this pattern.

20 And David said to Solomon his son, Be strong and of good courage, and do it: fear not, nor be dismayed: for the LORD God, even my God, will be with thee; he will not fail thee, nor forsake thee, until thou hast finished all the work for the service of the house of the LORD.

21 And, behold, the courses of the priests and the Levites, even they shall be with thee for all the service of the house of God: and there shall be with thee for all manner of workmanship every willing skilful man, for any manner of service: also the princes and all the people will be wholly at thy commandment.

FURTHERMORE David the king said unto all the congregation, Solomon my son, whom God alone hath chosen, is yet young and tender, and the work is great: for the palace is not for man, but for the LORD God.

2 Now I have prepared with all my might for the house of my God the gold for things to be made of gold, and the silver for things of silver, and the brass for things of brass, the iron for things of iron, and wood for things of wood; ^b onyx stones, and stones to be set, glistering stones, and of divers colours, and all manner of precious stones, and marble stones in abundance.

3 Moreover, because I have set my affection to the house of my God, I have of mine own proper good, of gold and silver, which I have given to the house of my God, over and above all that I have prepared for the holy house,

4 Even, three thousand talents of gold, of the gold of ^c Ophir, and seven thousand talents of refined silver, to overlay the walls of the houses withal:

5 The gold for things of gold, and the silver for things of silver, and for all manner of work to be made by the hands of artificers. And who then is willing [†] to consecrate his service this day unto the LORD?

6 ¶ Then ^d the chief of the fathers and princes of the tribes of Israel, and the captains of thousands and of hundreds, with ^e the rulers of the king's work, offered willingly,

7 And gave for the service of the house of God, of gold five thousand talents and ten thousand drams, and of silver ten thousand talents, and of brass eighteen thousand talents, and one hundred thousand talents of iron.

8 And they with whom precious stones were found gave them to the treasure of the house of the LORD, by the hand of ^f Jehiel the Gershonite.

9 Then the people rejoiced, for that they offered willingly, because with perfect heart they ^g offered willingly to the LORD: and David the king also rejoiced with great joy.

10 ¶ Wherefore David blessed the LORD before all the congregation: and David said, Blessed be thou, LORD God of Israel our father, for ever and ever.

11 ^h Thine, O LORD, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty: for all that is in the heaven and in the earth is ⁱ thine; thine is the kingdom, O LORD, and thou art exalted as head above all.

12 Both riches and honour come of thee, and thou reignest over all; and in thine hand is power and might; and in thine hand it is to make great, and to give strength unto all.

13 Now therefore, our God, we thank thee, and praise thy glorious name.

14 But who am I, and what is my people, that we should be [†] able to offer so willingly after this sort? for all things come of thee, and [†] of thine own have we given thee.

15 For ^k we are strangers before thee, and sojourners, as were all our fathers: ^l our days on the earth are as a shadow, and there is none [†] abiding.

16 O LORD our God, all this store that we have prepared to build thee an house for thine holy name cometh of thine hand, and is all thine own.

17 I know also, my God, that thou ^m triest the heart, and ⁿ hast pleasure in uprightness. As for me, in the uprightness of mine heart I have willingly offered all these things: and now have I seen with joy thy people, which are ^{||} present here, to offer willingly unto thee.

18 O LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and of Israel, our fathers, keep this for ever in the imagination of the thoughts of the heart of thy people, and ^{||} prepare their heart unto thee:

19 And ^o give unto Solomon my son a perfect heart, to keep thy commandments, thy testimonies, and thy statutes, and to do all these things, and to build the palace, for the which ^p I have made provision.

20 ¶ And David said to all the congregation, Now bless the LORD your God. And all the congregation blessed the LORD God of their fathers, and bowed down their heads, and worshipped the LORD, and the king.

21 And they sacrificed sacrifices unto the LORD, and offered burnt offerings unto the LORD, on the morrow after that day, even a thousand bullocks, a thousand rams, and a thousand lambs, with their drink offerings, and sacrifices in abundance for all Israel:

22 And did eat and drink before the LORD on that day with great gladness. And they made Solomon the son of David king the second time, and ^q anointed him unto the LORD to be the chief governor, and Zadok to be priest.

23 ¶ Then Solomon sat on the throne of the LORD as king instead of David his father, and prospered; and all Israel obeyed him.

CHAP. I.

1 The solemn offering of Solomon at Gibeon. 7 Solomon's choice of wisdom is blessed by God. 13 Solomon's strength and wealth.

AND [†] Solomon the son of David was strengthened in his kingdom, and [†] the LORD his God was with him, and [†] magnified him exceedingly.

2 Then Solomon spake unto all Israel, to [†] the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and to the judges, and to every governor in all Israel, the chief of the fathers.

3 So Solomon, and all the congregation with him, went to the high place that was at [†] Gibeon; for there was the tabernacle of the congregation of God, which Moses the servant of the LORD had made in the wilderness.

4 [†] But the ark of God had David brought up from Kirjath-jearim to the place which David had prepared for it; for he had pitched a tent for it at Jerusalem.

5 Moreover [†] the brazen altar, that [†] Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, had made, [†] he put before the tabernacle of the LORD: and Solomon and the congregation fought unto it.

6 And Solomon went up thither to the brazen altar before the LORD, which was at the tabernacle of the congregation; and [†] offered a thousand burnt offerings upon it.

7 [†] In that night did God appear unto Solomon, and said unto him, Ask what I shall give thee.

8 And Solomon said unto God, Thou hast shewed great mercy unto David my father, and hast made me [†] to reign in his stead.

9 Now, O LORD God, let thy promise unto David my father be established: [†] for thou hast made me king over a people [†] like the dust of the earth in multitude.

10 [†] Give me now wisdom and knowledge, that I may [†] go out and come in before this people: for who can judge this thy people, that is so great?

11 [†] And God said to Solomon, Because this was in thine heart, and thou hast not asked riches, wealth, or honour, nor the life of thine enemies, neither yet hast asked long life; but hast asked wisdom and knowledge for thyself, that thou mayest judge my people, over whom I have made thee king:

12 Wisdom and knowledge is granted unto thee; and I will give thee riches, and wealth, and honour, such as [†] none of the kings have had that have been before thee, neither shall there any after thee have the like.

13 [†] Then Solomon came from his journey to the high place that was at Gibeon to Jerusalem, from before the tabernacle of the congregation, and reigned over Israel.

14 [†] And Solomon gathered chariots and horsemen: and he had a thousand and four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, which he placed in the chariot cities, and with the king at Jerusalem.

15 [†] And the king [†] made silver and gold at Jerusalem as plentiful as stones, and cedar trees made he as the sycamore trees that are in the vale for abundance.

16 [†] And [†] Solomon had horses brought out of Egypt; and linen yarn: the king's merchants received the linen yarn at a price.

17 And they fetched up, and brought forth out of Egypt a chariot for six hundred shekels of silver, and an horse for an hundred and fifty: and so brought they out horses for all the kings of the Hittites, and for the kings of Syria, [†] by their means.

AND Solomon ^a determined to build an house for the name of the LORD; and an house for his kingdom.

2 And ^b Solomon told out threescore and ten thousand men to bear burdens, and fourscore thousand to hew in the mountain, and three thousand and six hundred to oversee them.

3 ^c And Solomon sent to ^d Hiram the king of Tyre, saying, 'As thou didst deal with David my father, and didst send him cedars to build him an house to dwell therein, even so deal with me.

4 Behold, ^e I build an house to the name of the LORD my God, to dedicate it to him, and ^f to burn before him ^g sweet incense, and for ^h the continual shewbread, and for ⁱ the burnt offerings morning and evening, on the sabbaths, and on the new moons, and on the solemn feasts of the LORD our God. This is an ordinance for ever to Israel.

5 And the house which I build ^j is great: for ^k great is our God above all gods.

6 ^l But who ^m is able to build him an house, seeing the heaven and heaven of heavens cannot contain him? who ⁿ am I then, that I should build him an house, save only to burn sacrifice before him?

7 Send me now therefore a man cunning to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass, and in iron, and in purple, and crimson, and blue, and that can skill ^o to grave with the cunning men that are with me in Judah and in Jerusalem, ^p whom David my father did provide.

8 ^q Send me also cedar trees, fir trees, and ^r algaun trees, out of Lebanon: for I know that thy servants can skill to cut timber in Lebanon; and, behold, my servants shall be with thy servants, 9 Even to prepare me timber in abundance: for the house which I am about to build shall be ^s wonderful great.

10 ^t And, behold, I will give to thy servants, the hewers that cut timber, twenty thousand measures of beaten wheat, and twenty thousand measures of barley, and twenty thousand baths of wine, and twenty thousand baths of oil.

11 ^u Then Hiram the king of Tyre answered in writing, which he sent to Solomon, ^v Because the LORD hath loved his people, he hath made thee king over them.

12 Hiram said moreover, ^w Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, ^x that made heaven and earth, who hath given to David the king a wise son, ^y endued with prudence and understanding, that might build an house for the LORD, and an house for his kingdom.

13 And now I have sent a cunning man, endued with understanding, of Hiram my father's,

14 ^z The son of a woman of the daughters of Dan, and his father was a man of Tyre, skilful to work in gold, and in silver, in brass, in iron, in stone, and in timber, in purple, in blue, and in fine linen, and in crimson; also to grave any manner of graving, and to find out every device which shall be put to him, with thy cunning men, and with the cunning men of my lord David thy father.

15 Now therefore the wheat, and the barley, the oil, and the wine, which ^{aa} my lord hath spoken of, let him send unto his servants:

16 ^{ab} And we will cut wood out of Lebanon, ^{ac} as much as thou shalt need; and we will bring it to thee in floats by sea to ^{ad} Joppa; and thou shalt carry it up to Jerusalem.

17 ^{ae} And Solomon numbered all ^{af} the strangers that were in the land of Israel, after the numbering wherewith ^{ag} David his father had numbered them; and they were found an hundred and fifty thousand and three thousand and six hundred.

18 And he set ^{ah} threescore and ten thousand of them to be bearers of burdens, and fourscore thousand to be hewers in the mountain, and three thousand and six hundred overseers to set the people ^{ai} a work.

CHAP. III.

1 The place and time of building the temple. 3 The measure and ornaments of the house. 10 The cherubims. 14 The vail and pillars.

THEN ^a Solomon began to build the house of the LORD at ^b Jerusalem in mount Moriah, ^c where the LORD appeared unto David his father, in the place that David had prepared in the threshing-floor of ^d Ornan the Jebusite.

2 And he began to build in the second day of the second month, in the fourth year of his reign.

3 ^e Now these are the things ^f wherein Solomon was ^g instructed for the building of the house of God. The length by cubits after the first measure was threescore cubits, and the breadth twenty cubits.

4 And the ^h porch that was in the front of the house, the length of it was according to the breadth of the house, twenty cubits, and the height was an hundred and twenty: and he overlaid it within with pure gold.

5 And ⁱ the greater house he cieled with fir tree, which he overlaid with fine gold, and set thereon palm trees and chains.

7 He overlaid also the house, the beams, the posts, and the walls thereof, and the doors thereof, with gold; and graved cherubims on the walls.

8 ¶ And he made the most holy house, the length whereof was according to the breadth of the house, twenty cubits, and the breadth thereof twenty cubits: and he overlaid it with fine gold, amounting to six hundred talents.

9 And the weight of the nails was fifty shekels of gold. And he overlaid the upper chambers with gold.

10 ¶ And in the most holy house he made two cherubims of image work, and overlaid them with gold.

11 And the wings of the cherubims were twenty cubits long: one wing of the one cherub was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house: and the other wing was likewise five cubits, reaching to the wing of the other cherub.

12 And one wing of the other cherub was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house: and the other wing was five cubits also, joining to the wing of the other cherub.

13 The wings of these cherubims spread themselves forth twenty cubits: and they stood on their feet, and their faces were inward.

14 ¶ And he made the † vail of blue, and purple, and crimson, and fine linen, and wrought cherubims thereon.

15 ¶ Also he made before the house † two pillars of thirty and five cubits † high, and the chapiter that was on the top of each of them was five cubits.

CHAP. V.

1 The dedicated treasures. 2 The solemn induction of the ark into the oracle. 11 God being praised, giveth a visible sign of his favour.

THUS ^a all the work that Solomon made for the house of the LORD was finished: and Solomon brought in all the things that David his father had dedicated; and the silver, and the gold, and all the instruments, put he among the treasures of the house of God.

2 ¶ Then Solomon assembled the elders of Israel, and all the heads of the tribes, the chief of the fathers of the children of Israel, unto Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the city of David, which is Zion.

3 ^a Wherefore all the men of Israel assembled themselves unto the king ^a in the feast which was in the seventh month.

4 And all the elders of Israel came; and the Levites took up the ark.

5 And they brought up the ark, and the tabernacle of the congregation, and all the holy vessels that were in the tabernacle, these did the priests and the Levites bring up.

6 Also king Solomon, and all the congregation of Israel that were assembled unto him before the ark, sacrificed sheep and oxen, which could not be told nor numbered for multitude.

7 And the priests brought in the ark of the covenant of the LORD unto his place, to the oracle of the house, into the most holy place, even under the wings of the cherubims:

8 For the cherubims spread forth their wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubims covered the ark and the staves thereof above.

9 And they drew out the staves of the ark, that the ends of the staves were seen from the ark before the oracle; but they were not seen without. And ^a there it is unto this day.

10 There was nothing in the ark save the two tables which Moses put therein at Horeb, ^a when the LORD made a covenant with the children of Israel, when they came out of Egypt.

11 ¶ And it came to pass, when the priests were come out of the holy place: (for all the priests that were † present were sanctified, and did not then wait by course:

12 ^a Also the Levites which were the fingers, all of them of Asaph, of Heman, of Jeduthun, with their sons and their brethren, being arrayed in white linen, having cymbals and psalteries and harps, stood at the east end of the altar, ^a and with them an hundred and twenty priests sounding with trumpets:)

13 It came even to pass, as the trumpeters and singers were as one, to make one sound to be heard in praising and thanking the LORD; and when they lifted up their voice with the trumpets and cymbals and instruments of musick, and praised the LORD, saying, ^a For he is good; for his mercy endureth for ever: that then the house was filled with a cloud, even the house of the LORD;

14 So that the priests could not stand to minister by reason of the cloud: ^a for the glory of the LORD had filled the house of God.

4 ¶ Then the king and all the people offered sacrifices before the LORD.

5 And king Solomon offered a sacrifice of twenty and two thousand oxen, and an hundred and twenty thousand sheep: to the king and all the people dedicated the house of God.

6 † And the priests waited on their offices: the Levites also with instruments of musick of the LORD, which David the king had made to praise the LORD, because his mercy endureth for ever, when David praised † by their ministry; and † the priests sounded trumpets before them, and all Israel stood.

21 And this house, which is high, shall be an astonishment to every one that passeth by it; so that he shall say, ^a Why hath the LORD done thus unto this land, and unto this house?

22 And it shall be answered, Because they forsook the LORD God of their fathers, which brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, and laid hold on other gods, and worshipped them, and served them; therefore hath he brought all this evil upon them.

8 But of their children, who were left after them in the land, whom the children of Israel consumed not, them did Solomon make to pay tribute until this day.

9 But of the children of Israel did Solomon make no servants for his work; but they were men of war, and chief of his captains, and captains of his chariots and horsemen.

10 And these were the chief of king Solomon's officers, even ^a two hundred and fifty, that bare rule over the people.

11 ^a And Solomon ^a brought up the daughter of Pharaoh out of the city of David unto the house that he had built for her: for he said, My wife shall not dwell in the house of David king of Israel, because the places are [†] holy, whereunto the ark of the LORD hath come.

AND ^a when the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon, she came to prove Solomon with hard questions at Jerusalem, with a very great company, and camels that bare spices, and gold in abundance, and precious stones: and when she was come to Solomon, she communed with him of all that was in her heart.

2 And Solomon told her all her questions: and there was nothing hid from Solomon which he told her not.

3 And when the queen of Sheba had seen the wisdom of Solomon, and the house that he had built,

4 And the meat of his table, and the sitting of his servants, and the attendance of his ministers, and their apparel; his ^{||} cup-bearers also, and their apparel; and his ascent by which he went up into the house of the LORD; there was no more spirit in her.

5 And she said to the king, It was a true [†] report which I heard in mine own land of thine ^{||} acts, and of thy wisdom:

6 Howbeit I believed not their words, until I came, and mine eyes had seen it: and, behold, the one half of the greatness of thy wisdom was not told me: for thou exceedest the fame that I heard.

7 Happy are thy men, and happy are these thy servants, which stand continually before thee, and hear thy wisdom.

8 Blessed be the LORD thy God, which delighted in thee to set thee on his throne, to be king for the LORD thy God: because thy God loved Israel, to establish them for ever, therefore made he thee king over them, to do judgement and justice.

9 And she gave the king an hundred and twenty talents of gold, and of spices great abundance, and precious stones: neither was there any such spice as the queen of Sheba gave king Solomon.

10 And the servants also of Hiram, and the servants of Solomon, ^b which brought gold from Ophir, brought ^c algum trees and precious stones.

11 And the king made of the algum trees ^{||} [†] terraces to the house of the LORD, and to the king's palace, and harps and psalteries for fingers: and there were none such seen before in the land of Judah.

12 And king Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all her desire, whatsoever she asked, beside that which she had brought unto the king. So she turned, and went away to her own land, she and her servants.

13 ¶ Now the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred and threescore and six talents of gold;

22 And king Solomon passed all the kings of the earth in riches and wisdom.

23 ¶ And all the kings of the earth sought the presence of Solomon, to hear his wisdom, that God had put in his heart.

24 And they brought every man his present, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and raiment, harness, and spices, horses, and mules, a rate year by year.

CHAP. X.

1 The Israelites assembled at Shechem to crown Rehoboam, by Jeroboam make a suit of relaxation unto him. 6 Rehoboam refusing the old men's counsel, by the advice of young men answereth them roughly. 16 Ten tribes revolting, kill Hadoram, and make Rehoboam to flee.

AND ^q Rehoboam went to Shechem: for to Shechem were all Israel come to make him king.

2 And it came to pass, when Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who was in Egypt, ^r whither he had fled from the presence of Solomon the king, heard it, that Jeroboam returned out of Egypt.

3 And they sent and called him. So Jeroboam and all Israel came and spake to Rehoboam, saying,

4 Thy father made our yoke grievous: now therefore ease thou somewhat the grievous servitude of thy father, and his heavy yoke that he put upon us, and we will serve thee.

5 And he said unto them, Come again unto me after three days. And the people departed.

6 ¶ And king Rehoboam took counsel with the old men that had stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, saying, What counsel give ye me to return answer to this people?

7 And they spake unto him, saying, If thou be kind to this people, and please them, and speak good words to them, they will be thy servants for ever.

8 But he forsook the counsel which the old men gave him, and took counsel with the young men that were brought up with him, that stood before him.

9 And he said unto them, What advice give ye that we may return answer to this people, which have spoken to me, saying, Ease somewhat the yoke that thy father did put upon us?

10 And the young men that were brought up with him spake unto him, saying, Thus shalt thou answer the people that spake unto thee, saying, Thy father made our yoke heavy, but make thou it somewhat lighter for us: thus shalt thou say unto them, My little finger shall be thicker than my father's loins.

11 For whereas my father ^s put a heavy yoke upon you, I will put more to your yoke: my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

12 ¶ So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam on the third day, as the king bade, saying, Come again to me on the third day.

13 And the king answered them roughly; and king Rehoboam forsook the counsel of the old men, 14 And answered them after the advice of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add thereto: my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

spake by the ^a hand of Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

16 ¶ And when all Israel saw that the king would not hearken unto them, the people answered the king, saying, What portion have we in David? and we have none inheritance in the son of Jesse: every man to your tents, O Israel: and now, David, see to thine own house. So all Israel went to their tents.

17 But as for the children of Israel that dwelt in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them.

18 Then king Rehoboam sent Hadoram that was over the tribute; and the children of Israel stoned him with stones, that he died. But king Rehoboam [†] made speed to get him up to his chariot, to flee to Jerusalem.

19 [°] And Israel rebelled against the house of David unto this day.

CHAP. XI.

1 Rehoboam raising an army to subdue Israel, is forbidden by Shemaiah: 5 he strengtheneth his kingdom with forts and provision. 13 The priests and Levites, and such as feared God, forsaken by Jeroboam, strengthen the kingdom of Judah. 18 The wives and children of Rehoboam.

AND ^a when Rehoboam was come to Jerusalem, he gathered of the house of Judah and Benjamin an hundred and fourscore thousand chosen men, which were warriors, to fight against Israel, that he might bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam.

2 But the word of the LORD came ^b to Shemaiah the man of God, saying,

3 Speak unto Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin, saying,

4 Thus saith the LORD, Ye shall not go up, nor fight against your brethren: return every man to his house: for this thing is done of me. And they obeyed the words of the LORD, and returned from going against Jeroboam.

5 ¶ And Rehoboam dwelt in Jerusalem, and built cities for defence in Judah.

6 He built even Beth-lehem, and Etam, and Tekoa,

7 And Beth-zur, and Shoco, and Adullam,

8 And Gath, and Mareshah, and Ziph,

9 And Adoraim, and Lachish, and Azekah,

10 And Zorah, and Aijalon, and Hebron, which are in Judah and in Benjamin fenced cities.

11 And he fortified the strong holds, and put captains in them, and store of victual, and of oil and wine.

12 And in every several city he put shields and spears, and made them exceeding strong, having Judah and Benjamin on his side.

13 ¶ And the priests and the Levites that were in all Israel [†] resorted to him out of all their coasts.

14 For the Levites left ^c their suburbs and their possession, and came to Judah and Jerusalem: for ^d Jeroboam and his sons had cast them off from executing the priest's office unto the LORD:

15 ^e And he ordained him priests for the high places, and for ^f the devils, and for ^g the calves which he had made.

16 ^h And after them out of all the tribes of Israel such as set their hearts to seek the LORD God of Israel came to Jerusalem, to sacrifice unto the LORD God of their fathers.

17 So they ⁱ strengthened the kingdom of Judah, and made Rehoboam the son of Solomon strong, three years: for three years they walked in the way of David and Solomon.

18 ¶ And Rehoboam took him Mahalath the daughter of Jerimoth the son of David to wife, and Abihail the daughter of Eliab the son of Jesse;

19 Which bare him children; Jeush, and Shamariah, and Zaham.

20 And after her he took ^k Maachah the daughter of Abshalom; which bare him Abijah, and Attai, and Ziza, and Shelomith.

21 And Rehoboam loved Maachah the daughter of Abshalom above all his wives and his concubines: (for he took eighteen wives, and threescore concubines; and begat twenty and eight sons, and threescore daughters.)

22 And Rehoboam ^l made Abijah the son of Maachah the chief, to be ruler among his brethren: for he thought to make him king.

23 And he dealt wisely, and dispersed of all his children throughout all the countries of Judah and Benjamin, unto every fenced city: and he gave them victual in abundance. And he desired ^m many wives.

CHAP. XII.

1 Rehoboam forsaking the Lord, is punished by Shishak: 5 he and the princes repenting at the preaching of Shemaiah, are delivered from destruction, but not from spoil. 13 The reign and death of Rehoboam.

2^c And it came to pass, that in the fifth year of king Rehoboam Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, because they had transgressed against the LORD,

3 With twelve hundred chariots, and threescore thousand horsemen: and the people were without number that came with him out of Egypt; ^athe Lubims, the Sukkiims, and the Ethiopians.

4 And he took the fenced cities which pertained to Judah, and came to Jerusalem.

5 ¶ Then came ^eShemaiah the prophet to Rehoboam, and to the princes of Judah, that were gathered together to Jerusalem because of Shishak, and said unto them, Thus saith the LORD, ^f'Ye have forsaken me, and therefore have I also left you in the hand of Shishak.

6 Whereupon the princes of Israel and the king ^ghumbled themselves; and they said, ^hThe LORD is righteous.

7 And when the LORD saw that they humbled themselves, ⁱthe word of the LORD came to Shemaiah, saying, They have humbled themselves; therefore I will not destroy them, but I will grant them ^jsome deliverance; and my wrath shall not be poured out upon Jerusalem by the hand of Shishak.

8 Nevertheless ^kthey shall be his servants; that they may know ^lmy service, and the service of the kingdoms of the countries.

9 ^mSo Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, and took away the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house; he took all: he carried away also the shields of gold which Solomon had ⁿmade.

10 Instead of which king Rehoboam made shields of brass, and committed them ^oto the hands of the chief of the guard, that kept the entrance of the king's house.

11 And when the king entered into the house of the LORD, the guard came and fetched them, and brought them again into the guard chamber.

12 And when he humbled himself, the wrath of the LORD turned from him, that he would not destroy him altogether: ^pand also in Judah things went well.

13 ¶ So king Rehoboam strengthened himself in Jerusalem, and reigned: for ^qRehoboam was one and forty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, ^rthe city which the LORD had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, to put his name there. And his mother's name was Naamah an Ammonitess.

14 And he did evil, because he ^sprepared not his heart to seek the LORD.

15 Now the acts of Rehoboam, first and last, are they not written in the ^tbook of Shemaiah the prophet, ^uand of Iddo the seer concerning genealogies? ^vAnd there were wars between Rehoboam and Jeroboam continually.

16 And Rehoboam slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David: and ^wAbijah his son reigned in his stead.

6 ¶ And he built fenced cities in Judah: for the land had rest, and he had no war in those years; because the LORD had given him rest.

7 Therefore he said unto Judah, Let us build these cities, and make about them walls, and towers, gates, and bars, while the land is yet before us; because we have fought the LORD our God, we have fought him, and he hath given us rest on every side. So they built and prospered.

8 ¶ And Afa had an army of men that bare targets and spears, out of Judah three hundred thousand; and out of Benjamin, that bare shields and drew bows, two hundred and fourscore thousand: all these were mighty men of valour.

9 ¶ And there came out against them Zerah the Ethiopian with an host of a thousand thousand, and three hundred chariots; and came unto ^f Mareslah.

10 Then Afa went out against him, and they set the battle in array in the valley of Zephathah at Mareslah.

11 And Afa ^g cried unto the LORD his God, and said, LORD, it is ^h nothing with thee to help, whether with many, or with them that have no power: help us, O LORD our God; for we rest on thee, and ⁱ in thy name we go against this multitude. O LORD, thou art our God; let not ^j man prevail against thee.

12 So the LORD ^k smote the Ethiopians before Afa, and before Judah; and the Ethiopians fled.

13 And Afa and the people that were with him pursued them unto ^l Gerar: and the Ethiopians were overthrown, that they could not recover themselves; for they were ^m destroyed before the LORD, and before his host; and they carried away very much spoil.

C H A P. XV.

1 Asa with Judah and many of Israel, moved by the prophecy of Azariah the son of Oded, make a solemn covenant with God: 16 he putteth down Maachah his mother for her idolatry: 18 he bringeth dedicated things into the house of God, and enjoyeth a long peace.

AND ^a the Spirit of God came upon Azariah the son of Oded:

2 And he went out to [†] meet Asa, and said unto him, Hear ye me, Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin; ^b The LORD is with you, while ye be with him; and ^c if ye seek him, he will be found of you; but ^d if ye forsake him, he will forsake you.

3 Now ^e for a long season Israel hath been without the true God, and without ^f a teaching priest, and without law.

4 But ^g when they in their trouble did turn unto the LORD God of Israel, and fought him, he was found of them.

5 And ^h in those times there was no peace to him that went out, nor to him that came in, but great vexations were upon all the inhabitants of the countries.

6 ⁱ And nation was [†] destroyed of nation, and city of city: for God did vex them with all adversity.

7 Be ye strong therefore, and let not your hands be weak; for your work shall be rewarded.

8 ^j And when Asa heard these words, and the prophecy of Oded the prophet, he took courage, and put away the [†] abominable idols out of all the land of Judah and Benjamin, and out of the cities ^k which he had taken from mount Ephraim, and renewed the altar of the LORD, that was before the porch of the LORD.

9 And he gathered all Judah and Benjamin, and ^l the strangers with them out of Ephraim and Manasseh, and out of Simeon: for they fell to him out of Israel in abundance, when they saw that the LORD his God was with him.

10 So they gathered themselves together at Jerusalem in the third month, in the fifteenth year of the reign of Asa.

11 ^m And they offered unto the LORD [†] the same time, of ⁿ the spoil which they had brought, seven hundred oxen and seven thousand sheep.

12 And they ^o entered into a covenant to seek the LORD God of their fathers with all their heart and with all their soul;

13 ^p That whosoever would not seek the LORD God of Israel ^q should be put to death, whether small or great, whether man or woman.

14 And they sware unto the LORD with a loud voice, and with shouting, and with trumpets, and with cornets.

15 And all Judah rejoiced at the oath: for they had sworn with all their heart, and fought him with their whole desire; and he was found of them: and the LORD gave them rest round about.

16 ^r And also concerning ^s Maachah the ^t mother of Asa the king, he removed her from being queen, because she had made an [†] idol in a grove: and Asa cut down her idol, and stamped it, and burnt it at the brook Kidron.

17 But ^u the high places were not taken away out of Israel: nevertheless the heart of Asa was perfect all his days.

18 ^v And he brought into the house of God the things that his father had dedicated, and that he himself had dedicated, silver, and gold, and vessels.

19 And there was no more war unto the five and thirtieth year of the reign of Asa.

C H A P. XVI.

1 Asa, by the aid of the Syrians, diverteth Baasha from building of Ramah. 7 Being reprov'd thereof by Hanani, he putteth him in prison.

11 Among his other acts, in his disease he seeketh not to God, but to the physicians: 13 his death and burial.

IN the six and thirtieth year of the reign of Asa ^a Baasha king of Israel came up against Judah, and built Ramah, ^b to the intent that he might let none go out or come in to Asa king of Judah.

2 Then Asa brought out silver and gold out of the treasures of the house of the LORD and of the king's house, and sent to Ben-hadad king of Syria, that dwelt at [†] Damascus, saying,

3 There is a league between me and thee, as there was between my father and thy father: behold, I have sent thee silver and gold: go, break thy league with Baasha king of Israel, that he may depart from me.

4 And Ben-hadad hearkened unto king Asa, and sent the captains of [†] his armies against the cities of Israel; and they smote Ijon, and Dan, and Abel-maim, and all the store cities of Naptali.

5 And it came to pass, when Baasha heard it, that he left off building of Ramah, and let his work cease.

C H A P. XVIII.

1 Jehoshaphat joined in affinity with Ahab, is persuaded to go with him against Ramoth-gilead.

4 Ahab seduced by false prophets, according to the word of Micaiah, is slain there.

NOW Jehoshaphat ^a had riches and honour in abundance, and ^b joined affinity with Ahab.

2 ^c And ^d after certain years he went down to Ahab to Samaria. And Ahab killed sheep and oxen for him in abundance, and for the people that he had with him, and persuaded him to go up with him to Ramoth-gilead.

3 And Ahab king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat king of Judah, Wilt thou go with me to Ramoth-gilead? And he answered him, I am as thou art, and my people as thy people; and we will be with thee in the war.

4 ¶ And Jehoshaphat said unto the king of Israel, ^e Enquire, I pray thee, at the word of the LORD to day.

5 Therefore the king of Israel gathered together of prophets four hundred men, and said unto them, Shall we go to Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? And they said, Go up; for God will deliver it into the king's hand.

6 ¶ But Jehoshaphat said, Is there not here a prophet of the LORD ^f besides, that we might enquire of him?

7 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, There is yet one man, by whom we may enquire of the LORD: but I hate him; for he never prophesied good unto me, but always evil: the same is Micaiah, the son of Imla. And Jehoshaphat said, Let not the king say so.

8 And the king of Israel called for one of his ^g officers, and said, ^h Fetch quickly Micaiah the son of Imla.

9 And the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah sat either of them on his throne, clothed in their robes, and they sat in a ⁱ void place at the entering in of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets prophesied before them.

10 And Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah had made him horns of iron, and said, Thus saith the LORD, With these thou shalt push Syria until ^j they be consumed.

11 And all the prophets prophesied so, saying, Go up to Ramoth-gilead, and prosper: for the LORD shall deliver it into the hand of the king.

12 And the messenger that went to call

Micaiah spake to him, saying; Behold, the words of the prophets declare good to the king ^k with one assent; let thy word therefore, I pray thee, be like one of their's, and speak thou good.

13 And Micaiah said, As the LORD liveth, ^l even what my God saith, that will I speak.

14 And when he was come to the king, the king said unto him, Micaiah, shall we go to Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? And he said, Go ye up, and prosper, and they shall be delivered into your hand.

15 ¶ And the king said to him, How many times shall I adjure thee that thou say nothing but the truth to me in the name of the LORD?

16 Then he said, I did see all Israel scattered upon the mountains, as sheep that have no shepherd: and the LORD said, These have no master; let them return therefore every man to his house in peace.

17 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, Did I not tell thee that he would not prophesy good unto me, ^m but evil?

18 Again he said, Therefore hear the word of the LORD; I saw the LORD sitting upon his throne, and all the host of heaven standing on his right hand and on his left.

19 And the LORD said, Who shall entice Ahab king of Israel, that he may go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead? And one spake saying after this manner, and another saying after that manner.

20 Then there came out a ⁿ spirit, and stood before the LORD, and said, I will entice him. And the LORD said unto him, Wherewith?

21 And he said, I will go out, and be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And the LORD said, Thou shalt entice him, and thou shalt also prevail: go out, and do even so.

22 Now therefore, behold, ^o the LORD hath put a lying spirit in the mouth of these thy prophets, and the LORD hath spoken evil against thee.

23 ¶ Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah came near, and ^p smote Micaiah upon the cheek, and said, Which way went the Spirit of the LORD from me to speak unto thee?

24 And Micaiah said, Behold, thou shalt see on that day when thou shalt go ^q into ^r an inner chamber to hide thyself.

25 Then the king of Israel said, Take ye Micaiah, and carry him back to Amon the governor of the city, and to Joash the king's son;

29 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, I will disguise myself, and will go to the battle; but put thou on thy robes. So the king of Israel disguised himself; and they went to the battle.

30 Now the king of Syria had commanded the captains of the chariots that were with him, saying, Fight ye not with small or great, save only with the king of Israel.

31 And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, It is the king of Israel. Therefore they compassed about him to fight: but Jehoshaphat cried out, and the LORD helped him; and God moved them to depart from him.

32 For it came to pass, that, when the captains of the chariots perceived that it was not the king of Israel, they turned back again [†] from pursuing him.

33 ¶ And a certain man drew a bow [†] at a venture, and smote the king of Israel [†] between the joints of the harness: therefore he said to his chariot man, Turn thine hand, that thou mayest carry me out of the host; for I am [†] wounded.

34 And the battle increased that day: howbeit the king of Israel stayed himself up in his chariot against the Syrians until the even: and about the time of the sun going down he died.

7 Wherefore now let the fear of the LORD be upon you; take heed and do it: for ^h there is no iniquity with the LORD our God, nor ⁱ respect of persons, nor taking of gifts.

8 ¶ Moreover in Jerusalem did Jehoshaphat ^k set of the Levites, and of the priests, and of the chief of the fathers of Israel, for the judgement of the LORD, and for controversies, when they returned to Jerusalem.

self to seek the LORD, and proclaimed a fast throughout all Judah.

4 And Judah gathered themselves together, to ask help of the LORD: even out of all the cities of Judah they came to seek the LORD.

5 ¶ And Jehoshaphat stood in the congregation of Judah and Jerusalem, in the house of the LORD, before the new court,

6 And said, O LORD God of our fathers, art not thou God in heaven? and rulest not thou over all the kingdoms of the heathen? and in thine hand is there not power and might, so that none is able to withstand thee?

7 Art not thou our God, who didst drive out the inhabitants of this land before thy people Israel, and gavest it to the seed of Abraham thy friend for ever?

8 And they dwelt therein, and have built thee a sanctuary therein for thy name, saying,

9 If, when evil cometh upon us, as the sword, judgement, or pestilence, or famine, we stand before this house, and in thy presence, (for thy name is in this house,) and cry unto thee in our affliction, then thou wilt hear and help.

10 And now, behold, the children of Ammon and Moab and mount Seir, whom thou wouldest not let Israel invade, when they came out of the land of Egypt, but they turned from them, and destroyed them not;

11 Behold, I say, how they reward us, to come to cast us out of thy possession, which thou hast given us to inherit.

12 O our God, wilt thou not judge them? for we have no might against this great company that cometh against us; neither know we what to do: but our eyes are upon thee.

13 And all Judah stood before the LORD, with their little ones, their wives, and their children.

14 ¶ Then upon Jahaziel the son of Zechariah, the son of Benaiah, the son of Jeiel, the son of Mattaniah, a Levite of the sons of Asaph, came the Spirit of the LORD in the midst of the congregation;

15 And he said, Harken ye, all Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem; and thou king Jehoshaphat, Thus saith the LORD unto you, Be not afraid nor dismayed by reason of this great multitude; for the battle is not your's, but God's.

16 Tomorrow go ye down against them: behold, they come up by the cliff of Ziz; and ye shall find them at the end of the brook, before the wilderness of Jeruel.

17 Ye shall not need to fight in this battle: set yourselves, stand ye still, and see the salvation of the LORD with you, O Judah and Jerusalem: fear not, nor be dismayed; to morrow go out against them: for the LORD will be with you.

18 And Jehoshaphat bowed his head with his face to the ground: and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem fell before the LORD, worshipping the LORD.

19 And the Levites, of the children of the Kohathites, and of the children of the Korhites, stood up to praise the LORD God of Israel with a loud voice on high.

20 ¶ And they rose early in the morning, and went forth into the wilderness of Tekoa: and as they went forth, Jehoshaphat stood and said, Hear me, O Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem; Believe in the LORD your God, so shall ye be established; believe his prophets, so shall ye prosper.

21 And when he had consulted with the people, he appointed singers unto the LORD, and that should praise the beauty of holiness, as they went out before the army, and to say, Praise the LORD; for his mercy endureth for ever.

22 ¶ And when they began to sing and to praise, the LORD set ambushments against the children of Ammon, Moab, and mount Seir, which were come against Judah; and they were smitten.

23 For the children of Ammon and Moab stood up against the inhabitants of mount Seir, utterly to slay and destroy them: and when they had made an end of the inhabitants of Seir, every one helped to destroy another.

24 And when Judah came toward the watch tower in the wilderness, they looked unto the multitude, and, behold, they were dead bodies fallen to the earth, and none escaped.

25 And when Jehoshaphat and his people came to take away the spoil of them, they found among them in abundance both riches with the dead bodies, and precious jewels, which they stripped off for themselves, more than they could carry away: and they were three days in gathering of the spoil, it was so much.

26 ¶ And on the fourth day they assembled themselves in the valley of Berachah; for there they blessed the LORD: therefore the name of the same place was called, The valley of Berachah; unto this day.

27 Then they returned, every man of Judah and Jerusalem, and Jehoshaphat in the forefront of them, to go again to Jerusalem with joy; for the LORD had made them to rejoice over their enemies.

29 And the fear of God was on all the kingdoms of those countries, when they had heard that the LORD fought against the enemies of Israel.

30 So the realm of Jehoshaphat was quiet: for his God gave him rest round about.

31 And Jehoshaphat reigned over Judah: he was thirty and five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty and five years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi.

32 And he walked in the way of Asa his father, and departed not from it, doing that which was right in the sight of the LORD.

33 Howbeit the high places were not taken away: for as yet the people had not prepared their hearts unto the God of their fathers.

34 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of Jehu the son of Hanani, who is mentioned in the book of the kings of Israel.

35 And after this did Jehoshaphat king of Judah join himself with Ahaziah king of Israel, who did very wickedly:

36 And he joined himself with him to make ships to go to Tarshish: and they made the ships in Ezion-gaber.

37 Then Eliezer the son of Dodavah of Maresah prophesied against Jehoshaphat, saying, Because thou hast joined thyself with Ahaziah, the LORD hath broken thy works. And the ships were broken, that they were not able to go to Tarshish.

2 And he had brethren the sons of Jehoshaphat, Azariah, and Jehiel, and Zechariah, and Azariah, and Michael, and Shephatiah: all these were the sons of Jehoshaphat king of Israel.

3 And their father gave them great gifts of silver, and of gold, and of precious things, with fenced cities in Judah: but the kingdom gave he to Jehoram; because he was the firstborn.

4 Now when Jehoram was risen up to the kingdom of his father, he strengthened himself, and slew all his brethren with the sword, and divers also of the princes of Israel.

5 Jehoram was thirty and two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem.

6 And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, like as did the house of Ahab: for he had the daughter of Ahab to wife: and he wrought that which was evil in the eyes of the LORD.

7 Howbeit the LORD would not destroy the house of David, because of the covenant that he had made with David, and as he promised to give a light to him and to his sons forever.

8 In his days the Edomites revolted from under the dominion of Judah, and made themselves a king.

9 Then Jehoram went forth with his princes, and all his chariots with him: and he rose up by night, and smote the Edomites which compassed him in, and the captains of the chariots.

10 So the Edomites revolted from under the hand of Judah unto this day. The same time also did Libnah revolt from under his hand; because he had forsaken the LORD God of his fathers.

11 Moreover he made high places in the mountains of Judah, and caused the inhabitants of Jerusalem to commit fornication, and compelled Judah thereto.

12 And there came a writing to him from Elijah the prophet, saying, Thus saith the LORD God of David thy father, Because thou hast not walked in the ways of Jehoshaphat thy father, nor in the ways of Asa king of Judah,

13 But hast walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and hast made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to go a whoring, like to the whoredoms of the house of Ahab, and also hast slain thy brethren of thy father's house, which were better than thyself:

14 Behold, with a great plague will the LORD smite thy people, and thy children, and thy wives, and all thy goods:

15 And thou shalt have great sickness by disease of thy bowels, until thy bowels fall out by reason of the sickness day by day.

16 Moreover the LORD stirred up against Jehoram the spirit of the Philistines, and of the Arabians, that were near the Ethiopians:

17 And they came up into Judah, and brake into it, and carried away all the substance that was found in the king's house, and ^a his sons also, and his wives; so that there was never a son left him, save ^b Jehoahaz, the youngest of his sons.

18 ¶ And after all this the LORD smote him ^a in his bowels with an incurable disease.

19 And it came to pass, that in process of time, after the end of two years, his bowels fell out by reason of his sickness: so he died of sore diseases. And his people made no burning for him, like ^a the burning of his fathers.

20 Thirty and two years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem eight years, and departed [†] without being desired. Howbeit they buried him in the city of David, but not in the sepulchres of the kings.

C H A P. XXII.

1 Ahaziah succeeding, reigneth wickedly. 5 In his confederacy with Joram the son of Ahab, he is slain by Jehu. 10 Athaliah destroying all the seed royal, save Joash, whom Jehoshabeath his aunt hid, usurpeth the kingdom.

AND the inhabitants of Jerusalem made ^a Ahaziah his youngest son king in his stead: for the band of men that came with the Arabians to the camp had slain all the ^b eldest. So Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah reigned.

2 ^a Forty and two years old was Ahaziah when he began to reign, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was ^a Athaliah the daughter of Omri.

3 He also walked in the ways of the house of Ahab: for his mother was his counsellor to do wickedly.

4 Wherefore he did evil in the sight of the LORD like the house of Ahab: for they were his counsellors after the death of his father to his destruction.

5 ¶ He walked also after their counsel, and ^a went with Jehoram the son of Ahab king of Israel to war against Hazael king of Syria at Ramoth-gilead: and the Syrians smote Joram.

6 ^a And he returned to be healed in Jezreel because of the wounds [†] which were given him at Ramah, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria. And ^b Azariah the son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to see Jehoram the son of Ahab at Jezreel, because he was sick.

7 And the [†] destruction of Ahaziah ^a was of God by coming to Joram: for when he was come, he ^b went out with Jehoram against Jehu the son of Nimshi, ^c whom the LORD had anointed to cut off the house of Ahab.

8 And it came to pass, that, when Jehu was ^a executing judgement upon the house of Ahab, and ^b found the princes of Judah, and the sons of the brethren of Ahaziah that ministered to Ahaziah, he slew them.

9 ^a And he sought Ahaziah: and they caught him, (for he was hid in Samaria,) and brought him to Jehu: and when they had slain him, they buried him: Because said they, he ^a is the son of Jehoshaphat, who ^a fought the LORD with all his heart. So the house of Ahaziah had no power to keep still the kingdom.

10 ¶ But when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the seed royal of the house of Judah.

11 But ^a Jehoshabeath, the daughter of the king, took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him from among the king's sons that were slain, and put him and his nurse in a bed chamber. So Jehoshabeath the daughter of king Jehoram, the wife of Jehoiada the priest, (for she was the sister of Ahaziah,) hid him from Athaliah, so that she slew him not.

12 And he was with them hid in the house of God six years: and Athaliah reigned over the land.

C H A P. XXIII.

1 Jehoiada having set things in order, maketh Joash king. 12 Athaliah is slain. 16 Jehoiada restoreth the worship of God.

AND ^a in the seventh year Jehoiada strengthened himself, and took the captains of hundreds, Azariah the son of Jeroham, and Ishmael the son of Jehohanan, and Azariah the son of Obed, and Maaseiah the son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat the son of Zichri, into covenant with him.

2 And they went about in Judah, and gathered the Levites out of all the cities of Judah, and the chief of the fathers of Israel, and they came to Jerusalem.

3 And all the congregation made a covenant with the king in the house of God. And he said unto them, Behold, the king's son shall reign; as the LORD hath ^b said of the sons of David.

4 This is the thing that ye shall do; A third part of you ^a entering on the sabbath, of the priests and of the Levites, shall be porters of the [†] doors;

5 And a third part shall be at the king's house; and a third part at the gate of the foundation: and all the people shall be in the courts of the house of the LORD.

nister of the Levites; they shall go in, for they are holy, but all the people shall keep the watch of the LORD.

7 And the Levites shall compass the king round about, every man with his weapons in his hand; and whosoever else cometh into the house, he shall be put to death: but be ye with the king when he cometh in, and when he goeth out.

8 So the Levites and all Judah did according to all things that Jehoiada the priest had commanded, and took every man his men that were to come in on the sabbath, with them that were to go out on the sabbath: for Jehoiada the priest dismissed not ^e the courses.

9 Moreover Jehoiada the priest delivered to the captains of hundreds spears, and bucklers, and shields, that had been king David's, which were in the house of God.

10 And he set all the people, every man having his weapon in his hand, from the right [†] side of the [†] temple to the left side of the temple, along by the altar and the temple, by the king round about.

11 Then they brought out the king's son, and put upon him the crown, and ^f gave him the testimony, and made him king. And Jehoiada and his sons anointed him, and said, [†] God save the king.

12 ¶ Now when Athaliah heard the noise of the people running and praising the king, she came to the people into the house of the LORD:

13 And she looked, and, behold, the king stood at his pillar at the entering in, and the princes and the trumpets by the king: and all the people of the land rejoiced, and sounded with trumpets, also the singers with instruments of musick, and ^g such as taught to sing praise. Then Athaliah rent her clothes, and said, [†] Treason, Treason.

14 Then Jehoiada the priest brought out the captains of hundreds that were set over the host, and said unto them, Have her forth of the ranges: and who so followeth her, let him be slain with the sword. For the priest said, Slay her not in the house of the LORD.

15 So they laid hands on her; and when she was come to the entering ^h of the horse gate by the king's house, they slew her there.

16 ¶ And Jehoiada made a covenant between him, and between all the people, and between the king, that they should be the LORD's people.

17 Then all the people went to the house of Baal, and brake it down, and brake his altars and his images in pieces, and ^a slew Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars.

18 Also Jehoiada appointed the officers of the house of the LORD by the hand of the priests the Levites, whom David had ^k distributed in the house of the LORD, to offer the burnt offerings of the LORD, as it is written in the ^l law of Moses, with rejoicing and with singing, as it was ordained [†] by David.

19 And he set the ^m porters at the gates of the house of the LORD, that none which was unclean in any thing should enter in.

20 ⁿ And he took the captains of hundreds, and the nobles, and the governors of the people, and all the people of the land, and brought down the king from the house of the LORD: and they came through the high gate into the king's house, and set the king upon the throne of the kingdom.

21 And all the people of the land rejoiced: and the city was quiet, after that they had slain Athaliah with the sword.

CHAP. XXIV.

1 Joash reigneth well all the days of Jehoiada: 4 he giveth order for the repair of the temple. 15 Jehoiada his death and honourable burial. 17 Joash falling to idolatry, slayeth Zechariah the son of Jehoiada. 23 Joash is spoiled by the Syrians, and slain by Zabad and Jehoazabad. 27 Amaziah succeedeth him.

JOASH ^a was seven years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Zibiah of Beer-sheba.

2 And Joash ^b did that which was right in the sight of the LORD all the days of Jehoiada the priest.

3 And Jehoiada took for him two wives; and he begat sons and daughters.

4 ¶ And it came to pass after this, that Joash was minded [†] to repair the house of the LORD.

5 And he gathered together the priests and the Levites, and said to them, Go out unto the cities of Judah, and ^c gather of all Israel money to repair the house of your God from year to year, and see that ye hasten the matter. Howbeit the Levites hastened it not.

6 ^d And the king called for Jehoiada the chief, and said unto him, Why hast thou not required of the Levites to bring in out of Judah and out of Jerusalem the collection, according to the commandment of ^e Moses the servant of the LORD, and of the congregation of Israel, for the ^f tabernacle of witness?

7 For ^g the sons of Athaliah, that wicked woman, had broken up the house of God; and also all the ^h dedicated things of the house of the LORD did they bestow upon Baalim.

8 And at the king's commandment ^l they made a chest, and set it without at the gate of the house of the LORD.

9 And they made [†] a proclamation through Judah and Jerusalem, to bring in to the LORD ^h the collection that Moses the servant of God laid upon Israel in the wilderness.

10 And all the princes and all the people rejoiced, and brought in, and cast into the chest, until they had made an end.

11 Now it came to pass, that at what time the chest was brought unto the king's office by the hand of the Levites, and ^l when they saw that there was much money, the king's scribe and the high priest's officer came and emptied the chest, and took it, and carried it to his place again. Thus they did day by day, and gathered money in abundance.

12 And the king and Jehoiada gave it to such as did the work of the service of the house of the LORD, and hired masons and carpenters to repair the house of the LORD, and also such as wrought iron and bras to mend the house of the LORD.

13 So the workmen wrought, and [†] the work was perfected by them, and they set the house of God in his state, and strengthened it.

14 And when they had finished it, they brought the rest of the money before the king and Jehoiada, ^m whereof were made vessels for the house of the LORD, even vessels to minister, and ⁿ to offer withal, and spoons, and vessels of gold and silver. And they offered burnt offerings in the house of the LORD continually all the days of Jehoiada.

15 [†] But Jehoiada waxed old, and was full of days when he died; an hundred and thirty years old was he when he died.

16 And they buried him in the city of David among the kings, because he had done good in Israel, both toward God, and toward his house.

17 [†] Now after the death of Jehoiada came the princes of Judah, and made obedience to the king. Then the king hearkened unto them.

18 And they left the house of the LORD God of their fathers, and served ^o groves and idols: and ^o wrath came upon Judah and Jerusalem for this their trespass.

19 Yet he ^p sent prophets to them, to bring them again unto the LORD; and they testified against them: but they would not give ear.

20 And [†] the Spirit of God [†] came upon Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the priest, which stood above the people, and said unto them, Thus saith God, [†] Why transgress ye the commandments of the LORD, that ye cannot prosper? [†] because ye have forsaken the LORD, he hath also forsaken you.

21 And they conspired against him, and [†] stoned him with stones at the commandment of the king in the court of the house of the LORD.

22 Thus Joash the king remembered not the kindness which Jehoiada his father had done to him, but slew his son. And when he died, he said, The LORD look upon it, and require it.

23 [†] And it came to pass [†] at the end of the year, that [†] the host of Syria came up against him: and they came to Judah and Jerusalem, and destroyed all the princes of the people from among the people, and sent all the spoil of them unto the king of [†] Damascus.

24 For the army of the Syrians [†] came with a small company of men, and the LORD [†] delivered a very great host into their hand, because they had forsaken the LORD God of their fathers. So they [†] executed judgement against Joash.

25 And when they were departed from him, (for they left him in great diseases,) [†] his own servants conspired against him for the blood of the ^h sons of Jehoiada the priest, and slew him on his bed, and he died: and they buried him not in the sepulchres of the kings.

26 And these are they that conspired against him; ⁿ Zabad the son of Shimeath an Ammonitess, and Jehozabad the son of ⁿ Shimrith a Moabitess.

27 [†] Now concerning his sons, and the greatness of [†] the burdens laid upon him, and the [†] repairing of the house of God, behold, they are written in the ⁿ story of the book of the kings. [†] And Amaziah his son reigned in his stead.

C H A P. XXV.

1 Amaziah beginneth to reign well: 3 he executeth justice on the traitors: 5 having hired an army of Israelites against the Edomites, at the word of a prophet he loseth the hundred talents, and dismisseth them: 11 he overthroweth the Edomites. 10, 13 The Israelites discontented with their dismissal, spoil as they return home. 14 Amaziah, proud of his victory, serveth the gods of Edom, and despiseth the admonitions of the prophet: 17 he provoketh Joash to his overthrow: 25 his reign: 27 he is slain by conspiracy.

of the sons of the Kohathites: and of the sons of Merari; Kish the son of Abdi, and Azariah the son of Jehalelel: and of the Gershonites; Joah the son of Zimmah, and Eden the son of Joah:

13 And of the sons of Elizaphan; Shimri, and Jeiel: and of the sons of Asaph; Zechariah, and Mattaniah:

14 And of the sons of Heman; Jehiel, and Shimei: and of the sons of Jeduthun; Shemaiah, and Uzziel.

15 And they gathered their brethren, and sanctified themselves, and came, according to the commandment of the king, by the words of the LORD, to cleanse the house of the LORD.

16 And the priests went into the inner part of the house of the LORD, to cleanse it, and brought out all the uncleanness that they found in the temple of the LORD into the court of the house of the LORD. And the Levites took it, to carry it out abroad into the brook Kidron.

17 Now they began on the first day of the first month to sanctify, and on the eighth day of the month came they to the porch of the LORD: so they sanctified the house of the LORD in eight days; and in the sixteenth day of the first month they made an end.

18 Then they went in to Hezekiah the king, and said, We have cleansed all the house of the LORD, and the altar of burnt offering, with all the vessels thereof, and the shewbread table, with all the vessels thereof.

19 Moreover all the vessels, which king Ahaz in his reign did cast away in his transgression, have we prepared and sanctified, and, behold, they are before the altar of the LORD.

20 ¶ Then Hezekiah the king rose early, and gathered the rulers of the city, and went up to the house of the LORD.

21 And they brought seven bullocks, and seven rams, and seven lambs, and seven he goats, for a sin offering for the kingdom, and for the sanctuary, and for Judah. And he commanded the priests the sons of Aaron to offer them on the altar of the LORD.

22 So they killed the bullocks, and the priests received the blood, and sprinkled it on the altar: likewise, when they had killed the rams, they sprinkled the blood upon the altar: they killed also the lambs, and they sprinkled the blood upon the altar.

23 And they brought forth the he goats for the sin offering before the king and the congregation; and they laid their hands upon them:

24 And the priests killed them, and they made reconciliation with their blood upon the altar, to make an atonement for all Israel: for the king commanded that the burnt offering and the sin offering should be made for all Israel.

25 And he set the Levites in the house of the LORD with cymbals, with psalteries, and with harps, according to the commandment of David; and of Gad the king's seer, and Nathan the prophet: for so was the commandment of the LORD by his prophets.

26 And the Levites stood with the instruments of David, and the priests with the trumpets.

27 And Hezekiah commanded to offer the burnt offering upon the altar. And when the burnt offering began, the song of the LORD began also with the trumpets, and with the instruments ordained by David king of Israel.

28 And all the congregation worshipped, and the fingers sang, and the trumpeters sounded: and all this continued until the burnt offering was finished.

29 And when they had made an end of offering, the king and all that were present with him bowed themselves, and worshipped.

30 Moreover Hezekiah the king and the princes commanded the Levites to sing praise unto the LORD with the words of David, and of Asaph the seer. And they sang praises with gladness, and they bowed their heads and worshipped.

31 Then Hezekiah answered and said, Now ye have consecrated yourselves unto the LORD, come near and bring sacrifices and thank offerings into the house of the LORD. And the congregation brought in sacrifices and thank offerings; and as many as were of a free heart burnt offerings.

32 And the number of the burnt offerings, which the congregation brought, was threescore and ten bullocks, an hundred rams, and two hundred lambs: all these were for a burnt offering to the LORD.

33 And the consecrated things were six hundred oxen and three thousand sheep.

34 But the priests were too few, so that they could not slay all the burnt offerings: wherefore their brethren the Levites did help them, till the work was ended, and until the other priests had sanctified themselves: for the Levites were more upright in heart to sanctify themselves than the priests.

35 And also the burnt offerings were in abundance, with the fat of the peace offerings, and the drink offerings for every burnt offering. So the service of the house of the LORD was set in order.

36 And Hezekiah rejoiced, and all the people, that God had prepared the people: for the thing was done suddenly.

CHAP. XXX.

1 Hezekiah proclaimeth a solemn passover on the second month for Judah and Israel. 13 The assembly, having destroyed the altars of idolatry, keep the feast fourteen days. 27 The priests and Levites bless the people.

AND Hezekiah sent to all Israel and Judah, and wrote letters also to Ephraim and Manasseh, that they should come to the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, to keep the passover unto the LORD God of Israel.

2 For the king had taken counsel, and his princes, and all the congregation in Jerusalem, to keep the passover in the second ^a month.

3 For they could not keep it ^b at that time, ^c because the priests had not sanctified themselves sufficiently, neither had the people gathered themselves together to Jerusalem.

4 And the thing [†] pleased the king and all the congregation.

5 So they established a decree to make proclamation throughout all Israel, from Beer-sheba even to Dan, that they should come to keep the passover unto the LORD God of Israel at Jerusalem: for they had not done it of a long time in such sort as it was written.

6 So the post went with the letters [†] from the king and his princes throughout all Israel and Judah, and according to the commandment of the king, saying, Ye children of Israel, ^a turn again unto the LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, and he will return to the remnant of you, that are escaped out of the hand of ^c the kings of Assyria.

7 And be not ye ^f like your fathers, and like your brethren, which trespassed against the LORD God of their fathers, who therefore ^g gave them up to desolation, as ye see.

8 Now [†] be ye not ^b stiff necked, as your fathers were, but [†] yield yourselves unto the LORD, and enter into his sanctuary, which he hath sanctified for ever: and serve the LORD your God, ⁱ that the fierceness of his wrath may turn away from you.

9 For if ye turn again unto the LORD, your brethren and your children shall find ^k compassion before them that lead them captive, so that they shall come again into this land: for the LORD your God is ^l gracious and merciful, and will not turn away his face from you, if ye ^m return unto him.

10 So the posts passed from city to city through the country of Ephraim and Manasseh even unto Zebulun: but ⁿ they laughed them to scorn, and mocked them.

11 Nevertheless ^o divers of Asher and Manasseh and of Zebulun humbled themselves, and came to Jerusalem.

12 Also in Judah ^p the hand of God was to give them one heart to do the commandment of the king and of the princes, ^q by the word of the LORD.

13 [†] And there assembled at Jerusalem much people to keep the feast of unleavened bread in the second month, a very great congregation.

14 And they arose and took away the ^r altars that were in Jerusalem, and all the altars for incense took they away, and cast them into the brook Kidron.

15 Then they killed the passover on the fourteenth day of the second month: and the priests and the Levites were ^s ashamed, and sanctified themselves, and brought in the burnt offerings into the house of the LORD.

16 And they stood in [†] their place after their manner, according to the law of Moses the man of God: the priests sprinkled the blood, which they received of the hand of the Levites.

17 For there were many in the congregation that were not sanctified: ^t therefore the Levites had the charge of the killing of the passovers for every one that was not clean, to sanctify them unto the LORD.

18 For a multitude of the people, even ^u many of Ephraim, and Manasseh, Issachar, and Zebulun, had not cleansed themselves, ^x yet did they eat the passover otherwise than it was written. But Hezekiah prayed for them, saying, The good LORD pardon every one.

19 That ^y prepareth his heart to seek God, the LORD God of his fathers, though he be not cleansed according to the purification of the sanctuary.

20 And the LORD hearkened to Hezekiah, and healed the people.

21 And the children of Israel that were [†] present at Jerusalem kept ^z the feast of unleavened bread seven days with great gladness: and the Levites and the priests praised the LORD day by day, singing with [†] loud instruments unto the LORD.

22 And Hezekiah spake [†] comfortably unto all the Levites ^a that taught the good knowledge of the LORD: and they did eat throughout the feast seven days, offering peace offerings, and ^b making confession to the LORD God of their fathers.

23 And the whole assembly took counsel to keep ^e other seven days: and they kept ^e other seven days with gladness.

24 For Hezekiah king of Judah [†] did give to the congregation a thousand bullocks and seven thousand sheep; and the princes gave to the congregation a thousand bullocks and ten thousand sheep: and a great number of priests ^e sanctified themselves.

25 And all the congregation of Judah, with the priests and the Levites, and all the congregation [†] that came out of Israel, and the strangers that came out of the land of Israel, and that dwelt in Judah, rejoiced.

26 So there was great joy in Jerusalem: for since the time of Solomon the son of David king of Israel there was not the like in Jerusalem.

27 ¶ Then the priests the Levites arose and ^e blessed the people: and their voice was heard, and their prayer came ^{up} to [†] his holy dwelling place, even unto heaven.

CHAP. XXXI.

1 The people is forward in destroying idolatry. 2 Hezekiah ordereth the courses of the priests and Levites, and provideth for their work and maintenance. 5 The people's forwardness in offerings and tithes. 11 Hezekiah appointeth officers to dispose of the tithes. 20 The sincerity of Hezekiah.

NOW when all this was finished, all Israel that were [†] present went out to the cities of Judah, and ^a brake the [†] images in pieces, and cut down the groves, and threw down the high places and the altars out of all Judah and Benjamin, in Ephraim also and Manasseh, [†] until they had utterly destroyed them all. Then all the children of Israel returned, every man to his possession, into their own cities.

2 ¶ And Hezekiah appointed ^b the courses of the priests and the Levites after their courses, every man according to his service, the priests and Levites ^e for burnt offerings and for peace offerings, to minister, and to give thanks, and to praise in the gates of the tents of the LORD.

3 He appointed also the king's portion of his substance for the burnt offerings, to wit, for the morning and evening burnt offerings, and the burnt offerings for the sabbaths, and for the new moons, and for the set feasts, as it is written in the ^d law of the LORD.

4 Moreover he commanded the people that dwelt in Jerusalem to give the ^e portion of the priests and the Levites, that they might be encouraged in 'the law of the LORD.

5 ¶ And as soon as the commandment [†] came abroad, the children of Israel brought in abundance ^e the firstfruits of corn, wine, and oil, and ^{||} honey, and of all the increase of the field; and the tithe of all things brought they in abundantly.

6 And concerning the children of Israel and Judah, that dwelt in the cities of Judah, they also brought in the tithe of oxen and sheep, and the ^h tithe of holy things which were consecrated unto the LORD their God, and laid them [†] by heaps.

7 In the third month they began to lay the foundation of the heaps, and finished them in the seventh month.

8 And when Hezekiah and the princes came and saw the heaps, they blessed the LORD, and his people Israel.

9 Then Hezekiah questioned with the priests and the Levites concerning the heaps.

10 And Azariah the chief priest of the house of Zadok answered him, and said, ⁱ Since the people began to bring the offerings into the house of the LORD, we have had enough to eat, and have left plenty: for the LORD hath blessed his people; and that which is left is this great store.

11 ¶ Then Hezekiah commanded to prepare ^{||} chambers in the house of the LORD; and they prepared them, 12 And brought in the offerings and the tithes and the dedicated things faithfully: ^k over which Cononiah the Levite was ruler, and Shimei his brother was the next.

13 And Jehiel, and Azaziah, and Nahath, and Afahel, and Jerimoth, and Jozabad, and Eliel, and Ismachiah, and Mahath, and Benaiiah, were overseers [†] under the hand of Cononiah and Shimei his brother, at the commandment of Hezekiah the king, and Azariah the ruler of the house of God.

14 And Kore the son of Imnah the Levite, the porter toward the east, was over the freewill offerings of God, to distribute the oblations of the LORD, and the most holy things.

15 And [†] next him were Eden, and Miniamin, and Jeshua, and Shemaiah, Amariah, and Shecaniah, in the ^l cities of the priests, in their ^{||} set office, to give to their brethren by courses, as well to the great as to the small:

16 Beside their genealogy of males, from three years old and upward, even unto every one that entereth into the house of the LORD, his daily portion for their service in their charges according to their courses;

18 And to the genealogy of all their little ones, their wives, and their sons, and their daughters, through all the congregation: for in theirⁿ set office they sanctified themselves in holiness:

20 ¶ And thus did Hezekiah throughout all Judah; andⁿ wrought that which was good and right and truth before the LORD his God.

21 And in every work that he began in the service of the house of God, and in the law, and in the commandments, to seek his God, he did it with all his heart, and prospered.

C H A P. XXXII.

1 Sennacherib invading Judah, Hezekiah fortifieth himself, and encourageth his people. 9 Against the blasphemies of Sennacherib by message and letters, Hezekiah and Isaiah pray. 21 An angel destroyeth the host of the Assyrians, to the glory of Hezekiah. 24 Hezekiah praying in his sickness, God giveth him a sign of recovery: 25 he waxing proud, is humbled by God: 27 his wealth and works: 31 his error in the embassy of Babylon: 32 he dying, Manasseh succeedeth him.

AFTER these things, and the establishment thereof, Sennacherib king of Assyria came, and entered into Judah, and encamped against the fenced cities, and thought[†] to win them for himself.

2 And when Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib was come, and that[†] he was purposed to fight against Jerusalem,

3 He took counsel with his princes and his mighty men to stop the waters of the fountains which were without the city: and they did help him.

4 So there was gathered much people together, who stopped all the fountains, and the brook that[†] ran through the midst of the land, saying, Why should the kings of Assyria come, and find much water?

5 Also^b he strengthened himself, and built up all the wall that was broken, and raised it up to the towers, and another wall without, and repaired^a Millo in the city of David, and madeⁿ darts and shields in abundance.

6 And he set captains of war over the people, and gathered them together to him in the street of the gate of the city, and[†] spake comfortably to them, saying,

7^c Be strong and courageous, be not afraid nor dismayed for the king of Assyria, nor for all the multitude that is with him: for^c there be more with us than with him:

8 With him is an^a arm of flesh; butⁱ with us is the LORD our God to help us, and to fight our battles. And the people[†] rested themselves upon the words of Hezekiah king of Judah.

9 ¶ After this did Sennacherib king of Assyria send his servants to Jerusalem, (but he himself laid siege against Lachish, and all his[†] power with him,) unto Hezekiah king of Judah, and unto all Judah that were at Jerusalem, saying,

10 Thus saith Sennacherib king of Assyria, Whereon do ye trust, that ye abideⁿ in the siege in Jerusalem?

11 Doth not Hezekiah persuade you to give over yourselves to die by famine and by thirst, saying, The LORD our God shall deliver us out of the hand of the king of Assyria?

12 Hath not the same Hezekiah taken away his high places and his altars, and commanded Judah and Jerusalem, saying, Ye shall worship before one altar, and burn incense upon it?

13 Know ye not what I and my fathers have done unto all the people of other lands? were the gods of the nations of those lands any ways able to deliver their lands out of mine hand?

14 Who was there among all the gods of those nations that my fathers utterly destroyed, that could deliver his people out of mine hand, that your God should be able to deliver you out of mine hand?

15 Now thereforeⁿ let not Hezekiah deceive you, nor persuade you on this manner, neither yet believe him: for no god of any nation or kingdom was able to deliver his people out of mine hand, and out of the hand of my fathers: how much less shall your God deliver you out of mine hand?

16 And his servants spake yet more against the LORD God, and against his servant Hezekiah.

17 He wrote also letters to rail on the LORD God of Israel, and to speak against him, saying, As the gods of the nations of other lands have not delivered their people out of mine hand, so shall not the God of Hezekiah deliver his people out of mine hand.

18 Then they cried with a loud voice in the Jews' speech unto the people of Jeru-

19 [¶] And they spake against the God of Jerusalem, as against the gods of the people of the earth, which were ^u the work of the hands of man.

20 [¶] ^x And for this cause Hezekiah the king, and ^y the prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz, prayed and cried to heaven.

21 ^z And the LORD sent an angel, which cut off all the mighty men of valour, and the leaders and captains in the camp of the king of Assyria. So he returned with shame of face to his own land. And when he was come into the house of his god, they that came forth of his own bowels [†] slew him there with the sword.

22 Thus the LORD saved Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib the king of Assyria, and from the hand of all other, and guided them on every side.

23 And many brought gifts unto the LORD to Jerusalem, and [†] presents to Hezekiah king of Judah: so that he was ^b magnified in the sight of all nations from thenceforth.

24 [¶] ^c In those days Hezekiah was sick to the death, and prayed unto the LORD: and he spake unto him, and he [¶] gave him a sign.

25 But Hezekiah ^d rendered not again according to the benefit done unto him; for ^e his heart was lifted up: ^f therefore there was wrath upon him, and upon Judah and Jerusalem.

26 [¶] Notwithstanding Hezekiah humbled himself for [†] the pride of his heart, both he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that the wrath of the LORD came not upon them ^h in the days of Hezekiah.

27 [¶] And Hezekiah had exceeding much riches and honour: and he made himself treasuries for silver, and for gold, and for precious stones, and for spices, and for shields, and for all manner of [†] pleasant jewels;

28 Storehouses also for the increase of corn, and wine, and oil; and stalls for all manner of beasts, and cotes for flocks.

29 Moreover he provided him cities, and possessions of flocks and herds in abundance: for ⁱ God had given him substance very much.

30 ^k This same Hezekiah also stopped the upper watercourse of Gihon, and brought it straight down to the west side of the city of David. And Hezekiah prospered in all his works.

have appointed for your fathers; so that they will take heed to do all that I have commanded them, according to the whole law and the statutes and the ordinances by the hand of Moses.

9 So Manasseh made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to err, and to do worse than the heathen, whom the LORD had destroyed before the children of Israel.

10 ¶ And the LORD spake to Manasseh, and to his people: but they would not hearken.

11 ° Wherefore the LORD brought upon them the captains of the host † of the king of Assyria, which took Manasseh among the thorns, and † bound him with † fetters, and carried him to Babylon.

12 And when he was in affliction, he besought the LORD his God, and † humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers, 13 And prayed unto him: and he was † intreated of him, and heard his supplication, and brought him again to Jerusalem into his kingdom. Then Manasseh † knew that the LORD he was God.

14 ¶ Now after this he built a wall without the city of David, on the west side of † Gihon, in the valley, even to the entering in at the fish gate, and compassed † about † Ophel, and raised it up a very great height, and put captains of war in all the fenced cities of Judah.

15 And he took away the † strange gods, and the idol out of the house of the LORD, and all the altars that he had built in the mount of the house of the LORD, and in Jerusalem, and cast them out of the city.

16 And he repaired the altar of the LORD, and sacrificed thereon peace offerings and † thank offerings, and commanded Judah to serve the LORD God of Israel.

17 † Nevertheless the people did sacrifice still in the high places, yet unto the LORD their God only.

18 ¶ Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and his prayer unto his God, and the words of † the seers that spake to him in the name of the LORD God of Israel, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel.

19 His prayer also, and how God was intreated of him, and all his sins, and his trespass, and the places wherein he built high places, and set up groves and graven images, before he was humbled: behold, they are written among the sayings of † the seers.

20 ¶ So Manasseh slept with his fathers, and they buried him in his own house: and Amon his son reigned in his stead.

21 ¶ Amon was two and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned two years in Jerusalem.

22 But he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, as did Manasseh his father: for Amon sacrificed unto all the carved images which Manasseh his father had made, and served them;

23 And humbled not himself before the LORD, † as Manasseh his father had humbled himself; but Amon † trespassed more and more.

24 ° And his servants conspired against him, and slew him in his own house.

25 ¶ But the people of the land slew all them that had conspired against king Amon; and the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his stead.

C H A P. XXXIV.

1 Josiah's good reign: 3 he destroyeth idolatry: 8 he taketh order for the repair of the temple.

14 Hilkiah having found a book of the law, Josiah sendeth to Huldah to enquire of the Lord.

JOSIAH † was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem one and thirty years.

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the ways of David his father, and declined neither to the right hand, nor to the left.

3 ¶ For in the eighth year of his reign, while he was yet young, he began to † seek after the God of David his father: and in the twelfth year he began † to purge Judah and Jerusalem † from the high places, and the groves, and the carved images, and the molten images.

4 ° And they brake down the altars of Baalim in his presence; and the † images, that were on high above them, he cut down; and the groves, and the carved images, and the molten images, he brake in pieces, and made dust of them, † and strowed it upon the † graves of them that had sacrificed unto them.

5 And he † burnt the bones of the priests upon their altars, and cleansed Judah and Jerusalem.

down all the idols throughout all the land of Israel, he returned to Jerusalem.

8 ¶ Now¹ in the eighteenth year of his reign, when he had purged the land, and the house, he sent Shaphan the son of Azariah, and Maaseiah the governor of the city, and Joah the son of Joahaz the recorder, to repair the house of the LORD his God.

9 And when they came to Hilkiah the high priest, they delivered^{*} the money that was brought into the house of God, which the Levites that kept the doors had gathered of the hand of Manasseh and Ephraim, and of all the remnant of Israel, and of all Judah and Benjamin; and they returned to Jerusalem.

10 And they put it in the hand of the workmen that had the oversight of the house of the LORD, and they gave it to the workmen that wrought in the house of the LORD, to repair and amend the house:

11 Even to the artificers and builders gave they it, to buy hewn stone, and timber for couplings, and¹¹ to floor the houses which the kings of Judah had destroyed.

12 And the men did the work faithfully: and the overseers of them were Jahath and Obadiah, the Levites, of the sons of Merari; and Zechariah and Meshullam, of the sons of the Kohathites, to set it forward; and other of the Levites, all that could skill of instruments of musick.

13 Also they were over the bearers of burdens, and were overseers of all that wrought the work in any manner of service: and of the Levites there were scribes, and officers, and porters.

14 ¶ And when they brought out the money that was brought into the house of the LORD, Hilkiah the priest^m found a book of the law of the LORD given by[†] Moses.

15 And Hilkiah answered and said to Shaphan the scribe, I have found the book of the law in the house of the LORD. And Hilkiah delivered the book to Shaphan.

16 And Shaphan carried the book to the king, and brought the king word back again, saying, All that was committed[†] to thy servants, they do it.

17 And they have[†] gathered together the money that was found in the house of the LORD, and have delivered it into the hand of the overseers, and to the hand of the workmen.

18 Then Shaphan the scribe told the king, saying, Hilkiah the priest hath given me a book. And Shaphan read[†] it before the king.

19 And it came to pass, when the king had heard the words of the law, that he rent his clothes.

20 And the king commanded Hilkiah, and Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and¹¹ Abdon the son of Micah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Afsaiah a servant of the king's, saying,

21 Go, enquire of the LORD for me, and for them that are left in Israel and in Judah, concerning the words of the book that is found: for great is the wrath of the LORD that is poured out upon us, because our fathers have not kept the word of the LORD, to do after all that is written in this book.

22 And Hilkiah, and they that the king had appointed, went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tikvath, the son of¹¹ Hafrah, keeper of the[†] wardrobe; (now she dwelt in Jerusalem¹¹ in the college:) and they spake to her to that effect.

23 ¶ And he answered them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Tell ye the man that sent you to me,

24 Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, and upon the inhabitants thereof, even all the curses that are written in the book which they have read before the king of Judah:

25 Because they have forsaken me, and have burned incense unto other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the works of their hands; therefore my wrath shall be poured out upon this place, and shall not be quenched.

26 And as for the king of Judah, who sent you to enquire of the LORD, so shall ye say unto him, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel concerning the words which thou hast heard;

27 Because thine heart was tender, and thou didst humble thyself before God, when thou heardest his words against this place, and against the inhabitants thereof, and humbledst thyself before me, and didst rend thy clothes, and weep before me; I have even heard thee also, saith the LORD.

28 Behold, I will gather thee to thy fathers, and thou shalt be gathered to thy grave in peace, neither shall thine eyes see all the evil that I will bring upon this place, and upon the inhabitants of the same. So they brought the king word again.

29 ¶ Then the king sent and gathered together all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem.

30 And the king went up into the house of the LORD, and all the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the priests, and the Levites, and all the people, [†]great and small: and he read in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant that was found in the house of the LORD. 31 And the king stood in his ^a place, and made a covenant before the LORD, to walk after the LORD, and to keep his commandments, and his testimonies, and his statutes, with all his heart; and with all his soul, to perform the words of the covenant which are written in this book.

33 And Josiah took away all the ^a abominations out of all the countries that pertained to the children of Israel, and made all that were present in Israel to serve, even to serve the LORD their God. And all his days they departed not [†] from following the LORD, the God of their fathers.

C A A P. XXXV.

1 Josiah keepeth a most solemn passover: 20 he provoking Pharaoh-necho, is slain at Megiddo. 25 Lamentations for Josiah.

MOREOVER ^a Josiah kept a passover unto the LORD in Jerusalem: and they killed the passover on the ^b fourteenth day of the first month.

2 And he set the priests in their ^c charges, and ^d encouraged them to the service of the house of the LORD,

3 And said unto the Levites ^e that taught all Israel, which were holy unto the LORD, ^f Put the holy ark ^g in the house which Solomon the son of David king of Israel did build; ^h it shall not be a burden upon your shoulders: serve now the LORD your God, and his people Israel,

4 And prepare yourselves by the ⁱ houses of your fathers, after your courses, according to the ^j writing of David king of Israel, and according to the ^k writing of Solomon his son.

5 And ^l stand in the holy place according to the divisions of [†] the families of the fathers of your brethren [†] the people, and after the division of the families of the Levites.

6 So kill the passover, and ^m sanctify yourselves, and prepare your brethren, that they may do according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses:

7 And Josiah ⁿ gave to the people, of the flock, lambs and kids, all for the passover offerings, for all that were present, to the number of thirty thousand, and three thousand bullocks: these were of the king's substance.

8 And his princes [†] gave willingly unto the people, to the priests, and to the Levites: Hilkiah and Zechariah and Jehiel, rulers of the house of God, gave unto the priests for the passover offerings two thousand and six hundred small cattle, and three hundred oxen.

9 Conaniah also, and Shemaiah and Nathaneel, his brethren, and Hashabiah and Jeiel and Jozabad, chief of the Levites, [†] gave unto the Levites for passover offerings five thousand small cattle, and five hundred oxen.

10 So the service was prepared, and the priests [†] stood in their place, and the Levites in their courses, according to the king's commandment.

11 And they killed the passover, and the priests [†] sprinkled the blood from their hands, and the Levites [†] flayed them.

12 And they removed the burnt offerings, that they might give according to the divisions of the families of the people, to offer unto the LORD, as it is written [†] in the book of Moses. And so did they with the oxen.

13 And they [†] roasted the passover with fire according to the ordinance: but the other holy offerings [†] sod they in pots, and in caldrons, and in pans, and [†] divided them speedily among all the people.

14 And afterward they made ready for themselves, and for the priests: because the priests the sons of Aaron were busy in offering of burnt offerings and the fat until night; therefore the Levites prepared for themselves, and for the priests the sons of Aaron.

15 And the singers the sons of Asaph were in their [†] place, according to the [†] commandment of David, and Asaph, and Heman, and Jeduthun the king's seer; and the porters [†] waited at every gate; they might not depart from their service; for their brethren the Levites prepared for them.

16 So all the service of the LORD was prepared the same day, to keep the passover, and to offer burnt offerings upon the altar of the LORD, according to the commandment of king Josiah.

17 And the children of Israel that were [†] present kept the passover at that time, and the feast of [†] unleavened bread seven days.

18 And [†] there was no passover like to that kept in Israel from the days of Samuel the prophet; neither did all the kings of Israel keep such a passover as Josiah kept, and the priests, and the Levites, and all Judah and Israel that were present, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

19 In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah was this passover kept.

20 ¶ After all this, when Josiah had prepared the temple, Necho king of Egypt came up to fight against Charchemish by Euphrates: and Josiah went out against him.

21 But he sent ambassadors to him, saying, What have I to do with thee, thou king of Judah? I come not against thee this day, but against the house wherewith I have war: for God commanded me to make haste: forbear thee from meddling with God, who is with me, that he destroy thee not.

22 Nevertheless Josiah would not turn his face from him, but disguised himself, that he might fight with him, and hearkened not unto the words of Necho from the mouth of God, and came to fight in the valley of Megiddo.

23 And the archers shot at king Josiah; and the king said to his servants, Have me away; for I am sore wounded.

24 ¶ His servants therefore took him out of that chariot, and put him in the second chariot that he had; and they brought him to Jerusalem, and he died, and was buried in one of the sepulchres of his fathers. And all Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Josiah.

25 ¶ And Jeremiah lamented for Josiah: and all the singing men and the singing women spake of Josiah in their lamentations to this day, and made them an ordinance in Israel: and, behold, they are written in the lamentations.

26 ¶ Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and his goodness, according to that which was written in the law of the LORD, 27 And his deeds, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

CHAP. XXXVI.

1 Jehoahaz succeeding, is deposed by Pharaoh, and carried into Egypt. 5 Jehoiakim reigning ill, is carried bound into Babylon. 9 Jehoiachin succeeding, reigneth ill, and is brought into Babylon. 11 Zedekiah succeeding, reigneth ill, and despiseth the prophets, and rebelleth against Nebuchadnezzar. 14 Jerusalem, for the sins of the priests and people, is wholly destroyed. 22 The proclamation of Cyrus.

THEN the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and made him king in his father's stead in Jerusalem.

2 Jehoahaz was twenty and three years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem.

3 And the king of Egypt put him down at Jerusalem, and condemned the land in an hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold.

4 And the king of Egypt made Eliakim his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem, and turned his name to Jehoiakim. And Necho took Jehoahaz his brother, and carried him to Egypt.

5 ¶ Jehoiakim was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: and he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD his God.

6 ¶ Against him came up Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and bound him in fetters, to carry him to Babylon.

7 ¶ Nebuchadnezzar also carried of the vessels of the house of the LORD to Babylon, and put them in his temple at Babylon.

8 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and his abominations which he did, and that which was found in him, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah: and Jehoiachin his son reigned in his stead.

9 ¶ Jehoiachin was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months and ten days in Jerusalem: and he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD.

10 And when the year was expired, king Nebuchadnezzar sent, and brought him to Babylon, with the goodly vessels of the house of the LORD, and made Zedekiah his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem.

11 ¶ Zedekiah was one and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned eleven years in Jerusalem.

12 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD his God, and humbled not himself before Jeremiah the prophet speaking from the mouth of the LORD.

13 And he also rebelled against king Nebuchadnezzar, who had made him swear by God: but he stiffened his neck, and hardened his heart from turning unto the LORD God of Israel.

14 ¶ Moreover all the chief of the priests, and the people, transgressed very much after all the abominations of the heathen; and polluted the house of the LORD which he had hallowed in Jerusalem.

15 ¶ And the LORD God of their fathers sent to them by his messengers, rising up betimes, and sending; because he had compassion on his people, and on his dwelling place:

- 1 The proclamation of Cyrus for the building of the temple. 5 The people provide for their return.
7 Cyrus restoreth the vessels of the temple to Sheshbazzar.

NOW in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, that the word of the LORD
* by the mouth of Jeremiah might be fulfilled, the LORD stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, ^b that he † made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and put it also in writing, saying,

2 Thus saith Cyrus king of Persia, The LORD God of heaven hath given me all the kingdoms of the earth; and he hath * charged me to build him an house at Jerusalem, which is in Judah.

3 Who is there among you of all his people? his God be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judah, and build the house of the LORD God of Israel, (^a he is the God,) which is in Jerusalem.

4 And whosoever remaineth in any place where he sojourneth, let the men of his place † help him with silver, and with gold, and with goods, and with beasts, beside the freewill offering for the house of God that is in Jerusalem.

5 ¶ Then rose up the chief of the fathers of Judah and Benjamin, and the priests, and the Levites, with all them whose spirit ^c God had raised, to go up to build the house of the LORD which is in Jerusalem.

6 And all they that were about them † strengthened their hands with vessels of silver, with gold, with goods, and with beasts, and with precious things, beside all that was willingly offered.

7 ¶ Also Cyrus the king brought forth the vessels of the house of the LORD, ^e which Nebuchadnezzar had brought forth out of Jerusalem, and had put them in the house of his gods;

8 Even those did Cyrus king of Persia bring forth by the hand of Mithredath the treasurer, and numbered them unto ^h Sheshbazzar, the prince of Judah.

9 And this is the number of them: thirty chargers of gold, a thousand chargers of silver, nine and twenty knives,

10 Thirty basons of gold, silver basons of a second sort four hundred and ten, and other vessels a thousand.

11 All the vessels of gold and of silver were five thousand and four hundred. All these did Sheshbazzar bring up with them of † the captivity that were brought up from Babylon unto Jerusalem.

10 And when the builders laid the foundation of the temple of the LORD, they set the priests in their apparel with trumpets, and the Levites the sons of Asaph with cymbals, to praise the LORD, after the ordinance of David king of Israel.

11 And they sang together by course in praising and giving thanks unto the LORD; because he is good, for his mercy endureth for ever toward Israel. And all the people shouted with a great shout, when they praised the LORD, because the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid.

12 But many of the priests and Levites and chief of the fathers, who were ancient men, that had seen the first house, when the foundation of this house was laid before their eyes, wept with a loud voice; and many shouted aloud for joy:

13 So that the people could not discern the noise of the shout of joy from the noise of the weeping of the people: for the people shouted with a loud shout, and the noise was heard afar off.

NOW when the adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that the children of the captivity builded the temple unto the LORD God of Israel;

2 Then they came to Zerubbabel, and to the chief of the fathers, and said unto them, Let us build with you: for we seek your God, as ye do; and we do sacrifice unto him since the days of Esar-haddon king of Assur, which brought us up hither.

3 But Zerubbabel, and Jeshua, and the rest of the chief of the fathers of Israel, said unto them, Ye have nothing to do with us to build an house unto our God; but we ourselves together will build unto the LORD God of Israel, as king Cyrus the king of Persia hath commanded us.

4 Then the people of the land weakened the hands of the people of Judah, and troubled them in building,

5 And hired counsellors against them, to frustrate their purpose, all the days of Cyrus king of Persia, even until the reign of Darius king of Persia.

6 And in the reign of Ahasuerus, in the beginning of his reign, wrote they unto him an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem.

7 And in the days of Artaxerxes wrote Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabeel, and the rest of their companions, unto Artaxerxes king of Persia; and the writing of the letter was written in the Syrian tongue, and interpreted in the Syrian tongue.

8 Rehum the chancellor and Shimshai the scribe wrote a letter against Jerusalem to Artaxerxes the king in this sort:

9 Then wrote Rehum the chancellor, and Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of their companions; the Dinaites, the Apharsathchites, the Tarpelites, the Apharhites, the Archevites, the Babylonians, the Susanchites, the Dehavites, and the Elamites,

10 And the rest of the nations whom the great and noble Asnapper brought over, and set in the cities of Samaria, and the rest that are on this side the river, and at such a time.

11 This is the copy of the letter that they sent unto him, even unto Artaxerxes the king; Thy servants the men on this side the river, and at such a time.

12 Be it known unto the king, that the Jews which came up from thee to us are come unto Jerusalem, building the rebellious and the bad city, and have set up the walls thereof, and joined the foundations.

13 Be it known now unto the king, that, if this city be builded, and the walls set up again, then will they not pay toll, tribute, and custom, and so thou shalt endamage the revenue of the kings.

14 Now because we have maintenance from the king's palace, and it was not meet for us to see the king's dishonour, therefore have we sent and certified the king;

15 That search may be made in the book of the records of thy fathers: so shalt thou find in the book of the records, and know that this city is a rebellious city, and hurtful unto kings and provinces, and that they have moved sedition within the same of old time: for which cause was this city destroyed.

16 We certify the king that, if this city be builded again, and the walls thereof set up, by this means thou shalt have no portion on this side the river.

17 Then sent the king an answer unto Rehum the chancellor, and to Shimshai the scribe, and to the rest of their companions that dwell in Samaria, and unto the rest beyond the river, Peace; and at such a time:

18 The letter which ye sent unto us hath been plainly read before me.

19 And I commanded, and search hath been made, and it is found that this city of old time hath made insurrection against kings, and that rebellion and sedition have been made therein.

C H A P. V.

1 Zerubbabel, and Jeshua, incited by Haggai and Zechariah, set forward the building of the temple. 3 Tatnai and Shethar-boznai could not hinder the Jews. 6 Their letter to Darius against the Jews.

THEN the prophets, Haggai the prophet, and Zechariah the son of Iddo, prophesied unto the Jews that were in Judah and Jerusalem in the name of the God of Israel, even unto them.

2 Then rose up Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and began to build the house of God which is at Jerusalem: and with them were the prophets of God helping them.

3 ¶ At the same time came to them Tatnai, governor on this side the river, and Shethar-boznai, and their companions, and said thus unto them, Who hath commanded you to build this house, and to make up this wall?

4 Then said we unto them after this manner, What are the names of the men that make this building?

5 But the eye of their God was upon the elders of the Jews, that they could not cause them to cease, till the matter came to Darius: and then they returned answer by letter concerning this matter.

6 ¶ The copy of the letter that Tatnai, governor on this side the river, and Shethar-boznai, and his companions the Apharsachites, which were on this side the river, sent unto Darius the king:

7 They sent a letter unto him, wherein was written thus; Unto Darius the king, all peace.

8 Be it known unto the king, that we went into the province of Judea, to the house of the great God, which is builded with great stones, and timber is laid in the walls, and this work goeth fast on, and prospereth in their hands.

9 Then asked we those elders, and said unto them thus, Who commanded you to build this house, and to make up these walls?

10 We asked their names also, to certify thee, that we might write the names of the men that were the chief of them.

11 And thus they returned us answer, saying, We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth, and build the house that was builded these many years ago, which a great king of Israel builded and set up.

12 But after that our fathers had provoked the God of heaven unto wrath, he gave them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, the Chaldean, who destroyed this house, and carried the people away into Babylon.

13 But in the first year of Cyrus the king of Babylon the same king Cyrus made a decree to build this house of God.

14 And the vessels also of gold and silver of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took out of the temple that was in Jerusalem, and brought them into the temple of Babylon, those did Cyrus the king take out of the temple of Babylon, and they were delivered unto one, whose name was Sheshbazzar, whom he had made governor;

15 And said unto him, Take these vessels, go, carry them into the temple that is in Jerusalem, and let the house of God be builded in his place.

16 Then came the same Sheshbazzar, and laid the foundation of the house of God which is in Jerusalem: and since that time even until now hath it been in building, and yet it is not finished.

17 Now therefore, if it seem good to the king, let there be search made in the king's treasure house, which is there at Babylon, whether it be so, that a decree was made of Cyrus the king to build this house of God at Jerusalem, and let the king send his pleasure to us concerning this matter.

C H A P. VI.

1 Darius finding the decree of Cyrus, maketh a new decree for the advancement of the building.

13 By the help of the enemies, and the directions of the prophets, the temple is finished. 16 The feast of the dedication is kept, 19 and the passover.

THEN Darius the king made a decree, and search was made in the house of the rolls, where the treasures were laid up in Babylon.

2 And there was found at Achmetha, in the palace that is in the province of the Medes, a roll, and therein was a record thus written:

3 In the first year of Cyrus the king, the same Cyrus the king made a decree concerning the house of God at Jerusalem, Let the house be builded, the place where they offered sacrifices, and let the foundations thereof be strongly laid; the height thereof threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof threescore cubits;

4 With three rows of great stones, and a row of new timber: and let the expences be given out of the king's house:

5 And also let the golden and silver vessels of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took forth out of the temple which is at Jerusalem, and brought unto Babylon, be restored, and brought again unto the temple which is at Jerusalem, every one to his place, and place them in the house of God.

6 Now therefore, Tatnai, governor beyond the river, Shethar-boznai, and your companions the Apharhachites, which are beyond the river, be ye far from thence:

7 Let the work of this house of God alone; let the governor of the Jews and the elders of the Jews build this house of God in his place.

8 Moreover I make a decree what ye shall do to the elders of these Jews for the building of this house of God: that of the king's goods, even of the tribute beyond the river, forthwith expences be given unto these men, that they be not hindered.

9 And that which they have need of, both young bullocks, and rams, and lambs; for the burnt offerings of the God of heaven, wheat, salt, wine, and oil, according to the appointment of the priests which are at Jerusalem, let it be given them day by day without fail:

10 That they may offer sacrifices of sweet savours unto the God of heaven, and pray for the life of the king, and of his sons.

11 Also I have made a decree, that whosoever shall alter this word, let timber be pulled down from his house, and being set up, let him be hanged thereon; and let his house be made a dunghil for this.

12 And the God that hath caused his name to dwell there destroy all kings and people, that shall put to their hand to alter and to destroy this house of God which is at Jerusalem. I Darius have made a decree; let it be done with speed.

13 Then Tatnai, governor on this side the river, Shethar-boznai, and their companions, according to that which Darius the king had sent, so they did speedily.

14 And the elders of the Jews builded, and they prospered through the prophesying of Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the son of Iddo. And they builded, and finished it, according to the commandment of the God of Israel, and according to the commandment of Cyrus, and Darius, and Artaxerxes king of Persia.

15 And this house was finished on the third day of the month Adar, which was in the sixth year of the reign of Darius the king.

16 And the children of Israel, the priests and the Levites, and the rest of the children of the captivity, kept the dedication of this house of God with joy, 17 And offered at the dedication of this house of God an hundred bullocks, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs; and for a sin offering for all Israel, twelve he goats, according to the number of the tribes of Israel.

18 And they set the priests in their divisions, and the Levites in their courses, for the service of God, which is at Jerusalem; as it is written in the book of Moses.

19 And the children of the captivity kept the passover upon the fourteenth day of the first month.

20 For the priests and the Levites were purified together, all of them were pure, and killed the passover for all the children of the captivity, and for their brethren the priests, and for themselves.

21 And the children of Israel, which were come again out of captivity, and all such as had separated themselves unto them from the filthiness of the heathen of the land, to seek the LORD God of Israel, did eat, 22 And kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days with joy: for the LORD had made them joyful, and turned the heart of the king of Assyria unto them, to strengthen their hands in the work of the house of God, the God of Israel.

3 The son of Amariah, the son of Azariah, the son of Meraioth,

4 The son of Zeraiah, the son of Uzzi, the son of Bukki,

5 The son of Abishua, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the chief priest:

6 This Ezra went up from Babylon; and he was ^aa ready scribe in the law of Moses, which the LORD God of Israel had given: and the king granted him all his request, ^caccording to the hand of the LORD his God upon him.

7 ^fAnd there went up ^gsome of the children of Israel, and of the priests, and ^hthe Levites, and the singers, and the porters, and ⁱthe Nethinims, unto Jerusalem, in the seventh year of Artaxerxes the king.

8 And he came to Jerusalem in the fifth month, which ^jwas in the seventh year of the king.

9 For upon the first ^kday of the first month ^l† began he to go up from Babylon, and on the first ^mday of the fifth month came he to Jerusalem, ⁿaccording to the good hand of his God upon him.

10 For Ezra had prepared his heart to ^oseek the law of the LORD, and to do ^pit, and to ^qteach in Israel statutes and judgments.

11 ^rNow this ^sis the copy of the letter that the king Artaxerxes gave unto Ezra the priest, the scribe, ^teven a scribe of the words of the commandments of the LORD, and of his statutes to Israel.

12 Artaxerxes, ^uking of kings, ^vunto Ezra the priest, a scribe of the law of the God of heaven, perfect ^wpeace, ^xand at such a time.

13 I make a decree, that all they of the people of Israel, and ^yof his priests and Levites, in my realm, which are minded of their own freewill to go up to Jerusalem, go with thee.

14 Forasmuch as thou art sent ^z† of the king, and of his ^{aa}seven counsellors, to enquire concerning Judah and Jerusalem, according to the law of thy God which ^{ab}is in thine hand;

15 And to carry the silver and gold, which the king and his counsellors have freely offered unto the God of Israel, ^{ac}whose habitation ^{ad}is in Jerusalem,

16 ^{ae}And all the silver and gold that thou canst find in all the province of Babylon, with the freewill offering of the people, and of the priests, ^{af}offering willingly for the house of their God which ^{ag}is in Jerusalem:

17 That thou mayest buy speedily with this money bullocks, rams, lambs, with their ^{ah}meat offerings and their drink offerings, and ^{ai}offer them upon the altar of the house of your God which ^{aj}is in Jerusalem.

18 And whatsoever shall seem good to thee, and to thy brethren, to do with the rest of the silver and the gold, that do after the will of your God.

19 The vessels also that are given thee for the service of the house of thy God, ^{ak}those deliver thou before the God of Jerusalem.

20 And whatsoever more shall be needful for the house of thy God, which thou shalt have occasion to bestow, bestow ^{al}it out of the king's treasure house.

21 And I, ^{am}even I Artaxerxes the king, do make a decree to all the treasurers which ^{an}are beyond the river, that whatsoever Ezra the priest, the scribe of the law of the God of heaven, shall require of you, it be done speedily, 22 Unto an hundred talents of silver, and to an hundred ^{ao}† measures of wheat, and to an hundred baths of wine, and to an hundred baths of oil, and salt without prescribing ^{ap}how much.

23 ^{aq}† Whatsoever is commanded by the God of heaven, let it be diligently done for the house of the God of heaven: for why should there be wrath against the realm of the king and his sons?

24 Also we certify you, that touching any of the priests and Levites, singers, porters, Nethinims, or ministers of this house of God, it shall not be lawful to impose toll, tribute, or custom, upon them.

25 And thou, Ezra, after the wisdom of thy God, that ^{ar}is in thine hand, ^{as}set magistrates and judges, which may judge all the people that ^{at}are beyond the river, all such as know the laws of thy God; and ^{au}teach ye them that know ^{av}them not.

26 And whosoever will not do the law of thy God, and the law of the king, let judgment be executed speedily upon him, whether ^{aw}it be unto death, or ^{ax}† to banishment, or to confiscation of goods, or to imprisonment.

27 ^{ay}¶ Blessed be the LORD God of our fathers, ^{az}which hath put ^{ba}such a thing as this in the king's heart, to beautify the house of the LORD which ^{bb}is in Jerusalem:

28 And ^{bc}hath extended mercy unto me before the king, and his counsellors, and before all the king's mighty princes. And I was strengthened as ^{bd}the hand of the LORD my God ^{be}was upon me, and I gathered together out of Israel chief men to go up with me.

1 The companions of Ezra, who returned from Babylon: 15 he sendeth to Iddo for ministers for the temple: 21 he keepeth a fast: 24 he committeth the treasures to the custody of the priests. 31 From Ahava they come to Jerusalem. 33 The treasure is weighed in the temple. 36 The commission is delivered.

THESE ^aare now the chief of their fathers, and this is the genealogy of them that went up with me from Babylon, in the reign of Artaxerxes the king.

2 Of the sons of Phinehas; Gershom: of the sons of Ithamar; Daniel: of the sons of David; ^bHattush.

3 Of the sons of Shechaniah, of the sons of ^cPharosh; Zechariah: and with him were reckoned by genealogy of the males an hundred and fifty.

4 Of the sons of Pahath-moab; Elihoenai the son of Zeraiah, and with him two hundred males.

5 Of the sons of Shechaniah; the son of Jahaziel, and with him three hundred males.

6 Of the sons also of Adin; Ebed the son of Jonathan, and with him fifty males.

7 And of the sons of Elam; Jeshaiah the son of Athaliah, and with him seventy males.

8 And of the sons of Shephatiah; Zebadiah the son of Michael, and with him fourscore males.

9 Of the sons of Joab; Obadiah the son of Jehiel, and with him two hundred and eighteen males.

10 And of the sons of Shelomith; the son of Josiphiah, and with him an hundred and threescore males.

11 And of the sons of Bebai; Zechariah the son of Bebai, and with him twenty and eight males.

12 And of the sons of Azgad; Johanan ^hthe son of Hakkatan, and with him an hundred and ten males.

13 And of the last sons of Adonikam, whose names are these, Eliphelet, Jeiel, and Shemaiah, and with them threescore males.

14 Of the sons also of Bigvai; Uthai, and Zabbud, and with them seventy males.

15 ¶ And I gathered them together to the river that runneth to Ahava; and there ⁱabode we in tents three days: and I viewed the people, and the priests, and found there none of the ^dsons of Levi.

16 Then sent I for Eliezer, for Ariel, for Shemaiah, and for Elnathan, and for Jarib, and for Elnathan, and for Nathan, and for Zechariah, and for Meshullam, chief men; also for Joiarib, and for Elnathan, men of understanding.

17 And I sent them with commandment unto Iddo the chief at the place Casiphia, and [†]I told them what they should say unto Iddo, and to his brethren the Nethinims, at the place Casiphia, that they should bring unto us ministers for the house of our God.

18 And by the good hand of our God upon us they ^ebrought us a man of understanding, of the sons of Mahli, the son of Levi, the son of Israel; and Sherebiah, with his sons and his brethren, eighteen;

19 And Hashabiah, and with him Jeshaiah of the sons of Merari, his brethren and their sons, twenty;

20 ^fAlso of the Nethinims, whom David and the princes had appointed for the service of the Levites, two hundred and twenty Nethinims: all of them were expressed by name.

21 ¶ Then I ^gproclaimed a fast there, at the river of Ahava, that we might ^hafflict ourselves before our God, to seek of him a ⁱright way for us, and for our little ones, and for all our substance.

22 For ^kI was ashamed to require of the king a band of soldiers and horsemen to help us against the enemy in the way: because we had spoken unto the king, saying, 'The hand of our God is upon all them for ^mgood that seek him; but his power and his wrath is ⁿagainst all them that ^oforake him.

23 So we fasted and befought our God for this: and he was ^pintreated of us.

24 ¶ Then I separated twelve of the chief of the priests, Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and ten of their brethren with them,

25 And weighed unto them ^qthe silver, and the gold, and the vessels, even the offering of the house of our God, which the king, and his counsellors, and his lords, and all Israel there present, had offered:

26 I even weighed into their hand six hundred and fifty talents of silver, and silver vessels an hundred talents, and of gold an hundred talents;

27 Also twenty basons of gold, of a thousand drams; and two vessels of [†]fine copper, [†]precious as gold.

28 And I said unto them, Ye are ^r'holy unto the LORD; the vessels are ^s'holy also; and the silver and the gold are a freewill offering unto the LORD God of your fathers.

29 Watch ye, and keep them, until ye weigh them before the chief of the priests and the Levites, and chief of the fathers of Israel, at Jerusalem, in the chambers of the house of the LORD.

30 So took the priests and the Levites the weight of the silver, and the gold, and the

CHAP. X.

1 Shechaniah encourageth Ezra to reform the strange marriages. 6 Ezra mourning, assembleth the people. 9 The people, at the exhortation of Ezra, repent and promise amendment. 15 The care to perform it. 13 The names of them which had married strange wives.

NOW ^a when Ezra had prayed, and when he had confessed, weeping and casting himself down ^b before the house of God, there assembled unto him out of Israel a very great congregation of men and women and children: for the people [†] wept very sore.

2 And Shechaniah the son of Jehiel, one of the sons of Elam, answered and said unto Ezra, We have ^c trespassed against our God, and have taken strange wives of the people of the land: yet now there is hope in Israel concerning this thing.

3 Now therefore let us make a ^d covenant with our God [†] to put away all the wives, and such as are born of them, according to the counsel of my lord, and of those that ^e tremble at ^f the commandment of our God; and let it be done according to the law.

4 Arise; for this matter belongeth unto thee: we also will be with thee: ^g be of good courage, and do it.

5 Then arose Ezra, and made the chief priests, the Levites, and all Israel, ^h to swear that they should do according to this word. And they sware.

6 ¶ ⁱ Then Ezra rose up from before the house of God, and went into the chamber of Johanan the son of Eliashib: and when he came thither, he ^k did eat no bread, nor drink water: for he mourned because of the transgression of them that had been carried away.

7 And they made proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem unto all the children of the captivity, that they should gather themselves together unto Jerusalem;

8 And that whosoever would not come within three days, according to the counsel of the princes and the elders, all his substance should be [†] forfeited, and himself separated from the congregation of those that had been carried away.

9 ¶ Then all the men of Judah and Benjamin gathered themselves together unto Jerusalem within three days. It was the ninth month, and the twentieth day of the month; and ^l all the people sat in the street of the house of God, trembling because of this matter, and for [†] the great rain.

10 And Ezra the priest stood up, and said unto them, Ye have transgressed, and [†] have taken strange wives, to increase the trespass of Israel.

11 Now therefore ^m make confession unto the LORD God of your fathers, and do his pleasure: and ⁿ separate yourselves from the people of the land, and from the strange wives.

12 Then all the congregation answered and said with a loud voice, As thou hast said, so must we do.

13 But the people are many, and it is a time of much rain, and we are not able to stand without, neither is this a work of one day or two: for ^o we are many that have transgressed in this thing.

14 Let now our rulers of all the congregation stand, and let all them which have taken strange wives in our cities come at appointed times, and with them the elders of every city, and the judges thereof, until ^p the fierce wrath of our God ^q for this matter be turned from us.

15 ¶ Only Jonathan the son of Asahel and Jahaziah the son of Tikvah [†] were employed about this matter: and Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite helped them.

16 And the children of the captivity did so. And Ezra the priest, with certain chief of the fathers, after the house of their fathers, and all of them by their names, were separated, and sat down in the first day of the tenth month to examine the matter.

17 And they made an end with all the men that had taken strange wives by the first day of the first month.

18 ¶ And among the sons of the priests there were found that had taken strange wives: namely, of the sons of Jehua the son of Jozadak, and his brethren, Maaseiah, and Eliezer, and Jarib, and Gedaliah.

19 And they ^r gave their hands that they would put away their wives; and being ^s guilty, they offered a ram of the flock for their trespass.

20 And of the sons of Immer; Hanani, and Zebadiah.

21 And of the sons of Harim; Maaseiah, and Elijah, and Shemaiah, and Jehiel, and Uziah.

22 And of the sons of Pashur; Elioenai, Maaseiah, Ishmael, Nethaneel, Jozabad, and Elafah.

CHAP. I.

1 Nehemiah understanding by Hanani the misery of Jerusalem, mourneth, fasteth, and prayeth: 5 his prayer.

THE words of Nehemiah the son of Hachaliah. And it came to pass in the month Chisleu, in the twentieth year, as I was in Shushan the palace,

2 That Hanani, one of my brethren, came, he and certain men of Judah; and I asked them concerning the Jews that had escaped, which were left of the captivity, and concerning Jerusalem.

3 And they said unto me, The remnant that are left of the captivity there in the province are in great affliction and reproach: the wall of Jerusalem also is broken down, and the gates thereof are burned with fire.

4 And it came to pass, when I heard these words, that I sat down and wept, and mourned certain days, and fasted, and prayed before the God of heaven,

5 And said, I beseech thee, O LORD God of heaven, the great and terrible God, that keepeth covenant and mercy for them that love him and observe his commandments:

6 Let thine ear now be attentive, and thine eyes open, that thou mayest hear the prayer of thy servant, which I pray before thee now, day and night, for the children of Israel thy servants, and confess the sins of the children of Israel, which we have sinned against thee: both I and my father's house have sinned.

7 We have dealt very corruptly against thee, and have not kept the commandments, nor the statutes, nor the judgments, which thou commandedst thy servant Moses.

8 Remember, I beseech thee, the word that thou commandedst thy servant Moses, saying, If ye transgress, I will scatter you abroad among the nations:

9 But if ye turn unto me, and keep my commandments, and do them; though there were of you cast out unto the uttermost part of the heaven, yet will I gather them from thence, and will bring them unto the place that I have chosen to set my name there.

10 Now these are thy servants and thy people, whom thou hast redeemed by thy great power, and by thy strong hand.

11 O LORD, I beseech thee, let now thine ear be attentive to the prayer of thy servant, and to the prayer of thy servants, who desire to fear thy name: and prosper, I pray thee, thy servant this day, and grant him mercy in the sight of this man. For I was the king's cupbearer.

BUT it came to pass, ^a that when Sanballat heard that we builded the wall, he was wroth, and took great indignation, and mocked the Jews.

2 And he spake before his brethren and the army of Samaria, and said, What do these feeble Jews? will they [†] fortify themselves? will they sacrifice? will they make an end in a day? will they revive the stones out of the heaps of the rubbish which are burned?

3 Now ^b Tobiah the Ammonite was by him, and he said, Even that which they build, if a fox go up, he shall even break down their stone wall.

4 ^c Hear, O our God; for we are [†] despised: and ^a turn their reproach upon their own head, and give them for a prey in the land of captivity:

5 And ^e cover not their iniquity, and let not their sin be blotted out from before thee: for they have provoked thee to anger before the builders.

6 So build we the wall; and all the wall was joined together unto the half thereof: for the people had a mind to work.

7 ¶ But it came to pass, that ^f when Sanballat, and Tobiah, and the Arabians, and the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites, heard that the walls of Jerusalem [†] were made up, and that the breaches began to be stopped, then they were very wroth,

8 And ^g conspired all of them together to come and to fight against Jerusalem, and [†] to hinder it.

9 Nevertheless ^h we made our prayer unto our God, and set a watch against them day and night, because of them.

10 And Judah said, The strength of the bearers of burdens is decayed, and there is much rubbish; so that we are not able to build the wall.

11 And our adversaries said, They shall not know, neither see, till we come in the midst among them, and slay them, and cause the work to cease.

12 And it came to pass, that when the Jews which dwelt by them came, they said unto us ten times, ¶ From all places whence ye shall return unto us they will be upon you.

13 ¶ Therefore set I [†] in the lower places behind the wall, and on the higher places, I even set the people after their families with their swords, their spears, and their bows.

14 And I looked, and rose up, and said unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, ⁱ Be not ye afraid of them: remember the LORD, which is ^k great and terrible, and ^l fight for your brethren, your sons, and your daughters, your wives, and your houses.

15 And it came to pass, when our enemies heard that it was known unto us, ^m and God had brought their counsel to nought, that we returned all of us to the wall, every one unto his work.

16 And it came to pass from that time forth, that the half of my servants wrought in the work, and the other half of them held both the spears, the shields, and the bows, and the habergeons; and the rulers were behind all the house of Judah.

17 They which builded on the wall, and they that bare burdens, with those that laded, every one with one of his hands wrought in the work, and with the other hand held a weapon.

18 For the builders, ⁿ every one had his sword girded [†] by his side, and so builded. And he that sounded the trumpet was by me.

19 And I said unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, The work is great and large, and we are separated upon the wall, one far from another.

20 In what place therefore ye hear the sound of the trumpet, resort ye thither unto us: ^o our God shall fight for us.

21 So we laboured in the work: and half of them held the spears from the rising of the morning till the stars appeared.

22 Likewise at the same time said I unto the people, Let every one with his servant lodge within Jerusalem, that in the night they may be a guard to us, and labour on the day.

23 So neither I, nor my brethren, nor my servants, nor the men of the guard which followed me, none of us put off our clothes, ^p saving that every one put them off for washing.

CHAP. V.

1 The Jews complain of their debt, mortgage, and bondage. 6 Nehemiah rebuketh the usurers, and causeth them to make a covenant of restitution: 14 he forbeareth his own allowance, and keepeth hospitality.

AND there was a great ^a cry of the people and of their wives against their ^b brethren the Jews.

2 For there were that said, We, our sons, and our daughters, are many: therefore we take up corn for them, that we may eat, and live.

3 Some also there were that said, We have mortgaged our lands, vineyards, and houses, that we might buy corn, because of the dearth.

4 There were also that said, We have borrowed money for the king's tribute, and that upon our lands and vineyards.

5 Yet now ^c our flesh is as the flesh of our brethren, our children as their children: and, lo, we ^d bring into bondage our sons and our daughters to be servants, and some of our daughters are brought unto bondage already: neither is it in our power to redeem them; for other men have our lands and vineyards.

6 ¶ And I was very angry when I heard their cry and these words.

7 Then [†] I consulted with myself, and I rebuked the nobles, and the rulers, and said unto them, ^e Ye exact usury, every one of his brother. And I set a great assembly against them.

8 And I said unto them, We after our ability have ^f redeemed our brethren the Jews, which were sold unto the heathen; and will ye even sell your brethren? or shall they be sold unto us? Then held they their peace, and found nothing to answer.

9 Also I said, It is not good that ye do: ought ye not to walk ^g in the fear of our God ^h because of the reproach of the heathen our enemies?

10 I likewise, and my brethren, and my servants, might exact of them money and corn: I pray you, let us leave off this usury.

11 Restore, I pray you, to them, even this day, their lands, their vineyards, their oliveyards, and their houses, also the hundredth part of the money, and of the corn, the wine, and the oil, that ye exact of them.

12 Then said they, We will restore them, and will require nothing of them; so will we do as thou sayest. Then I called the priests, ⁱ and took an oath of them, that they should do according to this promise.

13 Also ^k I shook my lap, and said, So God shake out every man from his house, and from his labour, that performeth not this promise, even thus be he shaken out, and [†] emptied. And all the congregation said, Amen, and praised the LORD. ^l And the people did according to this promise.

14 ¶ Moreover from the time that I was appointed to be their governor in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year ^m even unto the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes the king, that is, twelve years, I and my brethren have not ⁿ eaten the bread of the governor.

15 But the former governors that had been before me were chargeable unto the people, and had taken of them bread and wine, beside forty shekels of silver; yea, even their servants bare rule over the people: but ^o so did not I, because of the ^p fear of God.

16 Yea, also I continued in the work of this wall, neither bought we any land: and all my servants were gathered thither unto the work.

17 Moreover there were ^q at my table an hundred and fifty of the Jews and rulers, beside those that came unto us from among the heathen that are about us.

18 Now that ^r which was prepared for me daily was one ox and six choice sheep; also fowls were prepared for me, and once in ten days store of all sorts of wine: yet for all this ^s required not I the bread of the governor, because the bondage was heavy upon this people.

19 ^t Think upon me, my God, for good, according to all that I have done for this people.

¶ Sanballat practiseth by craft, by rumours, by hired prophecies, to terrify Nehemiah. 15 The work is finished to the terror of the enemies. 17 Secret intelligence passeth between the enemies and the nobles of Judah.

NOW it came to pass, ^a when Sanballat and Tobiah, and ^b Geshem the Arabian, and the rest of our enemies, heard that I had builded the wall, and that there was no breach left therein; (^b though at that time I had not set up the doors upon the gates;)

2 That Sanballat and Geshem ^c sent unto me, saying, Come, let us meet together in some one of the villages in the plain of ^d Ono. But they ^e thought to do me mischief.

3 And I sent messengers unto them, saying, I am doing a great work, so that I cannot come down: why should the work cease, whilst I leave it, and come down to you?

4 Yet they sent unto me four times after this fort; and I answered them after the same manner.

5 ¶ Then sent Sanballat his servant unto me in like manner the fifth time with an open letter in his hand;

6 Wherein was written, It is reported among the heathen, and ^h Gashmu saith it, ⁱ that thou and the Jews think to rebel: for which cause thou buildest the wall, that thou mayest be their king, according to these words.

words. Come now therefore, and let us take counsel together.

8 Then I sent unto him, saying, There are no such things done as thou sayest, but thou feignest them out of thine own heart.

9 For they all made us afraid, saying, Their hands shall be weakened from the work, that it be not done. Now therefore, O God, strengthen my hands.

10 ¶ Afterward I came unto the house of Shemaiah the son of Delaiah the son of Mehetabeel, who was shut up; and he said, Let us meet together in the house of God, within the temple, and let us shut the doors of the temple: for they will come to slay thee; yea, in the night will they come to slay thee.

11 And I said, Should such a man as I flee? and who is there, that, being as I am, would go into the temple to save his life? I will not go in.

12 And, lo, I perceived that God had not sent him; but that ^e he pronounced this prophecy against me: for Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him.

13 Therefore was he hired, that I should be afraid, and do so, and sin, and that they might have matter for an evil report, that they might reproach me.

14 ^h My God, think thou upon Tobiah and Sanballat according to these their works, and on the ⁱ prophets Noadiah, and the rest of the prophets, that would have put me in fear.

15 ¶ So the wall was finished in the twenty and fifth day of the month Elul, in fifty and two days.

16 And it came to pass, that ^k when all our enemies heard thereof, and all the heathen that were about us saw these things, they were much cast down in their own eyes: for ^l they perceived that this work was wrought of our God.

17 ¶ Moreover in those days the nobles of Judah [†] sent many letters unto Tobiah, and the letters of Tobiah came unto them.

18 For there were many in Judah sworn unto him, because he was the son in law of Shechaniah the son of Arah; and his son Johanan had taken the daughter of Meshullam the son of Berechiah.

19 Also they reported his good deeds before me, and uttered my [¶] words to him. And Tobiah sent letters to put me in fear.

NOW it came to pass, when the wall was built, and I had ^a set up the doors, and the porters and the fingers and the Levites were appointed,

2 That I gave my brother Hanani, and Hananiah the ruler ^b of the palace, charge over Jerusalem: for he was a faithful man, and ^c feared God above many.

3 And I said unto them, Let not the gates of Jerusalem be opened until the sun be hot; and while they stand by, let them shut the doors, and bar them: and appoint watches of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, every one in his watch, and every one to be over against his house.

4 Now the city was [†] large and great: but the people were few therein, and the houses were not builded.

the Levites, Jeshua, and Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, and Chenani, and cried with a loud voice unto the LORD their God.

5 Then the Levites, Jeshua, and Kad-miel, Bani, Hashabniah, Sherebiah, Hodijah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah, said, Stand up and bless the LORD your God for ever and ever: and blessed be thy glorious name, which is exalted above all blessing and praise.

6 Thou, even thou, art LORD alone; thou hast made heaven, the heaven of heavens, with all their host, the earth, and all things that are therein, the seas, and all that is therein, and thou preservest them all; and the host of heaven worshippeth thee.

7 Thou art the LORD the God, who didst choose Abram, and broughtest him forth out of Ur of the Chaldees, and gavest him
the name of Abraham;

8 And foundest his heart faithful before thee, and madest a covenant with him to give the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Jebusites, and the Girgashites, to give it, I say, to his seed, and hast performed thy words; for thou art righteous:

9 And didst see the affliction of our fathers in Egypt, and heardst their cry
by the Red sea;

10 And shewedst signs and wonders upon Pharaoh, and on all his servants, and on all the people of his land: for thou knewest that they dealt proudly against them. So didst thou get thee a name, as it is this day.

11 And thou didst divide the sea before them, so that they went through the midst of the sea on the dry land; and their persecutors thou threwest into the deeps, as a stone into the mighty waters.

12 Moreover thou leddest them in the day by a cloudy pillar; and in the night by a pillar of fire, to give them light in the way wherein they should go.

13 Thou camest down also upon mount Sinai, and spakest with them from heaven, and gavest them right judgements, and true laws, good statutes and commandments:

14 And madest known unto them thy holy sabbath, and commandedst them precepts, statutes, and laws, by the hand of Moses thy servant:

15 And gavest them bread from heaven for their hunger, and broughtest forth water for them out of the rock for their thirst, and promisedst them that they should go in to possess the land which thou hadst sworn to give them.

16 But they and our fathers dealt proudly, and hardened their necks, and hearkened not to thy commandments,

17 And refused to obey, neither were mindful of thy wonders that thou didst among them; but hardened their necks, and in their rebellion appointed a captain to return to their bondage: but thou art a God ready to pardon, gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and forsookest them not.

18 Yea, when they had made them a molten calf, and said, This is thy God that brought thee up out of Egypt, and had wrought great provocations;

19 Yet thou in thy manifold mercies forsookest them not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not from them by day, to lead them in the way; neither the pillar of fire by night, to shew them light, and the way wherein they should go.

20 Thou gavest also thy good spirit to instruct them, and withheldest not thy a manna from their mouth, and gavest them water for their thirst.

21 Yea, forty years didst thou sustain them in the wilderness, so that they lacked nothing; their clothes waxed not old, and their feet swelled not.

22 Moreover thou gavest them kingdoms and nations, and didst divide them into corners: so they possessed the land of Sihon, and the land of the king of Heshbon, and the land of Og king of Bashan.

23 Their children also multipliedst thou as the stars of heaven, and broughtest them into the land, concerning which thou hadst promised to their fathers, that they should go in to possess it.

24 So the children went in and possessed the land, and thou subduedst before them the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, and gavest them into their hands, with their kings, and the people of the land, that they might do with them as they would.

25 And they took strong cities, and a fat land, and possessed houses full of all goods, wells digged, vineyards and oliveyards, and fruit trees in abundance: so they did eat, and were filled, and became fat, and delighted themselves in thy great goodness.

26 Nevertheless they were disobedient, and rebelled against thee, and cast thy law behind their backs, and slew thy prophets which testified against them to turn them to thee, and they wrought great provocations.

27 Therefore thou deliveredst them into the hand of their enemies, who vexed them: and in the time of their trouble, when they cried unto thee, thou heardest them from heaven; and according to thy manifold mercies thou gavest them saviours, who saved them out of the hand of their enemies.

28 But after they had rest, they did evil again before thee: therefore ledest thou them in the hand of their enemies, so that they had the dominion over them: yet when they returned, and cried unto thee, thou heardest them from heaven; and many times didst thou deliver them according to thy mercies;

29 And testifiedst against them, that thou mightest bring them again unto thy law: yet they dealt proudly, and hearkened not unto thy commandments, but sinned against thy judgements, (which if a man do, he shall live in them;) and withdrew the shoulder, and hardened their neck, and would not hear.

30 Yet many years didst thou forbear them, and testifiedst against them by thy spirit in thy prophets: yet would they not give ear: therefore gavest thou them into the hand of the people of the lands.

31 Nevertheless for thy great mercies' sake thou didst not utterly consume them, nor forsake them; for thou art a gracious and merciful God.

32 Now therefore, our God, the great, the mighty, and the terrible God, who keepest covenant and mercy, let not all the trouble seem little before thee, that hath come upon us, on our kings, on our princes, and on our priests, and on our prophets, and on our fathers, and on all thy people, since the time of the kings of Assyria unto this day.

33 Howbeit thou art just in all that is brought upon us; for thou hast done right, but we have done wickedly:

34 Neither have our kings, our princes, our priests, nor our fathers, kept thy law, nor hearkened unto thy commandments and thy testimonies, wherewith thou didst testify against them.

35 For they have not served thee in their kingdom, and in thy great goodness that thou gavest them, and in the large and fat land which thou gavest before them, neither turned they from their wicked works.

36 Behold, we are servants this day, and for the land that thou gavest unto our fathers to eat the fruit thereof and the good thereof, behold, we are servants in it:

37 And it yieldeth much increase unto the kings whom thou hast set over us because of our sins: also they have dominion over our bodies, and over our cattle, at their pleasure, and we are in great distress.

38 And because of all this we make a sure covenant, and write it; and our princes, Levites, and priests, seal unto it.

singing, with cymbals, psalteries, and with harps.

28 And the sons of the singers gathered themselves together, both out of the plain country round about Jerusalem, and from the villages of Netophathi;

29 Also from the house of Gilgal, and out of the fields of Geba and Azmaveth: for the singers had builded them villages round about Jerusalem.

30 And the priests and the Levites purified themselves, and purified the people, and the gates, and the wall.

31 Then I brought up the princes of Judah upon the wall, and appointed two great companies of them that gave thanks, whereof ⁿ one went on the right hand upon the wall ^o toward the dung gate:

32 And after them went Hoshaiah, and half of the princes of Judah,

33 And Azariah, Ezra, and Meshullam, 34 Judah, and Benjamin, and Shemaiah, and Jeremiah,

35 And certain of the priests' sons ^p with trumpets; namely, Zechariah the son of Jonathan, the son of Shemaiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Michaiah, the son of Zaccur, the son of Asaph:

36 And his brethren, Shemaiah, and Azarael, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethaneel, and Judah, Hanani, with ^q the musical instruments of David the man of God, and Ezra the scribe before them.

37 ^r And at the fountain gate which was over against them, they went up by ^s the stairs of the city of David, at the going up of the wall, above the house of David, even unto ^t the water gate eastward.

38 ^u And the other company of them that gave thanks went over against them, and I after them, and the half of the people upon the wall, from beyond ^v the tower of the furnaces even unto ^w the broad wall;

39 ^x And from above the gate of Ephraim, and above ^y the old gate, and above ^z the fish gate, ^a and the tower of Hananeel, and the tower of Meah, even unto ^b the sheep gate: and they stood still in ^c the prison gate.

40 So stood the two companies of them that gave thanks in the house of God, and I, and the half of the rulers with me:

41 And the priests; Eliakim, Maaseiah, and Hananiah, with trumpets;

43 Also that day they offered great sacrifices, and rejoiced: for God had made them rejoice with great joy: the wives also and the children rejoiced: so that the joy of Jerusalem was heard even afar off.

44 ¶ And at that time were some appointed over the chambers for the treasures, for the offerings, for the firstfruits, and for the tithes, to gather into them out of the fields of the cities the portions † of the law for the priests and Levites: † for Judah rejoiced for the priests and for the Levites † that waited.

45 And both the fingers and the porters kept the ward of their God, and the ward of the purification, † according to the commandment of David, and of Solomon his son.

46 For in the days of David † and Asaph of old there were chief of the fingers, and songs of praise and thanksgiving unto God.

47 And all Israel in the days of Zerubabel, and in the days of Nehemiah, gave the portions of the fingers and the porters, every day his portion; † and they † sanctified holy things unto the Levites; † and the Levites sanctified them unto the children of Aaron.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Upon the reading of the law, separation is made from the mixed multitude. 4 Nehemiah at his return causeth the chambers to be cleansed:

10 he reformeth the offices in the house of God.

15 The violation of the sabbath, 23 and the marriages with strange wives.

ON that day † they read in the book of Moses in the † audience of the people; and therein was found written, † that the Ammonite and the Moabite should not come into the congregation of God for ever;

2 Because they met not the children of Israel with bread and with water, but † hired Balaam against them, that he should curse them: † howbeit our God turned the curse into a blessing.

3 Now it came to pass, when they had heard the law, † that they separated from Israel all the mixed multitude.

4 ¶ And before this, Eliahib the priest, † having the oversight of the chamber of the house of our God, was allied unto Tobiah:

5 And he had prepared for him a great chamber, † where aforetime they laid the meat offerings, the frankincense, and the vessels, and the tithes of the corn, the new wine, and the oil, † which was commanded to be given to the Levites, and the fingers, and the porters; and the offerings of the priests.

6 But in all this time was not I at Jerusalem: † for in the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes king of Babylon came I unto the king, and † after certain days † obtained I leave of the king:

7 And I came to Jerusalem, and understood of the evil that Eliahib did for Tobiah, in † preparing him a chamber in the courts of the house of God.

8 And it grieved me sore: therefore I cast forth all the household stuff of Tobiah out of the chamber.

9 Then I commanded, and they † cleansed the chambers: and thither brought I again the vessels of the house of God, with the meat offering and the frankincense.

10 ¶ And I perceived that the portions of the Levites had † not been given them: for the Levites and the fingers, that did the work, were fled every one to † his field.

11 Then † contended I with the rulers, and said, † Why is the house of God forsaken? And I gathered them together, and set them in their † place.

12 † Then brought all Judah the tithe of the corn and the new wine and the oil unto the † treasuries.

13 † And I made treasurers over the treasuries, Shelemiah the priest, and Zadok the scribe, and of the Levites, Pedaiah: and † next to them was Hanan the son of Zaccur, the son of Mattaniah: for they were counted † faithful, and † their office was to distribute unto their brethren.

14 † Remember me, O my God, concerning this, and wipe not out my † good deeds that I have done for the house of my God, and for the † offices thereof.

15 ¶ In those days saw I in Judah some treading wine presses † on the sabbath, and bringing in sheaves, and lading asses; as also wine, grapes, and figs, and all manner of burdens, which they brought into Jerusalem on the sabbath day: and I testified against them in the day wherein they sold victuals.

16 There dwelt men of Tyre also therein, which brought fish, and all manner of ware, and sold on the sabbath unto the children of Judah, and in Jerusalem.

17 † Then I contended with the nobles of Judah, and said unto them, What evil thing is this that ye do, and profane the sabbath day?

18 † Did not your fathers thus, and did not our God bring all this evil upon us, and upon this city? yet ye bring more wrath upon Israel by profaning the sabbath.

19 And it came to pass, that when the gates of Jerusalem † began to be dark before the sabbath, I commanded that the gates should be shut, and charged that they

15 † What shall we do unto the queen Vashti according to law, because she hath not performed the commandment of the king Ahafuerus by the chamberlains?

16 And Memucan answered before the king and the princes, Vashti the queen hath not done wrong to the king only, but also to all the princes, and to all the people that are in all the provinces of the king Ahafuerus.

17 For this deed of the queen shall come abroad unto all women, so that they shall ^e despise their husbands in their eyes, when it shall be reported, The king Ahafuerus commanded Vashti the queen to be brought in before him, but she came not.

18 Likewise shall the ladies of Persia and Media say this day unto all the king's princes, which have heard of the deed of the queen. Thus shall there arise too much contempt and wrath.

19 † If it please the king, let there go a royal commandment † from him, and let it be written among the laws of the Persians and the Medes, † that it be not altered, That Vashti come no more before king Ahafuerus; and let the king give her royal estate † unto another that is better than she.

CHAP. II.

1 Out of the choice of virgins a queen is to be chosen. 5 Mordecai the nursing father of Esther. 8 Esther is preferred by Hegai before the rest.

1 2 The manner of purification, and going in to the king. 15 Esther, best pleasing the king, is made queen. 21 Mordecai, discovering a treason, is recorded in the chronicles.

AFTER these things, when the wrath of king Ahafuerus was appeased, he remembered Vashti, and what she had done, and ^a what was decreed against her.

2 Then said the king's servants that ministered unto him, Let there be fair young virgins sought for the king:

3 And let the king appoint officers in all the provinces of his kingdom, that they may gather together all the fair young virgins unto Shushan the palace, to the house of the women, † unto the custody of † Hegai the king's chamberlain, keeper of the women; and let their things for purification be given them:

4 And let the maiden which pleaseth the king be queen instead of Vashti. And the thing pleased the king; and he did so.

5 ¶ Now in Shushan the palace there was a certain Jew, whose name was Mordecai, the son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish, a Benjamite;

6 ^b Who had been carried away from Jerusalem with the captivity which had been carried away with † Jeconiah king of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away.

7 And he † brought up Hadasah, that is, Esther, ^c his uncle's daughter: for she had neither father nor mother, and the maid was † fair and beautiful; whom Mordecai, when her father and mother were dead, took for his own daughter.

8 ¶ So it came to pass, when the king's commandment and his decree was heard, and when many maidens were ^d gathered together unto Shushan the palace, to the custody of Hegai, that Esther was brought also unto the king's house, to the custody of Hegai, keeper of the women.

9 And the maiden pleased him, and she obtained kindness of him; and he speedily gave her her ^e things for purification, with † such things as belonged to her, and seven maidens, which were meet to be given her, out of the king's house: and † he preferred her and her maids unto the best place of the house of the women.

10 † Esther had not shewed her people nor her kindred: for Mordecai had charged her that she should not shew it.

11 And Mordecai walked every day before the court of the women's house, † to know how Esther did, and what should become of her.

come to go in to king Ahasuerus, after that she had been twelve months, according to the manner of the women, (for so were the days of their purifications accomplished, to wit, six months with oil of myrrh, and six months with sweet odours, and with other things for the purifying of the women;)

13 Then thus came every maiden unto the king; whatsoever she desired was given her to go with her out of the house of the women unto the king's house.

14 In the evening she went, and on the morrow she returned into the second house of the women, to the custody of Shaashgaz, the king's chamberlain, which kept the concubines: she came in unto the king no more, except the king delighted in her, and that she were called by name.

15 ¶ Now when the turn of Esther, ^e the daughter of Abihail the uncle of Mordecai, who had taken her for his daughter, was come to go in unto the king, she required nothing but what Hegai the king's chamberlain, the keeper of the women, appointed. And Esther obtained favour in the sight of all them that looked upon her.

16 So Esther was taken unto king Ahasuerus into his house royal in the tenth month, which is the month Tebeth, in the seventh year of his reign.

17 And the king loved Esther above all the women, and she obtained grace and ^l favour [†] in his sight more than all the virgins; so that he set the royal crown upon her head, and made her queen instead of Vashti.

18 Then the king ^b made a great feast unto all his princes and his servants, even Esther's feast; and he made a [†] release to the provinces, and gave gifts, according to the state of the king.

19 And when the virgins were gathered together the second time, then Mordecai sat [†] in the king's gate.

20 ^k Esther had not yet shewed her kindred nor her people; as Mordecai had charged her: for Esther did the commandment of Mordecai, like as when she was brought up with him.

21 ¶ In those days, while Mordecai sat in the king's gate, two of the king's chamberlains, ^l Bigthan and Teresh, of those which kept [†] the door, were wroth, and sought to lay hand on the king Ahasuerus.

22 And the thing was known to Mordecai, ^m who told it unto Esther the queen; and Esther certified the king thereof in Mordecai's name.

23 And when inquisition was made of the matter, it was found out; therefore they were both hanged on a tree: and it was written in ⁿ the book of the chronicles before the king.

CHAP. III.

1 Haman, advanced by the king, and despised by Mordecai, seeketh revenge upon all the Jews: 7 he casteth lots: 8 he obtaineth, by calumniation, a decree of the king to put the Jews to death.

AFTER these things did king Ahasuerus promote ^a Haman the son of Hammedatha the ^b Agagite, and advanced him, and set his seat above all the princes that were with him.

2 And all the king's servants, that were ^c in the king's gate, bowed, and revered Haman: for the king had so commanded concerning him. But Mordecai ^d bowed not, nor did him reverence.

3 Then the king's servants, which were in the king's gate, said unto Mordecai, Why transgressest thou the ^e king's commandment?

4 Now it came to pass, when they spake daily unto him, and he hearkened not unto them, that they told Haman, to see whether Mordecai's matters would stand: for he had told them that he was a Jew.

5 And when Haman saw that Mordecai ^f bowed not, nor did him reverence, then was Haman ^g full of wrath.

6 And he thought scorn to lay hands on Mordecai alone; for they had shewed him the people of Mordecai: wherefore Haman ^h sought to destroy all the Jews that were throughout the whole kingdom of Ahasuerus, even the people of Mordecai.

7 ¶ In the first month, that is, the month Nisan, in the twelfth year of king Ahasuerus, ⁱ they cast Pur, that is, the lot, before Haman from day to day, and from month to month, to the twelfth month, that is, the month Adar.

10 And the king took his ring from his hand, and gave it unto Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the Jews' enemy.

11 And the king said unto Haman, The silver is given to thee, the people also, to do with them as it seemeth good to thee.

12 Then were the king's scribes called on the thirteenth day of the first month, and there was written according to all that Haman had commanded unto the king's lieutenants, and to the governors that were over every province, and to the rulers of every people of every province according to the writing thereof, and to every people after their language; in the name of king Ahasuerus was it written, and sealed with the king's ring.

13 And the letters were sent by posts into all the king's provinces, to destroy, to kill, and to cause to perish, all Jews, both young and old, little children and women, in one day, even upon the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar, and to take the spoil of them for a prey.

14 The copy of the writing for a commandment to be given in every province was published unto all people, that they should be ready against that day.

15 The posts went out, being hastened by the king's commandment, and the decree was given in Shushan the palace. And the king and Haman sat down to drink; but the city Shushan was perplexed.

CHAP. IV.

1 The great mourning of Mordecai and the Jews: 4 Esther understanding it, sendeth to Mordecai, who sheweth the cause, and adviseth her to undertake the suit: 10 she excusing herself, is threatened by Mordecai: 15 she appointing a fast, undertaketh the suit.

WHEN Mordecai perceived all that was done, Mordecai rent his clothes, and put on sackcloth with ashes, and went out into the midst of the city, and cried with a loud and a bitter cry;

2 And came even before the king's gate: for none might enter into the king's gate clothed with sackcloth.

3 And in every province, whithersoever the king's commandment and his decree came, there was great mourning among the Jews, and fasting, and weeping, and wailing; and many lay in sackcloth and ashes.

4 So Esther's maids and her chamberlains came and told her. Then was the queen exceedingly grieved; and she sent raiment to clothe Mordecai, and to take away his sackcloth from him: but he received it not.

5 Then called Esther for Hatach, one of the king's chamberlains, whom he had appointed to attend upon her, and gave him a commandment to Mordecai, to know what it was, and why it was.

6 So Hatach went forth to Mordecai unto the street of the city, which was before the king's gate.

7 And Mordecai told him of all that had happened unto him, and of the sum of the money that Haman had promised to pay to the king's treasuries for the Jews, to destroy them.

8 Also he gave him the copy of the writing of the decree that was given at Shushan to destroy them, to shew it unto Esther, and to declare it unto her, and to charge her that she should go in unto the king, to make supplication unto him, and to make request before him for her people.

9 And Hatach came and told Esther the words of Mordecai.

10 Again Esther spake unto Hatach, and gave him commandment unto Mordecai;

11 All the king's servants, and the people of the king's provinces, do know, that whosoever, whether man or woman, shall come unto the king into the inner court, who is not called, there is one law of his to put him to death, except such to whom the king shall hold out the golden sceptre, that he may live: but I have not been called to come in unto the king these thirty days.

12 And they told to Mordecai Esther's words.

13 Then Mordecai commanded to answer Esther, Think not with thyself that thou shalt escape in the king's house, more than all the Jews.

14 For if thou altogether holdest thy peace at this time, then shall there enlargement and deliverance arise to the Jews from another place; but thou and thy father's house shall be destroyed: and who knoweth whether thou art come to the kingdom for such a time as this?

15 Then Esther bade them return Mordecai this answer,

16 Go, gather together all the Jews that are present in Shushan, and fast ye for me, and neither eat nor drink three days, night or day: I also and my maidens will fast likewise; and so will I go in unto the king, which is not according to the law: and if I perish, I perish.

17 So Mordecai went his way, and did

12 ¶ And Mordecai came again to the king's gate. But Haman † hastened to his house mourning, and having his head covered.

14 And while they were yet talking with him, came the king's chamberlains, and hastened to bring Haman unto the banquet that Esther had prepared.

CHAP. VII.

1 Esther entertaining the king and Haman, maketh suit for her own life and her people's: 5 she accuseth Haman. 7 The king in his anger understanding of the gallows which Haman had made for Mordecai, causeth him to be hanged thereon.

SO the king and Haman came † to banquet with Esther the queen.

2 And the king said again unto Esther on the second day at the banquet of wine, What is thy petition, queen Esther? and it shall be granted thee: and what is thy request? and it shall be performed, even to the half of the kingdom.

3 Then Esther the queen answered and said, If I have found favour in thy sight, O king, and if it please the king, let my life be given me at my petition, and my people at my request:

4 For we are sold, I and my people, † to be destroyed, to be slain, and to perish. But if we had been sold for bondmen and bondwomen; I had held my tongue, although the enemy could not countervail the king's damage.

5 ¶ Then the king Ahasuerus answered and said unto Esther the queen, Who is he, and where is he, † that durst presume in his heart to do so?

6 And Esther said, † The adversary and enemy is this wicked Haman. Then Haman was afraid † before the king and the queen.

7 ¶ And the king arising from the banquet of wine in his wrath went into the palace garden: and Haman stood up to make request for his life to Esther the queen; for he saw that there was evil determined against him by the king.

8 Then the king returned out of the palace garden, into the place of the banquet of wine; and Haman was fallen upon the bed whereon Esther was. Then said the king, Will he force the queen also † before me in the house? As the word went out of the king's mouth, they covered Haman's face.

9 And Harbonah, one of the chamberlains, said before the king, Behold also, the † gallows fifty cubits high, which Haman had made for Mordecai, who had spoken good for the king, standeth in the house of Haman. Then the king said, Hang him thereon.

10 So they hanged Haman on the gallows that he had prepared for Mordecai. Then was the king's wrath pacified.

ON that day did the king Ahasuerus give the house of Haman the Jews' enemy unto Esther the queen. And Mordecai came before the king; for Esther had told what he was unto her.

2 And the king took off his ring, which he had taken from Haman, and gave it unto Mordecai. And Esther set Mordecai over the house of Haman.

3 ¶ And Esther spake yet again before the king, and fell down at his feet, † and besought him with tears to put away the mischief of Haman the Agagite, and his device that he had devised against the Jews.

pleasing in his eyes; let it be written to reverse † the letters devised by Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, † which he wrote to destroy the Jews which are in all the king's provinces:

6 For how can I † endure to see † the evil that shall come unto my people? or how can I endure to see the destruction of my kindred?

7 ¶ Then the king Ahasuerus said unto Esther the queen and to Mordecai the Jew, Behold, † I have given Esther the house of Haman, and him they have hanged upon the gallows, because he laid his hand upon the Jews.

8 Write ye also for the Jews, as it liketh you, in the king's name, and seal it with the king's ring: for the writing which is written in the king's name, and sealed with the king's ring, † may no man reverse.

9 ¶ Then were the king's scribes called at that time in the third month, that is, the month Sivan, on the three and twentieth day thereof; and it was written according to all that Mordecai commanded unto the Jews, and to the lieutenants, and the deputies and rulers of the provinces which are from India unto Ethiopia, † an hundred twenty and seven provinces, unto every province † according to the writing thereof, and unto every people after their language, and to the Jews according to their writing, and according to their language.

10 ¶ And he wrote in the king Ahasuerus' name, and sealed it with the king's ring, and sent letters by posts on horseback, and riders on mules, camels, and young dromedaries:

11 Wherein the king granted the Jews which were in every city to gather themselves together, and to stand for their life, to destroy, to slay, and to cause to perish, all the power of the people and province that would assault them, both little ones and women, and † to take the spoil of them for a prey.

12 ¶ Upon one day in all the provinces of king Ahasuerus, namely, upon the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar:

13 ¶ The copy of the writing for a commandment to be given in every province was † published unto all people, and that the Jews should be ready against that day to avenge themselves on their enemies.

14 So the posts that rode upon mules and camels went out, being hastened and pressed on by the king's commandment.

And the decree was given at Shushan the palace.

15 ¶ And Mordecai went out from the presence of the king in royal apparel of of gold, and with a garment of fine linen and purple: and † the city of Shushan rejoiced and was glad.

17 And in every province, and in every ment and his decree came, the Jews had joy and gladness, a feast † and a good day.

And many of the people of the land became Jews; for † the fear of the Jews fell

CHAP. IX.

1 The Jews (the rulers, for fear of Mordecai, helping them) slay their enemies, with the ten sons of Haman. 12 Ahasuerus, at the request of Esther, granteth another day of slaughter, and Haman's sons to be hanged. 20 The two days of Purim are made festival.

NOW † in the twelfth month, that is, the month Adar, on the thirteenth day of the same, † when the king's commandment and his decree drew near to be put in execution, in the day that the enemies of the Jews hoped to have power over them, (though it was turned to the contrary, that the Jews † had rule over them that hated them;)

2 The Jews † gathered themselves together in their cities throughout all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, to lay hand on such as † sought their hurt: and no man could withstand them; for † the fear of them fell upon all people.

3 And all the rulers of the provinces, and the lieutenants, and the deputies, and † officers of the king, helped the Jews; because the fear of Mordecai fell upon them.

4 For Mordecai was great in the king's house, and his fame went out throughout all the provinces: for this man Mordecai waxed greater and greater.

5 Thus the Jews smote all their enemies with the stroke of the sword, and slaughter, and destruction, and did † what they 16 But the other Jews that were in the king's provinces gathered themselves together, and stood for their lives, and had rest from their enemies, and slew of their foes seventy and five thousand, but they laid not their hands on the prey.

17 On the thirteenth day of the month Adar; and on the fourteenth day of the same rested they, and made it a day of feasting and gladness.

18 But the Jews that were at Shushan assembled together on the thirteenth day thereof, and on the fourteenth thereof; and on the fifteenth day of the same they rested, and made it a day of feasting and gladness.

19 Therefore the Jews of the villages, that dwelt in the unwall'd towns, made the fourteenth day of the month Adar a day of gladness and feasting, and a good day, and of sending portions one to another.

20 And Mordecai wrote these things, and sent letters unto all the Jews that were in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, both nigh and far;

21 To stablish this among them, that they should keep the fourteenth day of the month Adar, and the fifteenth day of the same, yearly,

22 As the days wherein the Jews rested from their enemies, and the month which was turned unto them from sorrow to joy, and from mourning into a good day: that they should make them days of feasting and joy, and of sending portions one to another, and gifts to the poor.

23 And the Jews undertook to do as they had begun, and as Mordecai had written unto them;

24 Because Haman the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had devised against the Jews to destroy them, and had cast Pur, that is, the lot, to consume them, and to destroy them;

25 But when Esther came before the king, he commanded by letters that his wicked device, which he devised against the Jews, should return upon his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows.

26 Wherefore they called these days Purim after the name of Pur. Therefore for all the words of this letter, and of that which they had seen concerning this matter, and which had come unto them,

27 The Jews ordained, and took upon them, and upon their seed, and upon all such as joined themselves unto them, so as it should not fail, that they would keep these two days according to their writing, and according to their appointed time every year;

28 And that these days should be remembered and kept throughout every generation, every family, every province, and every city; and that these days of Purim should not fail from among the Jews, nor the memorial of them perish from their seed.

29 Then Esther the queen, the daughter of Abihail, and Mordecai the Jew, wrote with all authority, to confirm this second letter of Purim.

30 And he sent the letters unto all the Jews, to the hundred twenty and seven provinces of the kingdom of Ahasuerus, with words of peace and truth,

31 To confirm these days of Purim in their times appointed, according as Mordecai the Jew and Esther the queen had enjoined them, and as they had decreed for themselves and for their seed, the matters of the fastings and their cry, 32 And the decree of Esther confirmed these matters of Purim; and it was written in the book.

The Book

CHAP. I.

1 The holiness, riches, and religious care of Job for his children. 6 Satan appearing before God, by calumny obtaineth leave to tempt Job. 13 Understanding of the loss of his goods and children, in his mourning he blesteth God.

THERE was a man in the land of Uz, whose name was Job; and that man was perfect and upright, and one that feared God, and eschewed evil.

2 And there were born unto him seven sons and three daughters.

3 His substance also was seven thousand sheep, and three thousand camels, and five hundred yoke of oxen, and five hundred she asses, and a very great household; so that this man was the greatest of all the men of the east.

4 And his sons went and feasted in their houses, every one his day; and sent and called for their three sisters to eat and to drink with them.

5 And it was so, when the days of their feasting were gone about, that Job sent and sanctified them, and rose up early in the morning, and offered burnt offerings according to the number of them all: for Job said, It may be that my sons have sinned, and cursed God in their hearts. Thus did Job continually.

6 ¶ Now there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan came also among them.

7 And the LORD said unto Satan, Whence comest thou? Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it.

8 And the LORD said unto Satan, Hast thou considered my servant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil?

9 Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, Doth Job fear God for nought?

10 Hast not thou made an hedge about him, and about his house, and about all that he hath on every side? thou hast blessed the work of his hands, and his substance is increased in the land.

11 But put forth thine hand now, and touch all that he hath, and he will curse thee to thy face.

12 And the LORD said unto Satan, Behold, all that he hath is in thy power; only upon himself put not forth thine hand. So Satan went forth from the presence of the LORD.

13 ¶ And there was a day when his sons and his daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house:

14 And there came a messenger unto Job, and said, The oxen were plowing, and the asses feeding beside them:

15 And the Sabeans fell upon them, and took them away; yea, they have slain the servants with the edge of the sword; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

16 While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, The fire of God is fallen from heaven, and hath burned up the sheep, and the servants, and consumed them; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

17 While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, The Chaldeans made out three bands, and fell upon the camels, and have carried them away, yea, and slain the servants with the edge of the sword; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

18 While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, Thy sons and thy daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house:

19 And, behold, there came a great wind from the wilderness, and smote the four corners of the house, and it fell upon the young men, and they are dead; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

20 Then Job arose, and rent his mantle, and shaved his head, and fell down upon the ground, and worshipped, 21 And said, Naked came I out of my mother's womb, and naked shall I return thither: the LORD gave, and the LORD hath taken away; blessed be the name of the LORD.

CHAP. II.

1 Satan appearing again before God, obtaineth further leave to tempt Job: he smiteth him with sore boils: 9 Job reproveth his wife, moving him to curse God: 11 his three friends con-dole with him in silence.

AGAIN * there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan came also among them to present himself before the LORD.

2 And the LORD said unto Satan, From whence comest thou? And ^b Satan answered the LORD, and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it.

3 And the LORD said unto Satan, Hast thou considered my servant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, ^c a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil? and still he ^d holdeth fast his integrity, although thou movedst me against him, ^e to destroy him without cause.

4 And Satan answered the LORD, and said, Skin for skin, yea, all that a man hath will he give for his life.

5 ^f But put forth thine hand now, and touch his ^g bone and his flesh, and he will curse thee to thy face.

6 ^h And the LORD said unto Satan, Behold, he is in thine hand; ⁱ but save his life.

7 ^j So went Satan forth from the presence of the LORD, and smote Job with sore boils ^k from the sole of his foot unto his crown.

8 And he took him a potsherd to scrape himself withal; ^l and he sat down among the ashes.

9 ^m Then said his wife unto him, Dost thou still ⁿ retain thine integrity? curse
God, and die.

10 But he said unto her, Thou speakest as one of the foolish women speaketh.
What? ^o shall we receive good at the hand of God, and shall we not receive evil? ^p In all this did not Job ^q sin with his lips.

11 ^r Now when Job's three ^s friends heard of all this evil that was come upon him, they came every one from his own place;
Eliphaz the ^t Temanite, and Bildad the ^u Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite: for they had made an appointment together to come ^v to mourn with him and to comfort him.

12 And when they lifted up their eyes afar off, and knew him not, they lifted up their voice, and wept; and they rent every one his mantle, and ^w sprinkled dust upon their heads toward heaven.

13 So they sat down with him upon the ground ^x seven days and seven nights, and none spake a word unto him: for they saw that his grief was very great.

CHAP. III.

1 Job curseth the day and services of his birth.

13 The ease of death: 20 he complaineth of life, because of his anguish.

AFTER this opened Job his mouth, and cursed his day.

2 And Job ^y spake, and said,

3 ^z Let the day perish wherein I was born, and the night in which it was said, There is a man child conceived.

4 Let that day be darkness; let not God regard it from above; neither let the light shine upon it.

5 Let darkness and ^a the shadow of death ^b stain it; let ^c a cloud dwell upon it; ^d let the blackness of the day terrify it.

6 As for that night, let darkness seize upon it; ^e let it not be joined unto the days of the year, let it not come into the number of the months.

7 Lo, let that night be solitary, let no joyful voice come therein.

8 Let them curse it that curse the day,
^f who are ready to raise up ^g their mourning.

9 Let the stars of the twilight thereof be dark; let it look for light, but have none;
neither let it see ^h the dawning of the day:

10 Because it shut not up the doors of my mother's womb, nor hid sorrow from mine eyes.

11 ⁱ Why died I not from the womb?
why did I not give up the ghost when I came out of the belly?

12 ^j Why did the knees prevent me? or why the breasts that I should suck?

13 For now should I have lain still and been quiet, I should have slept; then had I been at rest,

14 With kings and counsellors of the earth, which ^k built desolate places for themselves;

15 Or with princes that had gold, who filled their houses with silver:

16 Or ^l as an hidden untimely birth I had not been; as infants which never saw light.

17 There the wicked cease from troubling; and there the ^m weary be at rest.

18 There the prisoners rest together;
ⁿ they hear not the voice of the oppressor.

21 Which ^t long for death, but it cometh not; and dig for it more than ^m for hid treasures;

22 Which rejoice exceedingly, and are glad, when they can find the grave?

23 Why is light given to a man whose way is hid, ^a and whom God hath hedged in?

24 For my sighing cometh ^t before I eat, and my roarings are poured out like the waters.

25 For ^t the thing which I greatly feared is come upon me, and that which I was afraid of is come unto me.

26 I was not in safety, neither had I rest, neither was I quiet; yet trouble came.

CHAP. IV.

1 Eliphaz reproveth Job for want of religion: 7 he teacheth God's judgements to be not for the righteous, but for the wicked: 12 his fearful vision, to humble the excellencies of creatures before God.

THEN Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said,

2 If we assay ^t to commune with thee, wilt thou be grieved? but ^t who can withhold himself from speaking?

3 Behold, thou hast instructed many, and thou ^a hast strengthened the weak hands.

4 Thy words have upholden him that was falling, and thou ^b hast strengthened ^t the feeble knees.

5 But now it is come upon thee, and thou faintest; it toucheth thee, and thou art troubled.

6 Is not this ^c thy fear, ^d thy confidence, thy hope, and the uprightness of thy ways?

7 Remember, I pray thee, ^e who ever perished, being innocent? or where were the righteous cut off?

8 Even as I have seen, ^f they that plow iniquity, and sow wickedness, reap the same.

9 By the blast of God they perish, and by the breath of his nostrils are they consumed.

10 The roaring of the lion, and the voice of the fierce lion, and ^g the teeth of the young lions, are broken.

11 The old lion perisheth for lack of prey, and the stout lion's whelps are scattered abroad.

12 Now a thing was ^t secretly brought to me, and mine ear received a little thereof.

13 In thoughts from the visions of the night, when deep sleep falleth on men, 14 Fear ^t came upon me, and ^k trembling, which made ^t all my bones to shake.

15 Then a spirit passed before my face; the hair of my flesh stood up:

16 It stood still, but I could not discern the form thereof: an image was before mine eyes, ^l there was silence, and I heard a voice, saying,

17 Shall mortal man be more just than God? shall a man be more pure than his maker?

18 Behold, he ^m put no trust in his servants; ⁿ and his angels he charged with folly:

19 How much less in them that dwell in ^o houses of clay, whose foundation is in the dust, which are crushed before the moth?

20 They are ^p destroyed from morning to evening: they perish for ever without any regarding it.

21 Doth not their excellency which is in them go away? ^q they die, even without wisdom.

CHAP. V.

1 The harm of inconsideration. 3 The end of the wicked is misery. 6 God is to be regarded in affliction. 17 The happy end of God's correction.

CALL now, if there be any that will answer thee; and to which of the saints wilt thou ^r turn?

2 For wrath killeth the foolish man, and ^s envy slayeth the silly one.

3 I have seen the foolish taking root: but suddenly I cursed his habitation.

4 His children are far from safety, and they are crushed in the gate, ^t neither is there any to deliver them.

5 Whose harvest the hungry eateth up, and taketh it even out of the thorns, and ^u the robber swalloweth up their substance.

6 Although ^v affliction cometh not forth of the dust, neither doth trouble spring out of the ground;

7 Yet man is ^w born unto ^x trouble, as ^y the sparks fly upward.

8 I would seek unto God, and unto God would I commit my cause:

9 Which doeth great things ^z and unsearchable; marvellous things ^{aa} without number:

10 Who giveth rain upon the earth, and sendeth water upon the ^{ab} fields:

30 Is there iniquity in my tongue? cannot [†] my taste discern perverse things?

CHAP. VII.

1 Job excuseth his desire of death: 12 he complaineth of his own restlessness, and God's watchfulness.

IS there not [†] an appointed time to man upon earth? are not his days also like the days of an hireling?

2 As a servant [†] earnestly desireth the shadow, and as an hireling looketh for the reward of his work:

3 So am I made to possess ^b months of vanity, and wearisome nights are appointed to me.

4 ^c When I lie down, I say, When shall I arise, and [†] the night be gone? and I am full of tossings to and fro unto the dawning of the day.

5 My flesh is ^d clothed with worms and clods of dust; my skin is broken, and become loathsome.

6 ^e My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle, and are spent without hope.

7 O remember that ^f my life is wind: mine eye [†] shall no more [†] see good.

8 ^g The eye of him that hath seen me shall see me no more: thine eyes are upon me, and [†] I am not.

9 As the cloud is consumed and vanisheth away: so ^h he that goeth down to the grave shall come up no more.

10 He shall return no more to his house, ⁱ neither shall his place know him any more.

11 Therefore I will ^k not refrain my mouth; I will speak in the anguish of my spirit; I will ^l complain in the bitterness of my soul.

12 Am I a sea, or a whale, that thou settest a watch over me?

13 ^m When I say, My bed shall comfort me, my couch shall ease my complaint;

14 Then thou scarest me with dreams, and terrifiest me through visions:

15 So that my soul chooseth strangling, and death rather [†] than my life.

16 ⁿ I loath it; I would not live alway: ^o let me alone; ^p for my days are vanity.

17 ^q What is man, that thou shouldest magnify him? and that thou shouldest set thine heart upon him?

18 And that thou shouldest visit him every morning, and try him every moment?

19 How long wilt thou not depart from me, nor let me alone till I swallow down my spittle?

20 I have sinned; what shall I do unto thee, ^r O thou preserver of men? why ^s hast thou set me as a mark against thee, so that I am a burden to myself?

21 And why dost thou not pardon my transgression, and take away mine iniquity? for now shall I sleep in the dust; and thou shalt seek me in the morning, but I shall not be.

CHAP. VIII.

1 Bildad sheweth God's justice in dealing with men according to their works: 8 he alledgeth antiquity to prove the certain destruction of the hypocrite: 20 he applyeth God's just dealing to Job.

THEN answered Bildad the Shuhite, and said,

2 How long wilt thou speak these things? and how long shall the words of thy mouth be like a strong wind?

3 ^a Doth God pervert judgement? or doth the Almighty pervert justice?

4 If ^b thy children have sinned against him, and he have cast them away [†] for their transgression;

5 ^c If thou wouldest seek unto God sometimes, and make thy supplication to the Almighty;

6 If thou wert pure and upright; surely now he would awake for thee, and make the habitation of thy righteousness prosperous.

7 Though thy beginning was small, yet thy latter end should greatly increase.

8 ^d For enquire, I pray thee, of the former age, and prepare thyself to the search of their fathers:

9 (For ^e we are but of yesterday, and know [†] nothing, because our days upon earth are a shadow:)

10 Shall not they teach thee, and tell thee, and utter words out of their heart?

11 Can the rush grow up without mire? can the flag grow without water?

12 ^f Whilst it is yet in his greenness, and not cut down, it withereth before any other herb.

13 So are the paths of all that forget God; and the ^g hypocrite's hope shall perish:

14 Whose hope shall be cut off, and whose trust shall be [†] a spider's web.

15 ^h He shall lean upon his house, but it shall not stand: he shall hold it fast, but it shall not endure.

16 He is green before the sun, and his branch shooteth forth in his garden.

17 His roots are wrapped about the heap, and he seeth the place of stones.

18 ⁱ If he destroy him from his place, then it shall deny him, saying, I have not seen thee.

19 Behold, this is the joy of his way, and ^k out of the earth shall others grow.

CHAP. IX.

1 Job acknowledgeth God's justice, sheweth there is no contending with him. 22 Man's innocency is not to be condemned by afflictions.

THEN Job answered and said, 2 I know it is so of a truth: but how should a man be just with God?

3 If he will contend with him, he cannot answer him one of a thousand.

4 He is wise in heart, and mighty in strength: who hath hardened himself against him, and hath prospered?

5 Which removeth the mountains, and they know not: which overturneth them in his anger.

6 Which shaketh the earth out of her place, and the pillars thereof tremble.

7 Which commandeth the sun, and it riseth not; and sealeth up the stars.

8 Which alone spreadeth out the heavens, and treadeth upon the waves of the sea.

9 Which maketh Arcturus, Orion, and Pleiades, and the chambers of the south.

10 Which doeth great things past finding out; yea, and wonders without number.

11 Lo, he goeth by me, and I see him not: he passeth on also, but I perceive him not.

12 Behold, he taketh away, † who can hinder him? who will say unto him, What doest thou?

13 If God will not withdraw his anger, the proud helpers do stoop under him.

14 How much less shall I answer him, and choose out my words to reason with him?

15 Whom, though I were righteous, yet would I not answer, but I would make supplication to my judge.

16 If I had called, and he had answered me; yet would I not believe that he had hearkened unto my voice.

17 For he breaketh me with a tempest, and multiplieth my wounds without cause.

18 He will not suffer me to take my breath, but filleth me with bitterness.

19 If I speak of strength, lo, he is strong: and if of judgement, who shall set me a time to plead?

20 If I justify myself, mine own mouth shall condemn me: if I say, I am perfect, it shall also prove me perverse.

21 Though I were perfect, yet would I not know my soul: I would despise my life.

22 This is one thing, therefore I said it, He destroyeth the perfect and the wicked.

23 If the scourge slay suddenly, he will laugh at the trial of the innocent.

24 The earth is given into the hand of the wicked: he covereth the faces of the judges thereof; if not, where, and who is he?

25 Now my days are swifter than a post: they flee away, they see no good.

26 They are passed away as the swift ships: as the eagle that hasteth to the prey.

27 If I say, I will forget my complaint, I will leave off my heaviness, and comfort myself:

28 I am afraid of all my sorrows, I know that thou wilt not hold me innocent.

29 If I be wicked, why then labour I in vain?

30 If I wash myself with snow water, and make my hands ever so clean;

31 Yet shalt thou plunge me in the ditch, and mine own clothes shall abhor me.

32 For he is not a man, as I am, that I should answer him, and we should come together in judgement.

33 Neither is there any daysman betwixt us, that might lay his hand upon us both.

34 Let him take his rod away from me, and let not his fear terrify me:

35 Then would I speak, and not fear him; but it is not so with me.

CHAP. X.

1 Job taking liberty of complaint, expostulateth with God about his afflictions: 18 he complaineth of life, and craveth a little ease before death.

MY soul is weary of my life; I will leave my complaint upon myself; I will speak in the bitterness of my soul.

2 I will say unto God, Do not condemn me; shew me wherefore thou contendest with me.

3 Is it good unto thee that thou shouldest oppress, that thou shouldest despise the work of thine hands, and shine upon the counsel of the wicked?

4 Hast thou eyes of flesh? or seest thou as man seeth?

5 Are thy days as the days of man? are thy years as man's days,

6 That thou enquirest after mine iniquity, and searchest after my sin?

paths; thou settest a print upon the [†]heels of my feet.

28 And he, as a rotten thing, consumeth, as a garment that is moth eaten.

C H A P. XIV.

1 Job intreateth God for favour, by the shortness of life, and certainty of death. 7 Though life once lost be irrecoverable, yet he waiteth for his change. 16 By sin the creature is subject to corruption.

MAN that is born of a woman is [†]of few days, and [†]full of trouble.

2 [†]He cometh forth like a flower, and is cut down: he fleeth also as a shadow, and continueth not.

3 And [†]dost thou open thine eyes upon such an one, and [†]bringest me into judgement with thee?

4 [†]Who [†]can bring a clean thing out of an unclean? not one.

5 [†]Seeing his days are determined, the number of his months are with thee, thou hast appointed his bounds that he cannot pass;

6 [†]Turn from him, that he may [†]rest, till he shall accomplish, [†]as an hireling, his day.

7 For there is hope of a tree, if it be cut down, [†]that it will sprout again, and that the tender branch thereof will not cease.

8 Though the root thereof wax old in the earth, and the stock thereof die in the ground;

9 Yet through the scent of water it will bud, and bring forth boughs like a plant.

10 But man dieth, and [†]wasteth away: yea, man giveth up the ghost, and where is he?

11 As the waters fail from the sea, and the flood decayeth and drieth up:

12 So man lieth down, and riseth not: [†]till the heavens be no more, they shall not awake, nor be raised out of their sleep.

13 O that thou wouldest hide me in the grave, that thou wouldest keep me secret, until thy wrath be past, that thou wouldest appoint me a set time, and remember me!

14 If a man die, shall he live again? all the days of my appointed time [†]will I wait, [†]till my change come.

15 [†]Thou shalt call, and I will answer thee: thou wilt have a desire to the work of thine hands.

16 [†]For now thou numberest my steps: dost thou not watch over my sin?

17 [†]My transgression is sealed up in a bag, and thou sewest up mine iniquity.

18 And surely the mountain falling [†]cometh to nought, and the rock is removed ought of his place.

19 The waters wear the stones: thou [†]wastest away the things which grow out of the dust of the earth; and thou destroyest the hope of man.

20 Thou prevailest for ever against him, and he passeth: thou changeest his countenance, and sendest him away.

21 His sons come to honour, and [†]he knoweth it not; and they are brought low, but he perceiveth it not of them.

22 But his flesh upon him shall have pain, and his soul within him shall mourn.

C H A P. XV.

1 Eliphaz reproveth Job of impiety in justifying himself: 17 he proveth by tradition the unquietness of wicked men.

THEN answered Eliphaz the Temanite, and said,

2 Should a wise man utter [†]vain knowledge, and fill his belly with the east wind?

3 Should he reason with unprofitable talk? or with speeches wherewith he can do no good?

4 Yea, [†]thou castest off fear, and restrainest [†]prayer before God.

5 For thy mouth [†]uttereth thine iniquity, and thou choolest the tongue of the crafty.

6 [†]Thine own mouth condemneth thee, and not I: yea, thine own lips testify against thee.

7 Art thou the first man that was born? or wast thou made before the hills?

8 [†]Hast thou heard the secret of God? and dost thou restrain wisdom to thyself?

9 [†]What knowest thou, that we know not? what understandest thou, which is not in us?

10 [†]With us are both the grayheaded and very aged men, much elder than thy father.

11 Are the consolations of God small with thee? is there any secret thing with thee?

12 Why doth thine heart carry thee away? and what do thy eyes wink at, 13 That thou turnest thy spirit against God, and lettest such words go out of thy mouth?

14 [†]What is man, that he should be clean? and he which is born of a woman, that he should be righteous?

15 [†]Behold, he putteth no trust in his saints; yea, the heavens are not clean in his sight.

16 [†]How much more abominable and filthy is man, [†]which drinketh iniquity like water?

17 I will shew thee, hear me; and that which I have seen I will declare;

18 Which wise men have told^t from their fathers, and have not hid it:

19 Unto whom alone the earth was given, and^l no stranger passed among them.

20 The wicked man travaileth with pain all his days,^m and the number of years is hidden to the oppressor.

21 † A dreadful sound is in his ears: ^a in prosperity the destroyer shall come upon him.

22 He believeth not that he shall return out of darkness, and he is waited for of the sword.

23 He ^o wandereth abroad for bread, saying, Where is it? he knoweth that ^p the day of darkness is ready at his hand.

24 Trouble and anguish shall make him afraid; they shall prevail against him, as a king ready to the battle.

25 For he stretched out his hand against God, and strengthened himself against the Almighty.

26 He runneth upon him, even on his neck, upon the thick bosses of his bucklers:

27 ^q Because he covereth his face with his fatness, and maketh collops of fat on his flanks.

28 And he dwelleth in desolate cites, and in houses which no man inhabiteth, which are ready to become heaps.

29 He shall not be rich, neither shall his substance continue, neither shall he prolong the perfection thereof upon the earth.

30 He shall not depart out of darkness; the flame shall dry up his branches, and ^r by the breath of his mouth shall he go away.

31 Let not him that is deceived ^s trust in vanity: for vanity shall be his recompence.

32 It shall be ^t accomplished ^u before his time, and his branch shall not be green.

33 He shall shake off his unripe grape as the vine, and shall cast off his flower as the olive.

34 For the congregation of hypocrites shall be desolate, and fire shall consume the tabernacles of bribery.

35 ^v They conceive mischief, and bring forth ^w vanity, and their belly prepareth deceit.

CHAP. XVI.

1 Job reproveth his friends of unmercifulness: 7 he sheweth the pitifulness of his case: 17 he maintaineth his innocence.

THEN Job answered and said,
2 I have heard many such things: ^a miserable comforters are ye all.

3 Shall [†] vain words have an end? or what emboldeneth thee that thou answerest?

4 I also could speak as ye do: if your soul were in my soul's stead, I could heap up words against you, and ^b shake mine head at you.

5 But I would strengthen you with my mouth, and the moving of my lips should assuage your grief.

6 Though I speak, my grief is not assuaged: and though I forbear, [†] what am I eased?

7 But now he hath made me weary: thou hast made desolate all my company.

8 And thou hast filled me with wrinkles, which is a witness against me: and my leanness rising up in me beareth witness to my face.

9 ^c He teareth me in his wrath, who hateth me: he gnasheth upon me with his teeth; ^d mine enemy sharpeneth his eyes upon me.

10 They have ^e gaped upon me with their mouth; they ^f have smitten me upon the cheek reproachfully; they have ^g gathered themselves together against me.

11 God ^h hath delivered me to the ungodly, and turned me over into the hands of the wicked.

12 I was at ease, but he hath broken me asunder: he hath also taken me by my neck, and shaken me to pieces, and ⁱ set me up for his mark.

13 His archers compass me round about, he cleaveth my reins asunder, and doth not spare; he poureth out my gall upon the ground.

14 He breaketh me with breach upon breach, he runneth upon me like a giant.

15 I have sewed sackcloth upon my skin, and ^k defiled my horn in the dust.

16 My face is foul with weeping, and on my eyelids is the shadow of death;

17 Not for any injustice in mine hands: also my prayer is pure.

18 O earth, cover not thou my blood, and ^l let my cry have no place.

19 Also now, behold, ^m my witness is in heaven, and my record is on ⁿ high.

20 My friends [†] scorn me: but mine eye poureth out tears unto God.

21 ^o That one might plead for a man with God, as a man pleadeth for his neighbour!

22 When [†] a few years are come, then I shall ^p go the way whence I shall not return.

CHAP. XVII.

1 Job appealeth from men to God. 6 The unmerciful dealing of men with the afflicted, may astonish, but not discourage the righteous. 11 His hope is not in life, but in death.

24 He shall flee from the iron weapon, and the bow of steel shall strike him through.

25 It is drawn, and cometh out of the body; yea, the glittering sword cometh out of his gall: terrors are upon him.

26 All darkness shall be hid in his secret places: a fire not blown shall consume him; it shall go ill with him that is left in his tabernacle.

27 The heaven shall reveal his iniquity; and the earth shall rise up against him.

28 The increase of his house shall depart, and his goods shall flow away in the day of his wrath.

29 This is the portion of a wicked man from God, and the heritage t appointed unto him by God.

C H A P. XXI.

1 Job sheweth that even in the judgement of man he hath reason to be grieved. 7 Sometimes the wicked do so prosper, as they despise God. 16 Sometimes their destruction is manifest. 23 The happy and unhappy are alike in death. 27 The judgement of the wicked is in another world.

BUT Job answered and said,
2 Hear diligently my speech, and let this be your consolations.

3 Suffer me that I may speak; and after that I have spoken, mock on.

4 As for me, is my complaint to man? and if it were so, why should not my spirit be t troubled?

5 t Mark me, and be astonished, b and lay your hand upon your mouth.

6 Even when I remember I am afraid, and trembling taketh hold on my flesh.

7 Wherefore do the wicked live, become old, yea, are mighty in power?

8 Their seed is established in their sight with them, and their offspring before their eyes.

9 Their houses t are safe from fear, d neither is the rod of God upon them.

10 Their bull gendereth, and faileth not; their cow calveth, and e casteth not her calf.

11 They send forth their little ones like a flock, and their children dance.

12 They take the timbrel and harp, and rejoice at the sound of the organ.

13 They f spend their days in wealth, and in a moment go down to the grave.

14 g Therefore they say unto God, Depart from us; for we desire not the knowledge of thy ways.

15 h What is the Almighty, that we should serve him? and i what profit should we have, if we pray unto him?

16 Lo, their good is not in their hand: k the counsel of the wicked is far from me.

17 l How oft is the candle of the wicked put out? and how oft cometh their destruction upon them? God m distributeth sorrows in his anger.

18 n They are as stubble before the wind, and as chaff that the storm t carrieth away.

19 God layeth up o his iniquity for his children: he rewardeth him, and he shall know it.

20 His eyes shall see his destruction, and p he shall drink of the wrath of the Almighty.

21 For what pleasure hath he in his house after him, when the number of his months is cut off in the midst?

22 q Shall any teach God knowledge? seeing he judgeth those that are high.

23 One dieth t in his full strength, being wholly at ease and quiet.

24 His u breasts are full of milk, and his bones are moistened with marrow.

25 And another dieth in the bitterness of his soul, and never eateth with pleasure.

26 They shall v lie down alike in the dust, and the worms shall cover them.

27 Behold, I know your thoughts, and the devices which ye wrongfully imagine against me.

28 For ye say, w Where is the house of the prince? and where are t the dwelling places of the wicked?

29 Have ye not asked them that go by the way? and do ye not know their tokens, 30 x That the wicked is reserved to the day of destruction? they shall be brought forth to t the day of wrath.

31 Who shall declare his way y to his face? and who shall repay him what he hath done?

32 Yet shall he be brought to the t grave, and shall t remain in the tomb.

33 The clods of the valley shall be sweet unto him, and z every man shall draw after him, as there are innumerable before him.

34 How then comfort ye me in vain, seeing in your answers there remaineth t falsehood?

as he that is wise may be profitable unto himself?

3 Is it any pleasure to the Almighty, that thou art righteous? or is it gain to him, that thou makest thy ways perfect?

4 Will he reprove thee for fear of thee? will he enter with thee into judgement?

5 Is not thy wickedness great? and thine iniquities infinite?

6 For thou hast taken a pledge from thy brother for nought, and hast stripped the naked of their clothing.

7 Thou hast not given water to the weary to drink, and thou hast withholden bread from the hungry.

8 But as for the mighty man, he had the earth; and the honourable man dwelt in it.

9 Thou hast sent widows away empty, and the arms of the fatherless have been broken.

10 Therefore snares are round about thee, and sudden fear troubleth thee;

11 Or darkness, that thou canst not see; and abundance of waters cover thee.

12 Is not God in the height of heaven? and behold the height of the stars, how high they are!

13 And thou sayest, How doth God know? can he judge through the dark cloud?

14 Thick clouds are a covering to him, that he seeth not; and he walketh in the circuit of heaven.

15 Hast thou marked the old way which wicked men have trodden?

16 Which were cut down out of time, whose foundation was overflown with a flood:

17 Which said unto God, Depart from us: and what can the Almighty do for them?

18 Yet he filled their houses with good things: but the counsel of the wicked is far from me.

19 The righteous see it, and are glad: and the innocent laugh them to scorn.

20 Whereas our substance is not cut down, but the remnant of them the fire consumeth.

21 Acquaint now thyself with him, and be at peace: thereby good shall come unto thee.

22 Receive, I pray thee, the law from his mouth, and lay up his words in thine heart.

23 If thou return to the Almighty, thou shalt be built up, thou shalt put away iniquity far from thy tabernacles.

24 Then shalt thou lay up gold as dust, and the gold of Ophir as the stones of the brooks.

25 Yea, the Almighty shall be thy defence, and thou shalt have plenty of silver.

26 For then shalt thou have thy delight in the Almighty, and shalt lift up thy face unto God.

27 Thou shalt make thy prayer unto him, and he shall hear thee, and thou shalt pay thy vows.

28 Thou shalt also decree a thing, and it shall be established unto thee: and the light shall shine upon thy ways.

29 When men are cast down, then thou shalt say, There is lifting up; and he shall save the humble person.

30 He shall deliver the island of the innocent: and it is delivered by the pureness of thine hands.

CHAP. XXIII.

1 Job longeth to appear before God, 6 in confidence of his mercy. 8 God, who is invisible, observeth our ways. 11 Job's innocence. 13 God's decree is immutable.

THEN Job answered and said, 2 Even to day is my complaint bitter: my stroke is heavier than my groaning.

3 Oh that I knew where I might find him! that I might come even to his seat!

4 I would order my cause before him, and fill my mouth with arguments.

5 I would know the words which he would answer me, and understand what he would say unto me.

6 Will he plead against me with his great power? No; but he would put strength in me.

7 There the righteous might dispute with him; so should I be delivered for ever from my judge.

8 Behold, I go forward, but he is not there; and backward, but I cannot perceive him:

9 On the left hand, where he doth work, but I cannot behold him: he hideth himself on the right hand, that I cannot see him:

10 But he knoweth the way that I take: when he hath tried me, I shall come forth as gold.

11 My foot hath held his steps; his way have I kept, and not declined.

12 Neither have I gone back from the commandment of his lips; I have esteemed the words of his mouth more than my necessary food.

13 But he is in one mind, and who can turn him? and what his soul desireth, even that he doeth.

17 Because I was not cut off before the darkness, neither hath he covered the darkness from my face.

C H A P. XXIV.

1 Wickedness goeth often unpunished. 17 There is a secret judgement for the wicked.

WHY, seeing ^a times are not hidden from the Almighty, do they that know him not see his days?

2 Some remove the ^b landmarks; they violently take away flocks, and ¹¹ feed thereof.

3 They drive away the asses of the fatherless, they ^c take the widow's ox for a pledge.

4 They turn the needy out of the way: ^d the poor of the earth hide themselves together.

5 Behold, as wild asses in the desert, go they forth to their work; rising betimes for a prey: the wilderness yieldeth food for them and for their children.

6 They reap every one his [†] corn in the field: and [†] they gather the vintage of the wicked.

7 They ^e cause the naked to lodge without clothing, that they have no covering in the cold.

8 They are wet with the showers of the mountains, and ^f embrace the rock for want of a shelter.

9 They pluck the fatherless from the breast, and take a pledge of the poor.

10 They cause him to go naked without clothing, and they take away the sheaf from the hungry;

11 Which make oil within their walls, and tread their winepresses, and suffer thirst.

12 Men groan from out of the city, and the soul of the wounded crieth out: yet God layeth not folly to them.

13 They are of those that rebel against the light; they know not the ways thereof, nor abide in the paths thereof.

14 ^g The murderer rising with the light killeth the poor and needy, and in the night is as a thief.

15 ^h The eye also of the adulterer waiteth for the twilight, ⁱ saying, No eye shall see me: and [†] disguiseth his face.

16 In the dark they dig through houses, which they had marked for themselves in the daytime: they ^k know not the light.

17 For the morning is to them even as the shadow of death: if one know them, they are in the terrors of the shadow of death.

18 He is swift as the waters; their portion is cursed in the earth: he beholdeth not the way of the vineyards.

19 Drought and heat [†] consume the snow waters: so doth the grave those which have sinned.

20 The womb shall forget him; the worm shall feed sweetly on him; ¹ he shall be no more remembered; and wickedness shall be broken as a tree.

21 He evil entreateth the barren that beareth not: and doeth not good to the widow.

22 He draweth also the mighty with his power: he riseth up, ¹¹ and no man is sure of life.

23 Though it be given him to be in safety, whereon he resteth; yet ^m his eyes are upon their ways.

24 They are exalted for a little while, but [†] are gone and brought low; they are [†] taken out of the way as all other; and cut off as the tops of the ears of corn.

25 And if it be not so now, ¹ who will make me a liar, and make my speech nothing worth.

C H A P. XXV.

Bildad sheweth that man cannot be justified before God.

THEN answered Bildad the Shuhite, and said,

2 Dominion and fear are with him, he maketh peace in his high places.

3 Is there any number of his armies? and upon whom doth not ^a his light arise?

4 ^b How then can man be justified with God? or how can he be clean that is born of a woman?

5 Behold even to the moon, and it shineth not; yea, the stars are not pure in his sight.

6 How much less man, that is ^c a worm? and the son of man, which is a worm?

C H A P. XXVI.

1 Job reproving the uncharitable spirit of Bildad, 5 acknowledgeth the power of God to be infinite and unsearchable.

BUT Job answered and said, 2 How hast thou helped him that is without power? how savest thou the arm that hath no strength?

3 How hast thou counselled him that hath no wisdom? and how hast thou plentifully declared the thing as it is?

4 To whom hast thou uttered words? and whose spirit came from thee?

5 Dead things are formed from under the waters, ¹¹ and the inhabitants thereof.

CHAP. XXVII.

1 Job protesteth his sincerity. 8 The hypocrite is without hope. 11 The blessings which the wicked have are turned into curses.

MOREOVER Job † continued his parable, and said,

2 As God liveth, ^a who hath taken away my judgement; and the Almighty, who hath † vexed my soul;

3 All the while my breath is in me, and the spirit of God is in my nostrils;

4 My lips shall not speak wickedness, nor my tongue utter deceit.

6 My righteousness I ^c hold fast, and will not let it go: ^d my heart shall not reproach me † so long as I live.

7 Let mine enemy be as the wicked, and he that riseth up against me as the unrighteous.

8 ^e For what is the hope of the hypocrite, though he hath gained, when God taketh away his soul?

9 ^f Will God hear his cry when trouble cometh upon him?

10 ^g Will he delight himself in the Almighty? will he always call upon God?

11 I will teach you ^h by the hand of God: that which is with the Almighty will I not conceal.

12 Behold, all ye yourselves have seen it; why then are ye thus altogether vain?

13 ⁱ This is the portion of a wicked man with God, and the heritage of oppressors, which they shall receive of the Almighty.

14 ^j If his children be multiplied, it is for the sword: and his offspring shall not be satisfied with bread.

15 Those that remain of him shall be buried in death: and ^k his widows shall not weep.

16 Though he heap up silver as the dust, and prepare raiment as the clay;

17 He may prepare it, but ^l the just shall put it on, and the innocent shall divide the silver.

18 He buildeth his house as a moth, and ^m as a booth that the keeper maketh.

19 The rich man shall lie down, but he shall not be gathered: he openeth his eyes, and he is not.

20 ⁿ Terrors take hold on him as waters, a tempest stealeth him away in the night.

21 The east wind carrieth him away, and he departeth: and ^o as a storm hurleth him out of his place.

22 For God shall cast upon him, and not spare: † he would fain flee out of his hand.

23 Men shall clap their hands at him, and shall hiss him out of his place.

CHAP. XXVIII.

1 There is a knowledge of natural things: 12 but wisdom is an excellent gift of God.

SURELY there is ^a a vein for the silver, and a place for gold where they find it.

2 Iron is taken out of the ^b earth, and brass is molten out of the stone.

3 He setteth an end to darkness, and searcheth out all perfection: the stones of darkness, and the shadow of death.

4 The flood breaketh out from the inhabitant; even the waters forgotten of the foot: they are dried up, they are gone away from men.

5 As for the earth, out of it cometh bread: and under it is turned up as it were fire.

6 The stones of it are the place of sapphires: and it hath ^c dust of gold.

7 There is a path which no fowl knoweth, and which the vulture's eye hath not seen:

8 The lion's whelps have not trodden it, nor the fierce lion passed by it.

9 He putteth forth his hand upon the ^d rock; he overturneth the mountains by the roots.

10 He cutteth out rivers among the rocks; and his eye seeth every precious thing.

11 He bindeth the floods † from overflowing; and the thing that is hid bringeth he forth to light.

16 It cannot be valued with the gold of Ophir, with the precious onyx, or the sapphire.

17 The gold and the crystal cannot equal it: and the exchange of it shall not be for jewels of fine gold.

18 No mention shall be made of coral, or of pearls: for the price of wisdom is above rubies.

19 The topaz of Ethiopia shall not equal it, neither shall it be valued with pure gold.

20 Whence then cometh wisdom? and where is the place of understanding?

21 Seeing it is hid from the eyes of all living, and kept close from the fowls of the air.

22 Destruction and death say, We have heard the fame thereof with our ears.

23 God understandeth the way thereof, and he knoweth the place thereof.

24 For he looketh to the ends of the earth, and seeth under the whole heaven;

25 To make the weight for the winds; and he weigheth the waters by measure.

26 When he made a decree for the rain, and a way for the lightning of the thunder:

27 Then did he see it, and declare it; he prepared it, yea, and searched it out.

28 And unto man he said, Behold, the fear of the LORD, that is wisdom; and to depart from evil is understanding.

CHAP. XXIX.

Job bemoaneth himself of his former prosperity and honour.

MOREOVER Job continued his parable, and said,

2 Oh that I were as in months past, as in the days when God preserved me;

3 When his candle shined upon my head, and when by his light I walked through darkness;

4 As I was in the days of my youth, when the secret of God was upon my tabernacle;

5 When the Almighty was yet with me, when my children were about me;

6 When I washed my steps with butter, and the rock poured me out rivers of oil;

7 When I went out to the gate through the city, when I prepared my seat in the street!

8 The young men saw me, and hid themselves: and the aged arose, and stood up.

9 The princes refrained talking, and laid their hand on their mouth.

10 The nobles held their peace, and their tongue cleaved to the roof of their mouth.

11 When the ear heard me, then it blessed me; and when the eye saw me, it gave witness to me:

12 Because I delivered the poor that cried, and the fatherless, and him that had none to help him.

13 The blessing of him that was ready to perish came upon me: and I caused the widow's heart to sing for joy.

14 I put on righteousness, and it clothed me: my judgement was as a robe and a diadem.

15 I was eyes to the blind, and feet was I to the lame.

16 I was a father to the poor: and the cause which I knew not I searched out.

17 And I brake the jaws of the wicked, and plucked the spoil out of his teeth.

18 Then I said, I shall die in my nest, and I shall multiply my days as the sand.

19 My root was spread out by the waters, and the dew lay all night upon my branch.

20 My glory was fresh in me, and my bow was renewed in my hand.

21 Unto me men gave ear, and waited, and kept silence at my counsel.

22 After my words they spake not again; and my speech dropped upon them.

23 And they waited for me as for the rain; and they opened their mouth wide as for the latter rain.

24 If I laughed on them, they believed it not; and the light of my countenance they cast not down.

25 I chose out their way, and sat chief, and dwelt as a king in the army, as one that comforteth the mourners.

CHAP. XXX.

1 Job's honour is turned into extreme contempt; 15 his prosperity into calamity.

BUT now they that are younger than I have me in derision, whose fathers I would have disdained to have set with the dogs of my flock.

2 Yea, whereto might the strength of their hands profit me, in whom old age was perished?

3 For want and famine they were solitary; fleeing into the wilderness in former time desolate and waste.

C H A P. XXXII.

1 Elihu is angry with Job and his three friends.
6 Because wisdom cometh not from age, he excuseth the boldness of his youth: 11 he reproveth them for not satisfying of Job: 16 his zeal to speak.

SO these three men ceased [†] to answer Job, because he was ^a righteous in his own eyes.

2 Then was kindled the wrath of Elihu the son of Barachel ^b the Buzite, of the kindred of Ram: against Job was his wrath kindled, because he justified [†] himself rather than God.

3 Also against his three friends was his wrath kindled, because they had found no answer, and yet had condemned Job.

4 Now Elihu had [†] waited till Job had spoken, because they were [†] elder than he.

5 When Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouth of these three men, then his wrath was kindled.

6 And Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite answered and said, I am [†] young, ^c and ye are very old; wherefore I was afraid, and [†] durst not shew you mine opinion.

7 I said, Days should speak, and multitude of years should teach wisdom.

8 But there is a spirit in man: and ^d the inspiration of the Almighty giveth them understanding.

9 ^e Great men are not always wise: neither do the aged understand judgement.

10 Therefore I said, Hearken to me; I also will shew mine opinion.

11 Behold, I waited for your words; I gave ear to your [†] reasons, whilst ye searched out [†] what to say.

12 Yea, I attended unto you, and, behold, there was none of you that convinced Job, or that answered his words:

13 ^f Lest ye should say, We have found out wisdom: God thrusteth him down, not man.

14 Now he hath not ^{||} directed his words against me: neither will I answer him with your speeches.

15 They were amazed, they answered no more: [†] they left off speaking.

16 When I had waited, (for they spake not, but stood still, and answered no more;)

17 I said, I will answer also my part, I also will shew mine opinion.

18 For I am full of [†] matter, [†] the spirit within me constraineth me.

19 Behold, my belly is as wine which [†] hath no vent; it is ready to burst like new bottles.

20 I will speak, [†] that I may be refreshed: I will open my lips and answer.

CHAP. XXXIII.

1 Elishu offereth himself instead of God, with sincerity and meekness, to reason with Job: 8 he excuseth God from giving man an account of his ways, by his greatness. 14 God calleth man to repentance by visions, 19 by afflictions, 23 and by his ministry: 31 he inciteth Job to attention.

WHEREFORE, Job, I pray thee, hear my speeches, and hearken to all my words.

2 Behold, now I have opened my mouth, my tongue hath spoken [†] in my mouth.

3 My words shall be of the uprightness of my heart: and my lips shall utter knowledge clearly.

4 ^a The Spirit of God hath made me, and the breath of the Almighty hath given me life.

5 If thou canst answer me, set thy words in order before me, stand up.

6 ^b Behold, I am [†] according to thy wish in God's stead: I also am [†] formed out of the clay.

7 ^c Behold, my terror shall not make thee afraid, neither shall my hand be heavy upon thee.

8 Surely thou hast spoken [†] in mine hearing, and I have heard the voice of thy words, saying,

9 ^d I am clean without transgression, I am innocent; neither is there iniquity in me.

10 Behold, he findeth occasions against me, ^e he counteth me for his enemy, 11 ^f He putteth my feet in the stocks, he marketh all my paths.

12 Behold, in this thou art not just: I will answer thee, that God is greater than man.

13 Why dost thou ^g strive against him? for [†] he giveth not account of any of his matters.

14 ^h For God speaketh once, yea, twice, yet man perceiveth it not.

15 ⁱ In a dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep falleth upon men, in slumberings upon the bed;

16 ^k Then [†] he openeth the ears of men, and sealeth their instruction, 17 That he may withdraw man from his [†] purpose, and hide pride from man.

18 He keepeth back his soul from the pit, and his life [†] from perishing by the sword.

19 He is chastened also with pain upon his bed, and the multitude of his bones with strong pain:

20 ^l So that his life abhorreth bread, and his soul [†] dainty meat.

21 His flesh is consumed away, that it cannot be seen; and his bones that were not seen stick out.

22 Yea, his soul draweth near unto the grave, and his life to the destroyers.

23 If there be a messenger with him, an interpreter, one among a thousand, to shew unto man his uprightness:

24 Then he is gracious unto him, and saith, Deliver him from going down to the pit: I have found ^{||} a ransom.

25 His flesh shall be fresher [†] than a child's: he shall return to the days of his youth:

26 He shall pray unto God, and he will be favourable unto him: and he shall see his face with joy: for he will render unto man his righteousness.

27 ^m He looketh upon men, and if any ⁿ say, I have sinned, and perverted that which was right, and it ^a profited me not;

28 ^{||} He will ^o deliver his soul from going into the pit, and his life shall see the light.

29 Lo, all these things worketh God [†] oftentimes with man,

30 ^p To bring back his soul from the pit, to be enlightened with the light of the living.

31 Mark well, O Job, hearken unto me: hold thy peace, and I will speak.

32 If thou hast any thing to say, answer me: speak, for I desire to justify thee.

33 If not, ^q hearken unto me: hold thy peace, and I shall teach thee wisdom.

CHAP. XXXIV.

1 Elishu accuseth Job for charging God with injustice. 10 God omnipotent cannot be unjust. 31 Man must humble himself unto God. 34 Elishu reproveth Job.

FURTHERMORE Elishu answered and said,

2 Hear my words, O ye wise men; and give ear unto me, ye that have knowledge.

3 ^a For the ear trieth words, as the [†] mouth tasteth meat.

4 Let us choose to us judgement: let us know among ourselves what is good.

5 For Job hath said, ^b I am righteous: and ^c God hath taken away my judgement.

6 ^d Should I lie against my right? [†] my wound is incurable without transgression.

nothing that he should delight himself with God.

10 Therefore hearken unto me, ye [†] men of understanding: ^{*} far be it from God, that he should do wickedness; and from the Almighty, that he should commit iniquity.

11 [†] For the work of a man shall he render unto him, and cause every may to find according to his ways.

12 Yea, surely God will not do wickedly, neither will the Almighty [†] pervert judgement.

13 Who hath given him a charge over the earth? or who hath disposed [†] the whole world?

14 If he set his heart [†] upon man, if he ^{*} gather unto himself his spirit and his breath;

15 [†] All flesh shall perish together, and man shall turn again unto dust.

16 If now thou hast understanding, hear this: hearken to the voice of my words.

17 [†] Shall even he that hateth right [†] govern? and wilt thou condemn him that is most just?

18 ^{*} Is it fit to say to a king, Thou art wicked? and to princes, Ye are ungodly?

19 How much less to him that ^{*} accepteth not the persons of princes, nor regardeth the rich more than the poor? for [†] they all are the work of his hands.

20 In a moment shall they die, and the people shall be troubled ^{*} at midnight, and pass away: and [†] the mighty shall be taken away without hand.

21 [†] For his eyes are upon the ways of man, and he seeth all his goings.

22 ^{*} There is no darkness, nor shadow of death, where the workers of iniquity may hide themselves.

23 For he will not lay upon man more than right; that he should [†] enter into judgement with God.

24 [†] He shall break in pieces mighty men [†] without number, and set others in their stead.

25 Therefore he knoweth their works, and he overturneth them in the night, so that they are [†] destroyed.

26 He striketh them as wicked men [†] in the open sight of others;

27 Because they ^{} turned back [†] from him, and ^{} would not consider any of his ways:

28 So that they ^{} cause the cry of the poor to come unto him, and he ^{} heareth the cry of the afflicted.

29 When he giveth quietness, who then can make trouble? and when he hideth his face, who then can behold him? whether it be done against a nation, or against a man only:

30 That the hypocrite reign not, lest ^{*} the people be ensnared.

31 Surely it is meet to be said unto God, [†] I have borne chastisement, I will not offend any more:

32 That which I see not teach thou me: if I have done iniquity, I will do no more.

33 [†] Should it be according to thy mind? he will recompense it, whether thou refuse, or whether thou choose; and not I: therefore speak what thou knowest.

34 Let men [†] of understanding tell me, and let a wise man hearken unto me.

35 ^{*} Job hath spoken without knowledge, and his words were without wisdom.

36 [†] My desire is that Job may be tried unto the end, because of his answers for wicked men.

37 For he addeth rebellion unto his sin, he clappeth his hands among us, and multiplieth his words against God.

C H A P. XXXV.

1 Comparison is not to be made with God, because our good or evil cannot extend unto him. 9 Many cry in their afflictions, but are not heard for want of faith.

ELIHU spake moreover, and said, 2 Thinkest thou this to be right, that thou saidst, My righteousness is more than God's?

3 For ^{*} thou saidst, What advantage will it be unto thee? and, What profit shall I have, [†] if I be cleansed from my sin?

4 [†] I will answer thee, and [†] thy companions with thee.

5 ^{*} Look unto the heavens; and see; and behold the clouds which are higher than thou.

6 If thou finnest, what doest thou ^{*} against him? or if thy transgressions be multiplied, what doest thou unto him?

7 ^{*} If thou be righteous, what givest thou him? or what receiveth he of thine hand?

8 Thy wickedness may hurt a man as thou art; and thy righteousness may profit the son of man.

9 ^{*} By reason of the multitude of oppressions they make the oppressed to cry: they cry out by reason of the arm of the mighty.

10 But none saith, ^{*} Where is God my maker, [†] who giveth songs in the night;

11 Who [†] teacheth us more than the beasts of the earth, and maketh us wiser than the fowls of heaven?

12 [†] There they cry, but none giveth answer, because of the pride of evil men.

13 [†] Surely God will not hear vanity, neither will the Almighty regard it.

14^m Although thou sayest thou shalt not see him, yet judgement is before him; therefore^a trust thou in him.

15 But now, because it is not so, [¶] he hath visited in his anger; yet [¶] he knoweth it not in great extremity:

16^p Therefore doth Job open his mouth in vain; he multiplieth words without knowledge.

CHAP. XXXVI.

1 Elihu sheweth how God is just in his ways. 16 How Job's sins hinder God's blessings. 24 God's works are to be magnified.

ELIHU also proceeded, and said;
2 Suffer me a little, and I will shew thee [†] that I have yet to speak on God's behalf.

3 I will fetch my knowledge from afar, and will ascribe righteousness to my Maker.

4 For truly my words shall not be false: he that is perfect in knowledge is with thee.

5 Behold, God is mighty, and despiseth not any: ^a he is mighty in strength and [†] wisdom.

6 He preserveth not the life of the wicked: but giveth right to the [¶] poor.

7^b He withdraweth not his eyes from the righteous: but ^c with kings are they on the throne; yea, he doth establish them for ever, and they are exalted.

8 And^d if they be bound in fetters, and be holden in cords of affliction;

9 Then he sheweth them their work, and their transgressions that they have exceeded.

10^e He openeth also their ear to discipline, and commandeth that they return from iniquity.

11 If they obey and serve him, they shall spend their days in prosperity, and their years in pleasures.

12 But if they obey not, [†] they shall perish by the sword, and they shall die without knowledge.

13 But the hypocrites in heart [¶] heap up wrath: they cry not when he bindeth them.

14^h [†] They die in youth, and their life is among the [¶] unclean.

15 He delivereth [¶] the poor in his affliction, and openeth their ears in oppression.

16 Even so would he have removed thee out of the strait [†] into a broad place, where there is no straitness; and [†] that which should be set on thy table should be full of [†] fatness.

17 But thou hast fulfilled the judgement of the wicked: [¶] judgement and justice take hold on thee.

18 Because there is wrath, beware lest he take thee away with his stroke: then ^a a great ransom cannot [†] deliver thee.

19^a Will he esteem thy riches? no, not gold, nor all the forces of strength.

20 Desire not the night when people are cut off in their place.

21 Take heed, [¶] regard not iniquity: for [¶] this hast thou chosen rather than affliction.

22 Behold, God exalteth by his power: ^a who teacheth like him?

23^a Who hath enjoined him his way? or ^a who can say, Thou hast wrought iniquity?

24 Remember that thou [¶] magnify his work, which men behold.

25 Every man may see it; man may behold it afar off.

26 Behold, God is great, and we [¶] know him not, ^a neither can the number of his years be searched out.

27 For he [¶] maketh small the drops of water: they pour down rain according to the vapour thereof:

28^a Which the clouds do drop and distil upon man abundantly.

29 Also can any understand the spreadings of the clouds, or the noise of his tabernacle?

30 Behold, he [¶] spreadeth his light upon it, and covereth [†] the bottom of the sea.

31 For ^b by them judgeth he the people; he ^c giveth meat in abundance.

32^d With clouds he covereth the light; and commandeth it not to shine by the cloud that cometh betwixt.

33^e The noise thereof sheweth concerning it, the cattle also concerning [†] the vapour.

CHAP. XXXVII.

1 God is to be feared because of his great works: 15 his wisdom is unsearchable in them.

AT this also my heart trembleth, and is moved out of his place.

2[†] Hear attentively the noise of his voice, and the sound that goeth out of his mouth.

3 He directeth it under the whole heaven, and his [†] lightning unto the [†] ends of the earth.

4 After it ^a a voice roareth: he thundereth with the voice of his excellency; and he will not stay them when his voice is heard.

5 God thundereth marvellously with his voice; ^b great things doeth he, which we cannot comprehend.

6 For ^c he saith to the snow, Be thou on the earth; [†] likewise to the small rain, and to the great rain of his strength.

7 He sealeth up the hand of every man; ^a that all men may know his work.

3 Job humbleth himself to God. 6 God stirreth him up to shew his righteousness, power, and wisdom. 15 Of the behemoth.

MOREOVER the LORD answered Job, and said,

2 Shall he that ^a contendeth with the Almighty instruct ^{him}? he that reproveth God, let him answer it.

3 ¶ Then Job answered the LORD, and said,

4 ^b Behold, I am vile; what shall I answer thee? ^c I will lay mine hand upon my mouth.

5 Once have I spoken; but I will not answer: yea, twice; but I will proceed no further.

6 ¶ ^d Then answered the LORD unto Job out of the whirlwind, and said,

7 ^e Gird up thy loins now like a man: ^f I will demand of thee, and declare thou unto me.

8 ^g Wilt thou also disannul my judgement? wilt thou condemn me, that thou mayest be righteous?

9 Hast thou an arm like God? or canst thou thunder with ^h a voice like him?

10 ⁱ Deck thyself now with majesty and excellency; and array thyself with glory and beauty.

11 Cast abroad the rage of thy wrath: and behold every one ^{that is} proud, and abase him.

12 Look on every one ^{that is} proud, and bring him low; and tread down the wicked in their place.

13 Hide them in the dust together; and bind their faces in secret.

14 Then will I also confess unto thee that thine own right hand can save thee.

15 ¶ Behold now [¶] behemoth, which I made with thee; he eateth grafs as an ox.

16 Lo now, his strength ^{is} in his loins, and his force ^{is} in the navel of his belly.

17 [¶] He moveth his tail like a cedar: the sinews of his stones are wrapped together.

18 His bones ^{are as} strong pieces of brass; his bones ^{are like} bars of iron.

19 He ^{is} the chief of the ways of God: he that made him can make his sword to approach unto him.

20 Surely the mountains ^{bring} him forth food, where all the beasts of the field play.

21 He lieth under the shady trees, in the covert of the reed, and fens.

22 The shady trees cover him with their shadow; the willows of the brook compass him about.

23 Behold, [†] he drinketh up a river, and hasteth not: he trusteth that he can draw up Jordan into his mouth.

24 [¶] He taketh it with his eyes: his nose pierceth through snares.

Of God's great power in the leviathan.

CANST thou draw out [¶] a leviathan with an hook? or his tongue with a cord [†] which thou lettest down?

2 Canst thou ^b put an hook into his nose? or bore his jaw through with a thorn?

3 Will he make many supplications unto thee? will he speak soft words unto thee?

4 Will he make a covenant with thee? wilt thou take him for a servant for ever?

5 Wilt thou play with him as ^{with} a bird? or wilt thou bind him for thy maidens?

6 Shall thy companions make a banquet of him? shall they part him among the merchants?

7 Canst thou fill his skin with barbed irons? or his head with fish spears?

8 Lay thine hand upon him, remember the battle, do no more.

9 Behold, the hope of him is in vain: shall not ^{one} be cast down even at the sight of him?

10 None ^{is so} fierce that dare stir him up: who then is able to stand before me?

11 ^c Who hath prevented me, that I should repay ^{him}? ^d whatsoever ^{is} under the whole heaven is mine.

12 I will not conceal his parts, nor his power, nor his comely proportion.

13 Who can discover the face of his garment? or who can come to him [¶] with his double bridle?

14 Who can open the doors of his face? his teeth ^{are} terrible round about.

15 His [†] scales ^{are} his pride, shut up together ^{as with} a close seal.

16 One is so near to another, that no air can come between them.

17 They are joined one to another, they stick together, that they cannot be sundered.

18 By his neefings a light doth shine, and his eyes ^{are} like the eyelids of the morning.

19 Out of his mouth go burning lamps, and sparks of fire leap out.

20 Out of his nostrils goeth smoke, as out of a seething pot or caldron.

1 Job submitteth himself unto God. 7 God preferring Job's cause, maketh his friends submit themselves, and accepteth him: 10 he magnifieth and bleſſeth Job. 16 Job's age and death.

THEN Job answered the LORD, and said,
2 I know that thou † canst do every thing, and that † no thought can be with-holden from thee.

3 † Who is he that hideth counsel without knowledge? therefore have I uttered that I understood not; † things too wonderful for me, which I knew not.

4 Hear, I beseech thee, and I will speak:
† I will demand of thee, and declare thou unto me.

5 I have heard of thee by the hearing of the ear: but now mine eye seeth thee.

6 Wherefore I † abhor myself, and repent in dust and ashes.

7 † And it was so, that after the LORD had spoken these words unto Job, the LORD said to Eliphaz the Temanite, My wrath is kindled against thee, and against thy two friends: for ye have not spoken of me the thing that is right, as my servant Job hath.

8 Therefore take unto you now † seven bullocks and seven rams, and † go to my servant Job, and offer up for yourselves a burnt offering; and my servant Job shall † pray for you: for † him will I accept:
least I deal with you after your folly, in that ye have not spoken of me the thing which is right, like my servant Job.

9 † So Eliphaz the Temanite and Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite went, and did according as the LORD commanded them: the LORD also accepted † Job.

10 † And the LORD turned the captivity of Job, when he prayed for his friends:
also the LORD † gave Job † twice as much as he had before.

11 Then came there unto him † all his brethren, and all his sisters, and all they that had been of his acquaintance before, and did eat bread with him in his house:
and they bemoaned him, and comforted him over all the evil that the LORD had brought upon him: every man also gave him a piece of money, and every one an earring of gold.

12 So the LORD blessed † the latter end of Job more than his beginning: for he had † fourteen thousand sheep, and six thousand camels, and a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand she asses.

13 † He had also seven sons and three daughters.

14 And he called the name of the first, Jemima; and the name of the second, Kezia;
and the name of the third, Keren-happuch.

15 And in all the land were no women found so fair as the daughters of Job: and their father gave them inheritance among their brethren.

16 † After this † lived Job an hundred and forty years, and saw his sons, and his sons' sons, even four generations.

17 So Job died, being old and † full of days.

6 Thou shalt destroy them that speak leasing: the LORD will abhor the bloody and deceitful man.

7 But as for me, I will come into thy house in the multitude of thy mercy: and in thy fear will I worship toward thy holy temple.

8 Lead me, O LORD, in thy righteousness because of mine enemies; make thy way strait before my face.

9 For there is no faithfulness in their mouth; their inward part is very wickedness; their throat is an open sepulchre; they flatter with their tongue.

10 Destroy thou them, O God; let them fall by their own counsels; cast them out in the multitude of their transgressions; for they have rebelled against thee.

11 But let all those that put their trust in thee rejoice: let them ever shout for joy, because thou defendest them: let them also that love thy name be joyful in thee.

1 David's complaint in his sickness: 8 By faith he triumpheth over his enemies.

To the chief Musician on Neginoth, * upon Sheminith, A Psalm of David.

O LORD, rebuke me not in thine anger, neither chasten me in thy hot displeasure.

2 Have mercy upon me, O LORD; for I am weak: O LORD, heal me: for my bones are vexed.

3 My soul is also sore vexed: but thou, O LORD, how long?

4 Return, O LORD, deliver my soul; oh save me for thy mercies' sake.

5 For in death there is no remembrance of thee: in the grave who shall give thee thanks?

6 I am weary with my groaning; all the night make I my bed to swim; I water my couch with my tears.

7 Mine eye is consumed because of grief; it waxeth old because of all mine enemies.

8 Depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity; for the LORD hath heard the voice of my weeping.

9 The LORD hath heard my supplication; the LORD will receive my prayer.

10 Let all mine enemies be ashamed and sore vexed: let them return and be ashamed suddenly.

O LORD my God, in thee do I put my trust: save me from all them that persecute me, and deliver me:

2 Left he tear my soul like a lion, rending it in pieces, while there is none to deliver.

3 O LORD my God, if I have done this; if there be iniquity in my hands;

4 If I have rewarded evil unto him that was at peace with me; (yea, I have delivered him that without cause is mine enemy:)

5 Let the enemy persecute my soul, and take it; yea, let him tread down my life upon the earth, and lay mine honour in the dust. Selah.

6 Arise, O LORD, in thine anger, lift up thyself because of the rage of mine enemies: and awake for me to the judgement that thou hast commanded.

7 So shall the congregation of the people compass thee about: for their sakes therefore return thou on high.

8 The LORD shall judge the people: judge me, O LORD, according to my righteousness, and according to mine integrity that is in me.

9 Oh let the wickedness of the wicked come to an end; but establish the just: for the righteous God trieth the hearts and reins.

10 My defence is of God, which saveth the upright in heart.

11 God judgeth the righteous, and God is angry with the wicked every day.

12 If he turn not, he will whet his sword; he hath bent his bow, and made it ready.

13 He hath also prepared for him the instruments of death; he ordaineth his arrows against the persecutors.

1 David praiseth God for executing of judgement:

11 he inciteth others to praise him: 13 he prayeth that he may have cause to praise him.

a Pf. 5. 11.
b Pf. 56. 2. & 83. 18.

2 I will be glad and rejoice in thee, I will sing praise to thy name, O thou most High.

Prov. 10. 7.

5 Thou hast rebuked the heathen, thou hast destroyed the wicked, thou hast put out their name for ever and ever.

6 O thou enemy, destructions are come to a perpetual end: and thou hast destroyed cities; their memorial is perished with them.

7 But the LORD shall endure for ever: he hath prepared his throne for judgement.

8 And he shall judge the world in righteousness, he shall minister judgement to the people in uprightness.

9 The LORD also will be a refuge for the oppressed, a refuge in times of trouble.

10 And they that know thy name will put their trust in thee: for thou, LORD, hast not forsaken them that seek thee.

11 Sing praises to the LORD, which dwelleth in Zion: declare among the people his doings.

12 When he maketh inquisition for blood, he remembereth them: he forgetteth not the cry of the humble.

13 Have mercy upon me, O LORD; consider my trouble which I suffer of them that hate me, thou that liftest me up from the gates of death:

14 That I may shew forth all thy praise in the gates of the daughter of Zion: I will rejoice in thy salvation.

15 The heathen are sunk down in the pit that they made: in the net which they hid is their own foot taken.

16 The LORD is known by the judgement which he executeth: the wicked is snared in the work of his own hands. Higgaion. Selah.

17 The wicked shall be turned into hell, and all the nations that forget God.

18 For the needy shall not alway be forgotten: the expectation of the poor shall not perish for ever.

19 Arise, O LORD; let not man prevail: let the heathen be judged in thy sight.

20 Put them in fear, O LORD: that the nations may know themselves to be but men. Selah.

11 He hath said in his heart, God hath forgotten: [†]he hideth his face; he will never see it.

12 Arise, O LORD; O God, [†]lift up thine hand: forget not the [†]humble.

13 Wherefore doth the wicked contemn God? he hath said in his heart, Thou wilt not require it.

14 Thou hast seen it; for thou beholdest mischief and spite, to requite it with thy hand: the poor [†]committeth himself unto thee; [†]thou art the helper of the fatherless.

15 Break thou the arm of the wicked and the evil man: seek out his wickedness till thou find none.

2 For, lo, [†]the wicked bend their bow, [†]they make ready their arrow upon the string, that they may [†]privily shoot at the upright in heart.

3 If the foundations be destroyed, what can the righteous do?

4 The LORD is in his holy temple, the LORD's [†]throne is in heaven: [†]his eyes behold, his eyelids try, the children of men.

5 The LORD [†]trieth the righteous: but the wicked and him that loveth violence his soul hateth.

6 Upon the wicked he shall rain [†]snare, fire and brimstone, and an horrible tempest: [†]this shall be the portion of their cup.

7 For the righteous LORD [†]loveth righteousness; [†]his countenance doth behold the upright.

II. DAY. EVENING PRAYER.

1 David, destitute of human comfort, craveth help of God: 3 he comforteth himself with God's judgements on the wicked, and confidence in God's tried promises.

To the chief Musician [†]upon Sheminith, A Psalm of David.

HELP, LORD; for [†]the godly man ceaseth; for the faithful fail from among the children of men.

2 They speak vanity every one with his neighbour: [†]with flattering lips and with [†]a double heart do they speak.

3 The LORD shall cut off all flattering lips, and the tongue that speaketh [†]proud things.

4 Who have said, With our tongue will we prevail; our lips [†]are our own: who is lord over us?

5 For the oppression of the poor, for the sighing of the needy, [†]now will I arise, saith the LORD; I will set him in safety from him that [†]puffeth at him.

6 The words of the LORD are [†]pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times.

7 Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve [†]them from this generation for ever.

2 How long shall I take counsel in my soul, [†]having sorrow in my heart daily? how long shall mine enemy be exalted over me?

3 Consider and hear me, O LORD my God: [†]lighten mine eyes, [†]lest I sleep the sleep of death;

15 As for me, ^o I will behold thy face in righteousness: [†] I shall be satisfied, when I awake, with thy likeness.

III. DAY. EVENING PRAYER.

P S A L. XVIII.

David praiseth God for his manifold and marvellous blessings.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David, * the servant of the LORD, who spake unto the LORD the words of * this song in the day that the LORD delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul:
And he said,

I [†] WILL love thee, O LORD, my strength.

2 The LORD ^{is} my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer; my God, [†] my strength, ^b in whom I will trust; my buck-ler, and the horn of my salvation, and my high tower.

3 I will call upon the LORD, ^o ^{||} who is worthy to be praised: so shall I be saved from mine enemies.

4 ^o The sorrows of death compassed me, and the floods of [†] ungodly men made me afraid.

5 The ^{||} sorrows of hell compassed me about: the snares of death prevented me.

6 In my distress I called upon the LORD, and cried unto my God: he heard my voice out of his temple, and my cry came before him, even into his ears.

7 ^o Then the earth shook and trembled;
the foundations also of the hills moved and were shaken, because he was wroth.

8 There went up a smoke [†] out of his nostrils, and fire out of his mouth devoured: coals were kindled by it.

9 ^o He bowed the heavens also, and came down: and darkness ^{was} under his feet.

10 ^o And he rode upon a cherub, and did fly: yea, ^o he did fly upon the wings of the wind.

11 He made darkness his secret place;
[†] his pavilion round about him ^{were} dark waters and thick clouds of the skies.

12 ^o At the brightness ^{that} was before him his thick clouds passed, hail stones and coals of fire.

13 The LORD also thundered in the heavens, and the Highest gave [†] his voice;
hail stones and coals of fire.

14 ^o Yea, he sent out his arrows, and scattered them; and he shot out lightnings, and discomfited them.

15 ^o Then the channels of waters were seen, and the foundations of the world were discovered at thy rebuke, O LORD, at the blast of the breath of thy nostrils.

16 ^o He sent from above, he took me, he drew me out of ^{||} many waters.

17 He delivered me from my strong enemy, and from them which hated me:
for they were too strong for me.

18 They prevented me in the day of my calamity: but the LORD ^{was} my stay.

19 ^o He brought me forth also into a large place; he delivered me, because he delighted in me.

20 ^o The LORD rewarded me according to my righteousness; according to the cleanness of my hands hath he recompensed me.

21 For I have kept the ways of the LORD, and have not wickedly departed from my God.

22 For all his judgements ^{were} before me, and I did not put away his statutes from me.

23 I was also upright [†] before him, and I kept myself from mine iniquity.

24 ^o Therefore hath the LORD recompensed me according to my righteousness, according to the cleanness of my hands
[†] in his eyesight.

25 ^o With the merciful thou wilt shew thyself merciful; with an upright man thou wilt shew thyself upright;

26 With the pure thou wilt shew thyself pure; and ^o with the froward thou wilt ^{||} shew thyself froward.

27 For thou wilt save the afflicted people; but wilt bring down ^o high looks.

28 ^o For thou wilt light my ^{||} candle: the LORD my God will enlighten my darkness.

Or, broken.

29 For by thee I have run through a troop; and by my God have I leaped over a wall.

Deut. 32. 4.

30 As for God, his way is perfect: the word of the LORD is tried: he is a buckler to all those that trust in him.

Dan. 4. 37.

31 For who is God save the LORD? or who is a rock save our God?

Rev. 16. 3.

32 It is God that girdeth me with strength, and maketh my way perfect.

2 Pf. 12. 6.

33 He maketh my feet like hinds' feet, and setteth me upon my high places.

119. 140.

34 He teacheth my hands to war, so that a bow of steel is broken by mine arms.

Prov. 30. 5.

35 Thou hast also given me the shield of thy salvation: and thy right hand hath holden me up; and thy gentleness hath made me great.

Or, refined.

36 Thou hast enlarged my steps under me, that my feet did not slip.

a Pf. 17. 7.

37 I have pursued mine enemies; and overtaken them: neither did I turn again till they were consumed.

b Deut. 32. 37. 39.

38 I have wounded them that they were not able to rise: they are fallen under my feet.

1 Sam. 2. 2.

39 For thou hast girded me with strength unto the battle: thou hast subdued under me those that rose up against me.

Pf. 86. 8.

40 Thou hast also given me the necks of mine enemies; that I might destroy them that hate me.

Isai. 45. 2.

41 They cried, but there was none to save them: even unto the LORD, but he answered them not.

c Pf. 91. 2.

42 Then did I beat them small as the dust before the wind: I did cast them out as the dirt in the streets.

d 2 Sam. 2. 18.

43 Thou hast delivered me from the strivings of the people; and thou hast made me the head of the heathen: a people whom I have not known shall serve me.

Hab. 9. 19.

44 As soon as they hear of me, they shall obey me: the strangers shall submit themselves unto me.

e Deut. 32. 13. & 33. 29.

45 The strangers shall fade away, and be afraid out of their close places.

f Pf. 144. 1.

46 The LORD liveth, and blessed be my rock; and let the God of my salvation be exalted.

Or, with thy meekness thou hast multiplied me.

47 It is God that avengeth me, and subdueth the people unto me.

g Prov. 4. 12.

48 He delivereth me from mine enemies: yea, I thou livest me up above those that rise up against me: thou hast delivered me from the violent man.

h Heb. mine ancles.

49 Therefore will I give thanks unto thee, O LORD, among the heathen, and sing praises unto thy name.

50 Great deliverance giveth he to his king; and sheweth mercy to his anointed, to David, and to his seed for evermore.

IV. DAY. MORNING PRAYER.

P S A L M XIX.

1 The creatures shew God's glory; and the word, his grace. 12 David prayeth for grace.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

THE heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament sheweth his handywork.

2 Day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto night sheweth knowledge.

3 There is no speech nor language, where their voice is not heard.

4 Their line is gone out through all the earth, and their words to the end of the world. In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun,

5 Which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber, and rejoiceth as a strong man to run a race.

6 His going forth is from the end of the heaven, and his circuit unto the ends of it: and there is nothing hid from the heat thereof.

7 The law of the LORD is perfect, converting the soul: the testimony of the LORD is sure, making wise the simple.

8 The statutes of the LORD are right, rejoicing the heart: the commandment of the LORD is pure, enlightning the eyes.

9 The fear of the LORD is clean, enduring for ever: the judgements of the LORD are true and righteous altogether.

10 More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold: sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb.

11 Moreover by them is thy servant warned: and in keeping of them there is great reward.

12 Who can understand his errors? cleanse thou me from secret faults.

13 Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sins; let them not have dominion over me: then shall I be upright, and I shall be innocent from the great transgression.

14 Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight, O LORD, my strength, and my redeemer.

ⁱ A thanksgiving for victory. ^j Confidence of further success.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

THE king shall joy in thy strength, O LORD; and ^k in thy salvation how greatly shall he rejoice!

13 Be thou exalted, LORD, in thine own strength: ^{ab} so will we sing and praise thy power.

IV. DAY. EVENING PRAYER.

P S A L. XXII.

^{ac} David complaineth in great discouragement: ^{ad} he prayeth in great distress: ^{ae} 23 he praiseth God.

To the chief Musician upon ^{af} Ajeleth Shahar, A Psalm of David.

MY ^{ag} God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? ^{ah} why art thou so far [†] from helping me, ^{ai} and from ^b the words of my roaring?

2 O my God, I cry in the daytime, but thou hearest not; and in the night season, and [†] am not silent.

3 But thou art holy, O thou that inhabitest the ^c praises of Israel.

4 Our fathers trusted in thee: they trusted, and thou didst deliver them.

5 They cried unto thee, and were delivered: ^d they trusted in thee; and were not confounded.

6 But I am ^e a worm, and no man; ^f a reproach of men, and despised of the people.

7 ^g All they that see me laugh me to scorn: they [†] shoot out the lip, ^h they shake the head, ⁱ saying,

8 [†] He trusted on the LORD that he would deliver him: ^k let him deliver him, ^l seeing he delighted in him.

9 ^m But thou art he that took me out of the womb: thou ⁿ didst make me hope ^o when I was upon my mother's breasts.

10 I was cast upon thee from the womb: ^p thou art my God from my mother's belly.

11 Be not far from me; for trouble is near; for ^q there is [†] none to help.

12 ^r Many bulls have compassed me: strong bulls of Bashan have beset me round.

13 ^s They [†] gaped upon me ^t with their mouths, ^u as a ravening and a roaring lion.

14 I am poured out like water, ^v and all my bones are ^w out of joint: ^x my heart is like wax; it is melted in the midst of my bowels.

15 ^y My strength is dried up like a potsherd; and ^z my tongue cleaveth to my jaws; and thou hast brought me into the dust of death.

16 For ^{aa} dogs have compassed me: the assembly of the wicked have inclosed me: ^{ab} they pierced my hands and my feet.

17 I may tell all my bones: ^{ac} they look and stare upon me.

18 ^{ad} They part my garments among them, and cast lots upon my vesture.

2 When the wicked, even mine enemies and my foes, [†] came upon me to ^d eat up my flesh, they stumbled and fell.

3 ^e Though an host should encamp against me, my heart shall not fear: though war should rise against me, in this will I be confident.

4 ^f One thing have I desired of the LORD, that will I seek after; that I may ^g dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to behold ^h the beauty of the LORD, and to enquire in his temple.

5 For ⁱ in the time of trouble he shall hide me in his pavilion: in the secret of his tabernacle shall he hide me; he shall ^k set me upon a rock.

6 And now shall ^l mine head be lifted up above mine enemies round about me: therefore will I offer in his tabernacle sacrifices [†] of joy; I will sing, yea, I will sing praises unto the LORD.

7 Hear, O LORD, when I cry with my voice: have mercy also upon me, and answer me.

8 ^m When thou saidst, ⁿ Seek ye my face; my heart said unto thee, Thy face, LORD, will I seek.

9 ^o Hide not thy face far from me; put not thy servant away in anger: thou hast been my help; leave me not, neither forsake me, O God of my salvation.

10 ^p When my father and my mother forsake me, then the LORD [†] will take me up.

11 ^q Teach me thy way, O LORD, and lead me in [†] a plain path, because of [†] mine enemies.

12 ^r Deliver me not over unto the will of mine enemies: for ^s false witnesses are risen up against me, and such as ^t breathe out cruelty.

1 David prayeth earnestly against his enemies: 6 he bleisseth God: 9 he prayeth for the people.

A Psalm of David.

UNTO thee will I cry, O LORD my rock; be not silent to me: be not silent to me, I become like them that go down into the pit.

2 Hear the voice of my supplications, when I cry unto thee, when I lift up my hands toward thy holy oracle.

3 Draw me not away with the wicked, and with the workers of iniquity, which speak peace to their neighbours, but mischief is in their hearts.

4 Give them according to their deeds, and according to the wickedness of their endeavours: give them after the work of their hands; render to them their desert.

5 Because they regard not the works of the LORD, nor the operation of his hands, he shall destroy them, and not build them up.

6 Blessed be the LORD, because he hath heard the voice of my supplications.

7 The LORD is my strength and my shield; my heart trusted in him, and I am helped: therefore my heart greatly rejoiceth; and with my song will I praise him.

8 The LORD is their strength, and he is the saving strength of his anointed.

9 Save thy people, and bless thine inheritance: feed them also, and lift them up for ever.

P S A L. XXIX.

1 David exhorteth princes to give glory to God, 3 by reason of his power, 11 and protection of his people.

A Psalm of David.

GIVE unto the LORD, O ye mighty, give unto the LORD glory and strength.

2 Give unto the LORD the glory due unto his name; worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness.

3 The voice of the LORD is upon the waters: the God of glory thundereth: the LORD is upon many waters.

4 The voice of the LORD is powerful; the voice of the LORD is full of majesty.

5 The voice of the LORD breaketh the cedars: yea, the LORD breaketh the cedars of Lebanon.

6 He maketh them also to skip like a calf; Lebanon and Sirion like a young unicorn.

7 The voice of the LORD divideth the flames of fire.

8 The voice of the LORD shaketh the wilderness; the LORD shaketh the wilderness of Kadesh.

9 The voice of the LORD maketh the hinds to calve, and discovereth the forests: and in his temple doth every one speak of his glory.

10 The LORD sitteth upon the flood; yea, the LORD sitteth King for ever.

11 The LORD will give strength unto his people; the LORD will bless his people with peace.

VI. DAY. MORNING PRAYER.

P S A L. XXX.

1 David praiseth God for his deliverance: 4 he exhorteth others to praise him by example of God's dealing with him.

A Psalm and Song, * at the dedication of the house of David.

I WILL extol thee, O LORD; for thou hast lifted me up, and hast not made my foes to rejoice over me.

2 O LORD my God, I cried unto thee, and thou hast healed me.

3 O LORD, thou hast brought up my soul from the grave: thou hast kept me alive, that I should not go down to the pit.

4 Sing unto the LORD, O ye saints of his, and give thanks at the remembrance of his holiness.

5 For his anger endureth but a moment; in his favour is life: weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning.

6 And in my prosperity I said, I shall never be moved.

7 LORD, by thy favour thou hast made my mountain to stand strong: thou didst hide thy face, and I was troubled.

8 I cried to thee, O LORD; and unto the LORD I made supplication.

9 What profit is there in my blood, when I go down to the pit? Shall the dust praise thee? shall it declare thy truth?

10 Hear, O LORD, and have mercy upon me: LORD, be thou my helper.

11 Thou hast turned for me my mourning into dancing: thou hast put off my sackcloth, and girded me with gladness;

12 To the end that my glory may sing praise to thee, and not be silent. O LORD my God, I will give thanks unto thee for ever.

1 David sheweth his confidence in God, craveth his help: 7 he rejoiceth in his mercy: 9 he prayeth in his calamity: 19 he praiseth God for his goodness.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

IN thee, O LORD, do I put my trust; let me never be ashamed: ^b deliver me in thy righteousness.

2 ^c Bow down thine ear to me; deliver me speedily: be thou [†] my strong rock, for an house of defence to save me.

3 ^d For thou art my rock and my fortress; therefore ^e for thy name's sake lead me, and guide me.

4 Pull me out of the net that they have laid privily for me: for thou art my strength.

5 ^f Into thine hand I commit my spirit: thou hast redeemed me, O LORD God of truth.

6 ^g I have hated them ^{*} that regard lying vanities: but I trust in the LORD.

7 I will be glad and rejoice in thy mercy: for thou hast considered my trouble; thou hast ^h known my soul in adversities;

8 And hast not ⁱ shut me up into the hand of the enemy: ^k thou hast set my foot in a large room.

9 Have mercy upon me, O LORD, for I am in trouble: ^l mine eye is consumed with grief, yea, my soul and my belly.

10 For my life is spent with grief, and my years with sighing: my strength faileth because of mine iniquity, and ^m my bones are consumed.

11 ⁿ I was a reproach among all mine enemies, but ^o especially among my neighbours, and a fear to mine acquaintance: ^p they that did see me without fled from me.

12 ^q I am forgotten as a dead man out of mind: I am like [†] a broken vessel.

13 ^r For I have heard the slander of many: ^s fear was on every side: while they took counsel together against me, they devised to take away my life.

14 But I trusted in thee, O LORD: I said, Thou art my God.

15 My times are in thy hand: deliver me from the hand of mine enemies, and from them that persecute me.

16 ^t Make thy face to shine upon thy servant: save me for thy mercies' sake.

17 ^u Let me not be ashamed, O LORD; for I have called upon thee: let the wicked be ashamed, and ^v let them be silent in the grave.

18 ^w Let the lying lips be put to silence; which ^x speak [†] grievous things proudly and contemptuously against the righteous.

19 ^y Oh how great is thy goodness, which thou hast laid up for them that fear thee; which thou hast wrought for them that trust in thee before the sons of men!

20 ^z Thou shalt hide them in the secret of thy presence from the pride of man; ^a thou shalt keep them secretly in a pavilion from the strife of tongues.

21 Blessed be the LORD: for ^b he hath shewed me his marvellous kindness ^c in a strong city.

22 For ^d I said in my haste, ^e I am cut off from before thine eyes: nevertheless thou heardest the voice of my supplications when I cried unto thee.

23 ^f O love the LORD, all ye his saints: for the LORD preserveth the faithful, and plentifully rewardeth the proud doer.

24 ^g Be of good courage, and he shall strengthen your heart, all ye that hope in the LORD.

VI. DAY. EVENING PRAYER.

P S A L M XXXII.

1 Blessedness consisteth in remission of sins. 3 Confession of sins giveth ease to the conscience. 8 God's promises bring joy.

A Psalm of David, Maschil.

BLESSED is he whose ^a transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered.

2 Blessed is the man unto whom the LORD ^b imputeth not iniquity, and ^c in whose spirit there is no guile.

3 When I kept silence, my bones waxed old through my roaring all the day long.

4 For day and night thy ^d hand was heavy upon me: my moisture is turned into the drought of summer. Selah.

5 I acknowledged my sin unto thee, and mine iniquity have I not hid. ^e I said, I will confess my transgressions unto the LORD; and thou forgavest the iniquity of my sin. Selah.

6 ^f For this shall every one that is godly ^g pray unto thee [†] in a time when thou mayest be found: surely in the floods of great waters they shall not come nigh unto him.

7 ^h Thou art my hiding place; thou shalt preserve me from trouble; thou shalt compass me about with ⁱ songs of deliverance. Selah.

8 I will instruct thee and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go: ^j I will guide thee with mine eye.

9 ^k Be ye not as the horse, or as the mule, which have ^l no understanding: whose mouth must be held in with bit and bridle, lest they come near unto thee.

10 ^m Many sorrows shall be to the wicked: but ⁿ he that trusteth in the LORD, mercy shall compass him about.

2 For ¹thine arrows stick fast in me, and ¹thy hand presseth me sore.

3 There is no soundness in my flesh because of thine anger; ¹neither is there any ¹rest in my bones because of my sin.

4 For ¹mine iniquities are gone over mine head: as an heavy burden they are too ¹heavy for me.

5 My wounds stink and are corrupt because of my foolishness.

6 I am ¹troubled; ¹I am bowed down greatly; ¹I go mourning all the day long.

7 For my loins are filled with a ¹loath-

8 I am feeble and fore broken: ¹I have roared by reason of the disquietness of my heart.

9 LORD, all my desire is before thee; and my groaning is not hid from thee.

10 My heart panteth, my strength faileth me: as for ¹the light of mine eyes, it also ¹is gone from me.

11^a My lovers and my friends ¹stand aloof from my ¹fore; and ¹my kinsmen ¹stand afar off.

12 They also that seek after my life ¹lay snares for me: and they that seek my hurt ¹speak mischievous things, and ¹imagine deceits all the day long.

13 But ¹I, as a deaf man, heard not; ¹and I was as a dumb man that openeth not his mouth.

14 Thus I was as a man that heareth not, and in whose mouth are no reproofs.

15 For ¹in thee, O LORD, ¹do I hope: thou wilt ¹hear, O LORD my God.

16 For I said, Hear me, ¹lest otherwise they should rejoice over me: when my ¹foot slippeth, they ¹magnify themselves against me.

17 For I am ready ¹to halt, and my sorrow is continually before me.

18 For I will ¹declare mine iniquity; I will be ¹sorry for my sin.

19 But mine enemies ¹are lively, and they are strong: and they that ¹hate me wrongfully are multiplied.

20 They also ¹that render evil for good are mine adversaries; ¹because I follow the thing that good is.

21 Forake me not, O LORD: O my God, ¹be not far from me.

22 Make haste ¹to help me, O LORD ¹my salvation.

and the measure of my days, what it is; that I may know how frail I am.

5 Behold, thou hast made my days as an handbreadth; and mine age is as nothing before thee: verily every man at his best state is altogether vanity. Selah.

6 Surely every man walketh in vanity: surely they are disquieted in vain: he heapeth up riches, and knoweth not who shall gather them.

7 And now, LORD, what wait I for? my hope is in thee.

8 Deliver me from all my transgressions: make me not the reproach of the foolish.

9 I was dumb, I opened not my mouth; because thou didst it.

10 Remove thy stroke away from me: I am consumed by the blow of thine hand.

11 When thou with rebukes dost correct man for iniquity, thou makest his beauty to consume away like a moth: surely every man is vanity. Selah.

12 Hear my prayer, O LORD, and give ear unto my cry; hold not thy peace at my tears: for I am a stranger with thee, and a sojourner, as all my fathers were.

13 O spare me, that I may recover strength, before I go hence, and be no more.

P S A L. XL.

1 The benefit of confidence in God. 6 Obedience is the best sacrifice. 11 The sense of David's evils inflameth his prayer.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

I waited patiently for the LORD; and he inclined unto me, and heard my cry.

2 He brought me up also out of an horrible pit, out of the miry clay, and set my feet upon a rock, and established my goings.

3 And he hath put a new song in my mouth, even praise unto our God: many shall see it, and fear, and shall trust in the LORD.

4 Blessed is that man that maketh the LORD his trust, and respecteth not the proud, nor such as turn aside to lies.

5 Many, O LORD my God, are thy wonderful works which thou hast done, and thy thoughts which are to us-ward: they cannot be reckoned up in order unto thee: if I would declare and speak of them, they are more than can be numbered.

6 Sacrifice and offering thou didst not desire; mine ears hast thou opened: burnt offering and sin offering hast thou not required.

7 Then said I, Lo, I come: in the volume of the book it is written of me;

8 I delight to do thy will, O my God: yea, thy law is within my heart.

9 I have preached righteousness in the great congregation: lo, I have not refrained my lips, O LORD, thou knowest.

10 I have not hid thy righteousness within my heart; I have declared thy faithfulness and thy salvation: I have not concealed thy lovingkindness and thy truth from the great congregation.

11 Withhold not thou thy tender mercies from me, O LORD: let thy lovingkindness and thy truth continually preserve me.

12 For innumerable evils have compassed me about: mine iniquities have taken hold upon me, so that I am not able to look up; they are more than the hairs of mine head: therefore my heart faileth me.

13 Be pleased, O LORD, to deliver me: O LORD, make haste to help me.

14 Let them be ashamed and confounded together that seek after my soul to destroy it; let them be driven backward and put to shame that wish me evil.

15 Let them be desolate for a reward of their shame that say unto me, Aha, aha.

16 Let all those that seek thee rejoice, and be glad in thee: let such as love thy salvation say continually, The LORD be magnified.

17 But I am poor and needy; yet the LORD thinketh upon me: thou art my help and my deliverer; make no tarrying, O my God.

VIII. DAY. EVENING PRAYER.

P S A L. XLI.

1 God's care of the poor. 4 David complaineth of his enemies' treachery: 10 he fleeth to God for succour.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

BLESSED is he that considereth the poor: the LORD will deliver him in time of trouble.

2 The LORD will preserve him, and keep him alive; and he shall be blessed upon the earth: and thou wilt not deliver him unto the will of his enemies.

3 The LORD will strengthen him upon the bed of languishing: thou wilt make all his bed in his sickness.

4 I said, LORD, be merciful unto me: heal my soul; for I have sinned against thee.

5 Mine enemies speak evil of me, When shall he die, and his name perish?

6 And if he come to see me, he speaketh vanity: his heart gathereth iniquity to itself; when he goeth abroad, he telleth it.

8¹ In God we boast all the day long, and praise thy name for ever. Selah.
 9 But^k thou hast cast off, and put us to shame; and goest not forth with our armies.
 10 Thou makest us to¹ turn back from the enemy: and they which hate us spoil for themselves.
 11^m Thou hast given us[†] like sheep appointed for meat; and hast^a scattered us among the heathen.
 12^o Thou sellest thy people[†] for nought, and dost not increase^{thy} wealth by their price.
 13^p Thou makest us a reproach to our neighbours, a scorn and a derision to them that are round about us.
 14^q Thou makest us a byword among the heathen, a shaking of the head among the people.
 15 My confusion^{is} continually before me, and the shame of my face hath covered me, 16 For the voice of him that reproacheth and blasphemeth; by reason of the enemy and avenger.
 17 All this is come upon us; yet have we not forgotten thee, neither have we dealt falsely in thy covenant.
 18 Our heart is not turned back, neither have our[†] steps declined from thy way;
 19 Though thou hast fore broken us in the place of dragons, and covered us with the shadow of death.
 20 If we have forgotten the name of our God, or² stretched out our hands to a strange god;
 21 Shall not God search this out? for he knoweth the secrets of the heart.
 22^b Yea, for thy sake are we killed all the day long; we are counted as sheep for the slaughter.
 23 Awake, why sleepest thou, O LORD? arise, cast us not off for ever.
 24 Wherefore hidest thou thy face, and forgettest our affliction and our oppression?
 25 For^c our soul is bowed down to the dust: our belly cleaveth unto the earth.
 26 Arise[†] for our help, and redeem us for thy mercies' sake.

MY heart[†] is inditing a good matter: I speak of the things which I have made touching the king: my tongue^{is} the pen of a ready writer.

2 Thou art fairer than the children of men: grace is poured into thy lips: therefore God hath blessed thee for ever.

3 Gird thy^b sword upon^{thy} thigh, O most mighty, with thy glory and thy majesty.

4 And in thy majesty[†] ride prosperously because of truth and meekness and righteousness; and thy right hand shall teach thee terrible things.

5 Thine arrows^{are} sharp in the heart of the king's enemies; whereby the people fall under thee.

6 Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: the sceptre of thy kingdom^{is} a right sceptre.

7 Thou lovest righteousness, and hatest wickedness: therefore[†] God, thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil¹ of gladness above thy fellows.

8 All thy garments^{smell} of myrrh, and aloes, and cassia, out of the ivory palaces, whereby they have made thee glad.

9 Kings' daughters^{were} among thy honourable women: upon thy right hand did stand the queen in gold of Ophir.

10 Hearken, O daughter, and consider, and incline thine ear; forget also thine own people, and thy father's house;

11 So shall the king greatly desire thy beauty: for he^{is} thy Lord; and worship thou him.

12 And the daughter of Tyre shall be there with a gift; even^p the rich among the people shall intreat[†] thy favour.

13 The king's daughter^{is} all glorious within: her clothing^{is} of wrought gold.

14 She shall be brought unto the king in raiment of needlework: the virgins her companions that follow her shall be brought unto thee.

15 With gladness and rejoicing shall they be brought: they shall enter into the king's palace.

16 Instead of thy fathers shall be thy children, whom thou mayest make princes in all the earth.

17 I will make thy name to be remembered in all generations: therefore shall the people praise thee for ever and ever.

12 Walk about Zion, and go round about her: tell the towers thereof.

13 ^{ay} Mark ye well her bulwarks, ^{az} consider her palaces; that ye may tell it to the generation following.

PSALM L.

¹ The majesty of God in the church: ⁵ his order to gather saints. 7 The pleasure of God is not in ceremonies; 14 but in sincerity of obedience.

A Psalm of Asaph.

¹ THE ¹ mighty God, even the LORD, hath spoken, and called the earth from the rising of the sun unto the going down thereof.

² Out of Zion, ² the perfection of beauty, ² God hath shined.

³ Our God shall come, and shall not keep silence: ³ a fire shall devour before him, and it shall be very tempestuous round about him.

⁴ ⁴ He shall call to the heavens from above, and to the earth, that he may judge his people.

⁵ Gather ⁵ my saints together unto me; ⁵ those that have made a covenant with me by sacrifice.

⁶ And ⁶ the heavens shall declare his righteousness: for ⁶ God is judge himself. Selah.

⁷ ⁷ Hear, O my people, and I will speak; O Israel, and I will testify against thee: ⁷ I am God, even thy God.

⁸ ⁸ I will not reprove thee ⁸ for thy sacrifices or thy burnt offerings, to have been continually before me.

⁹ ⁹ I will take no bullock out of thy house, nor he goats out of thy folds.

¹⁰ For every beast of the forest is mine, and the cattle upon a thousand hills.

¹¹ I know all the fowls of the mountains: and the wild beasts of the field are [†] mine.

¹² If I were hungry, I would not tell thee: ¹² for the world is mine, and the fulness thereof.

¹³ Will I eat the flesh of bulls, or drink the blood of goats?

¹⁴ ¹⁴ Offer unto God thanksgiving; and ¹⁴ pay thy vows unto the most High:

¹⁵ And ¹⁵ call upon me in the day of trouble: I will deliver thee, and thou shalt ¹⁵ glorify me.

¹⁶ But unto the wicked God saith, What hast thou to do to declare my statutes, or that thou shouldest take my covenant in thy mouth?

¹⁷ ¹⁷ Seeing thou hatest instruction, and ¹⁷ castest my words behind thee.

¹⁸ When thou sawest a thief, then thou ¹⁸ consentedst with him, and ¹⁸ hast been ¹⁸ partaker with adulterers.

¹⁹ ¹⁹ Thou givest thy mouth to evil, and ¹⁹ thy tongue frameth deceit.

²⁰ Thou sittest and speakest against thy brother; thou slanderest thine own mother's son.

²¹ These things hast thou done, ²¹ and I kept silence; ²¹ thou thoughtest that I was altogether such an one as thyself: but ²¹ I will reprove thee, and set them in order before thine eyes.

²² Now consider this, ye that ²² forget God, lest I tear you in pieces, and there be none to deliver.

²³ ²³ Whoso offereth praise glorifieth me: and ²³ to him ²³ that ordereth his conversation aright will I shew the salvation of God.

sanctification. 16 God delighteth not in sacrifice, but in sincerity: 18 David prayeth for the church.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David,
* when Nathan the prophet came unto him, after he had gone in to Bathsheba.

HAVE mercy upon me, O God, according to thy lovingkindness: according unto the multitude of thy tender mercies blot out my transgressions.

2 Wash me thoroughly from mine iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin.

3 For I acknowledge my transgressions: and my sin is ever before me.

4 Against thee, thee only, have I sinned, and done this evil in thy sight: that thou mightest be justified when thou speakest, and be clear when thou judgest.

5 Behold, I was shapen in iniquity; and in sin did my mother conceive me.

6 Behold, thou desirest truth in the inward part: and in the hidden part thou shalt make me to know wisdom.

7 Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean: wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

8 Make me to hear joy and gladness; that the bones which thou hast broken may rejoice.

9 Hide thy face from my sins, and blot out all mine iniquities.

10 Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me.

11 Cast me not away from thy presence; and take not thy holy spirit from me.

12 Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation; and uphold me with thy free spirit.

13 Then will I teach transgressors thy ways; and sinners shall be converted unto thee.

14 Deliver me from bloodguiltiness, O God, thou God of my salvation: and my tongue shall sing aloud of thy righteousness.

15 O LORD, open thou my lips; and my mouth shall shew forth thy praise.

16 For thou desirest not sacrifice; else would I give it: thou delightest not in burnt offering.

17 The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit: a broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise.

18 Do good in thy good pleasure unto Zion: build thou the walls of Jerusalem.

19 Then shalt thou be pleased with the sacrifices of righteousness, with burnt offering and whole burnt offering: then shall they offer bullocks upon thine altar.

P S A L. LII.

1 David condemning the spitefulness of Doeg, propheseth his destruction. 6 The righteous shall rejoice at it. 8 David, upon his confidence in God's mercy, giveth thanks.

To the chief Musician, Maschil, A Psalm of David, * when Doeg the Edomite came and told Saul; and said unto him, David is come to the house of Ahimelech.

WHY boastest thou thyself in mischief, O mighty man? the goodness of God endureth continually.

2 Thy tongue deviseth mischiefs; like a sharp razor; working deceitfully.

3 Thou lovest evil more than good; and lying rather than to speak righteousness. Selah.

4 Thou lovest all devouring words, O thou deceitful tongue.

5 God shall likewise destroy thee for ever, he shall take thee away, and pluck thee out of thy dwelling place, and root thee out of the land of the living. Selah.

6 The righteous also shall see, and fear, and shall laugh at him:

7 Lo, this is the man that made not God his strength; but trusted in the abundance of his riches, and strengthened himself in his wickedness.

8 But I am like a green olive tree in the house of God: I trust in the mercy of God for ever and ever.

9 I will praise thee for ever, because thou hast done it: and I will wait on thy name; for it is good before thy saints.

X. DAY. EVENING PRAYER.

P S A L. LIII.

1 David describeth the corruption of a natural man: 4 he convinceth the wicked by the light of their own conscience: 6 he glorieth in the salvation of God.

To the chief Musician upon Mahalath, Maschil, A Psalm of David.

THE fool hath said in his heart, There is no God. Corrupt are they, and have done abominable iniquity: there is none that doeth good.

2 God looked down from heaven upon the children of men, to see if there were any that did understand, that did seek God.

3 Every one of them is gone back: they are altogether become filthy; there is none that doeth good, no, not one.

4 Have the workers of iniquity no knowledge? who eat up my people as they eat bread: they have not called upon God.

5 There were they in great fear, where no fear was: for God hath scattered the bones of him that encampeth against thee:

thou hast put them to shame, because God hath despised them.

6 [†] Oh that the salvation of Israel were come out of Zion! When God bringeth back the captivity of his people, Jacob shall rejoice, and Israel shall be glad.

P S A L M LIV.

1 David complaining of the Ziphims, prayeth for salvation: [†] upon his confidence in God's help, he promiseth sacrifice.

To the chief Musician, on Neginoth, Maschil, A Psalm of David, * when the Ziphims came and said to Saul, Doth not David hide himself with us?

SAVE me, O God, by thy name, and Judge me by thy strength.

2 Hear my prayer, O God; give ear to the words of my mouth.

3 For [†] strangers are risen up against me, and oppressors seek after my soul: they have not set God before them. [†] Selah.

4 Behold, God is mine helper: the LORD is with them that uphold my soul.

5 He shall reward evil unto [†] mine enemies: cut them off [†] in thy truth.

6 I will freely sacrifice unto thee: I will praise thy name, O LORD: [†] for it is good.

7 For he hath delivered me out of all trouble: [†] and mine eye hath seen his desire upon mine enemies.

P S A L M LV.

1 David in his prayer complaineth of his fearful case: 9 he prayeth against his enemies, of whose wickedness and treachery he complaineth: 16 he comforteth himself in God's preservation of him, and confusion of his enemies.

To the chief Musician on Neginoth, Maschil, A Psalm of David.

GIVE ear to my prayer, O God; and hide not thyself from my supplication.

2 Attend unto me, and hear me: I [†] mourn in my complaint, and make a noise;

3 Because of the voice of the enemy, because of the oppression of the wicked: [†] for they cast iniquity upon me, and in wrath they hate me.

4 [†] My heart is sore pained within me: and the terrors of death are fallen upon me.

5 Fearfulness and trembling are come upon me, and horror hath [†] overwhelmed me.

6 And said, Oh that I had wings like a dove! for then would I fly away, and be at rest.

7 Lo, then would I wander far off, and remain in the wilderness. [†] Selah.

8 I would hasten my escape from the windy storm and tempest.

9 Destroy, O LORD, and divide their tongues: for I have seen [†] violence and strife in the city.

10 Day and night they go about it upon the walls thereof: mischief also and sorrow are in the midst of it.

11 Wickedness is in the midst thereof: deceit and guile depart not from her streets.

12 [†] For it was not an enemy that reproached me; then I could have borne it: neither was it he that hated me that did [†] magnify himself against me; then I would have hid myself from him:

13 But it was thou, [†] a man mine equal, [†] my guide, and mine acquaintance.

14 [†] We took sweet counsel together, and [†] walked unto the house of God in company.

15 Let death seize upon them, and let them [†] go down quick into [†] hell: for wickedness is in their dwellings, and among them.

16 As for me, I will call upon God; and the LORD shall save me.

17 [†] Evening, and morning, and at noon, will I pray, and cry aloud: and he shall hear my voice.

18 He hath delivered my soul in peace from the battle that was against me: for [†] there were many with me.

19 God shall hear, and afflict them, [†] even he that abideth of old. [†] Selah: [†] Because they have no changes, therefore they fear not God.

20 He hath [†] put forth his hands against such as [†] be at peace with him: [†] he hath broken his covenant.

21 [†] The words of his mouth were smoother than butter, but war was in his heart: his words were softer than oil, yet were they drawn swords.

22 [†] Cast thy [†] burden upon the LORD, and he shall sustain thee: [†] he shall never suffer the righteous to be moved.

23 But thou, O God, shalt bring them down into the pit of destruction: [†] [†] bloody and deceitful men [†] shall not live out half their days; but I will trust in thee.

XI. DAY, EVENING PRAYER.

P S A L. LIX.

1 David prayeth to be delivered from his enemies:

6 he complaineth of their cruelty: 8 he trusteth in God: 11 he prayeth against them: 16 he praiseth God.

To the chief Musician, || * Al-taschith, Mich-tam of David; * when Saul sent, and they watched the house to kill him.

DELIVER me from mine enemies, O my God: † defend me from them that rise up against me.

2 Deliver me from the workers of iniquity, and save me from bloody men.

3 For, lo, they lie in wait for my soul: the mighty are gathered against me; not for my transgression, nor for my sin, O LORD.

4 They run and prepare themselves without my fault: awake † to help me, and behold.

5 Thou therefore, O LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel, awake to visit all the heathen: be not merciful to any wicked transgressors. Selah.

6 They return at evening: they make a noise like a dog, and go round about the city.

7 Behold, they belch out with their mouth: words are in their lips: for who, say they, doth hear?

8 But thou, O LORD, shalt laugh at them; thou shalt have all the heathen in derision.

9 Because of his strength will I wait upon thee: for God is † my defence.

10 The God of my mercy shall prevent me: God shall let me see my desire upon † mine enemies.

11 Slay them not, lest my people forget: scatter them by thy power; and bring them down, O LORD our shield.

12 For the fix of their mouth and the words of their lips let them even be taken in their pride: and for curling and lying which they speak.

13 Consume them in wrath, consume them, that they may not be: and let them know that God ruleth in Jacob unto the ends of the earth. Selah.

14 And at evening let them return; and let them make a noise like a dog, and go round about the city.

15 Let them wander up and down † for meat, and grudge if they be not satisfied.

16 But I will sing of thy power; yea, I will sing aloud of thy mercy in the morning: for thou hast been my defence and refuge in the day of my trouble.

17 Unto thee, O my strength, will I sing: for God is my defence, and the God of my mercy.

P S A L. LX.

1 David complaining to God of former judgement, now upon better hope, prayeth for deliverance:

6 comforting himself in God's promises, he craveth that help whereon he trusteth.

To the chief Musician * upon Shushan-eduth, || Michlam of David, to teach; * when he strove with Aram-naharaim and with Aram-zobah, when Joab returned, and smote of Edom in the valley of salt twelve thousand.

O GOD, thou hast cast us off; thou hast † scattered us; thou hast been displeased; O turn thyself to us again.

2 Thou hast made the earth to tremble; thou hast broken it: heal the breaches thereof; for it shaketh.

3 Thou hast shewed thy people hard things: thou hast made us to drink the wine of astonishment.

4 Thou hast given a banner to them that feared thee, that it may be displayed because of the truth. Selah.

5 That thy beloved may be delivered; save with thy right hand, and hear me.

6 God hath spoken in his holiness; I will rejoice, I will divide Shechem, and move out the valley of Succoth.

7 Gilead is mine, and Manasseh is mine; Ephraim also is the strength of mine head;

8 Judah is my lawgiver; Moab is my washpot; over Edom will I cast out my shoe: Philistia, triumph thou because of me.

9 Who will bring me into the strong city? who will lead me into Edom?

10 Wilt not thou, O God, which hadst cast us off? and thou, O God, which didst not go out with our armies?

11 Give us help from trouble: for vain is the help of man.

12 Through God we shall do valiantly: for he it is that shall tread down our enemies.

P S A L. LXL.

1 David fleeth to God upon his former experience: he voweth perpetual service unto him, because of his promises.

To the chief Musician upon Neginah, A Psalm of David.

HEAR my cry, O God; attend unto my prayer.

2 From the end of the earth will I cry unto thee, when my heart is overwhelmed: lead me to the rock that is higher than I.

3 For thou hast been a shelter for me, and a strong tower from the enemy.

4 I will abide in thy tabernacle for ever: I will trust in the covert of thy wings. Selah.

XII. DAY. EVENING PRAYER.

P S A L. LXV.

1 David praiseth God for his grace. 4 The blessedness of God's chosen by reason of benefits.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm and Song of David.

PRAISE [†] waiteth for thee, O God, in [†] Sion: and unto thee shall the vow be performed.

2 O thou that hearest prayer, ^a unto thee shall all flesh come.

3 [†] Iniquities prevail against me: ^{as} for our transgressions, thou shalt ^c purge them away.

4 ^d Blessed is the man whom thou ^e choosest, and causest to approach unto thee, that he may dwell in thy courts: ^f we shall be satisfied with the goodness of thy house, ^{even} of thy holy temple.

5 By terrible things in righteousness wilt thou answer us, O God of our salvation; ^{who} art the confidence of ^g all the ends of the earth, and of them that are afar off upon the sea:

6 Which by his strength setteth fast the mountains; ^h being girded with power:

7 ⁱ Which stilleth the noise of the seas, the noise of their waves, ^k and the tumult of the people.

8 They also that dwell in the uttermost parts are afraid at thy tokens: thou makest the outgoings of the morning and evening ^l to rejoice.

9 Thou ^m visitest the earth, and ⁿ waterest it: thou greatly enrichest it ^o with the river of God, ^{which} is full of water: thou preparest them corn, when thou hast so provided for it.

10 Thou waterest the ridges thereof abundantly: [†] thou settlest the furrows thereof: [†] thou makest it soft with showers: thou blessest the springing thereof.

11 Thou crownest [†] the year with thy goodness; and thy paths drop fatness.

12 They drop upon the pastures of the wilderness: and the little hills [†] rejoice on every side.

13 The pastures are clothed with flocks; ^o the valleys also are covered over with corn; they shout for joy, they also sing.

P S A L. LXVI.

1 David exhorteth to praise God, 5 to observe his great works, 8 to bless him for his gracious benefits: 12 he voweth for himself religious service to God: 16 he declareth God's special goodness to himself.

To the chief Musician, A Song or Psalm.

MAKE ^a a joyful noise unto God, [†] all ye lands:

2 Sing forth the honour of his name: make his praise glorious.

3 Say unto God, How ^b terrible art thou in thy works! ^c through the greatness of thy power shall thine enemies [†] submit themselves unto thee.

4 ^d All the earth shall worship thee, and ^e shall sing unto thee; they shall sing to thy name. Selah.

5 ^f Come and see the works of God: ^{he} is terrible in his doing toward the children of men.

6 ^g He turned the sea into dry land: ^h they went through the flood on foot: there did we rejoice in him.

7 He ruleth by his power for ever; ⁱ his eyes behold the nations: let not the rebellious exalt themselves. Selah.

8 O bless our God, ye people, and make the voice of his praise to be heard:

9 Which [†] holdeth our soul in life, and ^k suffereth not our feet to be moved.

10 For ^l thou, O God, hast proved us: ^m thou hast tried us, as silver is tried.

11 ⁿ Thou broughtest us into the net: thou laidst affliction upon our loins.

12 ^o Thou hast caused men to ride over our heads; ^p we went through fire and through water: but thou broughtest us out into a [†] wealthy place.

13 ^q I will go into thy house with burnt offerings: ^r I will pay thee my vows, 14 Which my lips have [†] uttered, and my mouth hath spoken, when I was in trouble.

15 I will offer unto thee burnt sacrifices of [†] fatlings, with the incense of rams; I will offer bullocks with goats. Selah.

16 ^s Come and hear, all ye that fear God, and I will declare what he hath done for my soul.

17 I cried unto him with my mouth, and he was extolled with my tongue.

18 ^t If I regard iniquity in my heart, the LORD will not hear me;

19 But verily God ^u hath heard me; he hath attended to the voice of my prayer.

20 Blessed be God, which hath not turned away my prayer, nor his mercy from me.

PSAL. LXVII.

1 A prayer for the enlargement of God's kingdom,
3 to the joy of the people, 6 and to the increase of God's blessings.

To the chief Musician on Neginoth,

A Psalm or Song.

GOD be merciful unto us, and bless us;
and cause his face to shine upon us.
Selah.

2 That thy way may be known upon earth, thy saving health among all nations.

3 Let the people praise thee, O God;
let all the people praise thee.

4 O let the nations be glad and sing for joy: for thou shalt judge the people right-teously, and govern the nations upon earth. Selah.

5 Let the people praise thee, O God; let all the people praise thee.

6 Then shall the earth yield her increase;
and God, even our own God, shall bless us.

7 God shall bless us; and all the ends of the earth shall fear him.

XIII. DAY. MORNING PRAYER.

PSAL. LXVIII.

1 A prayer at the removing of the ark. 4 An ex- hortation to praise God for his mercies, 7 for his care of the church, 19 and for his great works.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm or Song of David.

LET God arise, let his enemies be scattered: let them also that hate him flee before him.

2 As smoke is driven away, so drive them away: as wax melteth before the fire, so let the wicked perish in the presence of God.

3 But let the righteous be glad; let them rejoice before God: yea, let them exceedingly rejoice.

4 Sing unto God, sing praises to his name: extol him that rideth upon the heavens by his name JAH, and rejoice before him.

5 A father of the fatherless, and a judge of the widows, is God in his holy habitation.

6 God setteth the solitary in families;
he bringeth out those which are bound with chains: but the rebellious dwell in a dry land.

7 O God, when thou wentest forth before thy people, when thou didst march through the wilderness; Selah:

8 The earth shook, the heavens also dropped at the presence of God: even Sinai itself was moved at the presence of God, the God of Israel.

9 Thou, O God, didst send a plentiful rain, whereby thou didst confirm thine inheritance, when it was weary.

10 Thy congregation hath dwelt therein:
thou, O God, hast prepared of thy goodness for the poor.

11 The LORD gave the word: great was the company of those that published it.

12 Kings of armies did flee apace:
and she that tarried at home divided the spoil.

13 Though ye have lien among the pots, yet shall ye be as the wings of a dove covered with silver, and her feathers with yellow gold.

14 When the Almighty scattered kings in it, it was white as snow in Salmon.

15 The hill of God is as the hill of Bashan; an high hill as the hill of Bashan.

16 Why leap ye, ye high hills? this is the hill which God desireth to dwell in;
yea, the LORD will dwell in it for ever.

17 The chariots of God are twenty thousand, even thousands of angels: the LORD is among them, as in Sinai, in the holy place.

18 Thou hast ascended on high, thou hast led captivity captive: thou hast received gifts for men; yea, for the rebellious also, that the LORD God might dwell among them.

19 Blessed be the LORD, who daily loadeth us with benefits, even the God of our salvation. Selah.

20 He that is our God is the God of salvation; and unto God the Lord belong the issues from death.

21 But God shall wound the head of his enemies, and the hairy scalp of such an one as goeth on still in his trespasses.

22 The LORD said, I will bring again from Bashan, I will bring my people again from the depths of the sea:

23 That thy foot may be dipped in the blood of thine enemies, and the tongue of thy dogs in the same.

24 They have seen thy goings, O God; even the goings of my God, my King, in the sanctuary.

25 The singers went before, the players on instruments followed after; among them were the damsels playing with timbrels.

26 Bless ye God in the congregations, even the Lord, from the fountain of Il-rael.

ruler, the princes of Judah and their council, the princes of Zebulun, and the princes of Naphtali.

XIII. DAY. EVENING PRAYER.

PSAL. LXIX.

David complaineth of his affliction: 13 he prayeth for deliverance: 22 he devoteth his enemies to destruction: 30 he praiseth God with thanksgiving.

To the chief Musician * upon Shoshannim,
A Psalm of David.

SAVE me, O God; for the waters are come in unto my soul.

2 I sink in deep mire, where there is no standing: I am come into deep waters, where the floods overflow me.

3 I am weary of my crying: my throat is dried: mine eyes fail while I wait for my God.

4 They that hate me without a cause are more than the hairs of mine head: they that would destroy me, being mine enemies wrongfully, are mighty: then I restored that which I took not away.

5 O God, thou knowest my foolishness; and my sins are not hid from thee.

6 Let not them that wait on thee, O Lord God of hosts, be ashamed for my sake: let not those that seek thee be confounded for my sake, O God of Israel.

7 Because for thy sake I have borne reproach; shame hath covered my face.

8 I am become a stranger unto my brethren, and an alien unto my mother's children.

9 For the zeal of thine house hath eaten me up; and the reproaches of them that reproached thee are fallen upon me.

10 When I wept, and chastened my soul with fasting, that was to my reproach.

11 I made sackcloth also my garment; and I became a proverb to them.

12 They that sit in the gate speak against me; and I was the song of the drunkards.

13 But as for me, my prayer is unto thee, O LORD, in an acceptable time: O God, in the multitude of thy mercy hear me, in the truth of thy salvation.

14 Deliver me out of the mire, and let me not sink: let me be delivered from them that hate me, and out of the deep waters.

15 Let not the waterflood overflow me, neither let the deep swallow me up, and let not the pit shut her mouth upon me.

16 Hear me, O LORD; for thy loving-kindness is good: turn unto me according to the multitude of thy tender mercies.

17 And hide not thy face from thy servant; for I am in trouble: hear me speedily.

18 Draw nigh unto my soul, and redeem it: deliver me because of mine enemies.

19 Thou hast known my reproach, and my shame, and my dishonour: mine adversaries are all before thee.

20 Reproach hath broken my heart; and I am full of heaviness: and I looked for some to take pity, but there was none; and for comforters, but I found none.

21 They gave me also gall for my meat; and in my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink.

22 Let their table become a snare before them: and that which should have been for their welfare, let it become a trap.

23 Let their eyes be darkened, that they see not; and make their loins continually to shake.

24 Pour out thine indignation upon them, and let thy wrathful anger take hold of them.

25 Let their habitation be desolate; and let none dwell in their tents.

26 For they persecute him whom thou hast smitten; and they talk to the grief of those whom thou hast wounded.

27 Add iniquity unto their iniquity: and let them not come into thy righteousness.

28 Let them be blotted out of the book of the living, and not be written with the righteous.

29 But I am poor and sorrowful: let thy salvation, O God, set me up on high.

30 I will praise the name of God with a

2 * He shall judge thy people with righteousness, and thy poor with judgement.

3 * The mountains shall bring peace to the people, and the little hills, by righteousness.

4 * He shall judge the poor of the people, he shall save the children of the needy, and shall break in pieces the oppressor.

5 They shall fear thee * as long as the sun and moon endure, throughout all generations.

6 * He shall come down like rain upon the mown grass: as showers that water the earth.

7 In his days shall the righteous flourish; and abundance of peace * so long as the moon endureth.

8 * He shall have dominion also from sea to sea, and from the river unto the ends of the earth.

9 * They that dwell in the wilderness shall bow before him; and his enemies shall lick the dust.

10 * The kings of Tarshish and of the isles shall bring presents: the kings of Sheba and Seba shall offer gifts.

11 * Yea, all kings shall fall down before him: all nations shall serve him.

12 For he * shall deliver the needy when he crieth; the poor also, and him that hath no helper.

13 He shall spare the poor and needy, and shall save the souls of the needy.

14 He shall redeem their soul from deceit and violence: and * precious shall their blood be in his sight.

15 And he shall live, and to him * shall be given of the gold of Sheba: prayer also shall be made for him continually; and daily shall he be praised.

16 There shall be an handful of corn in the earth upon the top of the mountains; the fruit thereof shall shake like Lebanon: * and they of the city shall flourish like grass of the earth.

XV. DAY. EVENING PRAYER.

P S A L. LXXVIII.

■ An exhortation both to learn and to preach the law of God. 9 The story of God's wrath against the incredulous and disobedient. 67 The Israelites being rejected, God chose Judah, Zion, and David.

* || Maschil of Asaph.

GIVE *ear, O my people, to my law: incline your ears to the words of my mouth.

2 * I will open my mouth in a parable: I will utter dark sayings of old:

3 * Which we have heard and known, and our fathers have told us.

4 * We will not hide them from their children, * shewing to the generation to come the praises of the LORD, and his strength, and his wonderful works that he hath done.

5 For * he established a testimony in Jacob, and appointed a law in Israel, which he commanded our fathers, * that they should make them known to their children:

6 * That the generation to come might know them, even the children which should be born; who should arise and declare them to their children:

7 That they might set their hope in God, and not forget the works of God, but keep his commandments:

8 And * might not be as their fathers, * a stubborn and rebellious generation; a generation * that set not their heart aright, and whose spirit was not stedfast with God.

9 The children of Ephraim, being armed, and * carrying bows, turned back in the day of battle.

10 * They kept not the covenant of God, and refused to walk in his law;

11 And * forgot his works, and his wonders that he had shewed them.

12 * Marvellous things did he in the sight of their fathers, in the land of Egypt, * in the field of Zoan.

13 * He divided the sea, and caused them to pass through; and * he made the waters to stand as an heap.

14 * In the daytime also he led them with a cloud, and all the night with a light of fire.

15 * He clave the rocks in the wilderness, and gave them drink as out of the great depths.

16 He brought * streams also out of the rock, and caused waters to run down like rivers.

17 And they sinned yet more against him by * provoking the most high in the wilderness.

18 And * they tempted God in their heart by asking meat for their lust.

19 * Yea, they spake against God; they said, Can God * furnish a table in the wilderness?

20 * Behold, he smote the rock, that the waters gushed out; and the streams overflowed; can he give bread also? can he provide flesh for his people?

21 Therefore the LORD heard this, and * was wroth: so a fire was kindled against Jacob, and anger also came up against Israel;

22 Because they * believed not in God, and trusted not in his salvation:

23 Though he had commanded the clouds from above, * and opened the doors of heaven, 24 * And had rained down manna upon them to eat, and had given them of the corn of heaven.

25 * Man did eat angels' food: he sent them meat to the full.

26 * He caused an east wind * to blow in the heaven: and by his power he brought in the south wind.

27 He rained flesh also upon them as dust, and * feathered fowls like as the sand of the sea:

28 And he let it fall in the midst of their camp, round about their habitations.

29 * So they did eat, and were well filled: for he gave them their own desire;

30 They were not estranged from their lust. But * while their meat was yet in their mouths, 31 The wrath of God came upon them, and slew the fattest of them, and * smote down the * chosen men of Israel.

32 For all this * they sinned still, and * believed not for his wondrous works.

33 * Therefore their days did he consume in vanity, and their years in trouble.

34 * When he slew them, then they sought him: and they returned and enquired early after God.

35 And they remembered that * God was their rock, and the high God * their redeemer.

36 Nevertheless they did * flatter him with their mouth, and they lied unto him with their tongues.

39 For ^a he remembered ^a that they were but flesh; ^a a wind that passeth away, and cometh not again.

40 How oft did they ^a provoke him in the wilderness, and grieve him in the desert!

41 Yea, ^a they turned back and tempted God, and ^b limited the Holy One of Israel.

42 They remembered not his hand, nor the day when he delivered them ^a from the enemy.

43 How ^a he had [†] wrought his signs in Egypt, and his wonders in the field of Zoan:

44 ^a And had turned their rivers into blood; and their floods, that they could not drink.

45 ^a He sent divers sorts of flies among them, which devoured them; and ^a frogs, which destroyed them:

46 ^a He gave also their increase unto the caterpillar, and their labour unto the locust.

47 ^a He [†] destroyed their vines with hail, and their sycamore trees with ^a frost.

48 ^{††} He gave up their cattle also to the hail, and their flocks to ^a hot thunderbolts.

49 He cast upon them the fierceness of his anger, wrath, and indignation, and trouble, by sending evil angels among them.

50 [†] He made a way to his anger; he spared not their soul from death, but gave ^a their life over to the pestilence;

51 ^a And smote all the firstborn in Egypt; the chief of their strength in ^a the tabernacles of Ham:

52 But ^a made his own people to go forth like sheep, and guided them in the wilderness like a flock.

53 And he ^a led them on safely, so that they feared not: but the sea ^a overwhelmed their enemies.

54 And he brought them to the border of his ^a sanctuary, even to this mountain, ^a which his right hand had purchased.

55 ^a He cast out the heathen also before them, and ^a divided them an inheritance by line, and made the tribes of Israel to dwell in their tents.

56 ^a Yet they tempted and provoked the most high God, and kept not his testimonies:

57 But ^a turned back, and dealt unfaithfully like their fathers: they were turned aside ^a like a deceitful bow.

58 ^a For they provoked him to anger with their ^a high places, and moved him to jealousy with their graven images.

59 When God heard this, he was wroth, and greatly abhorred Israel:

60 ^a So that he forsook the tabernacle of Shiloh, the tent which he placed among men;

61 ^a And delivered his strength into captivity, and his glory into the enemy's hand.

62 ^a He gave his people over also unto the sword; and was wroth with his inheritance.

63 The fire consumed their young men; and ^a their maidens were not [†] given to marriage.

64 ^a Their priests fell by the sword; and ^a their widows made no lamentation.

65 Then the LORD ^a awaked as one out of sleep, and ^a like a mighty man that shouteth by reason of wine.

66 And ^a he smote his enemies in the hinder part: he put them to a perpetual reproach.

67 Moreover he refused the tabernacle of Joseph, and chose not the tribe of Ephraim:

68 But chose the tribe of Judah, the mount Zion ^a which he loved.

69 And he ^a built his sanctuary like high palaces, like the earth which he hath [†] established for ever.

70 ^a He chose David also his servant, and took him from the sheepfolds:

71 [†] From following the ^a ewes great with young he brought him ^a to feed Jacob his people, and Israel his inheritance.

72 So he fed them according to the ^a integrity of his heart; and guided them by the skilfulness of his hands.

13 ^a Oh that my people had hearkened unto me, and Israel had walked in my ways!

14 I should soon have subdued their enemies, and turned my hand against their adversaries.

15 ^a The haters of the LORD should have ^{||} submitted themselves unto him: but their time should have endured for ever.

16 He should ^a have fed them also [†] with the finest of the wheat: and with honey ^a out of the rock should I have satisfied thee.

XVI. DAY. EVENING PRAYER.

P S A L. LXXXII.

1 The psalmist having exhorted the judges, 5 and reproved their negligence, 8 prayeth God to judge.

A Psalm ^{||} of Asaph.

GOD ^a standeth in the congregation of the mighty; he judgeth among ^b the gods.

2 How long will ye judge unjustly, and ^a accept the persons of the wicked? Selah.

3 [†] Defend the poor and fatherless: ^a do justice to the afflicted and needy.

4 ^a Deliver the poor and needy: rid them out of the hand of the wicked.

5 They ^a know not, neither will they understand; they walk on in darkness: ^a all the foundations of the earth are [†] out of course.

6 ^a I have said, Ye are gods; and all of you are children of the most High.

7 But ^a ye shall die like men, and fall like one of the princes.

8 ^a Arise, O God, judge the earth: ^a for thou shalt inherit all nations.

P S A L. LXXXIII.

1 A complaint to God of the enemies conspiracies.

9 A prayer against them that oppress the church.

A Song or Psalm ^{||} of Asaph.

KEEP ^a not thou silence, O God: hold not thy peace, and be not still, O God.

2 For, lo, ^b thine enemies make a tumult: and they that ^a hate thee have lifted up the head.

3 They have taken crafty counsel against thy people, and consulted ^a against thy hidden ones.

4 They have said, Come, and ^a let us cut them off from being a nation: that the name of Israel may be no more in remembrance.

5 For they have consulted together with one [†] consent: they are confederate against thee:

6 ^a The tabernacles of Edom, and the Ishmaelites; of Moab, and the Hagarenes;

7 Gebal, and Ammon, and Amalek; the Philistines with the inhabitants of Tyre;

8 Assur also is joined with them: [†] they have holpen the children of Lot. Selah.

9 Do unto them as unto the ^a Midianites; as to ^b Sisera, as to Jabin, at the brook of Kison:

10 Which perished at En-dor: ^a they became as dung for the earth.

11 Make their nobles like ^a Oreb, and like Zeeb: yea, all their princes as ^a Zebah, and as Zalmunna:

12 Who said, Let us take to ourselves the houses of God in possession.

13 ^m O my God, make them like a wheel; ^a as the stubble before the wind.

14 As the fire burneth a wood, and as the flame ^a setteth the mountains on fire;

15 So persecute them ^a with thy tempest, and make them afraid with thy storm.

16 ^a Fill their faces with shame; that they may seek thy name, O LORD.

17 Let them be confounded and troubled for ever; yea, let them be put to shame, and perish:

18 ^a That men may know that thou, whose name alone is JEHOVAH, art ^a the most High over all the earth.

8 O LORD God of hosts, who is a strong LORD like unto thee? or to thy faithfulness round about thee?

9 Thou rulest the raging of the sea: when the waves thereof arise, thou stillest them.

10 Thou hast broken Rahab in pieces, as one that is slain; thou hast scattered thine enemies with thy strong arm.

11 The heavens are thine, the earth also is thine: as for the world and the fulness thereof, thou hast founded them.

12 The north and the south thou hast created them: Tabor and Hermon shall rejoice in thy name.

13 Thou hast a mighty arm: strong is thy hand, and high is thy right hand.

14 Justice and judgement are the habitation of thy throne: mercy and truth shall go before thy face.

15 Blessed is the people that know the joyful sound: they shall walk, O LORD, in the light of thy countenance.

16 In thy name shall they rejoice all the day: and in thy righteousness shall they be exalted.

17 For thou art the glory of their strength: and in thy favour our horn shall be exalted.

18 For the LORD is our defence; and the Holy One of Israel is our king.

19 Then thou spakest in vision to thy holy one, and saidst, I have laid help upon one that is mighty; I have exalted one chosen out of the people.

20 I have found David my servant; with my holy oil have I anointed him:

21 With whom my hand shall be established: mine arm also shall strengthen him.

22 The enemy shall not exact upon him; nor the son of wickedness afflict him.

23 And I will beat down his foes before his face, and plague them that hate him.

24 But my faithfulness and my mercy shall be with him: and in my name shall his horn be exalted.

25 I will set his hand also in the sea, and his right hand in the rivers.

26 He shall cry unto me, Thou art my father, my God, and the rock of my salvation.

27 Also I will make him my firstborn, higher than the kings of the earth.

28 My mercy will I keep for him for evermore, and my covenant shall stand fast with him.

29 His seed also will I make to endure for ever, and his throne as the days of heaven.

30 If his children forsake my law, and walk not in my judgements;

31 If they break my statutes, and keep not my commandments;

32 Then will I visit their transgression with the rod, and their iniquity with stripes.

33 Nevertheless my lovingkindness will I not utterly take from him, nor suffer my faithfulness to fail.

34 My covenant will I not break, nor alter the thing that is gone out of my lips.

35 Once have I sworn by my holiness that I will not lie unto David.

36 His seed shall endure for ever, and his throne as the sun before me.

37 It shall be established for ever as the moon, and as a faithful witness in heaven. Selah.

38 But thou hast cast off and abhorred, thou hast been wroth with thine anointed.

39 Thou hast made void the covenant of thy servant: thou hast profaned his crown by casting it to the ground.

40 Thou hast broken down all his hedges; thou hast brought his strong holds to ruin.

41 All that pass by the way spoil him: he is a reproach to his neighbours.

42 Thou hast set up the right hand of his adversaries; thou hast made all his enemies to rejoice.

43 Thou hast also turned the edge of his sword, and hast not made him to stand in the battle.

44 Thou hast made his glory to cease, and cast his throne down to the ground.

45 The days of his youth hast thou shortened: thou hast covered him with shame. Selah.

46 How long, LORD? wilt thou hide thyself for ever? shall thy wrath burn like fire?

47 Remember how short my time is: wherefore hast thou made all men in vain?

48 What man is he that liveth, and shall not see death? shall he deliver his soul from the hand of the grave? Selah.

49 LORD, where are thy former lovingkindnesses, which thou swarest unto David in thy truth?

50 Remember, LORD, the reproach of thy servants; how I do bear in my bosom the reproach of all the mighty people;

51 Wherewith thine enemies have reproached, O LORD; wherewith they have reproached the footsteps of thine anointed.

XVIII. DAY. MORNING PRAYER.

P S A L. XC.

1 Moses setting forth God's providence, 3 complaineth of human fragility, 7 divine chastisements, 10 and brevity of life: 12 he prayeth for the knowledge and sensible experience of God's good providence.

|| A Prayer * of Moses the man of God.

LORD, * thou hast been our dwelling place † in all generations.

2 ^b Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting, thou art God.

3 Thou turnest man to destruction; and sayest, * Return, ye children of men.

4 ^a For a thousand years in thy sight are but as yesterday || when it is past, and as a watch in the night.

5 Thou carriest them away as with a flood; * they are as a sleep: in the morning ^f they are like grass which || groweth up.

6 ^e In the morning it flourisheth, and groweth up; in the evening it is cut down, and withereth.

7 For we are consumed by thine anger, and by thy wrath are we troubled.

8 ^h Thou hast set our iniquities before thee, our ⁱ secret sins in the light of thy countenance.

9 For all our days are † passed away in thy wrath: we spend our years || as a tale that is told.

10 [†] The days of our years are threescore years and ten; and if by reason of strength they be fourscore years, yet is their strength labour and sorrow; for it is soon cut off, and we fly away.

11 Who knoweth the power of thine anger? even according to thy fear, ^{so} is thy wrath.

12 ^k So teach us to number our days, that we may † apply our hearts unto wisdom.

13 Return, O LORD, how long? and let it ^l repent thee concerning thy servants.

14 O satisfy us early with thy mercy; ^m that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.

15 Make us glad according to the days wherein thou hast afflicted us, and the years wherein we have seen evil.

16 Let ⁿ thy work appear unto thy servants, and thy glory unto their children.

through thy work: I will triumph in the works of thy hands.

5 ^a O LORD, how great are thy works! ^b and ^c thy thoughts are very deep.

6 ^a A brutish man knoweth not; neither doth a fool understand this.

7 When ^a the wicked spring as the grass, and when all the workers of iniquity do flourish; it is that they shall be destroyed for ever:

8 ^a But thou, LORD, art most high for evermore.

9 For, lo, thine enemies, O LORD, for, lo, thine enemies shall perish; all the workers of iniquity shall ^a be scattered.

10 But ^a my horn shalt thou exalt like the horn of an unicorn: I shall be ^a anointed with fresh oil.

11 ^a Mine eye also shall see my desire on mine enemies, and mine ears shall hear my desire of the wicked that rise up against me.

12 ^a The righteous shall flourish like the palm tree: he shall grow like a cedar in Lebanon.

13 Those that be planted in the house of the LORD shall flourish ^a in the courts of our God.

14 They shall still bring forth fruit in old age; they shall be fat and ^a flourishing;

XVIII. DAY. EVENING PRAYER.

P S A L. XCIII.

The majesty, power, and holiness of Christ's kingdom.

THE ^a LORD reigneth, ^b he is clothed with majesty; the LORD is clothed with strength, ^c wherewith he hath girded himself: ^d the world also is stablished, that it cannot be moved.

2 ^a Thy throne is established ^a of old: thou art from everlasting.

3 The floods have lifted up, O LORD, the floods have lifted up their voice; the floods lift up their waves.

4 ^a The LORD on high is mightier than the noise of many waters, yea, than the mighty waves of the sea.

5 Thy testimonies are very sure: holiness becometh thine house, O LORD, ^a for ever.

P S A L. XCIV.

1 The prophet calling for justice, complaineth of tyranny and impiety: 8 he teacheth God's providence: 12 he sheweth the blessedness of affliction. 16 God is the defender of the afflicted.

O LORD ^a God, ^a to whom vengeance belongeth; O God, to whom vengeance belongeth, ^a shew thyself.

2 ^a Lift up thyself, thou ^a judge of the earth: render a reward to the proud.

3 LORD, ^a how long shall the wicked, how long shall the wicked triumph?

4 How long shall they ^a utter and speak hard things? and all the workers of iniquity boast themselves?

5 They break in pieces thy people, O LORD, and afflict thine heritage.

6 They slay the widow and the stranger, and murder the fatherless.

7 ^a Yet they say, The LORD shall not see, neither shall the God of Jacob regard it.

8 ^a Understand, ye brutish among the people: and ye fools, when will ye be wise?

9 ^a He that planted the ear, shall he not hear? he that formed the eye, shall he not see?

10 He that chastiseth the heathen, shall not he correct? he that ^a teacheth man knowledge, shall not he know?

11 ^a The LORD knoweth the thoughts of man, that they are vanity.

12 ^a Blessed is the man whom thou chastenest, O LORD, and teachest him out of thy law;

13 That thou mayest give him rest from the days of adversity, until the pit be digged for the wicked.

14 ^a For the LORD will not cast off his people, neither will he forsake his inheritance.

15 But judgement shall return unto righteousness: and all the upright in heart ^a shall follow it.

16 Who will rise up for me against the evil doers? or who will stand up for me against the workers of iniquity?

17 ^a Unless the LORD had been my help, my soul had ^a almost dwelt in silence.

18 When I said, ^a My foot slippeth; thy mercy, O LORD, help me up.

19 In the multitude of my thoughts within me thy comforts delight my soul.

20 Shall ^a the throne of iniquity have fellowship with thee, which ^a frameth mischief by a law?

21 ^a They gather themselves together against the soul of the righteous, and ^a condemn the innocent blood.

22 But the LORD is ^a my defence; and my God is the rock of my refuge.

23 And ^a he shall bring upon them their own iniquity, and shall cut them off in their own wickedness; yea, the LORD our God shall cut them off.

XIX. DAY. MORNING PRAYER.

P S A L. XCV.

- 1 An exhortation to praise God, 3 for his greatness, 6 and for his goodness; 8 and not to tempt him.

O COME, let us sing unto the LORD: let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation.

2 Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving, and make a joyful noise unto him with psalms.

3 For the LORD is a great God, and a great King above all gods.

4 In his hand are the deep places of the earth: the strength of the hills is his also.

5 The sea is his, and he made it: and his hands formed the dry land.

6 O come, let us worship and bow down: let us kneel before the LORD our maker.

7 For he is our God; and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand. To day if ye will hear his voice,

8 Harden not your heart, as in the provocation, and as in the day of temptation in the wilderness:

9 When your fathers tempted me, proved me, and saw my work.

10 Forty years long was I grieved with this generation, and said, It is a people that do err in their heart, and they have not known my ways:

11 Unto whom I sware in my wrath that they should not enter into my rest.

P S A L. XCVI.

- 1 An exhortation to praise God, 4 for his greatness, 8 for his kingdom, 13 and for his general judgement.

O SING unto the LORD a new song: sing unto the LORD, all the earth.

2 Sing unto the LORD, blest his name; shew forth his salvation from day to day.

3 Declare his glory among the heathen, his wonders among all people.

4 For the LORD is great, and greatly to be praised: he is to be feared above all gods.

5 For all the gods of the nations are idols: but the LORD made the heavens.

6 Honour and majesty are before him: strength and beauty are in his sanctuary.

7 Give unto the LORD, O ye kindreds of the people, give unto the LORD glory and strength.

8 Give unto the LORD the glory due unto his name: bring an offering, and come into his courts.

9 O worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness: fear before him, all the earth.

10 Say among the heathen that the LORD reigneth: the world also shall be established that it shall not be moved: he shall judge the people righteously.

11 Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad; let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof.

12 Let the field be joyful, and all that is therein: then shall all the trees of the wood rejoice.

13 Before the LORD: for he cometh, for he cometh to judge the earth: he shall judge the world with righteousness, and the people with his truth.

P S A L. XCVII.

- 1 The majesty of God's kingdom. 7 The church rejoiceth at God's judgements upon idolaters. 10 An exhortation to godliness and gladness.

THE LORD reigneth; let the earth rejoice; let the multitude of isles be glad thereof.

2 Clouds and darkness are round about him: righteousness and judgement are the habitation of his throne.

3 A fire goeth before him, and burneth up his enemies round about.

4 His lightnings enlightened the world: the earth saw, and trembled.

5 The hills melted like wax at the presence of the LORD, at the presence of the LORD of the whole earth.

6 The heavens declare his righteousness, and all the people see his glory.

7 Confounded be all they that serve graven images, that boast themselves of idols: worship him, all ye gods.

8 Zion heard, and was glad; and the daughters of Judah rejoiced because of thy judgements, O LORD.

9 For thou, LORD, art high above all the earth: thou art exalted far above all gods.

10 Ye that love the LORD, hate evil: he preserveth the souls of his saints; he delivereth them out of the hand of the wicked.

11 Light is sown for the righteous, and gladness for the upright in heart.

12 Rejoice in the LORD, ye righteous; and give thanks at the remembrance of his holiness.

9 Before the LORD; ^m for he cometh to judge the earth: with righteousness shall he judge the world, and the people with equity.

PSAL. XCIX.

1 ⁿ The prophet setting forth the kingdom of God in Zion, 5 exhorteth all, by the example of their forefathers, to worship God at his holy hill.

THE ^a LORD reigneth; let the people tremble: ^b he sitteth between the cherubims; let the earth [†] be moved.

2 The LORD is great in Zion; and he is ^c high above all the people.

3 Let them praise ^d thy great and terrible name; for it is holy.

4 ^e The king's strength also loveth judgement; thou dost establish equity, thou executest judgement and righteousness in Jacob.

5 ^f Exalt ye the LORD our God, and worship at ^g his footstool; for ^h he is holy.

6 ⁱ Moses and Aaron among his priests, and Samuel among them that call upon his name; they ^k called upon the LORD, and he answered them.

7 ^l He spake unto them in the cloudy pillar: they kept his testimonies, and the ordinance that he gave them.

8 Thou answeredst them, O LORD our God: ^m thou wast a God that forgavest them, though ⁿ thou tookest vengeance of their inventions.

9 ^o Exalt the LORD our God, and worship at his holy hill; for the LORD our God is holy.

PSAL. C.

1 ^p An exhortation to praise God cheerfully, 3 for his greatness, 4 and for his power.

* A Psalm of 11 Praise.

MAKE ^a a joyful noise unto the LORD, ^b [†] all ye lands.

2 Serve the LORD with gladness: come before his presence with singing.

3 Know ye that the LORD he is God: ^c it is he that hath made us, ^d and not we ourselves; ^e we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

4 ^f Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him, and bless his name.

5 For the LORD is good; ^g his mercy is everlasting; and his truth endureth ^h [†] to all generations.

PSAL. CI.

David maketh a vow and profession of godliness.

A Psalm of David.

I ^a WILL sing of mercy and judgement: unto thee, O LORD, will I sing.

2 I will ^b behave myself wisely in a perfect way. O when wilt thou come unto me? I will ^c walk within my house with a perfect heart.

3 I will set no ^d wicked thing before mine eyes: ^e I hate the work of them ^f that turn aside; it shall not cleave to me.

4 A froward heart shall depart from me: I will not ^g know a wicked person.

5 Whoso privily slandereth his neighbour, him will I cut off: ^h him that hath an high look and a proud heart will not I suffer.

6 Mine eyes shall be upon the faithful of the land, that they may dwell with me: he that walketh ⁱ in a perfect way, he shall serve me.

7 He that worketh deceit shall not dwell within my house: he that telleth lies [†] shall not tarry in my sight.

8 I will ^k early destroy all the wicked of the land; that I may cut off all wicked doers ^l from the city of the LORD.

XX. DAY. MORNING PRAYER.

PSAL. CII.

1 ^m The prophet in his prayer maketh a grievous complaint: 12 he taketh comfort in the eternity and mercy of God. 18 The mercies of God are to be recorded: 23 he sustaineth his weakness by the unchangeableness of God.

3 ^a For my days are consumed like smoke, and ^c my bones are burned as an hearth.

4 My heart is smitten, and ^f withered like grass; so that I forget to eat my bread.

5 By reason of the voice of my groaning ^e my bones cleave to my ^h skin.

6 ^h I am like ^a a pelican in the wilderness: I am like an owl of the desert.

7 I ^k watch, and am as a sparrow ^l alone upon the house top.

8 Mine enemies reproach me all the day; and they that are ^m mad against me are ⁿ sworn against me.

9 For I have eaten ashes like bread, and ^o mingled my drink with weeping, 10 Because of thine indignation and thy wrath: for ^p thou hast lifted me up, and cast me down.

11 ^q My days are like a shadow that declineth; and ^r I am withered like grass.

12 But ^s thou, O LORD, shalt endure for ever; and ^t thy remembrance unto all generations.

13 Thou shalt arise, and ^u have mercy upon Zion: for the time to favour her, yea, the ^v set time, is come.

14 For thy servants take pleasure in ^w her stones, and favour the dust thereof.

15 So the heathen shall ^x fear the name of the LORD, and all the kings of the earth thy glory.

16 When the LORD shall build up Zion, ^y he shall appear in his glory.

17 ^z He will regard the prayer of the destitute, and not despise their prayer.

18 This shall be ^{aa} written for the generation to come: and ^{ab} the people which shall be created shall praise the LORD.

19 For he hath ^{ac} looked down from the height of his sanctuary; from heaven did the LORD behold the earth;

20 ^{ad} To hear the groaning of the prisoner; to loose ^{ae} those that are appointed to death;

21 To ^{af} declare the name of the LORD in Zion, and his praise in Jerusalem;

22 When the people are gathered together, and the kingdoms, to serve the LORD.

23 He ^{ag} weakened my strength in the way; he ^{ah} shortened my days.

24 ^{ai} I said, O my God, take me not away in the midst of my days: ^{aj} thy years are throughout all generations.

25 ^{ak} Of old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth: and the heavens are the work of thy hands.

26 ^{al} They shall perish, but ^{am} thou shalt endure: yea, all of them shall wax old like a garment; as a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shall be changed:

27 But ^{an} thou art the same, and thy years shall have no end.

28 ^{ao} The children of thy servants shall continue, and their seed shall be established before thee.

1 An exhortation to praise God for his mercy, 15 and for the constancy thereof.

A Psalm of David.

BLESS ^a the LORD, O my soul: and all that is within me, bless his holy name.

2 Bless the LORD, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits:

3 ^b Who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who ^c healeth all thy diseases;

4 Who ^d redeemeth thy life from destruction; ^e who crowneth thee with loving-kindness and tender mercies;

5 Who satisfieth thy mouth with good things; so that ^f thy youth is renewed like the eagle's.

6 ^g The LORD executeth righteousness and judgement for all that are oppressed.

7 ^h He made known his ways unto Moses, his acts unto the children of Israel.

8 ⁱ The LORD is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and ^j plenteous in mercy.

9 ^k He will not always chide: neither will he keep his anger for ever.

10 ^l He hath not dealt with us after our sins; nor rewarded us according to our iniquities.

11 ^m For ⁿ as the heaven is high above the earth, so great is his mercy toward them that fear him.

12 As far as the east is from the west, so far hath he ^o removed our transgressions from us.

13 ^p Like as a father pitieth his children, so the LORD pitieth them that fear him.

14 For he knoweth our frame; ^q he remembereth that we are ^r dust.

15 As for man, ^s his days are as grass: ^t as a flower of the field, so he flourisheth.

16 For the wind passeth over it, and ^u it is gone; and ^v the place thereof shall know it no more.

17 But the mercy of the LORD is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear him, and his righteousness ^w unto children's children;

18 ^x To such as keep his covenant, and to those that remember his commandments to do them.

19 The LORD hath prepared his ^y throne in the heavens; and ^z his kingdom ruleth over all.

20 ^{aa} Bless the LORD, ye his angels, ^{ab} that excel in strength, that ^{ac} do his command-

XX DAY. EVENING PRAYER.

P S A L. CIV.

1 A meditation upon the mighty power, 7 and wonderful providence of God. 31 God's glory is eternal. 33 The prophet voweth perpetually to praise God.

BLESS ^a the LORD, O my soul. O LORD my God, thou art very great; ^b thou art clothed with honour and majesty.

2 ^c Who coverest thyself with light as with a garment: ^d who stretchest out the heavens like a curtain:

3 ^e Who layeth the beams of his chambers in the waters: ^f who maketh the clouds his chariot: ^g who walketh upon the wings of the wind:

4 ^h Who maketh his angels spirits; ⁱ his ministers a flaming fire:

5 ^j Who laid the foundations of the earth, that it should not be removed for ever.

6 ^k Thou coveredst it with the deep as with a garment: the waters stood above the mountains.

7 ^l At thy rebuke they fled; at the voice of thy thunder they hasted away.

8 ^m They go up by the mountains; they go down by the valleys unto ⁿ the place which thou hast founded for them.

9 ^o Thou hast set a bound that they may not pass over; ^p that they turn not again to cover the earth.

10 ^q He sendeth the springs into the valleys, which ^r run among the hills.

11 They give drink to every beast of the field, the wild asses ^s quench their thirst.

12 By them shall the fowls of the heaven have their habitation, which ^t sing among the branches.

13 ^u He watereth the hills from his chambers: ^v the earth is satisfied with ^w the fruit of thy works.

14 ^x He causeth the grafs to grow for the cattle, and herb for the service of man: that he may bring forth ^y food out of the earth;

15 And ^z wine that maketh glad the heart of man, and ^a oil to make his face to shine, and bread which strengtheneth man's heart.

16 The trees of the LORD are full of sap; the cedars of Lebanon, ^b which he hath planted;

17 Where the birds make their nests: as for the stork, the fir trees are her house.

18 The high hills are a refuge for the wild goats; and the rocks for ^c the conies.

19 ^d He appointed the moon for seasons: the sun ^e knoweth his going down.

20 ^f Thou makest darkness, and it is night: wherein ^g all the beasts of the forest do creep forth.

21 ^h The young lions roar after their prey, and seek their meat from God.

22 The sun ariseth, they gather themselves together, and lay them down in their dens.

23 Man goeth forth unto ⁱ his work and to his labour until the evening.

24 ^j O LORD, how manifold are thy works! in wisdom hast thou made them all: the earth is full of thy riches.

25 So is this great and wide sea, wherein are things creeping innumerable, both small and great beasts.

26 There go the ships: there is that ^k Leviathan, whom thou hast ^l made to play therein.

27 ^m These wait all upon thee; that thou mayest give them their meat in due season.

28 That thou givest them they gather: thou openest thine hand, they are filled with good.

29 Thou hidest thy face, they are troubled: ⁿ thou takest away their breath, they die, and return to their dust.

30 ^o Thou sendest forth thy spirit, they are created: and thou renewest the face of the earth.

31 The glory of the LORD ^p shall endure for ever: the LORD ^q shall rejoice in his works.

32 He looketh on the earth, and it ^r trembleth: ^s he toucheth the hills, and they smoke.

33 ^t I will sing unto the LORD as long as I live: I will sing praise to my God while I have my being.

34 My meditation of him shall be sweet: I will be glad in the LORD.

35 Let ^u the sinners be consumed out of the earth, and let the wicked be no more. ^v Bless thou the LORD, O my soul. Praise ye the LORD.

3 Blessed are they that keep judgement, and he that doeth righteousness at all times.

4 Remember me, O LORD, with the favour that thou bearest unto thy people: O visit me with thy salvation;

5 That I may see the good of thy chosen, that I may rejoice in the gladness of thy nation, that I may glory with thine inheritance.

6 We have sinned with our fathers, we have committed iniquity, we have done wickedly.

7 Our fathers understood not thy wonders in Egypt; they remembered not the multitude of thy mercies; but provoked him at the sea, even at the Red sea.

8 Nevertheless he saved them for his name's sake, that he might make his mighty power to be known.

9 He rebuked the Red sea also, and it was dried up: so he led them through the depths, as through the wilderness.

10 And he saved them from the hand of him that hated them, and redeemed them from the hand of the enemy.

11 And the waters covered their enemies: there was not one of them left.

12 Then believed they his words; they sang his praise.

13 They soon forgot his works; they waited not for his counsel:

14 But lusted exceedingly in the wilderness, and tempted God in the desert.

15 And he gave them their request; but sent leanness into their soul.

16 They envied Moses also in the camp, and Aaron the saint of the LORD.

17 The earth opened and swallowed up Dathan, and covered the company of Abiram.

18 And a fire was kindled in their company; the flame burned up the wicked.

19 They made a calf in Horeb, and worshipped the molten image.

20 Thus they changed their glory into the similitude of an ox that eateth grass.

21 They forgot God their saviour, which had done great things in Egypt;

22 Wondrous works in the land of Ham, and terrible things by the Red sea.

23 Therefore he said that he would destroy them, had not Moses his chosen stood before him in the breach, to turn away his wrath, lest he should destroy them.

24 Yea, they despised the pleasant land, they believed not his word:

25 But murmured in their tents, and hearkened not unto the voice of the LORD.

26 Therefore he lifted up his hand against them, to overthrow them in the wilderness:

27 To overthrow their seed also among the nations, and to scatter them in the lands.

28 They joined themselves also unto Baal-peor, and ate the sacrifices of the dead.

29 Thus they provoked him to anger with their inventions: and the plague brake in upon them.

30 Then stood up Phinehas, and executed judgement: and so the plague was stayed.

31 And that was counted unto him for righteousness unto all generations for evermore.

32 They angered him also at the waters of strife, so that it went ill with Moses for their sakes:

33 Because they provoked his spirit, so that he spake unadvisedly with his lips.

34 They did not destroy the nations, concerning whom the LORD commanded them:

35 But were mingled among the heathen, and learned their works.

36 And they served their idols: which were a snare unto them.

37 Yea, they sacrificed their sons and their daughters unto devils, 38 And shed innocent blood, even the blood of their sons and of their daughters, whom they sacrificed unto the idols of Canaan: and the land was polluted with blood.

39 Thus were they defiled with their own works, and went a whoring with their own inventions.

40 Therefore was the wrath of the LORD kindled against his people, inasmuch that he abhorred his own inheritance.

41 And he gave them into the hand of the heathen; and they that hated them ruled over them.

42 Their enemies also oppressed them, and they were brought into subjection under their hand.

43 Many times did he deliver them; but they provoked him with their counsel, and were brought low for their iniquity.

44 Nevertheless he regarded their affliction, when he heard their cry:

45 And he remembered for them his covenant, and repented according to the multitude of his mercies.

46 He made them also to be pitied of all those that carried them captives.

47 Save us, O LORD our God, and gra-

XXII. DAY. MORNING PRAYER.

P S A L. CVII.

ⁱ The psalmist exhorteth the redeemed, in praising God, to observe his manifold providence, ⁴ over travellers, ¹⁰ over captives, ¹⁷ over sick men, ²³ over seamen, ³³ and in divers varieties of life.

^O ^b GIVE thanks unto the LORD, for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever.

² Let the redeemed of the LORD say so, whom he hath redeemed from the hand of the enemy;

³ And ^d gathered them out of the lands, from the east, and from the west, from the north, and [†] from the south.

⁴ They ^e wandered in ^f the wilderness in a solitary way; they found no city to dwell in.

⁵ Hungry and thirsty, their soul fainted in them.

⁶ ^g Then they cried unto the LORD in their trouble, and he delivered them out of their distresses.

⁷ And he led them forth by the ^h right way, that they might go to a city of habitation.

⁸ ⁱ Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

⁹ For ^k he satisfieth the longing soul, and filleth the hungry soul with goodness.

¹⁰ Such as ^l sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, being ^m bound in affliction and iron;

¹¹ Because they ⁿ rebelled against the words of God, and contemned ^o the counsel of the most High:

¹² Therefore he brought down their heart with labour; they fell down, and there was ^p none to help.

¹³ ^q Then they cried unto the LORD in their trouble, and he saved them out of their distresses.

¹⁴ ^r He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death, and brake their bands in sunder.

¹⁵ ^s Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

¹⁶ For he hath ^t broken the gates of brass, and cut the gates of iron in sunder.

¹⁷ Fools ^u because of their transgression, and because of their iniquities, are afflicted.

¹⁸ ^x Their soul abhorreth all manner of meat; and they ^y draw near unto the gates of death.

¹⁹ ^z Then they cry unto the LORD in their trouble, and he saveth them out of their distresses.

²⁰ ^a He sent his word, and ^b healed them, and ^c delivered them from their destructions.

²¹ ^d Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

²² And ^e let them sacrifice the sacrifices of thanksgiving, and ^f declare his works with [†] rejoicing.

²³ They that go down to the sea in ships, that do business in great waters;

²⁴ These see the works of the LORD, and his wonders in the deep.

²⁵ For he commandeth, and [†] ^g raiseth the stormy wind, which lifteth up the waves thereof.

²⁶ They mount up to the heaven, they go down again to the depths: ^h their soul is melted because of trouble.

²⁷ They reel to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man, and [†] are at their wit's end.

²⁸ ⁱ Then they cry unto the LORD in their trouble, and he bringeth them out of their distresses.

²⁹ ^k He maketh the storm a calm, so that the waves thereof are still.

³⁰ Then are they glad because they be quiet; so he bringeth them unto their desired haven.

³¹ ^l Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

³² Let them exalt him also ^m in the congregation of the people, and praise him in the assembly of the elders.

³³ He ⁿ turneth rivers into a wilderness, and the watersprings into dry ground;

³⁴ A ^o fruitful land into [†] barrenness, for the wickedness of them that dwell therein.

³⁵ ^p He turneth the wilderness into a standing water, and dry ground into watersprings.

³⁶ And there he maketh the hungry to dwell, that they may prepare a city for habitation;

³⁷ And sow the fields, and plant vineyards, which may yield fruits of increase.

³⁸ ^q He blesteth them also, so that they are multiplied greatly; and suffereth not their cattle to decrease.

³⁹ Again, they are ^r minished and brought

1 The kingdom, 4 the priesthood, 5 the conquest, 7 and the passion of Christ.

A Psalm of David.

THE LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou at my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool.

2 The LORD shall send the rod of thy strength out of Zion: rule thou in the midst of thine enemies.

3 Thy people shall be willing in the day of thy power, in the beauties of holiness from the womb of the morning: thou hast the dew of thy youth.

4 The LORD hath sworn, and will not repent, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchizedek.

5 The LORD at thy right hand shall strike through kings in the day of his wrath.

6 He shall judge among the heathen, he shall fill the places with the dead bodies; he shall wound the heads over many countries.

7 He shall drink of the brook in the way: therefore shall he lift up the head.

P S A L. CXI.

1 The psalmist by his example inciteth others to praise God for his glorious, 5 and gracious works. 10 The fear of God breedeth true wisdom.

PRAISE ye the LORD. I will praise the LORD with my whole heart, in the assembly of the upright, and in the congregation.

2 The works of the LORD are great, sought out of all them that have pleasure therein.

3 His work is honourable and glorious: and his righteousness endureth for ever.

4 He hath made his wonderful works to be remembered: the LORD is gracious and full of compassion.

5 He hath given meat unto them that fear him: he will ever be mindful of his covenant.

6 He hath shewed his people the power of his works, that he may give them the heritage of the heathen.

7 The works of his hands are verity and judgement; all his commandments are sure.

8 They stand fast for ever and ever, and are done in truth and uprightness.

9 He sent redemption unto his people: he hath commanded his covenant for ever: holy and reverend is his name.

10 The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom: a good understanding have all they that do his commandments: his praise endureth for ever.

6 and for his mercy.

PRAISE [†] ye the LORD. ^a Praise, O ye servants of the LORD, praise the name of the LORD.

² ^b Blessed be the name of the LORD from this time forth and for evermore.

³ ^c From the rising of the sun unto the going down of the same the LORD's name is to be praised.

⁴ The LORD is ^a high above all nations, and ^a his glory above the heavens.

⁵ ^d Who is like unto the LORD our God, who [†] dwelleth on high,

⁶ ^e Who humbleth himself to behold the things that are in heaven, and in the earth!

⁷ ^f He raiseth up the poor out of the dust, and lifteth the needy out of the dunghill;

⁸ That he may [†] set him with princes, even with the princes of his people.

⁹ ^g He maketh the barren woman [†] to keep house, and to be a joyful mother of children. Praise ye the LORD.

XXIII. DAY. EVENING PRAYER.

P S A L. CXIV.

An exhortation, by the example of the dumb creatures, to fear God in his church.

WHEN ^a Israel went out of Egypt, the house of Jacob ^b from a people of strange language;

² ^c Judah was his sanctuary, and Israel his dominion.

³ ^d The sea saw it, and fled: ^e Jordan was driven back.

⁴ ^f The mountains skipped like rams, and the little hills like lambs.

⁵ ^g What ailed thee, O thou sea, that thou fleddest? thou Jordan, that thou wast driven back?

⁶ Ye mountains, that ye skipped like rams; and ye little hills, like lambs?

⁷ Tremble, thou earth, at the presence of the LORD, at the presence of the God of Jacob;

⁸ ^h Which turned the rock into a standing water, the flint into a fountain of waters.

P S A L. CXV.

¹ Because God is truly glorious, ⁴ and idols are vanity, ⁹ the psalmist exhorteth to confidence in God. ¹² God is to be praised for his blessings.

NOT ^a unto us, O LORD, not unto us, but unto thy name give glory, for thy mercy, and for thy truth's sake.

² Wherefore should the heathen say,
^b Where is now their God?

³ ^c But our God is in the heavens: he hath done whatsoever he hath pleased.

⁴ ^d Their idols are silver and gold, the work of men's hands.

⁵ They have mouths, but they speak not;
eyes have they, but they see not;

⁶ They have ears, but they hear not;
noses have they, but they smell not;

⁷ They have hands, but they handle not;
feet have they, but they walk not; neither speak they through their throat.

⁸ ^e They that make them are like unto them; so is every one that trusteth in them.

⁹ ^f O Israel, trust thou in the LORD: ^a he is their help and their shield.

¹⁰ O house of Aaron, trust in the LORD:
he is their help and their shield.

¹¹ Ye that fear the LORD, trust in the LORD: he is their help and their shield.

¹² The LORD hath been mindful of us, he will bless us; he will bless the house of Israel; he will bless the house of Aaron.

¹³ ^h He will bless them that fear the LORD, both small [†] and great.

¹⁴ The LORD shall increase you more and more, you and your children.

¹⁵ Ye are [†] blessed of the LORD ^a which made heaven and earth.

¹⁶ The heaven, even the heavens, are the LORD's: but the earth hath he given to the children of men.

¹⁷ ⁱ The dead praise not the LORD, neither any that go down into silence.

¹⁸ ^m But we will bless the LORD from this time forth and for evermore. Praise the LORD.

XXIV. DAY. MORNING PRAYER.

P S A L. CXVI.

God for his deliverance: ¹² he studieth to be thankful.

I ^a LOVE the LORD, because he hath heard my voice and my supplications.

² Because he hath inclined his ear unto me, therefore will I call upon him [†] as long as I live.

³ ^b The sorrows of death compassed me, and the pains of hell [†] gat hold upon me:
I found trouble and sorrow.

61 The [°]bands of the wicked have robbed me: but I have not forgotten thy law.

62 [°]At midnight I will rise to give thanks unto thee because of thy righteous judgements.

63 I am a companion of all them that fear thee, and of them that keep thy precepts.

64 [°]The earth, O LORD, is full of thy mercy: [°]teach me thy statutes, D T E T H.

65 [°]Thou hast dealt well with thy servant, O LORD, according unto thy word.

66 Teach me good judgement and knowledge: for I have believed thy commandments.

67 [°]Before I was afflicted I went astray: but now have I kept thy word.

68 Thou art [°]good, and doest good; [°]teach me thy statutes.

69 The proud have [°]forged a lie against me: but I will keep thy precepts with my whole heart.

70 [°]Their heart is as fat as grease; but I [°]delight in thy law.

71 [°]It is good for me that I have been afflicted; that I might learn thy statutes.

72 [°]The law of thy mouth is better unto me than thousands of gold and silver.

XXV. DAY. EVENING PRAYER.

J O D.

73 [°]Thy hands have made me and fashioned me: [°]give me understanding, that I may learn thy commandments.

74 [°]They that fear thee will be glad when they see me; because [°]I have hoped in thy word.

75 I know, O LORD, that thy judgements are [†]right, and [°]that thou in faithfulness hast afflicted me.

76 Let, I pray thee, thy merciful kindness be [†]for my comfort, according to thy word unto thy servant.

77 [°]Let thy tender mercies come unto me, that I may live: for [°]thy law is my delight.

78 Let the proud [°]be ashamed; [°]for they dealt perversely with me without a cause: but I will [°]meditate in thy precepts.

79 Let those that fear thee turn unto me, and those that have known thy testimonies.

80 Let my heart be found in thy statutes; that I be not ashamed.

C A P H.

81 [°]My soul fainteth for thy salvation: but [°]I hope in thy word.

82 [°]Mine eyes fail for thy word, saying, When wilt thou comfort me?

83 For [°]I am become like a bottle in the smoke; yet do I not forget thy statutes.

84 [°]How many are the days of thy servant? [°]when wilt thou execute judgement on them that persecute me?

85 [°]The proud have digged pits for me, which are not after thy law.

86 All thy commandments are [†]faithful: [°]they persecute me [°]wrongfully; help thou me.

87 They had almost consumed me upon earth; but I forsook not thy precepts.

88 [°]Quicken me after thy lovingkindness; so shall I keep the testimony of thy mouth.

L A M E D.

137 ^a Righteous art thou, O LORD, and upright are thy judgements.

138 ^a Thy testimonies that thou hast commanded are ^a righteous and very ^a faithful.

139 ^a My zeal hath ^a consumed me, because mine enemies have forgotten thy words.

140 ^a Thy word is very ^a pure: therefore thy servant loveth it.

141 ^a I am small and despised: yet do not I forget thy precepts.

142 Thy righteousness is an everlasting righteousness, and thy law is ^a the truth.

143 Trouble and anguish have ^a taken hold on me: yet thy commandments are ^a my delights.

144 The righteousness of thy testimonies is everlasting: ^a give me understanding, and I shall live.

XXVI. DAY. EVENING PRAYER.

P K O P H.

145 I cried with my whole heart; hear me, O LORD: I will keep thy statutes.

146 I cried unto thee; save me, ^a and I shall keep thy testimonies.

147 ^a I prevented the dawning of the morning, and cried: ^a I hoped in thy word.

148 ^a Mine eyes prevent the night watches, that I might meditate in thy word.

149 Hear my voice according unto thy lovingkindness: O LORD, ^a quicken me according to thy judgement.

150 They draw nigh that follow after mischief: they are far from thy law.

151 Thou art ^a near, O LORD; ^a and all thy commandments are truth.

152 Concerning thy testimonies, I have known of old that thou hast founded them ^a for ever.

R E S H.

153 ^a Consider mine affliction, and deliver me: for I do not forget thy law.

154 ^a Plead my cause, and deliver me: ^a quicken me according to thy word.

155 ^a Salvation is far from the wicked: for they seek not thy statutes.

156 ^a Great are thy tender mercies, O LORD: ^a quicken me according to thy judgements.

157 Many are my persecutors and mine enemies; yet do I not ^a decline from thy testimonies.

158 I beheld the transgressors, and ^a was grieved; because they kept not thy word.

159 Consider how I love thy precepts: ^a quicken me, O LORD, according to thy lovingkindness.

160 ^a Thy word is true from the beginning: and every one of thy righteous judgements endureth for ever.

S C H I N.

161 ^a Princes have persecuted me without a cause: but my heart standeth in awe of thy word.

162 I rejoice at thy word, as one that fideth great spoil.

163 I hate and abhor lying: but thy law do I love, 164 Seven times a day do I praise thee, because of thy righteous judgements.

165 ^a Great peace have they which love thy law: and ^a nothing shall offend them.

166 ^a LORD, I have hoped for thy salvation, and done thy commandments.

167 My soul hath kept thy testimonies; and I love them exceedingly.

168 I have kept thy precepts and thy testimonies: ^a for all my ways are before thee.

T A U.

169 Let my cry come near before thee, O LORD: ^a give me understanding according to thy word.

170 Let my supplication come before thee: deliver me according to thy word.

171 ^a My lips shall utter praise, when thou hast taught me thy statutes.

172 My tongue shall speak of thy word: for all thy commandments are righteousness.

173 Let thine hand help me; for ^a I have chosen thy precepts.

174 ^a I have longed for thy salvation, O LORD; and ^a thy law is my delight.

175 Let my soul live, and it shall praise thee; and let thy judgements help me.

176 ^a I have gone astray like a lost sheep; seek thy servant; for I do not forget thy commandments.

XXVIII. DAY. MORNING PRAYER.

P S A L. CXXXII.

1 David in his prayer commendeth unto God the religious care he had for the ark: 8 his prayer at the removing of the ark, 11 with a repetition of God's promises.

A Song of degrees.

LORD, remember David, and all his afflictions:

2 How he swore unto the LORD, * and vowed unto ^b the mighty God of Jacob;

3 Surely I will not come into the tabernacle of my house, nor go up into my bed;

4 I will * not give sleep to mine eyes, or slumber to mine eyelids,

5 Until I ^a find out a place for the LORD, † an habitation for the mighty God of Jacob.

6 Lo, we heard of it * at Ephratah: † we found it ^b in the fields of the wood.

7 We will go into his tabernacles: ^b we will worship at his footstool.

8 ^a Arise, O LORD, into thy rest; thou, and ^b the ark of thy strength.

9 Let thy priests ^a be clothed with righteousness; and let thy saints shout for joy.

10 For thy servant David's sake turn not away the face of thine anointed.

11 ^m The LORD hath sworn in truth unto David; he will not turn from it; ⁿ Of the fruit of [†] thy body will I set upon thy throne.

12 If thy children will keep my covenant and my testimony that I shall teach them, their children shall also sit upon thy throne for evermore.

13 ^o For the LORD hath chosen Zion; he hath desired [†] it for his habitation.

14 ^p This is my rest for ever: here will I dwell; for I have desired it.

15 ^q I will ^{||} abundantly bless her provision: I will satisfy her poor with bread.

16 ^r I will also clothe her priests with salvation: ^o and her saints shall shout aloud for joy.

17 ^s There will I make the horn of David to bud: ^u I have ordained a ^{||} lamp for mine anointed.

18 ^a The LORD is nigh unto all them that call upon him, to all that call upon him ^o in truth.

19 He will fulfil the desire of them that fear him: he also will hear their cry, and will save them.

20 ^p The LORD preserveth all them that love him: but all the wicked will he destroy.

21 My mouth shall speak the praise of the LORD: and let all flesh bless his holy name for ever and ever.

P S A L. CXLVI.

1 The psalmist voweth perpetual praises to God: 3 he exhorteth not to trust in man. 5 God for his power, justice, mercy, and kingdom, is only worthy to be trusted.

PRAISE [†] ye the LORD. ^a Praise the LORD, O my soul.

2 ^b While I live will I praise the LORD: I will sing praises unto my God while I have any being.

3 ^c Put not your trust in princes, nor in the son of man, in whom there is no ^{||} help.

4 ^d His breath goeth forth, he returneth to his earth; in that very day ^e his thoughts perish.

5 ^f Happy is he that hath the God of Jacob for his help, whose hope is in the LORD his God:

6 ^g Which made heaven, and earth, the sea, and all that therein is: which keepeth truth for ever:

7 ^h Which executeth judgement for the oppressed: ⁱ which giveth food to the hungry. ^k The LORD looseth the prisoners:

8 ^l The LORD openeth the eyes of the blind: ^m the LORD raiseth them that are bowed down: the LORD loveth the righteous:

9 ⁿ The LORD preserveth the strangers; he relieveth the fatherless and widow: ^o but the way of the wicked he turneth upside down.

10 ^p The LORD shall reign for ever, even thy God, O Zion, unto all generations. Praise ye the LORD.

XXX. DAY. EVENING PRAYER.

P S A L. CXLVII.

1 The prophet exhorteth to praise God for his care of the church, 4 his power, 6 and his mercy: 7 to praise him for his providence: 12 to praise him for his blessings upon the kingdom, 15 for his power over the meteors, 19 and for his ordinances in the church.

PRAISE ye the LORD: for ^a it is good to sing praises unto our God; ^b for it is pleasant; and ^c praise is comely.

2 The LORD doth ^a build up Jerusalem: ^c he gathereth together the outcasts of Israel.

3 ^f He healeth the broken in heart, and bindeth up their [†] wounds.

4 ^g He telleth the number of the stars; he calleth them all by their names.

5 ^h Great is our LORD, and of ⁱ great power: [†] ^k his understanding is infinite.

6 ^l The LORD lifteth up the meek: he casteth the wicked down to the ground.

7 Sing unto the LORD with thanksgiving; sing praise upon the harp unto our God:

8 ^m Who covereth the heaven with clouds, who prepareth rain for the earth, who maketh grass to grow upon the mountains.

9 ⁿ He giveth to the beast his food, and ^o to the young ravens which cry.

10 ^p He delighteth not in the strength of the horse: he taketh not pleasure in the legs of a man.

11 The LORD taketh pleasure in them that fear him, in those that hope in his mercy.

12 Praise the LORD, O Jerusalem; praise thy God, O Zion.

13 For he hath strengthened the bars of thy gates; he hath blessed thy children within thee.

14 [†] ^q He maketh peace in thy borders, and ^r filleth thee with the [†] finest of the wheat.

15 ^s He sendeth forth his commandment upon earth: his word runneth very swiftly.

16 ^t He giveth snow like wool: he scattereth the hoar frost like ashes.

17 He casteth forth his ice like morsels: who can stand before his cold?

18 ^u He sendeth out his word, and melteth them: he causeth his wind to blow, and the waters flow.

19 ^v He sheweth [†] his word unto Jacob, ^w his statutes and his judgements unto Israel.

20 ^x He hath not dealt so with any nation: and as for his judgements, they have not known them. Praise ye the LORD.

P S A L. CXLVIII.

1 The psalmist exhorteth the celestial, 7 the terrestrial, 11 and the rational creatures to praise God.

PRAISE [†] ye the LORD. Praise ye the LORD from the heavens: praise him in the heights.

The PROVERBS.

C H A P. I.

1 The use of the proverbs. 7 An exhortation to fear God, and believe his word: 10 to avoid the enticings of sinners. 20 Wisdom complaineth of her contempt: 24 she threateneth her contemners.

THE ^a proverbs of Solomon the son of David, king of Israel;

2 To know wisdom and instruction; to perceive the words of understanding;

3 To ^b receive the instruction of wisdom, justice, and judgement, and [†] equity;

4 To give subtilty to the ^c simple, to the young man knowledge and ^{||} discretion.

5 ^d A wise man will hear, and will increase learning; and a man of understanding shall attain unto wise counsels:

6 To understand a proverb, and ^{||} the interpretation; the words of the wise, and their ^e dark sayings.

7 [†] The fear of the LORD is ^{||} the beginning of knowledge: but fools despise wisdom and instruction.

8 ^h My son, hear the instruction of thy father, and forsake not the law of thy mother:

9 For ^h they shall be [†] an ornament of grace unto thy head, and chains about thy neck.

10 ^{||} My son, if sinners entice thee, [†] consent thou not.

11 If they say, Come with us, let us ^k lay wait for blood, let us lurk privily for the innocent without cause:

12 Let us swallow them up alive as the grave; and whole, [†] as those that go down into the pit:

14 Cast in thy lot among us; let us all have one purse:
15 My son, ^m walk not thou in the way with them; ⁿ refrain thy foot from their path:
16 ^o For their feet run to evil, and make haste to shed blood.
17 Surely in vain the net is spread ^t in 18 And they lay wait for their own blood;

they lurk privily for their own lives.
19 ^p So are the ways of every one that is greedy of gain; which taketh away the life of the owners thereof.
20 ^q ^r Wisdom crieth without; she uttereth her voice in the streets:
21 She crieth in the chief place of concourse, in the openings of the gates: in the city she uttereth her words, saying, 22 How long, ye simple ones, will ye love simplicity? and the scorners delight in their scorning, and fools hate knowledge?
23 Turn you at my reproof: behold, ^s I will pour out my spirit unto you, I will make known my words unto you.
24 ^t ^u Because I have called, and ye refused; I have stretched out my hand, and no man regarded;
25 But ye ^v have set at nought all my counsel, and would none of my reproof:
26 ^w I also will laugh at your calamity; I will mock when your fear cometh;
27 When ^x your fear cometh as desolation, and your destruction cometh as a whirlwind; when distress and anguish cometh upon you.
28 ^y Then shall they call upon me, but I will not answer; they shall seek me early, but they shall not find me:
29 For that they ^z hated knowledge, and did not ^a choose the fear of the LORD: 30 ^b They would none of my counsel:
they despised all my reproof.
31 Therefore ^c shall they eat of the fruit of their own way, and be filled with their own devices.
32 For the ^d turning away of the simple shall slay them, and the prosperity of fools shall destroy them.
33 But ^e whosever hearkeneth unto me shall dwell safely, and ^f shall be quiet from fear of evil.

CHAPTER II.

1 Wisdom promiseth godliness to her children, 10 and safety from evil company, 20 and direction in good ways.

MY son, if thou wilt receive my words, and ^a hide my commandments with thee;

ch. 4. 21.
& 7. 1.

2 So that thou incline thine ear unto wisdom, and apply thine heart to understanding;

3 Yea, if thou criest after knowledge, and ⁺ liftest up thy voice for understanding;

4 ^b If thou seekest her as silver, and searchest for her as for hid treasures;

5 Then shalt thou understand the fear of the LORD, and find the knowledge of God.

6 ^c For the LORD giveth wisdom: out of his mouth cometh knowledge and understanding.

7 He layeth up sound wisdom for the righteous: ^d he is a buckler to them that walk uprightly.

8 He keepeth the paths of judgement, and ^e preserveth the way of his saints.

9 Then shalt thou understand righteousness, and judgement, and equity; yea, every good path.

10 ^f When wisdom entereth into thine heart, and knowledge is pleasant unto thy soul;

11 Discretion shall preserve thee, ^g understanding shall keep thee:

12 To deliver thee from the way of the evil man, from the man that speaketh froward things;

13 Who leave the paths of uprightness, to ^h walk in the ways of darknels;

14 Who ⁱ rejoice to do evil, and ^j delight in the frowardness of the wicked;

15 ^k Whose ways are crooked, and they froward in their paths:

16 To deliver thee from ^l the strange woman, ^m even from the stranger which flattereth with her words;

17 ⁿ Which forsaketh the guide of her youth, and forgetteth the covenant of her God.

18 For ^o her house inclineth unto death, and her paths unto the dead.

19 None that go unto her return again, neither take they hold of the paths of life.

20 ^p That thou mayest walk in the way of good men, and keep the paths of the righteous.

21 ^q For the upright shall dwell in the land, and the perfect shall remain in it.

22 ^r But the wicked shall be cut off from the earth, and the transgressors shall be ^s rooted out of it.

MY son, forget not my law; *but let

2 For length of days, and † long life, and peace, shall they add to thee.

3 Let not mercy and truth forsake thee:
*bind them about thy neck; † write them

5 ¶ *Trust in the LORD with all thine

7 ¶ *Be not wise in thine own eyes: † fear

9 ¶ *Honour the LORD with thy substance, and with the firstfruits of all thine

10 *So shall thy barns be filled with plenty, and thy presses shall burst out with new wine.

11 ¶ *My son, despise not the chastening of the LORD; neither be weary of his correction:

recteth; *even as a father the son in whom he delighteth.

13 ¶ *Happy is the man that findeth

15 She is more precious than rubies: and 23 *Then shalt thou walk in thy way safely, and thy foot shall not stumble.

24 *When thou liest down, thou shalt not be afraid: yea, thou shalt lie down, and thy sleep shall be sweet.

25 *Be not afraid of sudden fear, neither of the desolation of the wicked, when it cometh.

26 For the LORD shall be thy confidence, and shall keep thy foot from being taken.

27 ¶ *Withhold not good from † them

30 † Strive not with a man without cause, if he have done thee no harm.

31 *Envy thou not the † oppressor, and choose none of his ways.

32 For the froward is abomination to the LORD: † but his secret is with the righ-33 ¶ *The curse of the LORD is in the habitation of the just.

34 *Surely he scorneth the scornors: but he giveth grace unto the lowly.

35 The wise shall inherit glory: but shame † shall be the promotion of fools.

C H A P. IV.

1 Solomon to persuade to obedience, 3 sheweth what instruction he had of his parents, 5 to study wisdom, 14 and to shun the path of the wicked: 20 he exhorteth to faith, 23 and sanctification.

HEAR, *ye children, the instruction of a father, and attend to know understanding.

2 For I give you good doctrine, forsake ye not my law.

3 For I was my father's son, *tender and only beloved in the sight of my mother.

4 *He taught me also, and said unto me, Let thine heart retain my words: *keep my commandments, and live.

5 ¶ *Get wisdom, get understanding:
forget it not; neither decline from the words of my mouth.

6 Forsake her not, and she shall preserve thee: † love her, and she shall keep thee.

7 *Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom: and with all thy getting get understanding.

she shall bring thee to honour, when thou dost embrace her.

ment of grace: ¹ a crown of glory shall she deliver to thee.

¹⁰ Hear, O my son, and receive my sayings; ¹¹ and the years of thy life shall be many.

¹¹ I have taught thee in the way of wisdom; I have led thee in right paths.

¹² When thou goest, ¹ thy steps shall not be straitened; ² and when thou runnest, thou shalt not stumble.

¹³ Take fast hold of instruction; let her not go: keep her; for she is thy life.

¹⁴ ¶ Enter not into the path of the wicked, and go not in the way of evil men.

¹⁵ Avoid it, pass not by it, turn from it, and pass away.

¹⁶ ¶ For they sleep not, except they have done mischief; and their sleep is taken away, unless they cause some to fall.

¹⁷ For they eat the bread of wickedness, and drink the wine of violence.

¹⁸ ¶ But the path of the just ¹ is as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day.

¹⁹ ¶ The way of the wicked is as darkness: they know not at what they stumble.

²⁰ ¶ My son, attend to my words; incline thine ear unto my sayings.

²¹ ¶ Let them not depart from thine eyes; ² keep them in the midst of thine heart.

²² For they are life unto those that find them, and ³ health to all their flesh.

²³ ¶ Keep thy heart ¹ with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life.

²⁴ Put away from thee ¹ a froward mouth, and perverse lips put far from thee.

²⁵ Let thine eyes look right on, and let thine eyelids look straight before thee.

²⁶ Ponder the path of thy feet, and ¹ let all thy ways be established.

²⁷ ¶ Turn not to the right hand nor to the left: ² remove thy foot from evil.

C H A P. V.

¹ Solomon exhorteth to the study of wisdom: ³ he sheweth the mischief of whoredom and riot:

¹⁵ he exhorteth to contentedness, liberality and chastity. ²² The wicked are overtaken with their own sins.

MY son, attend unto my wisdom, and bow thine ear to my understanding:

² That thou mayest regard discretion, and that thy lips may ³ keep knowledge.

³ ¶ For the lips of a strange woman drop as an honeycomb, and her ¹ mouth is ² smoother than oil:

⁴ But her end is ¹ bitter as wormwood, ² sharp as a two edged sword.

⁵ ¶ Her feet go down to death; her steps take hold on hell.

⁶ Lest thou shouldest ponder the path of life, her ways are moveable, that thou canst not know them.

⁷ Hear me now therefore, O ye children, and depart not from the words of my mouth.

⁸ Remove thy way far from her, and come not nigh the door of her house:

⁹ Lest thou give thine honour unto others, and thy years unto the cruel:

¹⁰ Lest strangers be filled with ¹ thy wealth; and thy labours be in the house of a stranger;

¹¹ And thou mourn at the last, when thy flesh and thy body are consumed,

¹² And say, How have I ¹ hated instruction, and my heart ² despised reproof;

¹³ And have not obeyed the voice of my teachers, nor inclined mine ear to them that instructed me!

¹⁴ I was almost in all evil in the midst of the congregation and assembly.

¹⁵ ¶ Drink waters out of thine own cistern, and running waters out of thine own well.

¹⁶ Let thy fountains be dispersed abroad, and rivers of waters in the streets.

¹⁷ Let them be only thine own; and not strangers' with thee.

¹⁸ Let thy fountain be blessed: and rejoice with ¹ the wife of thy youth.

¹⁹ ¶ Let her be as the loving hind and pleasant roe; let her breasts ¹ satisfy thee at all times; and ² be thou ravished always with her love.

²⁰ And why wilt thou, my son, be ravished with ¹ a strange woman, and embrace the bosom of a stranger?

²¹ ¶ For the ways of man are before the eyes of the LORD, and he pondereth all his goings.

²² ¶ His own iniquities shall take the wicked himself, and he shall beholden with the cords of his ¹ sins.

²³ ¶ He shall die without instruction; and in the greatness of his folly he shall go astray.

C H A P. VI.

¹ Against suretyship, ⁶ idleness, ¹² and mischievousness. ¹⁶ Seven things hateful to God. ²⁰ The blessings of obedience. ²⁵ The mischiefs of whoredom.

MY son, ¹ if thou be surety for thy friend, ² if thou hast stricken thy hand with a stranger, ² Thou art snared with the words of thy mouth, thou art taken with the words of thy mouth.

³ Do this now, my son, and deliver thyself, when thou art come into the hand of thy friend; go, humble thyself, and make sure thy friend.

1 The fame, 6 and evidence of wisdom. 10 The excellency, 12 the nature, 15 the power, 18 the riches, 22 and the eternity of wisdom. 32 Wisdom is to be desired for the blessedness it bringeth.

DO TH not wisdom cry? and understanding put forth her voice?

2 She standeth in the top of high places, by the way in the places of the paths.

3 She crieth at the gates, at the entry of the city, at the coming in at the doors.

4 Unto you, O men, I call; and my voice is to the sons of man.

35 For whoso findeth me findeth life, and shall ^a obtain favour of the LORD.

36 But he that sinneth against me ^a wrongeth his own soul: all they that hate me love death.

CHAP. IX.

1 The discipline, 4 and doctrine of wisdom. 13 The custom, 16 and error of folly.

WISDOM hath ^a builded her house, she hath hewn out her seven pillars:

2 ^b She hath killed ^a her beasts; ^c she hath mingled her wine; she hath also furnished her table.

3 She hath ^a sent forth her maidens: ^c she crieth ^a upon the highest places of the city,

4 ^a Whofo is simple, let him turn in hither: as for him that wanteth understanding, she saith to him,

5 ^b Come, eat of my bread, and drink of the wine which I have mingled.

6 Forfake the foolish, and live; and go in the way of understanding.

7 He that reproveth a scorner getteth to himself shame: and he that rebuketh a wicked man getteth himself a blot.

8 ^a Reprove not a scorner, lest he hate thee: ^k rebuke a wise man, and he will love thee.

9 Give instruction to a wise man, and he will be yet wiser: teach a just man, and he will increase in learning.

10 ^m The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom: and the knowledge of the holy is understanding.

11 ^a For by me thy days shall be multiplied, and the years of thy life shall be increased.

12 ^o If thou be wise, thou shalt be wise for thyself: but if thou scornest, thou alone shalt bear it.

13 ¶ A foolish woman is clamorous: she is simple; and knoweth nothing.

14 For she sitteth at the door of her house, on a seat ^a in the high places of the city,

15 To call the passengers who go right on their ways:

16 ^a Whofo is simple, let him turn in hither: and as for him that wanteth understanding, she saith to him, 17 ^a Stolen waters are sweet, and bread [†] eaten in secret is pleasant.

18 But he knoweth not that ^a the dead are there; and that her guests are in the depths of hell.

CHAP. X.

From this chapter to the five and twentieth, are sundry observations of moral virtues, and their contrary vices.

THE proverbs of Solomon. ^a A wise son maketh a glad father: but a foolish son is the heaviness of his mother.

2 ^b Treasures of wickedness profit nothing: ^c but righteousness delivereth from death.

3 ^a The LORD will not suffer the soul of the righteous to famish: but he casteth away ^a the substance of the wicked.

4 ^a He becometh poor that dealeth with a slack hand: but ^a the hand of the diligent maketh rich.

5 He that gathereth in summer is a wise son: but he that sleepeth in harvest is ^a a son that causeth shame.

6 Blessings are upon the head of the just: but ^b violence covereth the mouth of the wicked.

7 ^a The memory of the just is blessed: but the name of the wicked shall rot.

8 The wise in heart will receive commandments: ^k but ^a a prating fool ^a shall fall.

9 ^a He that walketh uprightly walketh surely: but he that perverteth his ways shall be known.

10 ^m He that winketh with the eye causeth sorrow: ^a but a prating fool ^a shall fall.

11 ^o The mouth of a righteous man is a well of life: but ^a violence covereth the mouth of the wicked.

12 Hatred stirreth up strifes: but ^a love covereth all sins.

13 In the lips of him that hath understanding wisdom is found: but ^a a rod ^a is for the back of him that is void of ^a understanding.

14 Wise men lay up knowledge: but ^a the mouth of the foolish is near destruction.

15 ^a The rich man's wealth is his strong city: the destruction of the poor is their poverty.

16 The labour of the righteous tendeth to life: the fruit of the wicked to sin.

17 He is in the way of life that keepeth instruction: but he that refuseth reproof ^a erreth.

18 He that hideth hatred with lying lips, and ^a he that uttereth a slander, is a fool.

19 ^a In the multitude of words there wanteth not sin: but ^a he that refraineth his lips is wise.

20 The tongue of the just is as choice silver: the heart of the wicked is little worth.

21 The lips of the righteous feed many: but fools die for want [†] of wisdom.

22 ² The blessing of the LORD, it maketh rich, and he addeth no sorrow with it.

23 ^a It is as sport to a fool to do mischief: but a man of understanding hath wisdom.

24 ^b The fear of the wicked it shall come upon him: but ^c the desire of the righteous shall be granted.

25 As the whirlwind passeth, ^d so is the wicked no more: but ^e the righteous is an everlasting foundation.

27 ^f The fear of the LORD [†] longeth days: but ^g the years of the wicked shall be shortened.

28 The hope of the righteous shall be gladness: but the ^h expectation of the wicked shall perish.

29 The way of the LORD is strength to the upright: ⁱ but destruction shall be to the workers of iniquity.

30 ^k The righteous shall never be removed: but the wicked shall not inhabit the earth.

5 The righteousness of the perfect shall [†] direct his way: but the wicked shall fall by his own wickedness.

6 The righteousness of the upright shall deliver them: but ^f transgressors shall be taken in their own naughtiness.

7 ^g When a wicked man dieth, his expectation shall perish: and the hope of unjust men perisheth.

8 ^h The righteous is delivered out of trouble, and the wicked cometh in his stead.

9 An ⁱ hypocrite with his mouth destroyeth his neighbour: but through knowledge shall the just be delivered.

10 ^k When it goeth well with the righteous the city rejoiceth: and when the wicked perish, there is shouting.

11 ^l By the blessing of the upright the city is exalted: but it is overthrown by the mouth of the wicked.

12 He that is [†] void of wisdom despiseth his neighbour: but a man of understanding holdeth his peace.

13 ^m [†] A talebearer revealeth secrets: but he that is of a faithful spirit concealeth the matter.

14 ⁿ Where no counsel is, the people fall: but in the multitude of counsellors there is safety.

15 ^o He that is surety for a stranger [†] shall smart for it: and he that hateth [†] suretyship is sure.

16 ^p A gracious woman retaineth honour: and strong men retain riches.

17 ^q The merciful man doeth good to his own soul: but he that is cruel troubleth his own flesh.

18 The wicked worketh a deceitful work: but ^r to him that soweth righteousness shall be a sure reward.

19 As righteousness tendeth to life: so he that pursueth evil pursueth it to his own death.

20 They that are of a froward heart are abomination to the LORD: but such as are upright in their way are his delight.

21 ^s Though hand join in hand, the wicked shall not be unpunished: but ^t the seed of the righteous shall be delivered.

22 As a jewel of gold in a swine's snout, so is a fair woman which [†] is without discretion.

23 The desire of the righteous is only good: but the expectation of the wicked is wrath.

24 There is that ^u scattereth, and yet increaseth; and there is that withholdeth more than is meet, but it tendeth to poverty.

25 ^v The liberal soul shall be made fat: ^w and he that watereth shall be watered also himself.

26 ^x He that withholdeth corn, the people shall curse him: but ^y blessing shall be upon the head of him that selleth it.

27 He that diligently seeketh good procureth favour: ^z but he that seeketh mischief, it shall come unto him.

28 ^a He that trusteth in his riches shall fall: but ^a the righteous shall flourish as a branch.

29 He that troubleth his own house ^b shall inherit the wind: and the fool shall be servant to the wise of heart.

30 The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life; and ^e he that [†] winneth souls is wise.
31 ^b Behold, the righteous shall be recompensed in the earth: much more the wicked and the sinner.

CHAP. XII.

WHOSO loveth instruction loveth knowledge: but he that hateth reproof is brutish.

2 ^a A good man obtaineth favour of the LORD: but a man of wicked devices will he condemn.

3 A man shall not be established by wickedness: but the ^b root of the righteous shall not be moved.

4 ^c A virtuous woman is a crown to her husband: but she that maketh ashamed is ^d as rottenness in his bones.

5 The thoughts of the righteous are right: but the counsels of the wicked are deceit.

6 ^e The words of the wicked are to lie in wait for blood: ^f but the mouth of the upright shall deliver them.

7 ^g The wicked are overthrown, and are not: but the house of the righteous shall stand.

8 A man shall be commended according to his wisdom: ^h but he that is [†] of a perverse heart shall be despised.

9 ⁱ He that is despised, and hath a servant, is better than he that honoureth himself, and lacketh bread.

10 ^k A righteous man regardeth the life of his beast: but the [†] tender mercies of the wicked are cruel.

11 ^l He that tilleth his land shall be satisfied with bread: but he that followeth vain persons ^m is void of understanding.

12 The wicked desireth ⁿ the net of evil men: but the foot of the righteous yieldeth fruit.

13 [†] The wicked is snared by the transgression of his lips: ^o but the just shall come out of trouble.

14 ^p A man shall be satisfied with good by the fruit of his mouth: ^q and the recompence of a man's hands shall be rendered unto him.

15 ^r The way of a fool is right in his own eyes: but he that hearkeneth unto counsel is wise.

16 ^s A fool's wrath is [†] presently known: but a prudent man covereth shame.

17 ^t He that speaketh truth sheweth forth righteousness: but a false witness deceit.

18 ^u There is that speaketh like the piercings of a sword: but the tongue of the wise is health.

19 The lip of truth shall be established for ever: ^a but a lying tongue is but for a moment.

20 Deceit is in the heart of them that imagine evil: but to the counsellors of peace is joy.

21 There shall no evil happen to the just: but the wicked shall be filled with mischief.

22 ^y Lying lips are abomination to the LORD: but they that deal truly are his delight.

23 ^z A prudent man concealeth knowledge: but the heart of fools proclaimeth foolishness.

24 ^a The hand of the diligent shall bear rule: but the [†] slothful shall be under tribute.

25 ^b Heaviness in the heart of man maketh it stoop: but ^c a good word maketh it glad.

26 The righteous is more [†] excellent than his neighbour: but the way of the wicked seduceth them.

27 The slothful man roasteth not that which he took in hunting: but the substance of a diligent man is precious.

28 In the way of righteousness is life; and in the pathway thereof there is no death.

CHAP. XIII.

A WISE son heareth his father's instruction: ^a but a scorner heareth not rebuke.

2 ^b A man shall eat good by the fruit of his mouth: but the soul of the transgressors shall eat violence.

3 ^c He that keepeth his mouth keepeth his life: but he that openeth wide his lips shall have destruction.

4 ^d The soul of the sluggard desireth, and hath nothing: but the soul of the diligent shall be made fat.

5 A righteous man hateth lying: but a wicked man is loathsome, and cometh to shame.

6 ^e Righteousness keepeth him that is upright in the way: but wickedness overthroweth [†] the sinner.

7 ^f There is that maketh himself rich, yet hath nothing: there is that maketh himself poor, yet hath great riches.

8 The ransom of a man's life are his riches: but the poor heareth not rebuke.

9 The light of the righteous rejoiceth: ^g but the [†] lamp of the wicked shall be put out.

10 Only by pride cometh contention: but with the well advised is wisdom.

11 ^h Wealth gotten by vanity shall be diminished: but he that gathereth [†] by labour shall increase.

12 Hope deferred maketh the heart sick:

15 Good understanding giveth favour: but the way of transgressors is hard.

16 ^{*} Every prudent man dealeth with knowledge: but a fool [†] layeth open his folly.

17 A wicked messenger falleth into mischief: but ^{*} a faithful ambassador is health.

18 Poverty and shame shall be to him that refuseth instruction: but ^p he that regardeth reproof shall be honoured.

19 [†] The desire accomplished is sweet to the soul: but it is abomination to fools to depart from evil.

20 He that walketh with wise men shall be wise: but a companion of fools [†] shall be destroyed.

21 ^{*} Evil pursueth sinners: but to the righteous good shall be repayed.

22 A good man leaveth an inheritance to his children's children: and ^{*} the wealth of the sinner is laid up for the just.

23 ^{*} Much food is in the tillage of the poor: but there is that is destroyed for want of judgement.

24 ^{*} He that spareth his rod hateth his son: but he that loveth him chasteneth him betimes.

25 ^{*} The righteous eateth to the satisfying of his soul: but the belly of the wicked shall want.

C H A P. XIV.

EVERY ^{*} wise woman ^b buildeth her house: but the foolish plucketh it down with her hands.

2 He that walketh in his uprightness feareth the LORD: ^{*} but he that is perverse in his ways despiseth him.

3 In the mouth of the foolish is a rod of pride: ^a but the lips of the wise shall preserve them.

4 Where no oxen are, the crib is clean: but much increase is by the strength of the ox.

5 ^{*} A faithful witness will not lie: but a false witness will utter lies.

6 A scorner seeketh wisdom, and findeth it not: but [†] knowledge is easy unto him that understandeth.

7 Go from the presence of a foolish man, when thou perceivest not in him the lips of knowledge.

8 The wisdom of the prudent is to understand his way: but the folly of fools is deceit.

9 ^{*} Fools make a mock at sin: but among the righteous there is favour.

10 The heart knoweth [†] his own bitterness; and a stranger doth not intermeddle with his joy.

11 ^b The house of the wicked shall be overthrown: but the tabernacle of the upright shall flourish.

12 [†] There is a way which seemeth right unto a man, but ^{*} the end thereof are the ways of death.

13 Even in laughter the heart is sorrowful; and [†] the end of that mirth is heaviness.

14 The backslider in heart shall be ^m filled with his own ways: and a good man shall be satisfied from himself.

15 The simple believeth every word: but the prudent man looketh well to his going.

16 ^a A wise man feareth, and departeth from evil: but the fool rageth, and is confident.

17 He that is soon angry dealeth foolishly: and a man of wicked devices is hated.

18 The simple inherit folly: but the prudent are crowned with knowledge.

19 The evil bow before the good; and the wicked at the gates of the righteous.

20 ^{*} The poor is hated even of his own neighbour: but [†] the rich hath many friends.

21 He that despiseth his neighbour sinneth: ^p but he that hath mercy on the poor, happy is he.

22 Do they not err that devise evil? but mercy and truth shall be to them that devise good.

23 In all labour there is profit: but the talk of the lips tendeth only to penury.

24 The crown of the wise is their riches: but the foolishness of fools is folly.

25 ^a A true witness delivereth souls: but a deceitful witness speaketh lies.

26 In the fear of the LORD is strong confidence: and his children shall have a place of refuge.

27 ^{*} The fear of the LORD is a fountain of life, to depart from the snares of death.

29 ^{*} He that is slow to wrath is of great understanding: but he that is [†] hasty of spirit exalteth folly.

CHAP. XV.

A ^a SOFT answer turneth away wrath: but ^b grievous words stir up anger.

2 The tongue of the wise useth knowledge aright: ^c but the mouth of fools [†] poureth out foolishness.

3 ^d The eyes of the LORD are in every place, beholding the evil and the good.

4 [†] A wholesome tongue is a tree of life: but perverseness therein is a breach in the spirit.

5 ^e A fool despiseth his father's instruction: ^f but he that regardeth reproof is prudent.

6 In the house of the righteous is much treasure: but in the revenues of the wicked is trouble.

7 The lips of the wise disperse knowledge: but the heart of the foolish doeth not so.

8 ^g The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to the LORD: but the prayer of the upright is his delight.

12 ⁿ A scorner loveth not one that reproveth him: neither will he go unto the wise.

13 ^o A merry heart maketh a cheerful countenance: but ^p by sorrow of the heart the spirit is broken.

14 The heart of him that hath understanding seeketh knowledge: but the mouth of fools feedeth on foolishness.

15 All the days of the afflicted are evil: ^q but he that is of a merry heart ^r hath a continual feast.

16 ^s Better is little with the fear of the LORD, than great treasure and trouble therewith.

23 A man hath joy by the answer of his mouth: and ^{ac} a word spoken [†] in due season, how good is it!

24 ^{ad} The way of life is above to the wise, that he may depart from hell beneath.

25 ^{ae} The LORD will destroy the house of the proud: but ^{af} he will establish the border of the widow.

26 ^{ag} The thoughts of the wicked are an abomination to the LORD: ^{ah} but the words of the pure are [†] pleasant words.

30 The light of the eyes rejoiceth the heart: and a good report maketh the bones fat.

31 ^{am} The ear that heareth the reproof of life abideth among the wise.

32 He that refuseth ^{an} instruction despiseth his own soul: but he that ^{ao} heareth reproof [†] getteth understanding.

† Heb. heyr.
- 7 When a man's ways please the LORD, he maketh even his enemies to be at peace with him.
- 8 ^m Better is a little with righteousness, than great revenues without right.
- 9 ⁿ A man's heart deviseth his way: ^o but the LORD directeth his steps.
- 10 [†] A divine sentence is in the lips of the king: his mouth transgresseth not in judgement.
- 11 ^p A just weight and balance are the LORD'S: [†] all the weights of the bag are his work.
- 12 It is an abomination to kings to commit wickedness: for ^q the throne is established by righteousness.
- 13 ^r Righteous lips are the delight of kings;
and they love him that speaketh right.
- 14 ^s The wrath of a king is as messengers of death: but a wise man will pacify it.
- 15 In the light of the king's countenance is life; and ^t his favour is as a cloud of the latter rain.
- 16 ^u How much better is it to get wisdom than gold? and to get understanding rather to be chosen than silver?
- 17 The highway of the upright is to depart from evil: he that keepeth his way preserveth his soul.
- 18 ^v Pride goeth before destruction, and an haughty spirit before a fall.
- 19 Better it is to be of an humble spirit with the lowly, than to divide the spoil with the proud.
- 20 ^w He that handleth a matter wisely shall find good: and whoso ^x trusteth in the LORD, happy is he.
- 21 The wise in heart shall be called prudent: and the sweetness of the lips increaseth learning.
- 22 ^y Understanding is a wellspring of life unto him that hath it: but the instruction of fools is folly.
- 23 ^z The heart of the wise [†] teacheth his mouth, and addeth learning to his lips.
- 24 Pleasant words are as an honeycomb, sweet to the soul, and health to the bones.
- 25 ^o There is a way that seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death.
- 26 [†] He that laboureth laboureth for himself; for his mouth [†] craveth it of him.
- 27 [†] An ungodly man diggeth up evil:
and in his lips there is as a burning fire.
- 28 ^o A froward man [†] soweth strife: and a whisperer separateth chief friends.
- 29 A violent man ^o enticeth his neighbour, and leadeth him into the way that is not good.
- 30 He shutteth his eyes to devise froward things: moving his lips, he bringeth evil to pass.
- 31 ^a The hoary head is a crown of glory, if it be found in the way of righteousness.
- 32 [†] He that is slow to anger is better than the mighty; and he that ruleth his spirit than he that taketh a city.
- 33 The lot is cast into the lap; but the whole disposing thereof is of the LORD.

C H A P. XVII.

BETTER is ^a a dry morsel, and quietness therewith, than an house full of sacrifices with strife.

2 A wise servant shall have rule over ^b a son that causeth shame, and shall have part of the inheritance among the brethren.

3 ^c The fining pot is for silver, and the furnace for gold: but the LORD trieth the hearts.

4 A wicked doer giveth heed to false lips;
and a liar giveth ear to a naughty tongue.

5 ^d Whoso mocketh the poor reproach-eth his Maker: and ^e he that is glad at calamities shall not be [†] unpunished.

6 ^f Children's children are the crown of old men; and the glory of children are their fathers.

7 [†] Excellent speech becometh not a fool:
much less do [†] lying lips a prince.

8 ^g A gift is as [†] a precious stone in the eyes of him that hath it: whithersoever it turneth, it prospereth.

9 ^h He that covereth a transgression [†] seeketh love; but ⁱ he that repeateth a matter separateth very friends.

10 ^j A reproof entereth more into a wise man than an hundred stripes into a fool.

11 An evil man seeketh only rebellion:
therefore a cruel messenger shall be sent against him.

12 Let ^k a bear robbed of her whelps meet a man, rather than a fool in his folly.

13 Whoso ^l rewardeth evil for good, evil shall not depart from his house.

14 The beginning of strife is as when one letteth out water: therefore ^m leave off contention, before it be meddled with.

15 ⁿ He that justifieth the wicked, and he that condemneth the just, even they both are abomination to the LORD.

16 Wherefore is there a price in the hand of a fool to get wisdom, ^o seeing he hath no heart to it?

17 ^p A friend loveth at all times, and a brother is born for adversity.

18 ^q A man void of [†] understanding striketh hands, and becometh surety in the presence of his friend.

5 † It is not good to accept the person of the wicked, to overthrow the righteous in judgement.

10 Delight is not seemly for a fool; much less¹ for a servant to have rule over princes.

11^m The discretion of a man deferreth his anger; and it is his glory to pass over a transgression.

12^o The king's wrath is as the roaring of a lion; but his favour is^p as dew upon the grass.

13^q A foolish son is the calamity of his father: and the contentions of a wife are a continual dropping.

14^r House and riches are the inheritance of fathers: and a prudent wife is from the LORD.

15^s Slothfulness casteth into a deep sleep; and an idle soul shall suffer hunger.

16^t He that keepeth the commandment keepeth his own soul; but he that despiseth his ways shall die.

17^u He that hath pity upon the poor lendeth unto the LORD; and that which he hath given will he pay him again.

18^v Chasten thy son while there is hope, and let not thy soul spare¹ for his crying.

19 A man of great wrath shall suffer punishment: for if thou deliver him, yet thou must⁺ do it again.

20 Hear counsel, and receive instruction, that thou mayest be wise^b in the latter end.

21^c There are many devices in a man's heart; nevertheless the counsel of the LORD, that shall stand.

22 The desire of man is his kindness: and a poor man is better than a liar.

23^d The fear of the LORD tendereth to life: and he that hath it shall abide satisfied; he shall not be visited with evil.

24^e A slothful man hideth his hand in his bosom, and will not so much as bring it to his mouth again.

25^f Smite a scorner, and the simple⁺ will beware: and^g reprove one that hath understanding; and he will understand knowledge.

26 He that wasteth his father, and chafeth away his mother, is^h a son that causeth shame, and bringeth reproach.

27 Cease, my son, to hear the instruction that causeth to err from the words of knowledge.

28ⁱ An ungodly witness scorneth judgement: and^k the mouth of the wicked devoureth iniquity.

4^e The sluggard will not plow by reason of the cold; therefore shall he beg in harvest, and have nothing.

5^f Counsel in the heart of man is like deep water; but a man of understanding will draw it out.

6^g Most men will proclaim every one his own goodness: but^h a faithful man who can find?

7ⁱ The just man walketh in his integrity: his children are blessed after him.

8^j A king that sitteth in the throne of judgement scattereth away all evil with his eyes.

9^k Who can say, I have made my heart clean, I am pure from my sin?

10^l Divers weights, and⁺ divers measures, both of them are alike abomination to the LORD.

i ch. 19. 25.

at the beginning; * but the end thereof shall not be blessed.

22 ^f Say not thou, I will recompense evil; but ^e wait on the LORD, and he shall save thee.

23 ^h Divers weights are an abomination unto the LORD; and [†] a false balance is not good.

24 ⁱ Man's goings are of the LORD; how can a man then understand his own way?

25 It is a snare to the man who devour-eth that which is holy, and ^k after vows to make enquiry.

26 ^l A wife king scattereth the wicked, and bringeth the wheel over them.

27 ^m The spirit of man is ⁿ the candle of the LORD, searching all the inward parts of the belly.

28 ⁿ Mercy and truth preserve the king: and his throne is upholden by mercy.

29 The glory of young men is their strength: and ^o the beauty of old men is the gray head.

30 The blueness of a wound [†] cleanseth away evil: so do stripes the inward parts of the belly.

CHAP. XXI.

THE king's heart is in the hand of the LORD, as the rivers of water: he turneth it whithersoever he will.

2 ^a Every way of a man is right in his own eyes: ^b but the LORD pondereth the hearts.

3 ^c To do justice and judgement is more acceptable to the LORD than sacrifice.

4 ^d [†] An high look, and a proud heart, and ⁿ the plowing of the wicked, is sin.

5 ^e The thoughts of the diligent tend only to plenteousness; but of every one that is hasty only to want.

6 ^f The getting of treasures by a lying tongue is a vanity tossed to and fro of them that seek death.

7 The robbery of the wicked shall [†] destroy them; because they refuse to do judgement.

8 The way of man is froward and strange: but as for the pure, his work is right.

9 ^g It is better to dwell in a corner of the housetop, than with [†] a brawling woman in a [†] wide house.

10 ^h The soul of the wicked desireth evil: his neighbour [†] findeth no favour in his eyes.

11 ⁱ When the scorner is punished, the simple is made wise: and when the wise is instructed, he receiveth knowledge.

12 The righteous man wisely considereth the house of the wicked: but God over-throweth the wicked for their wickedness.

13 ^k Whoso stoppeth his ears at the cry of the poor, he also shall cry himself, but shall not be heard.

14 ^l A gift in secret pacifieth anger: and a reward in the bosom strong wrath.

15 It is joy to the just to do judgement: ^m but destruction shall be to the workers of iniquity.

16 The man that wandereth out of the way of understanding shall remain in the congregation of the dead.

17 He that loveth ⁿ pleasure shall be a poor man: he that loveth wine and oil shall not be rich.

18 ⁿ The wicked shall be a ransom for the righteous, and the transgressor for the upright.

19 ^o It is better to dwell [†] in the wilder-ness, than with a contentious and an angry woman.

20 ^p There is treasure to be desired and oil in the dwelling of the wise; but a foolish man spendeth it up.

21 ^q He that followeth after righteous-ness and mercy findeth life, righteousness, and honour.

22 ^r A wise man scaleth the city of the mighty, and casteth down the strength of the confidence thereof.

23 ^s Whoso keepeth his mouth and his tongue keepeth his soul from troubles.

24 Proud and haughty scorner is his name, who dealeth [†] in proud wrath.

25 ^t The desire of the slothful killeth him; for his hands refuse to labour.

26 He coveteth greedily all the day long: but the ^u righteous giveth, and spareth not.

27 ^x The sacrifice of the wicked is abomi- nation: how much more, when he bringeth it [†] with a wicked mind?

28 ^y [†] A false witness shall perish: but the man that heareth [†] speaketh constantly.

29 A wicked man hardeneth his face: but as for the upright, he ⁿ directeth his way.

30 ^z There is no wisdom nor understand- ing nor counsel against the LORD.

31 ^a The horse is prepared against the day of battle: but ^b ⁿ safety is of the LORD.

CHAP. XXII.

A ^a GOOD name is rather to be chosen than great riches, and ⁿ loving favour rather than silver and gold.

2 ^b The rich and poor meet together: ^c the LORD is the maker of them all.

3 ^d A prudent man foreseeth the evil, and 19 Hear thou, my son, and be wise, and guide thine heart in the way.

20 Be not among winebibbers; among riotous eaters of flesh.

21 For the drunkard and the glutton shall come to poverty: and drowfulness shall clothe a man with rags.

22 Harken unto thy father that begat thee, and despise not thy mother when she is old.

23 Buy the truth, and sell it not; also wisdom, and instruction, and understanding.

24 The father of the righteous shall greatly rejoice: and he that begetteth a wife child shall have joy of him.

25 Thy father and thy mother shall be glad, and she that bare thee shall rejoice.

26 My son, give me thine heart, and let thine eyes observe my ways.

27 For a whore is a deep ditch; and a strange woman is a narrow pit.

28 She also lieth in wait ^{as for a prey}, and increaseth the transgressors among men.

29 Who hath woe? who hath sorrow?
who hath contentions? who hath babbling? who hath wounds without cause?
who hath redness of eyes?

30 They that tarry long at the wine;
they that go to seek mixed wine.

31 Look not thou upon the wine when it is red, when it giveth his colour in the cup, when it moveth itself aright.

32 At the last it biteth like a serpent, and stingeth like an adder.

33 Thine eyes shall behold strange women, and thine heart shall utter perverse things.

34 Yea, thou shalt be as he that lieth down † in the midst of the sea, or as he that lieth upon the top of a mast.

35 They have stricken me, shalt thou say, and I was not sick; they have beaten me, and † I felt it not: when shall I awake? I will seek it yet again.

C H A P. XXIV.

BE not thou † envious against evil men, neither desire to be with them.

2 For their heart studieth destruction, and their lips talk of mischief.

3 Through wisdom is an house builded;
and by understanding it is established:

4 And by knowledge shall the chambers be filled with all precious and pleasant riches.

5 A wife man † is strong; yea, a man of knowledge † increaseth strength.

6 For by wife counsel thou shalt make thy war: and in multitude of counsellors there is safety.

7 Wisdom is too high for a fool: he openeth not his mouth in the gate.

8 He that † deviseth to do evil shall be called a mischievous person.

9 The thought of foolishness is sin: and the scorner is an abomination to men.

10 If thou faint in the day of adversity, thy strength is † small.

11 If thou forbear to deliver them that are drawn unto death, and those that are ready to be slain;

12 If thou sayest, Behold, we knew it not; doth not † he that pondereth the heart consider it? and he that keepeth thy soul, doth not he know it? and shall not he render to every man according to his works?

13 My son, eat thou honey, because it is good; and the honeycomb, which is sweet † to thy taste:

14 So shall the knowledge of wisdom be unto thy soul: when thou hast found it, then there shall be a reward, and thy expectation shall not be cut off.

15 Lay not wait, O wicked man, against the dwelling of the righteous; spoil not his resting place:

16 For a just man falleth seven times, and riseth up again: but the wicked shall fall into mischief.

17 Rejoice not when thine enemy falleth, and let not thine heart be glad when he stumbleth:

18 Lest the LORD see it, and † it displease him, and he turn away his wrath from him.

19 Fret not thyself because of evil men, neither be thou envious at the wicked;

20 For there shall be no reward to the evil man; the † candle of the wicked shall be put out.

21 My son, fear thou the LORD and the king: and meddle not with † them that are given to change:

22 For their calamity shall rise suddenly; and who knoweth the ruin of them both?

23 These things also belong to the wife.
It is not good to have respect of persons in judgement.

24 He that saith unto the wicked, Thou art righteous; him shall the people curse, nations shall abhor him:

25 But to them that rebuke him shall be delight, and † a good blessing shall come upon them.

26 Every man shall kiss his lips † that giveth a right answer.

28 * Be not a witness against thy neighbour without cause; and deceive not with thy lips.

29 * Say not, I will do so to him as he hath done to me: I will render to the man according to his work.

30 I went by the field of the slothful, and by the vineyard of the man void of understanding;

31 And, lo, it was all grown over with thorns, and nettles had covered the face thereof, and the stone wall thereof was broken down.

32 Then I saw, and † considered it well: I looked upon it, and received instruction.

33 * Yet a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep:

C H A P. XXV.

1 Observations about kings, 8 and about avoiding of quarrels, and sundry causes thereof.

THESE * are also proverbs of Solomon, which the men of Hezekiah king of Judah copied out.

2 * It is the glory of God to conceal a thing: but the honour of kings is * to search out a matter.

3 The heaven for height, and the earth for depth, and the heart of kings † is unsearchable.

4 * Take away the dross from the silver, and there shall come forth a vessel for the finer.

5 * Take away the wicked from before the king, and † his throne shall be established in righteousness.

6 † Put not forth thyself in the presence of the king, and stand not in the place of great men:

7 * For better it is that it be said unto thee, Come up hither; than that thou shouldest be put lower in the presence of the prince whom thine eyes have seen.

8 * Go not forth hastily to strive, lest thou know not what to do in the end thereof, when thy neighbour hath put thee to shame.

9 † Debate thy cause with thy neighbour himself; and † discover not a secret to another:

10 Lest he that heareth it put thee to shame, and thine infamy turn not away.

11 * A word † fitly spoken is like apples of gold in pictures of silver.

12 As an earring of gold, and an ornament of fine gold, so is a wise reprove upon an obedient ear.

13 * As the cold of snow in the time of harvest, so is a faithful messenger to them that send him: for he refresheth the soul of his masters.

14 * Whoso boasteth himself † of a false gift is like clouds and wind without rain.

15 * By long forbearing is a prince persuaded, and a soft tongue breaketh the bone.

16 * Hast thou found honey? eat so much as is sufficient for thee, lest thou be filled therewith, and vomit it.

17 * Withdraw thy foot from thy neighbour's house; lest he be † weary of thee, and so hate thee.

18 * A man that beareth false witness against his neighbour is a maul, and a sword, and a sharp arrow.

19 Confidence in an unfaithful man in time of trouble is like a broken tooth, and a foot out of joint.

20 As he that taketh away a garment in cold weather, and as vinegar upon nitre, so is he that singeth songs to an heavy heart.

21 * If thine enemy be hungry, give him bread to eat; and if he be thirsty, give him water to drink:

22 For thou shalt heap coals of fire upon his head, and the Lord shall reward thee.

23 * The north wind driveth away rain: so doth an angry countenance * a backbiting tongue.

24 * It is better to dwell in the corner of the house top, than with a brawling woman, and in a wide house.

25 As cold waters to a thirsty soul, so is good news from a far country.

26 A righteous man falling down before the wicked is as a troubled fountain, and a corrupt spring.

27 * It is not good to eat much honey: so for men * to search their own glory is not glory.

28 * He that hath no rule over his own spirit is like a city that is broken down, and without walls.

C H A P. XXVI.

CHAP. XXVII.

1 Observations on self love, 5 on true love; 11 on care to avoid offences, 23 and on the household care.

BOAST [°]not thyself of [†]to morrow; for thou knowest not what a day may bring forth.

2 [°]Let another man praise thee, and not thine own mouth; a stranger, and not thine own lips.

10 Thine own friend, and thy father's friend, forsake not; neither go into thy brother's house in the day of thy calamity: for [°]better is a neighbour that is near than a brother far off.

C H A P. XXVIII.

General observations on impiety, and religious integrity.

THE ° wicked flee when no man pursueth: but the righteous are bold as a lion.

2 For the transgression of a land many are the princes thereof: but † by a man of understanding and knowledge the state thereof shall be prolonged.

3 ° A poor man that oppresseth the poor is like a sweeping rain † which leaveth no food.

4 ° They that forsake the law praise the wicked: ° but such as keep the law contend with them.

5 ° Evil men understand not judgement: but ° they that seek the LORD understand all things.

6 ° Better is the poor that walketh in his uprightness, than he that is perverse in his ways, though he be rich.

7 ° Whoso keepeth the law is a wise son: but he that † is a companion of riotous men shameth his father.

8 ° He that by usury and † unjust gain increaseth his substance, he shall gather it for him that will pity the poor.

9 ° He that turneth away his ear from hearing the law, ° even his prayer shall be abomination.

10 ° Whoso causeth the righteous to go astray in an evil way, he shall fall himself into his own pit: ° but the upright shall have good things in possession.

11 The rich man is wise † in his own conceit; but the poor that hath understanding searcheth him out.

12 ° When righteous men do rejoice, there is great glory: but when the wicked rise, a man is † hidden.

13 ° He that covereth his sins shall not prosper: but whoso confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy.

14 Happy is the man ° that feareth alway: ° but he that hardeneth his heart shall fall into mischief.

15 ° As a roaring lion, and a ranging bear; ° so is a wicked ruler over the poor people.

16 The prince that wanteth understanding is also a great oppressor: but he that hateth covetousness shall prolong his days.

17 ° A man that doeth violence to the blood of any person shall flee to the pit; let no man stay him.

18 ° Whoso walketh uprightly shall be saved: but ° he that is perverse in his ways shall fall at once.

19 ° He that tilleth his land shall have plenty of bread: but he that followeth after vain persons shall have poverty enough.

20 A faithful man shall abound with blessings: ° but he that maketh haste to be rich shall not be † innocent.

21 ° To have respect of persons is not good; for ° for a piece of bread that man will transgress.

22 ° He that hasteth to be rich hath an evil eye, and considereth not that poverty shall come upon him.

23 ° He that rebuketh a man afterwards shall find more favour than he that flattereth with the tongue.

24 Whoso robbeth his father or his mother, and faith, It is no transgression; the same ° is the companion of † a destroyer.

25 ° He that is of a proud heart stirreth up strife: ° but he that putteth his trust in the LORD shall be made fat.

26 He that trusteth in his own heart is a fool: but whoso walketh wisely, he shall be delivered.

27 ° He that giveth unto the poor shall not lack: but he that hideth his eyes shall have many a curse.

† HE, that being often reprov'd hard-eneth his neck, shall suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy.

2 ^b When the righteous are in authority, the people rejoice: but when the wicked beareth rule, the people mourn.

3 ^d Whoso loveth wisdom rejoiceth his father: but he that keepeth company with harlots spendeth his substance.

4 The king by judgement establisheth the land: but he that receiveth gifts overthroweth it.

5 A man that flattereth his neighbour spreadeth a net for his feet.

6 In the transgression of an evil man there is a snare: but the righteous doth sing and rejoice.

7 ^f The righteous considereth the cause of the poor: but the wicked regardeth not to know it.

8 ^g Scornful men bring a city into a snare: but wise men turn away wrath.

9 If a wise man contendeth with a foolish man, whether he rage or laugh, there is no rest.

10 ^{† k} The bloodthirsty hate the upright:
but the just seek his soul.

11 A fool uttereth all his mind: but a wise man keepeth it in till afterwards.

12 If a ruler hearken to lies, all his servants are wicked.

13 The poor and the deceitful man meet together: the LORD lighteneth both their eyes.

14 ^q The king that faithfully judgeth the poor, his throne shall be established for ever.

15 ^q The rod and reproof give wisdom:
but a child left to himself bringeth his mother to shame,

16 When the wicked are multiplied, transgression increaseth: but the righteous shall see their fall.

17 ^r Correct thy son, and he shall give thee rest; yea, he shall give delight unto thy soul.

18 ^u Where there is no vision, the people perish: but he that keepeth the law, happy is he.

19 A servant will not be corrected by words: for though he understand he will not answer.

20 Seest thou a man that is hasty in his words? there is more hope of a fool than of him.

21 He that delicately bringeth up his servant from a child shall have him become his son at the length.

22 ^a An angry man stirreth up strife, and a furious man aboundeth in transgression.

23 ^a A man's pride shall bring him low:
but honour shall uphold the humble in spirit.

24 Whoso is partner with a thief hateth his own soul: he heareth cursing, and bewrayeth it not.

25 ^e The fear of man bringeth a snare:
but whoso putteth his trust in the LORD shall be safe.

26 ^d Many seek the ruler's favour; but every man's judgement cometh from the LORD.

27 An unjust man is an abomination to the just: and he that is upright in the way is abomination to the wicked.

ter, lest he curse thee, and thou be found guilty.

11 ¶ There is a generation that curseth their father, and doth not bless their mother.

12 There is a generation ^a that are pure in their own eyes, and yet is not washed from their filthiness.

13 There is a generation, O how ¹lofty are their eyes! and their eyelids are lifted up.

14 There is a generation, whose teeth are as swords, and their jaw teeth as knives, ^a to devour the poor from off the earth, and the needy from among men.

15 ¶ The horseleach hath two daughters, crying, Give, give. There are three things that are never satisfied, yea, four things say not, [†] It is enough:

16 ^a The grave; and the barren womb; the earth that is not filled with water; and the fire that saith not, It is enough.

17 ¶ ^a The eye that mocketh at his father, and despiseth to obey his mother, the ravens of ¹ the valley shall pick it out, and the young eagles shall eat it.

18 ¶ There be three things which are too wonderful for me, yea, four which I know not:

19 The way of an eagle in the air; the way of a serpent upon a rock; the way of a ship in the [†] midst of the sea; and the way of a man with a maid.

20 Such is the way of an adulterous woman; she eateth, and wipeth her mouth, and saith, I have done no wickedness.

21 For three things the earth is disquieted, and for four which it cannot bear:

22 ^a For a servant when he reigneth; and a fool when he is filled with meat;

23 For an odious woman when she is married; and an handmaid that is heir to her mistress.

24 ¶ There be four things which are little upon the earth, but they are [†] exceeding wise:

25 ^a The ants are a people not strong, yet they prepare their meat in the summer;

26 ^a The conies are but a feeble folk, yet make they their houses in the rocks;

27 The locusts have no king, yet go they forth all of them [†] by bands;

28 The spider taketh hold with her hands, and is in kings' palaces.

29 ¶ There be three things which go well, yea, four are comely in going:

30 A lion which is strongest among beasts, and turneth not away for any;

31 A [†] greyhound; an he goat also;

and a king, against whom there is no rising up.

32 ¶ If thou hast done foolishly in lifting up thyself, or if thou hast thought evil, ^a lay thine hand upon thy mouth.

33 Surely the churning of milk bringeth forth butter, and the wringing of the nose bringeth forth blood: so the forcing of wrath bringeth forth strife.

CHAP. XXXI.

1 Lemuel's lesson of chastity and temperance. 6 The afflicted are to be comforted and defended.

10 The praise and properties of a good wife.

THE words of king Lemuel, ^a the prophecy that his mother taught him.

2 What, my son? and what, ^b the son of my womb? and what, the son of my vows?

3 ^a Give not thy strength unto women, nor thy ways ^a to that which destroyeth kings.

4 ^a It is not for kings, O Lemuel, it is not for kings to drink wine; nor for princes strong drink:

5 ^a Lest they drink, and forget the law, and [†] pervert the judgement [†] of any of the afflicted.

6 ¶ ^a Give strong drink unto him that is ready to perish, and wine unto those that be [†] of heavy hearts.

7 Let him drink, and forget his poverty, and remember his misery no more.

8 ^a Open thy mouth for the dumb ¹ in the cause of [†] all such as are appointed to destruction.

9 Open thy mouth, ^a judge righteously, and ¹ plead the cause of the poor and needy.

10 ¶ ^a Who can find a virtuous woman? for her price is far above rubies.

11 The heart of her husband doth safely trust in her; so that he shall have no need of spoil.

12 She will do him good and not evil all the days of her life.

13 She seeketh wool, and flax, and worketh willingly with her hands.

14 She is like the merchants' ships; she bringeth her food from afar.

15 ^a She riseth also while it is yet night, and ^a giveth meat to her household, and a portion to her maidens.

16 She considereth a field, and [†] buyeth it: with the fruit of her hands she planteth a vineyard.

17 She girdeth her loins with strength, and strengtheneth her arms.

CHAP. I.

1 The Preacher sheweth that all human courses are vain; because the creatures are restless in their courses; 9 they bring forth nothing new, and all old things are forgotten; 12 and because he hath found it so in the studies of wisdom.

THE words of the Preacher, the son of David, king of Jerusalem:

2 Vanity of vanities, saith the Preacher, vanity of vanities; all is vanity.

3 What profit hath a man of all his labour which he taketh under the sun?

4 One generation passeth away, and another generation cometh: but the earth abideth for ever.

5 The sun also ariseth, and the sun goeth down, and † hasteth to his place where he arose.

6 The wind goeth toward the south, and turneth about unto the north; it whirleth about continually, and the wind returneth again according to his circuits.

7 All the rivers run into the sea; yet the sea is not full; unto the place from whence the rivers come, thither they † return again.

8 All things are full of labour; man cannot utter it: the eye is not satisfied with seeing, nor the ear filled with hearing.

9 The thing that hath been, it is that which shall be; and that which is done is that which shall be done: and there is no new thing under the sun.

10 Is there any thing whereof it may be said, See, this is new? it hath been already of old time, which was before us.

11 There is no remembrance of former things; neither shall there be any remembrance of things that are to come with those that shall come after.

12 I the Preacher was king over Israel in Jerusalem.

13 And I gave my heart to seek and search out by wisdom concerning all things that are done under heaven: this sore travail hath God given to the sons of man to be exercised therewith.

14 I have seen all the works that are done under the sun; and, behold, all is vanity and vexation of spirit.

15 That which is crooked cannot be made straight: and † that which is wanting cannot be numbered.

16 I communed with mine own heart, saying, Lo, I am come to great estate, and have gotten more wisdom than all they that have been before me in Jerusalem: yea, my heart † had great experience of wisdom and knowledge.

17 And I gave my heart to know wisdom, and to know madness and folly: I perceived that this also is vexation of spirit.

18 For in much wisdom is much grief: and he that increaseth knowledge increaseth sorrow.

CHAP. II.

1 The vanity of human courses in the works of pleasure. 12 Though the wise be better than the fool, yet both have one event. 18 The vanity of human labour in leaving it they know not to whom. 24 Nothing better than joy in our labour; but that is God's gift.

† Heb. hap-

even to me.

I SAID in mine heart, Go to now, I will prove thee with mirth, therefore enjoy pleasure: and, behold, ^athis also is vanity.

^b2 I said of laughter, It is mad: and of mirth, What doeth it?

^c3 I fought in mine heart ^dto give myself unto wine, yet acquainting mine heart with wisdom; and to lay hold on folly, till I might see what was that good for the sons of men, which they should do under the heaven ^e† all the days of their life.

^f4 I made me great works; I builded me houses; I planted me vineyards:

^g5 I made me gardens and orchards, and I planted trees in them of all kind of fruits:

^h6 I made me pools of water, to water therewith the wood that bringeth forth trees:

ⁱ7 I got me servants and maidens, and had ^j† servants born in my house; also I had great possessions of great and small cattle, above all that were in Jerusalem before me:

^k8 I gathered me also silver and gold, and the peculiar treasure of kings and of the provinces: I gat me men fingers and women fingers, and the delights of the sons of men, as ^l† musical instruments, and that of all sorts.

^m9 So ⁿ† I was great, and increased more than all that were before me in Jerusalem: also my wisdom remained with me.

^o10 And whatsoever mine eyes desired I kept not from them, I withheld not my heart from any joy; for my heart rejoiced in all my labour: and ^p† this was my portion of all my labour.

^q11 Then I looked on all the works that my hands had wrought, and on the labour that I had laboured to do: and, behold, all was.^r vanity and vexation of spirit, and there was no profit under the sun.

^s12 ^t¶ And I turned myself to behold wisdom, ^u† and madness, and folly: for what can the man do that cometh after the king? ^v† even that which hath been already done.

^w13 Then I saw ^x† that wisdom excelleth folly, as far as light excelleth darkness.

^y14 ^z† The wife man's eyes are in his head; but the fool walketh in darkness: and I myself perceived also that ^a† one event happeneth to them all.

^b15 Then said I in my heart, As it happeneth to the fool, so ^c† it happeneth even to me; and why was I then more wise? Then I said in my heart, that this also is vanity.

^d16 For there is no remembrance of the wife more than of the fool for ever; seeing that which now is in the days to come shall all be forgotten. And how dieth the wise man? as the fool.

^e17 Therefore I hated life; because the work that is wrought under the sun is grievous unto me: for all is vanity and vexation of spirit.

^f18 ^g¶ Yea, I hated all my labour which I had ^h† taken under the sun; because ⁱ† I should leave it unto the man that shall be after me.

^j19 And who knoweth whether he shall be a wise man or a fool? yet shall he have rule over all my labour wherein I have laboured, and wherein I have shewed myself wise under the sun. This is also vanity.

^k20 Therefore I went about to cause my heart to despair of all the labour which I took under the sun.

^l21 For there is a man whose labour is in wisdom, and in knowledge, and in equity; yet to ^m† a man that hath not laboured therein shall he ⁿ† leave it for his portion. This also is vanity and a great evil.

^o22 ^p¶ For what hath man of all his labour, and of the vexation of his heart, wherein he hath laboured under the sun?

^q23 For all his days are ^r† sorrows, and his travail grief; yea, his heart taketh not rest in the night. This is also vanity.

^s24 ^t¶ ^u† There is nothing better for a man, ^v† than that he should eat and drink, and ^w† that he ^x† should make his soul enjoy good in his labour. This also I saw, that it was from the hand of God.

^y25 For who can eat, or who else can hasten hereunto more than I?

^z26 For God giveth to a man that is good ^a† in his sight wisdom, and knowledge, and joy: but to the sinner he giveth travail, to gather and to heap up, that ^b† he may give to him that is good before God. This also is vanity and vexation of spirit.

CH A P. III.

^c1 By the necessary change of times, vanity is added to human travail. ^d2 There is an excellence in God's works: ^e3 but as for man, God shall judge his works there, and here he shall be like a beast.

TO every thing there is a season, and ^a† a time to every purpose under the heaven:

^b2 A time ^c† to be born, and ^d† a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up ^e† that which is planted;

^f3 A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up;

^g4 A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance;

^h5 A time to cast away stones, and a time

7 A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;

8 A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace.

9 What profit hath he that worketh in that wherein he laboureth?

10 I have seen the travail, which God hath given to the sons of men to be exercised in it.

11 He hath made every thing beautiful in his time: also he hath set the world in their heart; so that no man can find out the work that God maketh from the beginning to the end.

12 I know that there is no good in them, but for a man to rejoice, and to do good in his life.

13 And also k that every man should eat and drink, and enjoy the good of all his labour, it is the gift of God.

14 I know that, whatsoever God doeth, it shall be for ever: nothing can be put to it, nor any thing taken from it: and God doeth it, that men should fear before him.

15 That which hath been is now; and that which is to be hath already been; and God requireth † that which is past.

16 And moreover n I saw under the sun the place of judgement, that wickedness was there; and the place of righteousness, that iniquity was there.

17 I said in mine heart, God shall judge the righteous and the wicked: for there is p a time there for every purpose and for every work.

18 I said in mine heart concerning the estate of the sons of men, that God might manifest them, and that they might see that they themselves are beasts.

19 For that which befalleth the sons of men befalleth beasts; even one thing befalleth them: as the one dieth, so dieth the other; yea, they have all one breath; so that a man hath no preeminence above a beast: for all is vanity.

20 All go unto one place; all are of the dust, and all turn to dust again.

21 Who knoweth the spirit † of man that † goeth upward, and the spirit of the beast that goeth downward to the earth?

22 Wherefore I perceive that there is nothing better, than that a man should rejoice in his own works; for a that is his portion: x for who shall bring him, to see what shall be after him?

CHAP. IV.

1 Vanity is increased unto men by oppression, 4 by envy, 5 by idleness; 7 by covetousness, 9 by solitariness, 13 by wilfulness.

SO I returned, and considered all the oppressions that are done under the sun; and behold the tears of such as were oppressed, and they had no comforter; and on the † side of their oppressors there was power; but they had no comforter.

2 Wherefore I praised the dead which are already dead more than the living which are yet alive.

3 Yea, better is he than both they, which hath not yet been, who hath not seen the evil work that is done under the sun.

4 Again, I considered all travail, and † every right work, that † for this a man is envied of his neighbour. This is also vanity and vexation of spirit.

5 The fool foldeth his hands together, and eateth his own flesh.

6 Better is an handful with quietness, than both the hands full with travail and vexation of spirit.

7 Then I returned, and I saw vanity under the sun.

8 There is one alone, and there is not a second; yea, he hath neither child nor brother: yet is there no end of all his labour; neither is his eye satisfied with riches; neither saith he, For whom do I labour, and bereave my soul of good? This is also vanity, yea, it is a fore travail.

9 Two are better than one; because they have a good reward for their labour.

10 For if they fall, the one will lift up his fellow: but woe to him that is alone when he falleth; for he hath not another to help him up.

11 Again, if two lie together, then they have heat: but how can one be warm alone?

12 And if one prevail against him, two shall withstand him; and a threefold cord is not quickly broken.

13 Better is a poor and a wise child, than an old and foolish king, † who will no more be admonished.

14 For out of prison he cometh to reign; whereas also he that is born in his kingdom becometh poor.

15 I considered all the living which walk under the sun, with the second child that shall stand up in his stead.

16 There is no end of all the people, even of all that have been before them: they also that come after shall not rejoice in him. Surely this also is vanity and vexation of spirit.

KEEP thy foot when thou goest to the house of God, and be more ready to hear, than to give the sacrifice of fools: for they consider not that they do evil.

2 Be not rash with thy mouth, and let not thine heart be hasty to utter any thing before God: for God is in heaven, and thou upon earth: therefore let thy words be few.

3 For a dream cometh through the multitude of business; and a fool's voice is known by multitude of words.

4 When thou vowest a vow unto God, defer not to pay it; for he hath no pleasure in fools: pay that which thou hast vowed.

5 Better is it that thou shouldest not vow, than that thou shouldest vow and not pay.

6 Suffer not thy mouth to cause thy flesh to sin; neither say thou before the angel, that it was an error: wherefore should God be angry at thy voice, and destroy the work of thine hands?

7 For in the multitude of dreams and many words there are also divers vanities: but fear thou God.

8 If thou seekest the oppression of the poor, and violent perverting of judgement and justice in a province, marvel not at the matter: for he that is higher than the highest regardeth; and there be higher than they.

9 Moreover the profit of the earth is for all: the king himself is served by the field.

10 He that loveth silver shall not be satisfied with silver; nor he that loveth abundance with increase: this is also vanity.

11 When goods increase, they are increased that eat them: and what good is there to the owners thereof, saving the beholding of them with their eyes?

12 The sleep of a labouring man is sweet, whether he eat little or much: but the abundance of the rich will not suffer him to sleep.

13 There is a fore evil which I have seen under the sun, namely, riches kept for the owners thereof to their hurt.

14 But those riches perish by evil travail: and he begetteth a son, and there is nothing in his hand.

15 As he came forth of his mother's womb, naked shall he return to go as he came, and shall take nothing of his labour, which he may carry away in his hand.

16 And this also is a fore evil, that in all points as he came, so shall he go: and what profit hath he that hath laboured for the wind?

17 All his days also he eateth in darkness, and he hath much sorrow and wrath with his sickness.

18 Behold that which I have seen: it is good and comely for one to eat and to drink, and to enjoy the good of all his labour that he taketh under the sun all the days of his life, which God giveth him: for it is his portion.

19 Every man also to whom God hath given riches and wealth, and hath given him power to eat thereof, and to take his portion, and to rejoice in his labour; this is the gift of God.

20 For he shall not much remember the days of his life; because God answereth him in the joy of his heart.

C H A P. VI.

1 The vanity of riches without use, 3 of children, 6 and old age without riches. 9 The vanity of fight, and wandering desires. 11 The conclusion of vanities.

THERE is an evil which I have seen under the sun, and it is common among men:

2 A man to whom God hath given riches, wealth, and honour, so that he wanteth nothing for his soul of all that he desireth, yet God giveth him not power to eat thereof, but a stranger eateth it: this is vanity, and it is an evil disease.

3 If a man beget a hundred children, and live many years, so that the days of his years be many, and his soul be not filled with good, and also that he have no burial; I say, that an uncircumcised birth is better than he.

4 For he cometh in with vanity, and departeth in darkness, and his name shall be covered with darkness.

5 Moreover he hath not seen the sun, nor known any thing: this hath more rest than the other.

6 Yea, though he live a thousand years twice told, yet hath he seen no good: do not all go to one place?

7 All the labour of man is for his mouth, and yet the appetite is not filled.

8 For what hath the wise more than the fool? what hath the poor, that knoweth to walk before the living?

9 Better is the sight of the eyes than the wandering of the desire: this is also vanity and vexation of spirit.

to shine, and [†]the boldness of his face shall be changed.

2 ¶ I counsel thee to keep the king's commandment, ^cand that in regard of the oath of God.

3 ^dBe not hasty to go out of his sight: stand not in an evil thing; for he doeth whatsoever pleaseth him.

4 Where the word of a king is, there is power: and ^ewho may say unto him, What dost thou?

5 Whoso keepeth the commandment [†]shall feel no evil thing: and a wise man's heart discerneth both time and judgement.

6 Because ^fto every purpose there is time and judgement, therefore the misery of man is great upon him.

7 ^gFor he knoweth not that which shall be: for who can tell him ^hwhen it shall be?

8 ¶ There is no man that hath power ⁱover the spirit to retain the spirit; neither hath he power in the day of death: and there is no ^jdischarge in that war; neither shall wickedness deliver those that are given to it.

9 All this have I seen, and applied my heart unto every work that is done under the sun: there is a time wherein one man ruleth over another to his own hurt.

10 And so I saw the wicked buried, who had come and gone from the place of the holy, and they were forgotten in the city where they had so done: this is also vanity.

11 ¶ Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil.

12 ¶ Though a sinner do evil an hundred times, and his days be prolonged, yet surely I know that ^kit shall be well with them that fear God, which fear before him:

13 But it shall not be well with the wicked, neither shall he prolong his days which are as a shadow; because he feareth not before God.

14 There is a vanity which is done upon the earth; that there be just men, unto whom it ^lhappeneth according to the work of the wicked; again, there be wicked men, to whom it happeneth according to the work of the righteous: I said that this also is vanity.

15 ¶ Then I commended mirth, because a man hath no better thing under the sun, than to eat, and to drink, and to be merry: for that shall abide with him of his labour the days of his life, which God giveth him under the sun.

16 ¶ When I applied mine heart to know wisdom, and to see the business that is done upon the earth: (for also there is that neither day nor night seeth sleep with his eyes:)

17 Then I beheld all the work of God, that ^ma man cannot find out the work that is done under the sun: because though a man labour to seek it out, yet he shall not find it; yea farther; though a wise man think to know it, ⁿyet shall he not be able to find it.

CHAPTER IX.

1 Like things happen to good men and bad. 4 There is a necessity of death unto men. 7 Comfort is all their portion in this life. 11 God's providence ruleth over all. 13 Wisdom is better than strength.

FOR all this [†]I considered in my heart even to declare all this; ^othat the righteous, and the wise, and their works, are in the hand of God: no man knoweth either love or hatred by all that is before them.

2 ^pAll things come alike to all: there is one event to the righteous, and to the wicked; to the good and to the clean, and to the unclean; to him that sacrificeth, and to him that sacrificeth not: as is the good, so is the sinner; and he that sweareth, as he that feareth an oath.

3 This is an evil among all things that are done under the sun, ^qthat there is one event unto all: yea, also the heart of the sons of men is full of evil, and madness is in their heart while they live, and after that they go to the dead.

4 ¶ For to him that is joined to all the living there is hope: for a living dog is better than a dead lion.

5 For the living know that they shall die: but ^rthe dead know not any thing, neither have they any more a reward; for ^sthe memory of them is forgotten.

6 Also their love, and their hatred, and their envy, is now perished; neither have they any more a portion for ever in any thing that is done under the sun.

7 ¶ Go thy way, ^teat thy bread with joy, and drink thy wine with a merry heart; for God now accepteth thy works.

8 Let thy garments be always white; and let thy head lack no ointment.

9 [†]Live joyfully with the wife whom thou lovest all the days of the life of thy vanity, which he hath given thee under the sun, all the days of thy vanity: ^ufor that is thy portion in this life, and in thy labour which thou takest under the sun.

10 Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might; for there is no work; nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in the grave, whither thou goest.

11 ¶ I returned, * and saw under the sun, that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favour to men of skill; but time and chance happeneth to them all.
12 For * man also knoweth not his time:
as the fishes that are taken in an evil net,
and as the birds that are caught in the snare;
so are the sons of men * snared in an evil time, when it falleth suddenly upon them.
13 ¶ This wisdom have I seen also under the sun, and it seemed great unto me:
14 * There was a little city, and few men within it; and there came a great king against it, and besieged it, and built great bulwarks against it:
15 Now there was found in it a poor wise man, and he by his wisdom delivered the city; yet no man remembered that same poor man.
16 * Then said I, Wisdom is better than strength: nevertheless the poor man's wisdom is despised, and his words are not heard.
17 The words of wise men are heard in quiet more than the cry of him that ruleth among fools.
18 * Wisdom is better than weapons of war; but * one sinner destroyeth much good.

CHAP. X.

1 Observations on wisdom and folly. 16 On riot, 18 slothfulness, 19 and money. 20 Men's thoughts of kings ought to be reverent.

DEAD * flies cause the ointment of the apothecary to send forth a stinking favour: so doth a little folly him that is in reputation for wisdom and honour.

2 A wise man's heart is at his right hand;
but a fool's heart at his left.

3 Yea also, when he that is a fool walk-eth by the way, † his wisdom faileth him, * and he saith to every one that he is a fool.

4 If the spirit of the ruler rise up against thee, * leave not thy place; for * yielding pacifieth great offences.

5 There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, as an error which proceedeth † from the ruler:

6 * Folly is set † in great dignity, and the rich sit in low place.

7 I have seen servants * upon horses, and princes walking as servants upon the earth.

8 * He that diggeth a pit shall fall into it; and whoso breaketh an hedge, a serpent shall bite him.

9 Whoso removeth stones shall be hurt therewith; and he that cleaveth wood shall be endangered thereby.

10 If the iron be blunt, and he do not whet the edge, then must he put to more strength: but wisdom is profitable to direct.

11 Surely the serpent will bite * without enchantment; and a † babler is no better.

12 * The words of a wise man's mouth are † gracious; but † the lips of a fool will swallow up himself.

13 The beginning of the words of his mouth is foolishness: and the end of † his talk is mischievous madness.

14 * A fool also † is full of words: a man cannot tell what shall be; and † what shall be after him, who can tell him?

15 The labour of the foolish wearieth every one of them, because he knoweth not how to go to the city.

16 ¶ Woe to thee, O land, when thy king is a child, and thy princes eat in the morning!

17 Blessed art thou, O land, when thy king is the son of nobles, and * thy princes eat in due season, for strength, and not for drunkenness!

18 ¶ By much slothfulness the building decayeth; and through idleness of the hands the house droppeth through.

19 ¶ A feast is made for laughter, and
* wine † maketh merry: but money an-swereth all things.

20 ¶ * Curse not the king, no, not in thy thought; and curse not the rich in thy bedchamber: for a bird of the air shall carry the voice, and that which hath wings shall tell the matter.

CHAP. XI.

1 Directions for charity. 7 Death in life, 9 and the day of judgement in the days of youth, are to be thought on.

CAST thy bread * † upon the waters: * for thou shalt find it after many days.

2 * Give a portion * to seven, and also to eight; * for thou knowest not what evil shall be upon the earth.

3 If the clouds be full of rain, they empty themselves upon the earth: and if the tree fall toward the south, or toward the north, in the place where the tree falleth, there it shall be.

4 He that observeth the wind shall not sow; and he that regardeth the clouds shall not reap.

5 As † thou knowest not what is the way of the spirit, * nor how the bones do grow in the womb of her that is with child:
even so thou knowest not the works of God who maketh all.

6 In the morning sow thy seed, and in the evening withhold not thine hand: for thou

9 Rejoice, O young man, in thy youth; and let thy heart cheer thee in the days of thy youth, [†] and walk in the ways of thine heart, and in the sight of thine eyes: but know thou, that for all these things ^k God will bring thee into judgement.

10 Therefore remove ^{||} sorrow from thy heart, and [†] put away evil from thy flesh: ^m for childhood and youth are vanity:

C H A P. XII.

1 The Creator is to be remembered in due time. 8 The preacher's care to edify. 13 The fear of God is the chief antidote of vanity.

REMEMBER ^a now thy Creator in the days of thy youth, while the evil days come not, nor the years draw nigh, ^b when thou shalt say, I have no pleasure in them; 2 While the sun, or the light, or the moon, or the stars, be not darkened, nor the clouds return after the rain:

3 In the day when the keepers of the house shall tremble, and the strong men shall bow themselves, and ^{||} the grinders cease because they are few, and those that look out of the windows be darkened, the bird, and all ^{*} the daughters of musick shall be brought low;

5 Also when they shall be afraid of that which is high, and fears shall be in the way, and the almond tree shall flourish, and the grasshopper shall be a burden, and desire shall fail: because man goeth to [†] his long home, and ^{*} the mourners go about the streets:

6 Or ever the silver cord be loosed, or the golden bowl be broken, or the pitcher be broken at the fountain, or the wheel broken at the cistern.

7 [†] Then shall the dust return to the earth as it was: ^{*} and the spirit shall return unto God ^b who gave it.

8 ¶ Vanity of vanities, saith the preacher; all is vanity.

9 And ^{||} moreover, because the preacher was wise, he still taught the people knowledge; yea, he gave good heed, and sought out, and ^k set in order many proverbs.

10 The preacher sought to find out [†] acceptable words: and that which was written was upright, even words of truth.

11 The words of the wise are as goads, and as nails fastened by the masters of assemblies, which are given from one shepherd.

12 And further, by these, my son, be admonished: of making many books there is no end; and ^{||} much study is a weariness of the flesh:

13 ¶ Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: ^m Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man.

C H A P. I.

1 The church's love unto Christ: 5 she confesseth her deformity. 7 and prayeth to be directed to his flock. 8 Christ directeth her to the shepherds tents: 9 and shewing his love to her, 11 giveth her gracious promises. 12 The church and Christ congratulate one another.

6 Look not upon me, because I am black, because the sun hath looked upon me: my mother's children were angry with me; they made me keeper of the vineyards; but mine own vineyard have I not kept.

1 The mutual love of Christ and his church: 8 The hope, 10 and calling of the church. 14 Christ's care of the church. 16 The profession of the church, her faith and hope.

I AM the rose of Sharon, and the lily of the valleys.

2 As the lily among thorns, so is my love among the daughters.

3 As the apple tree among the trees of the wood, so is my beloved among the sons. † I sat down under his shadow with great delight, and his fruit was sweet to 7 ¶ I charge you, O ye daughters of

of the field, that ye stir not up, nor awake
my love, till he please.

8 ¶ The voice of my beloved! behold, he cometh leaping upon the mountains,
skipping upon the hills.

9 ¶ My beloved is like a roe, or a young hart: behold, he standeth behind our wall, he looketh forth at the windows, † shewing himself through the lattice.

10 ¶ My beloved spake, and said unto me, Rise up, my love, my fair one, and come away.

11 For, lo, the winter is past, the rain is over and gone;

12 The flowers appear on the earth; the time of the singing of birds is come, and the voice of the turtle is heard in our land;

13 The fig tree putteth forth her green figs, and the vines with the tender grape give a good smell. Rise, my love, my fair one, and come away.

14 ¶ O my dove, that art in the clefts of the rock, in the secret places of the stairs, let me see thy countenance, let me hear thy voice; for sweet is thy voice, and thy countenance is comely.

15 Take us the foxes, the little foxes, that spoil the vines: for our vines have tender grapes.

16 ¶ My beloved is mine, and I am his:
he feedeth among the lilies.

17 ¶ Until the day break, and the shadows flee away, turn, my beloved, and be thou like a roe, or a young hart, upon the mountains of Bethel.

CHAP. III.

1 The church's fight and victory in temptation. 6
The church glorieth in Christ.

BY night on my bed I sought him whom my soul loveth: I sought him, but I found him not.

2 I will rise now, and go about the city in the streets, and in the broad ways I will seek him whom my soul loveth: I sought him, but I found him not.

3 ¶ The watchmen that go about the city found me: to whom I said, Saw ye him whom my soul loveth?

4 It was but a little that I passed from them, but I found him whom my soul loveth: I held him, and would not let him go, until I had brought him into my mother's house, and into the chamber of her that conceived me.

5 ¶ I charge you, O ye daughters of Jerusalem, by the roes, and by the hinds of the field, that ye stir not up, nor awake
my love, till he please.

6 ¶ Who is this that cometh out of the wilderness like pillars of smoke, perfumed with myrrh and frankincense, with all powders of the merchant?

7 Behold his bed, which is Solomon's; threescore valiant men are about it, of the valiant of Israel.

8 They all hold swords, being expert in war: every man hath his sword upon his thigh because of fear in the night.

CHAP. IV.

1 Christ setteth forth the graces of the church: 8 he sheweth his love to her. 16 The church prayeth to be made fit for his presence.

BEHOLD, ^athou art fair, my love; behold, thou art fair; thou hast doves' eyes within thy locks: thy hair is as a ^bflock of goats, ^cthat appear from mount Gilead.

2 ^aThy teeth are like a flock of sheep that are even shorn, which came up from the washing; whereof every one bear twins, and none is barren among them.

3 Thy lips are like a thread of scarlet, and thy speech is comely: ^athy temples are like a piece of a pomegranate within thy locks.

4 ^aThy neck is like the tower of David builded for an armoury, whereon there hang a thousand bucklers, all shields of mighty men.

5 ^aThy two breasts are like two young roes that are twins, which feed among the lilies.

6 ^aUntil the day [†]break, and the shadows flee away, I will get me to the mountain of myrrh, and to the hill of frankincense.

7 ^aThou art all fair, my love; there is no spot in thee.

8 ^aCome with me from Lebanon, my spouse, with me from Lebanon: look from the top of Amana, from the top of Shenir ^aand Hermon, from the lions' dens, from the mountains of the leopards.

9 Thou hast ^aravished my heart, my sister, my spouse; thou hast ravished my heart with one of thine eyes, with one chain of thy neck.

10 How fair is thy love, my sister, my spouse! ^ahow much better is thy love than wine! and the smell of thine ointments than all spices!

11 Thy lips, O my spouse, drop as the honeycomb: ^ahoney and milk are under thy tongue; and the smell of thy garments is ^alike the smell of Lebanon.

12 A garden [†]inclosed is my sister, my spouse; a spring shut up, a fountain sealed.

13 Thy plants are an orchard of pomegranates, with pleasant fruits; ^acamphire, with spikenard,

14 Spikenard and saffron; calamus and cinnamon, with all trees of frankincense; myrrh and aloes, with all the chief spices:

15 A fountain of gardens, a well of ^aliving waters, and streams from Lebanon.

16 ^aAwake, O north wind; and come, thou south; blow upon my garden, ^athat the spices thereof may flow out. ^bLet my beloved come into his garden, and eat his pleasant fruits.

CHAP. V.

1 Christ awaketh the church with his calling. 2 The church having a taste of Christ's love, is sick of love. 9 A description of Christ by his graces.

I^aAM come into my garden, my sister, my spouse: I have gathered my myrrh with my spice; ^bI have eaten my honeycomb with my honey; I have drunk my wine with my milk: eat, O ^cfriends; drink, ^dyea, drink abundantly, O beloved.

2 ^aI sleep, but my heart waketh: ^ait is the voice of my beloved ^athat knocketh, saying, Open to me, my sister, my love, my dove, my undefiled: for my head is filled with dew, ^aand my locks with the drops of the night.

3 I have put off my coat; how shall I put it on? I have washed my feet; how shall I defile them?

4 My beloved put in his hand by the hole of the door, and my bowels were moved ^afor him.

5 I rose up to open to my beloved; and my hands dropped with myrrh, and my fingers with ^asweet smelling myrrh, upon the handles of the lock.

6 I opened to my beloved; but my beloved had withdrawn himself, ^aand was gone: my soul failed when he spake: ^aI sought him, but I could not find him; I called him, but he gave me no answer.

7 ^aThe watchmen that went about the city, found me, they smote me, they wounded me; the keepers of the walls took away my veil from me.

8 I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, if ye find my beloved, ^athat ye tell him, that I am sick of love.

9 ^aWhat is thy beloved more than another beloved, ^aO thou fairest among women? what is thy beloved more than another beloved, that thou dost so charge us?

10 My beloved is white and ruddy, ^athe chiefest among ten thousand.

15 His legs are as pillars of marble, set upon sockets of fine gold: his countenance is as Lebanon, excellent as the cedars.

CHAP. VI.

1 The church professeth her faith in Christ. 4 Christ sheweth the graces of the church, 10 and his love towards her.

a ch. 1. 8. WHITHER is thy beloved gone, O thou fairest among women? whither is thy beloved turned aside? that we may seek him with thee.

2 My beloved is gone down into his garden, to the beds of spices, to feed in the gardens, and to gather lilies.

b ch. 2. 16. & 7. 10. 3 I am my beloved's, and my beloved is mine: he feedeth among the lilies.

c ver. 10. 4 ¶ Thou art beautiful, O my love, as Tirzah, comely as Jerusalem, terrible as an army with banners.

5 Turn away thine eyes from me, for || they have overcome me: thy hair is ^d as a flock of goats that appear from Gilead.

6 Thy teeth are as a flock of sheep which go up from the washing, whereof every one beareth twins, and there is not one barren among them.

ch. 4. 3. 7 As a piece of a pomegranate are thy temples within thy locks.

8 There are threescore queens, and fourscore concubines, and virgins without number.

9 My dove, my undefiled is but one; she is the only one of her mother, she is the choice one of her that bare her. The daughters saw her, and blessed her; yea, the queens and the concubines, and they praised her.

10 ¶ Who is she that looketh forth as the morning, fair as the moon, clear as the sun, and terrible as an army with banners?

8 ver. 4. h ch. 7. 12. 11 I went down into the garden of nuts to see the fruits of the valley, and ^h to see whether the vine flourished, and the pomegranates budded.

† Heb. I knew not. 12 † Or ever I was aware, my soul || made me like the chariots of Ammi-nadib.

CHAP. VII.

1 A further description of the church's graces. 10 The church professeth her faith and desire.

HOW beautiful are thy feet with shoes, O prince's daughter! the joints of thy thighs are like jewels, the work of the hands of a cunning workman.

2 Thy navel is like a round goblet, which wanteth not † liquor: thy belly is like an heap of wheat set about with lilies.

3 Thy two breasts are like two young roes that are twins.

4 Thy neck is as a tower of ivory; thine eyes like the fishpools in Heshbon, by the gate of Bath-rabbim: thy nose is as the tower of Lebanon which looketh toward Damascus.

5 Thine head upon thee is like || Carmel, and the hair of thine head like purple; the king is † held in the galleries.

6 How fair and how pleasant art thou, O love, for delights!

7 This thy stature is like to a palm tree, and thy breasts to clusters of grapes.

8 I said, I will go up to the palm tree, I will take hold of the boughs thereof: now also thy breasts shall be as clusters of the vine, and the smell of thy nose like apples;

9 And the roof of thy mouth like the best wine for my beloved, that goeth down † sweetly, causing the lips || of those that are asleep to speak.

10 ¶ I am my beloved's, and his desire is toward me.

11 Come, my beloved, let us go forth into the field; let us lodge in the villages.

12 Let us get up early to the vineyards; let us see if the vine flourish, whether the tender grape † appear, and the pomegranates bud forth: there will I give thee my loves.

13 The † mandrakes give a smell, and at our gates ^h are all manner of pleasant fruits, new and old, which I have laid up for thee, O my beloved.

CHAP. VIII.

1 The love of the church to Christ. 6 The vehemency of love. 8 The calling of the Gentiles. 14 The church prayeth for Christ's coming.

OTHAT thou wert as my brother, that sucked the breasts of my mother! when I should find thee without, I would kiss thee; yea, † I should not be despised.

2 I would lead thee, and bring thee into my mother's house, who would instruct me: I would cause thee to drink of † spiced wine of the juice of my pomegranate.

The Book of the Prophet ISAIAH.

CHAP. I.

2 Isaiah complaineth of Judah for her rebellion: 5 he lamenteth her judgements: 10 he upbraideth their whole service: 16 he exhorteth to repentance, with promises and threatenings. 21 Bewailing their wickedness, he denounceth God's judgements: 25 he promiseth grace, 28 and threateneth destruction to the wicked.

THE vision of Isaiah the son of Amoz, which he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah.

2 ^b Hear, O heavens, and give ear, O earth: for the LORD hath spoken, ^c I have nourished and brought up children, and they have rebelled against me.

3 ^d The ox knoweth his owner, and the ass his master's crib: but Israel ^e doth not know, my people ^f doth not consider.

4 Ah sinful nation, a people ^g laden with iniquity, ^h a seed of evil doers, children that are corrupters: they have forsaken the LORD, they have provoked the Holy One of Israel unto anger, they are ⁱ gone away backward.

5 ^j Why should ye be stricken any more? ye will ^k revolt more and more: the whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint.

6 From the sole of the foot even unto the head there is no soundness in it; but wounds, and bruises, and putrifying sores: ^l they have not been closed, neither bound up, neither mollified with ^m ointment.

7 ⁿ Your country is desolate, your cities are burned with fire: your land, strangers devour it in your presence, and it is desolate, ^o as overthrown by strangers.

8 And the daughter of Zion is left ^p as a cottage in a vineyard, as a lodge in a garden of cucumbers, ^q as a besieged city.

9 ^r Except the LORD of hosts had left unto us a very small remnant, we should have been as ^s Sodom, and we should have been like unto Gomorrah.

10 ^t Hear the word of the LORD, ye rulers ^u of Sodom; give ear unto the law of our God, ye people of Gomorrah.

11 To what purpose is the multitude of your ^v sacrifices unto me? saith the LORD: I am full of the burnt offerings of rams, and the fat of fed beasts; and I delight not in the blood of bullocks, or of lambs, or of ^w the goats.

12 When ye come ^x to appear before me, who hath required this at your hand, to tread my courts?

13 Bring no more ^y vain oblations; incense is an abomination unto me; the new moons and sabbaths, ^z the calling of assemblies, I cannot away with; it is ^{aa} iniquity, even the solemn meeting.

14 Your ^{ab} new moons and your ^{ac} appointed feasts my soul hateth: they are a trouble unto me; ^{ad} I am weary to bear them.

15 And ^{ae} when ye spread forth your hands I will hide mine eyes from you: ^{af} yea, when ye ^{ag} make many prayers, I will not hear: your hands are full of ^{ah} blood.

16 ^{ai} Wash you, make you clean; put away the evil of your doings from before mine eyes; ^{aj} cease to do evil;

17 Learn to do well; ^{ak} seek judgement, ^{al} relieve the oppressed, judge the fatherless, plead for the widow.

18 Come now, and ^{am} let us reason together, saith the LORD: though your sins be as scarlet, ^{an} they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool.

19 If ye be willing and obedient, ye shall eat the good of the land:

20 But if ye refuse and rebel, ye shall be devoured with the sword: ^{ao} for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it.

21 ^{ap} How is the faithful city become an harlot! it was full of judgement; righteousness lodged in it; but now murderers.

22 ^{aq} Thy silver is become dross, thy wine mixed with water:

23 ^{ar} Thy princes are rebellious, and ^{as} companions of thieves: ^{at} every one loveth gifts, and followeth after rewards: they ^{au} judge not the fatherless, neither doth the cause of the widow come unto them.

24 Therefore saith the LORD, the LORD of hosts, the mighty One of Israel, Ah, ^{av} I will ease me of mine adversaries, and avenge me of mine enemies:

25 And I will turn my hand upon thee, and ^{aw} I will purely purge away thy dross, and take away all thy tin:

26 And I will restore thy judges ^{ax} as at the first, and thy counsellors as at the beginning: afterward ^{ay} thou shalt be called, The city of righteousness, the faithful city.

27 Zion shall be redeemed with judgement, and ^{az} her converts with righteousness.

28 ^{ba} And the ^{bb} destruction of the transgressors and of the sinners shall be together, and they that forsake the LORD shall be consumed.

29 For they shall be ashamed of ^{bc} the oaks which ye have desired, ^{bd} and ye shall

CHAP. II.

1 Isaiah prophesieth the coming of Christ's kingdom. 6 Wickedness is the cause of God's forsaking: 10 he exhorteth to fear, because of the powerful effects of God's majesty.

THE word that Isaiah the son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem.

2 And ² it shall come to pass ¹ in the last days, ² that the mountain of the LORD's house shall ¹¹ be established in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; ⁴ and all nations shall flow unto it.

3 And many people shall go and say, ² Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: ¹ for out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

4 And he shall judge among the nations, and shall rebuke many people: and ² they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into ¹¹ pruninghooks: nation shall not lift up sword against nation, ¹ neither shall they learn war any more.

5 O house of Jacob, come ye, and let us ¹ walk in the light of the LORD.

6 ¹ Therefore thou hast forsaken thy people the house of Jacob, because they be replenished ¹¹ from the east, and ¹ are soothsayers like the Philistines, ¹¹ and they ¹¹ please themselves in the children of strangers.

7 ¹¹ Their land also is full of silver and gold, neither ¹ is there any end of their treasures; their land is also full of horses, neither ¹ is there any end of their chariots:

8 ² Their land also is full of idols; they worship the work of their own hands, that which their own fingers have made:

9 And the mean man boweth down, and the great man humbleth himself: therefore forgive them not.

10 ¹ Enter into the rock, and hide thee in the dust, for fear of the LORD, and for the glory of his majesty.

11 The ¹ lofty looks of man shall be humbled, and the haughtiness of men shall be bowed down, and the LORD alone shall be exalted ¹ in that day.

12 For the day of the LORD of hosts shall be upon every one that is proud and lofty, and upon every one that is lifted up; and he shall be brought low:

13 And upon all ¹ the cedars of Lebanon, that are high and lifted up, and upon all the oaks of Bashan,

14 And ¹ upon all the high mountains, and upon all the hills that are lifted up,

15 And upon every high tower, and upon every fenced wall, 16 ¹ And upon all the ships of Tarshish, and upon all ¹ pleasant pictures.

17 ¹ And the loftiness of man shall be bowed down, and the haughtiness of men shall be made low: and the LORD alone shall be exalted ¹ in that day.

18 And ¹¹ the idols he shall utterly abolish.

19 And they shall go into the ² holes of the rocks, and into the caves of ¹ the earth, ¹ for fear of the LORD, and for the glory of his majesty, when he ariseth ¹ to shake terribly the earth.

20 ¹ In that day a man shall cast ¹ his idols of silver, and his idols of gold, ¹¹ which they made each one for himself to worship, to the moles and to the bats;

21 ¹ To go into the clefts of the rocks, and into the tops of the ragged rocks, ¹ for fear of the LORD, and for the glory of his majesty, when he ariseth to shake terribly the earth.

22 ¹ Cease ye from man, whose ² breath is in his nostrils: for wherein is he to be accounted of?

CHAP. III.

1 The great confusion which cometh by sin. 9 The impudence of the people. 12 The oppression and covetousness of the rulers. 16 The judgements which shall be for the pride of the women.

FOR, behold, the Lord, the LORD of hosts, ¹ doth take away from Jerusalem and from Judah ¹ the stay and the staff, the whole stay of bread, and the whole stay of water,

2 ¹ The mighty man, and the man of war, the judge, and the prophet, and the prudent, and the ancient,

3 The captain of fifty, and the ¹ honourable man, and the counsellor, and the cunning artificer, and the ¹¹ eloquent orator.

4 And I will give ¹ children to be their princes, and babes shall rule over them.

5 And the people shall be oppressed, every one by another, and every one by his neighbour: the child shall behave himself proudly against the ancient, and the base against the honourable.

8 For [°]Jerusalem is ruined, and Judah is fallen: because their tongue and their doings are against the LORD, to provoke the eyes of his glory.

9 The shew of their countenance doth witness against them; and they declare their sin as [°]Sodom, they hide it not. Woe unto their soul! for they have rewarded evil unto themselves.

10 ¶ Say ye to the righteous, [°]that it shall be well with him: [°]for they shall eat the fruit of their doings.

11 Woe unto the wicked! [°]it shall be ill with him: for the reward of his hands shall be [†]given him.

12 ¶ As for my people, [°]children are their oppressors, and women rule over them. O my people, [°]they which lead thee cause thee to err, and [†]destroy the way of thy paths.

13 The LORD standeth up [°]to plead, and standeth to judge the people.

14 The LORD will enter into judgement with the ancients of his people, and the princes thereof: for ye have [°]eaten up [°]the vineyard; the spoil of the poor is in your houses.

15 What mean ye that ye [°]beat my people to pieces, and grind the faces of the poor? saith the LORD God of hosts.

16 ¶ Moreover the LORD saith, Because the daughters of Zion are haughty, and walk with stretched forth necks and [†]wanton eyes, walking and [°]mincing as they go, and making a tinkling with their feet:

17 Therefore the LORD will smite with [°]a scab the crown of the head of the daughters of Zion, and the LORD will [†]discover their secret parts.

18 In that day the LORD will take away the bravery of their tinkling ornaments about their feet, and their [°]cauls, and their [°]round tires like the moon,

19 The [°]chains, and the bracelets, and the [°]mufflers,

20 The bonnets, and the ornaments of the legs, and the headbands, and the [†]tablets, and the earrings,

21 The rings, and nose jewels,

22 The changeable suits of apparel, and the mantles, and the wimples, and the crisping pins, 23 The glasses, and the fine linen, and the hoods, and the vails.

24 And it shall come to pass, that instead of sweet smell there shall be stink; and instead of a girdle a rent; and instead of well set hair [°]baldness; and instead of a stomacher a girding of sackcloth; and burning instead of beauty.

25 ¶ Thy men shall fall by the sword, and thy [†]mighty in the war.

26 [°]And her gates shall lament and mourn; and she being [°]desolate [°]shall sit upon the ground.

CHAP. IV.

In the extremity of evils, Christ's kingdom shall be a sanctuary.

AND [°]in that day seven women shall take hold of one man, saying, We will [°]eat our own bread, and wear our own apparel: only [†]let us be called by thy name, [°]to take away [°]our reproach.

2 ¶ In that day shall [°]the branch of the LORD be [†]beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the earth shall be excellent and comely [†]for them that are escaped of Israel.

3 And it shall come to pass, that he that is left in Zion, and he that remaineth in Jerusalem, [°]shall be called holy, even every one that is [°]written [°]among the living in Jerusalem:

4 When [°]the LORD shall have washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion, and shall have purged the blood of Jerusalem from the midst thereof by the spirit of judgement, and by the spirit of burning.

5 And the LORD will create upon every dwelling place of mount Zion, and upon her assemblies, [°]a cloud and smoke by day, and [°]the shining of a flaming fire by night: for [°]upon all the glory shall be [†]a defence.

6 And there shall be a tabernacle for a shadow in the day time from the heat, and [°]for a place of refuge, and for a covert from storm and from rain.

CHAP. V.

1 Under the parable of a vineyard, God excuseth his severe judgements: 8 his judgements upon covetousness, 11 upon lasciviousness, 13 upon impiety, 20 and upon injustice. 26 The executioners of God's judgements.

NOW will I sing to my wellbeloved a song of my beloved touching [°]his vineyard. My wellbeloved hath a vineyard in [†]a very fruitful hill:

2 And he [°]fenced it, and gathered out the stones thereof, and planted it with the choicest vine, and built a tower in the midst of it, and also [†] made a winepress therein: ^b and he looked that it should bring forth grapes, and it brought forth wild grapes.

3 And now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem, and men of Judah; ^c judge, I pray you, betwixt me and my vineyard.

4 What could have been done more to my vineyard, that I have not done in it? wherefore, when I looked that it should bring forth grapes, brought it forth wild grapes?

5 And now go to; I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard: ^d I will take away the hedge thereof, and it shall be eaten up; and break down the wall thereof, and it shall be [†] trodden down:

6 And I will lay it waste: it shall not be pruned, nor digged; but there shall come up briars and thorns: I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain upon it.

7 For the vineyard of the LORD of hosts is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah [†] his pleasant plant: and he looked for judgement, but behold [†] oppression; for righteousness, but behold a cry.

8 ¶ Woe unto them that join ^e house to house, that lay field to field, till there be no place, that [†] they may be placed alone in the midst of the earth!

9 ¶ In mine ears ^f said the LORD of hosts, [†] Of a truth many houses shall be desolate, even great and fair, without inhabitant.

10 Yea, ten acres of vineyard shall yield one ^g bath, and the seed of an homer shall yield an ephah.

11 ¶ Woe unto them that rise up early in the morning, that they may follow strong drink; that continue until night, till wine ^h inflame them!

12 And ⁱ the harp, and the viol, the tabret, and pipe, and wine, are in their feasts: but ^k they regard not the work of the LORD, neither consider the operation of his hands.

13 [†] Therefore my people are gone into captivity, ^m because they have no knowledge: and [†] their honourable men are famished, and their multitude dried up with thirst.

14 Therefore hell hath enlarged herself, and opened her mouth without measure: and their glory, and their multitude, and their pomp, and he that rejoiceth, shall descend into it.

15 And ⁿ the mean man shall be brought down, and the mighty man shall be humbled, and the eyes of the lofty shall be humbled:

16 But the LORD of hosts shall be exalted in judgement, and [†] God that is holy shall be sanctified in righteousness.

17 Then shall the lambs feed after their manner, and the waste places of ^o the fat one shall strangers eat.

18 ¶ Woe unto them that draw iniquity with cords of vanity, and sin as it were with a cart rope:

19 ^p That say, Let him make speed, and hasten his work, that we may see it: and let the counsel of the Holy One of Israel draw nigh and come, that we may know it!

20 ¶ Woe unto them [†] that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!

21 Woe unto them that are ^q wise in their own eyes, and prudent [†] in their own sight!

22 ^r Woe unto them that are mighty to drink wine, and men of strength to mingle strong drink:

23 Which ^s justify the wicked for reward, and take away the righteousness of the righteous from him!

24 Therefore ^t as [†] the fire devoureth the stubble, and the flame consumeth the chaff, so [†] their root shall be as rottenness, and their blossom shall go up as dust: because they have cast away the law of the LORD of hosts, and despised the word of the Holy One of Israel.

25 ^u Therefore is the anger of the LORD kindled against his people, and he hath stretched forth his hand against them, and hath smitten them: and ^v the hills did tremble, and their carcases were [†] torn in the midst of the streets. ^z For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

26 ¶ And he will lift up an ensign to the nations from far, and will ^b hiss unto them from ^c the end of the earth: and, behold, ^d they shall come with speed swiftly:

27 None shall be weary nor stumble among them; none shall slumber nor sleep; neither ^e shall the girdle of their loins be loosed, nor the latchet of their shoes be broken:

28 ^f Whose arrows are sharp, and all their bows bent, their horses' hoofs shall be counted like flint, and their wheels like a whirlwind:

29 Their roaring shall be like a lion, they shall roar like young lions: yea, they shall roar, and lay hold of the prey, and shall carry it away safe, and none shall deliver it.

CHAPTER VI.

1 Isaiah in a vision of the Lord in his glory, 5 being terrified, is confirmed for his message: 9 he sheweth the obstinacy of the people unto their desolation: 13 A remnant shall be saved.

IN the year that king Uzziah died I saw also the LORD sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up, and his train filled the temple.

2 Above it stood the seraphims: each one had six wings; with twain he covered his face, and with twain he covered his feet, and with twain he did fly.

3 And one cried unto another, and said, Holy, holy, holy, is the LORD of hosts: the whole earth is full of his glory.

4 And the posts of the door moved at the voice of him that cried, and the house was filled with smoke.

5 ¶ Then said I, Woe is me! for I am undone; because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips: for mine eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts.

6 Then flew one of the seraphims unto me, having a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with the tongs from off the altar:

7 And he laid it upon my mouth, and said, Lo, this hath touched thy lips; and thine iniquity is taken away, and thy sin purged.

8 ¶ Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? Then said I, Here am I; send me.

9 And he said, Go, and tell this people, Hear ye indeed, but understand not; and see ye indeed, but perceive not.

10 Make the heart of this people fat, and make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes; lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and convert, and be healed.

11 Then said I, Lord, how long? And he answered, Until the cities be wasted without inhabitant, and the houses without man, and the land be utterly desolate, 12 And the LORD have removed men far away, and there be a great forsaking in the midst of the land.

13 ¶ But yet in it shall be a tenth, and it shall return, and shall be eaten: as a teil tree, and as an oak, whose substance is in them, when they cast their leaves: so the holy seed shall be the substance thereof.

CHAPTER VII.

1 Ahaz, being troubled with fear of Rezin and Pekah, is comforted by Isaiah. 10 Ahaz having liberty to choose a sign, and refusing it, hath for a sign, Christ promised: 17 his judgement is prophesied to come by Assyria.

AND it came to pass in the days of Ahaz the son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, that Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up toward Jerusalem to war against it, but could not prevail against it.

2 And it was told the house of David, saying, Syria is confederate with Ephraim. And his heart was moved, and the heart of his people, as the trees of the wood are moved with the wind.

3 Then said the LORD unto Isaiah, Go forth now to meet Ahaz, thou, and Shear-jashub, thy son, at the end of the conduit of the upper pool in the highway of the fuller's field;

4 And say unto him, Take heed, and be quiet; fear not, neither be fainthearted for the two tails of these smoking firebrands, for the fierce anger of Rezin with Syria, and of the son of Remaliah.

5 Because Syria, Ephraim, and the son of Remaliah, have taken evil counsel against thee, saying,

6 Let us go up against Judah, and vex it, and let us make a breach therein for us, and set a king in the midst of it, even the son of Tabeal:

7 Thus saith the Lord God, It shall not stand, neither shall it come to pass.

8 ¶ For the head of Syria is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin; and within threescore and five years shall Ephraim be broken, that it be not a people.

9 And the head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is Remaliah's son.

¶ If ye will not believe, surely ye shall not be established.

10 ¶ Moreover the LORD spake again unto Ahaz, saying,

11 Ask thee a sign of the LORD thy God; ask it either in the depth, or in the height above.

12 But Ahaz said, I will not ask, neither will I tempt the LORD.

13 And he said, Hear ye now, O house of David? Is it a small thing for you to weary men, but will be weary my God also?

17 ⁿ The LORD shall bring upon thee, and upon thy people, and upon thy father's house, days that have not come, from the day that ^o Ephraim departed from Judah; even the king of Assyria.

18 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the LORD ^p shall hiss for the fly that is in the uttermost part of the rivers of Egypt, and for the bee that is in the land of Assyria.

19 And they shall come, and shall rest all of them in the desolate valleys, and in ^q the holes of the rocks, and upon all thorns, and upon all ^r bushes.

24 With arrows and with bows shall men come thither; because all the land shall become briers and thorns:

25 And on all hills that shall be digged with the mattock, there shall not come thither the fear of briers and thorns: but it shall be for the sending forth of oxen, and for the treading of lesser cattle.

CHAP. VIII.

1 In Maher-shalal-hash-baz, he prophesieth that Syria and Israel shall be subdued by Assyria; 5 Judah likewise for her infidelity. 9 God's judgements shall be irresistible. 11 Comfort shall be to them that fear God; 19 great afflictions to idolaters.

MOREOVER the LORD said unto me, Take thee a great roll, and write in it with a man's pen concerning ^v Maher-shalal-hash-baz.

2 And I took unto me faithful witnesses to record, ^w Uriah the priest, and Zechariah the son of Jeberechiah.

3 And I ^x went unto the prophets; and she conceived, and bare a son. Then said the LORD to me, Call his name Maher-shalal-hash baz.

4 ^y For before the child shall have knowledge to cry, My father, and my mother, ^z the riches of Damascus and the spoil of Samaria shall be taken away before the king of Assyria.

5 ^{aa} The LORD spake also unto me again, saying,

6 Forasmuch as this people refuseth the waters of ^{ab} Shiloah that go softly, and rejoice ^{ac} in Rezin and Remaliah's son;

7 Now therefore, behold, the Lord bringeth up upon them the waters of the river, strong and many, even ^{ad} the king of Assyria, and all his glory: and he shall come up over all his channels, and go over all his banks:

8 And he shall pass through Judah; he shall overflow and go over, ^{ae} he shall reach even to the neck; and ^{af} the stretching out of his wings shall fill the breadth of thy land, O ^{ag} Immanuel.

9 ^{ah} Associate yourselves, O ye people, and ye shall be broken in pieces; and give ear, all ye of far countries: gird yourselves, and ye shall be broken in pieces; gird yourselves, and ye shall be broken in pieces.

10 ^{ai} Take counsel together, and it shall come to nought; speak the word, ^{aj} and it shall not stand: ^{ak} for God is with us.

11 ^{al} For the LORD spake thus to me ^{am} with a strong hand, and instructed me that I should not walk in the way of this people, saying, 12 Say ye not, A confederacy, to all them to whom ^{an} this people shall say, A confederacy; ^{ao} neither fear ye their fear, nor be afraid.

13 ^{ap} Sanctify the LORD of hosts himself; and ^{aq} let him be your fear, and let him be your dread.

14 And ^{ar} he shall be for a sanctuary; but for ^{as} a stone of stumbling and for a rock of offence to both the houses of Israel, for a gin and for a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

15 And many among them shall ^{at} stumble, and fall, and be broken, and be snared, and be taken.

16 Bind up the testimony, seal the law among my disciples.

17 And I will wait upon the LORD, that ^{au} he hideth his face from the house of Jacob, and I ^{av} will look for him.

18 * Behold, I and the children whom the LORD hath given me are for signs and for wonders in Israel from the LORD of hosts, which dwelleth in mount Zion.

19 And when they shall say unto you, Seek unto them that have familiar spirits, and unto wizards that peep, and that mutter: should not a people seek unto their God? for the living to the dead?

20 * To the law and to the testimony: if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them.

21 And they shall pass through it, hardly beset and hungry: and it shall come to pass, that when they shall be hungry, they shall fret themselves, and curse their king and their God, and look upward.

22 And they shall look unto the earth; and behold trouble and darkness, dimness of anguish; and they shall be driven to darkness.

CHAP. IX.

1 What joy shall be in the midst of afflictions, by the kingdom and birth of Christ. 8 The judgements upon Israel for their pride, 13 for their hypocrisy, 18 and for their impenitency.

NEVERTHELESS the dimness shall not be such as was in her vexation, when at the first he lightly afflicted the land of Zebulun, and the land of Naphtali, and afterward did more grievously afflict her by the way of the sea, beyond Jordan, in Galilee of the nations.

2 The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light: they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined.

3 Thou hast multiplied the nation, and not increased the joy: they joy before thee according to the joy in harvest, and as men rejoice when they divide the spoil.

4 For thou hast broken the yoke of his burden, and the staff of his shoulder, the rod of his oppressor, as in the day of Midian.

5 For every battle of the warrior is with confused noise, and garments rolled in blood; but this shall be with burning and fuel of fire.

6 For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace.

7 Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgement and with justice from henceforth even for ever.

The zeal of the LORD of hosts will perform this:

8 The LORD sent a word into Jacob, and it hath lighted upon Israel.

9 And all the people shall know, even Ephraim and the inhabitant of Samaria, that say in the pride and stoutness of heart,

10 The bricks are fallen down, but we will build with hewn stones: the tycamores are cut down, but we will change them into cedars.

11 Therefore the LORD shall set up the adversaries of Rezin against him, and join his enemies together;

12 The Syrians before, and the Philistines behind; and they shall devour Israel with open mouth. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

13 For the people turneth not unto him that smiteth them, neither do they seek the LORD of hosts.

14 Therefore the LORD will cut off from Israel head and tail, branch and rush, in one day.

15 The ancient and honourable, he is the head; and the prophet that teacheth lies, he is the tail.

16 For the leaders of this people cause them to err; and they that are led of them are destroyed.

17 Therefore the LORD shall have no joy in their young men, neither shall have mercy on the fatherless and widows: for every one is an hypocrite and an evil doer, and every mouth speaketh folly. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

18 For wickedness burneth as the fire: it shall devour the briers and thorns, and shall kindle in the thickets of the forest, and they shall mount up like the lifting up of smoke.

19 Through the wrath of the LORD of hosts is the land darkened, and the people shall be as the fuel of the fire: no man shall spare his brother.

20 And he shall snatch on the right hand, and be hungry; and he shall eat on the left hand, and they shall not be satisfied: they shall eat every man the flesh of his own arm:

21 Manasseh, Ephraim; and Ephraim, Manasseh: and they together shall be against Judah. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

nant of Israel shall be saved. 24 Israel is comforted with promise of deliverance from Assyria.

WOE unto them that decree unrighteous decrees, and that write grievousness which they have prescribed;

2 To turn aside the needy from judgement, and to take away the right from the poor of my people, that widows may be their prey, and that they may rob the fatherless!

3 And what will ye do in the day of visitation, and in the desolation which shall come from far? to whom will ye flee for help? and where will ye leave your glory?

4 Without me they shall bow down under the prisoners, and they shall fall under the slain. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

5 ¶ O Assyrian, the rod of mine anger, and the staff in their hand is mine indignation.

6 I will send him against an hypocritical nation, and against the people of my wrath will I give him a charge, to take the spoil, and to take the prey, and to tread them down like the mire of the streets.

7 Howbeit he meaneth not so, neither doth his heart think so; but it is in his heart to destroy and cut off nations not a few.

8 For he saith, Are not my princes altogether kings?

9 Is not Calno as Carchemish? is not Hamath as Arpad? is not Samaria as Damascus?

10 As my hand hath found the kingdoms of the idols, and whose graven images did excel them of Jerusalem and of Samaria;

11 Shall I not, as I have done unto Samaria and her idols, so do to Jerusalem and her idols?

12 Wherefore it shall come to pass, that when the Lord hath performed his whole work upon mount Zion, and on Jerusalem, I will punish the fruit of the stout heart of the king of Assyria, and the glory of his high looks.

13 For he saith, By the strength of my hand I have done it, and by my wisdom; for I am prudent: and I have removed the bounds of the people, and have robbed their treasures, and I have put down the inhabitants like a valiant man:

14 And my hand hath found as a nest the riches of the people: and as one gathereth eggs that are left, have I gathered all the earth; and there was none that moved the wing, or opened the mouth, or peeped.

15 Shall the ax boast itself against him that heweth therewith? or shall the saw magnify itself against him that shaketh it? as if the rod should shake itself against them that lift it up, or as if the staff should lift up itself, as if it were no wood.

16 Therefore shall the Lord, the Lord of hosts, send among his fat ones leanness; and under his glory he shall kindle a burning like the burning of a fire.

17 And the light of Israel shall be for a fire, and his Holy One for a flame: and it shall burn and devour his thorns and his briers in one day;

18 And shall consume the glory of his forest, and of his fruitful field, both soul and body: and they shall be as when a standardbearer fainteth.

19 And the rest of the trees of his forest shall be few, that a child may write them.

20 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the remnant of Israel, and such as are escaped of the house of Jacob, shall no more again stay upon him that smote them; but shall stay upon the LORD, the Holy One of Israel, in truth.

21 The remnant shall return, even the remnant of Jacob, unto the mighty God.

22 For though thy people Israel be as the sand of the sea, yet a remnant of them shall return: the consumption decreed shall overflow with righteousness.

23 For the Lord God of hosts shall make a consumption, even determined, in the midst of all the land.

24 Therefore thus saith the Lord God of hosts, O my people that dwellest in Zion, be not afraid of the Assyrian: he shall smite thee with a rod, and shall lift up his staff against thee, after the manner of Egypt.

25 For yet a very little while, and the indignation shall cease, and mine anger in their destruction.

26 And the LORD of hosts shall stir up a scourge for him according to the slaughter of Midian at the rock of Oreb: and as his rod was upon the sea, so shall he lift it up after the manner of Egypt.

27 And it shall come to pass in that day, that his burden shall be taken away from off thy shoulder, and his yoke from off thy neck, and the yoke shall be destroyed because of the anointing.

CHAP. XI.

1 The peaceable kingdom of the Branch out of the root of Jesse. 10 The victorious restoration of Israel, and vocation of the Gentiles.

AND there shall come forth a rod out of the stem of Jesse, and a Branch shall grow out of his roots:

2 And the spirit of the Lord shall rest upon him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the Lord;

3 And shall make him of quick understanding in the fear of the Lord: and he shall not judge after the sight of his eyes, neither reprove after the hearing of his ears:

4 But with righteousness shall he judge the poor, and reprove with equity for the meek of the earth: and he shall smite the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips shall he slay the wicked.

5 And righteousness shall be the girdle of his loins, and faithfulness the girdle of his reins.

6 The wolf also shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid; and the calf and the young lion and the fatling together; and a little child shall lead them.

7 And the cow and the bear shall feed; their young ones shall lie down together: and the lion shall eat straw like the ox.

8 And the sucking child shall play on the hole of the asp, and the weaned child shall put his hand on the cockatrice' den.

9 They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain: for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea.

10 And in that day there shall be a root of Jesse, which shall stand for an ensign of the people; to it shall the Gentiles seek: and his rest shall be glorious.

11 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the Lord shall set his hand again the second time to recover the remnant of his people, which shall be left, from Assyria, and from Egypt, and from Pathros, and from Cush, and from Elam, and from Shinar, and from Hamath, and from the islands of the sea.

12 And he shall set up an ensign for the nations, and shall assemble the outcasts of Israel, and gather together the dispersed of Judah from the four corners of the earth.

13 The envy also of Ephraim shall depart, and the adversaries of Judah shall be cut off: Ephraim shall not envy Judah, and Judah shall not vex Ephraim.

14 But they shall fly upon the shoulders of the Philistines toward the west; they shall spoil them of the east together: they shall lay their hand upon Edom and Moab; and the children of Ammon shall obey them.

15 And the Lord shall utterly destroy the tongue of the Egyptian sea; and with his mighty wind shall he shake his hand over the river, and shall smite it in the seven streams, and make men go over dryshod.

16 And there shall be an highway for the remnant of his people, which shall be left, from Assyria; like as it was to Israel in the day that he came up out of the land of Egypt.

CHAP. XII.

A joyful thanksgiving of the faithful for the mercies of God.

AND in that day thou shalt say, O Lord, I will praise thee: though thou wast angry with me, thine anger is turned away, and thou comfortedst me.

2 Behold, God is my salvation; I will trust, and not be afraid: for the Lord JEHOVAH is my strength and my song; he also is become my salvation.

3 Therefore with joy shall ye draw water out of the wells of salvation.

4 And in that day shall ye say, Praise the Lord, call upon his name, declare his doings among the people, make mention that his name is exalted.

2^b Lift ye up a banner ^cupon the high mountain, exalt the voice unto them, ^dshake the hand, that they may go into the gates of the nobles.

3 I have commanded my sanctified ones, I have also called ^emy mighty ones for mine anger, even them that ^frejoice in my highness.

4 The noise of a multitude in the mountains, † like as of a great people; a tumultuous noise of the kingdoms of nations gathered together: the LORD of hosts mustereth the host of the battle.

5 They come from a far country, from the end of heaven, even the LORD, and the weapons of his indignation, to destroy the whole land.

6 ¶ Howl ye; ^gfor the day of the LORD is at hand; ^hit shall come as a destruction from the Almighty.

7 Therefore shall all hands ⁱbe faint, and every man's heart shall melt:

8 And they shall be afraid: ^jpangs and sorrows shall take hold of them; they shall be in pain as a woman that travaileth: they shall † be amazed † one at another; their faces shall be as † flames.

9 Behold, ^kthe day of the LORD cometh, cruel both with wrath and fierce anger, to lay the land desolate: and he shall destroy ^lthe finners thereof out of it.

10 For the stars of heaven and the constellations thereof shall not give their light: the sun shall be ^mdarkened in his going forth, and the moon shall not cause her light to shine.

11 And I will punish the world for their evil, and the wicked for their iniquity; ⁿand I will cause the arrogancy of the proud to cease, and will lay low the haughtiness of the terrible.

12 I will make a man more precious than fine gold; even a man than the golden wedge of Ophir.

13 ^oTherefore I will shake the heavens, and the earth shall remove out of her place, in the wrath of the LORD of hosts, and in ^pthe day of his fierce anger.

14 And it shall be as the chafed roe, and as a sheep that no man taketh up: ^qthey shall every man turn to his own people, and flee every one into his own land.

15 Every one that is found shall be thrust through; and every one that is joined unto them shall fall by the sword.

16 Their children also shall be ^rdashed to pieces before their eyes; their houses shall be spoiled, and their wives ravished.

17 ^sBehold, I will stir up the Medes against them, which shall not regard silver; and ^tas for gold, they shall not delight in it.

18 Their bows also shall dash the young men to pieces; and they shall have no pity on the fruit of the womb; their eye shall not spare children.

19 ¶ And Babylon, the glory of kingdoms, the beauty of the Chaldees' excellency, shall be † as when God overthrew ^uSodom and Gomorrah.

20 ^vIt shall never be inhabited, neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation: neither shall the Arabian pitch tent there; neither shall the shepherds make their fold there.

5 The LORD hath broken ^a the staff of the wicked, and the sceptre of the rulers.

6 He who smote the people in wrath with [†] a continual stroke, he that ruled the nations in anger, is persecuted, and none hindereth.

7 The whole earth is at rest, and is quiet: they break forth into singing.

8 [†] Yea, the fir trees rejoice at thee, and the cedars of Lebanon, saying, Since thou art laid down, no feller is come up against us.

9 ^k Hell from beneath is moved for thee to meet thee at thy coming: it stirreth up the dead for thee, even all the [†] chief ones of the earth; it hath raised up from their thrones all the kings of the nations.

10 All they shall speak and say unto thee, Art thou also become weak as we? art thou become like unto us?

11 Thy pomp is brought down to the grave, and the noise of thy viols: the worm is spread under thee, and the worms cover thee.

12 [†] How art thou fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning! how art thou cut down to the ground, which didst weaken the nations!

13 For thou hast said in thine heart, ^a I will ascend into heaven, ^a I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, ^a in the sides of the north:

14 I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; ^p I will be like the most High.

15 Yet thou ^a shalt be brought down to hell, to the sides of the pit.

16 They that see thee shall narrowly look upon thee, and consider thee, saying, Is this the man that made the earth to tremble, that did shake kingdoms;

17 That made the world as a wilderness, and destroyed the cities thereof; that ^{||} opened not the house of his prisoners?

18 All the kings of the nations, even all of them, lie in glory, every one in his own house.

19 But thou art cast out of thy grave like an abominable branch, and as the raiment of those that are slain, thrust through with a sword, that go down to the stones of the pit; as a carcase trodden under feet.

20 Thou shalt not be joined with them in burial, because thou hast destroyed thy land, and slain thy people: ^a the seed of evil doers shall never be renowned.

21 Prepare slaughter for his children ^a for the iniquity of their fathers; that they do not rise, nor possess the land, nor fill the face of the world with cities.

22 For I will rise up against them, saith the LORD of hosts, and cut off from Babylon ^a the name, and ^a remnant, and son, and nephew, saith the LORD.

23 [†] I will also make it a possession for the bittern, and pools of water: and I will sweep it with the besom of destruction, saith the LORD of hosts.

24 ^{||} The LORD of hosts hath sworn, saying, Surely as I have thought, so shall it come to pass; and as I have purposed, so shall it stand:

25 That I will break the Assyrian in my land, and upon my mountains tread him under foot: then shall ^a his yoke depart from off them, and his burden depart from off their shoulders.

26 This is the purpose that is purposed upon the whole earth: and this is the hand that is stretched out upon all the nations.

27 For the LORD of hosts hath ^a purposed, and who shall disannul it? and his hand is stretched out, and who shall turn it back?

28 In the year that ^b king Ahaz died was this burden.

29 ^{||} Rejoice not thou, whole Palestina, ^a because the rod of him that smote thee is broken: for out of the serpent's root shall come forth a ^{||} cockatrice, ^a and his fruit shall be a fiery flying serpent.

30 And the firstborn of the poor shall feed, and the needy shall lie down in safety: and I will kill thy root with famine, and he shall slay thy remnant.

31 Howl, O gate; cry, O city; thou, whole Palestina, art dissolved; for there shall come from the north a smoke, and ^a none shall be alone in his ^{||} appointed times.

32 What shall one then answer the messengers of the nation? That ^a the LORD hath founded Zion, and ^a the poor of his people shall ^{||} trust in it.

CHAP. XV.

The lamentable state of Moab.

THE ^a burden of Moab. Because in the night ^b Ar of Moab is laid waste, and ^{||} brought to silence; because in the night Kir of Moab is laid waste, and brought to silence;

2 ^a He is gone to Bajith, and to Dibon, the high places, to weep: Moab shall howl over Nebo, and over Medeba: ^a on all their heads shall be baldness, and every beard cut off.

3 In their streets they shall gird themselves with sackcloth: ^a on the tops of their houses, and in their streets, every one shall howl, [†] weeping abundantly.

j Or, murther.

4 And Heshbon shall cry, and Elealeh: their voice shall be heard even unto Jahaz: therefore the armed foldiers of Moab shall cry out; his life shall be grievous unto him.

5 My heart shall cry out for Moab; his fugitives shall flee unto Zoar, an heifer of three years old: for by the mounting up of Luhith with weeping shall they go it up; for in the way of Horonaim they shall raise up a cry of destruction.

6 For the waters of Nimrim shall be desolate: for the hay is withered away, the grafs faileth, there is no green thing.

7 Therefore the abundance they have gotten, and that which they have laid up, shall they carry away to the brook of the willows.

8 For the cry is gone round about the borders of Moab; the howling thereof unto Eglaim, and the howling thereof unto Beer-elim.

9 For the waters of Dimon shall be full of blood: for I will bring more upon Dimon, lions upon him that escapeth of Moab, and upon the remnant of the land.

8 For the fields of Heshbon languish, and the vine of Sibmah: the lords of the heathen have broken down the principal plants thereof, they are come even unto Jazar, they wandered through the wilderness: her branches are stretched out, they are gone over the sea.

9 Therefore I will bewail with the weeping of Jazer the vine of Sibmah: I will water thee with my tears, O Heshbon, and Elealeh: for the shouting for thy summer fruits and for thy harvest is fallen.

10 And gladness is taken away, and joy out of the plentiful field; and in the vineyards there shall be no singing, neither shall there be shouting: the treaders shall tread out no wine in their presses; I have made their vintage shouting to cease.

11 Wherefore my bowels shall sound like an harp for Moab, and mine inward parts for Kir-hareth.

12 And it shall come to pass, when it is seen that Moab is weary on the high place, that he shall come to his sanctuary to pray; but he shall not prevail.

13 This is the word that the LORD hath spoken concerning Moab since that time.

14 But now the LORD hath spoken, saying, Within three years, as the years of an hireling, and the glory of Moab shall be contemned, with all that great multitude; and the remnant shall be very small and feeble.

CHAP. XVII.

1 Syria and Israel are threatened. 6 A remnant shall forsake idolatry. 9 The rest shall be plagued for their impiety. 12 The woe of Israel's enemies.

THE burden of Damascus. Behold, Damascus is taken away from being a city, and it shall be a ruinous heap.

2 The cities of Aroer are forsaken: they shall be for flocks, which shall lie down, and none shall make them afraid.

3 The fortress also shall cease from Ephraim, and the kingdom from Damascus, and the remnant of Syria: they shall be as the glory of the children of Israel, saith the LORD of hosts.

4 And in that day it shall come to pass, that the glory of Jacob shall be made thin, and the fatness of his flesh shall wax lean.

5 And it shall be as when the harvestman gathereth the corn, and reapeth the ears with his arm; and it shall be as he that gathereth ears in the valley of Re-phaim.

6 Yet gleanings shall be left in it, as the shaking of an olive tree, two or three berries in the top of the uppermost bough, four or five in the outmost fruitful branches thereof, saith the LORD God of Israel.

7 At that day shall a man look to his Maker, and his eyes shall have respect to the Holy One of Israel.

8 And he shall not look to the altars, the work of his hands, neither shall respect that which his fingers have made, either the groves, or the images.

9 ¶ In that day shall his strong cities be as a forsaken bough, and an uppermost branch, which they left because of the children of Israel: and there shall be desolation.

10 Because thou hast forgotten the God of thy salvation, and hast not been mindful of the rock of thy strength, therefore shalt thou plant pleasant plants, and shalt set it with strange slips:

11 In the day shalt thou make thy plant to grow, and in the morning shalt thou make thy seed to flourish: but the harvest shall be a heap in the day of grief and of desperate sorrow.

12 ¶ Woe to the multitude of many people, which make a noise like the noise of the seas; and to the rushing of nations, that make a rushing like the rushing of mighty waters!

13 The nations shall rush like the rushing of many waters: but God shall rebuke them, and they shall flee far off, and shall be chafed as the chaff of the mountains before the wind, and like a rolling thing before the whirlwind.

14 And behold at eveningtide trouble; and before the morning he is not. This is the portion of them that spoil us, and the lot of them that rob us.

CHAP. XVIII.

1 God in care of his people will destroy the Ethiopians. 7 An access thereby shall grow unto the church.

WOE to the land shadowing with wings, which is beyond the rivers of Ethiopia:

2 That sendeth ambassadors by the sea, even in vessels of bulrushes upon the waters, saying, Go, ye swift messengers, to a nation scattered and peeled, to a people terrible from their beginning hitherto; to a nation meted out and trodden down, whose land the rivers have spoiled!

3 All ye inhabitants of the world, and dwellers on the earth, see ye, when he lifteth up an ensign on the mountains; and when he bloweth a trumpet, hear ye.

4 For so the LORD said unto me, I will take my rest, and I will consider in my dwelling place like a clear heat upon herbs, and like a cloud of dew in the heat of harvest.

5 For afore the harvest, when the bud is perfect, and the four grape is ripening in the flower, he shall both cut off the sprigs with pruninghooks, and take away and cut down the branches.

6 They shall be left together unto the fowls of the mountains, and to the beasts of the earth: and the fowls shall summer upon them, and all the beasts of the earth shall winter upon them.

7 ¶ In that time shall the present be brought unto the LORD of hosts of a people scattered and peeled, and from a people terrible from their beginning hitherto; a nation meted out and trodden under foot, whose land the rivers have spoiled, to the place of the name of the LORD of hosts, the mount Zion.

CHAP. XIX.

1 The confusion of Egypt. 11 The foolishness of their princes. 18 The calling of Egypt to the church. 23 The covenant of Egypt, Assyria, and Israel.

THE burden of Egypt. Behold, the LORD rideth upon a swift cloud, and shall come into Egypt: and the idols of Egypt shall be moved at his presence, and the heart of Egypt shall melt in the midst of it.

2 And I will set the Egyptians against the Egyptians: and they shall fight every one against his brother, and every one against his neighbour; city against city, and kingdom against kingdom.

3 And the spirit of Egypt shall fail in the midst thereof; and I will destroy the counsel thereof: and they shall seek to the idols, and to the charmers, and to them that have familiar spirits, and to the wizards.

4 And the Egyptians will I give over into the hand of a cruel lord; and a fierce king shall rule over them, saith the LORD, the LORD of hosts.

5 And the waters shall fail from the sea, and the river shall be wasted and dried up.

6 And they shall turn the rivers far away; and the brooks of defence shall be emptied and dried up: the reeds and flags shall wither.

7 The paper reeds by the brooks, by the mouth of the brooks, and every thing sown by the brooks, shall wither, be driven away, and be no more.

lament, and they that spread nets upon the waters shall languish.

9 Moreover they that work in fine flax, and they that weave networks, shall be confounded,

10 And they shall be broken in the purposes thereof, all that make sluices and ponds for fish.

11 Surely the princes of Zoan are fools, the counsel of the wise counsellors of Pharaoh is become brutish; how say ye unto Pharaoh, I am the son of the wise, the son of ancient kings?

12 Where are they: where are thy wise men? and let them tell thee now, and let them know what the LORD of hosts hath purposed upon Egypt.

13 The princes of Zoan are become fools, the princes of Noph are deceived; they have also seduced Egypt, even they that are the stay of the tribes thereof.

14 The LORD hath mingled a perverse spirit in the midst thereof: and they have caused Egypt to err in every work thereof, as a drunken man staggereth in his vomit.

15 Neither shall there be any work for Egypt, which the head or tail, branch or rush, may do.

16 In that day shall Egypt be like unto women: and it shall be afraid and fear because of the shaking of the hand of the LORD of hosts, which he shaketh over it.

17 And the land of Judah shall be a terror unto Egypt, every one that maketh mention thereof shall be afraid in himself, because of the counsel of the LORD of hosts, which he hath determined against it.

18 In that day shall five cities in the land of Egypt speak the language of Canaan, and swear to the LORD of hosts; one shall be called, The city of destruction.

19 In that day shall there be an altar to the LORD in the midst of the land of Egypt, and a pillar at the border thereof to the LORD.

20 And it shall be for a sign and for a witness unto the LORD of hosts in the land of Egypt: for they shall cry unto the LORD because of the oppressors, and he shall send them a saviour, and a great one, and he shall deliver them.

21 And the LORD shall be known to Egypt, and the Egyptians shall know the LORD in that day, and shall do sacrifice and oblation; yea, they shall vow a vow unto the LORD, and perform it.

22 And the LORD shall smite Egypt: he shall smite and heal it: and they shall return even to the LORD, and he shall be entreated of them, and shall heal them.

23 In that day shall there be a highway out of Egypt to Assyria, and the Assyrian shall come into Egypt, and the Egyptian into Assyria, and the Egyptians shall serve with the Assyrians.

24 In that day shall Israel be the third with Egypt and with Assyria, even a blessing in the midst of the land:

25 Whom the LORD of hosts shall bless, saying, Blessed be Egypt my people, and Assyria the work of my hands, and Israel mine inheritance.

CHAP. XX.

A type prefiguring the shameful captivity of Egypt and Ethiopia.

IN the year that Tartan came unto Ashdod; (when Sargon the king of Assyria sent him,) and fought against Ashdod, and took it;

2 At the same time spake the LORD by Isaiah the son of Amoz, saying, Go and loose the sackcloth from off thy loins, and put off thy shoe from thy foot. And he did so, walking naked and barefoot.

3 And the LORD said, Like as my servant Isaiah hath walked naked and barefoot three years for a sign and wonder upon Egypt and upon Ethiopia;

4 So shall the king of Assyria lead away the Egyptians prisoners, and the Ethiopians captives, young and old, naked and barefoot, even with their buttocks uncovered, to the shame of Egypt.

5 And they shall be afraid and ashamed of Ethiopia their expectation, and of Egypt their glory.

6 And the inhabitants of this isle shall say in that day, Behold, such is our expectation, whither we flee for help to be delivered from the king of Assyria: and how shall we escape?

CHAP. XXI.

was bowed down at the hearing of it; I was dismayed at the seeing of it.

4 ^h My heart panted, fearfulness affrighted me: the night of my pleasure hath he turned into fear unto me.

5 ^g Prepare the table, watch in the watchtower, eat, drink: arise, ye princes, and anoint the shield.

6 For thus hath the LORD said unto me, Go, set a watchman, let him declare what he seeth.

7 ^h And he saw a chariot with a couple of horsemen, a chariot of asses, and a chariot of camels; and he hearkened diligently with much heed:

8 And ^h he cried, A lion: My lord, I stand continually upon the watchtower in the daytime, and I am set in my ward whole nights:

9 And, behold, here cometh a chariot of men, with a couple of horsemen. And he answered and said, ^k Babylon is fallen, is fallen; and all the graven images of her gods he hath broken unto the ground.

10 ^m O my threshing, and the corn of my floor: that which I have heard of the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, have I declared unto you.

11 ⁿ The burden of Dumah. He calleth to me out of Seir, Watchman, what of the night? Watchman, what of the night?

12 The watchman said, The morning cometh, and also the night: if ye will enquire, enquire ye: return, come.

13 ^o The burden upon Arabia. In the forest in Arabia shall ye lodge, O ye travelling companies of Dedanum.

14 The inhabitants of the land of Tema brought water to him that was thirsty, they prevented with their bread him that fled.

15 For they fled ^p from the swords, from the drawn sword, and from the bent bow, and from the grievousness of war.

16 For thus hath the LORD said unto me, Within a year, according to the years of an hireling, and all the glory of Kedar shall fail:

17 And the residue of the number of archers, the mighty men of the children of Kedar, shall be diminished: for the LORD God of Israel hath spoken it.

CHAP. XXII.

1 The prophet lamenteth the invasion of Jewry by the Persians: 8 he reproveth their human wisdom, and worldly joy: 15 he prophesieth Shebna's deprivation, 20 and Eliakim, prefiguring the kingdom of Christ, his substitution.

THE burden of the valley of vision. What aileth thee now, that thou art wholly gone up to the housetops?

2 Thou that art full of stirs, a tumultuous city, ^a a joyous city: thy slain men are not slain with the sword, nor dead in battle.

3 All thy rulers are fled together, they are bound [†] by the archers: all that are found in thee are bound together, which have fled from far.

4 Therefore said I, Look away from me; [†] I will weep bitterly, labour not to comfort me, because of the spoiling of the daughter of my people.

5 ^c For it is a day of trouble, and of treading down, and of perplexity by the LORD God of hosts in the valley of vision, breaking down the walls, and of crying to the mountains.

6 And Elam bare the quiver with chariots of men and horsemen, and Kir [†] uncovered the shield.

7 And it shall come to pass, that [†] thy choicest valleys shall be full of chariots, and the horsemen shall set themselves in array at the gate.

8 ^q And he discovered the covering of Judah, and thou didst look in that day to the armour of the house of the forest.

9 ^r Ye have seen also the breaches of the city of David, that they are many: and ye gathered together the waters of the lower pool.

10 And ye have numbered the houses of Jerusalem, and the houses have ye broken down to fortify the wall.

11 ^s Ye made also a ditch between the two walls for the water of the old pool: but ye have not looked unto ^t the maker thereof, neither had respect unto him that fashioned it long ago.

12 And in that day did the Lord God of hosts call to weeping, and to mourning, and to baldness, and to girding with sackcloth:

13 And behold joy and gladness, slaying oxen, and killing sheep, eating flesh, and drinking wine: let us eat and drink; for to morrow we shall die.

14 ^u And it was revealed in mine ears by the LORD of hosts, Surely this iniquity shall not be purged from you till ye die, saith the Lord God of hosts.

15 ^v Thus saith the Lord God of hosts, Go, get thee unto this treasurer, even unto ^w Shebna, which is over the house, and say, 16 What hast thou here? and whom hast thou here, that thou hast hewed thee out a sepulchre here, as he that heweth him out a sepulchre on high, and that graveth an habitation for himself in a rock?

20 ¶ And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will call my servant [†]Eliakim the son of Hilkiah:

21 And I will clothe him with thy robe, and strengthen him with thy girdle, and I will commit thy government into his hand: and he shall be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to the house of Judah.

22 And the key of the house of David will I lay upon his shoulder; so he shall open, and none shall shut; and he shall shut, and none shall open.

23 And I will fasten him as [†]a nail in a sure place; and he shall be for a glorious throne to his father's house.

24 And they shall hang upon him all the glory of his father's house, the offspring and the issue, all vessels of small quantity, from the vessels of cups, even to all the vessels of flagons.

25 In that day, saith the LORD of hosts, shall the nail that is fastened in the sure place be removed, and be cut down, and fall; and the burden that was upon it shall be cut off: for the LORD hath spoken it.

CHAP. XXIII.

1 The miserable overthrow of Tyre. 17 Their unhappy return.

THE [†]burden of Tyre. Howl, ye ships of Tarshish; for it is laid waste, so that there is no house, no entering in: [†]b from the land of Chittim it is revealed to them.

2 Be [†]still, ye inhabitants of the isle; thou whom the merchants of Zidon, that pass over the sea, have replenished.

3 And by great waters the seed of Sihor, the harvest of the river, is her revenue; and she is a mart of nations.

4 Be thou ashamed, O Zidon: for the sea hath spoken, even the strength of the sea, saying, I travail not, nor bring forth children, neither do I nourish up young men, nor bring up virgins.

5 As at the report concerning Egypt, so shall they be sorely pained at the report of Tyre.

6 Pass ye over to Tarshish; howl, ye inhabitants of the isle.

7 Is this your [†]joyous city, whose antiquity is of ancient days? her own feet shall carry her [†]afar off to sojourn.

8 Who hath taken this counsel against Tyre, the crowning city, whose merchants are princes, whose traffickers are the honourable of the earth?

9 The LORD of hosts hath purposed it, [†]to stain the pride of all glory, and to bring into contempt all the honourable of the earth.

10 Pass through thy land as a river, O daughter of Tarshish: there is no more [†]strength.

11 He stretched out his hand over the sea, he shook the kingdoms: the LORD hath given a commandment [†]against the merchant city, to destroy the [†]strong holds thereof.

12 And he said, [†]Thou shalt no more rejoice, O thou oppressed virgin, daughter of Zidon: arise, [†]pass over to Chittim; there also shalt thou have no rest.

13 Behold the land of the Chaldeans; this people was not, till the Assyrian founded it for them that dwell in the wilderness: they set up the towers thereof, they raised up the palaces thereof, and he brought it to ruin.

14 Howl, ye ships of Tarshish: for your strength is laid waste.

15 ¶ And it shall come to pass in that day, that Tyre shall be forgotten seventy years, according to the days of one king: after the end of seventy years [†]shall Tyre sing as an harlot.

16 Take an harp, go about the city, thou harlot that hast been forgotten; make sweet melody, sing many songs, that thou mayest be remembered.

17 And it shall come to pass after the end of seventy years, that the LORD will visit Tyre, and she shall turn to her hire, and shall commit fornication with all the kingdoms of the world upon the face of the earth.

18 And her merchandise and her hire shall be holiness to the LORD: it shall not be treasured nor laid up: for her merchandise shall be for them that dwell before the LORD, to eat sufficiently, and for [†]durable clothing.

CHAP. XXIV.

1 The doleful judgements of God upon the land. 13 A remnant shall joyfully praise him. 16 God in his judgements shall advance his kingdom.

3 The land shall be utterly emptied, and utterly spoiled: for the LORD hath spoken this word.

4 The earth mourneth and fadeth away, the world languisheth and fadeth away, [†] the haughty people of the earth do languish.

5 ^{*} The earth also is defiled under the inhabitants thereof; because they have transgressed the laws, changed the ordinance, broken the everlasting covenant.

6 Therefore hath ^d the curse devoured the earth, and they that dwell therein are desolate: therefore the inhabitants of the earth are burned, and few men left.

7 ^{*} The new wine mourneth, the vine languisheth, all the merryhearted do sigh.

8 The mirth ^e of tabrets ceaseth, the noise of them that rejoice endeth, the joy of the harp ceaseth.

9 They shall not drink wine with a song; strong drink shall be bitter to them that drink it.

10 The city of confusion is broken down: every house is shut up, that no man may come in.

11 There is a crying for wine in the streets; all joy is darkened, the mirth of the land is gone.

12 In the city is left desolation, and the gate is smitten with destruction.

13 ¶ When thus it shall be in the midst of the land among the people, ^e there shall be as the shaking of an olive tree, and as the gleaning grapes when the vintage is done.

14 They shall lift up their voice, they shall sing for the majesty of the LORD, they shall cry aloud from the sea.

15 Wherefore glorify ye the LORD in the ^h fires, even ^b the name of the LORD God of Israel in the isles of the sea.

16 ¶ From the [†] uttermost part of the earth have we heard songs, even glory to the righteous. But I said, [†] My leanness, my leanness, woe unto me! ⁱ the treacherous dealers have dealt treacherously; yea, the treacherous dealers have dealt very treacherously.

17 ^k Fear, and the pit, and the snare, are upon thee, O inhabitant of the earth.

18 And it shall come to pass, that he who fleeth from the noise of the fear shall fall into the pit; and he that cometh up out of the midst of the pit shall be taken in the snare: for ^l the windows from on high are open, and ^m the foundations of the earth do shake.

19 ⁿ The earth is utterly broken down, the earth is clean dissolved, the earth is moved exceedingly.

20 The earth shall ^o reel to and fro like a drunkard, and shall be removed like a cottage; and the transgression thereof shall be heavy upon it; and it shall fall, and not rise again.

21 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the LORD shall [†] punish the host of the high ones that are on high, ^p and the kings of the earth upon the earth.

22 And they shall be gathered together, [†] as prisoners are gathered in the ^q pit, and shall be shut up in the prison, and after many days shall they be ^r visited.

23 Then the ^s moon shall be confounded, and the sun ashamed, when the LORD of hosts shall ^t reign in ^u mount Zion, and in Jerusalem, and ^v before his ancients gloriously.

CHAP. XXV.

1 The prophet praiseth God for his judgements, 6 for his saving benefits, 9 and for his victorious salvation.

O LORD, thou art my God; ^a I will exalt thee, I will praise thy name; ^b for thou hast done wonderful things; ^c thy counsels of old are faithfulness and truth.

2 For thou hast made ^d of a city an heap; of a fenced city a ruin: a palace of strangers to be no city; it shall never be built.

3 Therefore shall the strong people ^e glorify thee, the city of the terrible nations shall fear thee.

4 For thou hast been a strength to the poor, a strength to the needy in his distress, ^f a refuge from the storm, a shadow from the heat, when the blast of the terrible ones is as a storm against the wall.

5 Thou shalt bring down the noise of strangers, as the heat in a dry place; even the heat with the shadow of a cloud: the branch of the terrible ones shall be brought low.

6 ¶ And in ^g this mountain shall ^h the LORD of hosts make unto ⁱ all people a feast of fat things, a feast of wines on the lees, of fat things full of marrow, of wines on the lees well refined.

7 And he will [†] destroy in this mountain the face of the covering [†] cast over all people, and ^k the veil that is spread over all nations.

CHAP. XXVI.

IN ^athat day shall this song be sung in the land of Judah; We have a strong city; ^bsalvation will God appoint for walls and bulwarks.

2 ^cOpen ye the gates, that the righteous nation which keepeth the ^dtruth may enter in.

3 Thou wilt keep him ^ein perfect peace, whose ^fmind is stayed on thee: because he trusteth in thee.

4 Trust ye in the LORD for ever: ^gfor in the LORD JEHOVAH is ^heverlasting strength:

5 ⁱFor he bringeth down them that dwell on high; ^jthe lofty city, he layeth it low; he layeth it low, even to the ground; he bringeth it even to the dust.

6 The foot shall tread it down, even the feet of the poor, and the steps of the needy.

7 The way of the just is uprightness: ^kthou, most upright, dost weigh the path of the just.

8 Yea, ^lin the way of thy judgements, O LORD, have we waited for thee; the desire of our soul is to thy name, and to the remembrance of thee.

9 ^mWith my soul have I desired thee in the night; yea, with my spirit within me will I seek thee early: for when thy judgements are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness.

10 ⁿLet favour be shewed to the wicked, yet will he not learn righteousness: in ^othe land of uprightness will he deal unjustly, and will not behold the majesty of the LORD.

11 LORD, when thy hand is lifted up, ^pthey will not see: but they shall see, and be ashamed for their envy ^qat the people; yea, the fire of thine enemies shall devour them.

12 ^rLORD, thou wilt ordain peace for us: for thou also hast wrought all our works ^sin us.

13 O LORD our God, ^tother lords beside thee have had dominion over us: but by thee only will we make mention of thy name.

14 They are dead, they shall not live; they are deceased, they shall not rise: therefore hast thou visited and destroyed them, and made all their memory to perish.

15 Thou hast increased the nation, O LORD, thou hast increased the nation: thou art glorified: thou hadst removed it far unto all the ends of the earth.

16 LORD, ^uin trouble have they visited thee, they poured out a ^vprayer when thy chastening was upon them.

17 Like as ^wa woman with child, that draweth near the time of her delivery, is in pain, and crieth out in her pangs; so have we been in thy sight, O LORD.

18 We have been with child, we have been in pain, we have as it were brought forth wind; we have not wrought any deliverance in the earth; neither have ^xthe inhabitants of the world fallen.

19 ^yThy dead men shall live, together with my dead body shall they arise. ^zAwake and sing, ye that dwell in dust: for thy dew is as the dew of herbs, and the earth shall cast out the dead.

20 ^{aa}Come, my people, ^{ab}enter thou into thy chambers, and shut thy doors about thee: hide thyself as it were ^{ac}for a little moment, until the indignation be overpast.

21 For, behold, the LORD ^{ad}cometh out of his place to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity: the earth also shall disclose her ^{ae}blood, and shall no more cover her slain.

8 ^k In measure, || when it shooteth forth, thou wilt debate with it: || ^l he stayeth his rough wind in the day of the east wind.

9 By this therefore shall the iniquity of Jacob be purged; and this ⁱ is all the fruit to take away his sin; when he maketh all the stones of the altar as chalkstones that are beaten in funder, the groves and ^{||} images shall not stand up.

10 ¶ Yet the defenced city shall be desolate, and the habitation forsaken, and left like a wilderness: ^m there shall the calf feed, and there shall he lie down, and consume the branches thereof.

11 When the boughs thereof are withered, they shall be broken off: the women come, and set them on fire: for ⁿ it is a people of no understanding: therefore he that made them will not have mercy on them, and ^o he that formed them will shew them no favour.

12 ¶ And it shall come to pass in that day, that the LORD shall beat off from the channel of the river unto the stream of Egypt, and ye shall be gathered one by one, O ye children of Israel.

13 ^p And it shall come to pass in that day, ^q that the great trumpet shall be blown, and they shall come which were ready to perish in the land of Assyria, and the outcasts in the land of Egypt, and shall worship the LORD in the holy mount at Jerusalem.

CHAP. XXVIII.

1 The prophet threateneth Ephraim for their pride and drunkenness. 5 The residue shall be advanced in the kingdom of Christ: 7 he rebuketh their error, 9 their untowardness to learn, 14 and their security. 16 Christ the sure foundation is promised. 18 Their security shall be tried. 23 They are incited to the consideration of God's discreet providence.

WOE to ^a the crown of pride, to the drunkards of Ephraim, whose ^b glorious beauty is a fading flower, which are on the head of the fat valleys of them that are [†] overcome with wine!

2 Behold, the LORD hath a mighty and strong one, ^c which as a tempest of hail and a destroying storm, as a flood of mighty waters overflowing, shall cast down to the earth with the hand.

3 ^d The crown of pride, the drunkards of Ephraim, shall be trodden [†] under feet:

4 And ^e the glorious beauty, which is on the head of the fat valley, shall be a fading flower, and as the hasty fruit before the summer; which ^{when} he that looketh upon it seeth, while it is yet in his hand he [†] eateth it up.

5 ¶ In that day shall the LORD of hosts be for a crown of glory, and for a diadem of beauty, unto the residue of his people,

6 And for a spirit of judgement to him that sitteth in judgement, and for strength to them that turn the battle to the gate.

7 ¶ But they also ^f have erred through wine, and through strong drink are out of the way; ^g the priest and the prophet have erred through strong drink, they are swallowed up of wine, they are out of the way through strong drink; they err in vision, they stumble in judgement.

8 For all tables are full of vomit and filthiness, so that there is no place clean.

9 ¶ ^h Whom shall he teach knowledge? and whom shall he make to understand [†] doctrine? them that are weaned from the milk, and drawn from the breasts.

10 For precept ⁱ must be upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little:

11 For with [†] ^j stammering lips and another tongue ^{||} will he speak to this people.

12 To whom he said, This is the rest wherewith ye may cause the weary to rest; and this is the refreshing: yet they would not hear.

13 But the word of the LORD was unto them precept upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little; that they might go, and fall backward, and be broken, and snared, and taken.

14 ¶ Wherefore hear the word of the LORD, ye scornful men, that rule this people which is in Jerusalem.

15 Because ye have said, We have made a covenant with death, and with hell are we at agreement; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, it shall not come unto us: ^k for we have made lies our refuge, and under falsehood have we hid ourselves:

16 ¶ Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation ^l a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner stone, WOE to Ariel, to Ariel, the city where David dwelt! add ye year to year; let them kill sacrifices.

2 Yet I will distress Ariel, and there shall be heaviness and sorrow: and it shall be unto me as Ariel.

3 And I will camp against thee round about, and will lay siege against thee with a mount, and I will raise forts against thee.

4 And thou shalt be brought down, and shalt speak out of the ground, and thy speech shall be low out of the dust, and thy voice shall be, as of one that hath a familiar spirit; out of the ground, and thy speech shall whisper out of the dust.

5 Moreover the multitude of thy strangers shall be like small dust, and the multitude of the terrible one shall be as chaff that passeth away: yea, it shall be at an instant suddenly.

6 Thou shalt be visited of the LORD of hosts with thunder, and with earthquake, and great noise, with storm and tempest, and the flame of devouring fire.

7 And the multitude of all the nations that fight against Ariel, even all that fight against her and her munition, and that distress her, shall be as a dream of a night vision.

8 It shall even be as when an hungry man dreameth, and, behold, he eateth; but he awaketh, and his soul is empty: or as when a thirsty man dreameth, and, behold, he drinketh; but he awaketh, and, behold, he is faint, and his soul hath appetite: so shall the multitude of all the nations be, that fight against mount Zion.

9 Stay yourselves, and wonder; cry ye out, and cry: they are drunken, but not with wine; they stagger, but not with strong drink.

10 For the LORD hath poured out upon you the spirit of deep sleep, and hath closed your eyes: the prophets and your rulers, the seers hath he covered.

27 ^l Behold, the name of the LORD cometh from far, burning with his anger, ^m and the burden thereof is ⁿ heavy: his lips are full of indignation, and his tongue as a devouring fire:

28 And ^o his breath, as an overflowing stream, ^p shall reach to the midst of the neck, to sift the nations with the sieve of vanity: and there shall be ^q a bridle in the jaws of the people, causing them to err.

29 Ye shall have a song; as in the night ^r when a holy solemnity is kept; and gladness of heart, as when one goeth with a pipe to come into the ^a mountain of the LORD, to the ^b mighty One of Israel.

30 ^c And the LORD shall cause ^d his glorious voice to be heard, and shall shew the lighting down of his arm, with the indignation of his anger, and with the flame of a devouring fire, with scattering, and tempest, ^e and hailstones.

31 For ^f through the voice of the LORD shall the Assyrian be beaten down, ^g which smote with a rod.

32 And ^h in every place where the grounded staff shall pass, which the LORD shall ⁱ lay upon him, it shall be with tabrets and harps: and in battles of ^j shaking will he fight ^k with it.

33 ^l For Tophet is ordained ^m of old; yea, for the king it is prepared; he hath made it deep and large: the pile thereof is fire and much wood; the breath of the LORD, like a stream of brimstone, doth kindle it.

C H A P. XXXI.

1 The prophet sheweth the cursed folly in trusting to Egypt, and forsaking of God: 6 he exhorteth to conversion: 8 he sheweth the fall of Assyria.

W OLE to them ^a that go down to Egypt for help; and ^b stay on horses, and trust in chariots, because they are many; and in horsemen, because they are very strong; but they look not unto the Holy One of Israel, ^c neither seek the LORD!

2 Yet he also is wise, and will bring evil, and ^d will not ^e call back his words: but will arise against the house of the evildoers, and against the help of them that work iniquity.

3 Now the Egyptians are ^f men, and not God; and their horses flesh, and not spirit. When the LORD shall stretch out his hand, both he that helpeth shall fall, and he that is holpen shall fall down, and they all shall fail together.

4 For thus hath the LORD spoken unto me, ^g Like as the lion and the young lion roaring on his prey, when a multitude of shepherds is called forth against him, he will not be afraid of their voice, nor abase himself for the ^h noise of them: ⁱ so shall the LORD of hosts come down to fight for mount Zion, and for the hill thereof.

5 ^j As birds flying, so will the LORD of hosts defend Jerusalem; ^k defending also he will deliver it; and passing over he will preserve it.

4 The heart also of the † rash shall understand knowledge, and the tongue of the stammerers shall be ready to speak † plainly.

5 The vile person shall be no more called liberal, nor the churl said to be bountiful.

6 For the vile person will speak villany, and his heart will work iniquity, to practise hypocrisy, and to utter error against the LORD, to make empty the soul of the hungry, and he will cause the drink of the thirsty to fail.

7 The instruments also of the churl are evil: he deviseth wicked devices to destroy the poor with lying words, even^b when the needy speaketh right.

8 But the liberal deviseth liberal things; and by liberal things shall he^c stand.

9 ¶ Rise up, ye women^d that are at ease; hear my voice, ye careless daughters; give ear unto my speech.

10 † Many days and years shall ye be troubled, ye careless women: for the vintage shall fail, the gathering shall not come.

11 Tremble, ye women that are at ease; be troubled, ye careless ones: strip you, and make you bare, and gird sackcloth upon your loins.

12 They shall lament for the teats, for † the pleasant fields, for the fruitful vine.

13 † Upon the land of my people shall come up thorns and briers; † yea, upon all the houses of joy in^e the joyous city:

14 † Because the palaces shall be forsaken; the multitude of the city shall be left; the forts and towers shall be for dens for ever, a joy of wild asses, a pasture of flocks;

15 ¶ Until^a the spirit be poured upon us from on high, and^b the wilderness be a fruitful field, and the fruitful field be counted for a forest.

16 Then judgement shall dwell in the wilderness, and righteousness remain in the fruitful field.

17 † And the work of righteousness shall be peace; and the effect of righteousness quietness and assurance for ever.

18 And my people shall dwell in a peaceable habitation, and in sure dwellings, and in quiet resting places;

19 † When it shall hail, coming down^c on the forest; † and the city shall be low in a low place.

20 Blessed are ye that sow beside all waters, that send forth thither the feet of^d the ox and the ass.

CHAP. XXXIII.

1 God's judgements against the enemies of his church.

13 The privileges of the godly.

WOE to thee^a that spoilest, and thou wast not spoiled; and dealest treacherously, and they dealt not treacherously with thee! † when thou shalt cease to spoil, thou shalt be spoiled; and when thou shalt make an end to deal treacherously, they shall deal treacherously with thee.

2 O LORD, be gracious unto us; † we have waited for thee: be thou their arm every morning, our salvation also in the time of trouble.

3 At the noise of the tumult the people fled; at the lifting up of thyself the nations were scattered.

4 And your spoil shall be gathered like the gathering of the caterpillar: as the running to and fro of locusts shall he run upon them.

5 † The LORD is exalted; for he dwelleth on high: he hath filled Zion with judgement and righteousness.

6 And wisdom and knowledge shall be the stability of thy times, and strength of † salvation: the fear of the LORD is his treasure.

7 Behold, their † valiant ones shall cry without: † the ambassadors of peace shall weep bitterly.

8 † The highways lie waste, the way-faring man ceaseth: † he hath broken the covenant, he hath despised the cities, he regardeth no man.

9 † The earth mourneth and languisheth: Lebanon is ashamed and † hewn down: Sharon is like a wilderness; and Bashan and Carmel shake off their fruits.

CHAP. XXXVI.

1 Sennacherib invadeth Judah. 4 Rabshakeh sent by Sennacherib, by blasphemous persuasions soliciteth the people to revolt: 22 his words are told to Hezekiah.

NOW * it came to pass in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah, that Sennacherib king of Assyria came up against all the fenced cities of Judah, and took them.

2 ¶ And the king of Assyria sent Rabshakeh from Lachish to Jerusalem unto king Hezekiah with a great army. And he stood by the conduit of the upper pool in the highway of the fullers' field.

3 Then came forth unto him Eliakim, Hilkiah's son, which was over the house, and Shebna the † scribe, and Joah, Asaph's son, the recorder.

4 † And Rabshakeh said unto them, Say ye now to Hezekiah, Thus saith the great king, the king of Assyria, What confidence is this wherein thou trustest?

5 I say, sayest thou, (but they are but † vain words) † I have counsel and strength for war: now on whom dost thou trust, that thou rebellest against me?

6 Lo, thou trustest in the † staff of this broken reed, on Egypt; whereon if a man lean, it will go into his hand, and pierce it: so is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all that trust in him.

7 But if thou say to me, We trust in the LORD our God: is it not he, whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah hath taken away, and said to Judah and to Jerusalem, Ye shall worship before this altar?

8 Now therefore give † pledges, I pray thee, to my master the king of Assyria, and I will give thee two thousand horses, if thou be able on thy part to set riders upon them.

9 How then wilt thou turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put thy trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen?

10 And am I now come up without the LORD against this land to destroy it? the LORD said unto me, Go up against this land, and destroy it.

Joah unto Rabshakeh, Speak, I pray thee, unto thy servants in the Syrian language; for we understand it: and speak not to us in the Jews' language, in the ears of the people that are on the wall.

12 But Rabshakeh said, Hath my master sent me to thy master and to thee to speak these words? hath he not sent me to the men that sit upon the wall, that they may eat their own dung, and drink their own piss with you?

13 ¶ Then Rabshakeh stood, and cried with a loud voice in the Jews' language, and said, Hear ye the words of the great king, the king of Assyria.

14 Thus saith the king, Let not Hezekiah deceive you: for he shall not be able to deliver you.

15 Neither let Hezekiah make you trust in the LORD, saying, The LORD will surely deliver us: this city shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria.

16 Harken not to Hezekiah: for thus saith the king of Assyria, ¶ Make an agreement with me by a present, and come out to me: ^d and eat ye every one of his vine, and every one of his fig tree, and drink ye every one the waters of his own cistern;

17 Until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of corn and wine, a land of bread and vineyards.

18 Beware lest Hezekiah persuade you, saying, The LORD will deliver us. Hath any of the gods of the nations delivered his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria?

19 Where are the gods of Hamath and Arphad? where are the gods of Sepharvaim? and have they delivered Samaria out of my hand?

20 Who are they among all the gods of these lands, that have delivered their land out of my hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand?

21 But they held their peace, and answered him not a word: for the king's commandment was, saying, Answer him not.

22 Then came Eliakim, the son of Iilkiah, that was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah, the son of Asaph, the recorder, to Hezekiah with their clothes rent, and told him the words of Rabshakeh.

C H A P. XXXVII.

1 Hezekiah mourning, sendeth to Isaiah to pray for them. 6 Isaiah comforteth them. 8 Sennacherib going to encounter Tirhakah, sendeth a blasphemous letter to Hezekiah. 13 Hezekiah's prayer. 21 Isaiah's prophecy of the pride and destruction of Sennacherib, and the good of Zion.

36 An angel slayeth the Assyrians. 37 Sennacherib is slain at Niniveh by his own sons.

AND it came to pass, when king Hezekiah heard it, that he rent his clothes, and covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of the LORD.

2 And he sent Eliakim, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests covered with sackcloth, unto Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz.

3 And they said unto him, Thus saith Hezekiah, This day is a day of trouble, and of rebuke, and of blasphemy: for the children are come to the birth, and there is not strength to bring forth.

4 It may be the LORD thy God will hear the words of Rabshakeh, whom the king of Assyria his master hath sent to reproach the living God, and will reprove the words which the LORD thy God hath heard: wherefore lift up thy prayer for the remnant that is left.

5 So the servants of king Hezekiah came to Isaiah.

6 ¶ And Isaiah said unto them, Thus shall ye say unto your master, Thus saith the LORD, Be not afraid of the words that thou hast heard, wherewith the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me.

7 Behold, I will send a blast upon him, and he shall hear a rumour, and return to his own land; and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.

8 ¶ So Rabshakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah: for he had heard that he was departed from Lachish.

9 And he heard say concerning Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, He is come forth to make war with thee. And when he heard it, he sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying,

10 Thus shall ye speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, Let not thy God, in whom thou trustest, deceive thee, saying, Jerusalem shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.

11 Behold, thou hast heard what the king of Assyria have done to all lands by destroying them utterly; and shalt thou be delivered?

12 Have the gods of the nations delivered them which my fathers have destroyed, as Gozan, and Haran, and Rezeph, and the children of Eden which were in Telassar?

13 Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arphad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivah?

it: and Hezekiah went up unto the house of the LORD, and spread it before the LORD.

15 And Hezekiah prayed unto the LORD, saying,

16 O LORD of hosts, God of Israel, that dwellest between the cherubims, thou art the God, even thou alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth: thou hast made heaven and earth.

17 Incline thine ear, O LORD, and hear; open thine eyes, O LORD, and see: and hear all the words of Sennacherib, which hath sent to reproach the living God.

18 Of a truth, LORD, the kings of Assyria have laid waste all the nations, and their countries, 19 And have cast their gods into the fire: for they were no gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone: therefore they have destroyed them.

20 Now therefore, O LORD our God, save us from his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that thou art the LORD, even thou only.

21 ¶ Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent unto Hezekiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Whereas thou hast prayed to me against Sennacherib king of Assyria:

22 This is the word which the LORD hath spoken concerning him; The virgin, the daughter of Zion, hath despised thee, and laughed thee to scorn; the daughter of Jerusalem hath shaken her head at thee.

23 Whom hast thou reproached and blasphemed? and against whom hast thou exalted thy voice, and lifted up thine eyes on high? even against the Holy One of Israel.

24 By thy servants hast thou reproached the Lord, and hast said, By the multitude of my chariots, and I come up to the height of the mountains, to the sides of Lebanon; and I will cut down the cedars thereof, and I will enter into the height of his border, and I will enter into the height of his border, and I will enter into the height of his border, and I will enter into the height of his border.

25 I have digged, and drunk water; and with the sole of my feet have I dried up all the rivers of the besieged places.

26 Hast thou not heard long ago, how I have done it; and of ancient times, that I have formed it? now have I brought it to pass, that thou shouldst be to lay waste defended cities into ruinous heaps.

27 Therefore their inhabitants were of small power, they were dismayed and confounded: they were as the grass of the field, and as the green herb, as the grass on the housetops, and as corn blasted before it be grown up.

28 But I know thy habode, and thy going out, and thy coming in, and thy rage against me.

29 Because thy rage against me, and thy tumult, is come up into mine ears, therefore will I put my hook in thy nose, and my bridle in thy lips, and I will turn thee back by the way by which thou camest.

30 And this shall be a sign unto thee, Ye shall eat this year such as groweth of itself; and the second year that which springeth of the same: and in the third year sow ye, and reap, and plant vineyards, and eat the fruit thereof.

31 And the remnant that is escaped of the house of Judah shall again take root downward, and bear fruit upward:

32 For out of Jerusalem shall go forth a remnant, and they that escape out of mount Zion: the zeal of the LORD of hosts shall do this.

33 Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning the king of Assyria, He shall not come into this city, nor shoot an arrow there, nor come before it with shields, nor cast a bank against it.

34 By the way that he came, by the same shall he return, and shall not come into this city, saith the LORD.

35 For I will defend this city to save it for mine own sake, and for my servant David's sake.

36 ¶ Then the angel of the LORD went forth, and smote in the camp of the Assyrians a hundred and fourscore and five thousand: and when they arose early in the morning, behold, they were all dead corpses.

37 So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed, and went and returned, and dwelt at Nineveh.

38 And it came to pass, as he was worshipping in the house of Nisroch his god, that Adrammelech and Sharezer his sons smote him with the sword; and they escaped into the land of Armenia: and Liskaddon his son reigned in his stead.

CHAP. XXXIX.

1 Hezekiah having received a vision of death, by prayer hath his life lengthened. 2 The king goeth ten days backward: by a sign of that promise: 9 his song of thanksgiving.

IN those days was Hezekiah sick unto death. And Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz came unto him, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, ¶ Set thine house in order: for thou shalt die, and not live.

ing.

I beseech thee, how I have walked before thee in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in thy sight. And Hezekiah wept [†]fore.

4 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD to Isaiah, saying,

5 Go, and say to Hezekiah, Thus saith the LORD, the God of David thy father, I have heard thy prayer, I have seen thy tears: behold, I will add unto thy days fifteen years.

6 And I will deliver thee and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria: and ^aI will defend this city.

7 And this shall be ^aa sign unto thee from the LORD, that the LORD will do this thing that he hath spoken;

8 Behold, I will bring again the shadow of the degrees, which is gone down in the [†]sun dial of Ahaz, ten degrees backward. So the sun returned ten degrees, by which degrees it was gone down.

9 ¶ The writing of Hezekiah king of Judah, when he had been sick, and was recovered of his sickness:

10 I said in the cutting off of my days, I shall go to the gates of the grave: I am deprived of the residue of my years.

11 I said, I shall not see the LORD, even the LORD, [†]in the land of the living: I shall behold man no more with the inhabitants of the world.

12 ^aMine age is departed, and is removed from me as a shepherd's tent: I have cut off like a weaver my life: he will cut me off [¶]with pining sickness: from day even to night wilt thou make an end of me.

13 I reckoned till morning, that, as a lion, so will he break all my bones: from day even to night wilt thou make an end of me.

14 Like a crane or a swallow, so did I chatter: ^aI did mourn as a dove: mine eyes fail with looking upward: O LORD, I am oppressed; [¶]undertake for me.

15 What shall I say? he hath both spoken unto me, and himself hath done it: I shall go softly all my years. [†]in the bitterness of my soul.

16 O LORD, by these things men live, and in all these things is the life of my spirit: so wilt thou recover me, and make me to live.

17 Behold, [¶]for peace I had great bitterness: but [†]thou hast in love to my soul delivered it from the pit of corruption: for thou hast cast all my sins behind thy back.

18 For ^athe grave cannot praise thee, death can not celebrate thee: they that go down into the pit cannot hope for thy truth.

19 The living, the living, he shall praise thee, as I do this day: [†]the father to the children shall make known thy truth.

CHAP. XXXIX.

1 Merodach-baladan sending to visit Hezekiah because of the wonder, hath notice of his treasures.

3 Isaiah understanding thereof, foretelleth the Babylonian captivity.

AT ^athat time Merodach-baladan, the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah: for he had heard that he had been sick, and was recovered.

2 ^bAnd Hezekiah was glad of them, and shewed them the house of his [¶]precious things, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the precious ointment, and all the house of his [¶]armour, and all that was found in his treasures: there was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah shewed them not.

3 ¶ Then came Isaiah the prophet unto king Hezekiah, and said unto him, What said these men? and from whence came they unto thee? And Hezekiah said, They are come from a far country unto me, even from Babylon.

4 Then said he, What have they seen in thine house? And Hezekiah answered, All that is in mine house have they seen: there is nothing among my treasures that I have not shewed them.

5 Then said Isaiah to Hezekiah, Hear the word of the LORD of hosts:

6 Behold, the days come, ^athat all that is in thine house, and that which thy fathers have laid up in store until this day, shall be carried to Babylon: nothing shall be left, saith the LORD.

7 And of thy sons that shall issue from thee, which thou shalt beget, shall they take away; and [¶]they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.

8 Then said Hezekiah to Isaiah, ^aGood is the word of the LORD which thou hast spoken. He said moreover, For there shall be peace and truth in my days.

3 ¶ ^b The voice of him that crieth in the wilderness, ^c Prepare ye the way of the LORD, ^d make straight in the desert a highway for our God.

4 Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low: ^e and the crooked shall be made ^{||} straight, and

5 And the glory of the LORD shall be re-

6 The voice said, Cry. And he said, What shall I cry? ^f All flesh ^{is} grass; and of the field:

7 The grass withereth, the flower fadeth:
because ^g the spirit of the LORD bloweth

8 The grass withereth, the flower fadeth: but ^h the word of our God shall 9 ¶ ⁱ O Zion, that bringest good tidings, get thee up into the high mountain; ^{||} O

Jerusalem, that bringest good tidings, lift up thy voice with strength; lift ^{it} up, be not afraid; say unto the cities of Judah, Behold your God!

10 Behold, the Lord God will come ^{||} with

^{||} his work before him.

11 He shall ^l feed his flock like a shepherd: he shall gather the lambs with his arm, and carry ^{them} in his bosom, and shall gently lead those ^{||} that are with young.

12 ¶ ^m Who hath measured the waters in the hollow of his hand, and meted out heaven with the span, and comprehended the dust of the earth in [†] a measure, and weighed the mountains in scales, and the hills in a balance?

13 ⁿ Who hath directed the Spirit of the LORD, or ^{being} [†] his counsellor hath taught him?

14 With whom took he counsel, and ^{who} [†] instructed him, and taught him in the path of judgement, and taught him knowledge, and shewed to him the way of [†] understanding?

15 Behold, the nations ^{are} as a drop of a bucket, and are counted as the small dust of the balance: behold, he taketh up the isles as a very little thing.

16 And Lebanon ^{is} not sufficient to burn, nor the beasts thereof sufficient for a burnt offering.

17 All nations before him ^{are} as ^o nothing; and ^p they are counted to him less than nothing, and vanity.

18 ¶ To whom then will ye ^q liken God?
or what likeness will ye compare unto him?

19 ^r The workman melteth a graven image, and the goldsmith spreadeth it over with gold, and casteth silver chains.

20 He that [†] is so impoverished that he hath no oblation chooseth a tree ^{that} will shall not be moved.

21 ^t Have ye not known? have ye not heard? hath it not been told you from the beginning? have ye not understood from the foundations of the earth?

22 ^{||} ^u It is he that sitteth upon the circle of the earth, and the inhabitants thereof ^{are} as grasshoppers; that ^v stretcheth out the heavens as a curtain, and spreadeth them out as a tent to dwell in:

23 That bringeth the ^w princes to nothing;
he maketh the judges of the earth as vanity.

24 Yea, they shall not be planted; yea, they shall not be sown: yea, their stock shall not take root in the earth: and he shall also blow upon them, and they shall wither, and the whirlwind shall take them away as stubble.

25 ^x To whom then will ye liken me, or shall I be equal? saith the Holy One.

26 ¶ Lift up your eyes upon high, and behold who hath created these ^y things, that bringeth out their host by number: ^z he callest them all by names by the greatness of his might, for that ^{he} is strong in power; not one faileth.

27 Why sayest thou, O Jacob, and speak-est, O Israel, My way is hid from the LORD, and my judgement is passed over from my God?

28 Hast thou not known? hast thou not heard, ^{aa} that the everlasting God, the LORD, the Creator of the ends of the earth, fainteth not, neither is weary? ^{ab} there is no searching of his understanding.

29 ¶ He giveth power to the faint; and to ^{ac} them ^{that} have no might he increaseth strength.

30 Even the youths shall faint and be weary, and the young men shall utterly fall:

31 But they that wait upon the LORD ^{ad} shall [†] renew ^{their} strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint.

1 The office of Christ, graced with meekness and constancy. 5 God's promise unto him. 10 An exhortation to praise God for his gospel: 17 he reproveth the people of incredulity.

2 He shall not cry, nor lift up, nor cause his voice to be heard in the street.

4 He shall not fail nor be ^f discouraged, till he have set judgement in the earth: ^g and the isles shall wait for his law.

5 ¶ Thus saith God the LORD, ^h he that created the heavens, and stretched them out; ⁱ he that spread forth the earth, and that which cometh out of it; ^j he that giveth breath unto the people upon it, and spirit to them that walk therein:

6 ^k I the LORD have called thee in righteousness, and will hold thine hand, and will keep thee, ^l and give thee for a covenant of the people, for ^m a light of the Gentiles;

7 To open the blind eyes, to ⁿ bring out the prisoners from the prison, and them that sit in ^o darkness out of the prison house.

8 I am the LORD: that is my name: and my ^p glory will I not give to another, neither my praise to graven images.

9 Behold, the former things are come to pass, and new things do I declare: before they spring forth I tell you of them.

10 ¶ Sing unto the LORD a new song, and his praise from the end of the earth; ^q ye that go down to the sea, and ^r all that is therein; the isles, and the inhabitants thereof.

11 Let the wilderness and the cities thereof lift up their voice, the villages that Kedar doth inhabit: let the inhabitants of the rock sing, let them shout from the top of the mountains.

12 Let them give glory unto the LORD, and declare his praise in the islands.

13 ¶ The LORD shall go forth as a mighty man, he shall stir up jealousy like a man of war: he shall cry, ^s yea, roar; he shall ^t prevail against his enemies.

14 I have long time holden my peace; I have been still, and refrained myself: now will I cry like a travelling woman; I will destroy and ^u devour at once.

15 I will make waste mountains and hills, and dry up all their herbs; and I will make the rivers islands, and I will dry up the pools.

16 And I will bring the blind by a way that they knew not; I will lead them in paths that they have not known: I will make darkness light before them, and crooked things ^v straight. These things will I do unto them, and not forsake them.

17 They shall be ^w turned back, they shall be greatly ashamed, that trust in graven images, that say to the molten images, Ye are our gods.

18 ¶ Hear, ye deaf; and look, ye blind, that ye may see.

19 Who is blind, but my servant? or deaf, as my messenger that I sent? who is blind as he that is perfect, and blind as the LORD's servant?

20 Seeing many things, ^x but thou observest not; opening the ears, but he heareth not.

21 The LORD is well pleased for his righteousness' sake; he will magnify the law, and make ^y it honourable.

22 But this is a people robbed and spoiled; ^z they are all of them snared in holes, and they are hid in prison houses: they are for a prey, and none delivereth; for ^{aa} a spoil, and none saith, Restore.

23 Who among you will give ear to this? who will hearken, and hear ^{ab} for the time to come?

24 Who gave Jacob for a spoil, and Israel to the robbers? did not the LORD, he against whom we have sinned? for they would not walk in his ways, neither were they obedient unto his law.

25 Therefore he hath poured upon him the fury of his anger, and the strength of battle: ^{ac} and it hath set him on fire round about, ^{ad} yet he knew not; and it burned him, yet he laid it not to heart.

not be burned; neither shall the flame kindle upon thee.

3 For I am the LORD thy God, the Holy One of Israel, thy Saviour: ^b I gave Egypt for thy ransom, Ethiopia and Seba for thee.

4 Since thou wast precious in my fight, thou hast been honourable, and I have loved thee: therefore will I give men for thee, and people for thy ^h life.

5 ⁱ Fear not: for I am with thee: I will bring thy seed from the east, and gather thee from the west;

6 I will say to the north, Give up; and to the south, Keep not back: bring my sons from far, and my daughters from the ends of the earth;

7 Even every one that is ^k called by my name: for ^l I have created him for my glory, ^m I have formed him; yea, I have made him.

8 ⁿ Bring forth the blind people that have eyes, and the deaf that have ears.

9 Let all the nations be gathered together, and let the people be assembled: ^o who among them can declare this, and shew us former things? let them bring forth their witnesses, that they may be justified: or let them hear, and say, It is truth.

10 ^p Ye are my witnesses, saith the LORD, ^q and my servant whom I have chosen: that ye may know and believe me, and understand that I am he: ^r before me there was ^h no God formed, neither shall there be after me.

11 I, even I, ^s am the LORD; and beside me there is no saviour.

12 I have declared, and have saved, and I have shewed, when there was no ^t strange god among you: ^u therefore ye are my witnesses, saith the LORD, that I am God.

13 ^x Yea, before the day was I am he; and there is none that can deliver out of my hand: I will work, and who shall ^y let it.

14 [†] Thus saith the LORD, your redeemer, the Holy One of Israel; For your sake I have sent to Babylon, and have brought down all their [†] nobles, and the Chaldeans, whose cry is in the ships.

15 I am the LORD, your Holy One, the creator of Israel, your King.

16 Thus saith the LORD, which ^z maketh a way in the sea, and a ^a path in the mighty waters;

17 Which ^b bringeth forth the chariot and horse, the army and the power; they shall lie down together, they shall not rise: they are extinct, they are quenched as tow.

18 ^c Remember ye not the former things, neither consider the things of old.

19 Behold, I will do a ^d new thing; now it shall spring forth; shall ye not know it? ^e I will even make a way in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert.

20 The beast of the field shall honour me, the dragons and the [†] owls: because ^f I give waters in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert, to give drink to my people, my chosen.

21 [†] This people have I formed for myself; they shall shew forth my praise.

22 [†] But thou hast not called upon me, O Jacob; but thou ^h hast been weary of me, O Israel.

23 ⁱ Thou hast not brought me the [†] small cattle of thy burnt offerings; neither hast thou honoured me with thy sacrifices. I have not caused thee to serve with an offering, nor wearied thee with incense.

24 Thou hast bought me no sweet cane with money, neither hast thou [†] filled me with the fat of thy sacrifices: but thou hast made me to serve with thy sins, thou hast ^k wearied me with thine iniquities.

25 I, even I, am he that ^l blotteth out thy transgressions ^m for mine own sake, ⁿ and will not remember thy sins.

26 Put me in remembrance: let us plead together: declare thou, that thou mayest be justified.

27 Thy first father hath sinned, and thy [†] teachers have transgressed against me.

28 Therefore ^o I have profaned the ^h princes of the sanctuary, ^p and have given Jacob to the curse, and Israel to reproaches.

C H A P. XLIV.

1 God comforteth the church with his promises. 7 The vanity of idols, 9 and folly of idol-makers: 21 he exhorteth to praise God for his redemption and omnipotency.

YET now hear, ^a O Jacob my servant; and Israel, whom I have chosen:

2 Thus saith the LORD that made thee, ^b and formed thee from the womb, which will help thee; Fear not, O Jacob, my servant; and thou, ^c Jesurun, whom I have chosen.

3 For I will ^d pour water upon him that is thirsty, and floods upon the dry ground: I will pour my spirit upon thy seed, and my blessing upon thine offspring:

4 And they shall spring up as among the grass, as willows by the water courses.

5 One shall say, I am the LORD's; and another shall call himself by the name of Jacob; and another shall subscribe with his hand unto the LORD, and surname himself by the name of Israel.

6 Thus saith the LORD the King of Israel, ^e and his redeemer the LORD of hosts; ^f I am the first, and I am the last: and beside me there is no God.

7 And ^awho, as I, shall call, and shall declare it, and set it in order for me, since I appointed the ancient people? and the things that are coming, and shall come, let them shew unto them.

8 Fear ye not, neither be afraid: ^bhave not I told thee from that time, and have declared it? ^cye are even my witnesses. Is there a God beside me? yea, ^dthere is no ^eGod; I know not any.

9 ¶ They that make a graven image are all of them vanity; and their ^fdelectable things shall not profit; and they are their own witnesses; ^gthey see not, nor know; that they may be ashamed.

10 Who hath formed a god, or molten a graven image ^hthat is profitable for nothing?

11 Behold, all his fellows shall be ⁱashamed: and the workmen, they are of men: let them all be gathered together, let them stand up; yet they shall fear, and they shall be ashamed together.

12 ¶ The smith ^jwith the tongs both worketh in the coals, and fashioneth it with hammers, and worketh it with the strength of his arms: yea, he is hungry, and his strength faileth: he drinketh no water, and is faint.

13 The carpenter stretcheth out ^khis rule; he marketh it out with a line; he fitteth it with planes, and he marketh it out with the compass, and maketh it after the figure of a man, according to the beauty of a man; that it may remain in the house.

14 He heweth him down cedars, and taketh the cypress and the oak, which he ^lstrengtheneth for himself among the trees of the forest: he planteth an ash, and the rain doth nourish it.

15 Then shall it be for a man to burn: for he will take thereof, and warm himself; yea, he kindleth it, and baketh bread; yea, he maketh a god, and worshippeth it; he maketh it a graven image, and falleth down thereto.

16 He burneth part thereof in the fire; with part thereof he eateth flesh; he roasteth roast, and is satisfied: yea, he warmeth himself, and saith, Aha, I am warm, I have seen the fire:

17 And the residue thereof he maketh a god, even his graven image: he falleth down unto it, and worshippeth it, and prayeth unto it, and saith, Deliver me; for thou art my god.

18 ¶ They have not known nor understood: for ^mhe hath ⁿshut their eyes, that they cannot see; and their hearts, that they cannot understand.

19 And none ^oconsidereth in his heart, neither is there knowledge nor understanding to say, I have burned part of it in the fire; yea, also I have baked bread upon the coals thereof; I have roasted flesh, and eaten it: and shall I make the residue thereof an abomination? shall I fall down to ^pthe stock of a tree?

20 He feedeth on ashes: ^qa deceived heart hath turned him aside, that he cannot deliver his soul, nor say, Is there not a lie in my right hand?

21 ¶ Remember these, O Jacob, and Israel; for ^rthou art my servant: I have formed thee; thou art my servant: O Israel, thou shalt not be forgotten of me.

22 ¶ I have blotted out, as a thick cloud, thy transgressions, and, as a cloud, thy sins: return unto me; for ^sI have redeemed thee.

23 ¶ Sing, O ye heavens; for the LORD hath done it: shout, ye lower parts of the earth: break forth into singing, ye mountains, O forest, and every tree therein: for the LORD hath redeemed Jacob, and glorified himself in Israel.

24 Thus saith the LORD, ^tthy redeemer, and ^uhe that formed thee from the womb, I am the LORD that maketh all things; ^vthat stretcheth forth the heavens alone; that spreadeth abroad the earth by myself;

25 That ^wfrustrateth the tokens ^xof the liars, and maketh diviners mad; that turneth wise men backward, ^yand maketh their knowledge foolish;

26 ¶ That confirmeth the word of his servant, and performeth the counsel of his messengers; that saith to Jerusalem, Thou shalt be inhabited; and to the cities of Judah, Ye shall be built, and I will raise up the ^zdecayed places thereof:

27 ¶ That saith to the deep, Be dry, and I will dry up thy rivers:

28 That saith of Cyrus, He is my shepherd, and shall perform all my pleasure: even saying to Jerusalem, ^{aa}Thou shalt be built; and to the temple, Thy foundation shall be laid.

CHAP. XLV.

1 God calleth Cyrus for his church's sake: 5 by his omnipotence he challengeth obedience: 20 he convinceth the idols of vanity, by his saving power.

THUS saith the LORD to his anointed, to Cyrus, whose ^{ab}right hand I ^{ac}have holden, ^{ad}to subdue nations before him; and I will loose the loins of kings, to open before him the two leaved gates; and the gates shall not be shut;

2 I will go before thee, *and make the crooked places straight: ^dI will break in pieces the gates of brass, and cut in funder the bars of iron:

3 And I will give thee the treasures of darkness, and hidden riches of secret places, *that thou mayest know that I, the LORD, which ^fcall thee by thy name, am the God of Israel.

4 For ^gJacob my servant's sake, and Israel mine elect, I have even called thee by thy name: I have surnamed thee, though thou hast ^hnot known me.

5 ¶ I ⁱ*am* the LORD, and ^k*there is none else, there is no God beside me*: ^lI girded thee, though thou hast not known me:

6 ^mThat they may know from the rising of the sun, and from the west, that there is none beside me. I am the LORD, and there is none else.

7 I form the light, and create darkness: I make peace, and ⁿcreate evil: I the LORD do all these things.

8 ^oDrop down, ye heavens, from above, and let the skies pour down righteousness: let the earth open, and let them bring forth salvation, and let righteousness spring up together; I the LORD have created it.

9 Woe unto him that striveth with ^phis Maker! Let the potsherds strive with the potsherds of the earth. ^qShall the clay say to him that fashioneth it, What makest thou? or thy work, He hath no hands?

10 Woe unto him that saith unto his father, What begettest thou? or to the woman, What hast thou brought forth?

11 Thus saith the LORD, the Holy One of Israel, and his Maker, Ask me of things to come concerning ^rmy sons, and concerning ^sthe work of my hands command ye me.

12 ^tI have made the earth, and ^ucreated man upon it: I, even my hands, have stretched out the heavens, and ^xall their host have I commanded.

13 ^yI have raised him up in righteousness, and I will ^zdirect all his ways: he shall ^abuild my city, and he shall let go my captives, ^bnot for price nor reward, saith the LORD of hosts.

14 Thus saith the LORD, ^bThe labour of Egypt, and merchandise of Ethiopia and of the Sabeans, men of stature, shall come over unto thee, and they shall be thine: they shall come after thee; ^cin chains they shall come over, and they shall fall down unto thee, they shall make supplication unto thee, saying, ^dSurely God is in thee; and ^e*there is none else, there is no God*.

15 Verily thou art a God ^fthat hidest thyself, O God of Israel, the Saviour.

16 They shall be ashamed, and also confounded, all of them: they shall go to confusion together that are ^gmakers of idols.

17 ^hBut Israel shall be saved in the LORD with an everlasting salvation: ye shall not be ashamed nor confounded world without end.

18 For thus saith the LORD ⁱthat created the heavens; ^jGod himself that formed the earth and made it; he hath established it, he created it not in vain, he formed it to be inhabited; ^kI am the LORD; and there is none else:

19 I have not spoken in ^lsecret, in a dark place of the earth: I said not unto the seed of Jacob, Seek ye me in vain: ^mI the LORD speak righteousness, I declare things that are right.

20 ¶ Assemble yourselves and come; draw near together, ye that are escaped of the nations: ⁿthey have no knowledge that set up the wood of their graven image, and pray unto a god that cannot save.

21 Tell ye, and bring them near; yea, let them take counsel together: ^owho hath declared this from ancient time? who hath told it from that time? have not I the LORD? ^pand there is no God else beside me; a just God and a Saviour; there is none beside me.

22 ¶ Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth: for I am God, and there is none else.

23 ^qI have sworn by myself, the word is gone out of my mouth in righteousness, and shall not return, That unto me every ^rknee shall bow, ^severy tongue shall swear.

24 ^tSurely, shall one say, in the LORD have I ^urighteousness and strength: even to him shall men come; and ^vall that are incensed against him shall be ashamed.

25 ^wIn the LORD shall all the seed of Israel be justified, and ^xshall glory.

gressors.

9 Remember the former things of old:
for I am God, and there is none else; I am
God, and there is none like me,

10 Declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times the things that are not yet done, saying, My counsel shall stand, and I will do all my pleasure:

11 Calling a ravenous bird from the east, the man that executeth my counsel from a far country: yea, I have spoken it, I will also bring it to pass; I have purposed it, I will also do it.

12 Hearken unto me, ye stouthearted, that are far from righteousness:

13 I bring near my righteousness; it shall not be far off, and my salvation shall not tarry: and I will place salvation in Zion for Israel my glory.

CHAP. XLVII.

1 God's judgements upon Babylon and Chaldea, 6 for their unmercifulness, 7 pride, 10 and over-boldness, 11 shall be irresistible.

COME down, and sit in the dust, O virgin daughter of Babylon, sit on the ground: there is no throne, O daughter of the Chaldeans: for thou shalt no more be called tender and delicate.

2 Take the millstones, and grind meal:
uncover thy locks, make bare the leg, uncover the thigh, pass over the rivers.

3 Thy nakedness shall be uncovered, yea, thy shame shall be seen: I will take vengeance, and I will not meet thee as a man.

4 As for our redeemer, the LORD of hosts is his name, the Holy One of Israel.

5 Sit thou silent, and get thee into darkness, O daughter of the Chaldeans: for thou shalt no more be called, The lady of kingdoms.

6 I was wroth with my people, I have polluted mine inheritance, and given them into thine hand: thou didst shew them no mercy; upon the ancient hast thou very heavily laid thy yoke.

7 And thou saidst, I shall be a lady for ever: so that thou didst not lay these things to thy heart, neither didst remember the latter end of it.

8 Therefore hear now this, thou that art given to pleasures, that dwellest carelessly, that sayest in thine heart, I am, and none else beside me; I shall not sit as a widow, neither shall I know the loss of children:

9 But these two things shall come to thee in a moment in one day, the loss of children, and widowhood: they shall come upon thee in their perfection for the multitude of thy forceries, and for the great abundance of thine enchantments.

10 For thou hast trusted in thy wickedness: thou hast said, None seeth me. Thy wisdom and thy knowledge, it hath perverted thee; and thou hast said in thine heart, I am, and none else beside me.

11 Therefore shall evil come upon thee;
thou shalt not know from whence it riseth:
and mischief shall fall upon thee; thou shalt not be able to put it off: and desolation shall come upon thee suddenly, which thou shalt not know.

12 Stand now with thine enchantments, and with the multitude of thy forceries, wherein thou hast laboured from thy youth; if so be thou shalt be able to profit, if so be thou mayest prevail.

13 Thou art wearied in the multitude of thy counsels. Let now the astrologers, the stargazers, the monthly prognosticators, stand up, and save thee from these things that shall come upon thee.

14 Behold, they shall be as stubble; the fire shall burn them; they shall not deliver themselves from the power of the flame:
there shall not be a coal to warm at, nor fire to sit before it.

15 Thus shall they be unto thee with whom thou hast laboured, even thy merchants, from thy youth: they shall wander every one to his quarter; none shall save thee.

CHAP. XLVIII.

1 God, to convince the people of their foreknown obstinacy, revealeth his prophecies; 9 he saveth them for his own sake: 12 he exhorteth them to obedience, because of his power and providence:

16 he lamenteth their backwardness: 20 he powerfully delivereth his out of Babylon.

HEAR ye this, O house of Jacob, which are called by the name of Israel, and ^aare come forth out of the waters of Judah, ^bwhich swear by the name of the LORD, and make mention of the God of Israel, ^cbut not in truth, nor in righteousness.

2 For they call themselves ^dof the holy city, and ^estay themselves upon the God of Israel; The LORD of hosts is his name.

3 I have declared the former things from the beginning; and they went forth out of my mouth, and I shewed them; I did them suddenly, ^fand they came to pass.

4 Because I knew that thou art ^gobstinate, and ^hthy neck is an iron sinew, and thy brow brais;

5 I have even from the beginning declared it to thee; before it came to pass I shewed it thee: lest thou shouldest say, Mine idol hath done them, and my graven image, and my molten image, hath commanded them.

6 Thou hast heard, see all this; and will not ye declare it? I have shewed thee new things from this time, even hidden things, and thou didst not know them.

7 They are created now, and not from the beginning; even before the day when thou heardest them not; lest thou shouldest say, Behold, I knew them.

8 Yea, thou heardest not; yea, thou knewest not; yea, from that time that thine ear was not opened: for I knew that thou wouldest deal very treacherously, and wast called ⁱa transgressor from the womb.

9 ¶ For my name's sake ^jwill I defer mine anger, and for my praise will I refrain for thee, that I cut thee not off.

10 Behold, ^kI have refined thee, but not ^lwith silver; I have chosen thee ^min the furnace of affliction.

11 ⁿFor mine own sake, even for mine own sake, will I do it: for ^ohow should my name be polluted? and ^pI will not give my glory unto another.

12 ¶ Hearken unto me, O Jacob and Israel, my called; ^qI am he; I am the ^rfirst, I also am the last.

13 ^sMine hand also hath laid the foundation of the earth, and ^tmy right hand hath spanned the heavens: when ^uI call unto them, they stand up together.

14 ^vAll ye, assemble yourselves, and hear; which among them hath declared these things? ^wThe LORD hath loved him: ^xhe will do his pleasure on Babylon, and his arm shall be on the Chaldeans.

15 I, even I, have spoken; yea, ^yI have called him: I have brought him, and he shall make his way prosperous.

16 ¶ Come ye near unto me, hear ye this; ^zI have not spoken in secret from the beginning; from the time that it was, there am I: and now ^{aa}the Lord God, and his Spirit, hath sent me.

17 Thus saith ^{ab}the LORD, thy Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel; I am the LORD thy God which teacheth thee to profit, ^{ac}which leadeth thee by the way that thou shouldest go.

18 ^{ad}O that thou hadst hearkened to my commandments! ^{ae}then had thy peace been as a river, and thy righteousness as the waves of the sea:

19 ^{af}Thy seed also had been as the sand, and the offspring of thy bowels like the gravel thereof; his name should not have been cut off nor destroyed from before me.

20 ¶ ^{ag}Go ye forth of Babylon, flee ye from the Chaldeans, with a voice of singing declare ye, tell this, utter it even to the end of the earth; say ye, The LORD hath ^{ah}redeemed his servant Jacob.

21 And they ^{ai}thirsted not when he led them through the deserts: he ^{aj}caused the waters to flow out of the rock for them: he clave the rock also, and the waters gushed out.

22 ^{ak}There is no peace, saith the LORD, unto the wicked.

CHAP. XLIX.

1 Christ, being sent to the Jews, complaineth of them: 5 he is sent to the Gentiles with gracious promises. 13 God's love is perpetual to his church. 18 The ample restoration of the church. 24 The powerful deliverance out of captivity.

LITSEN, ^{al}O isles, unto me; and hearken, ye people, from far; ^{am}The LORD hath called me from the womb; from the bowels of my mother hath he made mention of my name.

2 And he hath made ^{an}my mouth like a sharp sword; ^{ao}in the shadow of his hand hath he hid me, and made me ^{ap}a polished shaft; in his quiver hath he hid me;

3 And said unto me, ^{aq}Thou art my servant, O Israel, ^{ar}in whom I will be glorified.

4 ^{as}Then I said, I have laboured in vain, I have spent my strength for nought, and in vain: yet surely my judgement is with the LORD, and ^{at}my work with my God.

5 ¶ And now, saith the LORD ^{au}that formed me from the womb to be his servant, to bring Jacob again to him, ^{av}Though Israel ^{aw}be not gathered, yet shall I be glorious in the eyes of the LORD, and my God shall be my strength.

6 And he said, "It is a light thing that thou shouldest be my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob, and to restore the preserved of Israel: I will also give thee for a light to the Gentiles, that thou mayest be my salvation unto the end of the earth.

7 Thus saith the LORD, the redeemer of Israel, and his Holy One, "to him whom man despiseth, to him whom the nation abhorreth, to a servant of rulers, kings shall see and arise, princes also shall worship, because of the LORD that is faithful, and the Holy One of Israel, and he shall choose thee.

8 Thus saith the LORD, "In an acceptable time have I heard thee, and in a day of salvation have I helped thee: and I will preserve thee, and give thee for a covenant of the people, to establish the earth, to cause to inherit the desolate heritages;

9 That thou mayest say to the prisoners, Go forth; to them that are in darkness, Shew yourselves. They shall feed in the ways, and their pastures shall be in all high places.

10 They shall not hunger nor thirst; neither shall the heat nor sun smite them: for he that hath mercy on them shall lead them, even by the springs of water shall he guide them.

11 And I will make all my mountains a way, and my highways shall be exalted.

12 Behold, these shall come from far: and, lo, these from the north and from the west; and these from the land of Sinim.

13 Sing, O heavens; and be joyful, O earth; and break forth into singing, O mountains: for the LORD hath comforted his people, and will have mercy upon his afflicted.

14 But Zion said, The LORD hath forsaken me, and my Lord hath forgotten me.

15 Can a woman forget her sucking child, that she should not have compassion on the son of her womb? yea, they may forget, yet will I not forget thee.

16 Behold, I have graven thee upon the palms of my hands; thy walls are continually before me.

17 Thy children shall make haste; thy destroyers and they that made thee waste shall go forth of thee.

18 Lift up thine eyes round about, and behold: all these gather themselves together, and come to thee. As I live, saith the LORD, thou shalt surely clothe thee with them all, as with an ornament, and bind them on thee, as a bride doeth.

19 For thy waste and thy desolate places, and the land of thy destruction, shall even now be too narrow by reason of the inhabitants, and they that swallowed thee up shall be far away.

20 The children which thou shalt have, after thou hast lost the other, shall say again in thine ears, The place is too strait for me: give place to me that I may dwell.

21 Then shalt thou say in thine heart, Who hath begotten me these, seeing I have lost my children, and am desolate, a captive, and removing to and fro? and who hath brought up these? Behold, I was left alone; these, where had they been?

22 Thus saith the LORD GOD, Behold, I will lift up mine hand to the Gentiles, and set up my standard to the people: and they shall bring thy sons in their arms, and thy daughters shall be carried upon their shoulders.

23 And kings shall be thy nursing fathers, and their queens thy nursing mothers: they shall bow down to thee with their face toward the earth, and lick up the dust of thy feet; and thou shalt know that I am the LORD: for they shall not be ashamed that wait for me.

24 Shall the prey be taken from the mighty, or the lawful captive delivered?

25 But thus saith the LORD, Even the captives of the mighty shall be taken away, and the prey of the terrible shall be delivered: for I will contend with him that contendeth with thee, and I will save thy children.

26 And I will feed them that oppress thee with their own flesh; and they shall be drunken with their own blood, as with sweet wine: and all flesh shall know that I the LORD am thy Saviour and thy Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.

CHAP. L.

1 Christ sheweth, that the dereliction of the Jews is not to be imputed to him, by his ability to save, 5 by his obedience in that work, 7 and by his confidence in God's assistance. 10 An exhortation to trust in God, and not in ourselves.

THUS saith the LORD, Where is a the bill of your mother's divorcement, whom I have put away? or which of my creditors is it to whom I have sold you? Behold, for your iniquities have ye sold yourselves, and for your transgressions is your mother put away.

deliver? behold, ' at my rebuke I ' dry up the sea, I make the ' rivers a wilderness: ' their fish stinketh, because there is no water, and dieth for thirst.

3 ' I clothe the heavens with blackness; ' and I make sackcloth their covering.

4 ' The Lord God hath given me the tongue of the learned, that I should know how to speak a word in season to him that is weary: he wakeneth morning by morning, he wakeneth mine ear to hear as the learned.

5 ' The Lord God ' hath opened mine ear, and I was not ' rebellious, neither turned away back.

6 ' I gave my back to the smiters, and ' my cheeks to them that plucked off the hair: I hid not my face from shame and spitting.

7 ' For the Lord God will help me; therefore shall I not be confounded: therefore have ' I set my face like a flint, and I know that I shall not be ashamed.

8 ' He is near that justifieth me; who will contend with me? let us stand together: who is ' mine adversary? let him come near to me.

9 Behold, the Lord God will help me; who is he that shall condemn me? ' lo, they all shall wax old as a garment; ' the moth shall eat them up.

10 ' Who is among you that feareth the LORD, that obeyeth the voice of his servant, that ' walketh in darkness, and hath no light? ' let him trust in the name of the LORD, and stay upon his God.

11 Behold, all ye that kindle a fire, that compass yourself about with sparks: walk in the light of your fire, and in the sparks that ye have kindled. ' This shall ye have of mine hand; ye shall lie down ' in sorrow.

CHAP. LI.

1 An exhortation, after the pattern of Abraham, to trust in Christ, 3 by reason of his comfortable promises, 4 of his righteous salvation, 7 and man's mortality. 9 Christ by his sanctified arm defendeth his from the fear of man: 17 he bewaileth the affliction of Jerusalem, 21 and promiseth deliverance.

HEARKEN ' to me, ' ye that follow After righteousness, ye that seek the LORD: look unto the rock whence ye are hewn, and to the hole of the pit whence ye are digged.

2 ' Look unto Abraham your father, and unto Sarah that bare you: ' for I called him alone, and ' blessed him, and increased him.

3 For the LORD ' shall comfort Zion: he will comfort all her waste places; and he will make her wilderness like Eden, and her desert ' like the garden of the LORD; joy and gladness shall be found therein, thanksgiving, and the voice of melody.

4 ' Hearken unto me, my people; and give ear unto me, O my nation: ' for a law shall proceed from me, and I will make my judgement to rest ' for a light of the people.

5 ' My righteousness is near; my salvation is gone forth, ' and mine arms shall judge the people; ' the isles shall wait upon me, and ' on mine arm shall they trust.

6 ' Lift up your eyes to the heavens, and look upon the earth beneath: for ' the heavens shall vanish away like smoke, ' and the earth shall wax old like a garment, and they that dwell therein shall die in like manner: but my salvation shall be for ever, and my righteousness shall not be abolished.

7 ' Hearken unto me, ye that know righteousness, the people ' in whose heart is my law; ' fear ye not the reproach of men, neither be ye afraid of their revilings.

8 For ' the moth shall eat them up like a garment, and the worm shall eat them like wool: but my righteousness shall be for ever, and my salvation from generation to generation.

9 ' Awake, awake, ' put on strength, O arm of the LORD; awake, ' as in the ancient days, in the generations of old. ' Art thou not it that hath cut ' Rahab, and wounded the ' dragon?

10 Art thou not it which hath ' dried the sea, the waters of the great deep; that hath made the depths of the sea a way for the ransomed to pass over?

11 Therefore ' the redeemed of the LORD shall return, and come with singing unto Zion; and everlasting joy shall be upon their head: they shall obtain gladness and joy; and sorrow and mourning shall flee away.

12 ' I, even I, am he ' that comforteth you: who art thou, that thou shouldest be afraid ' of a man that shall die, and of the son of man which shall be made ' as grass;

13 And forgettest the LORD thy maker, ' that hath stretched forth the heavens, and laid the foundations of the earth; and hast feared continually every day because of the fury of the oppressor, as if he ' were ready to destroy? ' and where is the fury of the oppressor?

14 The captive exile hasteneth that he may be loosed, ' and that he should not die in the pit, nor that his bread should fail.

15 But I am the LORD thy God, that ' divided the sea, whose waves roared: The LORD of hosts is his name.

16 And ^a I have put my words in thy mouth, and ^b I have covered thee in the shadow of mine hand, ^c that I may plant the heavens, and lay the foundations of the earth, and say unto Zion, Thou art my people.

17 ¶ ^a Awake, awake, stand up, O Jerusalem, which ^b hast drunk at the hand of the LORD the cup of his fury; ^c thou hast drunken the dregs of the cup of trembling, and wrung them out.

18 There is none to guide her among all the sons whom she hath brought forth; neither is there any that taketh her by the hand of all the sons that she hath brought up.

19 ^a These two things ^b † are come unto thee; who shall be sorry for thee? desolation, and ^c † destruction, and the famine, and the sword: ^d by whom shall I comfort thee?

20 ^a Thy sons have fainted, they lie at the head of all the streets, as a wild bull in a net: they are full of the fury of the LORD, the rebuke of thy God.

21 ¶ Therefore hear now this, thou afflicted, and drunken, ^b but not with wine:

22 Thus saith thy Lord the LORD, and thy God ^a that pleadeth the cause of his people, Behold, I have taken out of thine hand the cup of trembling, even the dregs of the cup of my fury; thou shalt no more drink it again:

23 But ^a I will put it into the hand of them that afflict thee; ^b which have said to thy soul, Bow down, that we may go over: and thou hast laid thy body as the ground, and as the street, to them that went over.

CHAP. LII.

1 Christ persuadeth the church to believe his free redemption, 7 to receive the ministers thereof, 9 to joy in the power thereof, 11 and to free themselves from bondage. 13 Christ's kingdom shall be exalted.

AWAKE, ^a awake; put on thy strength, O Zion; put on thy beautiful garments, O Jerusalem, ^b the holy city: for ^c henceforth there shall no more come into thee the uncircumcised ^d and the unclean.

2 ^a Shake thyself from the dust; arise, and sit down, O Jerusalem; ^b loose thyself from the bands of thy neck, O captive daughter of Zion.

3 For thus saith the LORD, ^a Ye have sold yourselves for nought; and ye shall be redeemed without money.

4 For thus saith the Lord God, My people went down aforetime into ^a Egypt to sojourn there; and the Assyrian oppressed them without cause.

5 Now therefore, what have I here, saith the LORD, that my people is taken away for nought? they that rule over them make them to howl, saith the LORD; and my name continually every day ^a is blasphemed.

6 Therefore my people shall know my name: therefore they shall know in that day that I am he that doth speak: behold, it is I.

7 ¶ ^a How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace; that bringeth good tidings of good, that publisheth salvation; that saith unto Zion, ^b Thy God reigneth!

8 Thy watchmen shall lift up the voice; with the voice together shall they sing: for they shall see eye to eye, when the LORD shall bring again Zion.

9 ¶ Break forth into joy, sing together, ye waste places of Jerusalem: ^a for the LORD hath comforted his people, ^b he hath redeemed Jerusalem.

10 ^a The LORD hath made bare his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations; and ^b all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God.

11 ¶ Depart ye, depart ye, go ye out from thence, touch no unclean thing; go ye out of the midst of her; ^a be ye clean, that bear the vessels of the LORD.

12 For ^a ye shall not go out with haste, nor go by flight: ^b for the LORD will go before you; ^c and the God of Israel will ^d be your rereward.

13 ¶ Behold, ^a my servant shall ^b deal prudently, ^c he shall be exalted and extolled, and be very high.

14 As many were astonished at thee; his ^a visage was so marred more than any man, and his form more than the sons of men:

15 ^a So shall he sprinkle many nations; ^b the kings shall shut their mouths at him: for that ^c which had not been told them shall they see; and that which they had not heard shall they consider.

CHAP. LIII.

ness; and when we shall see him, there is no beauty that we should desire him.

3 ° He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief: and † we hid as it were our faces from him; he was despised, and ° we esteemed him not.

4 ¶ Surely ° he hath borne our grief and carried our sorrows: yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted.

5 But he was † wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his ° stripes we are healed.

6 † All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the LORD † hath laid on him the iniquity of us all.

7 He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet ° he opened not his mouth: ° he is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so he openeth not his mouth.

8 † He was taken from prison and from judgement: and who shall declare his generation? for ° he was cut off out of the land of the living: for the transgression of my people † was he stricken.

9 ° And he made his grave with the wicked, and with the rich in his † death; because he had done no violence, neither was any ° deceit in his mouth.

10 ¶ Yet it pleased the LORD to bruise him; he hath put him to grief: † when thou shalt make his soul ° an offering for sin, he shall see his seed, ° he shall prolong his days, and ° the pleasure of the LORD shall prosper in his hand.

11 He shall see of the travail of his soul, and shall be satisfied: ° by his knowledge shall ° my righteous ° servant ° justify many; ° for he shall bear their iniquities.

12 ° Therefore will I divide him a portion with the great, ° and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; † because he hath poured out his soul unto death: and he was ° numbered with the transgressors; and he bare the sin of many, and ° made intercession for the transgressors.

C H A P. LIV.

1 The prophet, for the comfort of the Gentiles, prophesieth the amplitude of their church, 4 their safety, 6 their certain deliverance out of affliction, 11 their fair edification, 15 and their sure preservation.

*S*ING, O barren, thou that didst not bear; break forth into singing, and cry aloud, thou that didst not travail with child:

for ° more are the children of the desolate than the children of the married wife, saith the LORD.

2 ° Enlarge the place of thy tent, and let them stretch forth the curtains of thine habitations: spare not, lengthen thy cords, and strengthen thy stakes;

3 For thou shalt break forth on the right hand and on the left; ° and thy seed shall inherit the Gentiles, and make the desolate cities to be inhabited.

4 ¶ Fear not; for thou shalt not be ashamed: neither be thou confounded; for thou shalt not be put to shame: for thou shalt forget the shame of thy youth, and shalt not remember the reproach of thy widowhood any more.

5 ° For thy Maker is thine husband; the LORD of hosts is his name; and thy Redeemer the Holy One of Israel; ° The God of the whole earth shall he be called.

6 For the LORD ° hath called thee as a woman forsaken and grieved in spirit, and a wife of youth; when thou wast refused, saith thy God.

7 † For a small moment have I forsaken thee; but with great mercies will I gather thee;

8 In a little wrath I hid my face from thee for a moment; ° but with everlasting kindness will I have mercy on thee, saith the LORD thy Redeemer.

9 For this is as the waters of † Noah unto me: for as I have sworn that the waters of Noah should no more go over the earth; so have I sworn that I would not be wroth with thee, nor rebuke thee.

10 For ° the mountains shall depart, and the hills be removed; ° but my kindness shall not depart from thee, neither shall the covenant of my peace be removed, saith the LORD that hath mercy on thee.

11 ¶ O thou afflicted, tossed with tempest, and not comforted, behold, I will lay thy stones with ° fair colours, and lay thy foundations with sapphires.

12 And I will make thy windows of agates, and thy gates of carbuncles, and all thy borders of pleasant stones.

13 And all thy children shall be ° taught of the LORD; and ° great shall be the peace of thy children.

14 In righteousness shalt thou be established: thou shalt be far from oppression; for thou shalt not fear: and from terror; for it shall not come near thee.

15 ¶ Behold, they shall surely gather together, but not by me: whosoever shall gather together against thee shall fall for thy sake.

17 No weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper; and every tongue that shall rise against thee in judgement thou shalt condemn. This is the heritage of the servants of the LORD, and their righteousness is of me, saith the LORD.

CHAP. LV.

1 The prophet, with the promises of Christ, calleth to faith, 6 and to repentance. 8 The happy state of them that believe.

HO, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy, and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price.

2 Wherefore do ye spend money for that which is not bread? and your labour for that which satisfieth not? hearken diligently unto me, and eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness.

3 Incline your ear, and come unto me: hear, and your soul shall live; and I will make an everlasting covenant with you, even the sure mercies of David.

4 Behold, I have given him for a witness to the people, a leader and commander to the people.

5 Behold, thou shalt call a nation that thou knowest not, and nations that knew not thee shall run unto thee because of the LORD thy God, and for the Holy One of Israel; for he hath glorified thee.

6 Seek ye the LORD while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near:

7 Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the LORD, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon.

8 For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the LORD.

9 For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts.

10 For as the rain cometh down, and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower, and bread to the eater:

11 So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it.

12 For ye shall go out with joy, and be led forth with peace: the mountains and the hills shall break forth before you into singing, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands.

13 Instead of the thorn shall come up the fir tree, and instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle tree: and it shall be to the LORD for a name, for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off.

CHAP. LVI.

1 The prophet exhorteth to sanctification: 3 he promiseteth it shall be accepted without respect of persons; 9 he inveigheth against blind watchmen.

THUS saith the LORD, Keep ye judgement, and do justice: for my salvation is near to come, and my righteousness to be revealed.

2 Blessed is the man that doeth this, and the son of man that layeth hold on it; that keepeth the sabbath from polluting it, and keepeth his hand from doing any evil.

3 Neither let the son of the stranger, that hath joined himself to the LORD, speak, saying, The LORD hath utterly separated me from his people: neither let the eunuch say, Behold, I am a dry tree.

4 For thus saith the LORD unto the eunuchs that keep my sabbaths, and choose the things that please me, and take hold of my covenant;

5 Even unto them will I give in mine house and within my walls a place and a name better than of sons and of daughters: I will give them an everlasting name, that shall not be cut off.

6 Also the sons of the stranger, that join themselves to the LORD, to serve him, and to love the name of the LORD, to be his servants, every one that keepeth the sabbath from polluting it, and taketh hold of my covenant;

7 Even them will I bring to my holy mountain, and make them joyful in my house of prayer: their burnt offerings and their sacrifices shall be accepted upon mine altar; for mine house shall be called an house of prayer for all people.

8 The LORD God which gathereth the outcasts of Israel saith, Yet will I gather others to him, beside those that are gathered unto him.

9 All ye beasts of the field, come to devour, yea, all ye beasts in the forest.

10 His watchmen are blind: they are all ignorant, they are all dumb dogs, they

C H A P. LVII.

1 The blessed death of the righteous. 3 God reproveth the Jews for their whorish idolatry: 13 he giveth evangelical promises to the penitent.

THE righteous perisheth, and no man layeth it to heart: and [†]merciful men are taken away, none considering that the righteous is taken away from the evil to come.

2 He shall enter into peace: they shall rest in [†]their beds, each one walking in his uprightness.

3 But draw near hither, ye sons of the forceress, the seed of the adulterer and the whore.

4 Against whom do ye sport yourselves? against whom make ye a wide mouth, and draw out the tongue? are ye not children of transgression, a seed of falsehood,

5 Enslaving yourselves with idols under every green tree, slaying the children in the valleys under the clefts of the rocks?

6 Among the smooth stones of the stream is thy portion; they, they are thy lot: even to them hast thou poured a drink offering, thou hast offered a meat offering. Should I receive comfort in these?

7 Upon a lofty and high mountain hast thou set thy bed: even thither wentest thou up to offer sacrifice.

8 Behind the doors also and the posts hast thou set up thy remembrance: for thou hast discovered thyself to another than me, and art gone up; thou hast enlarged thy bed, and made thee a covenant with them; thou lovedst their bed where thou sawest it.

9 And thou wentest to the king with ointment, and didst increase thy perfumes, and didst send thy messengers far off, and didst debase thyself even unto hell.

10 Thou art wearied in the greatness of thy way; yet saidst thou not, There is no hope; thou hast found the life of thine hand; therefore thou wast not grieved.

11 And of whom hast thou been afraid or feared, that thou hast lied, and hast not remembered me, nor laid it to thy heart? have not I held my peace even of old, and thou fearest me not?

12 I will declare thy righteousness, and thy works; for they shall not profit thee.

13 When thou criest, let thy companies deliver thee; but the wind shall carry them all away; vanity shall take them: but he that putteth his trust in me shall possess the land, and shall inherit my holy mountain;

14 And shall say, Cast ye up, cast ye up, prepare the way, take up the stumbling block out of the way of my people.

15 For thus saith the high and lofty One that inhabiteth eternity, whose name is Holy; I dwell in the high and holy place, with him also that is of a contrite and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the heart of the contrite ones.

16 For I will not contend for ever, neither will I be always wroth: for the spirit should fail before me, and the souls which I have made.

17 For the iniquity of his covetousness was I wroth, and smote him: I hid me, and was wroth, and he went on frowardly in the way of his heart.

18 I have seen his ways, and will heal him: I will lead him also, and restore comforts unto him and to his mourners.

19 I create the fruit of the lips; Peace, peace to him that is far off, and to him that is near, saith the LORD; and I will heal him.

20 But the wicked are like the troubled sea, when it cannot rest, whose waters cast up mire and dirt.

21 There is no peace, saith my God, to the wicked.

C H A P. LVIII.

1 The prophet, being sent to reprove hypocrisy, 3 expresseth a counterfeit fast and a true: 8 he declareth what promises are due unto godliness, 13 and to the keeping of the sabbath.

CRY aloud, spare not, lift up thy voice like a trumpet, and shew my people their transgression, and the house of Jacob their sins.

2 Yet they seek me daily, and delight to know my ways, as a nation that did righteousness, and forsook not the ordinance of their God: they ask of me the ordinances of justice; they take delight in approaching to God.

3 Wherefore have we fasted, say they, and thou seest not? wherefore have we afflicted our soul, and thou takest no knowledge? Behold, in the day of your fast ye find pleasure, and exact all your [†]labours.

4 Behold, ye fast for strife and debate, and to smite with the fist of wickedness: ye shall not fast as ye do this day, to make your voice to be heard on high.

5 Is it ^d such a fast that I have chosen? ^e a day for a man to afflict his soul? ^f is it to bow down his head as a bulrush, and ^g to spread sackcloth and ashes under him? wilt thou call this a fast, and an acceptable day to the LORD?

6 Is not this the fast that I have chosen? to loose the bands of wickedness, ^h to undo ⁱ the heavy burdens, and ^j to let the ^k oppressed go free, and that ye break every yoke?

7 Is it not ^l to deal thy bread to the hungry, and that thou bring the poor that are ^m cast out to thy house? ⁿ when thou seest the naked, that thou cover him; and that thou hide not thyself from ^o thine own flesh?

8 ¶ Then shall thy light break forth as the morning, and thine health shall spring forth speedily: and thy righteousness shall go before thee; ^p the glory of the LORD shall be thy rereward.

9 Then shalt thou call, and the LORD shall answer; thou shalt cry, and he shall say, Here I am. If thou take away from the midst of thee the yoke, the putting forth of the finger, and ^q speaking vanity;

10 And if thou draw out thy soul to the hungry, and satisfy the afflicted soul; then shall thy light rise on obscurity, and thy darkness be as the noon day:

11 And the LORD shall guide thee continually, and satisfy thy soul in ^r drought, and make fat thy bones: and thou shalt be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water, whose waters ^s fail not.

12 And they that shall be of thee ^t shall build the old waste places: thou shalt raise up the foundations of many generations; and thou shalt be called, The repairer of the breach, The restorer of paths to dwell in.

13 ¶ If ^u thou turn away thy foot from the sabbath, from doing thy pleasure on my holy day; and call the sabbath a delight, the holy of the LORD, honourable; and shalt honour him, not doing thine own ways, nor finding thine own pleasure, nor speaking ^v thine own words:

14 Then shalt thou delight thyself in the LORD; and I will cause thee to ^w ride upon the high places of the earth, and feed thee with the heritage of Jacob thy father: ^x for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken ^y it.

CHAP. LIX.

1 The damnable nature of sin. 3 The sins of the Jews. 8 Calamity is for sin. 16 Salvation is only of God. 20 The covenant of the Redeemer.

BEHOLD, the LORD's hand is not ^z shortened, that it cannot save; neither his ear heavy, that it cannot hear:

2 But your iniquities have separated between you and your God, and your sins ^{aa} have hid his face from you, that he will not hear.

3 For ^{ab} your hands are defiled with blood, and your fingers with iniquity; your lips have spoken lies, your tongue hath muttered perverseness.

4 None calleth for justice, nor any pleadeth for truth: they trust in vanity, and speak lies; ^{ac} they conceive mischief, and bring forth iniquity.

5 They hatch ^{ad} cockatrice' eggs, and weave the spider's web; he that eateth of their eggs dieth, and ^{ae} that which is crushed breaketh out into a viper.

6 Their webs shall not become garments, neither shall they cover themselves with their works: their works are works of iniquity, and the act of violence is in their hands.

7 Their feet run to evil, and they make haste to shed innocent blood: their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity; wasting and ^{af} destruction are in their paths.

8 The way of peace they know not; and there is no ^{ag} judgement in their goings: they have made them crooked paths: whosoever goeth therein shall not know peace.

9 Therefore is judgement far from us, neither doth justice overtake us: ^{ah} we wait for light, but behold obscurity; for brightness, but we walk in darkness.

10 We grope for the wall like the blind, and we grope as if we had no eyes: we stumble at noon day as in the night; we are in desolate places as dead men.

11 We roar all like bears, and ^{ai} mourn fore like doves: we look for judgement, but there is none; for salvation, but it is far off from us.

12 For our transgressions are multiplied before thee, and our sins testify against us: for our transgressions are with us; and as for our iniquities, we know them;

13 In transgressing and lying against the LORD, and departing away from our God, speaking oppression and revolt, conceiving and uttering ^{aj} from the heart words of falsehood.

14 And judgement is turned away backward, and justice standeth afar off: for truth is fallen in the street, and equity cannot enter.

16 ¶ And he saw that there was no man, and *⁹*wondered that there was no intercessor: *⁹*therefore his arm brought salvation unto him; and his righteousness, it sustained him.

17 *⁹*For he put on righteousness as a breastplate, and an helmet of salvation upon his head; and he put on the garments of vengeance for clothing, and was clad with zeal as a cloke.

18 *⁹*According to their *†*deeds, accordingly he will repay, fury to his adversaries, recompence to his enemies; *⁹*to the islands he will repay recompence.

19 *⁹*So shall they fear the name of the LORD from the west, and his glory from the rising of the sun. When the enemy shall come in *⁹*like a flood, the Spirit of the LORD shall *⁹*lift up a standard against him.

20 ¶ And *⁹*the Redeemer shall come to Zion, and unto them that turn from transgression in Jacob, saith the LORD.

21 *⁹*As for me, this is my covenant with them, saith the LORD; My spirit that is upon thee, and my words which I have put in thy mouth, shall not depart out of thy mouth, nor out of the mouth of thy seed, nor out of the mouth of thy seed's seed, saith the LORD, from henceforth and for ever.

CHAP. LX.

1 The glory of the church in the abundant access of the Gentiles, 15 and the great blessings after a short affliction.

ARISE, *⁹*shine; for thy light is come, and *⁹*the glory of the LORD is risen upon thee.

2 For, behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the people: but the LORD shall arise upon thee, and his glory shall be seen upon thee.

3 And the *⁹*Gentiles shall come to thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising.

4 *⁹*Lift up thine eyes round about, and see: all they gather themselves together, *⁹*they come to thee: thy sons shall come from far, and thy daughters shall be nursed at thy side.

5 Then thou shalt see, and flow together, and thine heart shall fear, and be enlarged; because *⁹*the *⁹*abundance of the sea shall be converted unto thee, the *⁹*forces of the Gentiles shall come unto thee.

6 The multitude of camels shall cover thee, the dromedaries of Midian and *⁹*Ephah; all they from *⁹*Sheba shall come: they shall bring *⁹*gold and incense; and they shall shew forth the praises of the LORD.

7 All the flocks of *⁹*Kedar shall be gathered together unto thee, the rams of Nebaioth shall minister unto thee: they shall come up with acceptance on mine altar, and *⁹*I will glorify the house of my glory.

8 Who are these that fly as a cloud, and as the doves to their windows?

9 *⁹*Surely the isles shall wait for me, and the ships of Tarshish first, *⁹*to bring thy sons from far, *⁹*their silver and their gold with them, *⁹*unto the name of the LORD thy God, and to the Holy One of Israel, *⁹*because he hath glorified thee.

10 And *⁹*the sons of strangers shall build up thy walls, *⁹*and their kings shall minister unto thee: for *⁹*in my wrath I smote thee, *⁹*but in my favour have I had mercy on thee.

11 Therefore thy gates *⁹*shall be open continually; they shall not be shut day nor night; that men may bring unto thee the *⁹*forces of the Gentiles, and that their kings may be brought.

12 *⁹*For the nation and kingdom that will not serve thee shall perish; yea, those nations shall be utterly wasted.

13 *⁹*The glory of Lebanon shall come unto thee, the fir tree, the pine tree, and the box together, to beautify the place of my sanctuary; and I will make *⁹*the place of my feet glorious.

14 The sons also of them that afflicted thee shall come bending unto thee; and all they that despised thee shall *⁹*bow themselves down at the soles of thy feet; and they shall call thee, The city of the LORD, *⁹*The Zion of the Holy One of Israel.

15 ¶ Whereasthou hast been forsaken and hated, so that no man went through thee, I will make thee an eternal excellency, a joy of many generations.

16 Thou shalt also suck the milk of the Gentiles, *⁹*and shalt suck the breast of kings: and thou shalt know that *⁹*I the LORD am thy Saviour and thy Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.

17 For brass I will bring gold, and for iron I will bring silver, and for wood brass, and for stones iron: I will also make thy officers peace, and thine exactors righteousness.

18 Violence shall no more be heard in thy land, wasting nor destruction within thy borders; but thou shalt call thy walls Salvation, and thy gates Praise.

21 ^k Thy people also shall be all righteous: ¹ they shall inherit the land for ever, ^m the branch of my planting, ⁿ the work of my hands, that I may be glorified.

CHAP. LXI.

¹ The office of Christ. ⁴ The forwardness, ⁷ and blessings of the faithful.

THE ^a Spirit of the LORD God is upon me; because the LORD ^b hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek; he hath sent me ^c to bind up the broken-hearted, to proclaim ^d liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound;

2 ^e To proclaim the acceptable year of the LORD, and ^f the day of vengeance of our God; ^g to comfort all that mourn;

3 To appoint unto them that mourn in Zion, ^h to give unto them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called trees of righteousness, ⁱ the planting of the LORD, ^k that he might be glorified.

4 ^l And they shall ¹ build the old wastes, they shall raise up the former desolations, and they shall repair the waste cities, the desolations of many generations.

5 And ^m strangers shall stand and feed your flocks, and the sons of the alien shall be your plowmen and your vinedressers.

6 ⁿ But ye shall be named the Priests of the LORD: men shall call you the Ministers of our God: ^o ye shall eat the riches of the Gentiles, and in their glory shall ye boast yourselves.

7 ^p For your shame ye shall have double; and for confusion they shall rejoice in their portion: therefore in their land they shall possess the double: everlasting joy shall be unto them.

8 For ^q I the LORD love judgement, ^r I hate robbery for burnt offering; and I will direct their work in truth, ^s and I will make an everlasting covenant with them.

9 And their seed shall be known among the Gentiles, and their offspring among the people: all that see them shall acknowledge them, ^t that they are the seed which the LORD hath blessed.

10 ^u I will greatly rejoice in the LORD, my soul shall be joyful in my God; for ^v he hath clothed me with the garments of salvation, he hath covered me with the robe of righteousness, ^w as a bridegroom ^x decketh himself with ornaments, and as a bride adorneth herself with her jewels.

11 For as the earth bringeth forth her bud, and as the garden causeth the things that are sown in it to spring forth; so the Lord God will cause ^y righteousness and ^z praise to spring forth before all the nations:

CHAP. LXII.

¹ The fervent desire of the prophet to confirm the church in God's promises. ⁵ The office of the ministers (unto which they are incited) in preaching the gospel, ¹⁰ and preparing the people thereto.

FOR Zion's sake will I not hold my peace, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest, until the righteousness thereof go forth as brightness, and the salvation thereof as a lamp that burneth.

2 ^a And the Gentiles shall see thy righteousness, and all kings thy glory: ^b and thou shalt be called by a new name, which the mouth of the LORD shall name.

3 Thou shalt also be ^c a crown of glory in the hand of the LORD, and a royal diadem in the hand of thy God.

4 ^d Thou shalt no more be termed ^e Forfaken; neither shall thy land any more be termed ^f Desolate: but thou shalt be called ^g Hephzi-bah, and thy land ^h Beulah: for the LORD delighteth in thee, and thy land shall be married.

5 For as a young man marrieth a virgin, so shall thy sons marry thee: and ⁱ as the bridegroom rejoiceth over the bride, so ^j shall thy God rejoice over thee.

6 ^k I have set watchmen upon thy walls, O Jerusalem, which shall never hold their peace day nor night: ^l ye that make mention of the LORD, keep not silence.

7 And give him no ^m rest, till he establish, and till he make Jerusalem ⁿ a praise in the earth.

8 ^o The LORD hath sworn by his right hand, and by the arm of his strength, ^p Surely I will no more ^q give thy corn to be meat for thine enemies; and the sons of the stranger shall not drink thy wine, for the which thou hast laboured:

10 ¶ Go through, go through the gates;
prepare ye the way of the people; cast up, cast up the highway; gather out the stones;
lift up a standard for the people.

11 Behold, the LORD hath proclaimed unto the end of the world, ° Say ye to the daughter of Zion, Behold, thy salvation cometh; behold, his ° reward is with him, and his ° work before him.

12 And they shall call them, The holy people, The redeemed of the LORD: and thou shalt be called, Sought out, A city ° not forsaken.

CHAP. LXIII.

1 Christ sheweth who is, ° what his victory over his enemies, ° 7 and what his mercy toward his church, ° 10 In his just wrath he remembereth his free mercy, ° 15 The church in their prayer, 17 and complaint, profess their faith.

WHO is this that cometh from Edom, with dyed garments from Bozrah?
this that is ° glorious in his apparel, travelling in the greatness of his strength? I that speak in righteousness, mighty to save.

2 Wherefore ° art thou red in thine apparel, and thy garments like him that treadeth in the winefat?

3 I have ° trodden the winepress alone;
and of the people there was none with me:
for I will tread them in mine anger, and trample them in my fury; and their blood shall be sprinkled upon my garments, and I will stain all my raiment.

4 For the ° day of vengeance is in mine heart, and the year of my redeemed is come.

5 ° And I looked, and ° there was none to help; and I wondered that there was none to uphold: therefore mine own ° arm brought salvation unto me; and my fury, it upheld me.

6 And I will tread down the people in mine anger, and ° make them drunk in my fury, and I will bring down their strength to the earth.

7 ¶ I will mention the lovingkindnesses of the LORD, and the praises of the LORD, according to all that the LORD hath bestowed on us, and the great goodness toward the house of Israel, which he hath bestowed on them according to his mercies, and according to the multitude of his lovingkindnesses.

8 For he said, Surely they are my people, children that will not lie: so he was their Saviour:

9 ° In all their affliction he was afflicted, and the angel of his presence saved them:
in his love and in his pity he redeemed them; and ° he bare them, and carried them all the days of old.

10 But they ° rebelled, and ° vexed his holy Spirit: ° therefore he was turned to be their enemy, and he fought against them.

11 Then he remembered the days of old, Moses, and his people, saying, Where is he that ° brought them up out of the sea with the ° shepherd of his flock? ° where is he that put his holy Spirit within him?

12 That led them by the right hand of Moses ° with his glorious arm, ° dividing the water before them, to make himself an everlasting name?

13 ° That led them through the deep, as an horse in the wilderness, that they should not stumble?

14 As a beast goeth down into the valley,
the Spirit of the LORD caused him to rest:
so didst thou lead thy people, ° to make thyself a glorious name.

15 ¶ ° Look down from heaven, and behold ° from the habitation of thy holiness and of thy glory: where is thy zeal and thy strength, ° the sounding ° of thy bowels and of thy mercies toward me? are they restrained?

16 ° Doubtless thou art our father, though Abraham ° be ignorant of us, and Israel acknowledge us not: thou, O LORD, art our father, ° our redeemer; thy name is from everlasting.

17 O LORD, why hast thou ° made us to err from thy ways, and ° hardened our heart from thy fear? ° Return for thy servants' sake, the tribes of thine inheritance.

18 ° The people of thy holiness have possessed it but a little while: ° our adversaries have trodden down thy sanctuary.

19 We are thine: thou never barest rule over them; ° they were not called by thy name.

CHAP. LXIV.

1 The church prayeth for the illustration of God's power: ° 5 celebrating God's mercy, it maketh confession of their natural corruptions: ° 9 it complaineth of their affliction.

OH that thou wouldest ° rend the heavens, that thou wouldest come down, that ° the mountains might flow down at thy presence,

2 As when ° the melting fire burneth, the fire causeth the waters to boil, to make thy name known to thine adversaries, that the nations may tremble at thy presence!

3 When ° thou didst terrible things which we looked not for, thou camest down, the mountains flowed down at thy presence.

^d men have not heard, nor perceived by the ear, neither hath the eye ^h seen, O God, beside thee, what he hath prepared for him that waiteth for him.

5 Thou meetest him that rejoiceth ^e and worketh righteousness, ^f those that remember thee in thy ways: behold, thou art wroth; for we have sinned: ^g in those is continuance, and we shall be saved.

6 But we are all as an unclean thing, and all ^h our righteousnesses are as filthy rags; and we all do ⁱ fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away.

7 And ^k there is none that calleth upon thy name, that stirreth up himself to take hold of thee: for thou hast hid thy face from us, and hast ^l consumed us, [†] because of our iniquities.

8 [†] But now, O LORD, thou art our father; we are the clay, ^m and thou our potter; and we all are ⁿ the work of thy hand.

9 ^q Be not ^o wroth very sore, O LORD, neither remember iniquity for ever: behold, see, we beseech thee, ^p we are all thy people.

10 Thy holy cities are a wilderness, Zion is a wilderness, ^r Jerusalem a desolation.

11 ^s Our holy and our beautiful house, where our fathers praised thee, is burned up with fire: and all ^t our pleasant things are laid waste.

12 ^u Wilt thou refrain thyself for these things, O LORD? ^v wilt thou hold thy peace; and afflict us very sore?

CHAP. LXV.

1 The calling of the Gentiles. 2 The Jews, for their incredulity, idolatry, and hypocrisy, are rejected. 8 A remnant shall be saved. 12 Judgements on the wicked, and blessings on the godly. 17 The blessed state of the new Jerusalem.

I ^a AM fought of them that asked not for me; I am found of them that sought me not: I said, Behold me, behold me, unto a nation that ^b was not called by my name.

2 ^c I have spread out my hands all the day unto a rebellious people, which walketh in a way that was not good, after their own thoughts;

3 A people ^d that provoketh me to anger continually to my face; ^e that sacrificeth in gardens, and burneth incense ^f upon altars of brick;

4 ^g Which remain among the graves, and lodge in the monuments, ^h which eat swine's flesh, and ⁱ broth of abominable things is in their vessels;

5 ^j Which say, Stand by thyself, come not near to me; for I am holier than thou.

These are a smoke in my ^k nose, a fire that burneth all the day.

6 Behold, ^l it is written before me: ^k I will not keep silence, ⁱ but will recompense, even recompense into their bosom, ^m 7 Your iniquities, and ⁿ the iniquities of your fathers together, saith the LORD, ^o which have burned incense upon the mountains, ^p and blasphemed me upon the hills: therefore will I measure their former work into their bosom.

8 ^q Thus saith the LORD, as the new wine is found in the cluster, and one saith, Destroy it not; for ^r a blessing is in it: so will I do for my servants' sakes, that I may not destroy them all.

9 And I will bring forth a seed out of Jacob, and out of Judah an inheritor of my mountains: and mine ^s elect shall inherit it, and my servants shall dwell there.

10 And ^t Sharon shall be a fold of flocks, and ^u the valley of Achor a place for the herds to lie down in, for my people that have fought me.

11 ^v But ye ^w and they that forsake the LORD, that forget ^x my holy mountain, that prepare ^y a table for that ^z troop, and that furnish the drink offering unto that ^{aa} number.

12 Therefore will I number you to the sword, and ye shall all bow down to the slaughter: ^{ab} because when I called, ye did not answer; when I spake, ye did not hear; but did evil before mine eyes, and did choose that wherein I delighted not.

13 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, my servants shall eat, but ye shall be hungry: behold, my servants shall drink, but ye shall be thirsty: behold, my servants shall rejoice, but ye shall be ashamed:

14 Behold, my servants shall sing for joy of heart, but ye shall cry for sorrow of heart, and ye shall howl for ^{ac} vexation of spirit.

15 And ye shall leave your name ^{ad} for a curse unto ^{ae} my chosen: for the Lord God shall slay thee, and ^{af} call his servants by another name:

16 ^{ag} That he who blesteth himself in the earth shall bless himself in the God of truth; and ^{ah} he that sweareth in the earth shall swear by the God of truth; because the former troubles are forgotten, and because they ^{ai} are hid from mine eyes.

17 ^{aj} For, behold, I create ^{ak} new heavens and a new earth: and the former shall not be remembered, nor ^{al} come into mind.

18 But be ye glad and rejoice for ever in that which I create: for, behold, I create Jerusalem a rejoicing, and her people a joy.

20 There shall be no more thence an infant of days, nor an old man that hath not filled his days: for the child shall die an hundred years old; but the sinner being an hundred years old shall be accursed.

21 And they shall build houses, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and eat the fruit of them.

22 They shall not build, and another inhabit; they shall not plant, and another eat: for as the days of a tree are the days of my people, and mine elect shall long enjoy the work of their hands.

23 They shall not labour in vain, nor bring forth for trouble; for they are the seed of the blessed of the LORD, and their offspring with them.

24 And it shall come to pass, that before they call, I will answer; and while they are yet speaking, I will hear.

25 The wolf and the lamb shall feed together, and the lion shall eat straw like the bullock: and dust shall be the serpent's meat. They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain, saith the LORD.

C H A P. LXVI.

The glorious God will be served in humble sincerity: 5 he comforteth the humble with the marvellous generation, 10 and with the gracious benefits of the church. 15 God's severe judgments against the wicked. 19 The Gentiles shall have an holy church, 24 and see the damnation of the wicked.

THUS saith the LORD, The heaven is my throne, and the earth is my footstool: where is the house that ye build unto me? and where is the place of my rest?

2 For all those things hath mine hand made, and all those things have been, saith the LORD: but to this man will I look, even to him that is poor and of a contrite spirit, and trembleth at my word.

3 He that killeth an ox is as if he slew a man; he that sacrificeth a lamb, as if he cut off a dog's neck; he that offereth an oblation, as if he offered swine's blood; he that burneth incense, as if he blessed an idol. Yea, they have chosen their own ways, and their soul delighteth in their abominations.

4 I also will choose their delusions, and will bring their fears upon them; because when I called, none did answer; when I spake, they did not hear: but they did evil before mine eyes, and chose that in which I delighted not.

5 Hear the word of the LORD, ye that tremble at his word; Your brethren that hated you, that cast you out for my name's sake, said, Let the LORD be glorified: but he shall appear to your joy, and they shall be ashamed.

6 A voice of noise from the city, a voice from the temple, a voice of the LORD that rendereth recompence to his enemies.

7 Before she travailed, she brought forth; before her pain came, she was delivered of a man child.

8 Who hath heard such a thing? who hath seen such things? shall the earth be made to bring forth in one day? or shall a nation be born at once? for as soon as Zion travailed, she brought forth her children.

9 Shall I bring to the birth, and not cause to bring forth? saith the LORD: shall I cause to bring forth, and shut the womb? saith thy God.

10 Rejoice ye with Jerusalem, and be glad with her, all ye that love her: rejoice for joy with her, all ye that mourn for her:

11 That ye may suck, and be satisfied with the breasts of her consolations; that ye may milk out, and be delighted with the abundance of her glory.

12 For thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will extend peace to her like a river, and the glory of the Gentiles like a flowing stream: then shall ye suck, ye shall be borne upon her sides, and be dandled upon her knees.

13 As one whom his mother comforteth, so will I comfort you; and ye shall be comforted in Jerusalem.

14 And when ye see this, your heart shall rejoice, and your bones shall flourish like an herb: and the hand of the LORD shall be known toward his servants, and his indignation toward his enemies.

15 For, behold, the LORD will come with fire, and with his chariots like a whirlwind, to render his anger with fury, and his rebuke with flames of fire.

16 For by fire and by his sword will the LORD plead with all flesh: and the slain of the LORD shall be many.

17 They that sanctify themselves, and purify themselves in the garden behind one tree in the midst, eating swine's flesh, and the abomination, and the mouse, shall be consumed together, saith the LORD.

18 For I know their works and their thoughts: it shall come, that I will gather nations and tongues; and they shall come, and see my glory.

cir. 629.

1 The time, 3 and the calling of Jeremiah: 11 his prophetic visions of an almond rod, and a seething pot: 15 his heavy message against Judah: 17 God encourageth him with his promise of assistance.

THE words of Jeremiah the son of Hilkiah, of the priests that were [¶]in Anathoth in the land of Benjamin:

2 To whom the word of the LORD came in the days of Josiah the son of Amon king of Judah, [¶]in the thirteenth year of his reign.

3 It came also in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, [¶]unto the end of the eleventh year of Zedekiah the son of Josiah king of Judah, [¶]unto the carrying away of Jerusalem captive, [¶]in the fifth month.

4 ¶ Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

5 Before I [¶]formed thee in the belly * I knew thee; and before thou camest forth out of the womb I [¶]sanctified thee, and I [†]ordained thee a prophet unto the nations.

6 Then said I, Ah, Lord God! behold, I cannot speak: for I am a child.

7 But the LORD said unto me, Say not, I am a child: for thou shalt go to all that I shall send thee, and [¶]whatsoever I command thee thou shalt speak.

8 [¶]Be not afraid of their faces: for [¶]I am with thee to deliver thee, saith the LORD.

9 Then the LORD put forth his hand, and [¶]touched my mouth. And the LORD said unto me, Behold, I have [¶]put my words in thy mouth.

10 [¶]See, I have this day set thee over the nations and over the kingdoms, to [¶]root out, and to pull down, and to destroy, and to throw down, to build, and to plant.

11 ¶ Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Jeremiah, what seest thou? And I said, I see a rod of an almond tree.

12 Then said the LORD unto me, Thou hast well seen: for I will hasten my word to perform it.

13 And the word of the LORD came unto me the second time, saying, What seest thou? And I said, I see [¶]a seething pot; and the face thereof is [†]toward the north.

14 Then the LORD said unto me, Out of the [¶]north an evil [†]shall break forth upon all the inhabitants of the land.

15 For, lo, I will [¶]call all the families of the kingdoms of the north, saith the LORD; and they shall come, and they shall [¶]set every one his throne at the entering of the gates of Jerusalem, and against all the walls thereof round about, and against all the cities of Judah.

16 And I will utter my judgements against them touching all their wickedness, [¶]who have forsaken me, and have burned incense unto other gods, and worshipped the works of their own hands.

17 ¶ Thou therefore [¶]gird up thy loins, and arise, and speak unto them all that I command thee: [¶]be not dismayed at their faces, lest I [¶]confound thee before them.

18 For, behold, I have made thee this day [¶]a defenced city, and an iron pillar, and brasen walls against the whole land, against the kings of Judah, against the princes thereof, against the priests thereof, and against the people of the land.

19 And they shall fight against thee; but they shall not prevail against thee; [¶]for I am with thee, saith the LORD, to deliver thee.

CHAP. II.

1 God, having shewed his former kindness, expostulateth with the Jews on their causeless revolt, 9 beyond any example. 14 They are the causes of their own calamities. 20 The sins of Judah: 31 her confidence is rejected.

MOREOVER the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

2 Go and cry in the ears of Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith the LORD; I remember thee, the kindness of thy youth, the love of thine espousals, when thou wentest after me in the wilderness, in a land that was not sown.

3 Israel was holiness unto the LORD, and the firstfruits of his increase: all that devour him shall offend; evil shall come upon them, saith the LORD.

4 Hear ye the word of the LORD, O house of Jacob, and all the families of the house of Israel:

5 Thus saith the LORD, What iniquity have your fathers found in me, that they are gone far from me, and have walked after vanity, and are become vain?

6 Neither said they, Where is the LORD that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, that led us through the wilderness, through a land of deserts and of pits, through a land of drought, and of the shadow of death, through a land that no man passed through, and where no man dwelt?

7 And I brought you into a plentiful country, to eat the fruit thereof and the goodness thereof; but when ye entered, ye defiled my land, and made mine heritage an abomination.

8 The priests said not, Where is the LORD? and they that handle the law knew me not: the pastors also transgressed against me, and the prophets prophesied by Baal, and walked after things that do not profit.

9 Wherefore I will yet plead with you, saith the LORD, and with your children's children will I plead.

10 For pass over the isles of Chittim, and see; and send unto Kedar, and consider diligently, and see if there be such a thing.

11 Hath a nation changed their gods, which are yet no gods? but my people have changed their glory for that which doth not profit.

12 Be astonished, O ye heavens, at this, and be horribly afraid, be ye very desolate, saith the LORD.

13 For my people have committed two evils; they have forsaken me the fountain of living waters, and hewed them out cist-terns, broken cisterns, that can hold no water.

14 Is Israel a servant? is he a home-born slave? why is he spoiled?

15 The young lions roared upon him, and yelled, and they made his land waste: his cities are burned without inhabitant.

16 Also the children of Noph and Tahapanes have broken the crown of thy head.

17 Hast thou not procured this unto thyself, in that thou hast forsaken the LORD thy God, when he led thee by the way?

18 And now what hast thou to do in the way of Egypt, to drink the waters of Sihor? or what hast thou to do in the way of Assyria, to drink the waters of the river?

19 Thine own wickedness shall correct thee, and thy backslidings shall reprove thee: know therefore and see that it is an evil thing and bitter, that thou hast forsaken the LORD thy God, and that my fear is not in thee, saith the Lord God of hosts.

20 For of old time I have broken thy yoke, and burst thy bands; and thou saidst, I will not transgress; when upon every high hill and under every green tree thou wanderest, playing the harlot.

21 Yet I had planted thee a noble vine, wholly a right seed: how then art thou turned into the degenerate plant of a strange vine unto me?

22 For though thou wash thee with nitre, and take thee much sope, yet thine iniquity is marked before me, saith the Lord God.

23 How canst thou say, I am not polluted, I have not gone after Baalim? see thy way in the valley, know what thou hast done: thou art a swift dromedary traversing her ways;

24 A wild ass used to the wilderness, that snuffeth up the wind at her pleasure; in her occasion who can turn her away? all they that seek her will not weary themselves; in her month they shall find her.

25 Withhold thy foot from being unshod, and thy throat from thirst: but thou saidst, There is no hope: no; for I have loved strangers, and after them will I go.

26 As the thief is ashamed when he is found, so is the house of Israel ashamed; they, their kings, their princes, and their priests, and their prophets,

27 Saying to a stock, Thou art my father; and to a stone, Thou hast brought me forth: for they have turned their back unto me, and not their face: but in the 28 But ^awhere are thy gods that thou hast made thee? let them arise, if they ^ycan save thee in the time of thy [†]trouble: for ^aaccording to the number of thy cities are thy gods, O Judah.

29 ^aWherefore will ye plead with me? ye all have transgressed against me, saith the LORD.

30 In vain have I ^bsmitten your children; they received no correction: your own sword hath ^cdevoured your prophets, like a destroying lion.

31 O generation, see ye the word of the LORD. ^aHave I been a wilderness unto Israel? a land of darkness? wherefore say my people, [†]We are lords; ^awe will come no more unto thee?

32 Can a maid forget her ornaments, or a bride her attire? yet my people ^ahave forgotten me days without number.

33 Why trimmest thou thy way to seek love? therefore hast thou also taught the wicked ones thy ways.

34 Also in thy skirts is found ^athe blood of the souls of the poor innocents: I have not found it by [†]secret search, but upon all these.

35 ¶ ^aYet thou sayest, Because I am innocent, surely his anger shall turn from me. Behold, ^aI will plead with thee, ^abecause thou sayest, I have not sinned.

36 ^aWhy gaddest thou about so much to change thy way? ^athou also shalt be ashamed of Egypt, ^aas thou wast ashamed of Assyria.

37 Yea, thou shalt go forth from him, and ^bthine hands upon thine head: for the LORD hath rejected thy confidences, and thou shalt not prosper in them.

CHAP. III.

1 God's great mercy in Judah's vile whoredom. 6 Judah is worse than Israel. 12 The promises of the gospel to the penitent. 20 Israel reproved, and called by God, maketh a solemn confession of their sins.

THEY [†]say, If a man put away his wife, and she go from him, and become another man's, ^ashall he return unto her again? shall not that ^bland be greatly polluted? but thou hast ^cplayed the harlot with many lovers; ^ayet return again to me, saith the LORD.

2 Lift up thine eyes unto ^cthe high places, and see where thou hast not been lien with. ^aIn the ways hast thou sat for them; as the Arabian in the wilderness; ^aand thou hast polluted the land with thy whoredoms and with thy wickedness.

3 Therefore the ^bshowers have been withholden, and there hath been no latter rain; and thou hadst a ^awhore's forehead, thou refusedst to be ashamed.

4 Wilt thou not from this time cry unto me, My father, thou art ^athe guide of ^amy youth?

5 ^aWill he reserve his anger for ever? will he keep it to the end? Behold, thou hast spoken and done evil things as thou couldest.

6 ¶ The LORD said also unto me in the days of Josiah the king, Hast thou seen that which ^abacksliding Israel hath done? she is ^agone up upon every high mountain and under every green tree, and there hath played the harlot.

7 ^aAnd I said after she had done all these things, Turn thou unto me. But she returned not. And her treacherous ^asister Judah saw it.

8 And I saw, when ^afor all the causes whereby backsliding Israel committed adultery I had ^aput her away, and given her a bill of divorce; ^ayet her treacherous sister Judah feared not, but went and played the harlot also.

9 And it came to pass through the ^alightness of her whoredom, that she ^adefiled the land, and committed adultery with ^astones and with stocks.

10 And yet for all this her treacherous sister Judah hath not turned unto me ^awith her whole heart, but [†]feignedly, saith the LORD.

11 And the LORD said unto me, ^aThe backsliding Israel hath justified herself more than treacherous Judah.

12 ¶ Go and proclaim these words toward ^athe north, and say, Return, thou backsliding Israel, saith the LORD; and I will not cause mine anger to fall upon you: for I am ^amerciful, saith the LORD, and I will not keep anger for ever.

13 ^aOnly acknowledge thine iniquity, that thou hast transgressed against the LORD thy God, and hast ^ascattered thy ways to the ^astrangers ^aunder every green tree, and ye have not obeyed my voice, saith the LORD.

14 Turn, O backsliding children, saith the LORD; ^afor I am married unto you: and I will take you ^aone of a city, and two of a family, and I will bring you to Zion:

15 And I will give you ^apastors according to mine heart, which shall ^afeed you with knowledge and understanding.

16 And it shall come to pass, when ye be multiplied and increased in the land, in those days, saith the LORD, they shall say no more, The ark of the covenant of the LORD: neither shall it come to mind: neither shall they remember it; neither shall they visit it; neither shall that be done any more.

17 At that time they shall call Jerusalem the throne of the LORD; and all the nations shall be gathered unto it, to the name of the LORD, to Jerusalem: neither shall they walk any more after the imagination of their evil heart.

18 In those days the house of Judah shall walk with the house of Israel, and they shall come together out of the land of the north to the land that I have given for an inheritance unto your fathers.

19 But I said, How shall I put thee among the children, and give thee a pleasant land, a goodly heritage of the hosts of nations? and I said, Thou shalt call me, My father; and shalt not turn away from me.

20 Surely as a wife treacherously departeth from her husband, so have ye dealt treacherously with me, O house of Israel, saith the LORD.

21 A voice was heard upon the high places, weeping and supplications of the children of Israel: for they have perverted their way, and they have forgotten the LORD their God.

22 Return, ye backsliding children, and I will heal your backslidings. Behold, we come unto thee; for thou art the LORD our God.

23 Truly in vain is salvation hoped for from the hills, and from the multitude of mountains: truly in the LORD our God is the salvation of Israel.

24 For shame hath devoured the labour of our fathers from our youth; their flocks and their herds, their sons and their daughters.

25 We lie down in our shame, and our confusion covereth us: for we have sinned against the LORD our God, we and our fathers, from our youth even unto this day, and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD our God.

C H A P. IV.

1 God calleth Israel by his promise: 3 he exhorteth Judah to repentance by fearful judgements, 19 A grievous lamentation for the miseries of Judah.

IF thou wilt return, O Israel, saith the LORD, return unto me: and if thou wilt put away thine abominations out of my sight, then shalt thou not remove.

2 And thou shalt swear, the LORD liveth, in truth, in judgement, and in righteousness; and the nations shall bless themselves in him, and in him shall they glory.

3 For thus saith the LORD to the men of Judah and Jerusalem, Break up your fallow ground, and sow not among thorns.

4 Circumcise yourselves to the LORD, and take away the foreskins of your heart, ye men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem: lest my fury come forth like fire, and burn that none can quench it, because of the evil of your doings.

5 Declare ye in Judah, and publish in Jerusalem; and say, Blow ye the trumpet in the land: cry, gather together, and say, Assemble yourselves, and let us go into the defenced cities.

6 Set up the standard toward Zion: retire, stay not: for I will bring evil from the north, and a great destruction.

7 The lion is come up from his thicket, and the destroyer of the Gentiles is on his way; he is gone forth from his place to make thy land desolate; and thy cities shall be laid waste, without an inhabitant.

8 For this gird you with sackcloth, lament and howl: for the fierce anger of the LORD is not turned back from us.

9 And it shall come to pass at that day, saith the LORD, that the heart of the king shall perish, and the heart of the princes; and the priests shall be astonished, and the prophets shall wonder.

10 Then said I, Ah, Lord God! surely thou hast greatly deceived this people and Jerusalem, saying, Ye shall have peace; whereas the sword reacheth unto the soul.

11 At that time shall it be said to this people and to Jerusalem, A dry wind of the high places in the wilderness toward the daughter of my people, not to fan, nor to cleanse, 12 Even a full wind from those places shall come unto me: now also will I give sentence against them.

13 Behold, he shall come up as clouds, and his chariots shall be as a whirlwind: his horses are swifter than eagles. Woe unto us! for we are spoiled.

14 O Jerusalem, wash thine heart from wickedness, that thou mayest be saved. How long shall thy vain thoughts lodge within thee?

15 For a voice declareth from Dan, and publisheth affliction from mount Ephraim.

16 Make ye mention to the nations; behold, publish against Jerusalem, that watchers come from a far country, and give out their voice against the cities of Judah.

17 As keepers of a field, are they against her round about; because she hath been rebellious against me, saith the LORD.

18 ^b Thy way and thy doings have procured these things unto thee; this is thy wickedness, because it is bitter, because it reacheth unto thine heart.

19 ¶ My ^c bowels, my bowels! I am pained at ^d my very heart; my heart maketh a noise in me; I cannot hold my peace, because thou hast heard, O my soul, the sound of the trumpet, the alarm of war.

20 ^d Destruction upon destruction is cried; for the whole land is spoiled: suddenly are ^e my tents spoiled, and my curtains in a moment.

21 How long shall I see the standard, and hear the sound of the trumpet?

22 For my people ^f is foolish, they have not known me; they ^g are sottish children, and they have none understanding: ^h they are wise to do evil, but to do good they have no knowledge.

23 ⁱ I beheld the earth, and, lo, ^j it was without form and void; and the heavens, and they ^k had no light.

24 ^l I beheld the mountains, and, lo, they trembled, and all the hills moved lightly.

25 I beheld, and, lo, ^m there was no man, and ⁿ all the birds of the heavens were fled.

26 I beheld, and, lo, the fruitful place was a wilderness, and all the cities thereof were broken down at the presence of the LORD, and by his fierce anger.

27 For thus hath the LORD said, The whole land shall be desolate; ^o yet will I not make a full end.

28 For this ^p shall the earth mourn, and ^q the heavens above be black: because I have spoken ^r it, I have purposed ^s it, and ^t will not repent, neither will I turn back from it.

29 The whole city shall flee for the noise of the horsemen and bowmen; they shall go into thickets, and climb up upon the rocks: every city ^u shall be forsaken, and not a man dwell therein.

30 And ^v when thou art spoiled, what wilt thou do? Though thou clothest thyself with crimson, though thou deckest thee with ornaments of gold, ^w though thou rentest thy ^x face with painting, in vain shalt thou make thyself fair; ^y thy lovers will despise thee, they will seek thy life.

31 For I have heard a voice as of a woman in travail, and the anguish as of her that bringeth forth her first child, the voice of the daughter of Zion, ^z that bewaileth herself, ^{aa} that spreadeth her hands, saying, Woe is me now! for my soul is wearied because of murderers.

CHAP. V.

1 The judgements of God upon the Jews for their perverseness, 7 for their adultery, 10 for their impiety, 19 for their contempt of God, 25 and for their great corruption in the civil state, 30 and ecclesiastical.

RUN ye to and fro through the streets of Jerusalem, and see now, and know, and seek in the broad places thereof, ^a if ye can find a man, ^b if there be any that executeth judgement, that seeketh the truth; ^c and I will pardon it.

2 And ^d though they say, ^e The LORD liveth; surely they ^f swear falsely.

3 O LORD, are not ^g thine eyes upon the truth? thou hast ^h stricken them, but they have not grieved; thou hast consumed them, but ⁱ they have refused to receive correction: they have made their faces harder than a rock; they have refused to return.

4 Therefore I said, Surely these ^j are poor; they are foolish: for ^k they know not the way of the LORD, nor the judgement of their God.

5 I will get me unto the great men, and will speak unto them; for ^l they have known the way of the LORD, and the judgement of their God: but these have altogether ^m broken the yoke, and burst the bonds.

6 Wherefore ⁿ a lion out of the forest shall slay them, ^o and a wolf of the evening shall spoil them, ^p a leopard shall watch over their cities: every one that goeth out thence shall be torn in pieces: because their transgressions are many, and their backslidings ^q are increased.

7 ¶ How shall I pardon thee for this? thy children have forsaken me, and ^r sworn by ^s them ^t that are no gods: ^u when I had fed them to the full, they then committed adultery, and assembled themselves by troops in the harlots' houses.

8 ^v They were as fed horses in the morning: every one ^w neighed after his neighbour's wife.

9 ^x Shall I not visit for these things? saith the LORD: ^y and shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

10 ¶ Go ye up upon her walls, and destroy; ^z but make not a full end: take away her battlements; for they ^{aa} are not the LORD'S.

11 For ^{ab} the house of Israel and the house of Judah have dealt very treacherously against me, saith the LORD.

12 ^{ac} They have belied the LORD, and said, ^{ad} It is not he; neither shall evil come upon us; ^{ae} neither shall we see sword nor famine:

10 To whom shall I speak, and give warning, that they may hear? behold, their ear is uncircumcised, and they cannot hearken: behold, the word of the LORD is unto them a reproach; they have no delight in it.

11 Therefore I am full of the fury of the LORD; I am weary with holding in: I will pour it out upon the children abroad, and upon the assembly of young men together: for even the husband with the wife shall be taken, the aged with him that is full of days.

12 And their houses shall be turned unto others, with their fields and wives together: for I will stretch out my hand upon the inhabitants of the land, saith the LORD.

13 For from the least of them even unto the greatest of them every one is given to covetousness; and from the prophet even unto the priest every one dealeth falsely.

14 They have healed also the hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, saying, Peace, peace; when there is no peace.

15 Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? nay, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush: therefore they shall fall among them that fall: at the time that I visit them they shall be cast down, saith the LORD.

16 Thus saith the LORD, Stand ye in the ways, and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls. But they said, We will not walk therein.

17 Also I set watchmen over you, saying, Harken to the sound of the trumpet. But they said, We will not hearken.

18 Therefore hear, ye nations, and know, O congregation, what is among them.

19 Hear, O earth: behold, I will bring evil upon this people, even the fruit of their thoughts, because they have not hearkened unto my words, nor to my law, but rejected it.

20 To what purpose cometh there to me incense from Sheba, and the sweet cane from a far country? your burnt offerings are not acceptable, nor your sacrifices sweet unto me.

21 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will lay stumbling blocks before this people, and the fathers and the sons together shall fall upon them; the neighbour and his friend shall perish.

22 Thus saith the LORD, Behold, a people cometh from the north country, and a great nation shall be raised from the sides of the earth.

23 They shall lay hold on bow and spear; they are cruel, and have no mercy; their voice roareth like the sea; and they ride upon horses, set in array as men for war against thee, O daughter of Zion.

24 We have heard the fame thereof: our hands wax feeble: anguish hath taken hold of us, and pain, as of a woman in travail.

25 Go not forth into the field, nor walk by the way; for the sword of the enemy and fear is on every side.

26 O daughter of my people, gird thee with sackcloth, and wallow thyself in ashes: make thee mourning, as for an only son, most bitter lamentation: for the spoiler shall suddenly come upon us.

27 I have set thee for a tower and a fortress among my people, that thou mayest know and try their way.

28 They are all grievous revolters, walking with flanders: they are brass and iron; they are all corrupters.

29 The bellows are burned, the lead is consumed of the fire; the founder melteth in vain: for the wicked are not plucked away.

30 Reprobate silver shall men call them, because the LORD hath rejected them.

CHAP. VII.

1 Jeremiah is sent to call for true repentance, to prevent the Jews captivity: 8 he rejecteth their vain confidence, 12 by the example of Shiloh: 17 he threateneth them for their idolatry: 21 he rejecteth the sacrifices of the disobedient: 29 he exhorteth to mourn for their abominations in Tophet, 32 and the judgements for the same.

THE word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 Stand in the gate of the LORD's house, and proclaim there this word, and say, Hear the word of the LORD, all ye of Judah, that enter in at these gates to worship the LORD.

3 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Amend your ways and your doings, and I will cause you to dwell in this place.

4 Trust ye not in lying words, saying, The temple of the LORD, The temple of the LORD, The temple of the LORD, are these.

5 For if ye thoroughly amend your ways and your doings; if ye thoroughly execute judgement between a man and his neighbour;

6 If ye oppress not the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, and shed not innocent blood in this place, neither walk after other gods to your hurt:

7 ^f Then will I cause you to dwell in this place, in ^e the land that I gave to your fathers, for ever and ever.

8 ¶ Behold, ^b ye trust in ⁱ lying words, that cannot profit.

9 ^k Will ye steal, murder, and commit adultery, and swear falsely, and burn incense unto Baal, and ⁱ walk after other gods whom ye know not;

10 ^m And come and stand before me in this house, [†] which is called by my name, and say, We are delivered to do all these abominations?

11 Is ^e this house, which is called by my name, become a ^p den of robbers in your eyes? Behold, even I have seen it, saith the LORD.

12 But go ye now unto ^a my place which was in Shiloh, ^r where I set my name at the first, and see [†] what I did to it for the wickedness of my people Israel.

13 And now, because ye have done all these works, saith the LORD, and I spake unto you ⁱ rising up early and speaking, but ye heard not; and I ^u called you, but ye answered not:

14 Therefore will I do unto this house, which is called by my name, wherein ye trust, and unto the place which I gave to you and to your fathers, as I have done to ^x Shiloh.

15 And I will cast you out of my sight, ^y as I have cast out all your brethren, ^z even the whole seed of Ephraim.

16 Therefore ^a pray not thou for this people, neither lift up cry nor prayer for them, neither make intercession to me: ^b for I will not hear thee.

17 ¶ Seest thou not what they do in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem?

18 ^e The children gather wood, and the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knead their dough, to make cakes to the ¹ queen of heaven, and to ^d pour out drink offerings unto other gods, that they may provoke me to anger.

19 ^e Do they provoke me to anger? saith the LORD: do they not provoke themselves to the confusion of their own faces?

20 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Behold, mine anger and my fury shall be poured out upon this place, upon man, and upon beast, and upon the trees of the field, and upon the fruit of the ground; and it shall burn, and shall not be quenched.

21 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; ^f Put your burnt offerings unto your sacrifices, and eat flesh.

22 ^g For I spake not unto your fathers, nor commanded them in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, [†] concerning burnt offerings or sacrifices:

23 But this thing commanded I them, saying, ^b Obey my voice, and ⁱ I will be your God, and ye shall be my people: and walk ye in all the ways that I have commanded you, that it may be well unto you.

24 ^k But they hearkened not, nor inclined their ear, but ⁱ walked in the counsels and in the ¹ imagination of their evil heart, and [†] went backward, and not forward.

25 Since the day that your fathers came forth out of the land of Egypt unto this day I have even ⁿ sent unto you all my servants the prophets, ^o daily rising up early and sending them:

26 ^p Yet they hearkened not unto me, nor inclined their ear, but ^u hardened their neck: [†] they did worse than their fathers.

27 Therefore ^x thou shalt speak all these words unto them; but they will not hearken to thee: thou shalt also call unto them; but they will not answer thee.

28 But thou shalt say unto them, This is a nation that obeyeth not the voice of the LORD their God, ^y nor receiveth ^z correction: ^a truth is perished, and is cut off from their mouth.

29 ¶ ^b Cut off thine hair, O Jerusalem, and cast it away, and take up a lamentation on high places; for the LORD hath rejected and forsaken the generation of his wrath.

30 For the children of Judah have done evil in my sight, saith the LORD: ^c they have set their abominations in the house which is called by my name, to pollute it.

31 And they have built the ^d high places of Tophet, which is in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to ^e burn their sons and their daughters in the fire; ^f which I commanded them not, neither ^g came it into my heart.

32 ¶ Therefore, behold, ^h the days come, saith the LORD, that it shall no more be called Tophet, nor the valley of the son of Hinnom, but the valley of slaughter: ⁱ for they shall bury in Tophet, till there be no place.

33 And the ^j carcases of this people shall be meat for the fowls of the heaven, and for the beasts of the earth; and none shall fray them away.

34 Then will I cause to ^k cease from the cities of Judah, and from the streets of Jerusalem, the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride: for ^l the land shall be desolate.

CHAP. VIII.

1 The calamity of the Jews both dead and alive: 4 he upbraiddeth their foolish and shameless impenitency: 13 he sheweth their grievous judgement, 18 and bewajleth their desperate estate.

AT that time, saith the LORD, they shall bring out the bones of the kings of Judah, and the bones of his princes, and the bones of the priests, and the bones of the prophets, and the bones of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, out of their graves:

2 And they shall spread them before the sun, and the moon, and all the host of heaven, whom they have loved, and whom they have served, and after whom they have walked, and whom they have sought, and whom they have worshipped: they shall not be gathered, nor be buried; they shall be for dung upon the face of the earth.

3 And death shall be chosen rather than life by all the residue of them that remain of this evil family, which remain in all the places whither I have driven them, saith the LORD of hosts.

4 Moreover thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD; Shall they fall, and not arise? shall he turn away, and not return?

5 Why then is this people of Jerusalem slipped back by a perpetual backsliding? they hold fast deceit, they refuse to return.

6 I hearkened and heard, but they spake not aright: no man repented him of his wickedness, saying, What have I done? every one turned to his course, as the horse rusheth into the battle.

7 Yea, the stork in the heaven knoweth her appointed times; and the turtle and the crane and the swallow observe the time of their coming; but my people know not the judgement of the LORD.

8 How do ye say, We are wise, and the law of the LORD is with us? Lo, certainly in vain made he it; the pen of the scribes is in vain.

9 The wise men are ashamed, they are dismayed and taken: lo, they have rejected the word of the LORD; and what wisdom is in them?

10 Therefore will I give their wives unto others, and their fields to them that shall inherit them: for every one from the least even unto the greatest is given to covetousness, from the prophet even unto the priest every one dealeth falsely.

11 For they have healed the hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, saying, Peace, peace; when there is no peace.

12 Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination; nay, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush: therefore shall they fall among them that fall: in the time of their visitation they shall be cast down, saith the LORD.

13 I will surely consume them, saith the LORD: there shall be no grapes on the vine, nor figs on the fig tree, and the leaf shall fade; and the things that I have given them shall pass away from them.

14 Why do we sit still? assemble yourselves, and let us enter into the fenced cities, and let us be silent there: for the LORD our God hath put us to silence, and given us water of gall to drink, because we have sinned against the LORD.

15 We looked for peace, but no good came; and for a time of health, and behold trouble!

16 The snorting of his horses was heard from Dan: the whole land trembled at the sound of the neighing of his strong ones; for they are come, and have devoured the land, and all that is in it; the city, and those that dwell therein.

17 For, behold, I will send serpents, cockatrices, among you, which will not be charmed, and they shall bite you, saith the LORD.

18 When I would comfort myself against sorrow, my heart is faint in me.

19 Behold the voice of the cry of the daughter of my people because of them that dwell in a far country: Is not the LORD in Zion? is not her king in her? Why have they provoked me to anger with their graven images, and with strange vanities?

20 The harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are not saved.

21 For the hurt of the daughter of my people am I hurt; I am black; astonishment hath taken hold on me.

22 Is there no balm in Gilead; is there no physician there? why then is not the health of the daughter of my people recovered?

CHAP. IX.

1 Jeremiah lamenteth for the Jews manifold sins, 9 and for their judgement. 12 Disobedience is the cause of their bitter calamity: 17 he exhorteth to mourn for their destruction, 23 and to trust not in themselves, but in God: 25 he threateneth both Jews and Gentiles.

OH that my head were waters, and mine eyes a fountain of tears, that I might weep day and night for the slain of the daughter of my people!

2 Oh that I had in the wilderness a lodging place of wayfaring men; that I might leave my people, and go from them! for ^bthey be all adulterers, an assembly of treacherous men.

3 And ^cthey bend their tongues like their bow for lies: but they are not valiant for the truth upon the earth; for they proceed from evil to evil, and they ^dknow not me, saith the LORD.

4 ^eTake ye heed every one of his ^hneighbour, and trust ye not in any brother: for every brother will utterly supplant, and every neighbour will ^fwalk with flanders.

5 And they will ^gdeceive every one his neighbour, and will not speak the truth: they have taught their tongue to speak lies, and weary themselves to commit iniquity.

6 Thine habitation is in the midst of deceit; through deceit they refuse to know me, saith the LORD.

7 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, ^hI will melt them, and try them; ⁱfor how shall I do for the daughter of my people?

8 Their tongue is as an arrow shot out; it speaketh ^jdeceit: ^kone speaketh ^lpeaceably to his neighbour with his mouth, but ^min heart he layeth ⁿhis wait.

9 ^oShall I not visit them for these things? saith the LORD: shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

10 For the mountains will I take up a weeping and wailing, and ^pfor the ^qhabitations of the wilderness a lamentation, because they are ^rburned up, so that none can pass through them; neither can ^smen hear the voice of the cattle; ^tboth the fowl of the heavens and the beast are fled; they are gone.

11 And I will make Jerusalem ^uheaps, and ^va den of dragons; and I will make the cities of Judah ^wdesolate, without an inhabitant.

12 ^xWho is the wise man, that may understand this? and ^ywho is he to whom the mouth of the LORD hath spoken, that he may declare it, for what the land perisheth and is burned up like a wilderness, that none passeth through?

13 And the LORD saith, Because they have forsaken my law which I set before them, and have not obeyed my voice, neither walked therein;

14 But have ^zwalked after the ^{aa}imagination of their own heart, and after Baalim, ^{ab}which their fathers taught them:

15 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will ^{ac}feed them, even this people, ^{ad}with wormwood, and give them water of gall to drink.

16 I will ^{ae}scatter them also among the heathen, whom neither they nor their fathers have known: ^{af}and I will send a sword after them, till I have consumed them.

17 ^{ag}Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Consider ye, and call for ^{ah}the mourning women, that they may come; and send for cunning women, that they may come:

18 And let them make haste, and take up a wailing for us, that ^{ai}our eyes may run down with tears, and our eyelids gush out with waters.

19 For a voice of wailing is heard out of Zion, How are we spoiled! we are greatly confounded, because we have forsaken the land, because ^{aj}our dwellings have cast us out.

20 Yet hear the word of the LORD, O ye women, and let your ear receive the word of his mouth, and teach your daughters wailing, and every one her neighbour lamentation.

21 For death is come up into our windows, and is entered into our palaces, to cut off ^{ak}the children from without, and the young men from the streets.

22 Speak, Thus saith the LORD, Even the carcases of men shall fall ^{al}as dung upon the open field, and as the handful after the harvestman, and none shall gather them.

23 ^{am}Thus saith the LORD, ^{an}Let not the wise man glory in his wisdom, neither let the mighty man glory in his might, let not the rich man glory in his riches:

24 But ^{ao}let him that glorieth glory in this, that he understandeth and knoweth me, that I am the LORD which exercise lovingkindness, judgement, and righteousness, in the earth: ^{ap}for in these things I delight, saith the LORD.

25 ^{aq}Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that ^{ar}I will ^{as}punish all them which are circumcised with the uncircumcised;

26 Egypt, and Judah, and Edom, ^{at}and the children of Ammon, and Moab, and all that are ^{au}in the ^{av}utmost corners, that dwell in the wilderness: for all these nations are uncircumcised, and all the house of Israel are ^{aw}uncircumcised in the heart.

21 For the pastors are become brutish, and have not sought the LORD: therefore they shall not prosper, and all their flocks shall be scattered.

22 Behold, the noise of the bruit is come, and a great commotion out of the † north country, to make the cities of Judah desolate, and a † den of dragons.

23 † O LORD, I know that the † way of man is not in himself: it is not in man that walketh to direct his steps.

25 † Pour out thy fury upon the heathen † that know thee not, and upon the families that call not on thy name: for they have eaten up Jacob, and † devoured him, and consumed him, and have made his habitation desolate.

CHAP. XI.

1 Jeremiah proclaimeth God's covenant, 8 rebuketh the Jews disobeying thereof, 11 prophesieth evils to come upon them, 18 and upon the men of Anathoth, for conspiring to kill him.

2 Hear ye the words of this covenant, and speak unto the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem;

3 And say thou unto them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel; † Cursed be the man that obeyeth not the words of this covenant, as it is this day. Then answered I, and said, † So be it, O LORD.

6 Then the LORD said unto me, Proclaim all these words in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, saying, Hear ye the words of this covenant, * and do them.

7 For I earnestly protested unto your fathers in the day that I brought them up out of the land of Egypt, even unto this day, † rising early and protesting, saying, Obey my voice.

8 Yet they obeyed not, nor inclined their ear, but, † walked every one in the † imagination of their evil heart: therefore I will bring upon them all the words of this covenant, which I commanded them to do; but they did them not.

9 And the LORD said unto me, † A conspiracy is found among the men of Judah, and among the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

10 They are turned back to † the iniquities of their forefathers, which refused to hear my words; and they went after other gods to serve them: the house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken my covenant which I made with their fathers.

11 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil upon them, which they shall not be able † to escape; and † though they shall cry unto me, I will not hearken unto them.

12 Then shall the cities of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem go, and † cry unto the gods unto whom they offer incense: but they shall not save them at all in the time of their † trouble.

13 For according to the number of thy † cities were thy gods, O Judah; and according to the number of the streets of Jerusalem have ye set up altars to that † shameful thing, even altars to burn incense unto Baal.

14 Therefore † pray not thou for this people, neither lift up a cry or prayer for them: for I will not hear them in the time that they cry unto me for their † trouble.

15 † What hath my beloved to do in mine house, seeing she hath † wrought lewdness with many, and † the holy flesh is passed from thee? † when thou doest evil, then thou † rejoicest.

16 The LORD called thy name, † A green olive tree, fair, and of goodly fruit: with the noise of a great tumult he hath kindled fire upon it, and the branches of it are broken.

17 For the LORD of hosts, † that planted thee, hath pronounced evil against thee, for the evil of the house of Israel and of the house of Judah, which they have done against themselves to provoke me to anger in offering incense unto Baal.

18 ¶ And the LORD hath given me knowledge of it, and I know it: then thou shewedst me their doings.

19 But I was like a lamb or an ox that is brought to the slaughter; and I knew not that † they had devised devices against me; saying, Let us destroy † the tree with the fruit thereof, † and let us cut him off from † the land of the living, that his name may be no more remembered.

20 But, O LORD of hosts, that judgest righteously, that † triest the reins and the heart, let me see thy vengeance on them: for unto thee have I revealed my cause.

21 Therefore thus saith the LORD of the men of Anathoth, † that seek thy life, saying, † Prophecy not in the name of the LORD, that thou die not by our hand:

22 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, I will † punish them: the young men shall die by the sword; their sons and their daughters shall die by famine:

23 And there shall be no remnant of them: for I will bring evil upon the men of Anathoth, even † the year of their visitation.

CHAP. XII.

1 Jeremiah complaining of the wicked's prosperity, by faith seeth their ruin. 5 God admonisheth him of his brethren's treachery against him, 7 and lamenteth his heritage: 14 he promiseth to the penitent a return from captivity.

RIGHTEOUS † art thou, O LORD, when I plead with thee: yet † let me talk with thee of thy judgements: † Wherefore doth the way of the wicked prosper? wherefore are all they happy that deal very treacherously?

2 Thou hast planted them, yea, they have taken root: † they grow, yea, they bring forth fruit: † thou art near in their mouth, and far from their reins.

3 But thou, O LORD, † knowest me: thou hast seen me, and † tried mine heart † toward thee: pull them out like sheep for the slaughter, and prepare them for † the day of slaughter.

4 How long shall † the land mourn, and the herbs of every field wither, † for the wickedness of them that dwell therein? † the beasts are consumed, and the birds; because they said, He shall not see our last end.

5 ¶ If thou hast run with the footmen, and they have wearied thee, then how canst thou contend with horses? and if in the land of peace, wherein thou trustedst, they wearied thee, then how wilt thou do in † the swelling of Jordan?

CHAP. XIV.

1 The grievous famine, ^v causeth Jeremiah to pray.
10 The Lord will not be intreated for the people.
13 Lying prophets no excuse for them. 17 Jeremiah is moved to complain for them.

THE word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah concerning ^w the dearth.

2 Judah mourneth, and ^x the gates thereof languish; they are ^y black unto the ground; and ^z the cry of Jerusalem is gone up.

3 And their nobles have sent their little ones to the waters: they came to the pits, and found no water; they returned with their vessels empty; they were ^a ashamed and confounded, ^b and covered their heads.

4 Because the ground is chapt, for there was no rain in the earth, the plowmen were ashamed, they covered their heads.

5 Yea, the hind also calved in the field, and forsook it, because there was no grass.

6 And ^c the wild asses did stand in the high places, they snuffed up the wind like dragons; their eyes did fail, because there was no grass.

7 ¶ O LORD, though our iniquities testify against us, do thou ^d it ^e for thy name's sake: for our backslidings are many; we have sinned against thee.

8 ^f The hope of Israel, the saviour thereof in time of trouble, why shouldest thou be as a stranger in the land, and as a wayfaring man that turneth aside to tarry for a night?

9 Why shouldest thou be as a man astonished, as a mighty man ^g that cannot save? yet thou, O LORD, ^h art in the midst of us, and ⁱ we are called by thy name; leave us not.

10 ¶ Thus saith the LORD unto this people, ^j Thus have they loved to wander, they have not refrained their feet, therefore the LORD doth not accept them; ^k he will now remember their iniquity, and visit their sins.

11 Then said the LORD unto me, ^l Pray not for this people for their good.

12 ^m When they fast, I will not hear their cry; and ⁿ when they offer burnt offering and an oblation, I will not accept them: but ^o I will consume them by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence.

13 ¶ Then said I, Ah, Lord God! behold, the prophets say unto them, Ye shall not see the sword, neither shall ye have famine; but I will give you ^p assured peace in this place.

14 Then the LORD said unto me, ^q The prophets prophesy lies in my name: ^r I sent them not, neither have I commanded them, neither spake unto them: they prophesy unto you a false vision and divination, and a thing of nought, and the deceit of their heart.

15 Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning the prophets that prophesy in my name, and I sent them not, ^s yet they say, Sword and famine shall not be in this land; By sword and famine shall those prophets be consumed.

16 And the people to whom they prophesy shall be cast out in the streets of Jerusalem because of the famine and the sword; ^t and they shall have none to bury them, ^u them, their wives, nor their sons, nor their

18 If I go forth into ^athe field, then behold the slain with the sword! and if I enter into the city, then behold them that are sick with famine! yea, both the prophet and the priest ^{||}go about into a land that they know not.

19 ^bHast thou utterly rejected Judah? hath thy soul lothed Zion? why hast thou smitten us, and ^cthere is no healing for us? ^dwe looked for peace, and ^ethere is no good; and for the time of healing, and behold trouble!

21 Do not abhor ^gus, for thy name's sake, do not disgrace the throne of thy glory: ^hremember, break not thy covenant with us.

22 ⁱAre there ^jany among ^kthe vanities of the Gentiles that can cause rain? or can the heavens give showers? ^lart not thou he, O LORD our God? therefore we will wait upon thee: for thou hast made all these things.

CHAP. XV.

1 The utter rejection and manifold judgements of the Jews. 10 Jeremiah, complaining of their spite, receiveth a promise for himself, 12 and a threatening for them: 15 he prayeth, 19 and receiveth a gracious promise.

THEN said the LORD unto me, ^aThough ^bMoses and ^cSamuel stood before me, yet my mind could not be toward this people: cast ^dthem out of my sight, and let them go forth.

2 And it shall come to pass, if they say unto thee, Whither shall we go forth? then thou shalt tell them, Thus saith the LORD; ^eSuch as ^fare for death, to death; and such as ^fare for the sword, to the sword; and such as ^fare for the famine, to the famine; and such as ^fare for the captivity, to the captivity.

3 And I will ^gappoint over them four ^hkinds, saith the LORD: the sword to slay, and the dogs to tear, and ⁱthe fowls of the heaven, and the beasts of the earth, to devour and destroy.

4 And ^jI will cause them to be ^kremoved into all kingdoms of the earth, because of ^lManasseh the son of Hezekiah king of Judah, for ^mthat which he did in Jerusalem.

5 For ⁿwho shall have pity upon thee, O Jerusalem? or who shall bemoan thee? or who shall go aside ^oto ask how thou doest?

6 ^pThou hast forsaken me, saith the LORD, thou art ^qgone backward: therefore will I stretch out my hand against thee, and destroy thee; ^rI am weary with repenting.

7 And I will fan them with a fan in the gates of the land; I will bereave ^sthem of ^tchildren, I will destroy my people, ^usince ^vthey return not from their ways.

8 Their widows are increased to me above the sand of the seas: I have brought upon them ^wagainst the mother of the young men a spoiler at noonday: I have caused ^xhim to fall upon it suddenly, and terrors upon the city.

9 ^yShe that hath borne seven languisheth: ^zshe hath given up the ghost; ^aher sun is gone down while ^bit was yet day: she hath been ashamed and confounded: and the residue of them will I deliver to the sword before their enemies, saith the LORD.

10 ¶ ^cWoe is me, my mother, that thou hast borne me a man of strife and a man of contention to the whole earth! I have neither lent on usury, nor men have lent to me on usury; yet every one of them doth curse me.

11 The LORD said, Verily it shall be well with thy remnant; verily ^dI will cause ^ethe enemy to entreat thee ^fwell in the time of evil and in the time of affliction.

12 Shall iron break the northern iron and the steel?

13 Thy substance and thy treasures will I give to the ^gspoil without price, and ^hthat for all thy sins, even in all thy borders.

14 And I will make ⁱthee to pass with thine enemies ^jinto a land ^kwhich thou knowest not: for a ^lfire is kindled in mine anger, ^mwhich shall burn upon you.

15 ¶ O LORD, ⁿthou knowest: remember me, and visit me, and ^orevenge me of my persecutors; take me not away in thy longsuffering: know that ^pfor thy sake I have suffered rebuke.

16 Thy words were found, and I did ^qeat them; and ^rthy word was unto me the joy and rejoicing of mine heart: for ^sI am called by thy name, O LORD God of hosts.

17 ^tI sat not in the assembly of the mockers, nor rejoiced; I sat alone because of thy hand: for thou hast filled me with indignation.

18 Why is my ^upain perpetual, and my wound incurable, ^vwhich refuseth to be healed? wilt thou be altogether unto me ^was a liar, and ^xas waters that ^yfail?

20 And I will make thee unto this people a fenced brasen wall: and they shall fight against thee; but they shall not prevail against thee: for I am with thee to save thee and to deliver thee, saith the LORD.

21 And I will deliver thee out of the hand of the wicked, and I will redeem thee out of the hand of the terrible.

CHAP. XVI.

¹ The prophet under the types of abstaining from marriage, from houses of mourning and feasting, foretelleth the utter ruin of the Jews, ¹⁰ because they were worse than their fathers. ¹⁴ Their return from captivity shall be stranger than their deliverance out of Egypt. ¹⁶ God will doubly recompense their idolatry.

ck. 601.

THE word of the LORD came also unto me, saying,

² Thou shalt not take thee a wife, neither shalt thou have sons or daughters in this place.

³ For thus saith the LORD concerning the sons and concerning the daughters that are born in this place, and concerning their mothers that bare them, and concerning their fathers that begat them in this land;

⁶ Both the great and the small shall die in this land: they shall not be buried, neither shall men lament for them, nor cut themselves, nor make themselves bald for them:

⁷ Neither shall men tear themselves for them in mourning, to comfort them for the dead; neither shall men give them the cup of consolation to drink for their father or for their mother.

⁸ Thou shalt not also go into the house of feasting, to sit with them to eat and to drink.

⁹ For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will cause to cease out of this place in your eyes, and in your days, the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride.

¹⁰ And it shall come to pass, when thou shalt shew this people all these words, and they shall say unto thee, Wherefore hath the LORD pronounced all this great evil against us? or what is our iniquity? or what is our sin that we have committed against the LORD our God?

¹¹ Then shalt thou say unto them, Because your fathers have forsaken me, saith the LORD, and have walked after other gods, and have served them, and have worshipped them, and have forsaken me, and have not kept my law;

¹² And ye have done worse than your fathers; for, behold, ye walk every one after the imagination of his evil heart, that they may not hearken unto me:

¹³ Therefore will I cast you out of this land into a land that ye know not, neither ye nor your fathers; and there shall ye serve other gods day and night; where I will not shew you favour.

¹⁴ Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that it shall no more be said, The LORD liveth, that brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt;

¹⁶ Behold, I will send for many fishers, saith the LORD, and they shall fish them; and after will I send for many hunters, and they shall hunt them from every mountain, and from every hill, and out of the holes of the rocks.

¹⁷ For mine eyes are upon all their ways: they are not hid from my face, neither is their iniquity hid from mine eyes.

¹⁸ And first I will recompense their iniquity and their sin double; because they have defiled my land, they have filled mine inheritance with the carcases of their detestable and abominable things.

¹⁹ O LORD, my strength, and my fortress, and my refuge in the day of affliction, the Gentiles shall come unto thee from the ends of the earth, and shall say, Surely our fathers have inherited lies, vanity, and things wherein there is no profit.

²⁰ Shall a man make gods unto himself, and they are no gods?

²¹ Therefore, behold, I will this once cause them to know, I will cause them to know mine hand and my might; and they shall know that my name is The LORD.

CHAP. XVII.

1 The captivity of Judah for her sin. 5 Trust in man is cursed, 7 in God is blessed. 9 The deceitful heart cannot deceive God. 12 The salvation of God. 15 The prophet complaineth of the mockers of his prophecy: 19 he is sent to renew the covenant in hallowing the sabbath.

THE sin of Judah is written with a ^a pen of iron, and with the [†] point of a diamond: it is ^b graven upon the table of their heart, and upon the horns of your altars;

² Whilst their children remember their altars and their ^c groves by the green trees upon the high hills.

³ O my mountain in the field, ^d I will give thy substance and all thy treasures to the spoil, and thy high places for sin, throughout all thy borders.

⁴ And thou, even [†] thyself, shalt discontinue from thine heritage that I gave thee; and I will cause thee to serve thine enemies in ^e the land which thou knowest not: for ^f ye have kindled a fire in mine anger, which shall burn for ever.

⁵ ¶ Thus saith the LORD; ^g Cursed be the man that trusteth in man, and maketh ^h flesh his arm, and whose heart departeth from the LORD.

⁶ For he shall be ⁱ like the heath in the desert, and ^k shall not see when good cometh; but shall inhabit the parched places in the wilderness, ^l in a salt land and not inhabited.

⁷ ^m Blessed is the man that trusteth in the LORD, and whose hope the LORD is.

⁹ ¶ The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it?

¹⁰ I the LORD ^q search the heart, I try the reins, ^r even to give every man according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings.

¹¹ As the partridge ^s sitteth on eggs, and hatcheth ^t them not; so he that getteth riches, and not by right, ^u shall leave them in the midst of his days, and at his end shall be ^v a fool.

¹² ¶ A glorious high throne from the beginning ^w is the place of our sanctuary.

¹³ O LORD, ^x the hope of Israel, ^y all that forsake thee shall be ashamed, and they that depart from me shall be ^z written in the earth, because they have forsaken the LORD, the ^a fountain of living waters.

¹⁴ Heal me, O LORD, and I shall be healed; save me, and I shall be saved: for ^b thou art my praise.

¹⁵ ¶ Behold, they say unto me, ^c Where is the word of the LORD? let it come now.

¹⁶ As for me, ^d I have not hastened from being a pastor ^e to follow thee: neither have I desired the woeful day; thou knowest: that which came out of my lips was ^f right before thee.

¹⁷ Be not a terror unto me: ^g thou art my hope in the day of evil.

¹⁸ ^h Let them be confounded that persecute me, but ⁱ let not me be confounded: let them be dismayed, but let not me be dismayed: bring upon them the day of evil, and ^j destroy them with double destruction.

²⁰ And say unto them, ^k Hear ye the word of the LORD, ye kings of Judah, and all Judah, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, that enter in by these gates:

²¹ Thus saith the LORD; ^l Take heed to yourselves, and bear no burden on the sabbath day, nor bring ^m it in by the gates of Jerusalem;

²³ But they obeyed not, neither inclined their ear, but made their neck stiff, that they might not hear, nor receive instruction.

²⁴ And it shall come to pass, if ye diligently hearken unto me, saith the LORD, to bring in no burden through the gates of this city on the sabbath day, but hallow the sabbath day, to do no work therein;

²⁶ And they shall come from the cities of Judah, and from ^p the places about Jerusalem, and from ^q the land of Benjamin, and from ^r the plain, and from the mountains, and from ^s the south, bringing burnt offerings, and sacrifices, and meat offerings, and incense, and bringing ^t sacrifices of praise, unto the house of the LORD.

C H A P. XVIII.

1 Under the type of a potter is shewed God's absolute power in disposing of nations. 11 Judgments threatened to Judah for her strange revolt. 18 Jeremiah prayeth against his conspirators.

cir. 605.

THE word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 Arise, and go down to the potter's house, and there I will cause thee to hear my words.

3 Then I went down to the potter's house, and, behold, he wrought a work on the wheels.

4 And the vessel that he made of clay was marred in the hand of the potter: so he made it again another vessel, as seemed good to the potter to make it.

5 Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

6 O house of Israel, cannot I do with you as this potter? saith the LORD. Behold, as the clay is in the potter's hand, so are ye in mine hand, O house of Israel.

7 At what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to pluck up, and to pull down, and to destroy it;

8 If that nation, against whom I have pronounced, turn from their evil, I will repent of the evil that I thought to do unto them.

9 And at what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to build and to plant it;

10 If it do evil in my sight, that it obey not my voice, then I will repent of the good, wherewith I said I would benefit them.

11 Now therefore go to, speak to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I frame evil against you, and devise a device against you: return ye now every one from his evil way, and make your way and your doings good.

12 And they said, There is no hope: but we will walk after our own devices, and we will every one do the imagination of his evil heart.

13 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Ask ye now among the heathen, who hath heard such things: the virgin of Israel hath done a very horrible thing.

14 Will a man leave the snow of Lebanon which cometh from the rock of the field? or shall the cold flowing waters that come from another place be forsaken?

15 Because my people hath forgotten me, they have burned incense to vanity, and they have caused them to stumble in their ways from the ancient paths, to walk in paths, in a way not cast up;

16 To make their land desolate, and a perpetual hissing; every one that passeth thereby shall be astonished, and wag his head.

17 I will scatter them as with an east wind before the enemy; I will shew them the back, and not the face, in the day of their calamity.

18 Then said they, Come, and let us devise devices against Jeremiah; for the law shall not perish from the priest, nor counsel from the wise, nor the word from the prophet. Come, and let us finite him with the tongue, and let us not give heed to any of his words:

19 Give heed to me, O LORD, and hearken to the voice of them that contend with me.

20 Shall evil be recompensed for good? for they have digged a pit for my soul. Remember that I stood before thee to speak good for them, and to turn away thy wrath from them.

21 Therefore deliver up their children to the famine, and pour out their blood by the force of the sword; and let their wives be bereaved of their children, and be widows; and let their men be put to death; let their young men be slain by the sword in battle.

22 Let a cry be heard from their houses, when thou shalt bring a troop suddenly upon them: for they have digged a pit to take me, and hid snares for my feet.

23 Yet, LORD, thou knowest all their counsel against me to slay me: forgive not their iniquity, neither blot out their sin from thy sight, but let them be overthrown before thee; deal thus with them in the time of thine anger.

east gate, and proclaim there the words that I shall tell thee,

3^b And say, Hear ye the word of the LORD, O kings of Judah, and inhabitants of Jerusalem; Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, the which whosoever heareth, his ears shall tingle.

4 Because they^d have forsaken me, and have estranged this place, and have burned incense in it unto other gods, whom neither they nor their fathers have known, nor the kings of Judah, and have filled this place with^e the blood of innocents;

5 They have built also the high places of Baal, to burn their sons with fire for burnt offerings unto Baal,^f which I commanded not, nor spake it, neither came it into my mind:

6 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that this place shall no more be called Tophet, nor^h The valley of the son of Hinnom, but The valley of slaughter.

7 And I will make void the counsel of Judah and Jerusalem in this place; ⁱ and I will cause them to fall by the sword before their enemies, and by the hands of them that seek their lives: and their^k carcases will I give to be meat for the fowls of the heaven, and for the beasts of the earth.

8 And I will make this city^l desolate, and an hissing; every one that passeth thereby shall be astonished and hiss because of all the plagues thereof.

9 And I will cause them to eat the^m flesh of their sons and the flesh of their daughters, and they shall eat every one the flesh of his friend in the siege and straitness, wherewith their enemies, and they that seek their lives, shall straiten them.

10ⁿ Then shalt thou break the bottle in the sight of the men that go with thee,

11 And shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; ^o Even so will I break this people and this city, as one breaketh a potter's vessel, that cannot[†] be made whole again: and they shall^p bury them in Tophet, till there be no place to bury.

12 Thus will I do unto this place, saith the LORD, and to the inhabitants thereof, and even make this city as Tophet:

13 And the houses of Jerusalem, and the houses of the kings of Judah, shall be defiled^q as the place of Tophet, because of all the houses upon whose^r roofs they have burned incense unto all the host of heaven, and^s have poured out drink offerings unto other gods.

14 Then came Jeremiah from Tophet, whither the LORD had sent him to prophesy; and he stood in the court of the LORD's house; and said to all the people, 15 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will bring upon this city and upon all her towns all the evil that I have pronounced against it, because^t they have hardened their necks, that they might not hear my words.

CHAP. XX.

1 Pashur smiting Jeremiah, receiveth a new name, and a fearful doom. 7 Jeremiah complaineth of contempt, 10 of treachery, 14 and of his birth.

NOW Pashur the son of Immer the priest, who was also chief governor in the house of the LORD, heard that Jeremiah prophesied these things.

2 Then Pashur smote Jeremiah the prophet, and put him in the stocks that were in the high gate of Benjamin, which was by the house of the LORD.

3 And it came to pass on the morrow, that Pashur brought forth Jeremiah out of the stocks. Then said Jeremiah unto him, The LORD hath not called thy name Pashur, but^u Margor-missabib.

4 For thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will make thee a terror to thyself, and to all thy friends: and they shall fall by the sword of their enemies, and thine eyes shall behold it: and I will give all Judah into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall carry them captive into Babylon, and shall slay them with the sword.

5 Moreover I^v will deliver all the strength of this city, and all the labours thereof, and all the precious things thereof, and all the treasures of the kings of Judah will I give into the hand of their enemies, which shall spoil them, and take them, and carry them to Babylon.

6 And thou, Pashur, and all that dwell in thine house shall go into captivity: and thou shalt come to Babylon, and there thou shalt die, and shalt be buried there, thou, and all thy friends, to whom thou hast^w prophesied lies.

7 O LORD, thou hast deceived me, and I was^x deceived: ^y thou art stronger than I, and hast prevailed: ^z I am in derision daily, every one mocketh me.

8 For since I spake, I cried out, I cried violence and spoil; because the word of the LORD was made a reproach unto me, and a derision, daily.

9 Then I said, I will not make mention of him, nor speak any more in his name. But his word was in mine heart as a^{aa} burning fire shut up in my bones, and I was

¹ Zedekiah sendeth to Jeremiah to enquire the event of Nebuchadrezzar's war. ³ Jeremiah foretelleth a hard siege and visible captivity: ⁸ he counselleth the people to fall to the Chaldeans, ¹¹ and upbraideth the king's house.

² ^a Enquire, I pray thee, of the LORD for us; for Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon maketh war against us; if so be that the LORD will deal with us according to all his wondrous works, that he may go up from us.

³ ¶ Then said Jeremiah unto them, Thus shall ye say to Zedekiah:

⁴ Thus saith the LORD God of Israel;

Behold, I will turn back the weapons of war that are in your hands, wherewith ye fight against the king of Babylon, and against the Chaldeans, which besiege you without the walls, and ^a I will assemble them into the midst of this city.

⁵ And I myself will fight against you with an ^a outstretched hand and with a strong arm, even in anger, and in fury, and in great wrath.

⁶ And I will smite the inhabitants of this city, both man and beast: they shall die of a great pestilence.

⁷ And afterward, saith the LORD, [†] I will deliver Zedekiah king of Judah, and his servants, and the people, and such as are left in this city from the pestilence, from the sword, and from the famine, into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those that seek their life: and he shall smite them with the edge of the sword; ^a he shall not spare them, neither have pity, nor have mercy.

THUS saith the LORD; Go down to the house of the king of Judah, and speak there this word,

2 And say, ^aHear the word of the LORD, O king of Judah, that sittest upon the throne of David, thou, and thy servants, and thy people that enter in by these gates:

3 Thus saith the LORD; ^bExecute ye judgement and righteousness, and deliver the spoiled out of the hand of the oppressor: and ^cdo no wrong, do no violence to the stranger, the fatherless, nor the widow, neither shed innocent blood in this place.

5 But if ye will not hear these words, ^fI swear by myself, saith the LORD, that this house shall become a desolation.

6 For thus saith the LORD unto the king's house of Judah; Thou art Gilead unto me, and the head of Lebanon: yet surely I will make thee a wilderness, and cities which are not inhabited.

7 And I will prepare destroyers against thee, every one with his weapons: and they shall cut down ^gthy choice cedars, and cast them into the fire.

8 And many nations shall pass by this city, and they shall say every man to his neighbour, ^hWherefore hath the LORD done thus unto this great city?

9 Then they shall answer, ⁱBecause they have forsaken the covenant of the LORD their God, and worshipped other gods, and served them.

10 ¶ Weep ye not for ^kthe dead, neither bemoan him: but weep sore for him ^lthat goeth away: for he shall return no more, nor see his native country.

11 For thus saith the LORD touching ^mShallum the son of Josiah king of Judah, which reigned instead of Josiah his father, ⁿwhich went forth out of this place; He shall not return thither any more:

12 But he shall die in the place whither they have led him captive, and shall see this land no more.

13 ¶ Woe unto him that buildeth his house by unrighteousness, and his chambers by wrong; ^othat useth his neighbour's service without wages, and giveth him not for his work;

14 That saith, I will build me a wide house and ^plarge chambers, and cutteth him out ^qwindows; and ^rit is cieled with cedar, and painted with vermilion.

15 Shalt thou reign, because thou closest ^sthyself in cedar? ^tdid not thy father eat and drink, and do judgement and justice, and then ^uit was well with him?

16 He judged the cause of the poor and needy; then ^vit was well with him: was not this to know me? saith the LORD.

17 ^wBut thine eyes and thine heart are not but for thy covetousness, and for to shed innocent blood, and for oppression, and for ^xviolence, to do it.

18 Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah; ^yThey shall not lament for him, saying, Ah my brother! or, Ah sister! they shall not lament for him, saying, Ah lord! or, Ah his glory!

19 ^zHe shall be buried with the burial of an ass, drawn and cast forth beyond the gates of Jerusalem.

20 ¶ Go up to Lebanon, and cry; and lift up thy voice in Bashan, and cry from the passages: for all thy lovers are destroyed.

21 I spake unto thee in thy ^{aa}prosperity; but thou saidst, I will not hear. ^{ab}This hath been thy manner from thy youth, that thou obeyedst not my voice:

22 The wind shall eat up all ^{ac}thy pastors, and ^{ad}thy lovers shall go into captivity: surely then shalt thou be ashamed and confounded for all thy wickedness.

23 O ^{ae}inhabitant of Lebanon, that makest thy nest in the cedars, how gracious shalt thou be when pangs come upon thee, ^{af}the pain as of a woman in travail!

24 As I live, saith the LORD, ^{ag}though Coniah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah ^{ah}were the signet upon my right hand, yet would I pluck thee thence;

25 ^{ai}And I will give thee into the hand of them that seek thy life, and into the hand of ^{aj}them whose face thou fearest, even into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of the Chaldeans.

26 ^{ak}And I will cast thee out; and thy mother that bare thee, into another country, where ye were not born; and there shall ye die.

27 But to the land whereunto they ^{al}desire to return, thither shall they not return.

28 Is this man Coniah a despised broken idol? ^{am}is he ^{an}a vessel wherein is no pleasure? wherefore are they cast out, he and his seed, and are cast into a land which they know not?

29 O earth, earth, earth, hear the word of the LORD.

30 Thus saith the LORD, Write ye this man ^{ao}childless, a man that shall not prosper in his days: for no man of his seed shall 27 Which think to cause my people to forget my name by their dreams which they tell every man to his neighbour, [†] as their fathers have forgotten my name for Baal.

28 The prophet [†] that hath a dream, let him tell a dream; and he that hath my word, let him speak my word faithfully. What is the chaff to the wheat? saith the LORD.

29 Is not my word like as a fire? saith the LORD; and like a hammer that breaketh the rock in pieces?

30 Therefore, behold, [†] I am against the prophets, saith the LORD, that steal my words every one from his neighbour.

31 Behold, I am against the prophets, saith the LORD, [†] that use their tongues, and say, He saith.

32 Behold, I am against them that prophesy false dreams, saith the LORD, and do tell them, and cause my people to err by their lies, and by [†] their lightness; yet I sent them not, nor commanded them: therefore they shall not profit this people at all, saith the LORD.

33 ¶ And when this people, or the prophet, or a priest, shall ask thee, saying, What is [†] the burden of the LORD? thou shalt then say unto them, What burden? [†] I will even forsake you, saith the LORD.

34 And as for the prophet, and the priest, and the people, that shall say, The burden of the LORD, I will even [†] punish that man and his house.

35 Thus shall ye say every one to his neighbour, and every one to his brother, What hath the LORD answered? and, What hath the LORD spoken?

36 And the burden of the LORD shall ye mention no more: for every man's word shall be his burden; for ye have perverted the words of the living God, of the LORD of hosts our God.

37 Thus shalt thou say to the prophet, What hath the LORD answered thee? and, What hath the LORD spoken?

38 But since ye say, The burden of the LORD; therefore thus saith the LORD; Because ye say this word, The burden of the LORD, and I have sent unto you, saying, Ye shall not say, The burden of the LORD;

39 Therefore, behold, I, even I, [†] will utterly forget you, and [†] I will forsake you, and the city that I gave you and your fathers, and cast you out of my presence:

40 And I will bring [†] an everlasting reproach upon you, and a perpetual shame, which shall not be forgotten.

CHAP. XXIV.

1 Under the type of good and bad figs, 4 he sheweth the restoration of them that were in captivity, 8 and the desolation of Zedekiah and the rest.

THE LORD shewed me, and, behold, two baskets of figs were set before the temple of the LORD, after that Nebuchadrezzar ^b king of Babylon had carried away captive ^c Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, and the princes of Judah, with the carpenters and smiths, from Jerusalem, and had brought them to Babylon.

2 One basket had very good figs, even like the figs that are first ripe: and the other basket had very naughty figs, which could not be eaten, [†] they were so bad.

3 Then said the LORD unto me, What seeest thou, Jeremiah? And I said, Figs; the good figs, very good; and the evil, very evil, that cannot be eaten, they are so evil.

4 ¶ Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

5 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel; Like these good figs, so will I acknowledge [†] them that are carried away captive of Judah, whom I have sent out of this place into the land of the Chaldeans for their good.

6 For I will set mine eyes upon them for good, and [†] I will bring them again to this land: and [†] I will build them, and not pull them down; and I will plant them, and not pluck them up.

7 And I will give them [†] an heart to know me, that I am the LORD: and they shall be [†] my people, and I will be their God: for they shall return unto me [†] with their whole heart.

8 ¶ And as the evil [†] figs, which cannot be eaten, they are so evil; surely thus saith the LORD, So will I give Zedekiah the king of Judah, and his princes, and the residue of Jerusalem, that remain in this land, and [†] them that dwell in the land of Egypt:

9 And I will deliver them [†] to [†] be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth for their hurt, [†] to be a reproach and a proverb, a taunt [†] and a curse, in all places whither I shall drive them.

10 And I will send the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, among them, till they be consumed from off the land that I gave unto them and to their fathers.

vity, 12 and after that the destruction of Babylon. 15 Under the type of a cup of wine, he foresheweth the destruction of all nations. 34 The howling of the shepherds.

THE word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, that was the first year of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon;

2 The which Jeremiah the prophet spake unto all the people of Judah, and to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying,

3 From the thirteenth year of Josiah the son of Amon king of Judah, even unto this day, that is the three and twentieth year, the word of the LORD hath come unto me, and I have spoken unto you, rising early and speaking; but ye have not hearkened.

4 And the LORD hath sent unto you all his servants the prophets, rising early and sending them; but ye have not hearkened, nor inclined your ear to hear.

5 They said, Turn ye again now every one from his evil way, and from the evil of your doings, and dwell in the land that the LORD hath given unto you and to your fathers for ever and ever:

6 And go not after other gods to serve them, and to worship them, and provoke me not to anger with the works of your hands; and I will do you no hurt.

7 Yet ye have not hearkened unto me, saith the LORD; that ye might provoke me to anger with the works of your hands to your own hurt.

8 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts; Because ye have not heard my words, 9 Behold, I will send and take all the families of the north, saith the LORD, and Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon, my servant, and will bring them against this land, and against the inhabitants thereof, and against all these nations round about, and will utterly destroy them, and make them an astonishment, and an hissing, and perpetual desolations.

10 Moreover I will take from them the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride, the sound of the millstones, and the light of the candle.

11 And this whole land shall be a desolation, and an astonishment; and these nations shall serve the king of Babylon seventy years.

12 And it shall come to pass, when seventy years are accomplished, that I will punish the king of Babylon, and that nation, saith the LORD, for their iniquity, and the land of the Chaldeans, and will make it perpetual desolations.

13 And I will bring upon that land all my words which I have pronounced against it, even all that is written in this book, which Jeremiah hath prophesied against all the nations.

14 For many nations and great kings shall serve themselves of them also: and I will recompense them according to their deeds, and according to the works of their own hands.

15 For thus saith the LORD God of Israel unto me; Take the wine cup of this fury at my hand, and cause all the nations, to whom I send thee, to drink it.

16 And they shall drink, and be moved, and be mad, because of the sword that I will send among them.

17 Then took I the cup at the LORD's hand, and made all the nations to drink, unto whom the LORD had sent me:

18 To wit, Jerusalem, and the cities of Judah, and the kings thereof, and the princes thereof, to make them a desolation, an astonishment, an hissing, and a curse; as it is this day;

19 Pharaoh king of Egypt, and his servants, and his princes, and all his people;

20 And all the mingled people, and all the kings of the land of Uz, and all the kings of the land of the Philistines, and Ashkelon, and Azzah, and Ekron, and the remnant of Ashdod,

21 Edom, and Moab, and the children of Ammon,

22 And all the kings of Tyrus, and all the kings of Zidon, and the kings of the isles which are beyond the sea,

23 Dedan, and Tema, and Buz, and all that are in the utmost corners,

24 And all the kings of Arabia, and all the kings of the mingled people that dwell in the desert,

25 And all the kings of Zimri, and all the kings of Elam, and all the kings of the Medes;

26 And all the kings of the north, far and near, one with another, and all the kingdoms of the world, which are upon the face of the earth: and the king of Sheshach shall drink after them.

27 Therefore thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Drink ye, and be drunken, and spue, and fall, and rise no more, because of the sword which I will send among you.

28 And it shall be, if they refuse to take the cup at thine hand to drink, then shalt

29 For, lo, I begin to bring evil on the city [†] which is called by my name, and should ye be utterly unpunished? Ye shall not be unpunished: for I will call for a sword upon all the inhabitants of the earth, saith the LORD of hosts.

30 Therefore prophesy thou against them all these words, and say unto them, The LORD shall ^u roar from on high, and utter his voice from ^{*} his holy habitation; he shall mightily roar upon ^v his habitation; he shall give ^z a shout, as they that tread the grapes, against all the inhabitants of the earth.

31 A noise shall come even to the ends of the earth; for the LORD hath ^a a controversy with the nations, ^b he will plead with all flesh; he will give them that are wicked to the sword, saith the LORD.

32 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, evil shall go forth from nation to nation, and ^d a great whirlwind shall be raised up from the coasts of the earth.

CHAP. XXVI.

¹ Jeremiah, by promises and threatenings, exhorteth to repentance: ⁸ he is therefore apprehended, ¹⁰ and arraigned: ¹² his apology: ¹⁶ he is quit in judgement, by the example of Micah, ²⁰ and of Urijah, ²⁴ and by the care of Ahikam.

IN the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah came this word from the LORD, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD; Stand in ^{*} the court of the LORD's house, and speak unto all the cities of Judah, which come to worship in the LORD's house, ^b all the words that I command thee to speak unto them; ^c diminish not a word:

3 ^d If so be they will hearken, and turn every man from his evil way, that I may ^e repent me of the evil, which I purpose to do unto them because of the evil of their doings.

4 And thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD; ^f If ye will not hearken to me to walk in my law, which I have set before you,

5 To hearken to the words of my servants the prophets, ^g whom I sent unto you, both rising up early, and sending them, but ye have not hearkened;

6 Then will I make this house like ^h Shiloh, and will make this city ⁱ a curse to all the nations of the earth.

7 So the priests and the prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of the LORD.

8 [†] Now it came to pass, when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking all that the LORD had commanded him to speak unto all the people, that the priests and the prophets and all the people took him, saying, Thou shalt surely die.

9 Why hast thou prophesied in the name of the LORD, saying, This house shall be like Shiloh, and this city shall be desolate without an inhabitant? And all the people were gathered against Jeremiah in the house of the LORD.

10 When the princes of Judah heard these things, then they came up from the king's house unto the house of the LORD, and sat down [†] in the entry of the new gate of the LORD's house.

11 Then spake the priests and the prophets unto the princes and to all the people, saying, [†] This man is worthy to die; ^{*} for he hath prophesied against this city, as ye have heard with your ears.

12 [†] Then spake Jeremiah unto all the princes and to all the people, saying, The LORD sent me to prophesy against this house and against this city all the words that ye have heard.

13 Therefore now [†] amend you ways and your doings, and obey the voice of the LORD your God; and the LORD will [†] repent him of the evil that he hath pronounced against you.

14 As for me, behold, ^{*} I am in your hand: do with me [†] as seemeth good and meet unto you.

16 ¶ Then said the princes and all the people unto the priests and to the prophets; This man is not worthy to die: for he hath spoken to us in the name of the LORD our God.

17 ° Then rose up certain of the elders of the land, and spake to all the assembly of the people, saying,

20 And there was also a man that prophesied in the name of the LORD, Urijah the son of Shemaiah of Kirjath-jearim, who prophesied against this city and against this land according to all the words of Jeremiah:

21 And when Jehoiakim the king, with all his mighty men, and all the princes, heard his words, the king sought to put him to death: but when Urijah heard it, he was afraid, and fled, and went into Egypt;

22 And Jehoiakim the king sent men into Egypt, namely, Elnathan the son of Achbor, and certain men with him into Egypt.

23 And they fetched forth Urijah out of Egypt, and brought him unto Jehoiakim the king; who slew him with the sword, and cast his dead body into the graves of the † common people.

24 Nevertheless ° the hand of Ahikam the son of Shaphan was with Jeremiah, that they should not give him into the hand of the people to put him to death.

IN the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah ° king of Judah came this word unto Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 Thus ° saith the LORD to me; Make thee bonds and yokes, ° and put them upon thy neck,

3 And send them to the king of Edom, and to the king of Moab, and to the king of the Ammonites, and to the king of Tyrus, and to the king of Zidon, by the hand of the messengers which come to Jerusalem unto Zedekiah king of Judah;

4 And command them ° to say unto their masters, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Thus shall ye say unto your masters;

5 ° I have made the earth, the man and the beast that are upon the ground, by my great power and by my outstretched arm, and ° have given it unto whom it seemed meet unto me.

6 ° And now have I given all these lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, ° my servant; and ° the beasts of the field have I given him also to serve him.

7 ° And all nations shall serve him, and his son, and his son's son, ° until the very time of his land come: ° and then many nations and great kings shall serve themselves of him.

8 And it shall come to pass, that the nation and kingdom which will not serve the same Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, and that will not put their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, that nation will I punish, saith the LORD, with the sword, and with the famine, and with the pestilence, until I have consumed them by his hand.

9 Therefore hearken not ye to your prophets, nor to your diviners, nor to your dreamers, nor to your enchanters, nor to your sorcerers, which speak unto you, saying, Ye shall not serve the king of Babylon:

10 ° For they prophesy a lie ° unto you, to remove you far from your land; and that I should drive you out, and ye should perish.

11 But the nations that bring their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him, those will I let remain still in their own land, saith the LORD; and they shall till it, and dwell therein.

12 ¶ I spake also to ° Zedekiah king of Judah according to all these words, saying, Bring your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him and his people, and live.

13 ^a Why will ye die, thou and thy people, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, as the LORD hath spoken against the nation that will not serve the king of Babylon?

14 Therefore hearken not unto the words of the prophets that speak unto you, saying, Ye shall not serve the king of Babylon: for they prophesy ^a a lie unto you.

15 For I have not sent them, saith the LORD, yet they prophesy [†] a lie in my name; that I might drive you out, and that ye might perish, ye, and the prophets that prophesy unto you.

16 ¶ Also I spake to the priests and to all this people, saying, Thus saith the LORD; Hearken not to the words of your prophets that prophesy unto you, saying, Behold, ^p the vessels of the LORD's house shall now shortly be brought again from Babylon: for they prophesy a lie unto you.

17 Hearken not unto them; serve the king of Babylon, and live: wherefore should this city be laid waste?

18 But if they be prophets, and if the word of the LORD be with them, let them now make intercession to the LORD of hosts, that the vessels which are left in the house of the LORD, and in the house of the king of Judah, and at Jerusalem, go not to Babylon.

19 ¶ For thus saith the LORD of hosts ^q concerning the pillars, and concerning the sea, and concerning the bases, and concerning the residue of the vessels that remain in this city,

20 Which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took not, when he carried away ^r captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah from Jerusalem to Babylon, and all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem;

21 Yea, thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, concerning the vessels that remain in the house of the LORD, and in the house of the king of Judah and of Jerusalem;

22 They shall be ^s carried to Babylon, and there shall they be until the day that I ^t visit them, saith the LORD; then ^u will I bring them up, and restore them to this place.

CHAP. XXVIII.

1 Hananiah prophesieth falsely the return of the vessels, and of Jeconiah. 5 Jeremiah wishing it to be true, sheweth that the event will declare who are true prophets. 10 Hananiah breaketh Jeremiah's yoke. 12 Jeremiah telleth of an iron yoke, 15 and foretelleth Hananiah's death.

AND ^a it came to pass the same year, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the fourth year, and in the fifth month, that Hananiah the son of Azur the prophet, which was of Gibeon, spake unto me in the house of the LORD, in the presence of the priests and of all the people, saying,

2 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, I have broken ^b the yoke of king of Babylon.

3 ^c Within [†] two full years will I bring again into this place all the vessels of the LORD's house, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took away from this place, and carried them to Babylon:

4 And I will bring again to this place Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, with all the [†] captives of Judah, that went into Babylon, saith the LORD: for I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.

5 ¶ Then the prophet Jeremiah said unto the prophet Hananiah in the presence of the priests, and in the presence of all the people that stood in the house of the LORD,

6 Even the prophet Jeremiah said, ^d Amen: the LORD do so: the LORD perform thy words which thou hast prophesied, to bring again the vessels of the LORD's house, and all that is carried away captive, from Babylon into this place.

7 Nevertheless hear thou now this word that I speak in thine ears, and in the ears of all the people;

8 The prophets that have been before me and before thee of old prophesied both against many countries, and against great kingdoms, of war, and of evil, and of pestilence.

9 ^e The prophet which prophesieth of peace, when the word of the prophet shall come to pass, then shall the prophet be known, that the LORD hath truly sent him.

10 ¶ Then Hananiah the prophet took the ^f yoke from off the prophet Jeremiah's neck, and brake it.

11 And Hananiah spake in the presence of all the people, saying, Thus saith the LORD; Even so will I break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon ^g from the neck of all nations within the space of two full years. And the prophet Jeremiah went his way.

12 ¶ Then the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah the prophet, after that Hananiah the prophet had broken the yoke from off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah, saying, 13 Go and tell Hananiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD; Thou hast broken the yokes of wood; but thou shalt make for them yokes of iron.

NOW these are the words of the letter that Jeremiah the prophet sent from Jerusalem unto the residue of the elders which were carried away captives, and to the priests, and to the prophets, and to all the people whom Nebuchadnezzar had carried away captive from Jerusalem to Babylon;

2 (After that ^a Jeconiah the king, and the queen, and the eunuchs, the princes of Judah and Jerusalem, and the carpenters, and the smiths, were departed from Jerusalem;)

3 By the hand of Elasah the son of Shaphan, and Gemariah the son of Hilkiah, (whom Zedekiah king of Judah sent unto Babylon to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon) saying,

4 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, unto all that are carried away captives, whom I have caused to be carried away from Jerusalem unto Babylon;

5 ^b Build ye houses, and dwell in them; and plant gardens, and eat the fruit of them;

6 Take ye wives, and beget sons and daughters; and take wives for your sons, and give your daughters to husbands, that they may bear sons and daughters; that ye may be increased there, and not diminished.

7 And seek the peace of the city whither

I have caused you to be carried away captives, ^c and pray unto the LORD for it: for in the peace thereof shall ye have peace.

8 ¶ For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Let not your prophets and your diviners, that be in the midst of you, ^d deceive you, neither hearken to your dreams which ye cause to be dreamed.

9 ^e For they prophesy [†] falsely unto you in my name: I have not sent them, saith the LORD.

10 ¶ For thus saith the LORD, That after ^f seventy years be accomplished at Babylon I will visit you, and perform my good word toward you, in causing you to return to this place.

11 For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the LORD, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an [†] expected end.

12 Then shall ye ^g call upon me, and ye shall go and pray unto me, and I will hearken unto you.

13 And ^h ye shall seek me, and find me, when ye shall search for me: ⁱ with all your heart.

14 And ^k I will be found of you, saith the LORD: and I will turn away your captivity, and ^l I will gather you from all the nations, and from all the places whither I have driven you, saith the LORD; and I will bring you again into the place whence I caused you to be carried away captive.

15 ¶ Because ye have said, The LORD hath raised us up prophets in Babylon;

16 Know that thus saith the LORD of the king that sitteth upon the throne of David, and of all the people that dwelleth in this city, and of your brethren that are not gone forth with you into captivity;

17 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Behold, I will send upon them the ^m sword, the famine, and the pestilence, and will make them like ⁿ vile figs, that cannot be eaten, they are so evil.

18 And I will persecute them with the sword, with the famine, and with the pestilence, and ^o will deliver them to be removed to all the kingdoms of the earth, ^p to be ^q a curse, and an astonishment, and an hissing, and a reproach, among all the nations whither I have driven them:

19 Because they have not hearkened to my words, saith the LORD, which ^r I sent unto them by my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them; but ye would not hear, saith the LORD.

20 ¶ Hear ye therefore the word of the LORD, all ye of the captivity, whom I have sent from Jerusalem to Babylon:

CHAP. XXX.

1 God sheweth Jeremiah the return of the Jews. 4 After their trouble they shall have deliverance:

10 he comforteth Jacob. 18 Their return shall be gracious. 23 Wrath shall fall on the wicked.

THE word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 Thus speaketh the LORD God of Israel, saying, Write thee all the words that I have spoken unto thee in a book.

3 For, lo, the days come, saith the LORD; that I will bring again the captivity of my people Israel and Judah, saith the LORD: and I will cause them to return to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they shall possess it.

4 And these are the words that the LORD spake concerning Israel and concerning Judah.

5 For thus saith the LORD; We have heard a voice of trembling, of fear, and not of peace.

6 Ask ye now, and see whether a man doth travail with child? wherefore do I see every man with his hands on his loins, as a woman in travail, and all faces are turned into paleness?

7 Alas! for that day is great, so that none is like it: it is even the time of Jacob's trouble; but he shall be saved out of it.

8 For it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD of hosts, that I will break his yoke from off thy neck, and will burst thy bonds, and strangers shall no more serve themselves of him:

9 But they shall serve the LORD their God, and David their king, whom I will raise up unto them.

10 Therefore fear thou not, O my servant Jacob, saith the LORD; neither be dismayed, O Israel: for, lo, I will save thee from afar, and thy seed from the land of their captivity; and Jacob shall return, and shall be in rest, and be quiet, and none shall make him afraid.

11 For I am with thee, saith the LORD, to save thee: though I make a full end of all nations whither I have scattered thee, yet will I not make a full end of thee: but I will correct thee in measure, and will not leave thee altogether unpunished.

12 For thus saith the LORD, Thy bruise is incurable, and thy wound is grievous.

13 There is none to plead thy cause, that thou mayest be bound up: thou hast no healing medicines.

14 All thy lovers have forgotten thee; they seek thee not; for I have wounded thee with the wound of an enemy, with the chastisement of a cruel one, for the multitude of thine iniquity; because thy sins were increased.

15 Why criest thou for thine affliction?

thy sorrow is incurable for the multitude of thine iniquity: because thy sins were increased, I have done these things unto thee.

16 Therefore all they that devour thee shall be devoured; and all thine adversaries, every one of them, shall go into captivity; and they that spoil thee shall be a spoil, and all that prey upon thee will I give for a prey.

17 * For I will restore health unto thee, and I will heal thee of thy wounds, saith the LORD; because they called thee an Outcast, saying, This is Zion, whom no man seeketh after.

18 ¶ Thus saith the LORD; Behold, * I will bring again the captivity of Jacob's tents, and * have mercy on his dwelling-places; and the city shall be builded upon her own * heap, and the palace shall remain after the manner thereof.

19 And * out of them shall proceed thanksgiving and the voice of them that make merry: * and I will multiply them, and they shall not be few; I will also glorify them, and they shall not be small.

20 Their children also shall be * as aforetime, and their congregation shall be established before me, and I will punish all that oppress them.

21 And their nobles shall be of themselves, * and their governor shall proceed from the midst of them; and I will * cause him to draw near, and he shall approach unto me: for who is this that engaged his heart to approach unto me? saith the LORD.

22 And ye shall be * my people, and I will be your God.

23 ¶ Behold, the * whirlwind of the LORD goeth forth with fury, a * continuing whirlwind: it shall * fall with pain upon the head of the wicked.

24 The fierce anger of the LORD shall not return, until he have done it, and until he have performed the intents of his heart: in the latter days ye shall consider it.

1 The restoration of Israel. 10 The publication thereof. 15 Rachel mourning is comforted. 18 Ephraim repenting, is brought home again. 22 Christ is promised: 27 his care over the church: 31 his new covenant. 35 The stability, 38 and amplitude of the church.

AT * the same time, saith the LORD, * will I be the God of all the families of Israel, and they shall be my people.

2 Thus saith the LORD, The people which were left of the sword found grace in the wilderness; even Israel, when * I went to cause him to rest.

3 The LORD hath appeared † of old unto me, saying, Yea, * I have loved thee with * an everlasting love: therefore * with lovingkindness have I * drawn thee.

4 Again * I will build thee, and thou shalt be built, O virgin of Israel: thou shalt again be adorned with thy * tabrets, and shalt go forth in the dances of them that make merry.

5 * Thou shalt yet plant vines upon the mountains of Samaria: the planters shall plant, and shall † eat them as common things.

6 For there shall be a day, that the watchmen upon the mount Ephraim shall cry, * Arise ye, and let us go up to Zion unto the LORD our God.

7 For thus saith the LORD; * Sing with gladness for Jacob, and shout among the chief of the nations: publish ye, praise ye, and say, O LORD, save thy people, the remnant of Israel.

8 Behold, I will bring them * from the north country, and * gather them from the coasts of the earth, and with them the blind and the lame, the woman with child and her that travaileth with child together: a great company shall return thither.

9 * They shall come with weeping, and with * supplications will I lead them: I will cause them to walk * by the rivers of waters in a straight way, wherein they shall not stumble: for I am a father to Israel, and Ephraim is my * firstborn.

10 Hear the word of the LORD, O ye nations, and declare it in the isles afar off, and say, He that scattered Israel * will gather him, and keep him, as a shepherd doth his flock.

11 For * the LORD hath redeemed Jacob, and ransomed him * from the hand of him that was stronger than he.

12 Therefore they shall come and sing in * the height of Zion, and shall flow together to * the goodness of the LORD, for wheat, and for wine, and for oil, and for the young of the flock and of the herd: and their soul shall be as a * watered garden; * and they shall not sorrow any more at all.

13 Then shall the virgin rejoice in the dance, both young men and old together: for I will turn their mourning into joy, and will comfort them, and make them rejoice from their sorrow.

14 And I will satiate the soul of the priests with fatness, and my people shall be satisfied with my goodness, saith the LORD.

bitter weeping; Rahel weeping for her children refused to be comforted for her children, because ^c they were not.

16 Thus saith the LORD; Refrain thy voice from weeping, and thine eyes from tears: for thy work shall be rewarded, saith the LORD; and ^d they shall come again from the land of the enemy.

17 And there is hope in thine end, saith the LORD; that thy children shall come again to their own border.

18 ¶ I have surely heard Ephraim bemoaning himself thus; Thou hast chastised me, and I was chastised, as a bullock unaccustomed to the yoke: ^e turn thou me, and I shall be turned; for thou art the LORD my God.

19 Surely ^f after that I was turned, I repented; and after that I was instructed, I smote upon my thigh: I was ashamed, yea, even confounded, because I did bear the reproach of my youth.

20 Is Ephraim my dear son? is he a pleasant child? for since I spake against him, I do earnestly remember him still: ^g therefore my bowels ^h are troubled for him; ⁱ I will surely have mercy upon him, saith the LORD.

21 Set thee up waymarks, make thee high heaps: ^j set thine heart toward the highway, even the way which thou wentest: turn again, O virgin of Israel, turn again to these thy cities.

22 ¶ How long wilt thou ^k go about, O thou ^l backsliding daughter? for the LORD hath created a new thing in the earth, A woman shall compass a man.

23 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; As yet they shall use this speech in the land of Judah and in the cities thereof, when I shall bring again their captivity; ^m The LORD blest thee, O habitation of justice, and ⁿ a mountain of holiness.

24 And there shall dwell in Judah itself, and ^o in all the cities thereof together, husbandmen, and they that go forth with flocks.

25 For I have satiated the weary soul, and I have replenished every sorrowful soul.

26 Upon this I awaked, and beheld; and my sleep was sweet unto me.

27 ¶ Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that ^p I will sow the house of Israel, and the house of Judah, with the seed of man, and with the seed of beast.

28 And it shall come to pass, that like as I have ^q watched over them, ^r to pluck up, and to break down, and to throw down, and to destroy, and to afflict; so will I watch over them, ^s to build, and to plant, saith the LORD.

29 ¶ In those days they shall say no more, The fathers have eaten a sour grape, and the children's teeth are set on edge.

30 ^t But every one shall die for his own iniquity: every man that eateth the sour grape, his teeth shall be set on edge.

31 ¶ Behold, the ^u days come, saith the LORD, that I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah:

32 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day that ^v I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt; which my covenant they brake, ^w although I was an husband unto them, saith the LORD:

33 ^x But this shall be the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel; After those days, saith the LORD, ^y I will put my law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts; ^z and will be their God, and they shall be my people.

34 And they shall teach no more every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the LORD: for ^a they shall all know me, from the least of them unto the greatest of them, saith the LORD: for ^b I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more.

35 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, ^c which giveth the sun for a light by day, and the ordinances of the moon and of the stars for a light by night, which divideth ^d the sea when the waves thereof roar; ^e The LORD of hosts is his name:

36 ^f If those ordinances depart from before me, saith the LORD, then the seed of Israel also shall cease from being a nation before me for ever.

37 Thus saith the LORD; ^g If heaven above can be measured, and the foundations of the earth searched out beneath, I will also cast off all the seed of Israel for all that they have done, saith the LORD.

38 ¶ Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that the city shall be built to the LORD ^h from the tower of Hananeel unto the gate of the corner.

39 And ⁱ the measuring line shall yet go forth over against it upon the hill Gareb, and shall compass about to Goath.

40 And the whole valley of the dead bodies, and of the ashes, and all the fields unto the brook of Kidron, ^j unto the corner of the horse gate toward the east, ^k shall be holy unto the LORD; it shall not be plucked up, nor thrown down any more for ever.

C H A P. XXXII.

1 Jeremiah being imprisoned by Zedekiah for his prophecy, 6 buyeth Hanameel's field. 13 Baruch must preserve the evidences, as tokens of the people's return. 16 Jeremiah in his prayer complaineth to God. 26 God confirmeth the captivity for their sins, 36 and promiseth a gracious return.

THE word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD ^a in the tenth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar.

2 For then the king of Babylon's army besieged Jerusalem: and Jeremiah the prophet was shut up ^b in the court of the prison, which was in the king of Judah's house.

3 For Zedekiah king of Judah had shut him up, saying, Wherefore dost thou prophesy, and say, Thus saith the LORD, ' Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall take it;

4 And Zedekiah king of Judah ^c shall not escape out of the hand of the Chaldeans, but shall surely be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon, and shall speak with him mouth to mouth, and his eyes shall behold his eyes;

5 And he shall lead Zedekiah to Babylon, and there shall he be ^d until I visit him, saith the LORD: ' though ye fight with the Chaldeans, ye shall not prosper.

6 ¶ And Jeremiah said, The word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

7 Behold, Hanameel the son of Shallum thine uncle shall come unto thee, saying, Buy thee my field that is in Anathoth: for the ^e right of redemption is thine to buy it.

8 So Hanameel mine uncle's son came to me in the court of the prison according to the word of the LORD, and said unto me, Buy my field, I pray thee, that is in Anathoth, which is in the country of Benjamin: for the right of inheritance is thine, and the redemption is thine; buy it for thyself. Then I knew that this was the word of the LORD.

9 And I bought the field of Hanameel my uncle's son, that was in Anathoth, and ^f weighed him the money, even ^g seventeen shekels of silver.

10 And I ^h subscribed the evidence, and sealed it, and took witnesses, and weighed him the money in the balances.

11 So I took the evidence of the purchase, both that which was sealed according to the law and custom, and that which was open:

12 And I gave the evidence of the purchase unto ⁱ Baruch the son of Neriah, the son of Maaseiah, in the sight of Hanameel mine uncle's son, and in the presence of the ^k witnesses that subscribed the book of the purchase, before all the Jews that sat in the court of the prison.

13 ¶ And I charged Baruch before them, saying,

14 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Take these evidences, this evidence of the purchase, both which is sealed, and this evidence which is open; and put them in an earthen vessel, that they may continue many days.

15 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Houses and fields and vineyards ^l shall be possessed again in this land.

16 ¶ Now when I had delivered the evidence of the purchase unto Baruch the son of Neriah, I prayed unto the LORD, saying,

17 Ah Lord God! behold, ^m thou hast made the heaven and the earth by thy great power and stretched out arm, and ⁿ there is nothing ^o too hard for thee:

18 Thou shewest ^p lovingkindness unto thousands, and recompensest the iniquity of the fathers into the bosom of their children after them: the Great, ^q the Mighty God, ^r the LORD of hosts, is his name,

19 ^s Great in counsel, and mighty in ^t work: for thine ^u eyes are open upon all the ways of the sons of men: ^v to give every one according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings:

20 Which hast set signs and wonders in the land of Egypt, even unto this day, and in Israel, and among other men; and hast made thee ^w a name, as at this day;

21 And ^x hast brought forth thy people Israel out of the land of Egypt with signs, and with wonders, and with a strong hand, and with a stretched out arm, and with great terror;

22 And hast given them this land, which thou didst swear to their fathers to give them, ^y a land flowing with milk and honey;

23 And they came in, and possessed it; but ^z they obeyed not thy voice, neither walked in thy law; they have done nothing of all that thou commandedst them to do: therefore thou hast caused all this evil to come upon them:

24 Behold the ^a mounts, they are come unto the city to take it; and the city ^b is given into the hand of the Chaldeans, that fight against it, because of ^c the sword, and of the famine, and of the pestilence: and what thou hast spoken is come to pass; and, behold, thou seest it.

25 And thou hast said unto me, O Lord God, Buy thee the field for money, and take witnesses; || for 'the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans.

26 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, saying,

27 Behold, I am the LORD, the 'God of all flesh: 'is there any thing too hard for me?

28 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, 'I will give this city into the hand of the Chaldeans, and into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and he shall take it:

29 And the Chaldeans, that fight against this city, shall come and 'set fire on this city, and burn it with the houses, 'upon whose roofs they have offered incense unto Baal, and poured out drink offerings unto other gods, to provoke me to anger.

30 For the children of Israel and the children of Judah 'have only done evil before me from their youth: for the children of Israel have only provoked me to anger with the work of their hands, saith the LORD.

31 For this city hath been to me as † a provocation of mine anger and of my fury from the day that they built it even unto this day; * that I should remove it from before my face.

32 Because of all the evil of the children of Israel and of the children of Judah, which they have done to provoke me to anger, 'they, their kings, their princes, their priests, and their prophets, and the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

33 And they have turned unto me the † back, and not the face: though I taught them, 'rising up early and teaching them, yet they have not hearkened to receive instruction.

34 But they 'set their abominations in the house, which is called by my name, to defile it.

35 And they built the high places of Baal, which are in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to 'cause their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire unto 'Molech; 'which I commanded them not, neither came it into my mind, that they should do this abomination, to cause Judah to sin.

36 ¶ And now therefore thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning this city, whereof ye say, 'It shall be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence;

37 Behold, I will 'gather them out of all countries, whither I have driven them in mine anger, and in my fury, and in great wrath; and I will bring them again unto this place, and I will cause them 'to dwell safely:

38 And they shall be 'my people, and I will be their God:

39 And I will 'give them one heart, and one way, that they may fear me † for ever, for the good of them, and of their children after them:

40 And 'I will make an everlasting covenant with them, that I will not turn away † from them, to do them good; but 'I will put my fear in their hearts, that they shall not depart from me.

41 Yea, 'I will rejoice over them to do them good, and 'I will plant them in this land † assuredly with my whole heart and with my whole soul.

42 For thus saith the LORD; 'Like as I have brought all this great evil upon this people, so will I bring upon them all the good that I have promised them.

43 And 'fields shall be bought in this land, 'whereof ye say, It is desolate without man or beast; it is given into the hand of the Chaldeans.

44 Men shall buy fields for money, and subscribe evidences, and seal them, and take witnesses in 'the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, and in the cities of the mountains, and in the cities of the valley, and in the cities of the south: for 'I will cause their captivity to return, saith the LORD.

CHAP. XXXIII.

1 God promiseth to the captivity a gracious return, 9 a joyful state, 12 a settled government, 15 Christ, the Branch of righteousness, 17 a continuance of kingdom and priesthood, 20 and a stability of a blessed seed.

MOREOVER the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah the second time, while he was yet 'shut up in the court of the prison, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD the 'maker thereof, the LORD that formed it, to establish it; || 'the LORD is his name;

3 'Call unto me, and I will answer thee, and shew thee great and || mighty things, which thou knowest not.

4 For thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning the houses of this city, and concerning the houses of the kings of Judah, which are thrown down by 'the mounts, and by the sword;

5 'They come to fight with the Chaldeans, but it is to fill them with the dead bodies of men, whom I have slain in mine anger and in my fury, and for all whose wickedness I have hid my face from this city.

8 And I will * cleanse them from all their iniquity, whereby they have sinned against me; and I will ¹ pardon all their iniquities, whereby they have sinned, and whereby they have transgressed against me.

9 ^m And it shall be to me a name of joy, a praise and an honour before all the nations of the earth, which shall hear all the good that I do unto them: and they shall * fear and tremble for all the goodness and for all the prosperity that I procure unto it.

10 ¶ Thus saith the LORD; Again there shall be heard in this place, * which ye say shall be desolate without man and without beast, even in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, that are desolate, without man, and without inhabitant, and without beast, 11 The ^p voice of joy, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride, the voice of them that shall say, ^a Praise the LORD of hosts: for the LORD is good; for his mercy endureth for ever: and of them that shall bring ^r the sacrifice of praise into the house of the LORD. 13 ^a In the cities of the mountains, in the cities of the vale, and in the cities of the south, and in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, shall the flocks * pass again, under the hands of him that telleth them, saith the LORD.

21 Then may also ^r my covenant be broken with David my servant, that he should not have a son to reign upon his throne; and with the Levites the priests, my ministers.

22 As * the host of heaven cannot be numbered, neither the sand of the sea measured: so will I multiply the seed of David my servant, and the Levites that minister unto me.

23 ¶ Moreover the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah, saying,

24 Considerest thou not what this people have spoken, saying, ^b The two families which the LORD hath chosen, he hath even cast them off? thus they have despised my people, that they should be no more a nation before them.

hand, but shalt surely be taken, and delivered into his hand; and thine eyes shall behold the eyes of the king of Babylon, and † he shall speak with thee mouth to mouth, and thou shalt go to Babylon.

4 Yet hear the word of the LORD, O Zedekiah king of Judah; Thus saith the LORD of thee, Thou shalt not die by the sword:

5 But thou shalt die in peace: and with the burnings of thy fathers, the former kings which were before thee, ^{so} shall they burn odours for thee; and ^h they will lament thee, saying, Ah lord! for I have pronounced the word, saith the LORD.

6 Then Jeremiah the prophet spake all these words unto Zedekiah king of Judah in Jerusalem, 7 When the king of Babylon's army fought against Jerusalem, and against all the cities of Judah that were left, against Lachish, and against Azekah: for ⁱ these defended cities remained of the cities of Judah.

8 ¶ This is the word that came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, after that the king Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people which were at Jerusalem, to proclaim ^k liberty unto them;

9 ^l That every man should let his manservant, and every man his maidservant, being an Hebrew or an Hebrewess, go free; ^m that none should serve himself of them, to wit, of a Jew his brother.

10 Now when all the princes, and all the people, which had entered into the covenant, heard that every one should let his manservant, and every one his maidservant, go free, that none should serve themselves of them any more, then they obeyed, and let them go.

11 But ⁿ afterward they turned, and caused the servants and the handmaids, whom they had let go free, to return, and brought them into subjection for servants and for handmaids.

12 ¶ Therefore the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

13 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel; I made a covenant with your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondmen, saying,

14 At the end of ^o seven years let ye go every man his brother an Hebrew, which ^h hath been sold unto thee; and when he hath served thee six years, thou shalt let him go free from thee: but your fathers hearkened not unto me, neither inclined their ear.

15 And ye were [†] now turned, and had done right in my sight, in proclaiming liberty every man to his neighbour; and ye had ^p made a covenant before me ^q in the house [†] which is called by my name:

16 But ye turned and ^r polluted my name, and caused every man his servant, and every man his handmaid, whom he had set at liberty at their pleasure, to return, and brought them into subjection, to be unto you for servants and for handmaids.

17 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Ye have not hearkened unto me, in proclaiming liberty, every one to his brother, and every man to his neighbour: ^s behold, I proclaim a liberty for you, saith the LORD, ^t to the sword, to the pestilence, and to the famine; and I will make you [†] to be ^u removed into all the kingdoms of the earth.

18 And I will give the men that have transgressed my covenant, which have not performed the words of the covenant which they had made before me, when ^x they cut the calf in twain, and passed between the parts thereof,

19 The princes of Judah, and the princes of Jerusalem, the eunuchs, and the priests, and all the people of the land, which passed between the parts of the calf;

20 I will even give them into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of them that seek their life: and their ^y dead bodies shall be for meat unto the fowls of the heaven, and to the beasts of the earth.

21 And Zedekiah king of Judah and his princes will I give into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of them that seek their life, and into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, ^z which are gone up from you.

22 ^a Behold, I will command, saith the LORD, and cause them to return to this city; and they shall fight against it, ^b and take it, and burn it with fire: and ^c I will make the cities of Judah a desolation without an inhabitant.

4 And I brought them into the house of the LORD, into the chamber of the sons of Hanan, the son of Igdaiah, a man of God, which was by the chamber of the princes, which was above the chamber of Maaseiah the son of Shallum, ^c the keeper of the ^d door:

5 And I set before the sons of the house of the Rechabites pots full of wine, and cups, and I said unto them, Drink ye wine.

6 But they said, We will drink no wine: for ^e Jonadab the son of Rechab our father commanded us, saying, Ye shall drink no wine, neither ye, nor your sons for ever:

7 Neither shall ye build house, nor sow feed, nor plant vineyard, nor have any: but all your days ye shall dwell in tents; ^e that ye may live many days in the land where ye be strangers.

8 Thus have we obeyed the voice of Jonadab the son of Rechab our father in all that he hath charged us, to drink no wine all our days, we, our wives, our sons, nor our daughters;

9 Nor to build houses for us to dwell in: neither have we vineyard, nor field, nor feed:

10 But we have dwelt in tents, and have obeyed, and done according to all that Jonadab our father commanded us.

11 But it came to pass, when Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon came up into the land, that we said, Come, and let us go to Jerusalem for fear of the army of the Chaldeans, and for fear of the army of the Syrians: so we dwell at Jerusalem.

12 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, saying,

13 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Go and tell the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, Will ye not ^f receive instruction to hearken to my words? saith the LORD.

14 The words of Jonadab the son of Rechab, that he commanded his sons not to drink wine, are performed; for unto this day they drink none, but obey their father's commandment: ^g notwithstanding I have spoken unto you, ^h rising early and speaking; but ye hearkened not unto me.

15 ⁱ I have sent also unto you all my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, saying, ^k Return ye now every man from his evil way, and amend your doings, and go not after other gods to serve them, and ye shall dwell in the land which I have given to you and to your fathers: but ye have not inclined your ear, nor hearkened unto me.

16 Because the sons of Jonadab the son of Rechab have performed the commandment of their father, which he commanded them; but this people hath not hearkened unto me:

17 Therefore thus saith the LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will bring upon Judah and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem all the evil that I have pronounced against them: ^l because I have spoken unto them, but they have not heard; and I have called unto them, but they have not answered.

18 ¶ And Jeremiah said unto the house of the Rechabites, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Because ye have obeyed the commandment of Jonadab your father, and kept all his precepts, and done according unto all that he hath commanded you:

19 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; ^m Jonadab the son of Rechab shall not want a man to ⁿ stand before me for ever.

CHAPTER XXXVI.

1 Jeremiah causeth Baruch to write his prophecy, 5 and publicly to read it. 11 The princes having intelligence thereof by Michaiah, send Jehudi to fetch the roll, and read it. 19 They will Baruch and Jeremiah to hide themselves. 20 The king Jehoiakim being certified thereof, heareth part of it, and burneth the roll. 27 Jeremiah denounceth his judgement. 32 Baruch writeth a new copy.

AND it came to pass in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, that this word came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 Take thee ^a a roll of a book, and ^b write therein all the words that I have spoken unto thee against Israel, and against Judah, and against ^c all the nations, from the day I spake unto thee, from the days of ^d Josiah, even unto this day.

3 ^e It may be that the house of Judah will hear all the evil which I purpote to do unto them; that they may ^f return every man from his evil way; that I may forgive their iniquity and their sin.

4 Then Jeremiah ^g called Baruch the son of Neriah: and ^h Baruch wrote from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the LORD, which he had spoken unto him, upon a roll of a book.

5 And Jeremiah commanded Baruch, saying, I am shut up; I cannot go into the house of the LORD:

7 * It may be † they will present their supplication before the LORD, and will return every one from his evil way: for great is the anger and the fury that the LORD hath pronounced against this people.

8 And Baruch the son of Neriah did according to all that Jeremiah the prophet commanded him, reading in the book the words of the LORD in the LORD's house.

9 And it came to pass in the fifth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, in the ninth month, that they proclaimed a fast before the LORD to all the people in Jerusalem, and to all the people that came from the cities of Judah unto Jerusalem.

10 Then read Baruch in the book the words of Jeremiah in the house of the LORD, in the chamber of Gemariah the son of Shaphan the scribe, in the higher court, at the † entry of the new gate of the LORD's house, in the ears of all the people.

11 ¶ When Michaiah the son of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, had heard out of the book all the words of the LORD, 12 Then he went down into the king's house, into the scribe's chamber: and, lo, all the princes sat there, even Elishama the scribe, and Delaiah the son of Shemaiah, and Elnathan the son of Achbor, and Gemariah the son of Shaphan, and Zedekiah the son of Hananiah, and all the princes.

13 Then Michaiah declared unto them all the words that he had heard, when Baruch read the book in the ears of the people.

14 Therefore all the princes sent Jehudi the son of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, unto Baruch, saying, Take in thine hand the roll wherein thou hast read in the ears of the people, and come. So Baruch the son of Neriah took the roll in his hand, and came unto them.

15 And they said unto him, Sit down now, and read it in our ears. So Baruch read it in their ears.

16 Now it came to pass, when they had heard all the words, they were afraid both one and other, and said unto Baruch, We will surely tell the king of all these words.

17 And they asked Baruch, saying, Tell us now, How didst thou write all these words at his mouth?

18 Then Baruch answered them, He pronounced all these words unto me with his mouth, and I wrote them with ink in the book.

20 ¶ And they went in to the king into the court, but they laid up the roll in the chamber of Elishama the scribe, and told all the words in the ears of the king.

21 So the king sent Jehudi to fetch the roll: and he took it out of Elishama the scribe's chamber. And Jehudi read it in the ears of the king, and in the ears of all the princes which stood beside the king.

22 Now the king sat in the winterhouse in the ninth month: and there was a fire on the hearth burning before him.

23 And it came to pass, that when Jehudi had read three or four leaves, he cut it with the penknife, and cast it into the fire that was on the hearth, until all the roll was consumed in the fire that was on the hearth.

24 Yet they were not afraid, nor rent their garments, neither the king, nor any of his servants that heard all these words.

25 Nevertheless Elnathan and Delaiah and Gemariah had made intercession to the king that he would not burn the roll: but he would not hear them.

26 But the king commanded Jerahmeel the son of Hammelech, and Seraiah the son of Azriel, and Shelamiah the son of Abdeel, to take Baruch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet: but the LORD hid them.

27 ¶ Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, after that the king had burned the roll, and the words which Baruch wrote at the mouth of Jeremiah, saying,

28 Take thee again another roll, and write in it all the former words that were in the first roll, which Jehoiakim the king of Judah hath burned.

29 And thou shalt say to Jehoiakim king of Judah, Thus saith the LORD; Thou hast burned this roll, saying, Why hast thou written therein, saying, The king of Babylon shall certainly come and destroy this land, and shall cause to cease from thence man and beast?

30 Therefore thus saith the LORD of Jehoiakim king of Judah; He shall have none to sit upon the throne of David: and his dead body shall be cast out in the day to the heat, and in the night to the frost.

31 And I will punish him and his seed and his servants for their iniquity; and I will bring upon them, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and upon the men of Judah, all the evil that I have pronounced against them; but they hearkened not.

32 ¶ Then took Jeremiah another roll, and gave it to Baruch the scribe, the son of Neriah; who wrote therein from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the book which Jehoiakim king of Judah had burned in the fire: and there were added besides unto them many † like words.

C H A P. XXXVII.

1 The Egyptians having raised the siege of the Chaldeans, king Zedekiah sendeth to Jeremiah to pray for the people. 6 Jeremiah prophesieth the Chaldeans certain return and victory: 11 he is taken for a fugitive, beaten, and put in prison: 16 he assureth Zedekiah of the captivity. 18 Intreating for his liberty, he obtaineth some favour.

AND king ^a Zedekiah the son of Josiah reigned instead of Coniah the son of Jehoiakim, whom Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon made king in the land of Judah.

2 ^b But neither he, nor his servants, nor the people of the land, did hearken unto the words of the LORD, which he spake † by the prophet Jeremiah.

3 And Zedekiah the king sent Jehucal the son of Shelemiah and ^c Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the priest to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, Pray now unto the LORD our God for us.

4 Now Jeremiah came in and went out among the people: for they had not put him into prison.

5 Then ^d Pharaoh's army was come forth out of Egypt: ^e and when the Chaldeans that besieged Jerusalem heard tidings of them, they departed from Jerusalem.

6 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD unto the prophet Jeremiah, saying,

7 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel; Thus shall ye say to the king of Judah, ^f that sent you unto me to enquire of me; Behold, Pharaoh's army, which is come forth to help you, shall return to Egypt into their own land.

8 ^g And the Chaldeans shall come again, and fight against this city, and take it, and burn it with fire.

9 Thus saith the LORD; Deceive not † yourselves, saying, The Chaldeans shall surely depart from us: for they shall not depart.

10 ^h For though ye had smitten the whole army of the Chaldeans that fight against you, and there remained but † wounded men among them, yet should they rise up every man in his tent, and burn this city with fire.

11 ¶ And it came to pass, that when the army of the Chaldeans was † broken up from Jerusalem for fear of Pharaoh's army, 12 Then Jeremiah went forth out of Jerusalem to go into the land of Benjamin, to separate himself thence in the midst of the people.

13 And when he was in the gate of Benjamin, a captain of the ward was there, whose name was Irijah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Hananiah; and he took Jeremiah the prophet, saying, Thou fallest away to the Chaldeans.

14 Then said Jeremiah, ⁱ It is † false; I fall not away to the Chaldeans. But he hearkened not to him: so Irijah took Jeremiah, and brought him to the princes.

15 Wherefore the princes were wroth with Jeremiah, and smote him, ^k and put him in prison in the house of Jonathan the scribe: for they had made that the prison.

16 ¶ When Jeremiah was entered into the dungeon, and into the cabins, and Jeremiah had remained there many days;

17 Then Zedekiah the king sent, and took him out: and the king asked him secretly in his house, and said, Is there any word from the LORD? And Jeremiah said, There is: for, said he, thou shalt be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon.

18 Moreover Jeremiah said unto king Zedekiah, What have I offended against thee, or against thy servants, or against this people, that ye have put me in prison?

19 Where are now your prophets which prophesied unto you, saying, The king of Babylon shall not come against you, nor against this land?

20 Therefore hear now, I pray thee, O my lord the king: † let my supplication, I pray thee, be accepted before thee; that thou cause me not to return to the house of Jonathan the scribe, lest I die there.

21 Then Zedekiah the king commanded that they should commit Jeremiah ^m into the court of the prison, and that they should give him daily a piece of bread out of the bakers' street, ⁿ until all the bread in the city were spent. Thus Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison.

Jeremiah had spoken unto all the people, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD, ^a He that remaineth in this city shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence: but he that goeth forth to the Chaldeans shall live; for he shall have his life for a prey, and shall live.

3 Thus saith the LORD, ^c This city shall surely be given into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, which shall take it.

4 Therefore the princes said unto the king, We beseech thee, ^f let this man be put to death: for thus he weakeneth the hands of the men of war that remain in this city, and the hands of all the people, in speaking such words unto them: for this man seeketh not the ^h welfare of this people, but the hurt.

5 Then Zedekiah the king said, Behold, he is in your hand: for the king is not he that can do any thing against you.

6 ^g Then took they Jeremiah, and cast him into the dungeon of Malchiah the son of Hammelech, that was in the court of the prison: and they let down Jeremiah with cords. And in the dungeon there was no water, but mire: so Jeremiah sunk in the mire.

7 ^h Now when Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, one of the eunuchs which was in the king's house, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the dungeon; the king then sitting in the gate of Benjamin;

8 Ebed-melech went forth out of the king's house, and spake to the king, saying,

9 My lord the king, these men have done evil in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet, whom they have cast into the dungeon; and ⁱ he is like to die for hunger in the place where he is: for there is no more bread in the city.

10 Then the king commanded Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, saying, Take from hence thirty men ⁺ with thee, and take up Jeremiah the prophet out of the dungeon, before he die.

11 So Ebed-melech took the men with him, and went into the house of the king under the treasury, and took thence old cast clouts and old rotten rags, and let them down by cords into the dungeon to Jeremiah.

12 And Ebed-melech the Ethiopian said unto Jeremiah, Put now these old cast clouts and rotten rags under thine armholes under the cords. And Jeremiah did so.

13 ^j So they drew up Jeremiah with cords, and took him up out of the dungeon:

and Jeremiah remained ^k in the court of the prison.

14 ^l Then Zedekiah the king sent, and took Jeremiah the prophet unto him into the ^m third entry that is in the house of the LORD: and the king said unto Jeremiah, I will ask thee a thing; hide nothing from me.

15 Then Jeremiah said unto Zedekiah, If I declare it unto thee, wilt thou not surely put me to death? and if I give thee counsel, wilt thou not hearken unto me?

16 So Zedekiah the king sware secretly unto Jeremiah, saying, As the LORD liveth, ⁿ that made us this soul, I will not put thee to death, neither will I give thee into the hand of these men that seek thy life.

17 Then said Jeremiah unto Zedekiah, Thus saith the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel; If thou wilt assuredly ^o go forth ^p unto the king of Babylon's princes, then thy soul shall live, and this city shall not be burned with fire; and thou shalt live, and thine house:

18 But if thou wilt not go forth to the king of Babylon's princes, then shall this city be given into the hand of the Chaldeans, and they shall burn it with fire, and ^q thou shalt not escape out of their hand.

19 And Zedekiah the king said unto Jeremiah, I am afraid of the Jews that are fallen to the Chaldeans, lest they deliver me into their hand, and they ^r mock me.

20 But Jeremiah said, They shall not deliver thee. Obey, I beseech thee, the voice of the LORD, which I speak unto thee: so it shall be well unto thee, and thy soul shall live.

21 But if thou refuse to go forth, this is the word that the LORD hath shewed me:

22 And, behold, all the women that are left in the king of Judah's house shall be brought forth to the king of Babylon's princes, and those women shall say, ⁺ Thy friends have set thee on, and have prevailed against thee: thy feet are sunk in the mire, and they are turned away back.

23 So they shall bring out all thy wives and ^s thy children to the Chaldeans: and ^t thou shalt not escape out of their hand, but shalt be taken by the hand of the king of Babylon: and ^u thou shalt cause this city to be burned with fire.

24 ^v Then said Zedekiah unto Jeremiah, Let no man know of these words, and thou shalt not die.

25 But if the princes hear that I have talked with thee, and they come unto thee, and say unto thee, Declare unto us now what thou hast said unto the king, ^w hide it

3 Now the LORD hath brought it, and done according as he hath said: ^c because ye have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed his voice, therefore this thing is come upon you.

4 And now, behold, I loose thee this day from the chains which ^{||} were upon thine hand. ^d If it seem good unto thee to come with me into Babylon, come; and [†] I will look well unto thee: but if it seem ill unto thee to come with me into Babylon, forbear: behold, ^e all the land is before thee: whither it seemeth good and convenient for thee to go, thither go.

5 Now while he was not yet gone back, he said, Go back also to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, ^f whom the king of Babylon hath made governor over the cities of Judah, and dwell with him among the people: or go wheresoever it seemeth convenient unto thee to go. So the captain of the guard gave him victuals and a reward, and let him go.

6 ^g Then went Jeremiah unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to ^h Mizpah; and dwelt with him among the people that were left in the land.

7 ⁱ Now when all the captains of the forces which were in the fields, even they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam governor in the land, and had committed unto him men, and women, and children, and of ^k the poor of the land, of them that were not carried away captive to Babylon;

8 Then they came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, ^l even Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth, and the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and Jezaniah the son of a Maachathite, they and their men.

9 And Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan sware unto them and to their men, saying, Fear not to serve the Chaldeans: dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well with you.

10 As for me, behold, I will dwell at Mizpah, [†] to serve the Chaldeans, which will come unto us: but ye, gather ye wine, and summer fruits, and oil, and put them in your vessels, and dwell in your cities that ye have taken.

11 Likewise when all the Jews that were in Moab, and among the Ammonites, and in Edom, and that were in all the countries, heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant of Judah, and that he had set over them Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan;

12 Even all the Jews returned out of all places whither they were driven, and came to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah, unto Mizpah, and gathered wine and summer fruits very much.

13 ^{||} Moreover Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were in the fields, came to Gedaliah to Mizpah,

14 And said unto him, Dost thou certainly know that ^m Baalis the king of the Ammonites hath sent Ishmael the son of Nethaniah [†] to slay thee? But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam believed them not.

15 Then Johanan the son of Kareah spake to Gedaliah in Mizpah secretly, saying, Let me go, I pray thee, and I will slay Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and no man shall know it: wherefore should he slay thee, that all the Jews which are gathered unto thee should be scattered, and the remnant in Judah perish?

16 But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam said unto Johanan the son of Kareah, Thou shalt not do this thing: for thou speakest falsely of Ishmael.

6 And Ishmael the son of Nethaniah went forth from Mizpah to meet them, [†] weeping all along as he went: and it came to pass, as he met them, he said unto them, Come to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam.

7 And it was so, when they came into the midst of the city, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah slew them, and ^e cast them into the midst of the pit, he, and the men that were with him.

8 But ten men were found among them that said unto Ishmael, Slay us not: for we have treasures in the field, of wheat, and of barley, and of oil, and of honey. So he forbore, and slew them not among their brethren.

9 Now the pit wherein Ishmael had cast all the dead bodies of the men, whom he had slain ^{||} [†] because of Gedaliah, was it [‡] which Aza the king had made for fear of Baasha king of Israel: and Ishmael the son of Nethaniah filled it with them that were slain.

11 ¶ But when Johanan the son of Kareah, and all ^k the captains of the forces that were with him, heard of all the evil that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had done,

12 Then they took all the men, and went to fight with Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and found him by ^l the great waters that are in Gibeon, 13 Now it came pass, that when all the people which were with Ishmael saw Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, then they were glad.

14 So all the people that Ishmael had carried away captive from Mizpah cast about and returned, and went unto Johanan the son of Kareah.

15 But Ishmael the son of Nethaniah escaped from Johanan with eight men, and went to the Ammonites.

16 Then took Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, all the remnant of the people whom he had recovered from Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, from Mizpah, after that he had slain Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, even mighty men of war, and the women, and the children, and the eunuchs, whom he had brought again from Gibeon:

1 Johanan desireth Jeremiah to enquire of God, promising obedience to his will. 7 Jeremiah assureth him of safety in Judea, 13 and destruction in Egypt: 19 he reproveth their hypocrisy, in requiring of the Lord that which they meant not to follow.

THEN all the captains of the forces, ^a and Johanan the son of Kareah, and Jezaniah the son of Hoshaiah, and all the people from the least even unto the greatest, came near,

2 And said unto Jeremiah the prophet, ^{||} Let, we beseech thee, our supplication be accepted before thee, and ^b pray for us unto the LORD thy God, even for all this remnant; (for we are left but ^c a few of many, as thine eyes do behold us:)

3 That the LORD thy God may shew us ^d the way wherein we may walk, and the thing that we may do.

4 Then Jeremiah the prophet said unto them, I have heard you; behold, I will pray unto the LORD your God according to your words; and it shall come to pass, that ^e whatsoever thing the LORD shall answer you, I will declare it unto you; I will ^f keep nothing back from you.

5 Then they said to Jeremiah, ^g The LORD be a true and faithful witness between us, if we do not even according to all things for the which the LORD thy God shall send thee to us.

6 Whether it be good, or whether it be evil, we will obey the voice of the LORD our God, to whom we send thee; ^h that it may be well with us, when we obey the voice of the LORD our God.

7 ¶ And it came to pass after ten days, that the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah.

8 Then called he Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces which were with him; and all the people from the least even to the greatest,

9 And said unto them, Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, unto whom ye sent me to present your supplication before him;

10 If ye will still abide in this land; then
I will I build you, and not pull you down, and I will plant you, and not pluck you up:
for I *repent me of the evil that I have done unto you.

11 Be not afraid of the king of Babylon, of whom ye are afraid; be not afraid of him, saith the LORD: 'for I am with you to save you, and to deliver you from his hand.

12 And ^m I will shew mercies unto you, that he may have mercy upon you, and cause you to return to your own land.

13 But if ⁿ ye say, We will not dwell in this land, neither obey the voice of the LORD your God,

14 Saying, No; but we will go into the land of Egypt, where we shall see no war, nor hear the sound of the trumpet, nor have hunger of bread; and there will we dwell:

15 And now therefore hear the word of the LORD, ye remnant of Judah, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel;
If ye ^a wholly set ^p your faces to enter into Egypt, and go to sojourn there;

16 Then it shall come to pass, that the sword, ^a which ye feared, shall overtake you there in the land of Egypt, and the famine, whereof ye were afraid, [†] shall follow close after you there in Egypt; and there ye shall die.

17 [†] So shall it be with all the men that set their faces to go into Egypt to sojourn there; they shall die ^r by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence: and ^s none of them shall remain or escape from the evil that I will bring upon them.

18 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; As mine anger and my fury hath been ^t poured forth upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem; so shall my fury be poured forth upon you, when ye shall enter into Egypt: and ^v ye shall be an execration, and an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach; and ye shall see this place no more.

19 ¶ The LORD hath said concerning you, O ye remnant of Judah; ^x Go ye not into Egypt: know certainly that I have [†] admonished you this day.

20 For ^y ye dissembled in your hearts, when ye sent me unto the LORD your God, saying, ^r Pray for us unto the LORD our God: and according unto all that the LORD

we will do it.

21 And now I have this day declared it to you; but ye have not obeyed the voice of the LORD your God, nor any thing for the which he hath sent me unto you.

22 Now therefore know certainly that

^a ye shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, in the place whither ye desire [†] to go and to sojourn.

CHAP. XLIII.

1 Johanan discrediting Jeremiah's prophecy, carrieth Jeremiah and others into Egypt. 8 Jeremiah prophesieth by a type the conquest of Egypt by the Babylonians.

AND it came to pass, that when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking unto all the people all the words of the LORD their God, for which the LORD their God had sent him to them, even all these words;

2 Then spake Azariah the son of Ho-shaiah, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the proud men, saying unto Jeremiah, Thou speakest falsely: the LORD our God hath not sent thee to say, Go not into Egypt to sojourn there:

3 But Baruch the son of Neriah setteth thee on against us, for to deliver us into the hand of the Chaldeans, that they might put us to death, and carry us away captives into Babylon.

4 So Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, and all the people, obeyed not the voice of the LORD, to dwell in the land of Judah.

5 But Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, took ^b all the remnant of Judah, that were returned from all nations, whither they had been driven, to dwell in the land of Judah;

6 Even men, and women, and children,
^c and the king's daughters, ^d and every person that Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard had left with Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Jeremiah the prophet, and Baruch the son of Neriah.

7 So they came into the land of Egypt:
for they obeyed not the voice of the LORD:
thus came they even to ^e Tahpanhes.

8 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah in Tahpanhes, saying,

9 Take great stones in thine hand, and hide them in the clay in the brickkiln, which is at the entry of Pharaoh's house in Tahpanhes, in the sight of the men of Judah;

10 And say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will send and take Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon, ^f my servant, and will set his throne upon these stones that I have hid; and he shall spread his royal pavilion over them.

11 ^g And when he cometh, he shall smite the land of Egypt, and deliver ^h such as are for death to death; and such as are for

C H A P. XLIV.

1 Jeremiah expresseth the desolation of Judah for their idolatry: 11 he prophesieth their destruction, who commit idolatry in Egypt. 15 The obstinacy of the Jews. 20 Jeremiah threateneth them for the same, 29 and for a sign prophesieth the destruction of Egypt.

587. THE word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the Jews which dwell in the land of Egypt, which dwell at ^a Migdol, and at ^b Tahpanhes, and at ^c Noph, and in the country of Pathros, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Ye have seen all the evil that I have brought upon Jerusalem, and upon all the cities of Judah; and, behold, this day they are ^d a desolation, and no man dwelleth therein,

3 Because of their wickedness which they have committed to provoke me to anger, in that they went ^e to burn incense, and to ^f serve other gods, whom they knew not, neither they, ye, nor your fathers.

4 Howbeit ^g I sent unto you all my servants the prophets, rising early and sending them, saying, Oh, do not this abominable thing that I hate.

5 But they hearkened not, nor inclined their ear to turn from their wickedness, to burn no incense unto other gods.

6 Wherefore ^h my fury and mine anger was poured forth, and was kindled in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem; and they are wasted and desolate, as at this day.

7 Therefore now thus saith the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel; Wherefore commit ye ⁱ this great evil ^j against your souls, to cut off from you man and woman, child and suckling, [†] out of Judah, to leave you none to remain;

8 In that ye ^k provoke me unto wrath with the works of your hands, burning incense unto other gods in the land of Egypt, whither ye be gone to dwell, that ye might cut yourselves off, and that ye might be ^l a curse and a reproach among all the nations of the earth?

9 Have ye forgotten the [†] wickedness of your fathers, and the wickedness of the kings of Judah, and the wickedness of their wives, and your own wickedness, and the wickedness of your wives, which they have committed in the land of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem?

10 They are not [†] humbled even unto this day, neither have they ^m feared, nor walked in my law, nor in my statutes, that I set before you and before your fathers.

11 ¶ Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, ⁿ I will set my face against you for evil, and to cut off all Judah.

12 And I will take the remnant of Judah, that have set their faces to go into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, and ^o they shall all be consumed, and fall in the land of Egypt; they shall even be consumed by the sword and by the famine: they shall die, from the least even unto the greatest, by the sword and by the famine: and ^p they shall be an execration, and an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach.

13 ^q For I will punish them that dwell in the land of Egypt, as I have punished Jerusalem, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence;

14 So that none of the remnant of Judah, which are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, shall escape or remain, that they should return into the land of Judah, to the which they [†] have a desire to return to dwell there: for ^r none shall return but such as shall escape.

15 ¶ Then all the men which knew that their wives had burned incense unto other gods, and all the women that stood by, a great multitude, even all the people that dwelt in the land of Egypt, in Pathros, answered Jeremiah, saying,

16 As for the word that thou hast spoken unto us in the name of the LORD, ^s we will not hearken unto thee.

17 But we will certainly do ^t whatsoever thing goeth forth out of our own mouth, to burn incense unto the [†] queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her, as we have done, we, and our fathers, our kings, and our princes, in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem: for [†] then had we plenty of [†] victuals, and were well, and saw no evil.

18 But since we left off to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her, we have wanted all things, and have been consumed by the sword and by the famine.

19 * And when we burned incense to the queen of heaven, and poured out drink offerings unto her, did we make her cakes to worship her, and pour out drink offerings unto her, without our men?

20 ¶ Then Jeremiah said unto all the people, to the men, and to the women, and to all the people which had given him that answer, saying,

21 The incense that ye burned in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, ye, and your fathers, your kings, and your princes, and the people of the land, did not the LORD remember them, and came it not into his mind?

22 So that the LORD could no longer bear, because of the evil of your doings, and because of the abominations which ye have committed; therefore is your land a desolation, and an astonishment, and a curse, without an inhabitant, as at this day.

23 Because ye have burned incense, and because ye have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD, nor walked in his law, nor in his statutes, nor in his testimonies; therefore this evil is happened unto you, as at this day.

24 Moreover Jeremiah said unto all the people, and to all the women, Hear the word of the LORD, all Judah that are in the land of Egypt:

25 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying; Ye and your wives have both spoken with your mouths, and fulfilled with your hand, saying, We will surely perform our vows that we have vowed, to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her: ye will surely accomplish your vows, and surely perform your vows.

26 Therefore hear ye the word of the LORD, all Judah that dwell in the land of Egypt; Behold, I have sworn by my great name, saith the LORD, that my name shall no more be named in the mouth of any man of Judah in all the land of Egypt, saying, The Lord God liveth.

27 Behold, I will watch over them for evil, and not for good: and all the men of Judah that are in the land of Egypt shall be consumed by the sword and by the famine, until there be an end of them.

28 Yet a small number that escape the sword shall return out of the land of Egypt into the land of Judah, and all the remnant of Judah, that are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, shall know whose words shall stand, mine, or their's.

29 ¶ And this shall be a sign unto you, saith the LORD, that I will punish you in this place, that ye may know that my words shall surely stand against you for evil:

30 Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will give Pharaoh-hophra king of Egypt into the hand of his enemies, and into the hand of them that seek his life; as I gave Zedekiah king of Judah into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, his enemy, and that fought his life.

CHAP. XLV.

1 Baruch being dismayed, 4 Jeremiah instructeth and comforteth him.

THE word that Jeremiah the prophet spake unto Baruch the son of Neriah, when he had written these words in a book at the mouth of Jeremiah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, unto thee, O Baruch;

3 Thou didst say, Woe is me now! for the LORD hath added grief to my sorrow; I fainted in my sighing, and I find no rest.

4 Thus shalt thou say unto him, The LORD saith thus; Behold, that which I have built will I break down, and that which I have planted I will pluck up, even this whole land.

5 And seekest thou great things for thyself? seek them not: for, behold, I will bring evil upon all flesh, saith the LORD: but thy life will I give unto thee for a prey in all places whither thou goest.

CHAP. XLVI.

1 Jeremiah prophesieth the overthrow of Pharaoh's army at Euphrates, 13 and the conquest of Egypt by Nebuchadrezzar: 27 he comforteth Jacob in their chastisement.

THE word of the LORD which came to Jeremiah the prophet against the Gentiles;

2 Against Egypt, against the army of Pharaoh-necho king of Egypt, which was by the river Euphrates in Carchemish, which Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon smote in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah.

3 Order ye the buckler and shield, and draw near to battle.

4 Harness the horses; and get up, ye horsemen, and stand forth with your helmets; furbish the spears, and put on the brigandines.

5 Wherefore have I seen them dismayed and turned away back? and their mighty ones are beaten down, and are fled apace,

CHAP. XLVIII.

1 The judgement of Moab, 7 for their pride, 11 for their security, 14 for their carnal confidence, 26 and for their contempt of God, and his people.
47 The restoration of Moab.

AGAINST *Moab thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Woe unto *Nebo! for it is spoiled: *Kiriathaim is confounded and taken: *Misgab is confounded and dismayed.

2 *There shall be no more praise of Moab: in *Heshbon they have devised evil against it; come, and let us cut it off from being a nation. Also thou shalt be cut down, O Madmen; the sword shall †pursue thee.

3 †A voice of crying shall be from Horonaim, spoiling and great destruction.

4 Moab is destroyed; her little ones have caused a cry to be heard.

5 *For in the going up of Luhith †continual weeping shall go up; for in the going down of Horonaim the enemies have heard a cry of destruction.

6 †Flee, save your lives, and be like the heath in the wilderness.

7 ¶ For because thou hast trusted in thy works and in thy treasures, thou shalt also be taken: and *Chemosh shall go forth into captivity with his †priests and his princes together.

8 And the spoiler shall come upon every city, and no city shall escape: the valley also shall perish, and the plain shall be destroyed, as the LORD hath spoken.

9 *Give wings unto Moab, that it may flee and get away: for the cities thereof shall be desolate, without any to dwell therein.

10 *Cursed be he that doeth the work of the LORD deceitfully, and cursed be he that keepeth back his sword from blood.

11 ¶ Moab hath been at ease from his youth, and he †hath settled on his lees, and hath not been emptied from vessel to vessel, neither hath he gone into captivity: therefore his taste †remained in him, and his scent is not changed.

12 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will send unto him wanderers, that shall cause him to wander, and shall empty his vessels, and break their bottles.

13 And Moab shall be ashamed of *Chemosh, as the house of Israel †was ashamed of *Beth-el their confidence.

14 ¶ How say ye, *We are mighty and strong men for the war?

15 *Moab is spoiled, and gone up out of her cities, and †his chosen young men are *gone down to the slaughter, saith the king, whose name is the LORD of hosts.

16 The calamity of Moab is near to come, and his affliction hasteth fast.

17 All ye that are about him, bemoan him; and all ye that know his name, say, *How is the strong staff broken, and the beautiful rod!

18 *Thou daughter that dost inhabit *Dibon, come down from thy glory, and sit in thirst; for the spoiler of Moab shall come upon thee, and he shall destroy thy strong holds.

19 O †inhabitant of *Aroer, stand by the way, and espy; ask him that fleeth, and her that escapeth, and say, What is done?

20 Moab is confounded; for it is broken down: howl and cry; tell ye it in *Arnon, that Moab is spoiled.

21 And judgement is come upon the plain country; upon Holon, and upon Jahazah, and upon Mephaath,

22 And upon Dibon, and upon Nebo, and upon Beth-diblathaim,

23 And upon Kiriathaim, and upon Beth-gamul, and upon Beth-meon, 24 And upon *Kerioth, and upon Bozrah, and upon all the cities of the land of Moab, far or near.

25 *The horn of Moab is cut off; and his arm is broken, saith the LORD.

26 ¶ Make ye him drunken: for he magnified himself against the LORD: Moab also shall wallow in his vomit, and he also shall be in derision.

27 For *was not Israel a derision unto thee? *was he found among thieves? for since thou spakest of him, thou †skippedst for joy.

28 O ye that dwell in Moab, leave the cities, and †dwell in the rock, and be like the dove that maketh her nest in the sides of the hole's mouth.

29 We have heard the pride of Moab, (he is exceeding proud) his loftiness, and his arrogance, and his pride, and the haughtiness of his heart.

30 I know his wrath, saith the LORD; but it shall not be so; his lies shall not so effect it.

31 Therefore will I howl for Moab, and I will cry out for all Moab; mine heart shall mourn for the men of Kir-heres.

32 O vine of Sibmah, I will weep for thee with the weeping of Jazer: thy plants are gone over the sea, they reach even to the sea of Jazer: the spoiler is fallen upon thy summer fruits and upon thy vintage.

33 And joy and gladness is taken from the plentiful field, and from the land of Moab; and I have caused wine to fail from the winepresses: none shall tread with shouting; their shouting shall be no shouting.

34 From the cry of Heshbon even unto Elealeh, and even unto Jahaz, have they uttered their voice, from Zoar even unto Horonaim, as an heifer of three years old: for the waters also of Nimrim shall be desolate.

35 Moreover I will cause to cease in Moab, saith the LORD, him that offereth in the high places, and him that burneth incense to his gods.

36 Therefore mine heart shall sound for Moab like pipes, and thine heart shall sound like pipes for the men of Kir-heres: because the riches that he hath gotten are perished.

37 For every head shall be bald, and every beard clipped: upon all the hands shall be cuttings, and upon the loins sackcloth.

38 There shall be lamentation generally upon all the housetops of Moab, and in the streets thereof: for I have broken Moab like a vessel wherein is no pleasure, saith the LORD.

39 They shall howl, saying, How is it broken down! how hath Moab turned the back with shame! so shall Moab be a derision and a dismaying to all them about him.

40 For thus saith the LORD; Behold, he shall fly as an eagle, and shall spread his wings over Moab.

41 Kerioth is taken, and the strong holds are surprised, and the mighty men's hearts in Moab at that day shall be as the heart of a woman in her pangs.

42 And Moab shall be destroyed from being a people, because he hath magnified himself against the LORD.

43 Fear, and the pit, and the snare, shall be upon thee, O inhabitant of Moab, saith the LORD.

44 He that fleeth from the fear shall fall into the pit; and he that getteth up out of the pit shall be taken in the snare: for I will bring upon it, even upon Moab, the year of their visitation, saith the LORD.

45 They that fled stood under the shadow of Heshbon because of the force: but a fire shall come forth out of Heshbon, and a flame from the midst of Sihon, and shall devour the corner of Moab, and the crown of the head of the tumultuous ones.

46 Woe be unto thee, O Moab! the people of Chemosh perisheth: for thy sons are taken captives, and thy daughters captives.

47 Yet will I bring again the captivity of Moab in the latter days, saith the LORD. Thus far is the judgement of Moab.

CHAP. XLIX.

1 The judgement of the Ammonites: 6 their restoration. 7 The judgement of Edom, 23 of Damascus, 28 of Kedar, 30 of Hazor, 34 and of Elam. 39 The restoration of Elam.

CONCERNING the Ammonites, thus saith the LORD; Hath Israel no sons? hath he no heir? why then doth their king inherit Gad, and his people dwell in his cities?

2 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will cause an alarm of war to be heard in Rabbah of the Ammonites; and it shall be a desolate heap, and her daughters shall be burned with fire: then shall Israel be heir unto them that were his heirs, saith the LORD.

3 Howl, O Heshbon, for Ai is spoiled: cry, ye daughters of Rabbah, gird you with sackcloth; lament, and run to and fro by the hedges; for their king shall go into captivity, and his priests and his princes together.

4 Wherefore gloriest thou in the valleys, thy flowing valley, O backsliding daughter? that trusted in her treasures, saying, Who shall come unto me?

5 Behold, I will bring a fear upon thee, saith the Lord God of hosts, from all those that be about thee; and ye shall be driven out every man right forth; and none shall gather up him that wandereth.

6 And afterward I will bring again the captivity of the children of Ammon, saith the LORD.

- 1 Teman? ¹is counsel perished from the pru-

- 8 ¹Flee ye, ²turn back, dwell deep, O inhabitants of ³Dedan; for I will bring the calamity of Esau upon him, the time that I will visit him.
- 9 If ¹grapegatherers come to thee, would they not leave some gleaning grapes? if thieves by night, they will destroy [†]till they have enough.
- 10 ¹But I have made Esau bare, I have uncovered his secret places, and he shall not be able to hide himself: his seed is spoiled, and his brethren, and his neighbours, and ¹he is not.
- 11 Leave thy fatherless children, I will preserve them alive; and let thy widows trust in me.
- 12 For thus saith the LORD; Behold, ¹they whose judgement was not to drink of the cup have assuredly drunken; and art thou he that shall altogether go unpun-ished: thou shalt not go unpunished, but thou shalt surely drink of it.
- 13 For ¹I have sworn by myself, saith the LORD, that ¹Bozrah shall become a desolation, ²a reproach, ³a waste, and a curse; and all the cities thereof shall be perpetual wastes.
- 14 I have heard a ¹rumour from the LORD, and an ambassador is sent unto the heathen, saying, Gather ye together, and come against her, and rise up to the battle.
- 15 For, lo, I will make thee small among the heathen, and despised among men.
- 16 Thy terribleness hath deceived thee, and the pride of thine heart, O thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rock, that hold-est the height of the hill: ²though thou shouldest make thy ³nest as high as the eagle, ²I will bring thee down from thence, saith the LORD.
- 17 Also Edom shall be a desolation: ²every one that goeth by it shall be astonished, and shall hiss at all the plagues thereof.
- 18 ¹As in the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah and the neighbour cities thereof, saith the LORD, no man shall abide there, neither shall a son of man dwell in it.
- 19 ¹Behold, he shall come up like a lion from ²the swelling of Jordan against the habitation of the strong: but I will suddenly make him run away from her: and who is a chosen man, that I may appoint over her? for ²who is like me? and who will ³appoint me the time? and ⁴who is that shepherd that will stand before me?
- 20 ¹Therefore hear the counsel of the LORD, that he hath taken against Edom; and his purposes, that he hath purposed
- against the inhabitants of Teman: Surely the least of the flock shall draw them out:
surely he shall make their habitations desolate with them.
- 21 ¹The earth is moved at the noise of their fall, at the cry the noise thereof was heard in the [†]Red sea.
- 22 Behold, ¹he shall come up and fly as the eagle, and spread his wings over Bozrah: and at that day shall the heart of the mighty men of Edom be as the heart of a woman in her pangs.
- 23 ¹Concerning Damascus: ²Hamath is confounded, and Arpad: for they have heard evil tidings: they are [†]fainthearted; ¹there is sorrow ²on the sea; it cannot be quiet.
- 24 Damascus is waxed feeble, and turn-eth herself to flee, and fear hath seized on her: ²anguish and sorrows have taken her, as a woman in travail.
- 25 How is ¹the city of praise not left,
the city of my joy!
- 26 ¹Therefore her young men shall fall in her streets, and all the men of war shall be cut off in that day, saith the LORD of hosts.
- 27 And I will kindle a ¹fire in the wall of Damascus, and it shall consume the palaces of Ben-hadad.
- 28 ¹Concerning Kedar, and concerning the kingdoms of Hazor, which Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon shall smite, thus saith the LORD; Arise ye, go up to Kedar, and spoil ²the men of the east.
- 29 Their ¹tents and their flocks shall they take away: they shall take to themselves their curtains, and all their vessels, and their camels; and they shall cry unto them, ¹Fear is on every side.
- 30 ¹Flee, [†]get you far off, dwell deep,
O ye inhabitants of Hazor, saith the LORD;
for Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon hath taken counsel against you, and hath conceived a purpose against you
- 31 Arise, get you up unto ²the ³wealthy nation, that dwelleth without care, saith the LORD, which have neither gates nor

- 32 And their camels shall be a booty, and the multitude of their cattle a spoil: and I will ²scatter into all winds ³them that are

2 Declare ye among the nations, and publish, and ^cset up a standard; publish, and conceal not: say, Babylon is taken, ^dBel is confounded, Merodach is broken in pieces; ^eher idols are confounded, her images are broken in pieces.

3 ^fFor out of the north there cometh up ^ga nation against her, which shall make her land desolate, and none shall dwell therein: they shall remove, they shall depart, both man and beast.

4 ¶ In those days, and in that time, saith the LORD, the children of Israel shall come, ^hthey and the children of Judah together, ⁱgoing and weeping: they shall go, ^jand seek the LORD their God.

5 They shall ask the way to Zion with their faces thitherward, ^ksaying, Come, and let us join ourselves to the LORD in ^la perpetual covenant ^mthat shall not be forgotten.

6 My people hath been ⁿlost sheep: their shepherds have caused them to go astray, they have turned them away ^oon the mountains: they have gone from mountain to hill, they have forgotten their ^presting place.

7 All that found them have ^qdevoured them: and ^rtheir adversaries said, We offend not, because they have sinned against the LORD, ^sthe habitation of justice, even the LORD, ^tthe hope of their fathers.

8 ^uRemove out of the midst of Babylon, and go forth out of the land of the Chaldeans, and be as the he goats before the flocks.

9 ¶ For, lo, I will raise and cause to come up against Babylon an assembly of great nations from the north country: and they shall ^vset themselves in array against her; from thence she shall be taken: their arrows ^wshall be as of a mighty ^xexpert man; ^ynone shall return in vain.

10 And Chaldea shall be a spoil: ^zall that spoil her shall be satisfied, saith the LORD.

11 ^aBecause ye were glad, because ye rejoiced, O ye destroyers of mine heritage, because ye are grown ^bfat ^cas the heifer at grass, and ^dbellow as bulls;

12 Your mother shall be sore confounded; she that bare you shall be ashamed: behold, the hindermost of the nations ^eshall be a wilderness, a dry land, and a desert.

13 Because of the wrath of the LORD it shall not be inhabited, ^fbut it shall be wholly desolate: ^gevery one that goeth by Babylon shall be astonished, and hiss at all her plagues.

14 ^hPut yourselves in array against Babylon round about: all ye ⁱthat bend the bow, shoot at her, spare no arrows: for she hath sinned against the LORD.

15 Shout against her round about: she hath ^jgiven her hand: her foundations are fallen, ^kher walls are thrown down: for ^lit is the vengeance of the LORD: take vengeance upon her; ^mas she hath done, do unto her.

16 Cut off the sower from Babylon, and him that handleth the ⁿsickle in the time of harvest: for fear of the oppressing sword ^othey shall turn every one to his people, and they shall flee every one to his own land.

17 ¶ Israel is ^pa scattered sheep; ^qthe lions have driven ^rhim away: first ^sthe king of Assyria hath devoured him; and last this ^tNebuchadrezzar king of Babylon hath broken his bones.

18 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will punish the king of Babylon and his land, as I have punished the king of Assyria.

19 ^uAnd I will bring Israel again to his habitation, and he shall feed on Carmel and Bashan, and his soul shall be satisfied upon mount Ephraim and Gilcad.

20 In those days, and in that time, saith the LORD, ^vthe iniquity of Israel shall be fought for, and there shall be none; and the sins of Judah, and they shall not be found: for I will pardon them, ^a whom I reserve.

21 ¶ Go up against the land ^{ll} of Merathaim, even against it, and against the inhabitants of ^{ll} Pekod: waste and utterly destroy after them, saith the LORD, and do ^a according to all that I have commanded thee.

22 ^a A sound of battle is in the land, and of great destruction.

23 How is ^a the hammer of the whole earth cut asunder and broken! how is Babylon become a desolation among the nations!

24 I have laid a snare for thee, and thou art also taken, O Babylon, ^a and thou wast not aware: thou art found, and also caught, because thou hast striven against the LORD.

25 The LORD hath opened his armoury, and hath brought forth ^r the weapons of his indignation: for this is the work of the Lord God of hosts in the land of the Chaldeans.

26 Come against her [†] from the utmost border, open her storehouses: ^{ll} cast her up as heaps, and destroy her utterly: let nothing of her be left.

27 Slay all her ^a bullocks; let hem go down to the slaughter: woe unto them! for their day is come, the time of ^a their visitation.

28 The voice of them that flee and escape out of the land of Babylon, ^b to declare in Zion the vengeance of the LORD our God, the vengeance of his temple.

29 Call together the archers against Babylon: ^a all ye that bend the bow, camp against it round about; let none thereof escape: ^d recompense her according to her work; according to all that she hath done, do unto her: ^a for she hath been proud against the LORD, against the Holy One of Israel.

30 ^a Therefore shall her young men fall in the streets, and all her men of war shall be cut off in that day, saith the LORD.

31 Behold, I am against thee, O thou [†] most proud, saith the Lord God of hosts: for ^a thy day is come, the time that I will visit thee.

32 And [†] the most proud shall stumble and fall, and none shall raise him up: and ^b I will kindle a fire in his cities, and it shall devour all round about him.

33 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts; The children of Israel and the children of Judah were oppressed together: and all that took them captives held them fast; they refused to let them go.

34 ^a Their Redeemer is strong; ^a the LORD of hosts is his name: he shall thoroughly plead their cause, that he may give rest to the land, and disquiet the inhabitants of Babylon.

35 ¶ A sword is upon the Chaldeans, saith the LORD, and upon the inhabitants of Babylon, and ^a upon her princes, and upon ^m her wise men.

36 A sword is ^a upon the ^{ll} [†] liars; and they shall dote: a sword is upon her mighty men; and they shall be dismayed.

37 A sword is upon their horses, and upon their chariots, and upon all ^a the mingled people that are in the midst of her; and ^p they shall become as women: a sword is upon her treasures; and they shall be robbed.

38 ^a A drought is upon her waters; and they shall be dried up: for it is the land of ^r graven images, and they are mad upon their idols.

39 ^a Therefore the wild beasts of the desert with the wild beasts of the islands shall dwell there, and the owls shall dwell therein: ^a and it shall be no more inhabited for ever; neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation.

40 ^a As God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah and the neighbour cities thereof, saith the LORD; so shall no man abide there, neither shall any son of man dwell therein.

41 ^a Behold, a people shall come from the north, and a great nation, and many kings shall be raised up from the coasts of the earth.

42 ^r They shall hold the bow and the lance: ^a they are cruel, and will not shew mercy: ^a their voice shall roar like the sea, and they shall ride upon horses, every one put in array, like a man to the battle, against thee, O daughter of Babylon.

43 The king of Babylon hath heard the report of them, and his hands waxed feeble: ^b anguish took hold of him, and pangs as of a woman in travail.

44 ^a Behold, he shall come up like a lion from the swelling of Jordan unto the habitation of the strong: but I will make them suddenly run away from her: and who is a chosen man, that I may appoint over her? for who is like me? and who will ^{ll} appoint me the time? and ^d who is that shepherd that will stand before me?

45 Therefore hear ye ^a the counsel of the LORD, that he hath taken against Babylon; and his purposes, that he hath purposed against the land of the Chaldeans: Surely the least of the flock shall draw them out:

surely he shall make their habitation desolate with them.

46^e At the noise of the taking of Babylon the earth is moved, and the cry is heard among the nations.

CHAP. LI.

1 The severe judgement of God against Babylon, in revenge of Israel. 59 Jeremiah delivereth the book of this prophecy to Seraiah, to be cast into Euphrates, in token of the perpetual sinking of Babylon.

THUS saith the LORD; Behold, I will raise up against Babylon, and against them that dwell in the [†] midst of them that rise up against me, ^a a destroying wind;

2 And will send unto Babylon ^b fanners, that shall fan her, and shall empty her land: ^c for in the day of trouble they shall be against her round about.

3 Against him that bendeth ^d let the archer bend his bow, and against him that lifteth himself up in his brigandine: and spare ye not her young men; ^e destroy ye utterly all her host.

4 Thus the slain shall fall in the land of the Chaldeans, ^f and they that are thrust through in her streets.

5 For Israel hath not been forsaken, nor Judah of his God, of the LORD of hosts; though their land was filled with sin against the Holy One of Israel.

6 ^g Flee out of the midst of Babylon, and deliver every man his soul: be not cut off in her iniquity; for ^h this is the time of the LORD's vengeance; ⁱ he will render unto her a recompence.

7 ^k Babylon hath been a golden cup in the LORD's hand, that made all the earth drunken: ^l the nations have drunken of her wine; therefore the nations ^m are mad.

8 Babylon is suddenly ⁿ fallen and destroyed: ^o howl for her; ^p take balm for her pain, if so be she may be healed.

9 We would have healed Babylon, but she is not healed: forsake her, and ^q let us go every one into his own country: ^r for her judgement reacheth unto heaven, and is lifted up even to the skies.

10 The LORD hath ^s brought forth our righteousness: come, and let us ^t declare in Zion the work of the LORD our God.

11 ^u Make [†] bright the arrows; gather the shields: ^v the LORD hath raised up the spirit of the kings of the Medes: ^w for his device is against Babylon, to destroy it; because it is ^x the vengeance of the LORD, the vengeance of his temple.

12 ^y Set up the standard upon the walls of Babylon, make the watch strong, set up the watchmen, prepare the [†] ambushes:

for the LORD hath both devised and done that which he spake against the inhabitants of Babylon.

13 ^b O thou that dwellest upon many waters, abundant in treasures, thine end is come, and the measure of thy covetousness.

14 ^c The LORD of hosts hath sworn [†] by himself, saying, Surely I will fill thee with men, ^d as with caterpillers; and they shall [†] lift ^e up a shout against thee.

15 ^f He hath made the earth by his power, he hath established the world by his wisdom, and ^g hath stretched out the heaven by his understanding.

16 ^h When he uttereth his voice, there is a multitude of waters in the heavens; and ⁱ he causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth: he maketh lightnings with rain, and bringeth forth the wind out of his treasures.

17 ^k Every man ^l is brutish by his knowledge; every founder is confounded by the graven image: ^m for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them.

18 ⁿ They are vanity, the work of errors: in the time of their visitation they shall perish.

19 ^o The portion of Jacob is not like them; for he is the former of all things: and Israel is the rod of his inheritance: the LORD of hosts is his name.

20 ^p Thou art my battle ax and weapons of war: for ^q with thee will I break in pieces the nations, and with thee will I destroy kingdoms;

21 And with thee will I break in pieces the horse and his rider; and with thee will I break in pieces the chariot and his rider;

22 With thee also will I break in pieces man and woman; and with thee will I break in pieces ^r old and young; and with thee will I break in pieces the young man and the maid;

23 I will also break in pieces with thee the shepherd and his flock; and with thee will I break in pieces the husbandman and his yoke of oxen; and with thee will I break in pieces captains and rulers.

24 ^s And I will render unto Babylon and to all the inhabitants of Chaldea all their evil that they have done in Zion in your sight, saith the LORD.

25 Behold, I am against thee, ^t O destroying mountain, saith the LORD, which destroyest all the earth: and I will stretch out mine hand upon thee, and roll thee down from the rocks, ^u and will make thee a burnt mountain.

26 And they shall not take of thee a stone for a corner, nor a stone for foundations;

* but thou shalt be † desolate for ever, saith the LORD.

27 * Set ye up a standard in the land, blow the trumpet among the nations, * prepare the nations against her, call together against her † the kingdoms of Ararat, Minni, and Ashchenaz; appoint a captain against her; cause the horses to come up as the rough caterpillers.

28 Prepare against her the nations with † the kings of the Medes, the captains thereof, and all the rulers thereof, and all the land of his dominion.

29 And the land shall tremble and sorrow: for every purpose of the LORD shall be performed against Babylon, * to make the land of Babylon a desolation without an inhabitant.

30 The mighty men of Babylon have forborn to fight, they have remained in their holds: their might hath failed; † they became as women: they have burned her dwelling places; † her bars are broken.

31 † One post shall run to meet another, and one messenger to meet another, to shew the king of Babylon that his city is taken at one end;

32 And that * the passages are stopped, and the reeds they have burned with fire, and the men of war are affrighted.

33 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; The daughter of Babylon is † like a threshing floor, * † it is time to thresh her; yet a little while, † and the time of her harvest shall come.

34 Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon hath † devoured me, he hath crushed me, he hath made me an empty vessel, he hath swallowed me up like a dragon, he hath filled his belly with my delicates, he hath cast me out.

35 † The violence done to me and to my † flesh be upon Babylon, shall the † inhabitant of Zion say; and my blood upon the inhabitants of Chaldea, shall Jerusalem say.

36 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, * I will plead thy cause, and take vengeance for thee; † and I will dry up her sea, and make her springs dry.

37 * And Babylon shall become heaps, a dwelling place for dragons, * an astonishment, and an hissing, without an inhabitant.

38 They shall roar together like lions: they shall † yell as lions' whelps.

39 In their heat I will make their feasts, and * I will make them drunken, that they may rejoice, and sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake, saith the LORD.

40 I will bring them down like lambs to the slaughter, like rams with he goats.

41 How is * Sheſhach taken, and how is * the praise of the whole earth surprised! how is Babylon become an astonishment among the nations!

42 † The sea is come up upon Babylon; she is covered with the multitude of the waves thereof.

43 * Her cities are a desolation, a dry land, and a wilderness, a land wherein no man dwelleth, neither doth any son of man pass thereby.

44 † And I will punish Bel in Babylon, and I will bring forth out of his mouth that which he hath swallowed up: and the nations shall not flow together any more unto him: yea, † the wall of Babylon shall fall.

45 * My people, go ye out of the midst of her, and deliver ye every man his soul from the fierce anger of the LORD.

46 And † left your heart faint, and ye fear * for the rumour that shall be heard in the land; a rumour shall both come one year, and after that in another year shall come a rumour, and violence in the land, ruler against ruler.

47 Therefore, behold, the days come, that * I will † do judgement upon the graven images of Babylon: and her whole land shall be confounded, and all her slain shall fall in the midst of her.

48 Then * the heaven and the earth, and all that is therein, shall sing for Babylon: † for the spoilers shall come unto her from the north, saith the LORD.

49 † As Babylon hath caused the slain of Israel to fall, so at Babylon shall fall the slain of all † the earth.

50 * Ye that have escaped the sword, go away, stand not still: remember the LORD afar off, and let Jerusalem come into your mind.

51 † We are confounded, because we have heard reproach: shame hath covered our faces: for strangers are come into the sanctuaries of the LORD's house.

52 Wherefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, * that I will do judgement upon her graven images: and through all her land the wounded shall groan.

53 † Though Babylon should mount up to heaven, and though she should fortify the height of her strength, yet from me shall spoilers come unto her, saith the LORD.

54 * A sound of a cry cometh from Babylon, and great destruction from the land of the Chaldeans:

55 Because the LORD hath spoiled Babylon, and destroyed out of her the great voice; when her waves do roar like great waters, a noise of their voice is uttered:

56 Because the spoiler is come upon her, even upon Babylon, and her mighty men are taken, every one of their bows is broken: for the LORD God of recompences shall surely requite.

57 And I will make drunk her princes, and her wise men, her captains, and her rulers, and her mighty men: and they shall sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake, saith the king, whose name is the LORD of hosts.

58 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; The broad walls of Babylon shall be utterly broken, and her high gates shall be burned with fire; and the people shall labour in vain, and the folk in the fire, and they shall be weary.

59 The word which Jeremiah the prophet commanded Seraiah the son of Neriah, the son of Maaseiah, when he went with Zedekiah the king of Judah into Babylon in the fourth year of his reign. And this Seraiah was a quiet prince.

60 So Jeremiah wrote in a book all the evil that should come upon Babylon, even all these words that are written against Babylon.

61 And Jeremiah said to Seraiah, When thou comest to Babylon, and shalt see, and shalt read all these words;

62 Then shalt thou say, O LORD, thou hast spoken against this place, to cut it off, that none shall remain in it, neither man nor beast, but that it shall be desolate for ever.

63 And it shall be, when thou hast made an end of reading this book, that thou shalt bind a stone to it, and cast it into the midst of Euphrates:

64 And thou shalt say, Thus shall Babylon sink, and shall not rise from the evil that I will bring upon her: and they shall be weary. Thus far are the words of Jeremiah.

C H A P. LII.

1 Zedekiah rebelleth. 4 Jerusalem is besieged and taken. 8 Zedekiah's sons killed, and his own eyes put out. 12 Nebuzar-adan burneth and spoileth the city: 24 he carrieth away the captives. 31 Evil-merodach advanceth Jehoiashin.

ZEDEKIAH was one and twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.

2 And he did that which was evil in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that Jehoiakim had done.

3 For through the anger of the LORD it came to pass in Jerusalem and Judah, till he had cast them out from his presence, that Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

4 And it came to pass in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem, and pitched against it, and built forts against it round about.

5 So the city was besieged unto the eleventh year of king Zedekiah.

6 And in the fourth month, in the ninth day of the month, the famine was sore in the city, so that there was no bread for the people of the land.

7 Then the city was broken up, and all the men of war fled, and went forth out of the city by night by the way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the king's garden; (now the Chaldeans were by the city round about:) and they went by the way of the plain.

8 But the army of the Chaldeans pursued after the king, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho; and all his army was scattered from him.

9 Then they took the king, and carried him up unto the king of Babylon to Riblah in the land of Hamath; where he gave judgement upon him.

10 And the king of Babylon slew the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes: he slew also all the princes of Judah in Riblah.

11 Then he put out the eyes of Zedekiah; and the king of Babylon bound him in chains, and carried him to Babylon, and put him in prison till the day of his death.

12 Now in the fifth month, in the tenth day of the month, which was the nineteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, came Nebuzar-adan, captain of the guard, which served the king of Babylon, into Jerusalem,

13 And burned the house of the LORD, and the king's house; and all the houses of Jerusalem, and all the houses of the great men, burned he with fire:

14 And all the army of the Chaldeans, that were with the captain of the guard, brake down all the walls of Jerusalem round about.

15 Then Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard carried away captive certain of the poor of the people, and the residue of the people that remained in the city, and those that fell away, that fell to the king of Babylon, and the rest of the multitude.

16 But Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard left certain of the poor of the land for vinedressers and for husbandmen.

17 ¶ ⁱAlso the ^kpillars of bras that were in the house of the LORD, and the bases, and the brasen sea that was in the house of the LORD, the Chaldeans brake, and carried all the bras of them to Babylon.

18 ⁱThe caldrons also, and the ^hshovels, and the snuffers, and the ^hbowls, and the spoons, and all the vessels of bras wherewith they ministered, took they away.

19 And the basons, and the ^hfirepans, and the bowls, and the caldrons, and the candlesticks, and the spoons, and the cups; that which was of gold in gold, and that which was of silver in silver, took the captain of the guard away.

20 The two pillars, one sea, and twelve brasen bulls that were under the bases, which king Solomon had made in the house of the LORD: ^m† the bras of all these vessels was without weight.

21 And concerning the ^apillars, the height of one pillar was eighteen cubits; and a [†]fillet of twelve cubits did compass it; and the thickness thereof was four fingers: it was hollow.

22 And a chapter of bras was upon it; and the height of one chapter was five cubits, with network and pomegranates upon the chapters round about, all of bras. The second pillar also and the pomegranates were like unto these.

23 And there were ninety and six pomegranates on a side; and ^aall the pomegranates upon the network were an hundred round about.

24 ¶ And ^pthe captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, ^qand Zephaniah the second priest, and the three keepers of the [†]door:

25 He took also out of the city an eunuch, which had the charge of the men of war; and seven men of them that [†]were near the king's person, which were found in the city; and the ^hprincipal scribe of the host, who mustered the people of the land; and threescore men of the people of the land, that were found in the midst of the city.

26 So Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard took them, and brought them to the king of Babylon to Riblah.

27 And the king of Babylon smote them; and put them to death in Riblah in the land of Hamath. Thus Judah was carried away captive out of his own land.

28 ¶ ⁱThis is the people whom Nebuchadrezzar carried away captive: in the [†]seventh year [†]three thousand Jews and three and twenty:

29 ^aIn the eighteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar he carried away captive from Jerusalem eight hundred thirty and two [†]persons:

30 In the three and twentieth year of Nebuchadrezzar Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard carried away captive of the Jews seven hundred forty and five persons: all the persons were four thousand and six hundred.

31 ¶ ^xAnd it came to pass in the seven and thirtieth year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, in the five and twentieth day of the month, that Evil-merodach king of Babylon in the first year of his reign ^ylifted up the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah, and brought him forth out of prison,

32 And spake [†]kindly unto him, and set his throne above the throne of the kings that were with him in Babylon, 33 And changed his prison garments: ^zand he did continually eat bread before him all the days of his life.

34 And for his diet, there was a continual diet given him of the king of Babylon, [†]every day a portion until the day of his death, all the days of his life.

enemies prosper; for the LORD hath afflicted her for the multitude of her transgressions: her children are gone into captivity before the enemy.

6 And from the daughter of Zion all her beauty is departed: her princes are become like harts that find no pasture, and they are gone without strength before the pursuer.

7 Jerusalem remembered in the days of her affliction and of her miseries all her pleasant things that she had in the days of old, when her people fell into the hand of the enemy, and none did help her: the adversaries saw her, and did mock at her sabbaths.

8 Jerusalem hath grievously sinned; therefore she is removed: all that honoured her despise her, because they have seen her nakedness: yea, she sigheth, and turneth backward.

9 Her filthiness is in her skirts; she remembereth not her last end; therefore she came down wonderfully: she had no comforter. O LORD, behold my affliction: for the enemy hath magnified himself.

10 The adversary hath spread out his hand upon all her pleasant things: for she hath seen that the heathen entered into her sanctuary, whom thou didst command that they should not enter into thy congregation.

11 All her people sigh, they seek bread; they have given their pleasant things for meat to relieve the soul: see, O LORD, and consider; for I am become vile.

12 Is it nothing to you, all ye that pass by? behold, and see if there be any sorrow like unto my sorrow, which is done unto me, wherewith the LORD hath afflicted me in the day of his fierce anger.

13 From above hath he sent fire into my bones, and it prevaieth against them: he hath spread a net for my feet, he hath turned me back: he hath made me desolate and faint all the day.

14 The yoke of my transgressions is bound by his hand: they are wreathed, and come up upon my neck: he hath made my strength to fall, the LORD hath delivered me into their hands, from whom I am not able to rise up.

15 The LORD hath trodden under foot all my mighty men in the midst of me: he hath called an assembly against me to crush my young men: the LORD hath trodden the virgin, the daughter of Judah, as in a winepress.

16 For these things I weep; mine eye, mine eye runneth down with water, because the comforter that should relieve my soul is far from me: my children are desolate, because the enemy prevailed.

17 Zion spreadeth forth her hands; and there is none to comfort her: the LORD hath commanded concerning Jacob, that his adversaries should be round about him: Jerusalem is as a menstruous woman among them.

18 The LORD is righteous; for I have rebelled against his commandment: hear, I pray you, all people, and behold my sorrow: my virgins and my young men are gone into captivity.

19 I called for my lovers, but they deceived me: my priests and mine elders gave up the ghost in the city, while they sought their meat to relieve their souls.

20 Behold, O LORD; for I am in distress: my bowels are troubled; mine heart is turned within me; for I have grievously rebelled: abroad the sword bereaveth, at home there is as death.

21 They have heard that I sigh: there is none to comfort me: all mine enemies have heard of my trouble; they are glad that thou hast done it: thou wilt bring the day that thou hast called, and they shall be like unto me.

22 Let all their wickedness come before thee; and do unto them, as thou hast done unto me for all my transgressions: for my sighs are many, and my heart is faint.

CHAPTER II.

1 Jeremiah lamenteth the misery of Jerusalem: 20 he complaineth thereof to God.

HOW hath the LORD covered the daughter of Zion with a cloud in his anger, and cast down from heaven unto the earth the beauty of Israel, and remembered not his footstool in the day of his anger!

2 The LORD hath swallowed up all the habitations of Jacob, and hath not pitied: he hath thrown down in his wrath the strong holds of the daughter of Judah; he hath brought them down to the ground: he hath polluted the kingdom and the princes thereof.

3 He hath cut off in his fierce anger all the horn of Israel: he hath drawn back his right hand from before the enemy, and he burned against Jacob like a flaming fire, which devoureth round about.

4 He hath bent his bow like an enemy: he stood with his right hand as an adversary, and slew all that were pleasant to the eye in the tabernacle of the daughter of Zion: he poured out his fury like fire.

5^k The LORD was as an enemy: he hath swallowed up Israel, he hath swallowed up all her palaces: he hath destroyed his strong holds, and hath increased in the daughter of Judah mourning and lamentation.

6 And he hath violently ^m taken away his ⁿ tabernacle, ^o as if it were of a garden: he hath destroyed his places of the assembly: ^p the LORD hath caused the solemn feasts and sabbaths to be forgotten in Zion, and hath despised in the indignation of his anger the king and the priest.

7 The LORD hath cast off his altar, he hath abhorred his sanctuary, he hath [†] given up into the hand of the enemy the walls of her palaces; ^q they have made a noise in the house of the LORD, as in the day of a solemn feast.

8 The LORD hath purposed to destroy the wall of the daughter of Zion: ^r he hath stretched out a line, he hath not withdrawn his hand from [†] destroying: therefore he made the rampart and the wall to lament; they languished together.

9 Her gates are sunk into the ground; he hath destroyed and ^s broken her bars: ^t her king and her princes ^u are among the Gentiles: ^v the law is no more; her ^w prophets also find no vision from the LORD.

10 The elders of the daughter of Zion ^x sit upon the ground, ^y and keep silence: they have ^z cast up dust upon their heads; they have ^a girded themselves with sackcloth: the virgins of Jerusalem hang down their heads to the ground.

11 ^b Mine eyes do fail with tears, ^c my bowels are troubled, ^d my liver is poured upon the earth, for the destruction of the daughter of my people; because ^e the children and the sucklings ^f swoon in the streets of the city.

12 They say to their mothers, Where is corn and wine? when they swooned as the wounded in the streets of the city, when their soul was poured out into their mothers' bosom.

13 What thing shall I take to witness for thee? ^g what thing shall I liken to thee, O daughter of Jerusalem? what shall I equal to thee, that I may comfort thee, O virgin daughter of Zion? for thy breach is great like the sea: who can heal thee?

14 Thy ^h prophets have seen vain and foolish things for thee: and they have not ⁱ discovered thine iniquity, to turn away thy captivity; but have seen for thee false burdens and causes of banishment.

15 ^j All that pass ^k by ^l clap their hands at thee; they hiss ^m and wag their head at the daughter of Jerusalem, saying, Is this the city that men call 'The perfection of beauty, The joy of the whole earth?'

16 ⁿ All thine enemies have opened their mouth against thee: they hiss and gnash the teeth: they say, ^o We have swallowed her up: certainly this is the day that we looked for; we have found, ^p we have seen it.

17 The LORD hath done ^q that which he hath ^r devised; he hath fulfilled his word that he had commanded in the days of old: ^s he hath thrown down, and hath not pitied: and he hath caused ^t thine enemy to rejoice over thee, he hath set up the horn of thine adversaries.

18 Their heart cried unto the Lord, O wall of the daughter of Zion, let tears run down like a river day and night: give thyself no rest; let not the apple of thine eye cease.

19 Arise, ^u cry out in the night: in the beginning of the watches ^v pour out thine heart like water before the face of the Lord: lift up thy hands toward him for the life of thy young children, ^w that faint for hunger ^x in the top of every street.

20 ¶ Behold, O LORD, and consider to whom thou hast done this. ^y Shall the women eat their fruit, ^z and children ^a of a span long? ^b shall the priest and the prophet be slain in the sanctuary of the LORD?

21 The young and the old lie on the ground in the streets: my virgins and my young men are fallen by the sword; thou hast slain ^c them in the day of thine anger; ^d thou hast killed, ^e and not pitied.

22 Thou hast called as in a solemn day ^f my terrors round about, ^g so that in the day of the LORD's anger none escaped nor remained: ^h those that I have swaddled and brought up hath mine enemy consumed.

† Heb. from his heart.

8 Also when I cry and shout, he shutteth out my prayer.

9 He hath inclosed my ways with hewn stone, he hath made my paths crooked.

10 He was unto me as a bear lying in wait, and as a lion in secret places.

11 He hath turned aside my ways, and pulled me in pieces: he hath made me desolate.

12 He hath bent his bow, and set me as a mark for the arrow.

13 He hath caused the arrows of his quiver to enter into my reins.

14 I was a derision to all my people; and their song all the day.

15 He hath filled me with bitterness, he hath made me drunken with wormwood.

16 He hath also broken my teeth with gravel stones, he hath covered me with ashes.

17 And thou hast removed my soul far off from peace: I forgot prosperity.

18 And I said, My strength and my hope is perished from the LORD:

19 Remembering mine affliction and my misery, the wormwood and the gall.

20 My soul hath them still in remembrance, and is humbled in me.

21 This I recall to my mind, therefore have I hope.

22 It is of the LORD's mercies that we are not consumed, because his compassions fail not.

23 They are new every morning: great is thy faithfulness.

24 The LORD is my portion, saith my soul; therefore will I hope in him.

25 The LORD is good unto them that wait for him, to the soul that seeketh him.

26 It is good that a man should both hope and quietly wait for the salvation of the LORD.

27 It is good for a man that he bear the yoke in his youth.

28 He sitteth alone and keepeth silence, because he hath borne it upon him.

29 He putteth his mouth in the dust; if so be there may be hope.

30 He giveth his cheek to him that smiteth him: he is filled full with reproach.

31 For the LORD will not cast off for ever:

32 But though he cause grief, yet will he have compassion according to the multitude of his mercies.

33 For he doth not afflict willingly, nor grieve the children of men.

34 To crush under his feet all the prisoners of the earth.

35 To turn aside the right of a man before the face of the most High, 36 To subvert a man in his cause, the LORD approveth not.

37 Who is he that faith, and it cometh to pass, when the LORD commandeth it not?

38 Out of the mouth of the most High proceedeth not evil and good?

39 Wherefore doth a living man complain, a man for the punishment of his sins?

40 Let us search and try our ways, and turn again to the LORD.

41 Let us lift up our heart with our hands unto God in the heavens.

42 We have transgressed and have rebelled: thou hast not pardoned.

43 Thou hast covered with anger, and persecuted us: thou hast slain, thou hast not pitied.

44 Thou hast covered thyself with a cloud, that our prayer should not pass through.

45 Thou hast made us as the offscouring and refuse in the midst of the people.

46 All our enemies have opened their mouths against us.

47 Fear and a snare is come upon us, desolation and destruction.

48 Mine eye runneth down with rivers of water for the destruction of the daughter of my people.

49 Mine eye trickleth down, and ceaseth not, without any intermission, 50 Till the LORD look down, and behold from heaven.

51 Mine eye affecteth mine heart because of all the daughters of my city.

52 Mine enemies chased me sore, like a bird, without cause.

53 They have cut off my life in the dungeon, and cast a stone upon me.

54 Waters flowed over mine head; then I said, I am cut off.

55 I called upon thy name, O LORD, out of the low dungeon.

56 Thou hast heard my voice: hide not thine ear at my breathing, at my cry.

57 Thou drewest near in the day that I called upon thee: thou saidst, Fear not.

58 O LORD, thou hast pleaded the causes of my soul; thou hast redeemed my life.

59 O LORD, thou hast seen my wrong: judge thou my cause.

60 Thou hast seen all their vengeance and all their imaginations against me.

61 Thou hast heard their reproach, O LORD, and all their imaginations against me;

CHAP. IV.

Zion bewaileth her pitiful estate: 13 She confesseth her sins. 21 Edom is threatened. 22 Zion is comforted.

HOW is the gold become dim! how is the most fine gold changed! the stones of the sanctuary are poured out in the top of every street.

2 The precious sons of Zion, comparable to fine gold, how are they esteemed as earthen pitchers, the work of the hands of the potter!

3 Even the sea monsters draw out the breast; they give suck to their young ones: the daughter of my people is become cruel, like the ostriches in the wilderness.

4 The tongue of the sucking child cleaveth to the roof of his mouth for thirst: the young children ask bread, and no man breaketh it unto them.

5 They that did feed delicately are desolate in the streets: they that were brought up in scarlet embrace dunghills.

6 For the punishment of the iniquity of the daughter of my people is greater than the punishment of the sin of Sodom, that was overthrown as in a moment, and no hands stayed on her.

7 Her Nazarites were purer than snow, they were whiter than milk, they were more ruddy in body than rubies, their polishing was of sapphire:

8 Their visage is blacker than a coal; they are not known in the streets: their skin cleaveth to their bones; it is withered, it is become like a stick.

9 They that be slain with the sword are better than they that be slain with hunger: for these pine away, stricken through for want of the fruits of the field.

10 The hands of the pitiful women have sodden their own children: they were their meat in the destruction of the daughter of my people.

11 The LORD hath accomplished his fury; he hath poured out his fierce anger, and hath kindled a fire in Zion, and it hath devoured the foundations thereof.

12 The kings of the earth, and all the inhabitants of the world, would not have believed that the adversary and the enemy should have entered into the gates of Jerusalem.

13 For the sins of her prophets, and the iniquities of her priests, that have shed the blood of the just in the midst of her,

14 They have wandered as blind men in the streets, they have polluted themselves with blood, so that men could not touch their garments.

15 They cried unto them, Depart ye; it is unclean; depart, depart, touch not: when they fled away and wandered, they said among the heathen, They shall no more sojourn there.

16 The anger of the LORD hath divided them; he will no more regard them: they respected not the persons of the priests, they favoured not the elders.

17 As for us, our eyes as yet failed for our vain help: in our watching we have watched for a nation that could not save us.

18 They hunt our steps, that we cannot go in our streets: our end is near, our days are fulfilled; for our end is come.

19 Our persecutors are swifter than the eagles of the heaven: they pursued us upon the mountains, they laid wait for us in the wilderness.

20 The breath of our nostrils, the anointed of the LORD, was taken in their pits, of whom we said, Under his shadow we shall live among the heathen.

21 Rejoice and be glad, O daughter of Edom, that dwellest in the land of Uz; the cup also shall pass through unto thee: thou shalt be drunken, and shalt make thyself naked.

22 The punishment of thine iniquity is accomplished, O daughter of Zion; he will no more carry thee away into captivity: he will visit thine iniquity, O daughter of Edom; he will discover thy sins.

CHAP. V.

A pitiful complaint of Zion, in prayer unto God. REMEMBER, O LORD, what is come upon us: consider, and behold our reproach.

1 The time of Ezekiel's prophecy at Chebar: ^a his vision of four cherubims, ^a 15 of the four wheels, ^a 26 and of the glory of GOD.

NOW it came to pass in the thirtieth year, in the fourth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I was among the ^a captives ^a by the river of Chebar, that ^a the heavens were opened, and I saw ^a visions of God.

2 In the fifth day of the month, which was the fifth year of ^a king Jehoiachin's captivity,

3 The word of the LORD came expressly unto ^a Ezekiel the priest, the son of Buzi, in the land of the Chaldeans by the river Chebar; and ^a the hand of the LORD was there upon him.

4 ¶ And I looked, and, behold, ^a a whirlwind came ^a out of the north, a great cloud, and a fire ^a infolding itself, and a brightness was about it, and out of the midst thereof as the colour of amber, out of the midst of the fire.

5 ^a Also out of the midst thereof came the likeness of four living creatures. And ^a this was their appearance; they had ^a the likeness of a man.

6 And every one had four faces, and every one had four wings.

7 And their feet were ^a straight feet; the sole of their feet was like the sole of a calf's foot: and they sparkled ^a like the colour of burnished brass.

8 ^a And they had the hands of a man under their wings on their four sides; and they four had their faces and their wings.

9 ^a Their wings were joined one to another; ^a they turned not when they went; they went every one straight forward.

10 As for ^a the likeness of their faces, they four ^a had the face of a man, ^a and the face of a lion, on the right side: ^a and they four had the face of an ox on the left side; ^a they four also had the face of an eagle.

11 Thus were their faces: and their wings were ^a stretched upwards; two wings of every one were joined one to another, and ^a two covered their bodies.

12 And ^a they went every one straight forward: ^a whither the spirit was to go, they went; and ^a they turned not when they went.

13 As for the likeness of the living creatures, their appearance was like burning coals of fire, ^a and like the appearance of lamps: it went up and down among the living creatures; and the fire was bright, and out of the fire went forth lightning.

14 And the living creatures ^a ran and returned ^a as the appearance of a flash of lightning.

15 Now as I beheld the living creatures, behold ^a one wheel upon the earth by the living creatures, with his four faces.

16 ^a The appearance of the wheels and their work was ^a like unto the colour of a beryl: and they four had one likeness: and their appearance and their work was as it were a wheel in the middle of a wheel.

17 When they went, they went upon their four sides: ^a and they turned not when they went.

18 As for their rings, they were so high

20 ^k Whithersoever the spirit was to go, they went, thither was their spirit to go; and the wheels were lifted up over against them: ⁱ for the spirit ^h of the living creature was in the wheels.

21 ^m When those went, these went; and when those stood, these stood; and when those were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up over against them: for the spirit ^h of the living creature was in the wheels.

22 ⁿ And the likeness of the firmament upon the heads of the living creature was as the colour of the terrible crystal, stretched forth over their heads above.

23 And under the firmament were their wings straight, the one toward the other: every one had two, which covered on this side, and every one had two, which covered on that side, their bodies.

24 ^o And when they went, I heard the noise of their wings, ^p like the noise of great waters, as ^q the voice of the Almighty, the voice of speech, as the noise of an host: when they stood, they let down their wings.

25 And there was a voice from the firmament that was over their heads, when they stood, and had let down their wings.

26 ^r And above the firmament that was over their heads was the likeness of a throne, ^s as the appearance of a sapphire stone: and upon the likeness of the throne was the likeness as the appearance of a man above upon it.

27 ^t And I saw as the colour of amber, as the appearance of fire round about within it, from the appearance of his loins even upward, and from the appearance of his loins even downward, I saw as it were the appearance of fire, and it had brightness round about.

28 ^u As the appearance of the bow that is in the cloud in the day of rain, so was the appearance of the brightness round about. ^x This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of the LORD. And when I saw it, ^y I fell upon my face, and I heard a voice of one that spake.

1 Ezekiel's commission: 6 his instruction. 9 The roll of his heavy prophecy.

AND he said unto me, Son of man, ^a stand upon thy feet, and I will speak unto thee.

2 And ^b the spirit entered into me when he spake unto me, and set me upon my feet, that I heard him that spake unto me.

3 And he said unto me, Son of man, I send thee to the children of Israel, to a rebellious [†] nation that hath rebelled against me: ^c they and their fathers have transgressed against me, even unto this very day.

4 ^d For they are [†] impudent children and stiffhearted. I do send thee unto them; and thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God.

5 ^e And they, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear, (for they are a rebellious house,) yet ^f shall know that there hath been a prophet among them.

6 ^g And thou, son of man, ^h be not afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words, though ^h ^b briars and thorns be with thee, and thou dost dwell among scorpions: ⁱ be not afraid of their words, nor be dismayed at their looks, ^k though they be a rebellious house.

7 ^j And thou shalt speak my words unto them, ^m whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear: for they are [†] most rebellious.

8 But thou, son of man, hear what I say unto thee; Be not thou rebellious like that rebellious house: open thy mouth, and ⁿ eat that I give thee.

9 ^o And when I looked, behold, ^o an hand was sent unto me; and, lo, ^p a roll of a book was therein;

15 God sheweth him the rule of prophecy. 22 God shutteth and openeth the prophet's mouth.

MOREOVER he said unto me, Son of man, eat that thou findest; ^a eat this roll, and go speak unto the house of Israel.

2 So I opened my mouth, and he caused me to eat that roll.

3 And he said unto me, Son of man, cause thy belly to eat, and fill thy bowels with this roll that I give thee. Then did I ^b eat it; and it was in my mouth ^c as honey for sweetness.

6 Not to many people † of a strange speech and of an hard language, whose words thou canst not understand. † Surely, † had I sent thee to them, they would have hearkened unto thee.

7 But the house of Israel will not hearken unto thee; * for they will not hearken unto me: † for all the house of Israel are † impudent and hardhearted.

8 Behold, I have made thy face strong against their faces, and thy forehead strong against their foreheads.

9 † As an adamant harder than flint have I made thy forehead: † fear them not, neither be dismayed at their looks; though they be a rebellious house.

10 Moreover he said unto me, Son of man, all my words that I shall speak unto thee receive in thine heart, and hear with thine ears.

11 And go, get thee to them of the captivity, unto the children of thy people, and speak unto them, and tell them, † Thus saith the Lord God; whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear.

12 Then † the spirit took me up, and I heard behind me a voice of a great rushing, saying, Blessed be the glory of the LORD from his place.

13 I heard also the noise of the wings of the living creatures that † touched one another, and the noise of the wheels over against them, and a noise of a great rushing.

14 So † the spirit lifted me up, and took me away, and I went † in bitterness, in the † heat of my spirit; but † the hand of the LORD was strong upon me.

15 ¶ Then I came to them of the captivity at Tel-abib, that dwelt by the river of Chebar, and † I sat where they sat, and remained there astonished among them seven days.

16 And it came to pass at the end of seven days, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, 17 † Son of man, I have made thee † a watchman unto the house of Israel: therefore hear the word at my mouth, and give them warning from me.

18 When I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; and thou givest him not warning, nor speakest to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life; the same wicked man † shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thine hand.

19 Yet if thou warn the wicked, and he turn not from his wickedness, nor from his wicked way, he shall die in his iniquity; † but thou hast delivered thy soul.

20 Again, When a † righteous man doth turn from his † righteousness, and commit iniquity, and I lay a stumblingblock before him, he shall die: because thou hast not given him warning, he shall die in his sin; and his righteousness which he hath done shall not be remembered; but his blood will I require at thine hand.

21 Nevertheless if thou warn the righteous man, that the righteous sin not, and he doth not sin, he shall surely live, because he is warned; also thou hast delivered thy soul.

22 ¶ And the hand of the LORD was there upon me; and he said unto me, Arise, go forth † into the plain, and I will there talk with thee.

23 Then I arose, and went forth into the plain: and, behold, † the glory of the LORD stood there, as the glory which I † saw by the river of Chebar: † and I fell on my face.

24 Then † the spirit entered into me, and set me upon my feet, and spake with me, and said unto me, Go, shut thyself within thine house.

25 But thou, O son of man, behold, † they shall put bands upon thee, and shall bind thee with them, and thou shalt not go out among them:

26 And † I will make thy tongue cleave to the roof of thy mouth, that thou shalt be dumb, and shalt not be to them † a reprover: † for they are a rebellious house.

27 † But when I speak with thee, I will open thy mouth, and thou shalt say unto them, † Thus saith the Lord God; He that heareth, let him hear; and he that forbeareth, let him forbear: † for they are a rebellious house.

CHAP. IV.

9 By the provision of the siege is shewed the hardness of the famine.

2 And lay siege against it, and build a fort against it, and cast a mount against it; set the camp also against it, and set † battering rams against it round about.

3 Moreover take thou unto thee † an iron pan, and set it for a wall of iron between thee and the city: and set thy face against it, and it shall be besieged, and thou shalt lay siege against it. † This shall be a sign to the house of Israel.

it: according to the number of the days that thou shalt lie upon it thou shalt bear their iniquity.

5 For I have laid upon thee the years of their iniquity, according to the number of the days, three hundred and ninety days: so shalt thou bear the iniquity of the house of Israel.

6 And when thou hast accomplished them, lie again on thy right side, and thou shalt bear the iniquity of the house of Judah forty days: I have appointed thee † each day for a year.

7 Therefore thou shalt set thy face toward the siege of Jerusalem, and thine arm shall be uncovered, and thou shalt prophesy against it.

8 And, behold, I will lay bands upon thee, and thou shalt not turn thee † from one side to another, till thou hast ended the days of thy siege.

9 ¶ Take thou also unto thee wheat, and barley, and beans, and lentiles, and millet, and fitches, and put them in one vessel, and make thee bread thereof, according to the number of the days that thou shalt lie upon thy side, three hundred and ninety days shalt thou eat thereof.

10 And thy meat which thou shalt eat shall be by weight twenty shekels a day: from time to time shalt thou eat it.

11 Thou shalt drink also water by measure, the sixth part of an hin: from time to time shalt thou drink.

12 And thou shalt eat it as barley cakes, and thou shalt bake it with dung that cometh out of man, in their sight.

13 And the LORD said, Even thus shall the children of Israel eat their defiled bread among the Gentiles, whither I will drive them.

14 Then said I, Ah Lord God! behold, my soul hath not been polluted: for from my youth up even till now have I not eaten of that which dieth of itself, or is torn in pieces; neither came there any abominable flesh into my mouth.

15 Then he said unto me, Lo, I have given thee cow's dung for man's dung, and thou shalt prepare thy bread therewith.

16 ¶ Moreover he said unto me, Son of man, behold, I will break the staff of bread in Jerusalem: and they shall eat bread by weight, and with care; and they shall drink water by measure, and with astonishment:

17 That they may want bread and water, and be astonished one with another, and consume away for their iniquity.

CHAP. V.

1 Under the type of hair, 5 is shewed the judgement of Jerusalem for their rebellion, 12 by famine, sword, and dispersion.

AND thou, son of man, take thee a sharp knife, take thee a barber's razor, and cause it to pass upon thine head and upon thy beard: then take thee balances to weigh, and divide the hair.

2 Thou shalt burn with fire a third part in the midst of the city, when the days of the siege are fulfilled: and thou shalt take a third part, and smite about it with a knife: and a third part thou shalt scatter in the wind; and I will draw out a sword after them.

3 Thou shalt also take thereof a few in number, and bind them in thy skirts.

4 Then take of them again, and cast them into the midst of the fire, and burn them in the fire; for thereof shall a fire come forth into all the house of Israel.

5 Thus saith the Lord God; This is Jerusalem: I have set it in the midst of the nations and countries that are round about her.

6 And she hath changed my judgements into wickedness more than the nations, and my statutes more than the countries that are round about her: for they have refused my judgements and my statutes, they have not walked in them.

7 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Because ye multiplied more than the nations that are round about you, and have not walked in my statutes, neither have kept my judgements, neither have done according to the judgements of the nations that are round about you;

8 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I, even I, am against thee, and will execute judgements in the midst of thee in the sight of the nations.

9 And I will do in thee that which I have not done, and whereunto I will not do any more the like, because of all thine abominations.

10 Therefore the fathers shall eat the sons in the midst of thee, and the sons shall eat their fathers; and I will execute judgements in thee, and the whole remnant of thee will I scatter into all the winds.

11 Wherefore, as I live, saith the Lord God; Surely, because thou hast defiled my sanctuary with all thy detestable things, and with all thine abominations, therefore will I also diminish thee; neither shall mine eye spare, neither will I have any pity.

12 ¶ A third part of thee shall die with the pestilence, and with famine shall they be consumed in the midst of thee: and a third part shall fall by the sword round about thee; and I will scatter a third part into all the winds, and I will draw out a sword after them.

13 Thus shall mine anger be accomplished, and I will cause my fury to rest upon them, and I will be comforted: and they shall know that I the LORD have spoken it in my zeal, when I have accomplished my fury in them.

14 Moreover I will make thee waste, and a reproach among the nations that are round about thee, in the sight of all that pass by.

15 So it shall be a reproach and a taunt, an instruction and an astonishment unto the nations that are round about thee, when I shall execute judgements in thee in anger and in fury and in furious rebukes. I the LORD have spoken it.

16 When I shall send upon them the evil arrows of famine, which shall be for their destruction, and which I will send to destroy you: and I will increase the famine upon you, and will break your staff of bread:

17 So will I send upon you famine and evil beasts, and they shall bereave thee; and pestilence and blood shall pass through thee; and I will bring the sword upon thee. I the LORD have spoken it.

CHAP. VI.

1 The judgement of Israel for their idolatry. 8 A remnant shall be saved. 11 The faithful are exhorted to repent their calamities.

AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, set thy face toward the mountains of Israel, and prophesy against them.

3 And say, Ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord God; Thus saith the Lord God to the mountains, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys; Behold, I, even I, will bring a sword upon you, and I will destroy your high places.

4 And your altars shall be desolate, and your images shall be broken: and I will cast down your slain men before your idols.

5 And I will lay the dead carcases of the children of Israel before their idols; and I will scatter your bones round about your altars.

6 In all your dwelling places the cities shall be laid waste, and the high places shall be desolate; that your altars may be laid waste and made desolate, and your idols may be broken and cease, and your images may be cut down, and your works may be abolished.

7 And the slain shall fall in the midst of you, and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

8 ¶ Yet will I leave a remnant, that ye may have some that shall escape the sword among the nations, when ye shall be scattered through the countries.

9 And they that escape of you shall remember me among the nations whither they shall be carried captives, because I am broken with their whorish heart, which hath departed from me, and with their eyes, which go a whoring after their idols: and they shall loath themselves for the evils which they have committed in all their abominations.

10 And they shall know that I am the LORD, and that I have not said in vain that I would do this evil unto them.

11 ¶ Thus saith the Lord God; Smite with thine hand, and stamp with thy foot, and say, Alas for all the evil abominations of the house of Israel! for they shall fall by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence.

12 He that is far off shall die of the pestilence; and he that is near shall fall by the sword; and he that remaineth and is besieged shall die by the famine; thus will I accomplish my fury upon them.

13 Then shall ye know that I am the LORD, when their slain men shall be among their idols round about their altars, upon every high hill, in all the tops of the mountains, and under every green tree, and under every thick oak, the place where they did offer sweet savour to all their idols.

14 So will I stretch out my hand upon them, and make the land desolate, yea, more desolate than the wilderness toward Diblath, in all their habitations: and they shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAP. VII.

1 The final desolation of Israel. 16 The mournful repentance of them that escape. 20 The enemies desile the sanctuary because of the Israelites abominations. 23 Under the type of a chain is shewed their miserable captivity.

MOREOVER the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Also, thou son of man, thus saith the Lord God unto the land of Israel; An end, the end is come upon the four corners of the land.

5 Thus saith the Lord God; An evil, an only evil, behold, is come.

6 An end is come, the end is come: it † watcheth for thee; behold, it is come.

7 ^o The morning is come unto thee, O thou that dwellest in the land: ^f the time is come, the day of trouble is near, and not the ^h sounding again of the mountains.

8 Now will I shortly ^g pour out my fury upon thee, and accomplish mine anger upon thee: ^b and I will judge thee according to thy ways, and will recompense thee for all thine abominations.

9 And ⁱ mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity: I will recompense [†] thee according to thy ways and thine abomi-nations that are in the midst of thee; ^k and ye shall know that I am the LORD that 10 Behold the day, behold, it is come:

[†] the morning is gone forth; the rod hath blossomed, pride hath budded.

11 ^m Violence is risen up into a rod of wickedness: none of them shall remain, nor of their ⁿ multitude, nor of any of ⁿ their's:
ⁿ neither shall there be wailing for them.

12 ^o The time is come, the day draweth near: let not the buyer rejoice, nor the seller mourn: for wrath is upon all the multitude thereof.

13 For the seller shall not return to that which is sold, [†] although they were yet alive: for the vision is touching the whole multitude thereof, which shall not return; neither shall any strengthen himself ^h in [†] the iniquity of his life.

14 They have blown the trumpet, even to make all ready: but none goeth to the battle: for my wrath is upon all the mul-

15 ^p The sword is without, and the pestilence and the famine within: he that is in the field shall die with the sword; and he that is in the city, famine and pestilence

16 ^q But [†] they that escape of them shall escape, and shall be on the mountains like doves of the valleys, all of them mourning, every one for his iniquity.

18 They shall also ^s gird themselves with sackcloth, and ^t horror shall cover them;

ness upon all their heads.

19 They shall cast their silver in the streets, deliver them in the day of the wrath of the LORD: they shall not satisfy their souls,

20 ^q As for the beauty of his ornament,

^h set it far from them.

21 And I will give it into the hands of the strangers for a prey, and to the wicked of the earth for a spoil; and they shall pollute it.

22 My face will I turn also from them, and they shall pollute my secret place: for the ^h robbers shall enter into it, and defile it.

23 ^q Make a chain: for ^z the land is full of bloody crimes, and the city is full of violence.

24 Wherefore I will bring the worst of the heathen, and they shall possess their houses: I will also make the pomp of the strong to cease; and ^h their holy places shall be defiled.

25 [†] Destruction cometh; and they shall seek peace, and there shall be none.

26 ^a Mischief shall come upon mischief, and rumour shall be upon rumour; ^b then shall they seek a vision of the prophet; but the law shall perish from the priest, and counsel from the ancients.

27 The king shall mourn, and the prince shall be clothed with desolation, and the hands of the people of the land shall be troubled: I will do unto them after their way, and [†] according to their deserts will I judge them; ^c and they shall know that I am the LORD.

3 And he ^aput forth the form of an hand, and took me by a lock of mine head; and ^bthe spirit lifted me up between the earth and the heaven, and ^cbrought me in the visions of God to Jerusalem, to the door of the inner gate that looketh toward the north; ^dwhere was the seat of the image of jealousy, which ^eprovoketh to jealousy.

4 And, behold, the glory of the God of Israel was there, according to the vision that I ^fsaw in the plain.

5 ¶ Then said he unto me, Son of man, lift up thine eyes now the way toward the north. So I lifted up mine eyes the way toward the north, and behold northward at the gate of the altar this image of jealousy in the entry.

6 He said furthermore unto me, Son of man, seest thou what they do? even the great abominations that the house of Israel committeth here, that I should go far off from my sanctuary? but turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations.

7 ¶ And he brought me to the door of the court; and when I looked, behold a hole in the wall.

8 Then said he unto me, Son of man, dig now in the wall: and when I had digged in the wall, behold a door.

9 And he said unto me, Go in, and behold the wicked abominations that they do here.

10 So I went in and saw; and behold every form of creeping things, and abominable beasts, and all the idols of the house of Israel, pourtrayed upon the wall round about.

11 And there stood before them seventy men of the ancients of the house of Israel, and in the midst of them stood Jaazaniah the son of Shaphan, with every man his censor in his hand; and a thick cloud of incense went up.

12 Then said he unto me, Son of man, hast thou seen what the ancients of the house of Israel do in the dark, every man in the chambers of his imagery? for they say, 'The LORD seeth us not; the LORD hath forsaken the earth.

13 ¶ He said also unto me, Turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations that they do.

14 Then he brought me to the door of the gate of the LORD's house which was toward the north; and, behold, there sat women weeping for Tammuz.

15 Then said he unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations than these.

16 ¶ And he brought me into the inner court of the LORD's house, and, behold, at the door of the temple of the LORD, ^abetween the porch and the altar, ^bwere about five and twenty men, ^cwith their backs toward the temple of the LORD, and their faces toward the east; and they worshipped ^dthe sun toward the east.

17 ¶ Then he said unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? ^eIs it a light thing to the house of Judah that they commit the abominations which they commit here? for they have ^ffilled the land with violence, and have returned to provoke me to anger: and, lo, they put the branch to their nose.

18 ^gTherefore will I also deal in fury: mine ^heye shall not spare, neither will I have pity: and though they ⁱcry in mine ears with a loud voice, yet will I not hear them.

CHAP. IX.

1 A vision whereby is shewed the preservation of some, 5 and the destruction of the rest. 8 God cannot be intreated for them.

HE cried also in mine ears with a loud voice, saying, Cause them that have charge over the city to draw near, even every man with his destroying weapon in his hand.

2 And, behold, six men came from the way of the higher gate, ^awhich lieth toward the north, and every man ^ba slaughter weapon in his hand; ^cand one man among them was clothed with linen, with a writer's inkhorn ^dby his side: and they went in, and stood beside the brasen altar.

3 And ^ethe glory of the God of Israel was gone up from the cherub, whereupon he was, to the threshold of the house. And he called to the man clothed with linen, which had the writer's inkhorn by his side;

4 And the LORD said unto him, Go through the midst of the city, through the midst of Jerusalem, and ^fset ^ga mark upon the foreheads of the men ^hthat sigh and that cry for all the abominations that be done in the midst thereof.

5 ¶ And to the others he said in ⁱmine hearing, Go ye after him through the city, and smite: ^jlet not your eye spare, neither have ye pity:

6 ^kSlay ^lutterly old and young, both maids, and little children, and women: but ^mcome not near any man upon whom is the mark; and ⁿbegin at my sanctuary. ^oThen they began at the ancient men which were before the house.

9 Then said he unto me, The iniquity of the house of Israel and Judah is exceeding great, and ^m the land is [†] full of blood, and the city full of ⁿ perverseness: for they say, ^a The LORD hath forsaken the earth, and ^o the LORD seeth not.

CHAP. X.

1 The vision of the coals of fire, to be scattered over the city. 8 The vision of the cherubims.

THEN I looked, and, behold, in the ^a firmament that was above the head of the cherubims there appeared over them as it were a sapphire stone, as the appearance of the likeness of a throne.

2 ^b And he spake unto the man clothed with linen, and said, Go in between the wheels, even under the cherub, and fill [†] thine hand with ^c coals of fire from between the cherubims, and ^d scatter them over the city. And he went in in my sight.

3 Now the cherubims stood on the right side of the house, when the man went in; and the cloud filled the inner court.

4 ^e Then the glory of the LORD [†] went up from the cherub, and stood over the threshold of the house; and ^f the house was filled with the cloud, and the court was full of the brightness of the LORD's glory.

5 And the ^g sound of the cherubims' wings was heard even to the outer court, as ^h the voice of the Almighty God when he speaketh.

6 And it came to pass, that when he had commanded the man clothed with linen, saying, Take fire from between the wheels, from between the cherubims; then he went in, and stood beside the wheels.

7 And one cherub [†] stretched forth his hand from between the cherubims unto the fire that was between the cherubims, and took thereof, and put it into the hands of him that was clothed with linen: who took it, and went out.

8 ¶ And there appeared in the cherubims the form of a man's hand under their wings.

9 ^k And when I looked, behold the four wheels by the cherubims, one wheel by one cherub, and another wheel by another cherub: and the appearance of the wheels was as the colour of a ^l beryl stone.

10 And as for their appearances, they four had one likeness, as if a wheel had been in the midst of a wheel.

11 ^m When they went, they went upon their four sides; they turned not as they went, but to the place whither the head looked they followed it; they turned not as they went.

12 And their whole [†] body, and their backs, and their hands, and their wings, and ⁿ the wheels, were full of eyes round about, even the wheels that they four had.

13 As for the wheels, ⁿ it was cried unto them in my hearing, O wheel.

14 ^o And every one had four faces: the first face was the face of a cherub, and the second face was the face of a man, and the third the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle.

15 And the cherubims were lifted up. This is ^p the living creature that I saw by the river of Chebar.

16 ^q And when the cherubims went, the wheels went by them: and when the cherubims lifted up their wings to mount up from the earth, the same wheels also turned not from beside them.

17 ^r When they stood, these stood; and when they were lifted up, these lifted up themselves also: for the spirit ⁿ of the living creature was in them.

18 Then ^s the glory of the LORD [†] departed from off the threshold of the house, and stood over the cherubims.

19 And ^t the cherubims lifted up their wings, and mounted up from the earth in my sight: when they went out, the wheels also were beside them, and every one stood at the door of the east gate of the LORD's house; and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above.

20 ^x This is the living creature that I saw under the God of Israel ^y by the river of Chebar; and I knew that they were the cherubims.

21 ^z Every one had four faces apiece, and every one four wings; [†] and the likeness of the hands of a man was under their wings.

22 And ^b the likeness of their faces was the same faces which I saw by the river of Chebar, their appearances and themselves: ^c they went every one straight forward.

C H A P. XI.

1 The presumption of the princes: 4 their sin and judgement. 13 Ezekiel complaining, God sheweth him his purpose in saving a remnant, 21 and punishing the wicked. 22 The glory of God leaveth the city. 24 Ezekiel is returned to the captivity.

MOREOVER ^a the spirit lifted me up, and brought me unto ^b the east gate of the LORD's house, which looketh eastward: and behold ^c at the door of the gate five and twenty men; among whom I saw Jaazaniah the son of Azur, and Pelatiah the son of Benaiah, princes of the people.

2 Then said he unto me, Son of man, these are the men that devise mischief, and give wicked counsel in this city:

3 Which say, ^{||} It is not ^d near; let us build houses: ^e this city is the caldron, and we be the flesh.

4 ¶ Therefore prophesy against them, prophesy, O son of man.

5 And ^f the Spirit of the LORD fell upon me, and said unto me, Speak; Thus saith the LORD; Thus have ye said, O house of Israel: for I know the things that come into your mind, every one of them.

6 ^g Ye have multiplied your slain in this city, and ye have filled the streets thereof with the slain.

7 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; ^h Your slain whom ye have laid in the midst of it, they are the flesh, and this city is the caldron: ⁱ but I will bring you forth out of the midst of it.

8 Ye have feared the sword; and I will bring a sword upon you, saith the Lord God.

9 And I will bring you out of the midst thereof, and deliver you into the hands of strangers, and ^k will execute judgements among you.

10 ^l Ye shall fall by the sword; I will judge you in ^m the border of Israel; ⁿ and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

11 ^o This city shall not be your caldron, neither shall ye be the flesh in the midst thereof; but I will judge you in the border of Israel:

12 And ^p ye shall know that I am the LORD: ^{||} for ye have not walked in my statutes, neither executed my judgements, but ^q have done after the manners of the heathen that are round about you.

13 ¶ And it came to pass, when I prophesied, that ^r Pelatiah the son of Benaiah died. Then ^s fell I down upon my face, and cried with a loud voice, and said, Ah Lord God! wilt thou make a full end of the remnant of Israel?

14 ¶ Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

15 Son of man, thy brethren, even thy brethren, the men of thy kindred, and all the house of Israel wholly, are they unto whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, Get you far from the LORD: unto us is this land given in possession.

16 Therefore say, Thus saith the Lord God; Although I have cast them far off among the heathen, and although I have scattered them among the countries, ^t yet will I be to them as a little sanctuary in the countries where they shall come.

17 Therefore say, Thus saith the Lord God; ^u I will even gather you from the people, and assemble you out of the countries where ye have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel.

18 And they shall come thither, and ^x they shall take away all the detestable things thereof and all the abominations thereof from thence.

19 And ^y I will give them one heart, and I will put ^z a new spirit within you; and I will take ^a the stony heart out of their flesh, and will give them an heart of flesh:

20 ^b That they may walk in my statutes, and keep mine ordinances, and do them: ^c and they shall be my people, and I will be their God.

21 But as for them whose heart walketh after the heart of their detestable things and their abominations, ^d I will recompense their way upon their own heads, saith the Lord God.

22 ¶ Then did the cherubims ^e lift up their wings, and the wheels beside them; and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above.

23 And ^f the glory of the LORD went up from the midst of the city, and stood ^g upon the mountain ^h which is on the east side of the city.

24 ¶ Afterwards ⁱ the spirit took me up, and brought me in a vision by the Spirit of God into Chaldea, to them of the captivity. So the vision that I had seen went up from me.

25 Then I spake unto them of the captivity all the things that the LORD had shewed me.

25 For I am the LORD: I will speak, and ^{*} the word that I shall speak shall come to pass; it shall be no more prolonged: for in your days, O rebellious house, will I say the word, and will perform it, saith the Lord God.

26 [¶] Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

27 ^b Son of man, behold, they of the house of Israel say, The vision that he seeth is ^{*} for many days to come, and he prophesieth of the times that are far off.

28 ^d Therefore say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; There shall none of my words be prolonged any more, but the word which I have spoken shall be done, saith the Lord God.

unto * † them that propheſy out of their own hearts, Hear ye the word of the LORD;

3 Thus ſaith the Lord GOD; Woe unto the fooliſh prophets, that † follow their own ſpirit, † and have ſeen nothing!

4 O Iſrael, thy prophets are * like the foxes in the deſerts.

5 Ye * have not gone up into the † gaps, neither † made up the hedge for the houſe of Iſrael to ſtand in the battle in the day of the LORD.

6 * They have ſeen vanity and lying divination, ſaying, The LORD ſaith: and the LORD hath not ſent them: and they have made others to hope that they would confirm the word.

7 Have ye not ſeen a vain viſion, and have ye not ſpoken a lying divination, whereas ye ſay, The LORD ſaith it; albeit I have not ſpoken?

8 Therefore thus ſaith the Lord GOD; Becauſe ye have ſpoken vanity, and ſeen lies, therefore, behold, I am againſt you, ſaith the Lord GOD.

9 And mine hand ſhall be upon the prophets that ſee vanity, and that divine lies: they ſhall not be in the † aſſembly of my people, † neither ſhall they be written in the writing of the houſe of Iſrael, † neither ſhall they enter into the land of Iſrael; † and ye ſhall know that I am the Lord GOD.

10 Becauſe, even becauſe they have ſeduced my people, ſaying, † Peace; and there was no peace; and one built up † a wall, and, lo, others † daubed it with untempered mortar:

11 Say unto them which daub it with untempered mortar, that it ſhall fall: † there ſhall be an overflowing ſhower; and ye, O great hailſtones, ſhall fall; and a ſtormy wind ſhall rend it.

12 Lo, when the wall is fallen, ſhall it not be ſaid unto you, Where is the daubing wherewith ye have daubed it?

13 Therefore thus ſaith the Lord GOD; I will even rend it with a ſtormy wind in my fury; and there ſhall be an overflowing ſhower in mine anger, and great hailſtones in my fury to conſume it.

14 So will I break down the wall that ye have daubed with untempered mortar, and bring it down to the ground, ſo that the foundation thereof ſhall be diſcovered, and it ſhall fall, and ye ſhall be conſumed in the miſt thereof: † and ye ſhall know that I am the LORD.

15 Thus will I accompliſh my wrath upon the wall, and upon them that have daubed it with untempered mortar, and will ſay unto you, The wall is no more, neither they that daubed it;

16 To wit, the prophets of Iſrael which propheſy concerning Jeruſalem, and which * ſee viſions of peace for her, and there is no peace, ſaith the Lord GOD.

17 ¶ Likewise, thou ſon of man, * ſet thy face againſt the daughters of thy people, † which propheſy out of their own heart; and propheſy thou againſt them,

18 And ſay, Thus ſaith the Lord GOD; Woe to the women that ſew pillows to all † armholes, and make kerchiefs upon the head of every ſtature to hunt ſouls! Will ye † hunt the ſouls of my people, and will ye ſave the ſouls alive that come unto you?

19 And will ye pollute me among my people † for handfuls of barley and for pieces of bread; to ſlay the ſouls that ſhould not die, and to ſave the ſouls alive that ſhould not live, by your lying to my people that hear your lies?

20 Wherefore thus ſaith the Lord GOD; Behold, I am againſt your pillows, wherewith ye there hunt the ſouls † to make them fly, and I will tear them from your arms, and will let the ſouls go, even the ſouls that ye hunt to make them fly.

21 Your kerchiefs alſo will I tear, and deliver my people out of your hand, and they ſhall be no more in your hand to be hunted; † and ye ſhall know that I am the LORD.

22 Becauſe with lies ye have made the heart of the righteous ſad, whom I have not made ſad; and † ſtrengthened the hands of the wicked, that he ſhould not return from his wicked way, † † by promiſing him life:

CHAP. XVI.

1 Under the similitude of a wretched infant, is shewed the natural state of Jerusalem. 6 God's extraordinary love towards her: 15 her monstrous whoredom: 35 her grievous judgement: 44 her sin, matching her mother, and exceeding her sisters Sodom and Samaria, calleth for judgements. 60 Mercy is promised her in the end.

A GAIN the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, ^a cause Jerusalem to know her abominations,

3 And say, Thus saith the Lord God unto Jerusalem; Thy [†] birth ^b and thy nativity is of the land of Canaan; ^c thy father was an Amorite, and thy mother an Hittite.

4 And as for thy nativity, ^d in the day thou wast born thy navel was not cut, neither wast thou washed in water ^{||} to supple thee; thou wast not salted at all, nor swaddled at all.

5 None eye pitied thee, to do any of these unto thee, to have compassion upon thee; but thou wast cast out in the open field, to the loathing of thy person, in the day that thou wast born.

6 ^e And when I passed by thee, and saw thee ^{||} polluted in thine own blood, I said unto thee when thou wast in thy blood, Live; yea, I said unto thee when thou wast in thy blood, Live.

7 ^f I have [†] caused thee to multiply as the bud of the field, and thou hast increased and waxen great, and thou art come to [†] excellent ornaments: thy breasts are fashioned, and thine hair is grown, whereas thou wast naked and bare.

8 Now when I passed by thee, and looked upon thee, behold, thy time was the time of love; ^g and I spread my skirt over thee, and covered thy nakedness: yea, I swore unto thee, and entered into a covenant with thee, saith the Lord God, and ^h thou becamest mine.

9 Then washed I thee with water; yea, I thoroughly washed away thy [†] blood from thee, and I anointed thee with oil

10 I clothed thee also with brodered work, and shod thee with badgers' skin, and I girded thee about with fine linen, and I covered thee with silk.

11 I decked thee also with ornaments, and I ^b put bracelets upon thy hands, ⁱ and a chain on thy neck.

12 And I put a jewel on thy [†] forehead, and earrings in thine ears, and a beautiful crown upon thine head

13 Thus wast thou decked with gold and silver; and thy raiment was of fine linen, and silk, and brodered work; ^k thou didst eat fine flour, and honey, and oil: and thou wast exceeding ^l beautiful, and thou didst prosper into a kingdom.

14 And ^m thy renown went forth among the heathen for thy beauty: for it was perfect through my comeliness, which I had put upon thee, saith the Lord God.

15 ⁿ But thou didst trust in thine own beauty, ^o and playedst the harlot because of thy renown, and pouredst out thy fornications on every one that passed by; his it was.

16 ^p And of thy garments thou didst take, and deckedst thy high places with divers colours, and playedst the harlot thereupon: the like things shall not come, neither shall it be so.

17 Thou hast also taken thy fair jewels of my gold and of my silver, which I had given thee, and madest to thyself images [†] of men, and didst commit whoredom with them,

18 And tookest thy brodered garments, and coveredst them: and thou hast set mine oil and mine incense before them.

19 ^q My meat also which I gave thee, fine flour, and oil, and honey, wherewith I fed thee, thou hast even set it before them for [†] a sweet favour: and thus it was, saith the Lord God.

20 ^r Moreover thou hast taken thy sons and thy daughters, whom thou hast borne unto me, and these hast thou sacrificed unto them [†] to be devoured. Is this of thy whoredoms a small matter, 21 That thou hast slain my children, and delivered them to cause them to pass through the fire for them?

22 And in all thine abominations and thy whoredoms thou hast not remembered the days of thy ^s youth, ^t when thou wast naked and bare, and wast polluted in thy blood.

wickedness, (woe, woe unto thee! faith the Lord God;)

24 That ^a thou hast also built unto thee an ^b eminent place, and ^c hast made thee an high place in every street.

25 Thou hast built thy high place ^d at every head of the way, and hast made thy beauty to be abhorred, and hast opened thy feet to every one that passed by, and multiplied thy whoredoms.

26 Thou hast also committed fornication with ^e the Egyptians thy neighbours, great of flesh; and hast increased thy whoredoms, to provoke me to anger.

27 Behold, therefore I have stretched out my hand over thee, and have diminished thine ordinary food, and delivered thee unto the will of them that hate thee, ^f the ^g daughters of the Philistines, which are ashamed of thy lewd way.

28 ^h Thou hast played the whore also with the Assyrians, because thou wast unsatiable; yea, thou hast played the harlot with them, and yet couldest not be satisfied.

29 Thou hast moreover multiplied thy fornication in the land of Canaan ⁱ unto Chaldea; and yet thou wast not satisfied herewith.

30 How weak is thine heart, faith the Lord God, seeing thou doest all these things, the work of an imperious whorish woman;

31 ^j In that ^k thou buildest thine eminent place in the head of every way, and makest thine high place in every street; and hast not been as an harlot, in that thou scornest hire;

32 But as a wife that committeth adultery, which taketh strangers instead of her husband!

33 They give gifts to all whores: but ^l thou givest thy gifts to all thy lovers, and ^m hirest them, that they may come unto thee on every side for thy whoredom.

34 And the contrary is in thee from other women in thy whoredoms, whereas none followeth thee to commit whoredoms: and in that thou givest a reward, and no reward is given unto thee, therefore thou art contrary.

35 ¶ Wherefore, O harlot, hear the word of the LORD:

36 Thus faith the Lord God; Because thy filthiness was poured out, and thy nakedness discovered through thy whoredoms with thy lovers, and with all the idols of thy abominations, and by ⁿ the blood of thy children, which thou didst give unto them;

37 Behold, therefore ^o I will gather all thy lovers, with whom thou hast taken pleasure, and all them that thou hast loved, with all them that thou hast hated; I will even gather them round about against thee, and will discover thy nakedness unto them, that they may see all thy nakedness.

38 And I will judge thee, ^p as ^q women that break wedlock and ^r shed blood are judged; and I will give thee blood in fury and jealousy.

39 And I will also give thee into their hand, and they shall throw down ^s thine eminent place, and shall break down thy high places: ^t they shall strip thee also of thy clothes, and shall take ^u thy fair jewels, and leave thee naked and bare.

40 ^v They shall also bring up a company against thee, ^w and they shall stone thee with stones, and thrust thee through with their swords.

41 And they shall ^x burn thine houses with fire, and ^y execute judgements upon thee in the sight of many women: and I will cause thee to ^z cease from playing the harlot, and thou also shalt give no hire any more.

42 So ^a will I make my fury toward thee to rest, and my jealousy shall depart from thee, and I will be quiet, and will be no more angry.

43 Because ^b thou hast not remembered the days of thy youth, but hast fretted me in all these things; behold, therefore ^c I also will recompense thy way upon thine head, faith the Lord God: and thou shalt not commit this lewdness above all thine abominations.

44 ¶ Behold, every one that useth proverbs shall use this proverb against thee, saying, As is the mother, so is her daughter.

45 Thou art thy mother's daughter, that loatheth her husband and her children; and thou art the sister of thy sisters, which loathed their husbands and their children: ^d your mother was an Hittite, and your father an Amorite.

46 And thine elder sister is Samaria, she and her daughters that dwell at thy left hand: and ^e ^f thy younger sister, that dwelleth at thy right hand, is Sodom and her daughters.

47 Yet hast thou not walked after their ways, nor done after their abominations: but ^g as if that were a very little thing, ^h thou wast corrupted more than they in all thy ways.

48 As I live, faith the Lord God, ⁱ Sodom thy sister hath not done, she nor her daughters, as thou hast done, thou and thy daughters.

49 Behold, this was the iniquity of thy sister Sodom, pride, ^a fulness of bread, and abundance of idleness was in her and in her daughters, neither did she strengthen the hand of the poor and needy.

50 And they were haughty, and ^b committed abomination before me: therefore ^c I took them away as I saw good.

51 Neither hath Samaria committed half of thy sins; but thou hast multiplied thine abominations more than they, and ^d hast justified thy sisters in all thine abominations which thou hast done.

52 Thou also, which hast judged thy sisters, bear thine own shame for thy sins that thou hast committed more abominable than they: they are more righteous than thou: yea, be thou confounded also, and bear thy shame, in that thou hast justified thy sisters.

53 ^e When I shall bring again their captivity, ^f the captivity of Sodom and her daughters, and the captivity of Samaria and her daughters, then will I bring again the captivity of thy captives in the midst of them:

54 That thou mayest bear thine own shame, and mayest be confounded in all that thou hast done, in that thou art ^g a comfort unto them.

55 When thy sisters, Sodom and her daughters, shall return to their former estate, and Samaria and her daughters shall return to their former estate, then thou and thy daughters shall return to your former estate.

56 For thy sister Sodom was not [†] mentioned by thy mouth in the day of thy [†] pride, 57 Before thy wickedness was discovered, as at the time of ^h thy reproach of the daughters of [†] Syria, and all that are round about her, ⁱ the daughters of the Philistines, which [†] despise thee round about.

58 ^k Thou hast [†] borne thy lewdness and thine abominations, saith the LORD.

59 For thus saith the Lord God; I will even deal with thee as thou hast done, which hast ^l despised ^m the oath in breaking the covenant.

60 ⁿ Nevertheless I will ^o remember my covenant with thee in the days of thy youth, and I will establish unto thee ^o an everlasting covenant.

61 Then ^p thou shalt remember thy ways, and be ashamed, when thou shalt receive thy sisters, thine elder and thy younger: and I will give them unto thee for ^q daughters, ^r but not by thy covenant.

62 ^s And I will establish my covenant with thee; and thou shalt know that I am the LORD:

63 That thou mayest ^t remember, and be confounded, ^u and never open thy mouth any more because of thy shame, when I am pacified toward thee for all that thou hast done, saith the Lord God.

C H A P. XVII.

1 Under the parable of two eagles and a vine, 11 is shewed God's judgement upon Jerusalem for revolting from Babylon to Egypt. 22 God promiset to plant the cedar of the gospel.

AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, put forth a riddle, and speak a parable unto the house of Israel;

3 And say, Thus saith the Lord God; ^a A great eagle with great wings, long winged, full of feathers, which had [†] divers colours, came unto Lebanon, and ^b took the highest branch of the cedar:

4 He cropped off the top of his young twigs, and carried it into a land of traffick; he set it in a city of merchants.

5 He took also of the seed of the land, and [†] planted it in ^a a fruitful field; he placed it by great waters, and set it ^a as a willow tree.

6 And it grew, and became a spreading vine ^a of low stature, whose branches turned toward him, and the roots thereof were under him: so it became a vine, and brought forth branches, and shot forth sprigs.

7 There was also another great eagle with great wings and many feathers: and, behold, [†] this vine did bend her roots toward him, and shot forth her branches toward him, that he might water it by the furrows of her plantation.

8 It was planted in a good [†] soil by great waters, that it might bring forth branches, and that it might bear fruit, that it might be a goodly vine.

9 Say thou, Thus saith the Lord God; Shall it prosper? ^a shall he not pull up the roots thereof, and cut off the fruit thereof, that it wither? it shall wither in all the leaves of her spring, even without great power or many people to pluck it up by the roots thereof.

10 Yea, behold, being planted, shall it prosper? ^b shall it not utterly wither, when the east wind toucheth it? it shall wither in the furrows where it grew.

11 ^c Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

12 Say now to ^d the rebellious house, Know ye not what these things mean? tell them, Behold, * the king of Babylon is come to Jerusalem, and hath taken the king thereof, and the princes thereof, and led them with him to Babylon;

13 And hath taken of the king's seed, and made a covenant with him, * and hath † taken an oath of him: he hath also taken the mighty of the land:

15 But * he rebelled against him in sending his ambassadors into Egypt, * that they might give him horses and much people. * Shall he prosper? shall he escape that doeth such things? or shall he break the covenant, and be delivered?

16 As I live, saith the Lord God, surely * in the place where the king dwelleth that made him king, whose oath he despised, and whose covenant he brake, even with him in the midst of Babylon he shall die.

C H A P. XVIII.

1 God reproveth the unjust parable of four grapes: 5 he sheweth how he dealeth with the just father, 10 with a wicked son of a just father, 14 with a just son of a wicked father, 19 with a wicked man repenting, 24 with a just man revolting: 25 he defendeth his justice, 31 and exhorteth to repentance.

THE word of the Lord came unto me again, saying,

2 What mean ye, that ye use this proverb concerning the land of Israel, saying, The * fathers have eaten four grapes, and the children's teeth are set on edge?

3 As I live, saith the Lord God, ye shall not have occasion any more to use this proverb in Israel.

4 Behold, all souls are mine; as the soul of the father, so also the soul of the son is mine: * the soul that sinneth, it shall die.

5 ¶ But if a man be just, and do † that which is lawful and right,

6 * And hath not eaten upon the mountains, neither hath lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, neither hath * defiled his neighbour's wife, neither hath come near to * a menstruous woman,

7 And hath not * oppressed any, but hath restored to the debtor his * pledge, hath spoiled none by violence, hath * given his bread to the hungry, and hath covered the naked with a garment;

8 He that hath not given forth upon usury, neither hath taken any increase, that hath withdrawn his hand from iniquity, * hath executed true judgement between man and man,

9 Hath walked in my statutes, and hath kept my judgements, to deal truly; he is just, he shall surely * live, saith the Lord God.

10 ¶ If he beget a son that is a * robber, * a shedder of blood, and * that doeth the like to any one of these things,

11 And that doeth not any of those duties, but even hath eaten upon the mountains, and defiled his neighbour's wife,

12 Hath oppressed the poor and needy, hath spoiled by violence, hath not restored the pledge, and hath lifted up his eyes to the idols, hath * committed abomination,

13 Hath given forth upon usury, and hath taken increase: shall he then live? he shall not live: he hath done all these abominations; he shall surely die; * his † blood shall be upon him.

14 ¶ Now, lo, if he beget a son, that seeth all his father's sins which he hath done, and considereth, and doeth not such like,

15 ¶ That hath not eaten upon the mountains, neither hath lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, hath not defiled his neighbour's wife,

16 Neither hath oppressed any, † hath not withholden the pledge, neither hath spoiled by violence, but hath given his bread to the hungry, and hath covered the naked with a garment,

17 That hath taken off his hand from the poor, that hath not received usury nor increase, hath executed my judgements, hath walked in my statutes; he shall not die for the iniquity of his father, he shall surely live.

18 As for his father, because he cruelly oppressed, spoiled his brother by violence, and did that which is not good among his people, lo, even † he shall die in his iniquity.

19 ¶ Yet say ye, Why? doth not the son bear the iniquity of the father? When the son hath done that which is lawful and right, and hath kept all my statutes, and hath done them, he shall surely live.

20 ¶ The soul that sinneth, it shall die. The son shall not bear the iniquity of the father, neither shall the father bear the iniquity of the son: the righteousness of the righteous shall be upon him, and the wickedness of the wicked shall be upon him.

21 ¶ But if the wicked will turn from all his sins that he hath committed, and keep all my statutes, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall surely live, he shall not die.

22 ¶ All his transgressions that he hath committed, they shall not be mentioned unto him: in his righteousness that he hath done he shall live.

23 ¶ Have I any pleasure at all that the wicked should die? saith the Lord GOD: and not that he should return from his ways, and live?

24 ¶ But when the righteous turneth away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, and doeth according to all the abominations that the wicked man doeth, shall he live? All his righteousness that he hath done shall not be mentioned: in his trespass that he hath trespassed, and in his sin that he hath sinned, in them shall he die.

25 ¶ Yet ye say, The way of the LORD is not equal. Hear now, O house of Israel; Is not my way equal? are not your ways unequal?

26 ¶ When a righteous man turneth away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, and dieth in them; for his iniquity that he hath done shall he die.

27 Again, when the wicked man turneth away from his wickedness that he hath committed, and doeth that which is lawful and right, he shall save his soul alive.

28 Because he considereth, and turneth away from all his transgressions that he hath committed, he shall surely live, he shall not die.

29 ¶ Yet saith the house of Israel, The way of the LORD is not equal. O house of Israel, are not my ways equal? are not your ways unequal?

30 ¶ Therefore I will judge you, O house of Israel, every one according to his ways, saith the Lord GOD. Repent, and turn yourselves from all your transgressions; so iniquity shall not be your ruin.

31 ¶ Cast away from you all your transgressions, whereby ye have transgressed; and make you a new heart and a new spirit: for why will ye die, O house of Israel?

32 For I have no pleasure in the death of him that dieth, saith the Lord GOD: wherefore turn yourselves, and live ye.

1 A lamentation for the princes of Israel, under the parable of lions' whelps taken in a pit; 10 and for Jerusalem, under the parable of a wasted vine.

MOREOVER, take thou up a lamentation for the princes of Israel,

2 And say, What is thy mother? A lioness: she lay down among lions, she nourished her whelps among young lions.

3 And she brought up one of her whelps: it became a young lion, and it learned to catch the prey; it devoured men.

4 The nations also heard of him; he was taken in their pit, and they brought him with chains unto the land of Egypt.

5 Now when she saw that she had waited, and her hope was lost, then she took another of her whelps, and made him a young lion.

6 And he went up and down among the lions, he became a young lion, and learned to catch the prey, and devoured men.

7 And he knew their desolate palaces, and he laid waste their cities; and the land was desolate, and the fulness thereof, by the noise of his roaring.

8 ¶ Then the nations set against him on every side from the provinces, and spread their net over him: he was taken in their pit.

9 And they put him in ward in chains, and brought him to the king of Babylon: they brought him into holds, that his voice

11 And she had strong rods for the sceptres of them that bare rule, and her ' stature was exalted among the thick branches; and she appeared in her height with the multitude of her branches.

12 But she was plucked up in fury, she was cast down to the ground, and the ' east wind dried up her fruit: her strong rods were broken and withered; the fire consumed them.

13 And now she is planted in the wilderness, in a dry and thirsty ground.

CHAP. XX.

1 God refuseth to be consulted by the elders of Israel: 5 he sheweth the story of their rebellions in Egypt, 10 in the wilderness, 27 and in the land: 33 he promiseth to gather them by the gospel. 45 Under the name of a forest he sheweth the destruction of Jerusalem.

AND it came to pass in the seventh year, in the fifth month, the tenth day of the month, that ' certain of the elders of Israel came to enquire of the LORD, and sat before me.

2 Then came the word of the LORD unto me, saying,

3 Son of man, speak unto the elders of Israel, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; Are ye come to enquire of me? As I live, saith the Lord God, ' I will not be enquired of by you.

4 ¶ Wilt thou ' judge them, son of man, wilt thou judge them? ' cause them to know the abominations of their fathers:

5 And say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; In the day when ' I chose Israel, and ' lifted up mine hand unto the seed of the house of Jacob, and made myself ' known unto them in the land of Egypt, when I lifted up mine hand unto them, saying, ' I am the LORD your God;

6 In the day that I lifted up mine hand unto them, ' to bring them forth of the land of Egypt into a land that I had espied for them, flowing with milk and honey, ' which is the glory of all lands:

7 Then said I unto them, ' Cast ye away every man ' the abominations of his eyes, and defile not yourselves with ' the idols of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.

8 But they rebelled against me, and would not hearken unto me: they did not every man cast away the abominations of their eyes, neither did they forsake the idols of Egypt: then I said, I will ' pour out my fury upon them, to accomplish my anger against them in the midst of the land of Egypt.

9 ¶ But I wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be polluted before the heathen, among whom they were, in whose fight I made myself known unto them, in bringing them forth out of the land of Egypt.

10 Wherefore I ' caused them to go forth out of the land of Egypt, and brought them into the wilderness.

11 ¶ And I gave them my statutes, and ' shewed them my judgements, ' which if a man do, he shall even live in them.

12 Moreover also I gave them my ' sabbaths, to be a sign between me and them, that they might know that I am the LORD that sanctify them.

13 ¶ But the house of Israel ' rebelled against me in the wilderness: they walked not in my statutes, and they ' despised my judgements, which if a man do, he shall even live in them; and my sabbaths they greatly ' polluted: then I said, I would pour out my fury upon them in the ' wilderness, to consume them.

14 ¶ But I wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be polluted before the heathen, in whose fight I brought them out.

15 Yet also ' I lifted up my hand unto them in the wilderness, that I would not bring them into the land which I had given them, flowing with milk and honey, ' which is the glory of all lands;

16 ' Because they despised my judgements, and walked not in my statutes, but polluted my sabbaths: for ' their heart went after their idols.

17 ' Nevertheless mine eye spared them from destroying them, neither did I make an end of them in the wilderness.

18 But I said unto their children in the wilderness, Walk ye not in the statutes of your fathers, neither observe their judgements, nor defile yourselves with their idols:

19 I am the LORD your God; ' walk in my statutes, and keep my judgements, and do them;

20 ' And hallow my sabbaths; and they shall be a sign between me and you, that ye may know that I am the LORD your God.

21 Notwithstanding ^h the children rebelled against me: they walked not in my statutes, neither kept my judgements to do them, ⁱ which if a man do, he shall even live in them; they polluted my sabbaths: then I said, ^k I would pour out my fury upon them, to accomplish my anger against them in the wilderness.

22 ^l Nevertheless I withdrew mine hand, and ^m wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be polluted in the sight of the heathen, in whose sight I brought them forth.

23 I lifted up mine hand unto them also in the wilderness, that ⁿ I would scatter them among the heathen, and disperse them through the countries;

24 ^o Because they had not executed my judgements, but had despised my statutes, and had polluted my sabbaths, and ^p their eyes were after their fathers' idols.

25 Wherefore ^q I gave them also statutes that were not good, and judgements whereby they should not live;

26 And I polluted them in their own gifts, in that they caused to pass ^r through the fire all that openeth the womb, that I might make them desolate, to the end that they ^s might know that I am the LORD.

27 ^t Therefore, son of man, speak unto the house of Israel, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; Yet in this your fathers have ^u blasphemed me, in that they have ^u committed a trespass against me.

28 For when I had brought them into the land, for the which I lifted up mine hand to give it to them, then ^v they saw every high hill, and all the thick trees, and they offered there their sacrifices, and there they presented the provocation of their offering: there also they made their ^w sweet savour, and poured out there their drink offerings.

29 Then ^x I said unto them, What is the high place whereunto ye go? And the name thereof is called Bamah unto this day.

30 ^y Wherefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God; Are ye polluted after the manner of your fathers? and commit ye whoredom after their abominations?

31 For when ye offer ^z your gifts, when ye make your sons to pass through the fire, ye pollute yourselves with all your idols, even unto this day: and ^z shall I be enquired of by you, O house of Israel? As I live, saith the Lord God, I will not be enquired of by you.

32 And that ^a which cometh into your mind shall not be at all, that ye say, We will be as the heathen, as the families of the countries, to serve wood and stone.

33 ^b As I live, saith the Lord God, surely with a mighty hand, and ^b with a stretched out arm, and with fury poured out, will I rule over you:

34 And I will bring you out from the people, and will gather you out of the countries wherein ye are scattered, with a mighty hand, and with a stretched out arm, and with fury poured out.

35 And I will bring you into the wilderness of the people, and there ^c will I plead with you face to face.

36 ^d Like as I pleaded with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so will I plead with you, saith the Lord God.

37 And I will cause you to ^e pass under the rod, and I will bring you into ^e the bond of the covenant:

38 And ^f I will purge out from among you the rebels, and them that transgress against me: I will bring them forth out of the country where they sojourn, and ^f they shall not enter into the land of Israel: ^f and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

39 As for you, O house of Israel, thus saith the Lord God; ^g Go ye, serve ye every one his idols, and hereafter also, if ye will not hearken unto me: ^g but pollute ye my holy name no more with your gifts, and with your idols.

40 For ^h in mine holy mountain, in the mountain of the height of Israel, saith the Lord God, there shall all the house of Israel, all of them in the land, serve me: there ^h will I accept them, and there will I require your offerings, and the ^h first-fruits of your oblations, with all your holy things.

41 I will accept you with your ⁱ sweet savour, when I bring you out from the people, and gather you out of the countries wherein ye have been scattered; and I will be sanctified in you before the heathen.

42 ^j And ye shall know that I am the LORD, ^j when I shall bring you into the land of Israel, into the country for the which I lifted up mine hand to give it to your fathers.

43 And ^k there shall ye remember your ways, and all your doings, wherein ye have been defiled; and ^k ye shall lothe yourselves in your own sight for all your evils that ye have committed.

44 ^l And ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I have wrought with you

10 It is sharpened to make a fore slaughter; it is furbished that it may glitter: should we then make mirth? " it contemneth the rod of my son, as every tree.

17 I will also " smite mine hands together, and " I will cause my fury to rest: I the LORD have said it.

18 ¶ The word of the LORD came unto me again, saying,

3 Then say thou, Thus saith the Lord God; The city sheddeth blood in the midst of it, that her time may come, and maketh idols against herself to defile herself.

13 Behold, therefore I have ° smitten mine hand at thy dishonest gain which thou hast made, and at thy blood which hath been in the midst of thee.

22 As silver is melted in the midst of the furnace, so shall ye be melted in the midst thereof; and ye shall know that I the LORD have ^e poured out my fury upon you.

23 ¶ And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

24 Son of man, say unto her, Thou art the land that is not cleansed, nor rained upon in the day of indignation.

25 ^f There is a conspiracy of her prophets in the midst thereof, like a roaring lion ravening the prey; they ^g have devoured souls; ^h they have taken the treasure and precious things; they have made her many widows in the midst thereof.

26 ⁱ Her priests have ⁺ violated my law, and have ^k profaned mine holy things: they have put no ^l difference between the holy and profane, neither have they shewed ^m difference between the unclean and the clean, and have hid their eyes from my sabbaths, and I am profaned among them.

27 Her ⁿ princes in the midst thereof are like wolves ravening the prey, to shed blood, and to destroy souls, to get dishonest gain.

28 And ^o her prophets have daubed them with untempered mortar, ^p seeing vanity, and divining lies unto them, saying, Thus saith the Lord God, when the LORD hath not spoken.

29 ^q The people of the land have used ^r oppression, and exercised robbery, and have vexed the poor and needy: yea, they have ^s oppressed the stranger ^t wrongfully.

30 ^u And I sought for a man among them, that should ^v make up the hedge, and ^w stand in the gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it: but I found none.

31 Therefore have I ^x poured out mine indignation upon them; I have consumed them with the fire of my wrath: ^y their own way have I recompensed upon their heads, saith the Lord God.

CHAP. XXIII.

1 The whoredoms of Aholah and Aholibah. 22 Aholibah is to be plagued by her lovers. 36 The prophet reproveth the adulteries of them both, 45 and sheweth their judgements.

THE word of the LORD came again unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, there were ^a two women, the daughters of one mother:

3 And ^b they committed whoredoms in Egypt; they committed whoredoms in ^c their youth: there were their breasts pressed, and there they bruised the teats of their virginity.

4 And the names of them were Aholah the elder, and Aholibah her sister: and ^d they were mine, and they bare sons and daughters. Thus were their names; Samaria is ^e Aholah, and Jerusalem ^f Aholibah.

5 And Aholah played the harlot when she was mine; and she doted on her lovers, on ^g the Assyrians her neighbours,

6 Which were clothed with blue, captains and rulers, all of them desirable young men, horsemen riding upon horses.

7 Thus she ^h committed her whoredoms with them, with all them that were ⁱ the chosen men of Assyria, and with all on whom she doted: with all their idols she defiled herself.

8 Neither left she her whoredoms brought ^j from Egypt: for in her youth they lay with her, and they bruised the breasts of her virginity, and poured their whoredom upon her.

9 Wherefore I have delivered her into the hand of her lovers, into the hand of the ^k Assyrians, upon whom she doted.

10 These ^l discovered her nakedness: they took her sons and her daughters, and slew her with the sword: and she became ^m famous among women; for they had executed judgement upon her.

11 And ⁿ when her sister Aholibah saw this, ^o ⁺ she was more corrupt in her inordinate love than she, and in her whoredoms ^p more than her sister in her whoredoms.

12 She doted upon the ^q Assyrians her neighbours, ^r captains and rulers clothed most gorgeously, horsemen riding upon horses, all of them desirable young men.

13 Then I saw that she was defiled, that they took both one way,

14 And that she increased her whoredoms: for when she saw men pourtrayed upon the wall, the images of the Chaldeans pourtrayed with vermilion,

15 Girded with girdles upon their loins, exceeding in dyed attire upon their heads, all of them princes to look to, after the manner of the Babylonians of Chaldea, the land of their nativity:

16 ^s And ^t as soon as she saw them with her eyes, she doted upon them, and sent messengers unto them into Chaldea.

17 And the ^u Babylonians came to her into the bed of love, and they defiled her with their whoredom, and she was polluted with them, and * her mind was † alienated from them.

18 So she discovered her whordoms, and discovered her nakedness: then * my mind was alienated from her, like as my mind was alienated from her sister.

19 Yet she multiplied her whoredoms, in calling to remembrance the days of her youth, * wherein she had played the harlot in the land of Egypt.

20 For she doted upon their paramours,
* whose flesh is as the flesh of asses, and whose issue is like the issue of horses.

21 Thus thou calledst to remembrance the lewdness of thy youth, in bruising thy teats by the Egyptians for the paps of thy youth.

22 ¶ Therefore, O Aholibah, thus saith the Lord God; * Behold, I will raise up thy lovers against thee, from whom thy mind is alienated, and I will bring them against thee on every side;

23 The Babylonians, and all the Chal-deans, * Pekod, and Shoa, and Koa, and all the Assyrians with them: * all of them desirable young men, captains and rulers, great lords and renowned, all of them riding upon horses.

24 And they shall come against thee with chariots, waggons, and wheels, and with an assembly of people, which shall set against thee buckler and shield and helmet round about: and I will set judgement before them, and they shall judge thee according to their judgements.

25 And I will set my jealousy against thee, and they shall deal furiously with thee: they shall take away thy nose and thine ears; and thy remnant shall fall by the sword: they shall take thy sons and thy daughters, and thy residue shall be devoured by the fire.

26 * They shall also strip thee out of thy clothes, and take away thy † fair jewels.

27 Thus * will I make thy lewdness to cease from thee, and * thy whoredom brought from the land of Egypt: so that thou shalt not lift up thine eyes unto them, nor remember Egypt any more.

28 For thus saith the Lord God; Behold,
I will deliver thee into the hand of them
* whom thou hatest, into the hand of them
* from whom thy mind is alienated:

29 And they shall deal with thee hate-fully, and shall take away all thy labour, and * shall leave thee naked and bare: and the nakedness of thy whoredoms shall be discovered, both thy lewdness and thy whoredoms.

30 I will do these things unto thee, because thou hast * gone a whoring after the heathen, and because thou art polluted with their idols.

31 Thou hast walked in the way of thy sister; therefore will I give her * cup into thine hand.

32 Thus saith the Lord God; Thou shalt drink of thy sister's cup deep and large:
* thou shalt be laughed to scorn and had in derision; it containeth much.

33 Thou shalt be filled with drunkenness and sorrow, with the cup of astonishment and desolation, with the cup of thy sister Samarita.

34 Thou shalt * even drink it and suck it out, and thou shalt break the sherds thereof, and pluck off thine own breasts: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord God.

35 Therefore thus saith the Lord God;
Because thou * hast forgotten me, and * cast me behind thy back, therefore bear thou also thy lewdness and thy whoredoms.

36 ¶ The LORD said moreover unto me;
Son of man, wilt thou * judge Aholah and Aholibah? yea, * declare unto them their abominations;

37 That they have committed adultery, and * blood is in their hands, and with their idols have they committed adultery, and have also caused their sons, * whom they bare unto * me, to pass for them through the fire, to devour them.

38 Moreover this they have done unto me: they have defiled my sanctuary in the same day, and * have profaned my sabbaths.

39 For when they had slain their children to their idols, then they came the same day into my sanctuary to profane it; and, lo, * thus have they done in the midst of mine house.

40 And furthermore, that ye have sent for men † to come from far, * unto whom a messenger was sent; and, lo, they came:
for whom thou didst * wash thyself,
* paintedst thy eyes, and deckedst thyself with ornaments,

41 And satest upon a † stately * bed, and a table prepared before it, * whereupon thou hast set mine incense and mine oil.

42 And a voice of a multitude being at ease was with her; and with the men † of the common sort were brought * Sabeans from the wilderness, which put bracelets upon their hands, and beautiful crowns upon their heads.

43 Then said I unto her that was old in adulteries, Will they now commit † whoredoms with her, and she with them?

44 Yet they went in unto her, as they goin unto a woman that playeth the harlot:

CHAP. XXIV.

1 Under the parable of a boiling pot, 6 is shewed the irrecoverable destruction of Jerusalem. 15 By the sign of Ezekiel, not mourning for the death of his wife, 19 is shewed the calamity of the Jews to be beyond all sorrow.

A GAIN in the ninth year, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, Write thee the name of the day, even of this same day: the king of Babylon set himself against Jerusalem ^a this same day.

3 And utter a parable unto the rebellious house, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; ^b Set on a pot, set it on, and also pour water into it:

4 Gather the pieces thereof into it, even every good piece, the thigh, and the shoulder; fill it with the choice bones.

5 Take the choice of the flock, and ^c burn also the bones under it, and make it boil well, and let them seethe the bones of it therein.

6 Wherefore thus saith the Lord God; Woe to ^d the bloody city, to the pot whose scum is therein, and whose scum is not gone out of it! bring it out piece by piece; let no ^e lot fall upon it.

7 For her blood is in the midst of her; she set it upon the top of a rock; ^f she poured it not upon the ground, to cover it with dust;

8 That it might cause fury to come up to take vengeance; ^g I have set her blood upon the top of a rock, that it should not be covered.

9 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; ^h Woe to the bloody city! I will even make the pile for fire great.

10 Heap on wood, kindle the fire, consume the flesh, and spice it well, and let the bones be burned.

11 Then set it empty upon the coals thereof, that the bras of it may be hot, and may burn, and that ⁱ the filthiness of it may be molten in it, that the scum of it may be consumed.

12 She hath wearied herself with lies, and her great scum went not forth out of her: her scum shall be in the fire.

13 In thy filthiness is lewdness: because I have purged thee, and thou wast not purged, thou shalt not be purged from thy filthiness any more, ^k till I have caused my fury to rest upon thee.

14 ^l I the Lord have spoken it: it shall come to pass, and I will do it; I will not go back, ^m neither will I spare, neither will I repent; according to thy doings, and according to thy doings, shall they judge thee, saith the Lord God.

15 ¶ Also the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

16 Son of man, behold, I take away from thee the desire of thine eyes with a stroke: yet neither shalt thou mourn nor weep, neither shall thy tears ⁿ run down.

17 [†] Forbear to cry, ^a make no mourning for the dead, ^b bind the tire of thine head upon thee, and ^c put on thy shoes upon thy feet, and ^d cover not thy [†] lips, and eat not the bread of men.

18 So I spake unto the people in the morning: and at even my wife died; and I did in the morning as I was commanded.

19 ¶ And the people said unto me, ^e Wilt thou not tell us what these things are to us, that thou doest so?

20 Then I answered them, The word of the Lord came unto me, saying, 21 Speak unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, ^f I will profane my sanctuary, the excellency of your strength, ^g the desire of your eyes, and ^h that which your soul pitieth; ⁱ and your sons and your daughters whom ye have left shall fall by the sword.

22 And ye shall do as I have done: ^j ye shall not cover your lips, nor eat the bread of men.

23 And your tires shall be upon your heads, and your shoes upon your feet: ^k ye shall not mourn nor weep; but ^l ye shall pine away for your iniquities, and mourn one toward another.

24 Thus ^m Ezekiel is unto you a sign:

C H A P. XXV.

1 God's vengeance for their insolence against the Jews, upon the Ammonites, 8 upon Moab and Seir, 12 upon Edom, 15 and upon the Philistines.

THE word of the LORD came again unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, ^a set thy face ^b against the Ammonites, and prophesy against them;

3 And say unto the Ammonites, Hear the word of the Lord God; Thus saith the Lord God; ^c Because thou saidst, Aha, against my sanctuary, when it was profaned; and against the land of Israel, when it was desolate; and against the house of Judah, when they went into captivity;

4 Behold, therefore I will deliver thee to the [†] men of the east for a possession, and they shall set their palaces in thee, and make their dwellings in thee: they shall eat thy fruit, and they shall drink thy milk.

5 And I will make ^d Rabbah ^e a stable for camels, and the Ammonites a couching-place for flocks: ^f and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

6 For thus saith the Lord God; Because thou ^g hast clapped thine [†] hands, and stamped with the [†] feet, and ^h rejoiced in [†] heart with all thy despite against the land of Israel;

7 Behold, therefore I will ⁱ stretch out mine hand upon thee, and will deliver thee for [†] a spoil to the heathen; and I will cut thee off from the people, and I will cause thee to perish out of the countries: I will destroy thee; and thou shalt know that I am the Lord.

8 ¶ Thus saith the Lord God; Because that ^k Moab and [†] Seir do say, Behold, the house of Judah is like unto all the heathen;

9 Therefore, behold, I will open the [†] side of Moab from the cities, from his cities which are on his frontiers, the glory of the country, Beth-jeshimoth, Baal-meon, and Kiriathaim,

10 ^m Unto the men of the east [†] with the Ammonites, and will give them in possession, that the Ammonites ⁿ may not be remembered among the nations.

11 And I will execute judgements upon Moab; and they shall know that I am the Lord.

12 ¶ Thus saith the Lord God; ^o Because that Edom hath dealt against the house of Judah [†] by taking vengeance, and hath greatly offended, and revenged himself upon them;

13 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; I will also stretch out mine hand upon Edom, and will cut off man and beast from it; and I will make it desolate from Teman; and [†] they of Dedan shall fall by the sword.

14 And ^p I will lay my vengeance upon Edom by the hand of my people Israel: and they shall do in Edom according to mine anger and according to my fury; and they shall know my vengeance, saith the Lord God.

15 ¶ Thus saith the Lord God; ^q Because the Philistines have dealt by revenge, and have taken vengeance with a despiteful heart, to destroy it [†] for the old hatred;

16 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Behold, ^r I will stretch out mine hand upon the Philistines, and I will cut off the [†] Cherethims, ^s and destroy the remnant of the [†] sea coasts.

17 And I will ^t execute great [†] vengeance upon them with furious rebukes; ^u and they shall know that I am the Lord, when I shall lay my vengeance upon them.

6 And her daughters which are in the field shall be slain by the sword; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

7 ¶ For thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will bring upon Tyrus Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, a king of kings, from the north, with horses, and with chariots, and with horsemen, and companies, and much people.

8 He shall slay with the sword thy daughters in the field: and he shall make a fort against thee, and cast a mount against thee, and lift up the buckler against thee.

9 And he shall set engines of war against thy walls, and with his axes he shall break down thy towers.

10 By reason of the abundance of his horses their dust shall cover thee: thy walls shall shake at the noise of the horsemen, and of the wheels, and of the chariots, when he shall enter into thy gates, † as men enter into a city wherein is made a breach.

15 ¶ Thus saith the Lord GOD to Tyrus; Shall not the isles shake at the sound of thy fall, when the wounded cry, when the slaughter is made in the midst of thee?

16 Then all the princes of the sea shall come down from their thrones, and lay away their robes, and put off their broidered garments: they shall cloth themselves with † trembling; they shall sit upon the ground, and shall tremble at every moment, and be astonished at thee.

17 And they shall take up a lamentation for thee, and say to thee, How art thou destroyed, that wast inhabited † of sea-faring men, the renowned city, which wast strong in the sea, she and her inhabitants, which cause their terror to be on all that haunt it!

18 Now shall the isles tremble in the day of thy fall; yea, the isles that are in the sea shall be troubled at thy departure.

19 For thus saith the Lord GOD; When I shall make thee a desolate city, like the cities that are not inhabited; when I shall bring up the deep upon thee, and great waters shall cover thee;

20 When I shall bring thee down with them that descend into the pit, with the people of old time, and shall set thee in the low parts of the earth, in places desolate of old, with them that go down to the pit, that thou be not inhabited; and I shall set glory in the land of the living;

21 I will make thee † a terror, and thou shalt be no more: though thou be sought for, yet shalt thou never be found again, saith the Lord GOD.

war: they hanged the shield and helmet in thee; they set forth thy comeliness.

11 The men of Arvad with thine army were upon thy walls round about, and the Gammadims were in thy towers: they hanged their shields upon thy walls round about; they have made ¹thy beauty perfect.

12 ¹Tarshish was thy merchant by reason of the multitude of all kind of riches; with silver, iron, tin, and lead, they traded in thy fairs.

13 ¹Javan, Tubal, and Meshech, they were thy merchants: they traded ^mthe persons of men and vessels of brass in thy ¹market.

14 They of the house of ^aTogarmah traded in thy fairs with horses and horsemen and mules.

15 The men of ^oDedan were thy merchants; many isles were the merchandise of thine hand: they brought thee for a present horns of ivory and ebony.

16 Syria was thy merchant by reason of the multitude of [†]the wares of thy making: they occupied in thy fairs with emeralds, purple, and brodered work, and fine linen, and coral, and [†]agate.

17 Judah, and the land of Israel, they were thy merchants: they traded in thy market ²wheat of ¹Minnith, and Pannag, and honey, and oil, and ¹balm.

18 Damascus was thy merchant in the multitude of the wares of thy making, for the multitude of all riches; in the wine of Helbon, and white wool.

19 Dan also and Javan ¹going to and fro occupied in thy fairs: bright iron, cassia, and calamus, were in thy market.

20 ¹Dedan was thy merchant in [†]precious clothes for chariots.

21 Arabia, and all the princes of ¹Kedar, [†]they occupied with thee in lambs, and rams, and goats: in these were they thy merchants.

22 The merchants of ¹Sheba and Raamah, they were thy merchants: they occupied in thy fairs with chief of all spices, and with all precious stones, and gold.

23 ²Haran, and Canneh, and Eden, the merchants of ¹Sheba, Asfhur, and Chilmad, were thy merchants.

24 These were thy merchants in ¹all sorts of things, in blue [†]clothes, and brodered work, and in chests of rich apparel, bound with cords, and made of cedar, among thy merchandise.

25 ²The ships of Tarshish did sing of thee in thy market: and thou wast replenished, and made very glorious ^ain the midst of the seas.

26 ¹Thy rowers have brought thee into great waters: ^bthe east wind hath broken thee in the [†]midst of the seas.

27 Thy ^criches, and thy fairs, thy merchandise, thy mariners, and thy pilots, thy calkers, and the occupiers of thy merchandise, and all thy men of war, that are in thee, ¹and in all thy company which is in the midst of thee, shall fall into the [†]midst of the seas in the day of thy ruin.

28 The ¹suburbs ^ashall shake at the sound of the cry of thy pilots.

29 And ^aall that handle the oar, the mariners, and all the pilots of the sea, shall come down from their ships, they shall stand upon the land;

30 And shall cause their voice to be heard against thee, and shall cry bitterly, and shall ¹cast up dust upon their heads, they ^ashall wallow themselves in the ashes:

31 And they shall ^bmake themselves utterly bald for thee, and gird them with sackcloth, and they shall weep for thee with bitterness of heart and bitter wailing.

32 And in their wailing they shall ¹take up a lamentation for thee, and lament over thee, saying, ^aWhat city is like Tyrus, like the destroyed in the midst of the sea?

33 ¹When thy wares went forth out of the seas, thou filledst many people; thou didst enrich the kings of the earth with the multitude of thy riches and of thy merchandise.

34 In the time when ^mthou shalt be broken by the seas in the depths of the waters ^athy merchandise and all thy company in the midst of thee shall fall.

35 ^oAll the inhabitants of the isles shall be astonished at thee, and their kings shall be sore afraid, they shall be troubled in their countenance.

36 The merchants among the people ¹shall hiss at thee; ^athou shalt be [†]a terror, and [†]never shalt be any more.

there is no secret that they can hide from thee:

4 With thy wisdom and with thine understanding thou hast gotten thee riches, and hast gotten gold and silver into thy treasures:

5 [†] By thy great wisdom and by thy traffick hast thou increased thy riches, and thine heart is lifted up because of thy riches:

6 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Because thou hast set thine heart as the heart of God;

7 Behold, therefore I will bring strangers upon thee, [†] the terrible of the nations: and they shall draw their swords against the beauty of thy wisdom, and they shall defile thy brightness.

8 They shall bring thee down to the pit, and thou shalt die the deaths of them that are slain in the midst of the seas.

9 Wilt thou yet [†] say before him that slayeth thee, I am God; but thou shalt be a man, and no God, in the hand of him that slayeth thee.

10 Thou shalt die the deaths of [†] the uncircumcised by the hand of strangers: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord God.

11 [¶] Moreover the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

12 Son of man, [†] take up a lamentation upon the king of Tyrus, and say unto him, Thus saith the Lord God; [†] Thou sealest up the sum, full of wisdom, and perfect in beauty.

13 Thou hast been in [†] Eden the garden of God; every precious stone was thy covering, the [†] sardius, topaz, and the diamond, the [†] beryl, the onyx, and the jasper, the sapphire, the [†] emerald, and the carbuncle, and gold: the workmanship of [†] thy tabrets and of thy pipes was prepared in thee in the day that thou wast created.

14 Thou art the anointed [†] cherub that covereth; and I have set thee so: thou wast upon [†] the holy mountain of God; thou hast walked up and down in the midst of the stones of fire.

15 Thou wast perfect in thy ways from the day that thou wast created, till iniquity was found in thee.

16 By the multitude of thy merchandise they have filled the midst of thee with violence, and thou hast sinned: therefore I will cast thee as profane out of the mountain of God: and I will destroy thee, [†] O covering cherub, from the midst of the stones of fire.

17 [†] Thine heart was lifted up because of thy beauty, thou hast corrupted thy wisdom by reason of thy brightness: I will cast thee to the ground, I will lay thee before kings, that they may behold thee.

18 Thou hast defiled thy sanctuaries by the multitude of thine iniquities, by the iniquity of thy traffick; therefore will I bring forth a fire from the midst of thee, it shall devour thee, and I will bring thee to ashes upon the earth in the sight of all them that behold thee.

19 All they that know thee among the people shall be astonished at thee: [†] thou shalt be [†] a terror, and never shalt thou be any more.

20 [¶] Again the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

21 Son of man, [†] set thy face [†] against Zidon, and prophesy against it,

22 And say, Thus saith the Lord God; [†] Behold, I am against thee, O Zidon; and I will be glorified in the midst of thee: and [†] they shall know that I am the Lord, when I shall have executed judgements in her, and shall be [†] sanctified in her.

23 [†] For I will send into her pestilence, and blood into her streets; and the wounded shall be judged in the midst of her by the sword upon her on every side; and they shall know that I am the Lord.

24 [¶] And there shall be no more [†] a pricking brier unto the house of Israel, nor any grieving thorn of all that are round about them, that despised them; and they shall know that I am the Lord God.

25 Thus saith the Lord God; When I shall have [†] gathered the house of Israel from the people among whom they are scattered, and shall be [†] sanctified in them in the sight of the heathen, then shall they dwell in their land that I have given to my servant Jacob.

26 And they shall [†] dwell [†] safely therein, and shall [†] build houses, and [†] plant vineyards; yea, they shall dwell with confidence, when I have executed judgements upon all those that [†] despise them round about them; and they shall know that I am the Lord their God.

3 Speak, and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against thee, Pharaoh king of Egypt, the great dragon that lieth in the midst of his rivers, which hath said, My river is mine own, and I have made it for myself.

4 But I will put hooks in thy jaws, and I will cause the fish of thy rivers to stick unto thy scales, and I will bring thee up out of the midst of thy rivers, and all the fish of thy rivers shall stick unto thy scales.

5 And I will leave thee thrown into the wilderness, thee and all the fish of thy rivers: thou shalt fall upon the open fields; thou shalt not be brought together, nor gathered: I have given thee for meat to the beasts of the field and to the fowls of the heaven.

6 And all the inhabitants of Egypt shall know that I am the LORD, because they have been a staff of reed to the house of Israel.

7 When they took hold of thee by thy hand, thou didst break, and rend all their shoulder: and when they leaned upon thee, thou brakest, and madest all their loins to be at a stand.

8 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will bring a sword upon thee, and cut off man and beast out of thee.

9 And the land of Egypt shall be desolate and waste; and they shall know that I am the LORD: because he hath said, The river is mine, and I have made it.

10 Behold, therefore I am against thee, and against thy rivers, and I will make the land of Egypt utterly waste and desolate, from the tower of Syene even unto the border of Ethiopia.

11 No foot of man shall pass through it, nor foot of beast shall pass through it, neither shall it be inhabited forty years.

12 And I will make the land of Egypt desolate in the midst of the countries that are desolate, and her cities among the cities that are laid waste shall be desolate forty years: and I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries.

13 Yet thus saith the Lord GOD; At the end of forty years will I gather the Egyptians from the people whither they were scattered:

14 And I will bring again the captivity of Egypt, and will cause them to return into the land of Pathros, into the land of their habitation; and they shall be there a base kingdom.

15 It shall be the basest of the kingdoms; neither shall it exalt itself any more above the nations: for I will diminish them, that they shall no more rule over the nations.

16 And it shall be no more the confidence of the house of Israel, which bringeth their iniquity to remembrance, when they shall look after them: but they shall know that I am the Lord GOD.

17 And it came to pass in the seven and twentieth year, in the first month, in the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

18 Son of man, Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon caused his army to serve a great service against Tyrus: every head was made bald, and every shoulder was peeled: yet had he no wages, nor his army, for Tyrus, for the service that he had served against it:

19 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will give the land of Egypt unto Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon; and he shall take her multitude, and take her spoil, and take her prey; and it shall be the wages for his army.

20 I have given him the land of Egypt for his labour wherewith he served against it, because they wrought for me, saith the Lord GOD.

21 In that day will I cause the horn of the house of Israel to bud forth, and I will give thee the opening of the mouth in the midst of them; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAP. XXX.

1 The desolation of Egypt, and her helpers. 20 The arm of Babylon shall be strengthened to break the arm of Egypt.

THE word of the LORD came again unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, prophesy and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Howl ye, Woe worth the day!

3 For the day is near, even the day of the LORD is near, a cloudy day; it shall be the time of the heathen.

4 And the sword shall come upon Egypt, and great pain shall be in Ethiopia, when the slain shall fall in Egypt, and they shall take away her multitude, and her foundations shall be broken down.

5 Ethiopia, and Libya, and Lydia, and all the mingled people, and Chub, and the men of the land that is in league, shall fall with them by the sword.

6 Thus saith the LORD; They also that uphold Egypt shall fall; and the pride of her power shall come down: from the tower of Syene shall they fall in it by the sword, saith the Lord GOD.

7 And they shall be desolate in the midst of the countries that are desolate, and her

9 In that day shall messengers go forth from me in ships to make the careless Ethiopians afraid, and great pain shall come upon them, as in the day of Egypt: for, lo, it cometh.

10 Thus saith the Lord GOD; I will also make the multitude of Egypt to cease by the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon.

11 He and his people with him, the terrible of the nations, shall be brought to destroy the land: and they shall draw their swords against Egypt, and fill the land with the slain.

12 And I will make the rivers dry, and I will sell the land into the hand of the wicked: and I will make the land waste, and all that is therein, by the hand of strangers: I the LORD have spoken it.

13 Thus saith the Lord GOD; I will also destroy the idols, and I will cause their images to cease out of Noph; and there shall be no more a prince of the land of Egypt: and I will put a fear in the land of Egypt.

14 And I will make Pathros desolate, and will set fire in Zoan, and will execute judgements in No.

15 And I will pour my fury upon Sin, the strength of Egypt; and I will cut off the multitude of No.

16 And I will set fire in Egypt: Sin shall have great pain, and No shall be rent asunder, and Noph shall have distresses daily.

17 The young men of Aven and of Pi-beseth shall fall by the sword: and these cities shall go into captivity.

18 At Tehaphnehes also the day shall be darkened, when I shall break there the yokes of Egypt: and the pomp of her strength shall cease in her: as for her, a cloud shall cover her, and her daughters shall go into captivity.

19 Thus will I execute judgements in Egypt: and they shall know that I am the LORD.

20 And it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the first month, in the seventh day of the month, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

21 Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and, lo, it shall not be bound up to be healed, to put a roller to bind it, to make it strong to hold the sword.

22 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and will break his arms, the strong, and that which was broken; and I will cause the sword to fall out of his hand.

23 And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries.

24 And I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and put my sword in his hand: but I will break Pharaoh's arms, and he shall groan before him with the groanings of a deadly wounded man.

25 But I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and the arms of Pharaoh shall fall down; and they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall put my sword into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall stretch it out upon the land of Egypt.

26 And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and disperse them among the countries; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAP. XXXI.

1 A relation unto Pharaoh, 3 of the glory of Assyria, 10 and the fall thereof for pride.

18 The like destruction of Egypt.

AND it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the third month, in the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, speak unto Pharaoh king of Egypt, and to his multitude; Whom art thou like in thy greatness?

3 Behold, the Assyrian was a cedar in Lebanon with fair branches, and with a shadowing shroud, and of an high stature; and his top was among the thick boughs.

4 The waters made him great, the deep set him up on high with her rivers running round about his plants, and sent out her little rivers unto all the trees of the field.

5 Therefore his height was exalted above all the trees of the field, and his boughs were multiplied, and his branches became long because of the multitude of waters, when he shot forth.

6 All the fowls of heaven made their nests in his boughs, and under his branches did all the beasts of the field bring forth their young, and under his shadow dwelt all great nations.

7 Thus was he fair in his greatness, in the length of his branches: for his root was by great waters.

8 The cedars in the garden of God could not hide him: the fire trees were not like his boughs, and the chefnut trees were not like his branches; nor any tree in the garden of God was like unto him in his beauty.

9 I have made him fair by the multitude of his branches: so that all the trees of Eden, that were in the garden of God, envied him.

10 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Because thou hast lifted up thyself in height, and he hath shot up his top among the thick boughs, and his heart is lifted up in his height;

11 I have therefore delivered him into the hand of the mighty one of the heathen; he shall surely deal with him: I have driven him out for his wickedness.

12 And strangers, the terrible of the nations, have cut him off, and have left him: upon the mountains and in all the valleys his branches are fallen, and his boughs are broken by all the rivers of the land; and all the people of the earth are gone down from his shadow, and have left him.

13 Upon his ruin shall all the fowls of the heaven remain, and all the beasts of the field shall be upon his branches:

14 To the end that none of all the trees by the waters exalt themselves for their height, neither shoot up their top among the thick boughs, neither their trees stand up in their height, all that drink water: for they are all delivered unto death, to the nether parts of the earth, in the midst of the children of men, with them that go down to the pit.

15 Thus saith the Lord God; In the day when he went down to the grave I caused a mourning, I covered the deep for him, and I restrained the floods thereof, and the great waters were stayed: and I caused Lebanon to mourn for him, and all the trees of the field fainted for him.

16 I made the nations to shake at the sound of his fall, when I cast him down to hell with them that descend into the pit: and all the trees of Eden, the choice and best of Lebanon, all that drink water, shall be comforted in the nether parts of the earth.

17 They also went down into hell with him unto them that be slain with the sword; and they that were his arm, that dwelt under his shadow in the midst of the heathen.

18 To whom art thou thus like in glory and in greatness among the trees of Eden? yet shalt thou be brought down with the trees of Eden unto the nether parts of the earth: thou shalt lie in the midst of the uncircumcised with them that be slain by the sword. This is Pharaoh and all his multitude, saith the Lord God.

C H A P. XXXII.

1 A lamentation for the fearful fall of Egypt.
11 The sword of Babylon shall destroy it. 17 It shall be brought down to hell among all the uncircumcised nations.

AND it came to pass in the twelfth year, in the twelfth month, in the first day of the month, that the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, take up a lamentation for Pharaoh king of Egypt, and say unto him, Thou art like a young lion of the nations, and thou art as a whale in the seas: and thou camest forth with thy rivers, and troubledst the waters with thy feet, and fouledst their rivers.

3 Thus saith the Lord God; I will therefore spread out my net over thee with a company of many people; and they shall bring thee up in my net.

4 Then will I leave thee upon the land, I will cast thee forth upon the open field, and will cause all the fowls of the heaven to remain upon thee, and I will fill the beasts of the whole earth with thee.

5 And I will lay thy flesh upon the mountains, and fill the valleys with thy height.

6 I will also water with thy blood the land wherein thou swimmest, even to the mountains; and the rivers shall be full of thee.

7 And when I shall put thee out, I will cover the heaven, and make the stars thereof dark; I will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon shall not give her light.

8 All the bright lights of heaven will I make dark over thee, and set darkness upon thy land, saith the Lord God.

9 I will also vex the hearts of many people, when I shall bring thy destruction among the nations, into the countries which thou hast not known.

10 Yea, I will make many people amazed at thee, and their kings shall be horribly afraid for thee, when I shall brandish my sword before them; and they shall tremble at every moment, every man for his own life, in the day of thy fall.

11 For thus saith the Lord God; The sword of the king of Babylon shall come upon thee.

12 By the swords of the mighty will I cause thy multitude to fall, the terrible of the nations, all of them: and they shall spoil the pomp of Egypt, and all the multitude thereof shall be destroyed.

13 I will destroy also all the beasts thereof from beside the great waters; neither shall the foot of man trouble them any more, nor the hoofs of beasts trouble them.

14 Then will I make their waters deep, and cause their rivers to run like oil, saith the Lord God.

15 When I shall make the land of Egypt desolate, and the country shall be [†] destitute of that whereof it was full, when I shall smite all them that dwell therein, ^q then shall they know that I am the LORD.

16 This is the lamentation wherewith they shall lament her: the daughters of the nations shall lament her: they shall lament for her, even for Egypt, and for all her multitude, saith the Lord God.

17 ¶ It came to pass also in the twelfth year, in the fifteenth day of the month, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

18 Son of man, wail for the multitude of Egypt, and ^q cast them down, even her, and the daughters of the famous nations, unto the nether parts of the earth, with them that go down into the pit.

19 ^q Whom dost thou pass in beauty? ^q go down, and be thou laid with the uncircumcised.

20 They shall fall in the midst of them that are slain by the sword: [¶] she is delivered to the sword: draw her and all her multitudes.

21 ^q The strong among the mighty shall speak to him out of the midst of hell with them that help him: they are ^y gone down, they lie uncircumcised, slain by the sword.

22 ^z Ashur is there and all her company: his graves are about him: all of them slain, fallen by the sword:

23 ^a Whose graves are set in the sides of the pit, and her company is round about her grave: all of them slain, fallen by the sword, which ^b caused [¶] terror in the land of the living.

24 There is ^c Elam and all her multitude round about her grave, all of them slain, fallen by the sword, which are ^d gone down uncircumcised into the nether parts of the earth, ^q which caused their terror in the land of the living; yet have they borne their shame with them that go down to the pit.

25 They have set her a bed in the midst of the slain with all her multitude: her graves are round about him: all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword: though their terror was caused in the land of the living, yet have they borne their shame with them that go down to the pit: he is put in the midst of them that be slain.

26 There is ^e Meshech, Tubal, and all her multitude: her graves are round about him: all of them ^f uncircumcised, slain by the sword, though they caused their terror in the land of the living.

27 ^h And they shall not lie with the mighty that are fallen of the uncircumcised, which are gone down to hell [†] with their weapons of war: and they have laid their swords under their heads, but their iniquities shall be upon their bones, though they were the terror of the mighty in the land of the living.

28 Yea, thou shalt be broken in the midst of the uncircumcised, and shalt lie with them that are slain with the sword.

29 There is ⁱ Edom, her kings, and all her princes, which with their might are [†] laid by them that were slain by the sword: they shall lie with the uncircumcised, and with them that go down to the pit.

30 ^k There be the princes of the north, all of them, and all the ^l Zidonians, which are gone down with the slain; with their terror they are ashamed of their might; and they lie uncircumcised with them that be slain by the sword, and bear their shame with them that go down to the pit.

31 Pharaoh shall see them, and shall be ^m comforted over all his multitude, even Pharaoh and all his army slain by the sword, saith the Lord God.

32 For I have caused my terror in the land of the living: and he shall be laid in the midst of the uncircumcised with them that are slain with the sword, even Pharaoh and all his multitude, saith the Lord God.

1 According to the duty of a watchman, in warning the people, 7 Ezekiel is admonished of his duty. 10 God sheweth the justice of his ways towards the penitent, and towards revolvers: 17 he maintaineth his justice. 21 Upon the news of the taking of Jerusalem, prophesieth the desolation of the land. 30 God's judgement upon the mockers of the prophets.

AGAIN the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, speak to ^a the children of thy people, and say unto them, ^b [†] When I bring the sword upon a land, if the people of the land take a man of their coasts, and set him for their ^c watchman:

3 If when he seeth the sword come upon the land, he blow the trumpet, and warn the people;

4 Then [†] whosoever heareth the sound of the trumpet, and taketh not warning; if the sword come, and take him away, ^d his blood shall be upon his own head.

5 He heard the sound of the trumpet, and took not warning; his blood shall be upon him. But he that taketh warning shall deliver his soul.

6 But if the watchman see the sword come, and blow not the trumpet, and the people be not warned; if the sword come, and take any person from among them, he is taken away in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at the watchman's hand.

7 So thou, O son of man, I have set thee a watchman unto the house of Israel; therefore thou shalt hear the word at my mouth, and warn them from me.

8 When I say unto the wicked, O wicked man, thou shalt surely die; if thou dost not speak to warn the wicked from his way, that wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thine hand.

9 Nevertheless, if thou warn the wicked of his way to turn from it; if he do not turn from his way, he shall die in his iniquity; but thou hast delivered thy soul.

10 Therefore, O thou son of man, speak unto the house of Israel; Thus ye speak, saying, If our transgressions and our sins be upon us, and we pine away in them, how should we then live?

11 Say unto them, As I live, saith the Lord God, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked turn from his way and live: turn ye, turn ye from your evil ways; for why will ye die, O house of Israel?

12 Therefore, thou son of man, say unto the children of thy people, The righteousness of the righteous shall not deliver him in the day of his transgression: as for the wickedness of the wicked, he shall not fall thereby in the day that he turneth from his wickedness; neither shall the righteous be able to live for his righteousness in the day that he sinneth.

13 When I shall say to the righteous, that he shall surely live; if he trust to his own righteousness, and commit iniquity, all his righteousnesses shall not be remembered; but for his iniquity that he hath committed, he shall die for it.

14 Again, when I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; if he turn from his sin, and do that which is lawful and right;

15 If the wicked restore the pledge, give again that he had robbed, walk in the statutes of life without committing iniquity; he shall surely live, he shall not die.

16 None of his sins that he hath committed shall be mentioned unto him: he hath done that which is lawful and right; he shall surely live.

17 Yet the children of thy people say, The way of the Lord is not equal: but as for them, their way is not equal.

18 When the righteous turneth from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, he shall even die thereby.

19 But if the wicked turn from his wickedness, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall live thereby.

20 Yet ye say, The way of the Lord is not equal. O ye house of Israel, I will judge you every one after his ways.

21 And it came to pass in the twelfth year of our captivity, in the tenth month, in the fifth day of the month, that one that had escaped out of Jerusalem came unto me, saying, The city is smitten.

22 Now the hand of the LORD was upon me in the evening, afore he that was escaped came; and had opened my mouth, until he came to me in the morning; and my mouth was opened, and I was no more dumb.

23 Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

24 Son of man, they that inhabit those wastes of the land of Israel speak, saying, Abraham was one, and he inherited the land: but we are many; the land is given us for inheritance.

25 Wherefore say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; Ye eat with the blood, and lift up your eyes toward your idols, and shed blood: and shall ye possess the land?

26 Ye stand upon your sword, ye work abomination, and ye defile every one his neighbour's wife: and shall ye possess the land?

27 Say thou thus unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; As I live, surely they that are in the wastes shall fall by the sword, and him that is in the open field will I give to the beasts to be devoured, and they that be in the forts and in the caves shall die of the pestilence.

28 For I will lay the land most desolate, and the pomp of her strength shall cease; and the mountains of Israel shall be desolate, that none shall pass through.

29 Then shall they know that I am the LORD, when I have laid the land most desolate because of all their abominations which they have committed.

30 Alas, thou son of man, the children of thy people still are talking against thee by the walls and in the doors of the houses,

C H A P. XXXIV.

1 A reproof of the shepherds. 7 God's judgement against them: 11 his providence for his flock. 20 The kingdom of Christ.

587.

AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel, prophesy, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God unto the shepherds; †Woe be to the shepherds of Israel that do feed themselves! should not the shepherds feed the flocks?

3 *Ye eat the fat, and ye clothe you with the wool, †ye kill them that are fed: but ye feed not the flock.

4 *The diseased have ye not strengthened, neither have ye healed that which was sick, neither have ye bound up that which was broken, neither have ye brought again that which was driven away, neither have ye †sought that which was lost; but with †force and with cruelty have ye ruled them.

5 †And they were †scattered, †because there is no shepherd: *and they became meat to all the beasts of the field, when they were scattered.

6 My sheep wandered through all the mountains, and upon every high hill: yea, my flock was scattered upon all the face of the earth, and none did search or seek after them.

7 ¶ Therefore, ye shepherds, hear the word of the LORD;

8 As I live, saith the Lord God, surely because my flock became a prey, and my flock †became meat to every beast of the field, because there was no shepherd, neither did my shepherds search for my flock, †but the shepherds fed themselves, and fed not my flock;

9 Therefore, O ye shepherds, hear the word of the LORD;

10 Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I am against the shepherds; and †I will require my flock at their hand, and cause them to cease from feeding the flock; neither shall the shepherds *feed themselves any more; for I will deliver my flock from their mouth, that they may not be meat for them.

11 ¶ For thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I, even I, will both search my sheep, and seek them out.

12 †As a shepherd seeketh out his flock in the day that he is among his sheep that are scattered; so will I seek out my sheep, and will deliver them out of all places where they have been scattered in †the cloudy and dark day.

13 And †I will bring them out from the people, and gather them from the countries, and will bring them to their own land, and feed them upon the mountains of Israel by the rivers, and in all the inhabited places of the country.

14 †I will feed them in a good pasture, and upon the high mountains of Israel shall their fold be: †there shall they lie in a good fold, and in a fat pasture shall they feed upon the mountains of Israel.

15 I will feed my flock, and I will cause them to lie down, saith the Lord God.

16 †I will seek that which was lost, and bring again that which was driven away, and will bind up that which was broken, and will strengthen that which was sick: but I will destroy †the fat and the strong; I will feed them *with judgement.

17 And as for you, O my flock, thus saith the Lord God; †Behold, I judge between †cattle and cattle, between the rams and the †he goats.

18 Seemeth it a small thing unto you to have eaten up the good pasture, but ye must tread down with your feet the residue of your pastures? and to have drunk of the deep waters, but ye must foul the residue with your feet?

19 And as for my flock, they eat that which ye have trodden with your feet; and they drink that which ye have fouled with your feet.

20 ¶ Therefore thus saith the Lord God unto them; †Behold, I, even I, will judge between the fat cattle and between the lean cattle.

21 Because ye have thrust with side and with shoulder, and pushed all the diseased with your horns, till ye have scattered them abroad;

23 And I will set up one ¹shepherd over them, and he shall feed them, ^eeven my servant David; he shall feed them, and he shall be their shepherd.

24 And ^aI the LORD will be their God, and my servant David ^aa prince among them; I the LORD have spoken it.

25 And ^fI will make with them a covenant of peace, and ^fwill cause the evil beasts to cease out of the land: and they ^hshall dwell safely in the wilderness, and sleep in the woods.

26 And I will make them and the places round about ¹my hill ^aa blessing; and I will ¹cause the shower to come down in his season; there shall be ^ashowers of blessing.

27 And ^athe tree of the field shall yield her fruit, and the earth shall yield her increase, and they shall be safe in their land, and shall know that I ^{am} the LORD, when I have ^obroken the bands of their yoke, and delivered them out of the hand of those that ^pserved themselves of them.

28 And they shall no more ^abe a prey to the heathen, neither shall the beast of the land devour them; but ^tthey shall dwell safely, and none shall make ^{them} afraid.

29 And I will raise up for them a ^aplant of renown, and they shall be no more ^tconsumed with hunger in the land, ^tneither bear the shame of the heathen any more.

30 Thus shall they know that ^uI the LORD their God ^{am} with them, and ^{that} they, ^{even} the house of Israel, ^{are} my people, saith the Lord God.

31 And ye my ^aflock, the flock of my pasture, ^{are} men, and I ^{am} your God, saith the Lord God.

CHAP. XXXV.

The judgement of mount Seir for their hatred of Israel.

MOREOVER the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, ^aset thy face against ^bmount Seir, and ^cprophecy against it,

3 And say unto it, Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, O mount Seir, I ^{am} against thee, and ^aI will stretch out mine hand against thee, and I will make thee ^tmost desolate.

4 ^aI will lay thy cities waste, and thou shalt be desolate, and thou shalt know that I ^{am} the LORD.

5 ^fBecause thou hast had a ¹perpetual hatred, and hast ^tshed ^{the} blood of the children of Israel by the ^tforce of the sword in the time of their calamity, ^ain the time ^{that} their iniquity had an end:

6 Therefore, ^{as} I live, saith the Lord God, I will prepare thee unto blood, and blood shall pursue thee: ^hsith thou hast not hated blood, even blood shall pursue thee.

7 Thus will I make mount Seir ^tmost desolate, and cut off from it ¹him that passeth out and him that returneth.

8 ^aAnd I will fill his mountains with his slain ^{men}: in thy hills, and in thy valleys, and in all thy rivers, shall they fall that are slain with the sword.

9 ^aI will make thee perpetual desolations, and thy cities shall not return: ^aand ye shall know that I ^{am} the LORD.

10 Because thou hast said, These two nations and these two countries shall be mine, and we will ^apossess it; ¹¹ whereas ^athe LORD was there:

11 Therefore, ^{as} I live, saith the Lord God, I will even do ^aaccording to thine anger, and according to thine envy which thou hast used out of thy hatred against them; and I will make myself known among them, when I have judged thee.

12 ^aAnd thou shalt know that I ^{am} the LORD, ^{and} that I have heard all thy blasphemies which thou hast spoken against the mountains of Israel, saying, They are laid desolate, they are given us ^tto consume.

13 Thus ^awith your mouth ye have ^tboasted against me, and have multiplied your words against me: I have heard ^{them}.

14 Thus saith the Lord God; ^aWhen the whole earth rejoiceth, I will make thee desolate.

15 ^aAs thou didst rejoice at the inheritance of the house of Israel, because it was desolate, so will I do unto thee: ^athou shalt be desolate, O mount Seir, and all Idumea, ^{even} all of it: and they shall know that I ^{am} the LORD.

CHAP. XXXVI.

1 The land of Israel is comforted, both by the destruction of the heathen, who spitefully used it, 8 and by the blessings of God promised unto it. 16 Israel was rejected for their sin, 21 and shall be restored without their desert. 25 The blessings of Christ's kingdom.

ALSO, thou son of man, prophecy unto the ^amountains of Israel, and say, Ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of the LORD:

2 Thus saith the Lord God; Because ^athe enemy hath said against you, Aha, ^eeven the ancient high places ^aare our's in possession:

3 Therefore prophecy and say, Thus saith the Lord God; ^tBecause they have made you desolate, and swallowed you up on every side, that ye might be a possession unto the residue of the heathen, *and ye are taken up in the lips of talkers, and are an infamy of the people:

4 Therefore, ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord God; Thus saith the Lord God to the mountains, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys, to the desolate wastes, and to the cities that are forsaken, which became a prey and derision to the residue of the heathen that are round about;

5 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Surely in the fire of my jealousy have I spoken against the residue of the heathen, and against all Idumea, which have appointed my land into their possession with the joy of all their heart, with despiteful minds, to cast it out for a prey.

6 Prophecy therefore concerning the land of Israel, and say unto the mountains, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys, Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I have spoken in my jealousy and in my fury, because ye have borne the shame of the heathen:

7 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; I have lifted up mine hand, Surely the heathen that are about you, they shall bear their shame.

8 But ye, O mountains of Israel, ye shall shoot forth your branches, and yield your fruit to my people of Israel; for they are at hand to come.

9 For, behold, I am for you, and I will turn unto you, and ye shall be tilled and sown:

10 And I will multiply men upon you, all the house of Israel, even all of it: and the cities shall be inhabited, and the wastes shall be builded:

11 And I will multiply upon you man and beast; and they shall increase and bring fruit: and I will settle you after your old estates, and will do better unto you than at your beginnings: *and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

12 Yea, I will cause men to walk upon you, even my people Israel; *and they shall possess thee, and thou shalt be their inheritance, and thou shalt no more henceforth bereave them of men.

13 Thus saith the Lord God; Because they say unto you, Thou land devourest up men, and hast bereaved thy nations;

14 Therefore thou shalt devour men no more, neither bereave thy nations any more, saith the Lord God.

15 Neither will I cause men to hear in thee the shame of the heathen any more, neither shalt thou bear the reproach of the people any more, neither shalt thou cause thy nations to fall any more, saith the Lord God.

16 Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

17 Son of man, when the house of Israel dwelt in their own land, they defiled it by their own way and by their doings: their way was before me as the uncleanness of a removed woman.

18 Wherefore I poured my fury upon them *for the blood that they had shed upon the land, and for their idols wherewith they had polluted it:

19 And I scattered them among the heathen, and they were dispersed through the countries: *according to their way and according to their doings I judged them.

20 And when they entered unto the heathen, whither they went, they profaned my holy name, when they said to them, These are the people of the LORD, and are gone forth out of his land.

21 But I had pity for mine holy name, which the house of Israel had profaned among the heathen, whither they went.

22 Therefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God; I do not this for your sakes, O house of Israel, *but for mine holy name's sake, which ye have profaned among the heathen, whither ye went.

23 And I will sanctify my great name, which was profaned among the heathen, which ye have profaned in the midst of them; and the heathen shall know that I am the LORD, saith the Lord God, when I shall be sanctified in you before their eyes.

24 For I will take you from among the heathen, and gather you out of all countries, and will bring you into your own land.

25 Then will I sprinkle clean water upon you, and ye shall be clean, *from all your filthiness, and from all your idols, will I cleanse you.

26 A new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you: and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you an heart of flesh.

27 And I will put my spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes, and ye shall keep my judgements, and do them.

28 And ye shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers; and ye shall be my people, and I will be your God.

29 I will also save you from all your uncleanness: and I will call for the corn, and will increase it, and lay no famine upon you.

30 And I will multiply the fruit of the tree, and the increase of the field, that ye 33 Thus saith the Lord God; In the day that I shall have cleansed you from all your iniquities I will also cause you to dwell in the cities, and the wastes shall be builded.

34 And the desolate land shall be tilled, whereas it lay desolate in the sight of all that passed by.

35 And they shall say; This land that was desolate is become like the garden of ^d Eden; and the waste and desolate and ruined cities are become fenced, and are inhabited.

36 Then the heathen that are left round about you shall know that I the LORD build the ruined places, and plant that that was desolate: ^e I the LORD have spoken it, and I will do it.

C H A P. XXXVII.

ⁱ By the resurrection of dry bones, ^j the dead hope of Israel is revived. ^k By the uniting of two sticks, ^l is shewed the incorporation of Israel into Judah. ^m The promises of Christ's kingdom.

THE ⁿ hand of the LORD was upon me, and carried me out ^o in the spirit of the LORD, and set me down in the midst of the valley which was full of bones,

2 And caused me to pass by them round about: and, behold, there were very many in the open ^p valley; and, lo, they were very dry.

3 And he said unto me, Son of man, can these bones live? And I answered, O Lord God, ^q thou knowest.

4 Again he said unto me, Prophecy upon these bones, and say unto them, O ye dry bones, hear the word of the LORD.

5 Thus saith the Lord God unto these bones; Behold, I will ^r cause breath to enter into you, and ye shall live:

6 And I will lay sinews upon you, and will bring up flesh upon you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and ye shall live; ^s and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

7 So I prophesied as I was commanded; and as I prophesied, there was a noise, and behold a shaking, and the bones came together, bone to his bone.

8 And when I beheld, lo, the sinews and the flesh came up upon them, and the skin covered them above; but there was no breath in them.

9 Then said he unto me, Prophecy unto the ^t wind, prophecy, son of man, and say to the wind, Thus saith the Lord God; ^u Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they may live.

10 So I prophesied as he commanded me, ^v and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood up upon their feet, an exceeding great army.

11 Then he said unto me, Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel: behold, they say, ^w Our bones are dried, and our hope is lost: we are cut off for our parts.

12 Therefore prophecy and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, ^x O my people, I will open your graves, and cause you to come up out of your graves, and ^y bring you into the land of Israel.

13 And ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I have opened your graves, O my people, and brought you up out of your graves, 14 And ^z shall put my spirit in you, and ye shall live, and I shall place you in your own land: then shall ye know that I the LORD have spoken it, and performed it, saith the LORD.

15 ^a The word of the LORD came again unto me, saying,

16 Moreover, thou son of man, ^b take thee one stick, and write upon it, For Judah, and for ^c the children of Israel his companions: then take another stick, and write upon it, for Joseph, the stick of Ephraim, and for all the house of Israel his companions:

17 And ^d join them one to another into one stick; and they shall become one in thine hand.

18 And when the children of thy people shall speak unto thee, saying, ^e Wilt thou not shew us what thou *meane*st by these?

19 ^f Say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I will take ^g the stick of Joseph, which is in the hand of Ephraim, and the tribes of Israel his fellows, and will put them with him, even with the stick of CHAP. XXXVIII.

1 The army, 8 and malice of Gog: 14 God's judgement against him.

AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 * Son of man, ^bset thy face against *Gog, the land of Magog, ^{||} the chief prince of ^dMeshech and Tubal, and prophesy against him,

3 And say, Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I am against thee, O Gog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal:

4 And * I will turn thee back, and put hooks into thy jaws, and I will bring thee forth, and all thine army, horses and horsemen, ^fall of them clothed with all sorts of armour, even a great company with bucklers and shields, all of them handling swords:

5 Persia, Ethiopia, and ^{||}Lybia with them; all of them with shield and helmet:

6 * Gomer, and all his bands; the house of ^bTogarmah of the north quarters, and all his bands: and many people with thee.

7 [†] Be thou prepared, and prepare for thyself, thou, and all thy company that are assembled unto thee, and be thou a guard unto them.

8 [¶] * After many days [†] thou shalt be visited: in the latter years thou shalt come into the land that is brought back from the sword, ^mand is gathered out of many people, against ⁿthe mountains of Israel, which have been always waste: but it is brought forth out of the nations, and they shall ^odwell safely all of them.

9 Thou shalt ascend and come ^plike a storm, thou shalt be ^qlike a cloud to cover the land, thou, and all thy bands, and many people with thee.

10 Thus saith the Lord God; It shall also come to pass, that at the same time shall things come into thy mind, and thou shalt ^{||} think an evil thought:

11 And thou shalt say, I will go up to the land of unwall'd villages; I will ^rgo to them that are at rest, ^sthat dwell ^{||} safely, all of them dwelling without walls, and having neither bars nor gates,

12 [†] To take a spoil, and to take a prey; to turn thine hand upon ^tthe desolate places that are now inhabited, ^uand upon the people that are gathered out of the nations, which have gotten cattle and goods, that dwell in the ^vmidst of the land.

13 * Sheba, and ^wDedan, and the merchants ^xof Tarshish, with all ^ythe young lions thereof, shall say unto thee, Art thou come to take a spoil? hast thou gathered thy company to take a prey? to carry away silver and gold, to take away cattle and goods, to take a great spoil?

14 [¶] Therefore, son of man, prophesy and say unto Gog, Thus saith the Lord God; ^bIn that day when my people of Israel ^cdwell eth safely, shalt thou not know it?

15 [¶] And thou shalt come from thy place out of the north parts, thou, ^dand many people with thee, all of them riding upon horses, a great company, and a mighty army:

16 [¶] And thou shalt come up against my people of Israel, as a cloud to cover the land; ^eit shall be in the latter days, and I will bring thee against my land, ^fthat the heathen may know me, when I shall be sanctified in thee, O Gog, before their eyes.

17 Thus saith the Lord God; Art thou he of whom I have spoken in old time † by my servants the prophets of Israel, which prophesied in those days many years that I would bring thee against them?

18 And it shall come to pass at the same time, when Gog shall come against the land of Israel, saith the Lord God, that my fury shall come up in my face.

19 For † in my jealousy * and in the fire of my wrath have I spoken, † Surely in that day there shall be a great shaking in the land of Israel;

20 So that * the fishes of the sea, and the fowls of the heaven, and the beasts of the field, and all creeping things that creep upon the earth, and all the men that are upon the face of the earth, shall shake at my presence, * and the mountains shall be thrown down, and the || steep places shall fall, and every wall shall fall to the ground.

21 And I will ° call for † a sword against him throughout all my mountains, saith the Lord God: † every man's sword shall be against his brother.

22 And I will † plead against him with † pestilence and with blood; and † I will rain upon him, and upon his bands, and upon the many people that are with him, an overflowing rain, and † great hailstones, fire, and brimstone.

23 Thus will I magnify myself, and * sanctify myself; † and I will be known in the eyes of many nations, and they shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAP. XXXIX.

1 God's judgement upon Gog. 8 Israel's victory.

11 Gog's burial in Hamon-gog. 17 The feast of the fowls. 23 Israel having been plagued for their sins, shall be gathered again with eternal favour.

THEREFORE, * thou son of man, prophesy against Gog, and say, Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I am against thee, O Gog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal:

2 And I will turn thee back, and || leave but the sixth part of thee, * and will cause thee to come up from † the north parts, and will bring thee upon the mountains of Israel:

3 And I will smite thy bow out of thy left hand, and will cause thine arrows to fall out of thy right hand.

4 † Thou shalt fall upon the mountains of Israel, thou, and all thy bands, and the people that is with thee: † I will give thee unto the ravenous birds of every † sort, and to the beasts of the field † to be devoured.

5 Thou shalt fall upon † the open field: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord God.

6 ° And I will send a fire on Magog, and among them that dwell || carelessly in † the isles: and they shall know that I am the LORD.

7 * So will I make my holy name known in the midst of my people Israel; and I will not let them † pollute my holy name any more: † and the heathen shall know that I am the LORD, the Holy One in Israel.

8 ¶ Behold, it is come, and it is done, saith the Lord God; this is the day † whereof I have spoken.

9 And they that dwell in the cities of Israel shall go forth, and shall set on fire and burn the weapons, both the shields and the bucklers, the bows and the arrows, and the || handstaves, and the spears, and they shall || burn them with fire seven years:

10 So that they shall take no wood out of the field, neither cut down any out of the forests; for they shall burn the weapons with fire: † and they shall spoil those that spoiled them, and rob those that robbed them, saith the Lord God.

11 ¶ And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will give unto Gog a place there of graves in Israel, the valley of the passengers on the east of the sea: and it shall stop the || noses of the passengers: and there shall they bury Gog and all his multitude: and they shall call it The valley of || Hamon-gog.

12 And seven months shall the house of Israel be burying of them, † that they may cleanse the land.

13 Yea, all the people of the land shall bury them; and it shall be to them a renown the day that ° I shall be glorified, saith the Lord God.

14 And they shall sever out † men of continual employment, passing through the land to bury with the passengers those that remain upon the face of the earth, † to cleanse it: after the end of seven months shall they search.

15 And the passengers that pass through the land, when any seeth a man's bone, then shall he † set up a sign by it, till the buriers have buried it in the valley of Hamon-gog.

16 And also the name of the city shall be || Hamonah. Thus shall they † cleanse the land.

17 ¶ And, thou son of man, thus saith the Lord God; † Speak † unto every feathered fowl, and to every beast of the field, chambers were six cubits on this side, and six cubits on that side.

13 He measured then the gate from the roof of one little chamber to the roof of another: the breadth was five and twenty cubits, door against door.

14 He made also posts of threescore cubits, even unto the posts of the court round about the gate.

15 And from the face of the gate of the entrance unto the face of the porch of the inner gate were fifty cubits.

16 And there were [†] narrow windows to the little chambers, and to their posts within the gate round about, and likewise to the ^{||} arches: and windows were round about ^{||} inward: and upon each post were palm trees.

17 Then brought he me into ^m the outward court, and, lo, there were ⁿ chambers, and a pavement made for the court round about: ^o thirty chambers were upon the pavement.

18 And the pavement by the side of the gates over against the length of the gates was the lower pavement.

19 Then he measured the breadth from the forefront of the lower gate unto the forefront of the inner court ^{||} without, an hundred cubits eastward and northward.

20 ¶ And the gate of the outward court [†] that looked toward the north, he measured the length thereof, and the breadth thereof.

21 And the little chambers thereof were three on this side and three on that side; and the posts thereof and the ^{||} arches thereof were after the measure of the first gate: the length thereof was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.

22 And their windows, and their arches, and their palm trees, were after the measure of the gate that looketh toward the east; and they went up unto it by seven steps; and the arches thereof were before them.

23 And the gate of the inner court was over against the gate toward the north, and toward the east; and he measured from gate to gate an hundred cubits.

24 ¶ After that he brought me toward the south, and behold a gate toward the south: and he measured the posts thereof and the arches thereof according to these measures.

25 And there were windows in it and in the arches thereof round about, like those windows: the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.

26 And there were seven steps to go up to it, and the arches thereof were before them: and it had palm trees, one on this side, and another on that side, upon the posts thereof.

27 ¶ And there was a gate in the inner court toward the south: and he measured from gate to gate toward the south an hundred cubits.

28 And he brought me to the inner court by the south gate: and he measured the south gate according to these measures;

29 And the little chambers thereof, and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, according to these measures: and there were windows in it and in the arches thereof round about: it was fifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubits broad.

30 And the arches round about were ^p five and twenty cubits long, and five cubits [†] broad.

31 And the arches thereof were toward the utter court; and the palm trees were upon the posts thereof: and the going up to it had eight steps.

32 ¶ And he brought me into the inner court toward the east: and he measured the gate according to these measures.

33 And the little chambers thereof, and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, were according to these measures: and there were windows therein and in the arches thereof round about: it was fifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubits broad.

34 And the arches thereof were toward the outward court; and palm trees were upon the posts thereof, on this side, and on that side: and the going up to it had eight steps.

35 ¶ And he brought me to the north gate, and measured it according to these measures;

36 The little chambers thereof, the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, and the windows to it round about: the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.

37 And the posts thereof were toward the utter court; and palm trees were upon the posts thereof, on this side, and on that side: and the going up to it had eight steps.

38 And the chambers and the entries thereof were by the posts of the gates, where they washed the burnt offering.

39 ¶ And in the porch of the gate were two tables on this side, and two tables on that side, to lay thereon the burnt offering and ^q the sin offering and ^r the trespass offering.

was at the porch of the gate, were two tables.

41 Four tables were on this side, and four tables on that side, by the side of the gate; eight tables, whereupon they slew their sacrifices.

42 And the four tables were of hewn stone for the burnt offering, of a cubit and an half long, and a cubit and an half broad, and one cubit high: whereupon also they laid the instruments wherewith they slew the burnt offering and the sacrifice.

43 And within were † hooks, an hand broad, fastened round about: and upon the tables was the flesh of the offering.

44 ¶ And without the inner gate were the chambers of * the singers in the inner court, which was at the side of the north gate; and their prospect was toward the south: one at the side of the east gate having the prospect toward the north.

45 And he said unto me, This chamber, whose prospect is toward the south, is for the priests, † the keepers of the † charge of the house.

46 And the chamber whose prospect is toward the north is for the priests, * the keepers of the charge of the altar: these are the sons of * Zadok among the sons of Levi, which come near to the LORD to minister unto him.

47 So he measured the court, an hundred cubits long, and an hundred cubits broad, foursquare; and the altar that was before the house.

48 ¶ And he brought me to the porch of the house, and measured each post of the porch, five cubits on this side, and five cubits on that side: and the breadth of the gate was three cubits on this side, and three cubits on that side.

49 † The length of the porch was twenty cubits, and the breadth eleven cubits; and he brought me by the steps whereby they went up to it: and there were * pillars by the posts, one on this side, and another on that side.

CHAP. XLI.

The measures, parts, chambers, and ornaments of the temple.

AFTERWARD he brought me to the temple, and measured the posts, six cubits broad on the one side, and six cubits broad on the other side, which was the breadth of the tabernacle.

2 And the breadth of the † door was ten cubits; and the sides of the door were five cubits on the one side, and five cubits on the other side: and he measured the length thereof, forty cubits: and the breadth, twenty cubits.

3 Then went he inward, and measured the post of the door, two cubits; and the door, six cubits; and the breadth of the door, seven cubits.

4 So † he measured the length thereof, twenty cubits; and the breadth, twenty cubits, before the temple: and he said unto me, This is the most holy place.

5 After he measured the wall of the house, six cubits; and the breadth of every side chamber, four cubits, round about the house on every side.

6 † And the side chambers were three, † one over another, and † thirty in order; and they entered into the wall which was of the house for the side chambers round about, that they might † have hold, but they had not hold in the wall of the house.

7 And † there was an enlarging, and a winding about still upward to the side chambers: for the winding about of the house went still upward round about the house: therefore the breadth of the house was still upward, and so increased from the lowest chamber to the highest by the midst.

8 I saw also the height of the house round about: the foundations of the side chambers were † a full reed of six great cubits.

9 The thickness of the wall, which was for the side chamber without, was five cubits; and that which was left was the place of the side chambers that were within.

10 And between the chambers was the wideness of twenty cubits round about the house on every side.

11 And the doors of the side chambers were toward the place that was left, one door toward the north, and another door toward the south: and the breadth of the place that was left was five cubits round about.

12 Now the building that was before the separate place at the end toward the west was seventy cubits broad; and the wall of the building was five cubits thick round about, and the length thereof ninety cubits.

13 So he measured the house; an hundred cubits long; and the separate place, and the building, with the walls thereof, an hundred cubits long;

14 Also the breadth of the face of the house, and of the separate place toward the east, an hundred cubits.

15 And he measured the length of the building over against the separate place which was behind it, and the † galleries thereof on the one side and on the other side, an hundred cubits, with the inner temple, and the porches of the court;

19 † So that the face of a man was toward the palm tree on the one side, and the face of a young lion toward the palm tree on the other side: it was made through all the house round about.

20 From the ground unto above the door were cherubims and palm trees made, and on the wall of the temple.

21 The † posts of the temple were squared, and the face of the sanctuary; the appearance of the one as the appearance of the other.

22 † The altar of wood was three cubits high, and the length thereof two cubits; and the corners thereof, and the length thereof, and the walls thereof, were of wood: and he said unto me, This is † the table that is † before the LORD.

23 † And the temple and the sanctuary had two doors.

24 And the doors had two leaves apiece, two turning leaves; two leaves for the one door, and two leaves for the other door.

25 And there were made on them, on the doors of the temple, cherubims and palm trees, like as were made upon the walls; and there were thick planks upon the face of the porch without.

26 And there were † narrow windows and palm trees on the one side and on the other side, on the sides of the porch, and upon the side chambers of the house, and thick planks.

1 The chambers for the priests. 13 The use thereof.

19 The measures of the outward court.

THEN he brought me forth into the utter court, the way toward the north: and he brought me into † the chamber that was over against the separate place, and which was before the building toward the north.

2 Before the length of an hundred cubits was the north door, and the breadth was fifty cubits.

3 Over against the twenty cubits which were for the inner court, and over against the pavement which was for the utter court, was † gallery against gallery in three stories.

4 And before the chambers was a walk of ten cubits breadth inward, a way of one cubit; and their doors toward the north.

5 Now the upper chambers were shorter: for the galleries † were higher than these, † than the lower, and than the middlemost of the building.

6 For they were in three stories, but had not pillars as the pillars of the courts: therefore the building was straitened more than the lowest and the middlemost from the ground.

7 And the wall that was without over against the chambers, toward the utter court on the forepart of the chambers, the length thereof was fifty cubits.

8 For the length of the chambers that were in the utter court was fifty cubits: and, lo, before the temple were an hundred cubits.

9 And † from under these chambers was † the entry on the east side, † as one goeth into them from the utter court.

10 The chambers were in the thickness of the wall of the court toward the east, over against the separate place, and over against the building.

11 And † the way before them was like the appearance of the chambers which were toward the north, as long as they, and as broad as they: and all their goings out were both according to their fashions, and according to their doors.

12 And according to the doors of the chambers that were toward the south was a door in the head of the way, even the way directly before the wall toward the east, as one entereth into them.

13 ¶ Then said he unto me, The north chambers and the south chambers, which are before the separate place, they be holy chambers, where the priests that approach unto the LORD † shall eat the most holy things: there shall they lay the most holy things, and † the meat offering, and the sin offering, and the trespass offering; for the place is holy.

14 † When the priests enter therein, then shall they not go out of the holy place into the utter court, but there they shall lay their garments wherein they minister; for they are holy; and shall put on other garments, and shall approach to those things which are for the people.

15 ¶ Now when he had made an end of measuring the inner house, he brought me forth toward the gate whose prospect is toward the east, and measured it round about.

CH A P. XLIII.

1 The returning of the glory of God into the temple.

7 The sin of Israel hindered God's presence. 10 The prophet exhorteth them to repentance, and observation of the law of the house. 13 The measures, 18 and the ordinances of the altar.

AFTERWARD he brought me to the gate, even the gate † that looketh toward the east:

2 † And, behold, the glory of the God of Israel came from the way of the east: and † his voice was like a noise of many waters: † and the earth shined with his glory.

3 And it was † according to the appearance of the vision which I saw, even according to the vision that I saw † when I came † to destroy the city: and the visions were like the vision that I saw † by the river Chebar; and I fell upon my face.

4 † And the glory of the LORD came into the house by the way of the gate whose prospect is toward the east.

5 † So the spirit took me up, and brought me into the inner court; and, behold, † the glory of the LORD filled the house.

6 And I heard him speaking unto me out of the house; and † the man stood by me.

7 ¶ And he said unto me, Son of man, † the place of my throne, and † the place of the soles of my feet, † where I will dwell in the midst of the children of Israel for ever, and my holy name, shall the house of Israel † no more defile, neither they, nor their kings, by their whoredom, nor by † the carcases of their kings in their high places.

8 † In their setting of their threshold by my thresholds, and their post by my posts, † and the wall between me and them, they have even defiled my holy name by their abominations that they have committed: wherefore I have consumed them in mine anger.

9 Now let them put away their whoredom, and † the carcases of their kings, far from me, † and I will dwell in the midst of them for ever.

10 ¶ Thou son of man, † shew the house to the house of Israel, that they may be ashamed of their iniquities: and let them measure the † pattern.

11 And if they be ashamed of all that they have done, shew them the form of the house, and the fashion thereof, and the goings out thereof, and the comings in thereof, and all the forms thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, and all the forms thereof, and all the laws thereof: and write it in their sight, that they may keep the whole form thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, and do them.

12 This is the law of the house; Upon † the top of the mountain the whole limit thereof round about shall be most holy. Behold, this is the law of the house.

13 ¶ And these are the measures of the altar after the cubits: † The cubit is a cubit and an hand breadth; even the † bottom shall be a cubit, and the breadth a cubit, and the border thereof by the † edge thereof round about shall be a span: and this shall be the higher place of the altar.

14 And from the bottom upon the ground even to the lower settle shall be two cubits, and the breadth one cubit; and from the lesser settle even to the greater settle shall be four cubits, and the breadth one cubit.

15 So † the altar shall be four cubits; and from † the altar and upward shall be four horns.

16 And the altar shall be twelve cubits long, twelve broad, square in the four squares thereof.

6 And thou shalt say to the rebellious, even to the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God; O ye house of Israel, let it suffice you of all your abominations,

8 And ye have not kept the charge of mine holy things: but ye have set keepers of my charge in my sanctuary for yourselves.

9 Thus saith the Lord God; No stranger, uncircumcised in heart, nor uncircumcised in flesh, shall enter into my sanctuary, of any stranger that is among the children of Israel.

10 And the Levites that are gone away far from me, when Israel went astray, which went astray away from me after their idols; they shall even bear their iniquity.

11 Yet they shall be ministers in my sanctuary, having charge at the gates of the house, and ministering to the house: they shall slay the burnt offering and the sacrifice for the people, and they shall stand before them to minister unto them.

12 Because they ministered unto them before their idols, and caused the house of Israel to fall into iniquity; therefore have I lifted up mine hand against them, saith the Lord God, and they shall bear their iniquity.

13 And they shall not come near unto me, to do the office of a priest unto me, nor to come near to any of my holy things, in the most holy place: but they shall bear their shame, and their abominations which they have committed.

CHAP. XLV.

1 The portion of land for the sanctuary, 6 for the city, 7 and for the prince. 9 Ordinances for the prince.

MOREOVER, [†] when ye shall ^a divide by lot the land for inheritance, ye shall ^b offer an oblation unto the LORD, [†] an holy portion of the land: the length shall be the length of five and twenty thousand reeds, and the breadth shall be ten thousand. This shall be holy in all the borders thereof round about.

2 Of this there shall be for the sanctuary ^c five hundred in length, with five hundred in breadth, square round about; and fifty cubits round about for the [†] suburbs thereof.

3 And of this measure shalt thou measure the length of five and twenty thousand, and the breadth of ten thousand: ^d and in it shall be the sanctuary and the most holy place.

4 ^e The holy portion of the land shall be for the priests the ministers of the sanctuary, which shall come near to minister unto the LORD: and it shall be a place for their houses, and an holy place for the sanctuary.

5 ^f And the five and twenty thousand of length, and the ten thousand of breadth, shall also the Levites, the ministers of the house, have for themselves, for a possession for ^g twenty chambers.

6 ^h And ye shall appoint the possession of the city five thousand broad, and five and twenty thousand long, over against the oblation of the holy portion: it shall be for the whole house of Israel.

7 ⁱ And a portion shall be for the prince on the one side and on the other side of the oblation of the holy portion, and of the possession of the city, before the oblation of the holy portion, and before the possession of the city, from the west side westward, and from the east side eastward: and the length shall be over against one of the portions, from the west border unto the east border.

8 In the land shall be his possession in Israel: and ^k my princes shall no more oppress my people; and the rest of the land shall they give to the house of Israel according to their tribes.

9 ^l Thus saith the Lord God; [†] Let it suffice you, O princes of Israel: ^m remove violence and spoil, and execute judgement and justice, take away your [†] exaction from my people, saith the Lord God.

18 Moreover the prince shall not take of the people's inheritance by oppression, to thrust them out of their possession; but he shall give his sons inheritance out of his own possession: that my people be not scattered every man from his possession.

19 After he brought me through the entry, which was at the side of the gate, into the holy chambers of the priests, which looked toward the north: and, behold, there was a place on the two sides westward.

20 Then said he unto me, This is the place where the priests shall boil the trespass offering and the sin offering, where they shall bake the meat offering; that they bear them not out into the utter court, to sanctify the people.

21 Then he brought me forth into the utter court, and caused me to pass by the four corners of the court; and, behold, in every corner of the court there was a court.

22 In the four corners of the court there were courts joined of forty cubits long and thirty broad: these four corners were of one measure.

23 And there was a row of building round about in them, round about them four, and it was made with boiling places under the rows round about.

24 Then said he unto me, These are the places of them that boil, where the ministers of the house shall boil the sacrifice of the people.

1 The vision of the holy waters. 6 The virtue of them. 13 The borders of the land. 22 The division of it by lot.

AFTERWARD he brought me again unto the door of the house; and, behold, waters issued out from under the threshold of the house eastward: for the forefront of the house stood toward the east, and the waters came down from under from the right side of the house, at the south side of the altar.

2 Then brought he me out of the way of the gate northward, and led me about the way without unto the utter gate by the way that looketh eastward; and, behold, there ran out waters on the right side.

3 And when the man that had the line in his hand went forth eastward, he measured a thousand cubits, and he brought me through the waters; the waters were to the ancles.

4 Again he measured a thousand, and brought me through the waters; the waters were to the knees. Again he measured a thousand, and brought me through; the waters were to the loins.

5 Afterward he measured a thousand; and it was a river that I could not pass over: for the waters were risen, waters to swim in, a river that could not be passed over.

6 And he said unto me, Son of man, hast thou seen this? Then he brought me, and caused me to return to the brink of the river.

7 Now when I had returned, behold, at the bank of the river were very many trees on the one side and on the other.

8 Then said he unto me, These waters issue out toward the east country, and go down into the desert, and go into the sea: which being brought forth into the sea, the waters shall be healed.

12 And this oblation of the land that is offered shall be unto them a thing most holy by the border of the Levites.

13 And over against the border of the priests the Levites shall have five and twenty thousand in length, and ten thousand in breadth: all the length shall be five and twenty thousand, and the breadth ten thousand.

14 ^e And they shall not sell of it, neither exchange, nor alienate the firstfruits of the land: for it is holy unto the LORD.

15 ¶ And the five thousand, that are left in the breadth over against the five and twenty thousand, shall be ^a a profane place for the city, for dwelling, and for suburbs: and the city shall be in the midst thereof.

16 And these shall be the measures thereof; the north side four thousand and five hundred, and the south side four thousand and five hundred, and on the east side four thousand and five hundred, and the west side four thousand and five hundred.

17 And the suburbs of the city shall be toward the north two hundred and fifty, and toward the south two hundred and fifty, and toward the east two hundred and fifty, and toward the west two hundred and fifty.

18 And the residue in length over against the oblation of the holy portion shall be ten thousand eastward, and ten thousand westward: and it shall be over against the oblation of the holy portion; and the increase thereof shall be for food unto them that serve the city.

19 ^b And they that serve the city shall serve it out of all the tribes of Israel.

20 All the oblation shall be five and twenty thousand by five and twenty thousand: ye shall offer the holy oblation four square, with the possession of the city.

21 ¶ And the residue shall be for the prince, on the one side and on the other of the holy oblation, and of the possession of the city, over against the five and twenty thousand of the oblation toward the east border, and westward over against the five and twenty thousand toward the west border, over against the portions for the prince: and it shall be the holy oblation; ^a and the sanctuary of the house shall be in the midst thereof.

22 Moreover from the possession of the Levites, and from the possession of the city, being in the midst of that which is the prince's, between the border of Judah and the border of Benjamin, shall be for the prince.

23 ¶ As for the rest of the tribes, from the east side unto the west side, Benjamin shall have [†] a portion.

24 And by the border of Benjamin, from the east side unto the west side, Simeon shall have a portion.

25 And by the border of Simeon, from the east side unto the west side, Issachar a portion.

26 And by the border of Issachar, from the east side unto the west side, Zebulun a portion.

27 And by the border of Zebulun, from the east side unto the west side, Gad a portion.

28 And by the border of Gad, at the south side southward, the border shall be even from Tamar unto [†] the waters of [†] strife in Kadesh, and to the river toward the great sea, 29 ^m This is the land which ye shall divide by lot unto the tribes of Israel for inheritance, and these are their portions, saith the Lord God.

31 ⁿ And the gates of the city shall be after the name of the tribes of Israel: three gates northward; one gate of Reuben, one gate of Judah, one gate of Levi.

32 And at the east side four thousand and five hundred: and three gates; and one gate of Joseph, one gate of Benjamin, one gate of Dan.

33 And at the south side four thousand and five hundred measures: and three gates; one gate of Simeon, one gate of Issachar, one gate of Zebulun.

34 At the west side four thousand and five hundred, with their three gates; one gate of Gad, one gate of Asher, one gate of Naphtali.

Judah into his hand, with ^b part of the vessels of the house of God: which he carried ^c into the land of Shinar to the house of his god; ^d and he brought the vessels into the treasure house of his god.

3 ¶ And the king spake unto Ashpenaz the master of his eunuchs, that he should bring ^e certain of the children of Israel, and of the king's seed, and of the princes;

4 Children ^e in whom was no blemish, but well favoured, and skilful in all wisdom, and cunning in knowledge, and understanding science, and such as had ability in them to stand in the king's palace, and ^f whom they might teach the learning and the tongue of the Chaldeans.

5 And the king appointed them a daily provision of the king's meat, and of [†] the wine which he drank: so nourishing them three years, that at the end thereof they might ^g stand before the king.

6 Now among these were of the children of Judah, Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah:

7 ^h Unto whom the prince of the eunuchs gave names: ⁱ for he gave unto Daniel the name of Belteshazzar; and to Hananiah, of Shadrach; and to Mishael, of Meshach; and to Azariah, of Abed-nego.

8 ¶ But Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself ^k with the portion of the king's meat, nor with the wine which he drank: therefore he requested of the prince of the eunuchs that he might not defile himself.

9 Now ^l God had brought Daniel into favour and tender love with the prince of the eunuchs.

10 And the prince of the eunuchs said unto Daniel, I fear my lord the king, who hath appointed your meat and your drink: for why should he see your faces [†] worse liking than the children which are of your [†] sort? then shall ye make me endanger my head to the king.

11 Then said Daniel to [†] Melzar, whom the prince of the eunuchs had set over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, 12 Prove thy servants, I beseech thee, ten days; and let them give us [†] pulse [†] to eat, and water to drink.

13 Then let our countenances be looked upon before thee, and the countenance of the children that eat of the portion of the king's meat: and as thou seest, deal with thy servants.

14 So he consented to them in this matter, and proved them ten days.

15 And at the end of ten days their countenances appeared fairer and fatter in flesh then all the children which did eat the portion of the king's meat.

16 Thus Melzar took away the portion of their meat, and the wine that they should drink; and gave them pulse.

17 ¶ As for these four children, ^m God gave them ⁿ knowledge and skill in all learning and wisdom: and [†] Daniel had ^o understanding in all visions and dreams.

18 Now at the end of the days that the king had said he should bring them in, then the prince of the eunuchs brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar.

19 And the king communed with them; and among them all was found none like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah: therefore ^p stood they before the king.

20 ^q And in all matters of [†] wisdom and understanding, that the king enquired of them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and astrologers that were in all his realm.

21 ^r And Daniel continued even unto the first year of king Cyrus.

CHAP. II.

1 Nebuchadnezzar forgetting his dream, requireth it of the Chaldeans, by ^s omises and threatenings. 10 They acknowledging their inability, are judged to die. 14 Daniel obtaining some respite, findeth the dream: 19 he blesteth God: 24 he staying the decree, is brought to the king. 31 The dream. 36 The interpretation. 46 Daniel's advancement.

AND in the second year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar Nebuchadnezzar dreamed dreams, ^a wherewith his spirit was troubled, and ^b his sleep brake from him.

2 ^c Then the king commanded to call the magicians, and the astrologers, and the forcerers, and the Chaldeans, for to shew the king his dreams. So they came and stood before the king.

3 And the king said unto them, I have dreamed a dream, and my spirit was troubled to know the dream.

4 Then spake the Chaldeans to the king in Syriack, ^d O king, live for ever: tell thy servants the dream, and we will shew the interpretation.

5 The king answered and said to the Chaldeans, The thing is gone from me: if ye will not make known unto me the dream, with the interpretation thereof, ye shall be ^e cut in pieces, and your houses shall be made a dunghill.

6 ^f But if ye shew the dream, and the interpretation thereof, ye shall receive of me gifts and [†] rewards and great honour:

out ¹¹ without hands, which smote the image upon his feet that were of iron and clay, and brake them to pieces.

35 Then was the iron, the clay, the brass, the silver, and the gold, broken to pieces together, and became ^d like the chaff of the summer threshingfloors; and the wind carried them away, that ^e no place was found for them: and the stone that smote the image ^f became a great mountain, ^g and filled the whole earth.

36 This is the dream; and we will tell the interpretation thereof before the king.

37 ^h Thou, O king, art a king of kings: ⁱ for the God of heaven hath given thee a kingdom, power, and strength, and glory.

38 ^k And whosoever the children of men dwell, the beasts of the field and the fowls of the heaven hath he given into thine hand, and hath made thee ruler over them all. ^l Thou art this head of gold.

39 And after thee shall arise ^m another kingdom ⁿ inferior to thee, and another third kingdom of brass, ^o which shall bear rule over all the earth.

40 And ^p the fourth kingdom shall be strong as iron: forasmuch as iron breaketh in pieces and subdueth all things: and as iron that breaketh all these, shall it break in pieces and bruise.

41 And whereas thou sawest ^q the feet and toes, part of potter's clay, and part of iron, the kingdom shall be divided; but there shall be in it of the strength of the iron, forasmuch as thou sawest the iron mixed with miry clay.

42 And as the toes of the feet were part of iron, and part of clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong, and partly ¹¹ broken.

43 And whereas thou sawest iron mixed with miry clay, they shall mingle themselves with the seed of men: but they shall not cleave [†] one to another, even as iron is not mixed with clay.

44 And in [†] the days of these kings ^r shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom, ^s which shall never be destroyed: and the ^t kingdom shall not be left to other people, ^u but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand for ever.

45 ^v Forasmuch as thou sawest that the stone was cut out of the mountain ¹¹ without hands, and that it brake in pieces the iron, the brass, the clay, the silver, and the gold; the great God hath made known to the king what shall come to pass [†] hereafter: and the dream is certain, and the interpretation thereof sure.

46 [¶] Then the king Nebuchadnezzar fell upon his face, and worshipped Daniel, and commanded that they should offer an oblation ^v and sweet odours unto him.

47 The king answered unto Daniel, and said, Of a truth it is, that your God is a God of gods, and a Lord of kings, ^z and a revealer of secrets, seeing thou couldest reveal this secret.

48 Then the king made Daniel a great man, ^a and gave him many great gifts, and made him ruler over the whole province of Babylon, and ^b chief of the governors over all the wise men of Babylon.
